HEDLEY, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, JULY 1, 1960

NO. 36

Reeves-Wright

Miss Katherine Wright, daughter of Mrs. Lucille V. Wright, and the late Don Wright was married at 6 p. m. June 25th, in the First Baptist Church of Memphis to Don Reeves, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leon Reeves of Hedley. Rev. Fern A. Miller, pastor of the church, read the double ring ceremony. Mrs. T. L. Rouse, organist, played nuptial music and accompanied Rev. Paul Hancock, pastor of the First Christian church of Clarendon as he sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bridal party stood in front of an arch of white mums intertwined with greenery, flanked by candelabra with white tapers, and tall baskets of mums. Family pews were marked with white bows and daisies.

Carol Ann Monzingo, Memphis, maid of honor was attired in yellow silk organza over taffeta featuring a full skirt and cummerbund. Bridesmaid Linda Fields of Amarillo and Junior bridesmaid Diane Gailey, cousin of the bride wore dresses identical to that of Miss Monzingo. All wore head bands of white daisies, white gloves, and carried bouquets of daisies.

Bill Reeves of Fort Worth, brother of the groom was best man. Groomsmen were Bill Jones, Plainview, brother-in-law of the groom, and Terry Bailey, Perryton. Gayle Monzingo and Jack Montgomery lighted the candles.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her brother, Don Wright Jr. of Amarillo, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza styled with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. The yoke was fashioned of alencon lace with sabrina neck. A beaded coronet held the bride's finger tip veil of silk illusion. She wore lace mitts and carried a white satin Bible with an arrangement of white sweetheart roses, festooned with pearls. The tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue, with a silver sixpence in my shoe, was observed.

Bruce Wright, nephew of the bride, carried the rings on a lace edged satin pillow.

Following the wedding a reception for the bridal party relatives, out-of town guests and shower hostesses was held in the home of Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard aunt of the bride, with Mrs. D. M. Foster of Canyon, also an aunt of the bride, sharing the hostess honors.

The young couple was assisted in receiving the guests by members of the wedding party. Mrs. Don Wright Jr. secured signatures in the wedding book.

The bride's table was laid with a floor length hand embroidered table cloth, centered with an arrangement of the bouquets of the bride and her bridesmaids and silver candlesticks holding white candles. The beautiful 3 tiered wedding cake was topped by miniature bride and groom. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl. Assisting with hostess duties were the bride's cousins, Mrs. Frank Stallings, Austin, Mrs. Dwight Kinard and Mrs. A. L. Gailey, Memphis. Friends of the bride and groom who also assisted were Mrs. Durwood Henderson of Canyon, Mrs. Gayle Monzingo, Misses Joan Odom and Joy Beth Parks.

Mrs. Wright chose for her daughter's wedding a bone shaded lace dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink frenched carnations with blue accent. Miss Myrtle Reeves, aunt of the groom, chose a gown of blue silk organza with blue accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

For travel the bride wore a black pique sheath with white feather hat, and wore a corsage of roses from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Reeves was graduated from West Texas State College and is a teacher in the Amarillo Public Schools. Mr. Reeves attended Clarendon Junior College and West Texas State College where he will resume his studies in the fall. He is currently employed at Taylor Evans Farm Store. Mr. and Mrs. Reeves will live in Amarillo.

Courtesies for the bride and groom included a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. F. E. Monzingo with other friends sharing hostess honors. Also a tea shower given in Hedley by friends of the groom and his family, and a rehearsal dinner hosted by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gailey and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kinard in the Gailey home in Memphis.

The Sam Owens Jr. family of San Diego, Calif., are visiting in the Harrison Hall and Sam Owens homes this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moreman of Killeen visited home folks here last week end.

New Deputies Named To Wed July 16

Sheriff Truett Behrens has announced the appointment of his new deputies. At Clarendon the deputy will be Ralph Hill, who is well known to citizens here, having been employed for some time with the City Gas Co.

At Hedley will be Jimmy Thompson, a native of Clarendon. He plans to move here with his wife, the former Aleta Coleman, as soon as housing is available.

Both deputies assumed their duties Monday.

Lloyd Croslin

Funeral services were held last Thursday at Lubbock for Lloyd Croslin, 50, who passed away in a Lubbock hospital after a series of heart attacks. Burial was in a Lubbock cemetery.

A native of Lamar County, Mr. Croslin graduated from Hedley High School in 1927 and from Texas Tech in 1932. He taught school at Post and Colorado City, was secretary to Rep. George Mahon for about eight years, and served two terms as district attorney at Lubbock.

He is survived by his wife, Frances; three sons, Lloyd Jr., Lowell and Eddie; a daughter, Carolyn; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Croslin of Plainview; and a sister, Lottie Croslin of Lubbock.

To Study at A&M

David Moreman has received a letter from John J. Sperry, Program Director, concerning the project he will study at A & M College from July 18 to August 26. His project assignment is on Food Preservation, and he will study Protein and Amino Acid Metabolism and the Metabolism of Certain Fungi. His sponsor is Dr. L. R. Richardson of the Dept. of Biochemistry and Nutrition.

David will work on his project each day from 1 to 5 p. m., and will have the opportunity to participate in many aspects of fine research.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Graham of Tuscon, Ariz., visited the Hollie Byers family over the week end.

Our thanks to John Aufill of Lubbock for a clipping on the death of Lloyd Croslin.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alexander of Hedley have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Bonnie Ruth, to Benny Darrell Lesley, son of Mrs. J. J. Pipkin of Hereford.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Hedley High School and is now a sophomore at North Texas State College. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, national honor fraternity, and the Methodist Student Movement.

Mr. Lesley is a graduate of Borger High School and Clarendon Junior College. He is a senior at North Texas State College and will graduate in January.

The couple will be married at the First Methodist Church of Hedley on July 16.

Mrs. Mary Jane White

Funeral services were held Monday for Mrs. Mary Jane White, 88, of Wellington, who passed away at her home there Saturday. Burial was in the Quail cemetery. Mrs. White came to Collingsworth County 54 years ago.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Vera Coffee of Wellington; five sons, Henry of Dimmitt, Obie, Opie and Chester of Quail, and Leslie of Wellington; 25 grandchildren and 34 great-grandchildren.

Visiting in the Ray Moreman home Sunday were Mrs. C. M. Whitmore of Houston, Mrs. W. M. Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. Temple Deaver Jr. and son of Memphis.

Lura Dell Moore is visiting in Amarillo.

LIONS ROAR

Sixty seven Lions, ladies, and guests enjoyed the installation of officers by District Governor Don Zimmerman, and fine singing by Jack Barry, Amarillo entertainer. Gov. Zimmerman made an appeal for any kind of old eye glasses that you may have lying around the house. These glasses will be sent to India to help people who can't afford glasses. Any kind of glasses, regardless of condition or age are needed. If you have glasses to give leave them at Security State Bank. One person has already searched their house, and brought in nine pair

Although few Hedley people had heard him before, Jack Barry turned out to be one of the finest entertainers to perform in Hedley. In singing Al Jolson favorites, and songs from the show, "Oklahoma" he certainly won the appreciation of his audience. We hope to have Jack here again this fall.

Our regular meeting July 14th is our new president Harold White's 100% attendance meeting.

He will need your help in the coming year. Let's show him you will give it by starting his year out with 100% attendance at his first meeting.
