Mrs. Flowers was born Sept. 29, 1896 in Calhoun County, Miss. She was married to Clyde Ellis Flowers on June 10, 1914. They moved to Donley County in 1941 from Clarksville.

She is survived by her husband; five daughters, Mrs. Odessa Matthews and Mrs. Annie Mae Fowler of Clarendon, Mrs. Leveta Matthews of Heford, Mrs. Ceola Moore of Claude and Mrs. Letha Long of Abilene; two sons, Doice

School Repairs To Be Considered

In a special meeting, the Hedley school board met with a bonds man and representatives of an architectural firm to discuss possibilities of repairing the school plant. The meeting was called due to the interest of school patrons who had expressed an interest in this project.

The board decided, after hearing a discussion on the financial aspects and building requirements, to employ these people to make a survey and report back to the local board at their earliest convenience. If the report seems feasible the issue will be brought before the people to determine their wishes. This will be done in an open meeting.

This survey entails no obligation on the part of the school unless positive action is taken by the people of this school district.

School Field Day

The Hedley school students, teachers and a number of parents enjoyed the annual field day last Friday. The high school visited Amarillo Air Force Base, the grade school visited the Canyon Museum and both groups got together for a picnic lunch in Palo Duro Canyon and Jimmie of Amarillo; two sisters, Mrs. Annie Pate of California and Mrs. Inez Spencer of Valliant, Okla., and 24 grandchildren.

Clifford Johnson Resigns as Mayor

At regular City Council meeting last Thursday night, Mayor Clifford Johnson resigned his office, and was appointed as Hedley representative on the Greenbelt Water Authority. This position had been left vacant by the resignation of A. W. Anderson, who had withdrawn as Greenbelt director due to other business.

The administration of Mayor Johnson had been quite successful, with the Hedley water system much improved and other improvements made, while the City's bonded indebtedness has continued to decrease. He has been active on the Greenbelt water project even before the water authority was created, and felt that he could serve Hedley better on the water authority than as Mayor.

The Council appointed D. E. Boliver to fill out the unexpired term of Mayor Johnson.

Fred Hoggatt

Fred Hoggatt, 73, a retired farmer, passed away Monday evening in a Groom hospital. He had been ill for some time.

Mr. Hoggatt was born July 30, 1889 in Joplin, Mo. He was married to Miss Etta Gossett Dec. 7, 1947, in Memphis. He lived in Hall County for a number of years, moving to Hedley in 1953.
