RURAL CARRIERS HAVING MEETING

The rural mail carriers of Nacogdoches county have been in a very interesting meeting at the Woodmen Hall in this city today.

The meeting was called to order by President Willis P. Burrows about ten o'clock this morning who stated the object of the meeting.

By invitation, Mr. Eugene H. Blount delivered the address of welcome with characteristic ability, followed in response by Ralph Menefee, rural mail carrier of Chireno. Hon. Arthur A. Seale appeared at this time with some correspondence from the department and others in regard to the matter of some changes that are proposed in one of the Appleby routes, in which it was manifest that he was doing everything in his power to assist the carriers in forestalling this interruption to the service. Judge F. P. Marshall made an eloquent address in which he reviewed conditions that existed before we had the service and the blessings that had come with it.

At the conclusion of Judge Marshall's address the carriers went into a business session, discussing matters of direct interest in the work upon which they are engaged, and all appeared enthusiastic in the mission which brought them together.

The visiting carriers were guests of the local carriers at dinner, and the following were present: W. W. Turner, Garrison; John P. Coon, Holliday Petty, Appleby; Marvin Mitchell, Trawick; Ralph Menefee, Chireno; Will M. McCuiston, Mahl; Willis P. Burrows, Foster S. Martin, B. C. Castleberry, Nacogdoches. Visitors: J. R. Trawick, ex-postmaster, and D. E. Payne, postmaster Trawick; Tom Tatum, Mahl.

BRILLIANT PROGRAM WAS RENDERED

With These Exercises 14 Students of Nacogdoches High School Finish Work.

The graduating exercises of Nacogdoches High School, held in the auditorium of the new building last night, attracted a large crowd who witnessed the rendition of a most interesting and enjoyable program.

The exercises were begun about nine o'clock with the procession by Miss Willie Gramling at the piano when the handsome class of fourteen worthy boys and girls marched to the stage and took their places. The features of the evening were rendered as follows:

Processional, Miss Willie Gramling.
Salutatory, Miss Jessie Lee Mims.

Violin Solo, Jim Summers.
Salutatory, Robert Monk.
Valedictory, Miss Vera Spears.
Piano Solo, Miss Fannie Middlebrook.

The members of the class presented their parts well, exhibiting good training and careful preparation, and were the recipients of much applause. Bro. Westbrook was pressed into service at the 11th hour, but the program did not suffer in consequence as he delivered a great address with characteristic eloquence.

At the conclusion of the program Superintendent Davis announced that by reason of its affiliation with the higher institutions of learning Nacogdoches was given scholarships in the State University, Baylor College, Southwestern University, and other colleges for the best eight months advancement made by one boy and one girl. He further announced that Miss Vera Spears and Gilbert Thomas had best complied with these conditions and would receive the scholarships.

MRS. T. L. CORNELIUS WITH THE DEAD

A message was received by friends of the family in the city this morning bearing the sad news that Mrs. T. L. Cornelius was dead in Garrison, where she has been making her home the past several months, and that her remains would be laid to rest in the cemetery at that place at 5:00 o'clock this afternoon.

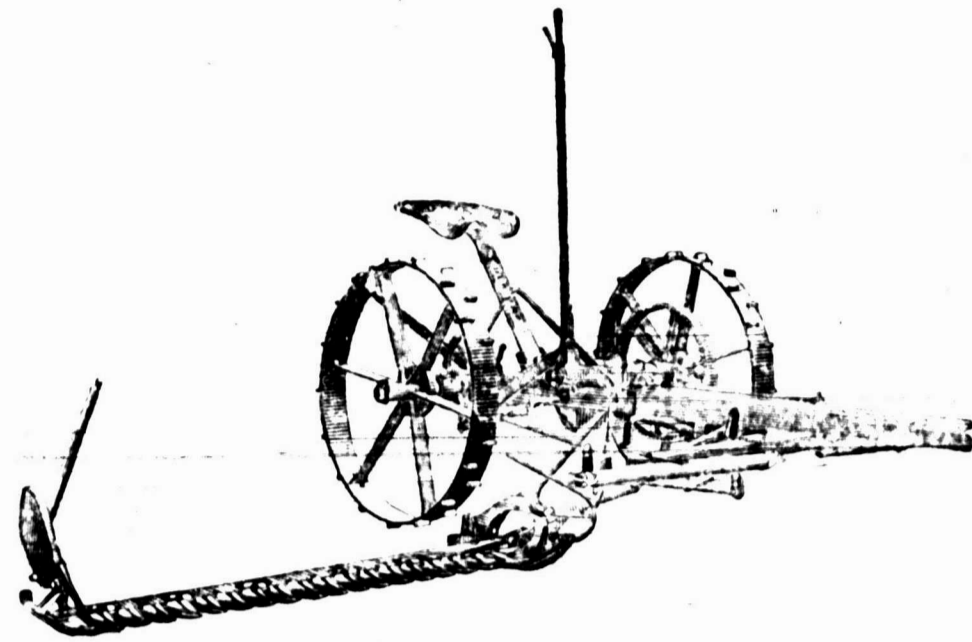

Previous to the removal of the family to Garrison, where they went for the lady's health, they made their home in this city for some time, and have many friends here who will be pained to learn of the sad death.

Mrs. Cornelius was an elegant christian lady, and bore her long suffering with sweet christian patience and fortitude, making a brave fight for her life, but ready for the call of her Master, and many friends will unite in profound sympathy with her husband and children in the great loss they have sustained.

HOGS EAT COW.

A very unusual thing happened at the home of Mr. John Baker, living near Appleby, a few days ago when some hogs feasted upon a cow while she was fastened in a position from which she could not extricate and defend herself.

The accident came as a result of the cow being shut up in a lot with a couple of mules. The mules with characteristic trait gave her chase and in an effort to get away from them she attempted to jump a cross fence which separated a hog pen from the lot, and in so doing got her hind feet hung in the fence with her head over in the hog pen. In this position the hogs assaulted her, and getting a taste of blood they proceeded to make a hearty meal from the body of their victim.

WHY NOT A SYRUP MILL?

In reporting an experiment being made with seeded ribbon cane by Mr. Sam Hayter, a prominent citizen of this city, who has in mind an idea for a syrup mill if the experiment seems to warrant it, The Sentinel seems to have not made the matter as clear as it should, and we herewith supplement the subject with a further review.

All varieties of the sorghum family of cane are known to grow to perfection on the sandy lands of this section while ribbon cane grows to perfection on the bottom lands but does not do so well on the sandy lands. The seeded ribbon cane is said to produce a good quality of syrup and it is the gentleman's idea to assist or encourage this crop for the benefit of the farmers who have no bottom land, and there would be no better way than to establish a mill with which to work it up. With a little addition of machinery a sugar refinery could be added, and thus we would have facilities for handling the products of both varieties of land and an industry that would be worth much to the agricultural and industrial interests of this glorious section of East Texas.

We sincerely hope that the experiment will prove profitable with Mr. Hayter, who has the means and business ability to handle an industry of this kind or any other kind of his choosing, and who is thoroughly alive to the importance of providing facilities and markets for the systematic handling of the products of the farmers as the most sure means of bringing prosperity to the country.

With a syrup and sugar mill, peanut and cotton seed oil mill, potato dry kiln, canning factories, and facilities for the systematic handling and marketing of the produce of the country, a new era of prosperity will dawn to not only the agricultural, but to the business and industrial life as well, and we would speed the day for the establishment of each and all of these facilities.

We have failed to even get any "poetry" on the subject of sidewalk building which reduces us to the extremity of talking along a line we had hoped to avoid, but which can be made effective—that of petitioning the council for the enforcement of the front foot paving plan by which the cost would be assessed against the property. This extremity can be avoided, and the work done with much less expense, by people who are not able to build cement or brick sidewalks, if all who are thus exposed will do their plain DUTY. A good dirt grade can be made, with wooden curb if desired, and cover the grade with gravel which can be had at a small cost, in some instances amounting to nothing more than the cost of hauling and putting down. Every citizen owes this much to himself and his town, and if he fails and refuses, we favor a petition asking the city council to do the work for him, and make it first-class while they are at it. What will you do about it "fellows?"

We can begin none to soon to cultivate the spirit of good will toward all men. Never mind what we think of Germany or Russia or France or Austria—the men and women and children of all these governments are our kith and kin, worthy of our love, our reverence, our confidence. When "the tumult and the shouting dies," we dare predict that on both sides the sea the human heart will reveal attributes of forgiveness and friendship that are its divinest heritage.—Ex.

While we are endeavoring to make conditions of the city more sanitary as a safeguard to health and happiness, the grocery stores could contribute a big part by having their houses screened, and with close woven wire screen all vegetables and fruits offered for sale. Any physician will substantiate the statement that three-fourths of the ills we suffer come from impure food, impure water and bad sanitary regulations. This being true, and health being the greatest blessing we can enjoy in the material affairs of life, we should be ready to make any sacrifice, or take any pains necessary to preserve and safeguard it.

GOOD DAYS.

A farmer sold chickens in Longview Saturday at 43c each, and it was not a specially good day for chickens, either. Longview is a splendid produce market, the best in East Texas, and farmers are coming here to market from a constantly widening territory.—Longview Times-Clarion.

It may not have been a good day for chickens, but it was a fine large day for the owners of chickens. Every day, in fact, is a good day for the chicken seller. There is a demand for chickens everywhere. At the crossroads store, at the village, at the county seat, in the city, in the metropolis—in every populated community there is a daily demand for chickens. Also eggs, butter, hams, bacon, beef, potatoes, peas, turnips, and everything else that is good to eat. All of these staple articles are now salable anywhere at prices that range before. The farmer who declares he can not make a living at farming confesses that he has nothing to sell. If he has nothing to sell it is a confession that he is a failure at his business. And if he has failed at his business, considering his golden opportunities, should he blame the government for his failure? Or the Democratic party? Or Wall Street?—Dallas News.

The Irish rebellion is no more. It continued seven days, and its results fall heavily upon poor old Ireland. A wonderful people are the Irish. They are keen witted, they are hospitable and courteous. They are lovers of literature, art and song; but they are the poorest warriors the world has produced. They are as brave as lions and as energetic as hyenas, but they are babies when it comes to planning and waging a war. The history of this people as warriors shows a series of blunders. When there has been no chance of success they have taken up arms. When victory has been within their grasp they have fallen out among themselves and lost. The recent rebellion will make the lot of the Irish harder. The homes of many have been battered down, or burned, and food that was badly needed has been destroyed. The Irish have destroyed their own. They have also put home rule further from them.—J. H. Lowry.

A few nights ago near Bartlett some mean boy—or demon in human form, threw a rock into a buggy occupied by a prominent young couple, which resulted in the young lady receiving a severe jolt in the back and the fracture of the young man's arm.—Bartlett Tribune.

Now will some one please tell us how the same rock could bruise the young lady's back and the young man's arm at one and the same time?—Polk County Enterprise.

The Sentinel has, for the past several weeks, been urging upon the people of Nacogdoches the importance of a complete chain or belt of sidewalks. We have had only one purpose in view in this campaign—the betterment of the city. In this discussion we have endeavored to reason upon the value of the improvement that would bring to us great convenience, increased civic attractiveness and free mail delivery, and we have been rather insistent for the reason best expressed by Shakespeare who says: "Thrice armed is he who hath his quarrel just." We have not quarreled in the sense of a bad temper, but we have insisted, and still insist, that this improvement is possible with all classes of people of Nacogdoches, and we will not lay down "arms" until the good results are accomplished.

The people of Nacogdoches should rally in the discharge of this patriotic obligation, and we much prefer to appeal to your patriotism. If you will not, it is due the people who have complied with their duty that you be required to do likewise and fill the gap. Going to this extremity in the discussion in Thursday's issue of the paper we made suggestion that the city council had power to have the work done and charge it up against the property, and if any doubt the correction of the statement, their attention is invited to the following communication on the subject we have just received from his honor, Mayor Matthews:

Nacogdoches, May 26, 1916.
Editor Sentinel:
I want to commend your efforts to get the property owners of the city to put in good sidewalks, which I am sure all can do with but little expense and inconvenience, and in addition to the civic appearance and benefit to those who use the walks, would give us free mail delivery, which we are entitled to, and which we could get were it not for the poor sidewalks.
I note what you say in yesterday's Sentinel as to the city council requiring the property owners to put in walks under front foot paving plan. This the council has a right to do, as authorized by vote of the people of the city in the paving election three years ago. In the campaign for street paving the city council, of which I was a member at the time, stated to the people that no street would be required to put in sidewalk unless a majority of the property owners on such street or streets asked the council to require it. I am sure that with such a petition, the council would act and carry out the wishes of a majority of the property owners on such streets, and require the same done in the same manner that the paving was done. I hope, however, that the property owners will see the advantage of good sidewalk and put them in without the necessity of any action from the council.
Respectfully,
GEO. H. MATTHEWS,
Mayor.

It would be a splendid tribute to the patriotism of the people of the community, which would be heralded far and near, if they would rally to this duty and not longer delay the possession of the advantages of the opportunity. Every man in the community can build a walk that will suffice, and we sincerely hope each one will to the end that the glory of our patriotism may be maintained—but if they will not, The Sentinel will insist that the city council take charge of the matter and do a good job of it while they are at it.

The tenor of the mayor's letter indicates that he would not be inclined to shirk his duty, and the glory of his administration which has brought paved streets, more lights, larger system of waterworks, better fire fighting equipment and many other good things further attests his patriotism in matters of community interest and public concern. We can depend on him—and so can you.

If you cannot build a concrete or brick walk, which, of course, would be preferable, you can build up a good dirt walk, putting in a curb of either cement, brick or wood, to hold it and cover the top with a good coat of gravel. This can be done with but little expense, but it will give temporary relief, serve the purpose and increase the value of your property many times the value of the improvement. In the plan you should also have in mind the matter of giving suitable drainage where such is needed, and in this we can depend upon the city to give assistance in street crossings and intersections.

Let's don't talk about it anymore, but do the more substantial thing of getting busy with the actual work. Build a walk and tell The Sentinel about it to the end that your name may be recorded in the list of immortals who do their duty voluntarily.
The city will extend to you any help within its power in the matter and the Sentinel will forever call you blessed.

HELP SMALL INDUSTRIES.

Small industries make the wealth of the nation.

Two factories, each employing six men, are better for the community than one factory employing twelve men.

And the forty-acre farm with its single owner doing all the work is the basic industrial unit of the world.

The country needs more one-man farms.

Every community would profit from several two-and-three-employees factories.

The small industry is the stronghold of community prosperity.

The greatest danger to our nation is the concentration of America's wealth in the hands of the few.

Commenting on this at a convention of the Tennessee Bankers association last week John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the Federal currency, urged the bankers to give every assistance within their power to small local industries and to farmers.

President Wilson just previously had commended the Federal industrial commission for their efforts to furnish the small industry with accurate cost accounting systems to the end that their business be improved and their credit strengthened.

Never before has the debt of the nation to the farmer and the artisan and the business man and manufacturer of small capital been acknowledged as now. And not before have the encouragements of banking facilities and government machinery been so completely at their disposal.

Help is at hand for the small industries of our country—and in no niggardly measure.

But let the people beware the political demagogues who get up impracticable and even impossible schemes—and offer foolish measures in congress and the legislatures—merely to trap votes.—Houston Post.

A new oil field has been christened over in Nacogdoches County, known as "the Doughtie oil field." The location is not given, but it is learned that about 5,000 acres are involved in the lease, and it is presumed that before a very great while efforts will be made to develop the same. With so much activity going on in this East Texas country here of late in the way of taking over leases, soliciting stock from private citizens, etc., it is reasonably certain that some locality will eventually get results.

The News of course would be glad to announce the bringing in of a gusher here in Angelina County, would rejoice to give the location here at Lufkin—but would also take pleasure in mentioning the fact that oil or gas had been discovered anywhere in this section. Let's start the drills, folks, and go about the work with the spirit and understanding.—Lufkin News.

Brutus Spradley, who has been attending the Medical College at Galveston, came in yesterday for a little visit with the relatives and friends, after which he will go on to Mineral Wells to visit with his parents.

BUEL LANIER WEDS TODAY.

From Friday's Daily:

Buel Lanier, a well known young man of this city who was employed with Stripling, Haselwood & Co., a long time, lately making headquarters at St. Louis, where he has been engaged in learning the jewelry and optical trade, will be married to Miss Elizabeth Wright, a charming young lady of Mahl, at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon.

Rev. C. A. Westbrook, Dr. Deal and Joe Ivey will accompany Mr. Lanier to Mahl, and the happy couple will leave immediately after the ceremony for St. Louis.

Mr. Lanier is a native of the county, and during his sojourn with us has proven himself to be a young man of high moral character and sterling integrity, in every way worthy the fair bride he has won. The young lady comes from one of the best families of Mahl, and thus united, Mr. and Mrs. Lanier will take their place with the good citizenship of the country.

STATE CONVENTION FINISHES ITS WORK

The State Democratic Convention, which has been in session at San Antonio, has finished its labors, and it is all over now except the explanation of how it "happened." Hon. Beeman Strong of this city and O. M. Stone of Jasper were elected delegates to the National convention. The following dispatch to the big papers gives a summary of the work:

San Antonio, May 25.—Up-holding President Wilson in his endeavor to establish an army and navy strong enough to protect the interests of the people and preserve the honor and dignity of the nation; endorsing President Wilson's administration and commending him for re-nomination for the presidency; endorsing and commending Governor Ferguson, declaring its unalterable opposition to woman suffrage through amendment to the federal constitution; declaring for the right of each state to settle the liquor problem for itself; electing Judge William C. Poindexter for national committeeman; naming a delegation to the national Democratic convention headed by Governor James E. Ferguson; and making assessments to defray the necessary expenses of the St. Louis convention, the State Democratic convention completed its labors here yesterday and adjourned.

Platform as Adopted.

Resolved, by the Democrats of Texas, in convention assembled, that we, cordially indorse the administration of Woodrow Wilson, and we indorse the candidacy of Thomas R. Marshall for vice president, and believe him to be a fit running mate for Woodrow Wilson in the ensuing presidential campaign, and the delegates to the St. Louis convention are hereby instructed to vote for the nomination of Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall.

Resolved, That we indorse the administration of Governor James E. Ferguson and commend him for his fidelity to the pledges he made to the people and the efforts he has put forth for the industrial development of our state. We especially commend him for his wise, timely and courageous co-operation with the president of the United States in dealing with the vexatious problems growing out of the Mexican situation.

Resolved, That adhering to the fundamental Democratic principles, that every state has the right to determine the qualification of its own voters, we declare our unalterable opposition to female suffrage through an amendment to the federal constitution.

Resolved, That the Democratic party has steadfastly maintained that every state possesses the power to regulate and control its own police affairs, and in accordance with that view we declare our unalterable opposition to any amendments to the federal constitution withdrawing from the states of this union the right to determine, each for itself, whether the manufacture and sale of liquor shall be permitted or prohibited within its jurisdiction. We agree with President Wilson when he said that "any self-governing community which constitutes a social unit should have the right to control the matter of regulation or withholding licenses."

Shortly before adjournment the convention unanimously adopted, by a viva vice vote, a resolution sent up by J. M. Goggan of El Paso calling upon congress to uphold the president in his endeavor to establish an army and navy that will be strong enough to protect the interests of the people and preserve the honor and dignity of the nation. The resolution follows:

"Be it resolved, by the respre-sentative the Democratic people of the State of Texas in convention assembled. That we congratulate the nation on the fact that at this time of worldwide stress it has as its chief executive Woodrow Wilson, a patriot to maintain the rights of our citizens and to preserve un-sullied the honor and dignity of our country. We call upon congress to strengthen and uphold the hands of our president by speedily providing and maintaining an adequate and efficient army and navy, the better to protect and safeguard the rights of our citizens both at home and abroad, and to maintain inviolate the sacred honor of the nation."

Minority Report.

The following minority report was made, for which delegate from Nacogdoches, Hon. Beeman Strong, voted:

The minority report of the platform committee follows:

We, a minority of your committee on platform and resolutions, hereby submit for your consideration the following report:

1. Resolved by the democrats of Texas in convention assembled, that we cordially indorse the administration of Woodrow Wilson and expressively give our approval to the constructive acts passed during the four years in which he has been chief executive.

2. We rejoice in the unassailed record of the Wilson administration, because it has redeemed with single-hearted fidelity its platform pledges to American people.

3. We endorse the domestic policies of the Wilson administration as broad and progressive, businesslike and statesmanlike policies, crystallized in wise and helpful laws that have become chapters of achievement for our country's good, unsurpassed for a similar period, in our country's history.

4. The Wilson administration revised the tariff not upward but downward and framed a measure, without fear of special interests or favoritism to pet industries, in behalf alike of the consumers and producers of the land.

5. The Wilson administration has enacted an income tax-law, the fruition of democratic faith for 20 years, that compels just retribution from swollen wealth for the support of the government, and lightens the burdens resting on the backs of the great masses of the people.

6. The Wilson administration has established a regional reserve banking system, whose purpose is to decentralize the power of money and de-throne the money power, and to whose effects, as already demonstrated, is to emancipate credits, provide a flexible currency and make money panics forever impossible.

7. The Wilson administration has strengthened our anti-trust laws and stood, not for their suspension by executive caprice through political bargains with malefactors of great wealth, but for the vigorous enforcement of those laws by criminal prosecutions of conspicuous violators in the courts of the land.

8. The Wilson administration stands for a rural credits system, that will secure a sure market for sound securities of American farmers and encourage the improvement and ownership of homes by the homeless millions of the land.

9. The Wilson administration stands for the creation of an American merchant-marine, adequate in this day of duty and opportunity, to carry the produce of American farm and factory to the eager markets of the world.

10. The Wilson administration stands for the speedy enactment of a law that shall regulate and control campaign contributions in presidential elections to the end that special interests shall no longer raise unlimited funds, in return for governmental favors, to debauch the electorate in doubtful states.

11. The Wilson administration, entitled as it is to unequalled commendation for its record in handling domestic concerns, compels yet more the people's gratitude because of its foreign policies.

Broadening the scope of the historic Monroe doctrine, it has stood for pan-American spirit that would cement in friendly community of interest all the republics of the Western hemisphere.

Amid unprecedented perils, with half the world on fire, with the flames of war, Woodrow Wilson has safeguarded this nation's honor and preserved this nation's peace.

Borrowing the patience of Washington, the sagacity of Jefferson and the courage of Jackson, amid plots and marplots at home and abroad, and during days when one impetuous, half-baked utterance would have drawn this country into the maelstrom of war, the governments of the earth have waited on and heeded words as he spoke the last word for national dignity, international law and human liberty.

Believing that Woodrow Wilson is the friend of peace and good will toward all nations; declaring ourselves the foes of one step toward militarism or imperialism by this republic; opposing the enlistment of one soldier or the building of one battleship more than is necessary for national defense, we stand for adequate military preparedness, now and hereafter, for the protection of American integrity, honor and territory, whether from aggressions across the seas of marauders across the Rio Grande.

TAKES THE PLACE OF DANGEROUS CALOMEL

New Discovery! Dodson's Liver Tone Acts Like Calomel But Doesn't Gripe, Salivate or Make You Sick—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Harmless Liver Medicine for Men, Women, Children—Read Guarantee!

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work. Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes in contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated, or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight. Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

tion has been clean; because he has kept the faith; because of his unsurpassed record of competency and accomplishment; because higher than concrete achievement is his lofty spirit; because of his scholarship and statesmanship; because of his vision and his patriotism; because of his purity of heart and poise of intellect; because of his masterful leadership of his party and his broad Americanism above party; because as the nation's head he has kept his head amid the tumult of the world; because within himself he is a platform, commanding the confidence and support of the great body of the American people; today the democracy of Texas but voices the heartbeat of the united and militant democracy of the country as it unreservedly and enthusiastically indorses Woodrow Wilson the incomparable citizen and faithful public servant, and hereby instructs its entire delegation to the national convention for Woodrow Wilson for re-nomination for president of the United States.

13. Recalling with pride the conspicuous, if not controlling, influence of the democracy of Texas, through its spokesman in the national convention, in bringing about the nomination of Woodrow Wilson four years ago, we hereby record our appreciation of the recognition of our state by President Woodrow Wilson in calling to his cabinet three of her favorite sons, and further congratulate our Burleson, Gregory and Houston on their useful and faithful service to the country in the administration of their departments of the national government.

14. We recognize the honest and divergent views of our fellow democrats in Texas and throughout the Union on the questions of woman suffrage and prohibition of the liquor traffic by amendment to the federal constitution; we recall that heretofore one's conviction on these questions has not been made a test of his standing or loyalty as a democrat; we believe it unwise, inexpedient and tending to jeopardize democratic success in the coming national campaign at this time to inject these mooted issues into the deliberations of our democratic conventions, state or national, as a tenet of party faith; we deprecate and oppose any platform proposals by advocates or opponents of these questions and hereby instruct our delegates, whether district or from the state at large, to vote as a unit against any effort by either side, from whatever source, to place any declaration of any kind for or against prohibition or woman suffrage in the national platform.

We, the undersigned members of the minority, for ourselves, hereby indorse that part of the majority report which indorses the administration of Governor James E. Ferguson.

COMPLIMENTARY HOUSE PARTY.

No more charming stage setting could have been devised than "Camp Big-Water," (so named by the littlest daughter of the house) the summer home at Fern Lake of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Blount, for the house party with which Mrs. Blount complimented Mrs. E. C. Branch of San Antonio and Mrs. B. F. Thompson of New York on Friday and Saturday of the week just ended.

Situated in a physical environment of complete harmony, the attractive bungalow with its spacious screened verandas, its artistic and comfortable interior, is a delightful retreat from "the cares that infest the day." All that wise forethought, all that expensive social knowledge, all that hospitality of the simon-pure variety could encompass had been planned for the comfort and pleasure of the fortunate guests.

The personnel of the party consisted of the two honored guests, the hostess, Mesdames George Barham, Roland Jones, Frank Sharp, K. P. Branch and Miss Leah Zeve. On Saturday morning these were supplemented by Mesdames S. W. Blount and G. A. Blount. Later arrivals were Mr. E. H. Blount, Dr. Will Hall and Mr. E. C. Branch of San Antonio. These Brought with them their own welcome in a splendid catch of "speckled beauties," which, added to the sumptuous dinner already in course of preparation, made of that feast a thing to conjure by. Additional supper guests were Mr. G. A. Blount and Dr. George Barham.

Of such a day as this, one could truthfully paraphrase: "Whatever the sun and the dials say, That was the shortest day."

A BEAUTIFUL SCREEN.

The City Bakery has been making improvements in the interior of the building lately, among other things cutting off a private dining room in the rear in which has been supplied nice tables and every comfort for ladies and gentlemen who wish more privacy than is furnished with the long table and high stools. This was a good improvement, which added much to the civic attractiveness as well as the convenience of the premises, but climax of beauty or "finishing touches" was made this week when Mr. T. J. Henderson, a painter of great skill, finished up a beautiful painting on the over-hanging partition wall in which some beautiful scenery, together

A SHOOTING SCRAPE ALAZAN YESTERDAY

One Man Killed Instantly and Another Wounded at Public Gathering in Afternoon

From Monday's Daily. Quite an exciting shooting scrape occurred at Alazan yesterday afternoon in which one man was killed instantly and another wounded.

Sheriff Spradley went out to the scene of the trouble and from him we get the information, as it was given to him, that Jim Castleberry, a young man about twenty-one years of age, and a son of Pete Castleberry, shot and killed Carl Durham. In the same altercation Dock Durham shot Dr. Will Castleberry, the ball entering his side, striking a rib and deflecting, as a result of which his wound is not considered very serious. It is reported that Durham also shot several times at Jim Castleberry, the man who killed his brother, or that possibly he was shooting at Jim when he struck the doctor. Jim Castleberry surrendered to the sheriff, but Durham had not surrendered or been arrested up to the time this report was prepared this morning.

FUNSTON SUBMITS NAMES TO WILSON

San Antonio, May 26.—The names of five officers of the regular army and eight officers of the militia have been forwarded to Washington by General Funston for the approval of President Wilson as members of the court-martial board before which members of the Texas militia who did not sign the muster roll will be tried. Gen. Funston also recommended an officer of the regular army to serve as judge advocate.

The court-martial will be held here after it has been ordered by President Wilson. It is expected that the president will approve Gen. Funston's selection of members of the court without delay.

MRS. ANN ADDISON.

This little community was saddened when on May 1st, 1916, the death angel took from us one of our best loved and most revered friends, Mrs. Ann Addison. Loved because of her sweet Christian life and revered because of age, being four score and ten.

Her 90th mile stone was reached the 17th of last October. Grandma, as everyone called her, was a life-long member of the Missionary Baptist church. Not only was she a member but a worker as well, in a quiet way—that is living each day the religion she professed—causing others to pause and think there must be something in religion since she could always keep a cheerful countenance in face of so much trouble.

She had buried three husbands and five grown children. She left only two children, one, Mrs. W. H. Arthur, with whom she had made her home for the past thirty years—a good home it was too. The other, Mr. Eli Carter of Florien, La., who was here at the time of her death. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Arthur, nor the grandchildren ever tired of doing for grandma.

She was very tenderly nursed in her last illness by her two grand daughters, Mrs. P. H. Murray and Mrs. Kornegay, the only ones who could reach her.

In her younger days Grandma had been a great reader, especially was she fond of reading the bible. But for the past five years she had not been able to enjoy this pleasure on account of failing eye sight, but being endowed with a wonderful memory she was a very entertaining talker. If there was a bible question to decide we called on her for the particular scripture that fitted the controversy, which she readily quoted.

Her death was caused from paralysis, which struck her on April 19th. She was speechless and unconscious most of the time from that time on.

She was buried at Decoy, Texas, May 2nd, 1916, and so from our midst has gone one whom we all loved and whom we shall miss but we know that she is enjoying the reward of a consecrated Christian life. I, especially, feel that I have lost a true friend.

A REAL SHOW HERE ALL NEXT WEEK.

The Harrison Theatre Co. will make its second visit to Nacogdoches next Monday. This company has been touring the state of Texas for the past eight years, and wherever it has played the name of "Harrison" has become a household word. Everyone who has seen the company is a walking, talking advertisement, as one performance will convince the most skeptical that it is a clean, high class show at popular prices.

The company is composed of thirty ladies and gentlemen, appearing nightly in the finest, most complete, best equipped and most comfortable theatre under canvas in the State of Texas. You will see no old, worn out plays rehashed and imposed upon the public under a new name, but every play is absolutely new and original, and are never repeated on a return engagement to any town except by special request of a majority of the patrons. Mr. Harrison writes his own plays, which are played exclusively by his company.

The orchestra renders all the latest popular and classic music which alone is worth the price of admission.

There will be a change of play and music each night. They tolerate no loud or boisterous noises or smoking underneath the tent, and pay especial regard to the comfort of the ladies and children, having gentlemanly ushers especially employed to look after their welfare.

They will erect their large tent on the Walker lot on East Main street and open their engagement Monday night in Charles Harrison's 4-act society comedy drama—"The Love of a Thief." It is a beautiful story, well told, elegantly costumed and the comedy is clean and wholesome.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE

To Democrats of Nacogdoches County:

I am seeking your nomination for County Judge, and want it or would not run.

I was born January 15th, 1842, and therefore am in my 75th year. I came to Nacogdoches County in 1854 and have lived here ever since, therefore I have been here 62 years. I was licensed as a lawyer in 1870, therefore have been a lawyer 46 years. From January 1st, 1862 until May 1865, I was a member of company G, 8th Texas Infantry, in the Confederate army, therefore I am an Old Confederate. I taught school in the fall of 1865 and 1867. I worked on a farm from the time I came home in 1865 until 1870 except when teaching school. Have held several offices in Nacogdoches County, and been in the practice of law at Nacogdoches ever since I was licensed, am well known in all parts of Nacogdoches County. I ran for County Judge in 1912 because my friends asked me to and was elected. I ran again in 1914 because I thought I ought to, was defeated and at once resigned. I am running this time because I want to and request you to vote for me.

I am not going to make a canvass of the County, but submit my candidacy to your consideration and for such action as you think best.

When I came home from the war, just as soon as I could, I affiliated with the Democratic Party, and have not changed up to this date, therefore I am a Democrat. I am a prohibitionist and have been all my life from boyhood days. I am in favor of education in all ways, mind and pocketbook; also in good roads, believing that in agricultural counties like this that good roads are the greatest blessing to most of the people in the country. Am in favor of the strictest economy in county affairs, and being an old fogey, have my prejudices of a life time clinging to me against electioneering and stump speaking for judicial position, and am in favor of women voting if they want to.

Respectfully,
GEO. F. INGRAHAM.

MISS MAMIE MIDDLEBROOK JOHN LACY BARNETT.

It is with great pleasure that The Sentinel is able to produce the above picture of the queen and king of the School Carnival promoted in this city Monday afternoon.

The float of honor on this occasion, in which the queen and king rode, was most beautifully decorated. In the royal march the queen was attended by Misses Jewel Smith, Genevieve Johnson, Mary Dorsey, Jessie Lee Mims, Gussie Mae Spears, and Lera Millard, as maids of honor; Julia Nelson and Andrew Hewey Smith as train-bearers; Arthur Summers, court jester. The king was attended by Elbert Reece, Horace Rainbolt, Jewel Byrd, Dick Cason, Claxton Monk and Albert Thomas.

The queen was elected by a vote of the school, Miss Middlebrook proving the most popular young lady, the other members of the royal family being chosen. She is the accomplished daughter of Judge and Mrs. V. E. Middlebrook, and is one of Nacogdoches' fairest flowers, a most beautiful and accomplished girl upon whom the people and her school mates were delighted to bestow this honor.

Mr. Barnett, the king of this occasion, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Barnett, and is a young gentleman of high moral character and sterling integrity who is equally popular with those who know him.

These photos were kindly furnished The Sentinel by Mr. G. G. Machann of the New Studio.

Dain Mowers and Hay Rakes

Did you ever see one? If you have not, then you should by all means look one over if you are interested in hay machinery.

DAIN MOWERS are very high clutched, consequently run very fast and do not choke.

DAIN MOWERS have thirty-three clutches and the cycle begins cutting the moment your team makes the first step. In this way it eliminates the constant back up to start.

DAIN MOWERS have the driving gears all very close together and in front of the axles or front, and are so constructed that the heavier the cutting the closer they mesh together.

DAIN MOWERS are built so that the heavier your cutting the closer the main drive wheels cling to the ground, and never buckle and leave the ground, causing your machine to choke.

Now, all we ask of you is a chance to show you this machine. Come in at your earliest convenience and look it over.

THE SAPP CASES.

The following supplemental information about the Sapp cases and the conclusion of the trial is taken from yesterday's issue of the Lufkin News...

"We, the jury, find the defendants E. E. Sapp and Lou Sapp guilty of murder in the first degree" is the way the verdict began to read this morning at 10:30 o'clock...

When it became known on the streets that the jury had decided a verdict the district court room was crowded with people in a few minutes, anxious to hear the fate of the accused men...

The remainder of the verdict assessed the penalty of E. E. Sapp at confinement in the penitentiary for a period of forty years and that of his brother Lou Sapp at 20 years...

The reading public throughout Texas is more or less familiar with the facts concerning this notable case. The defendants were tried for the murder of Richard Watts, whose body was found in the "big thicket" in Hardin county in January 1915...

The News cannot hope to dwell upon the circumstances in connection with the affairs on account of time and space, however, every reader of the paper already has a good clear understanding of the case...

Cervantes was identified by papers found in his pocket. Gen. Pershing appeared elated by the successes of his men in disposing of Cervantes, who, he said, was implicated in the Columbus raid...

Eddie Rowlett, a most excellent young gentleman of the Red Oak community, has arrived home from Denton where he has been attending college.

The jury fees in the trial just ended amounted to $720.00, while the fees for witnesses amounts to more than $6,000

Hon. C. A. Hodges left last night for Marlin where he will take a course of the hot baths and spend a few days recuperating. Mr. Hodges applies himself very closely to his business when at home and needs the little vacation he has set aside for himself...

GUARDSMEN MUST FACE A TRIAL

Washington, May 25.—Reversing his previous decision, Secretary Baker announced today that the 116 members of the Texas national guard who failed to present themselves for muster into the federal service will be brought to court-martial immediately under the present law...

Secretary Baker explained his action by pointing out the difference in the enlistment oaths guardsmen are required to take under the Dick law and the new Hay-Chamberlain bill...

Upon recommendation of Judge Advocate General Crowder the secretary has decided the alleged offense of the guardsmen refusing to "present" themselves for muster was committed under the Dick law and trial should be under that law.

Gen. Crowder, in a supplementary opinion, held that the Hay-Chamberlain act would not abolish the offense with which the Texans are charged, as has been suggested. On this showing it will not be necessary to issue a new call for the border militia after the Hay-Chamberlain bill is signed.

It was stated officially at the war department today that Gen. Funston had never requested that the Louisiana, Arkansas and Oklahoma national guard be called out for border service as reported. Gen. Funston asked for additional coast artillery, but the department decided it was not needed at present.

AGED LUFKIN MAN WITH THE DEAD

Lufkin News. Mr. John Robert Horton died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. R. Gossett, in this city last evening at 6 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks.

The deceased was 89 years of age, and was interred in Glendale Cemetery this morning at 10 o'clock, a number of the old Confederate veterans of the town acting as pall bearers and Rev. C. B. Garrett of the First Methodist Church conducting the funeral service.

Mr. Horton came here from Louisiana some time ago, with Mr. T. R. Gossett and family. During his stay in Lufkin he made many friends in this locality, whom The News joins in extending condolence to the bereaved.

Dr. C. C. Pierce arrived home yesterday from Birmingham, Ala., where he went with the veterans, and from which place he went on for a visit with his mother and other relatives in Mississippi. He was accompanied home by his little niece, Vesta Pierce. Dr. Pierce says that

VILLA IN HIDING TO REGAIN HEALTH

Chihuahua, Mex., May 23.—(Via El Paso, Tex., May 24).—General Jacinto Gavrira announced today that General Gavrira Carranza commander at Jaurez, has been appointed commander of the military zone of the frontiers; that a brigade of 1,000 cavalry under Francisco Gozales has been sent to re-inforce all garrisons and important points along the Mexican Northwestern railroad from Jaurez to Temosachic; that such centers as Galeana also will be reinforced; that a strong detachment in Villa Ahumada is on its way north to Jaurez, and that General Gavrira has orders to pursue all outside bands until they are exterminated.

Villa is hiding at Hacienda Mimbrea, about 125 miles from Jiminez, while curing his wounds, according to a report received by General Ignacio Ramo at Jiminez and sent here. General Ramos says his information comes from several reliable sources which state the bandit has some small bands of followers in Lazarica and San Bernardino near Mimbrea.

More than 1,200 followers of General Canuto Reyes are now being disarmed in the Nazas district.

NAVAL MEASURE NEARS PASSAGE

Washington, May 24.—The naval appropriation bill, carrying a total of $241,000,000, was reported to the house today by the naval committee. Majority Leader Kitchin announced yesterday that a special rule would be brought in under which the measure will be passed not later than a week from next Saturday night.

The committee's report says that the $91,787,287 increase over last year's appropriation was found necessary "to place the navy in a better state of preparedness." It states that a total of $98,859,378 is provided for new ships, including five battle cruisers, and to continue ships now building.

TROOPS SLAY BANDIT CHIEF

San Antonio, Texas, May 26.—Candelario Cervantes, styled by Gen. Pershing in a report to Gen. Funston today as "second in importance only to Villa," was killed yesterday in a skirmish near Cruces. The American loss was Corporal Davis Marksbury killed, and Private George F. Nicholson and George Hullitt, wounded. Jose Bencorne was another Mexican killed. The remainder of the band was pursued and dispersed.

Gen. Pershing reported that 7 men of the machine gun company of the 17th infantry, two engineers and an employe of the quartermaster department were six miles southeast of Cruces when attacked yesterday by twenty Mexicans under Cervantes. The Americans had been looking for cattle and correcting road maps when the Mexicans appeared.

The ten Americans fought off the Mexicans for forty-five minutes. After their leader fell the Mexicans fell back and were followed into the hills by a detachment of cavalry that arrived from Cruces.

Cervantes was identified by papers found in his pocket. Gen. Pershing appeared elated by the successes of his men in disposing of Cervantes, who, he said, was implicated in the Columbus raid, and has proven himself active on other occasions in the activities of the bandits.

Eddie Rowlett, a most excellent young gentleman of the Red Oak community, has arrived home from Denton where he has been attending college.

PALESTINE TEAM.

Lufkin News. Palestine is one of the East Texas cities belonging to the East Texas League, of which Lufkin is a member, and has already signed a number of players for the coming season. They are said to be some of the fastest in amateur circles, and their names follow:

L. V. Wright, catcher; McLarty and Tom Taylor, pitchers; Brewer, shortstop; Matlock third base; McDaniel, first base; Walker, Fout and Henderson, outfielders, and Monk Johns, a local man, second base.

The manager of the Palestine hopefuls says he will have his men in readiness to meet the drop of the flag on the opening day.

Of course there will be much friendly rivalry between all the towns throughout the playing season. But the sport writer of The News wants to say right here and now that the Lufkin aggregation does not intend to be anywhere near the bottom of the percentage column, and will expect her rivals for the gonfalon to "watch her smoke" as season rolls on.

A GOOD LADY WITH THE DEAD

Mrs. A. N. Ansley died at her home near North Church last evening after a brief illness, and her remains will be laid to rest in Oak Grove Cemetery, in this city, at 5:00 o'clock this afternoon.

The good lady is survived by her husband and five children, the youngest of which is only two days old. To all appearances she was doing nicely, when she suddenly grew worse and died in a very short while.

Mrs. Ansley was a member of the Methodist church in which she lived a consecrated christian life, and was loved and admired by those who knew her.

Any death is sad, but doubly so when a mother is taken away from a family of small children who need her care and sympathy in the tender years of their life, and the sympathy of the entire community go out to Mr. Ansley and his children in their great bereavement.

WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK IN BED MOST OF TIME

Her Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Indianapolis, Indiana. — "My health was so poor and my constitution so run down that I could not work. I was thin, pale and weak, weighed but 109 pounds and was in bed most of the time. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and five months later I weighed 133 pounds. I do all the housework and washing for eleven and I can truthfully say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a godsend to me for I would have been in my grave today but for it. I would tell all women suffering as I was to try your valuable remedy." — Mrs. Wm. Green, 332 S. Addison Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

BLACKBERRY BUSINESS.

We are informed by the best authority that the safest and most profitable of all fruits is the blackberry. Such thing as failure to produce an abundant crop is not recorded against it. So far it has escaped all diseases and insect pests. It is easily grown and requires but a few dollars to install a commercial crop, as the plants are cheap. New shoots from the first planting will double and treble the acreage for the succeeding year. The poorest land in East Texas will produce blackberries, and the soil grows more and more fertile the longer the vines are permitted to remain on the same land. Prices for blackberries are always remunerative, and those not suitable for shipment are salable at good prices when canned. In some portions of Smith county where the business has been thoroughly tested, the blackberry is supplanting all other berries, and the new acreage is being planted each year. Of course the maximum profits are only realized when the surplus is canned, and the same cannery used for blackberries will also can all manner of fruits and vegetables. Those who are familiar with the importance of this industry will endeavor to start a campaign in Henderson next fall for the purpose of getting farmers to plant a reasonable acreage as a forerunner of what they believe will lead to wonderful proportions. — Col. Milner in Rusk Co. News.

As to the silk hat, which has been called the prig hat, the stove pipe hat, the beegum hat, and the high top hat, there is a tale to tell that would seem fishy here now. It had its day here, and in its days it stood high—indeed it loomed up conspicuously and distinctly.

It is said to have been introduced into the United States in 1830, by an Irish hatter from England, named Millar, and that it met with great opposition, but it won out. Millar got rich, came to Texas and lost out. But the silk hat flourished, and is still at the head in many big cities, though it has vanished from here.

In the last decade "before the war," that is to say in the 50's, the stove pipe hat was worn by many leading men, especially by politicians, lawyers and doctors, and often by preachers and teachers. It was regarded as a mark of respectability, style or rank. The high heeled calk skin boot and gold headed walking cane were often companions of this hat.

When prominent men visited town such was their dress-up. The distinguished Dr. John N. Fall of Chireno, a real Bismark when he came to town, was made up that way. The eridite Dr. T. Jeff Johnson of Melrose, was another conspicuous example of this pompous array. But both had dignity and brains enough to support or back up the style, so that it did not appear like a silly display. They met others here of the same type. This impressed others with the idea of polish in the wearer, in keeping with the shine of the hat. Squire Clule, a New Yorker from Douglass, Dr. Engledow, from his Carrizo plantation, and others of various positions and places, lawyer Pollock, Dr. Starr, Judge Moore, Ochiltree, Walker, Orton and Rusk were of this class, and every doctor in town wore his hat. But there were prominent men here who had different tastes. General Sam Houston was one of these. He was notably eccentric in his apparel. He usually wore a soft hat with medium low crown and broad brim, usually called a plush or a beaver hat, of a yellowish color. This is shown in the pictures of him. And while other big men wore whiskers he went clean shaved. He often dressed gaudily, but was inclined to the habit of the southern easy style. He could be at ease and seemed to fit any occasion from the wild Indian of the woods to the highest strut of pomp or dignity. He was at ease in the ball room or parlor, in congress or in battle, a born leader. His rough style when he was United States senator in Washington drew sneers at first from some of the more pretentious devotees of dress and style. When a visiting delegation of rough Indians met him on the streets there and threw their arms around him, some of the grandiloquent observers were disgusted, but Houston felt honored. And in end he taught all to respect him, for his worth and mental ability. In complexion Houston was a pleasing medium, neither dark, light, nor red, but of a healthful, vigorous tone, and of striking physique. When young he was probably an athlete, a good horseman and marksman.

The silk hat then led the parade, but now it is all different. If a man appears on the street now wearing a stove pipe hat, he is suspected of being a fake or a freak. And the high-heeled boot has become a novelty, and is used only for exceptional purpose. Hats and boots are not altogether a matter of style or taste, but largely a matter of utility and comfort.

LEADING TO DISASTER.

The Cleveland Leader published in home town of W. G. Lee, head of the Railroad Trainmen's Union, recently printed a statement for which it gave Mr. Lee as its authority. Asserting that "it was indicated in a statement given out by W. G. Lee" that "negotiations between the railroads and employes will not lead to arbitration," the Cleveland paper continued:

"Lee declared that he was unequivocally opposed to arbitration, and would not accept unless forced to do so by a vote of the men or a passage of a law making arbitration compulsory by Congress. 'I will advocate the placing of the question on the inevitable strike ballot,' he said, 'I am opposed to arbitration because that would mean "splitting the difference," and perhaps not even that."

It is hoped that Mr. Lee has been misunderstood by the Cleveland Leader. For the responsible head of a great labor organization to take the attitude attributed to Mr. Lee is surprising, discouraging, and almost incredible. It savors altogether too much of the "Public-be-damned" and "Nothing-to-arbitrate" attitudes of certain leaders of capital in the past.

For a man of Mr. Lee's position and responsibilities to even appear in the most casual conversation to take such an attitude shows a singular obtuseness to public opinion or a singularly reckless defiance of it. All the reflections of public opinion in press from one end of the country to the other with significant exceptions, concur in the demand: "There must be no strike." Yet Mr. Lee is quoted as regarding a strike as practically "inevitable." Do the accredited leaders of the other train service unions agree with Mr. Lee? It now then they should hasten to disavow.

One thing is certain: The leadership that rejects arbitration and insists on inflicting on the country the enormous calamity of a general railway strike is a leadership that can lead only to disaster for the cause it represents.—Chicago Herald, May 17th

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

The Sentinel is requested to give notice that the next quarterly conference of the Appleby Mission will be held at Bonita on Saturday and Sunday, June 3rd and 4th, at which time the presiding elder, Rev. L. B. Elrod, will preach.

From Bonita Bro. Elrod will go to Appleby where he will preach Sunday night.

GIVES AN INTERVIEW

Prof. J. B. Stripling, county superintendent of public instruction, called at the Sentinel office this morning, and as usual was teeming with optimism in his work.

Among the most important features slated for the immediate future in his work, Prof. Stripling says that Prof. Doughty, state superintendent of public instruction, is coming to the county to spend a couple of days, June 14th and 15th. On the 14th of June Prof. Doughty, in company with the county board of trustees and business men, will visit as many of the schools of the county as possible. On the 15th all the school trustees of the county will be invited to come together here when the superintendent will instruct them how to open many leaks in the school system, and how to maintain a eight and nine months school on the money available. This will be a great feature which should be generously attended.

In discussing the affairs of the county, Prop. Stripling says much new life is in evidence, and that all forces are at work for the improvement of the educational system of the county. Among some of the recent improvements worthy of special note he mentions that Douglas has just voted a $12500 bond issue with which the community will build a nice brick house, and that Flat Woods district has voted a $1000 bond issue with which a neat little school house will be built. Many other similar improvements have been made during the year.

The work of taking the scholastic census has been finished and the rolls nearly made up, with several thousand increase over last census.

The work of the census rolls is having been finished, and the schools now being in vacation, Prof. Stripling will now visit different communities of the county in the interest of his candidacy for re-election, and in the meantime observe conditions as he finds them in an educational way, "killing two birds with one stone," as it were, and will press his claim for consideration upon the merits of his administration.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

which took her life before relief
