Mack Bush Resigns

At a board meeting Monday night, Supt. Mack Bush resigned, to accept a position as area representative for F. E. Compton and Co.

Mr Bush has served as Hedley school supt. for three years. We regret to lose him and his family, but wish them success in their new location.

Hill Family Reunion

The J. F. Hill family will hold their annual reunion on Sunday, Aug. 11, in Hedley city park.

Friends are invited to visit with the Hills during the day.

Greenbelt Dam

A meeting of the board of directors of the Authority is to be held soon, probably this week. They will pass on the petition from Crowell to join the Authority, who will be very welcome, as well as other matters.

Representatives of R. A. Underwood and Co., the Authority's financial counselors, have been making a survey of the interested cities and preparing a question and answer report for each town.

They finished at Quanah the early part of last week and are working this way. The data should be ready for this meeting.

To Teach at El Paso

Aubrey Cherry has accepted a position with Coronado High School in El Paso as teacher and athletic trainer. He will also serve as 8th grade basketball coach. His family expects to move to El Paso in late August.

Amendments

Appearing in the Informer this week are two of the four constitutional amendments to be voted on in November. These might well be worth a little study.

Visiting in the Alfred Spalding home last week end were the Doug Lowes from Jayton, the Bill Mathews from Texhoma and the Loyd Dean Messers from Sunray.

Mrs. T. N. Messer suffered painful bruises in a fall at her home Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. D. L. Hickey

Another long time resident of Hedley, Mrs. D. L. (Lydia) Hickey, 79, passed away Wednesday of last week in a Lubbock rest home. Funeral services were held Friday in the First Baptist Church here by Rev. Amos Meadows and Rev. Gene Grace. Burial was in Rowe cemetery under direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were grandsons. Mrs. Hickey was born March 18, 1884 in New Albany, Ind. She was married to D. L. Hickey July 10, 1901 at Vashti, Texas. They had lived in Donley County for 41 years, moving here from Bowie. She was a charter member of the First Church of the Nazarene at Bowie.

She is survived by her husband; four sons, Elvin of Lubbock, Paul of Midland, Marvin of Olney and Don of El Paso; two daughters, Mrs. W. J. Spain of Lubbock and Mrs. Waller Diggs of Amarillo; nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The bodices were sleeveless, styled with round necklines in front and low V in the back, featuring a full gathered skirt. They wore headdresses of yellow taffeta rosettes with nose-length veils of yellow net, and they carried bouquets of white daisies with streamers. All wore short white gloves except the matron of honor and she wore white lace.

Candle lighters were Miss Cynthia Evans and Miss Gayle Widener of Memphis, cousins of the bride. Their dresses were styled identically to those of the bridesmaids. They wore arm wristlets of white daisies.

Mosley-Reed Wedding

Flower girls were Miss Sheri Davis and Miss Rane Wilson both of Memphis and cousins of the bride and Miss Sarah Ann Smith of Hobbs, New Mexico, niece of the groom. They were attired in pale yellow dacron dresses over batiste. The bodices were sleeveless, round necklines in front and low V in back. The wide cummerbund sashes tied in a large bow at the back of the softly gathered skirts ending with a deep hemline. They wore headdresses of yellow taffeta rosettes with nose length veils of net and they scattered flower petals from white net baskets with yellow bows.

Randy Wilson of Memphis,

DUB'S BARBER SHOP

cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer. He carried the rings on a lace edged satin pillow studded with seed pearls.

Doyle Baggett of Amarillo served as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were John Binkley of Memphis, brother in law of the bride, Montye Smith of Hobbs, New Mexico, brother-in-law of the groom and Bobby Roland of McLean.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of imported chantilly lace over tulle taffeta designed with a front lace panel, side and back tiers of scalloped lace and net ruffles. The full skirt was accented with a taffeta bustle sweeping into a wide free flowing court train. The fitted bodice was highlighted with a scalloped scooped neckline touched with pearls and sequins, and long sleeves that tapered to points over the wrists. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a coronet, studded with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations and stephanotis centered with a white orchid. She also wore a single strand of pearls given to her as a gift from the groom.

The tradition of "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue, with a silver sixpence in my shoe," was observed.

Following the wedding a reception for the bridal party, relatives, out-of-town guests and friends was held in the church parlor. The parents assisted the young couple in receiving the guests. Miss Suetta Lemon and Mrs. Ben E. Davis secured the signatures in the wedding book.

Piano selections were played by Vivian Maddox during the reception. A lovely arrangement of daisies decorated the piano with a miniature bride and groom. Streamers of white net and wedding bells decorated the opposite wall.

The bride's table was laid with a floor length cloth of yellow net over taffeta, edged with satin ribbon centered with a silver candelabra and crystal bowl filled with an arrangement of the bouquets of the bride and her bridesmaids. The divided tiered cake was beautifully decorated and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl.

Assisting with hostess duties were Mesdames H. E. Craig, Ben E. Davis, John Binkley, Montye Smith, and Benson Long, and Misses Velma Hutcheson, Cynthia Evans, and Gayle Widener.

Mrs. Reed chose for her daughter's wedding a turquoise chiffon sheath dress with white accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Mosley, chose an aqua silk organza dress with white accessories. Both wore shoulder corsages of feathered carnations and stephanotis.

For travel, as the couple left on their honeymoon, Mrs. Mosley chose a two piece ensemble with a white candy striped jersey dress and a green three quarter linen coat. She wore white accessories and a white orchid taken from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended the local high school and the groom is a graduate of Hedley High School.

The couple will make their home on a ranch five miles west of Wheeler.

Courtesies for the bride and groom included a rehearsal dinner in the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mosley and a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. M. R. Long.

LIONS ROAR

Next week is regular Lions Club meeting. Eating time is 7:30 p. m. Come on time if you can, if not, come. There will be plenty to eat. A good program is in the making.

Bro. Bob Gill, J. B. Yates and a trio of musicians from Memphis furnished the program for last week's meeting, which was enjoyed by all.

Boss Lion Skim gave out a few committee appointments. It looks like every Lion is going to have a job for next year. How he does it will determine how the club will function.

Mrs. J. N. Neely

Funeral services for Mrs. J. N. Neely, 75, of Parnell, who passed away Tuesday of last week in a Childress hospital, were held Thursday in the Parnell Baptist Church. Burial was in the Hulver cemetery with Spicer Funeral Home in charge.
