Senior Class Play

The Senior Class is presenting Accidental Hero, by Phyllis Woodruff Sapp, as their annual class play, on Friday evening, Oct. 9, at 8 p. m. Admission is 50¢ for adults, 25¢ for children.

This is a 3 act farce that takes place in a high school which has been threatened by loss of extra-curricular "frills" so they set out to show their value by a bang-up presentation of a play.

The young and perhaps too serious coach does strange things with the castings, albeit for noble reasons. The self-styled glamour girl finds herself cast as a scrub woman; Tomboy Peggy is given the role of a grandmother; and John, interested only in designing chicken houses, is cast as the hero. Even Kitty who's to play the heroine's part, is unhappy. In the play she's required to kiss the hero and her father is running for the school board on a "Non-smooching" platform.

Rehearsals get under way and everyone gets underfoot. There's the school principal who has grease paint longings, the local reporter who's fond of the coach, and some nose-y PTA members who start a ticket rush to discover just how "questionable" the play is.

That's exactly what we want you to do, come out and see how "questionable" the play really is. The cast is as follows:

Jerry, Pat Chesser, ticket chairman who fancies himself as an artist.

Jim, Ernie Houdashell, inclined to boss, assigned as prompter.

Joe, Don Howell, assistant stage manager, likes girls.

Bob, Larry Altman, short and jolly, the play's "little brother."

Jean, Drena Crawford, a practical girl, assistant with tickets.

Kitty, Ricki Rowell, heroine, who has to contend with her father's whims.

Katheryn, Lanell Adams, afraid to act but a reliable property manager.

Gertrude, Thava Davis, too sophisticated for the part of scrub woman.

Peggy, Brend Winn, sport enthusiast, doubtful of her grandmother role.

Marilyn, Nancy Shaw, quite a talker, should do as the gossip neighbor.

Eugene, Bobby Wiggins, efficient stage manager, with Harold

Marvin G. Whitfield

Marvin G. Whitfield, 71, a long time resident of Hedley, passed away Thursday morning in an Amarillo hospital. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon in the Methodist Church here by Rev. Wilton Lynn and Rev. Robert Estes. Burial was in Rowe cemetery under direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Henry Moore, Ross Springer, Roy McKee, Ray Altman, Charlie Johnson, Woodroe Farris, Winfred Doherty and Hobart Moffitt.

Mr. Whitfield was born Nov. 7, 1892 in Tishomingo, Miss. He was married to Miss Ora Holland Aug. 15, 1915, in Clarendon. He was a member of the Hedley Methodist Church.

He is survived by his wife; one son, Marvin E. of Amarillo; a brother, H. L. of Amarillo; a sister, Mrs. Flora Warren of Las Vegas, Nev.; and one granddaughter, Mrs. Sandra Collins of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Mann of Miami, Fla., spent last week end in the J. F. Mann home.

David Moreman was at home last week end from College Station on his hands.

Harold, Glen Ward, all too faithful bell ringer and electrician.

Helen, Helen Wood, reporter for the school Bugle.

John, Gary Weatherly, dreamer and inventor, the unwilling star. Miss Smith, Janice Floyd, young attractive and very serious coach.

Mr. Wheat, Richard Dickson, school principal with grease paint longings.

Mr. Change, David Baker, newspaper reporter with the coach on his mind.

Mrs. Johnson, Mary Lynn, mother and ardent admirer of Gertrude.

Mrs. Witt, Helen Wood, zealous PTA member.

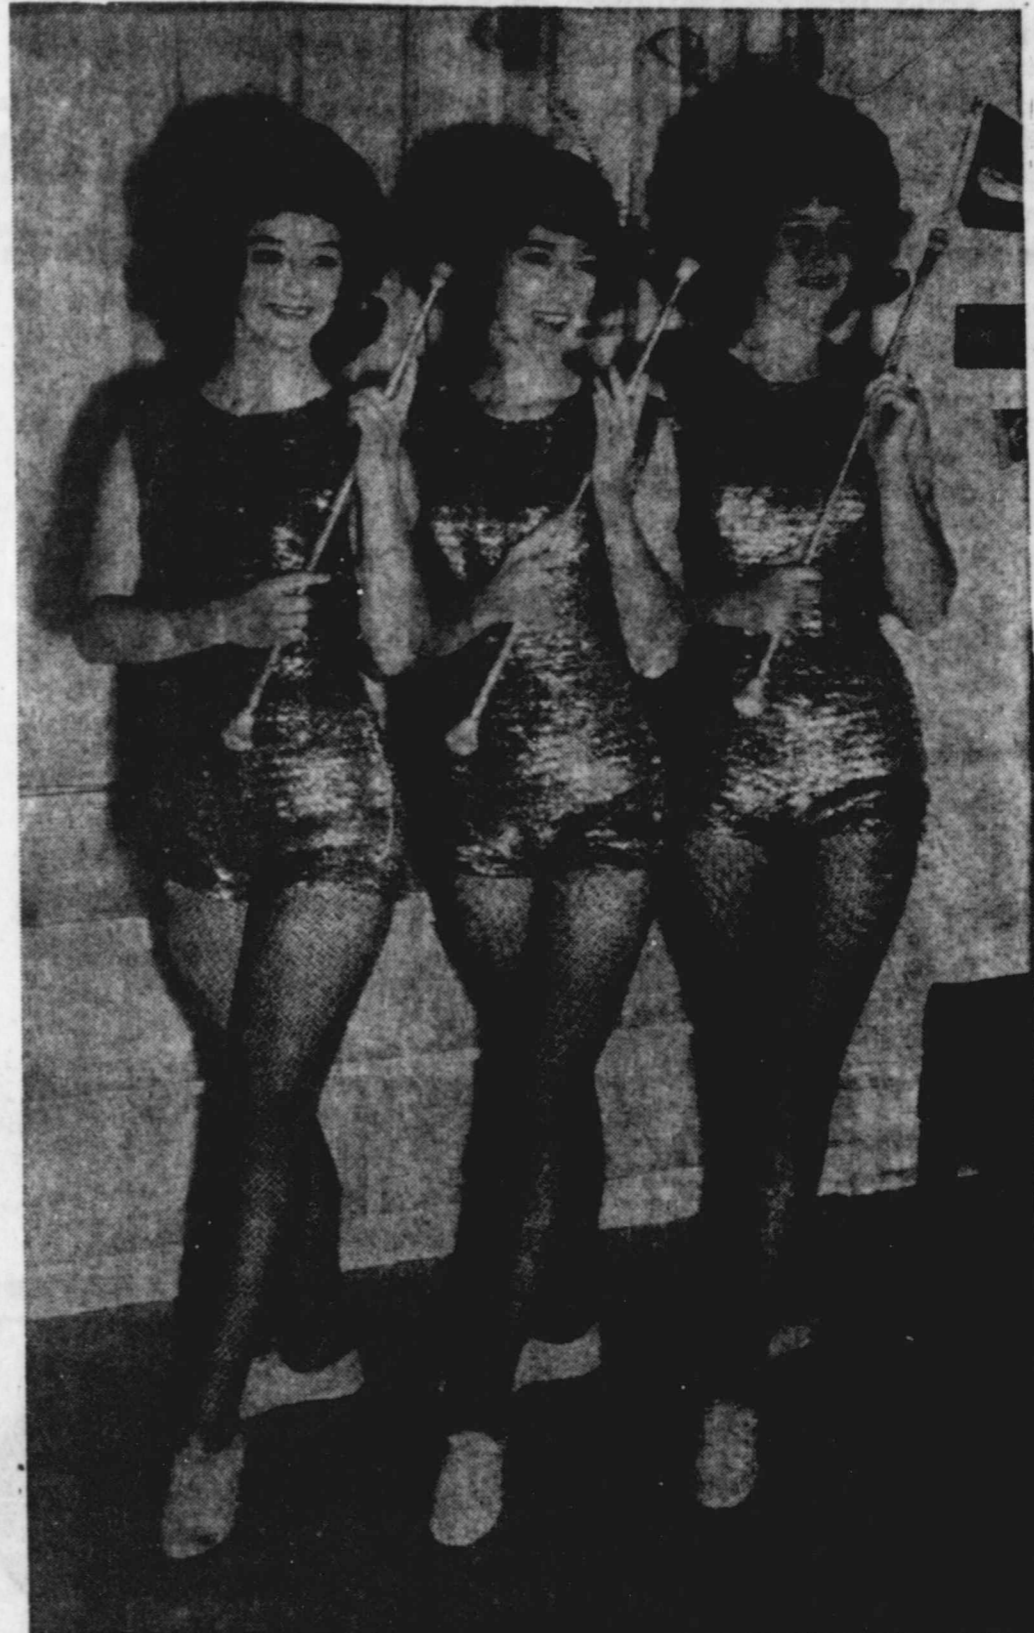

Mrs. Gabb, Thava Davis, zealous PTA member.

Jonesy and Smithy, David Baker and Glen Ward, her happy furniture haulers.

Mr. Snell, Bobby Wiggins, Kitty's father, stern candidate for the school board.

Accidental Hero was published by Eldridge Publishing Co. It was directed by Mrs. W. D. Messer.

Bonnie Gaye Black and Her Twirling Gayettes To Attend Hedley Cotton Festival

A Proclamation

Whereas cotton is the most useful and versatile fiber known to man incorporating more desirable characteristics, and

Whereas more cotton is consumed in textile uses than all other fibers combined and

Whereas more than 13 million people are dependent upon cotton for their livelihood, and

Whereas the new wealth created each year in the production of cotton is multiplied many times over through the various processes from field to finished fabric, and

Whereas many allied enterprises which supply goods and services are vitally concerned with a prosperous cotton industry, and

Whereas the economy of this community and area are closely identified with that of cotton, and

Whereas cotton is a strategic material in the preservation of

The Gayettes of Texas, from Quanah, under the sponsorship of Miss Bonnie Gaye Black, will perform at the Festival. They will march in the parade on Saturday, give a full performance that afternoon and a few numbers at the coronation that night.

The girls won third place in the world's champion trio twirling contest at the New York World's Fair and were recently on Ted Mack's Original Amateur CBS TV. They will be a welcome addition to our Festival events.

Vehicle Inspection

Austin—Col Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that the time has arrived for Texas motorists to have their vehicles inspected again.

Garrison said Sept. 1 marked the beginning of the 1965 vehicle inspection period as prescribed by the Public Safety Commission. As in previous years, the period will end on April 15, 1965.

"This means that between now and April 15, 1965, more than 5,200,000 Texas registered vehicles will have to be inspected at the 5,200 official inspection stations in Texas," he said.

Garrison urged motorists to have their vehicles inspected in the routine visits to garages for ordinary maintenance and repairs and thereby eliminate the necessity of having to wait in line at a later date for an inspection sticker.

The Midway for this Festival will again be the Central State Shows of Hazelton, Kans. They are now playing at the Lubbock Fair.

Carnival Chairman Jack Hoggard states that they will set up and be ready to operate Thursday night, Friday afternoon and night, and all day Saturday and Saturday night.

The show will be about the same size or larger. However they do plan to have two rides they didn't have here last year and maybe a concession or so. We are very glad to have them again. They are one of the cleanest carnivals on the road.

PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS

When Industry votes for your community . . . you are the winner

The campaign WTU is conducting to bring new industry to this service area is based upon a platform of economic advantages. That's because profitable operation is the objective of all industry on the move. But when you come right down to it, local enterprise, local activity, local leadership are the deciding factors in winning the race for new industry. That is why when industry votes for your community, your platform is adopted and YOU are the winner.
