All the boys' hogs sold well. Foster Pickett kept all pigs in the entire show from falling below 17¢.

The boys had 4 hogs that didn't place in the show but through their good salesmanship they were able to secure several cents above market price from a Dimmitt cafe operator.

On Wednesday Hedley FFA entered the Livestock Judging Contest in competition with 52 teams from FFA Chapters of the panhandle. They placed in the top 20%. The boys on the team were Jerry Kinney, David Moreman and Gene Floyd; alternates were Bobby Stephens, Jon Leggitt, David Morris and Johnny Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Spalding announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Kathleen, to Bill Mathews, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mathews of Amarillo. The couple will be married Feb. 14 at 7:00 p m in the First Methodist Church, Hedley, Texas.

Friends of the couple are invited

Giles Pioneer Club

The Giles Pioneer Club met Thursday, Jan. 28, in the home of Mrs. Mary Stotts.

The club president, Mrs. Stotts, presided over a short business meeting. Mrs. Audra Foster had charge of the program on Health, and was aided in presenting the program by several of the members.

The afternoon was spent working on a quilt for the hostess.

A tasty refreshment plate was served to Mrs. Jackie Ranson, Mrs. G. T. Foster, Mrs. Ruby Glass, Mrs. Annie Mae Sims, Mrs. Edna Wilson, Mrs. Inez Hunt, Mrs. Hazel Darnell and Michael, Mrs. Nita Bailey, Mrs. Audra Foster, Miss Nelda Stotts and Mrs. Stotts.

Notice

If you are interested in your county's finances, look over the annual report of the County Clerk, which appears elsewhere in this issue, and get the facts.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stotts are visiting in Hedley and Clarendon this week, and we thank him for a two year renewal of his Informer subscription. Tom always renews before his Informer expires, a habit we wish a lot of other people would adopt.

Rev. W. M. Culwell

Funeral services for Rev. William Matt Culwell, 60, who passed away Tuesday of last week, were held Thursday from the Methodist Church at Avoca. Burial was in the Avoca cemetery. At the time of his death he was pastor of the Sparenberg Methodist Church southeast of Lamesa. He had also served as pastor at Muleshoe, Jayton, Sundown, Anson, Sweetwater, Hedley, and others. He was a native of Jones County.

He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Loyd Livingston of Seminole, and a son, Billy Culwell of Lamesa.

Road Petition

A delegation of some 18 Hedleyans and about 15 residents of McLean visited the courthouse in Clarendon last Thursday and presented the petition on the proposed road to connect highways 273 and 203.

On motion made by Frank Murray and seconded by Jess Finley, the commissioners court voted unanimously to endorse the road petition, and will furnish a copy of the petition and their resolution endorsing it to be taken to Austin and laid before the highway commission.

Citizens of this county and McLean took a very gratifying interest in the proposed road.

LIONS ROAR

Our local Lions enjoyed the company of District Governor Don Zimmerman, and Mrs. Zimmerman, from Hereford at the last meeting. We were proud of our turnout, having 25 of 31 active members present. Only a few more and we could show 100% on our Report. Governor Zimmerman made an interesting talk on the Lions International work. He also complimented the Hedley Lions Club for being one of the most active in the District. The club also had as their guest, Ed Boliver. Although not a Lion, he has helped with many club projects. The club is in the process of building a new club meeting room. When the new room is finished, it will make a nice community meeting place.

Our next regular meeting is Feb. 11. Let's try for that 100% attendance.

Forbis Announces

John T. Forbis of Childress, who is seeking the Democratic nomination to the office of District Attorney, has authorized the following announcement of his candidacy.

"One of the true privileges of my life has been that of serving as your District Attorney during the past term.

"It is with true humility that I again request of you the opportunity of serving in this office. May I use this public means of requesting your continued support in the coming primary.

"I feel that I have been unusually fortunate in the cooperation and assistance I have received from the peace officers and general public of the district, and this assistance has been of tremendous benefit to me in my efforts to perform the duties of this office.

"Law enforcement is the direct responsibility of every individual, and I honestly desire to hear the views of any interested person in every case I am called upon to prosecute. Please come forward with your suggestions, criticisms and assistance."

Bridal Shower

A number of Baptist ladies honored Norma Jean Carlton, bride-elect of Ned Sweatt, with a shower Saturday in the Fellowship Hall of the Baptist Church.

In the receiving line were the honoree, her mother, Mrs. J. R. Carlton, Mrs. Tom Sweatt, mother of the groom-to-be, and Mrs. Elva Davis.

Miss Mary Baker presided at the register and Miss Brenda White poured punch. Miss Patti Patton furnished music for the occasion.

A large assortment of attractive gifts were on display.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks for all the visits and cards I have received while I have been ill. I have appreciated them very much.

F. S. Blackwell

Chaplain and Mrs. Rex Kendall visited here last week end from Fort Hood. He also officiated at the Thompson-Whatley wedding at Canyon Friday.

Mrs. J. M. Baker is reported doing nicely after an operation Saturday in a Memphis hospital.
