NO. 31

Senior Trip

The Hedley Seniors returned Wednesday of last week from their annual trip reporting that it was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mr. DeBord seems to think that he should have been furnished a navigator, since he was apparently the only one aboard who could read a road map or a sign, but otherwise everything went smoothly. The ladies, one in particular can give you a detailed account of the coffee situation in Colorado.

In Colorado Springs on Saturday, the class visited the Miracle House, Van Briggles Pottery, and Ghost Town, rode the cog train up Mt. Manitou which seemed to be pretty high up until they finished off the day's activities with a train ride to the summit of Pike's Peak. They managed to bring down the same number that went up, but some of them were a trifle green on the return trip.

Sunday morning the Seniors went through the Cave of the Winds, to Seven Falls, Cheyenne Mountain Zoo, through the Garden of the Gods where one of the most interesting things was the giant viewer and some of their own group got into the act, and on to a tour of the Air Force Academy in the afternoon.

Monday morning they went to Denver where they went through City Park Zoo, the Natural History Museum, the Mint, the Wax Museum which was one of the highlights of the entire trip, featuring life size figures portraying famous personalities, and to the Lakeside Amusement Park.

Tuesday the class went through the Colorado State Prison at Canon City, to the Royal Gorge and Buckskin Joe, and to Raton where they saw a show and then spent the night.

Wednesday they were homebound. Mrs. Shields had a brief visit with a brother while the rest of the group visited a curio shop in Clayton, they had lunch in Dalhart where they noticed the Hedley Cotton Festival listed among the things to do and see on the Golden Spread. They then toured Boys Ranch at Tascosa and on home.

Making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Connie DeBord, Mrs. Sue Shields, Mrs. Lloyd Leggitt, Alvin Alexander, Alvie Ray Butler, Tom Pat Leggitt, Ann Lynn,

Woodvin V. Youree

Another long time resident of Hedley, Woodvin Virgil Youree, passed away Wednesday of last week in an Amarillo hospital after a short illness. He was 63 years of age.

Funeral services were held Saturday in the First Baptist Church here by Rev. Gene Grace of Cooperas Cove and Rev. Bob Estes. Burial was in Rowe cemetery under direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were R. M. Saunders, Ray Moreman, Luther Owen Thompson, Frank M. Murray, Hoyce Kennedy and O'Neill Weatherly.

Mr. Youree was born Oct. 6, 1900 in Bosque County, Texas, and moved to Hedley with his parents in 1903. He was united in marriage to Miss Deila Hansard on March 21, 1935, in Hedley. He was a member of the Hedley Baptist Church.

He is survived by his wife; three sons, Don R. of Amarillo, Ronald J. and Jimmie L. of Hedley; two daughters, Mrs. Jerald Sims of Pampa and Mrs. J. L. Poff of Borger; his mother, Mrs. N. E. Youree of Hedley; one brother, L. C. Youree of Richmond, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Roy Stringer of Metairie, La.; one half sister, Mrs. Clea Lamberson of Amarillo; and nine grandchildren.

Susan Cox Is CJC Valedictorian

Miss Susan Cox, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Cox of Hedley, has been named Valedictorian of the 1964 graduating class at Clarendon Junior College. Graduation exercises have been scheduled for Friday, May 22, at 8:00 p. m. in the College Gymnasium.

Susan graduated from Hedley High School in May of 1962. She attended the University of Texas for one semester prior to her enrollment at Clarendon Junior College in 1963. Susan has been listed on the Dean's Honor Roll for each nine weeks this year.

Miss Elaine Behrens, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Truett Behrens, is now employed in the Security State Bank.

Deloris Sanders, Katrina Snelson and Cheryl Stegall.

Junior-Senior Banquet Seniors Honored

Shangri-La was the theme of the Junior-Senior banquet held in the Lions Den Friday evening May 15, at 8 o'clock.

The banquet hall was decorated as a Japanese garden. There were several flowering trees, nesting tropical birds. The center of interest was a rock garden, complete with a pool and fountain. A colored spotlight focused on the garden scene plus the light of the Japanese lanterns and the wind chimes gave an air of enchantment.

On the wall behind the banquet tables the name of the night club, Shangri-La, was displayed in glittering gold letters.

On the opposite wall a Japanese scene including the sacred mountain Fujiyama, painted by Richard Dickson, provided a background for the "floor show." Again a spotlight was used to enhance the scene.

The tables were decorated with branches of oriental blossoms and candles. The kitchen was screened from view with bamboo screens decorated with fresh roses.

Larry Altman, Junior class president, served as toastmaster. David Baker gave the invocation. Helen Wood, vice president of the Junior class, welcomed the guests. Ann Lynn gave the response. The class prophecy was given by Soo Nosey, Glyndol Holland. Cheryl Stegall gave the Senior class will. Ricki Rowell read a short history of the graduating class. Sue Alexander sang "Suki-yaki," and Cathy Harris, Clara Jo Stephens and Sue sang "Far Away Places." Thava Davis accompanied them. Ricky Skaggs struck chimes to indicate changes between parts of the program. Kathy Spier gave a humorous reading "I wish for a Lipstick," and Mrs. Sue Shields gave a brief talk on Life's Goals.

The guests were served appetizers upon their arrival by Ricky Skaggs and Glyndol Holland, who were dressed as Japanese.

The banquet was served by Jamie Evans, Sue Alexander, Gayle Hoggard, Kathy Spier, Cathy Harris, Marsha Snelson and Clara Jo Stephen. They were also dressed as Orientals.

The meal consisted of ham, whole kernel corn, green beans, new potatoes, salad, tea, strawberry shortcake and hot rolls.

Everyone was present but two,

The Hedley PTA honored the Seniors and several other guests with a salad supper Sunday evening preceding the baccalaureate service.

The supper was held in the school lunchroom, and the setting was very attractive, with the tables bearing bowls of yucca and roses, large white owls and symbols of graduation. Miniature graduates served as place cards.

Connie DeBord gave the invocation. Mrs. Dean Nivens, PTA president, gave the welcome, responded to by Ann Lynn, Senior class president. A group of Junior girls sang "Vaya Con Dios," after which everyone enjoyed the delicious meal of chicken salad, vegetable salad, jello salad, fruit salad, relish plate, assorted crackers and iced tea.

Supt. Kenneth Sams was speaker for the evening, and made both humorous and serious remarks. Doyle Messer gave the benediction.

Everyone enjoyed the affair very much. Seniors present were Alvin Alexander, Alvie Ray Butler, Cheryl Klinnert, Tom Pat Leggitt, Ann Lynn, and Deloris Sanders.

No Singing

There will be no singing at the Church of the Nazarene this Friday on account of the graduation exercises. The singing notice on another page was printed before we were informed of this.

Absentee Voting

Please note that absentee voting for the second primary will be from May 27 to June 2.

News From Our County Agent

This time of year farm people and town people are asking, "What can I use for red spiders and flies in the evergreen shrubbery?" This will also apply to ants around the house and other insects.

County Agent Flip Breedlove says that two of the best sprays to use around the house for the above purpose are Malathion and Isotox. These two sprays should be mixed exactly as the directions call for on the containers, and always remember that all sprays are considered poisonous. Always keep the wind blowing away from you, and when you get some on your skin, then use soap and water to remove.

Malathion is a good spray for the control of aphids on plants. This is especially true on alfalfa, says the county agent. If you need any information on the use of these sprays call Breedlove's office.
