Scattered Shots

By the Editor

In response to a flood of requests (3), here is another column, which is respectfully called to the attention of Rev. Melvin Mathis of McAdoo, Mr. Billy A. Combs of Memphis and Mr. M. O. Weatherly of Hedley:

I'm Beat, Nick!

Dear Santa Claus, Saint Nick,
Migosh, that sounds corny,
Like ducking for apples
In old Californy.
So make with the reindeers,
Come out of your pad;
Load up the goodies
And get with it, Dad.
We're all non-conformist,
We can't abide fetters,
So bring us a truck load
Of Turtle neck sweaters.
For pants we can make out with
Some tramp's discards,
But make the chick happy
With black leotards.
We'll have no truck
With placid sobriety;
Down with conformists
And down with society.
Down with the gentleman,
Down with the rube;
If you think otherwise
You're an eight sided cube.
Don't bring us furniture,
We've got a box;
Don't bring us neckties,
And we don't wear socks.
Don't bring us jackets
And don't bring us jeans;
Just bring us a couple
Of cases of beans.
We're not anti-eating,
That's one thing we're pro;
Do you dig me, Jackson?
We're Beat, Daddy O.

Mrs. Royce Hall returned last Friday from Etter, where T. E. Naylor is reported doing fine after an operation in an Amarillo hospital.

The Don Carson family of Borger visited the Tom Tates last week end.

50th Anniversary

On Wednesday evening, December 9th, Hedley Lodge No 991 A. F. & A. M. held open house in celebration of their 50th anniversary. The meeting was held in the Lions Den with more than 60 members, their wives, members of the Hedley Chapter of the Eastern Star and other guests.

An enjoyable buffet style meal was served in the dining room decorated in Christmas motif. The Worshipful Master W. P. Doherty acted as Master of Ceremonies and extended his thanks to all present and to the ladies who helped in preparing and serving the meal.

Mrs. Pauline Morris Past Worthy Matron and present Secretary of Hedley Chapter 413 Order of Eastern Star, expressed her thanks to the Masons for their invitation and expressed the hope that all present could and would be present 6 years hence when the local chapter would celebrate their 50th anniversary.

Carl Morris then related some of the beginnings of the Hedley Lodge. The Lodge was organized with 21 charter members and was set to work under dispensation May 15, 1909, with 16 Masons present. Bro. H. D. Ramsey D. D. G. M. acted in behalf of the Grand Master. J. W. Bond was elected Worshipful Master and E. R. Clarke Secretary. On Dec 9, 1909, the Charter was granted by the Grand Lodge of Texas, while on Jan. 15, 1910, Bro. A. M. Beville D. D. G. M. set the Lodge to work under their Charter. J. W. Bond was elected Worshipful Master and served the lodge several different times afterward in this capacity. J. B. Masterson was elected Secretary at this time also.

W. H. Jones, the oldest Past Worshipful Master present, made an interesting talk relating to those early years. Present also was Past D. D. G. M. Fred A. Watt.

Letter to Santa Claus

Dear Santa Claus,
We are three little girls, six, five and two years old. All we want for Christmas is a doll for each that is just alike. Also plenty of fruit, candy and goodies. We have tried to be real good little girls. Thank you very much.
Your little friends,
Shirley, Kay, and Billie Nivens

Mrs. Mary Ella Moore

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Ella Moore, 81, who passed away Thursday of last week in Wellington, were held Saturday from the Newlin Baptist Church by Rev. Joe W. Allison, pastor of the Esteline Baptist Church, and Rev. S. A. Wolfe, pastor of the Hedley Methodist Church. Burial was in the Newlin cemetery under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Mrs. Moore, who lived at Newlin, had been a resident of Hall County for 45 years.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Florence Cornell of Paradise, Calif.; two sons, Henry Moore of Hedley and Clarence Moore of Memphis; a brother, George Bowser of Sulphur, Okla.; seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Chicken Dinner

The Junior Class will serve a chicken dinner in the Lions Den on Sunday, Dec. 20.

The menu will include chicken and dressing, giblet gravy, creamed potatoes, English peas and carrots, salad, hot rolls, pie, coffee and tea. The charge for adults will be $1.00, age 6 to 12 will be 75¢, and under 6 will be 35¢.

Come out and help the Juniors.

Santa Claus Coming to Hedley Dec. 19

According to word received this week from the North Pole old Santa Claus will pay his annual visit on the Saturday afternoon before Christmas which is Dec 19. He is due to arrive at 3 p. m. on the main business block of Hedley. "Last year," said Santa, "I talked to boys and girls from Hedley and the surrounding communities and I hope they will be there again. I will have a present for each and every one of them and would like to know what they want for Christmas."

Santa will make this trip by jet plane as he wishes Donner and Blitzen and his other reindeer to rest up for their trip all over the world the night of Christmas Eve. So if you see a jet plane come over it may be old Santa. The Fire boys will meet him in the fire truck and bring him and his sack of presents into town. Don't fail to be there waiting for him.

Mrs. James Evans came home last week from an Oklahoma City hospital, and is reported doing nicely.

Mrs. Roy McKee has been ill in a Memphis hospital.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to Each and Everyone

Instead of sending local Christmas cards this year we are taking the above means of extending our Greetings through a special Christmas fund contribution to Boys Ranch.

Lelia Lake-Hedley PTA Council Entertained

A very good crowd was present for the P T A meeting Monday night. Business conducted was at a minimum and an excellent Christmas program by the school children was enjoyed.

The program under the direction of Mrs. W. W. Pinkerton, public school music teacher for Hedley and Lelia Lake schools, included songs by the high school choir, 1st and 2nd grades, and the 3rd grade. The program was concluded with a Christmas pageant put on by the 4th grade with songs by a choir made up of high school and Lelia Lake students. Jon Leggitt was master of ceremonies.

Students whose voices were featured in solo and duet parts included Mark Haskins and Cindy Saunders Nancy Saunders, Inelda Shields and Willa Rampy, Lois Proctor, and Sue Alexander.

Mrs. Loyd Bailey returned Tuesday of last week from Lubbock, where Mrs Raymond Bailey had been in a hospital.

T. A. Shaban of Childress, District Manager for the West Texas Utilities Co. C. A. Pitts of Clarendon, Local Manager, and Miss Myrtle Reeves of the Hedley office entertained the members of the Hedley City Council with a fine steak dinner Monday night at the Cotton Bowl Cafe. Miss Reeves acted as hostess for the occasion, which everyone present enjoyed very much.

Delicious T-bone steaks with all the trimmings were served to Miss Reeves, Mr. Shaban, Mr. Pitts, Mayor C. H. Reid, M. O. Weatherly, C. L. Taylor, Henry Moore, Charlie Johnson, V. T. McPherson and Ed Boliver.

Following the meal, a business session of the City Council was held at the City Hall and Mr. Shaban made a very interesting and instructive talk on some phases of the West Texas Utilities Co.'s operations.

Everyone reported a very enjoyable time.

McFarlands Write

Here we are once more with the Season's Greetings to all our Hedley friends. We see many new names, but feel they are our friends too.

May all have a happy Christmas, and health and happiness through 1960.

Some Have Scoffed

As long as there has been a populated world, some of the people have scoffed at the idea of a living God, and have denied that Jesus, His Son, came to earth to live among men for a while to establish his kingdom here. As time goes on and the population grows those who would deny God are more numerous. A look at Christ as a man is sufficient proof of his kingship for he lived the most strangely beautiful life. Born into humble surroundings, he grew up constantly doing good. His love for mankind was so great it is impossible to describe in human words. He toiled up Golgotha's hill in shame and was hanged between two robbers. To an on looker it would have seemed that all was lost, but Christ rose from the dead to join His Father in heaven and was given power over all things until the final judgement day. In the 3rd chapter of Revelation Jesus through John said to a certain church, "There are still a few of you who have not deiled your garments and will walk with me in white." But He also said He would deny to God anyone who denied him in this life.
