FUNSTON REPORTS UPON DISTURBANCE

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Major-General Funston today made the following report to the war department regarding a disturbance created by groups of the eighth Illinois national guard regiment at San Antonio last night in which three men were slightly wounded by bullets from the rifles of the provost guard before order was restored:

"About 5:30 p. m. (July 24) after having been paid about forty men of the eighth Illinois (colored) were assembled in a saloon near the reservation. Threats were made to throw out the white soldiers and it is believed that some disturbance occurred. Reports came to guardhouse to send guard to stop disturbance. Patrol of four or five men went to scene and tried to disperse crowd but without much success. Patrol was joined by about four members of guard and all tried to get men away by pushing them along.

"Guard finally had to strike some with butts of guns. Then members of eighth Illinois began to throw rocks at guard. Guard finally fired several cartridges at legs of crowd. Wounded three members of eighth Illinois in legs, though none seriously, and post commander arrived on scene and the crowd dispersed. Officers of day and post commander arrived on scene shortly after.

"Investigation is being made of whole affair which will be forwarded later. All perfectly quiet now."

County Court is still in session today, regular term, Judge Perritte presiding. Criminal cases only are being tried. Some pleas of guilty have been made, and other cases tried, but nothing worthy of special mention has been done. The court may run on over into next week.

DIVER IS PARTLY SUBMERGED AT HER SLIP

BALTIMORE, Md., July 24.—It was learned that the Deutschland was partly submerged at her slip at 6:30 o'clock this evening. The water is not deep enough for full submergence.

Communion Service.

BALTIMORE, July 24.—A communion service was held tonight aboard the interned North German Lloyd steamer Nekar, lying alongside the submarine Deutschland for the captain and crew of the submarine.

Rev. Otto Pitts, German immigrant missionary, conducted the service. In his prayer he asked that the vessel and her crew may have a safe voyage home.

The service was followed by a banquet. The Nekar was brilliantly lighted.

Departure Indicated.

BALTIMORE, July 24.—A series of events this afternoon at the pier where the merchant submarine Deutschland is berthed indicated that her departure would not be long delayed. The most significant of these were the filling of her water-tanks and the stowing below of the crew's bedding, as it was removed from the interned North German Lloyd steamer Nekar nearby, where, since two weeks ago, the crew has been sleeping.

Shortly after the water tanks had been filled, heavy blue smoke was noticed coming from behind the barges that screened the Deutschland from view and directly at her stern. The wind blowing from the direction of the submarine carried the odor of fuel oil and it was evident that the vessel's engines had been tested. These activities were preceded by the sealing of the vessel's wireless apparatus by a government radio inspector. This was in accordance with a federal law calling for such action at the expiration of two weeks. No application for clearance papers had been made up to the close of business at the customs house today, it was announced.

TREATY MADE FOR PURCHASE OF THE DANISH INDIES

(Special Cable Dispatch to the Public Ledger, Philadelphia.)

COPENHAGEN, July 24.—A treaty for the purchase of the Danish West Indies by the United States has been negotiated between the governments of Denmark and the United States, and to the two houses of the Danish parliament for approval, according to information given your correspondent today in Copenhagen by the highest official authority.

If the treaty is ratified as it stands in "project" form today, the United States will pay for the islands $25,000,000 and in addition will relinquish to Denmark the rights of the United States in Greenland. Greenland is a Danish possession, and the rights which the United States will abandon are merely rights of discovery, the scope of which is ill-defined.

The United States will obtain from Denmark full possession of the islands of St. Thomas, St. John and St. Croix, or Santa Cruz, as it is better known. These islands lie about 50 miles off the east coast of Porto Rico. There are 142 square miles in area and support a population of 27,000 persons. Nearly all the inhabitants of the islands are negroes who live by the cultivation of cane sugar.

VILLISTAS CUT TO PIECES; LOSE 300, IS THE REPORT

MEXICO, CITY, July 22.—Three hundred Villistas, including one of their leaders, Calixtre Contreras, are reported to have been killed in an engagement with government troops in Southern Chihuahua on the Durango boundary line.

Dispatches reaching here tonight state that General Trevino has six columns of troops in the region of the fighting. Cavalry detachments have been sent out in pursuit of the remnants of the defeated Villista command, late dispatches here state. A railway division superintendent reported to General Trevino that an aeroplane had been sighted over La Mancha station. It is supposed to have been an enemy craft and a hunt for it is on.

In the 10th congressional district, H. G. Mayfield was nominated over Burgess, who had held the office for sixteen years.

UNITED STATES WILL PRESS ALLIED POWERS FOR REPLY

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Instructions to press on the British and French governments that the United States desires a complete reply to its last note regarding interference with neutral mails were cabled by the state department today to Ambassador Page at London and Ambassador Sharp at Paris. The step was taken after President Wilson and other officials had studied the British memorandum dealing with specific complaints and deferring until the future a reply to the American contentions regarding the principles involved.

The official text of the memorandum made public by the state department reveals that Great Britain feels "obliged to disclaim responsibility" for the specific occurrences complained of in the American note until there has been "opportunity of investigating in detail."

In that connection it is pointed out that "there have been many instances of complaints which on examination proved to arise from the wrong direction of letters, the irregular sailings of neutral mail boats and from other similar cases, entirely outside the control of his majesty's government."

Outlines Conform.

Outlines of the memorandum received from London in last night's press dispatches conform closely to the official text.

One of the subjects left for consideration in the allies' forthcoming final reply is that the American complaint regarding money order lists—"which," it declared, "involves consultation between these two governments, still is in progress."

Replying to the complaint regarding mail which is in mediation, later lost in the Mecklenburg memorandum says the facts set forth by the United States "are correct except that it is not made clear though it is the fact that neutral mail bags received from the Mediterranean were all sent on and that 182 bags lost in the Mecklenburg were without exception for enemy destination."

The communication concluded that the specific complaints in the American note "do not support the general charges against the efficiency of the British censorship which the government of the United States have put forward."

Much interest is being shown in the Great Free Range contest.

FRISCO POLICE FOLLOWING CLEWS TO GET THE FANATICS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Despite the suggestion of Arthur Craine, explosive expert, that Saturday's bomb explosion, which cost the lives of seven persons and the injuring of 40 others, may have been an accident, the police continued their efforts tonight to running down what they considered live clues. Two men said to be foreigners, were particularly sought. They were seen on lower Market street carrying a heavy suit case at a point near where the explosion occurred and their descriptions were in the hands of the police.

The seventh victim, Capt. Reuben J. Vaughan, a river boat master, died today from his injuries.

President F. J. Koster, of the chamber of commerce, announced that the law and order fund subscribed by the business men originally to force the open shop in San Francisco swelled to $6000,000. Money out of this fund, it was said, will be used to put down anarchy.

MEXICO MAKES DRASTIC RULES.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Radical changes in the laws governing foreigners doing business in Mexico are about to be made by General Carranza in a series of decrees which later will be included in a new constitution according to recent arrivals from Mexico City.

The new regulations, it is said, will provide that all foreigners, before entering business in Mexico, must agree not to have recourse in any case to any other law than that of Mexico and that they will not be entitled to any privileges not enjoyed by Mexicans. It will also provide that foreign capital already invested in Mexico may enjoy the right to be considered foreign and be entitled to the protection of its own government until the expiration of the concession or agreement that it may have entered into, provided it is not a very long period.

Another provision is designated to fix a uniform period for all the long or unlimited contracts, leases or concessions in which foreign capital is interested and that at the end of this period they will be considered subject only to the authority of the Mexican government and deprived of the right of appeal for protection to their respective governments.

These measures, it is understood, are to be incorporated in the Mexican constitution when the constitutional assembly meets in Querataro in the near future and it is the belief of First Chief Carranza and his advisers that they will suffice to avoid the danger of complications with European powers and as a natural sequel will lift from the United States the responsibility of defending the territorial integrity of Mexico against the possibility of seizure of lands or property by any foreign nation in order to pay the claim of their nationals.

The information is gleaned from the Lufkin Daily News that W. P. Berry Co. have landed the contract to build a new court house for Nolan county, involving a transaction of $1,050,000.

It will be remembered that this firm had the contract on our new school building. They also handled some other large contracts lately.

By a trick of the calendar which puts five Saturdays in this month, we will have three weeks between primaries this time, the law providing that the second shall be held on the second Saturday in August.

Every time you produce a good crop and market it for a fair price, raise and sell any animal for a good price, improve your home environment or use an implement or machine to good advantage you help your neighbor as well as yourself. This is where every good farmer is a missionary, a teacher and a preacher. And in this life and the life to come such farmers will be rewarded accordingly.—Henderson Times.

Selfishness is hurting the world more than almost any other one thing. If we think only of self and self interest we will never be of any worth to our county or anyone with whom we come in contact. If, when an enterprise of any kind is put on foot and we stop to ask what we are going to get out of the project the chances are we will help but little in putting through the enterprise, let it be what it may.—Quitman Democrat.

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found the call for the meeting of the Farmers' Course, under the direction of the A. & M. College, which will be held in this city August 7, 8, 9. Many distinguished visitors will be here and deliver lectures that will be of incalculable value to those who appropriate them. Many different subjects will be treated, which will include practically all the important problems of the farm by men who know what they are talking about. Last, but by no means least, it is all free, coming to us as a voluntary service from that great college, the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, and the Extension Department of Education.

The Lufkin News has a new "sign" for rain which we pass along for what it is worth: "It is from the lower animals and fowls that we often gain information of value. For instance, yesterday morning, you were a close observer, you noted that the chickens around your barnyard had their heads tucked under their wings. That meant only one thing, and that one thing was that it would rain in this precinct before the busy day was done. Even a chicken may be relied upon for some things other than occupying a position on the dining room table. Take a look at your flock this morning; the same thing may happen again today."

The Nacogdoches Sentinel throws a bomb into the last week of the campaign when it says: The candidate who hopes to win on the demerits of his opponent is no better than the estimate upon which he predicated his claim. Beware of him.—Longview Times-Clarion.

If a candidate cannot win on his own merits, he has but little chance of getting by on the shortcomings of his opponent.—Austin American.

There is still another thing about this campaign business. The fellow who holds back a "surprise" until the last hour concerning his opponent, when there is not sufficient time to answer same by the opposition, loses more votes than he gains—and that is why so many of them are defeated at the polls. They fail to make good during the progress of the race, and fail to make good by other methods at the whirlwind finish.—Lufkin News.

There is a note of tragedy in the fact that so many Confederate soldiers are "laid on the shelf," while they are still strong and energetic enough to want work. The pity of it all is that these veterans who are yet in the middle age class of men took up arms in defense of the Southland when were stripping lads, and had no further opportunity of education or of entering the professions. They were only school-boys still when the war ended, but the red-handed despoilers of the North had laid hold on the throat of the South leaving her bleeding and destitute. These brave young boys took up the work of reconstruction, which meant that they must till the fields, work in the mills and factories, or anywhere that their hands found work to do. In this day when each worker must have been trained for this particular place, the Confederate veteran who wants to work is told that he is "too old." An instance which brings this all forcibly to mind was that a veteran of 68 years was hunting a job in Fort Worth a few days ago, and we noticed that the question was asked, "When is a man too old to work?"

APPLIED PATRIOTISM.

The music of brass bands had not yet died away when the stirring notes of bugle and drum were sounding throughout the land. In response to the call of the President, the state militia began assembling and in a few hours 50,000 had reported, were ready to march, and eager for service in the Mexican crisis. This page will reach the press in a few hours, and by the time these words reach our readers, the situation may have cleared, or we may be engaged in hostilities. In either event there will be unanimous support from every state. It is no pleasant task, and one long postponed, should events make it necessary, to do for Mexico what we have done for Cuba. It has never been an American trait, however, to shrink or falter at any imposed task, however unpleasant, and there will be no half-heartedness now.

The spirit of patriotism is inspiring and assuring, for on every side the response is full-hearted. Within 24 hours the Chicago Board of Trade had tendered the services of 980 men, including many experienced officers and soldiers; men of the same intrepid valor as composed the historic battery of the same source and name in the Civil War. The ladies of Pittsburgh announced completed plans to feed every soldier passing through that city, as was done all through the days of '64. The Red Cross reports 6,000 nurses ready for instant service. State militias sprang to full recruited strength over night. Employers bade employees Godspeed with full pay while serving the country and their old positions awaiting their return. Organizations for the care and relief of soldiers' dependants otherwise unprovided for during the period of service, sprang into existence, and public-spirited citizens began pouring in their donations. We have the spirit and we have the men, but there are things even more essential, which we lack. A long campaign crying "Preparedness" now finds its justification. The machine-gun companies of the Illinois National Guard assemble, and should they go to the front, must leave without a machine gun; for the entire Illinois Guard owns but two machine guns and they are in the repair shop!—H. H. Windsor in Popular Mechanics.

A WONDERFUL ACCOMPLISHMENT.

Of the arrival in Baltimore harbors of the German undersea merchantman, the Chicago-Herald says editorially: "The successful voyage of the first submarine merchantman from Bremen to Norfolk is a romantic achievement. Captain Konig of the Deutschland has performed a brilliant exploit. He has proved again the German gift of ingenuity; he has displayed afresh the admirable seamanship of his countrymen; he has afforded topic for endless conversation, and he has shown himself to be a friend of all editors by enacting a fascinating story in time for hungry Monday editors. More than that, he has endeared himself to all men whose childhood was brightened by the glamour of Jules Verne's 'Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea.' Captain Konig has made true the miracle of boyhood. He has made even the Arabian Nights seem probable.

But after the thrill aroused by the vision of these bold pioneers of the sea has quieted down the situation, military and economic, appears much the same. The sailing record of 4,000 miles exceeds by only 500 the voyage of the U-boat which traveled from Kiel to Constantinople to sink the battleship Majestic. Other submarines of Germany and Britain whose accomplishments are now concealed by the censor's screen have probably likewise added to the sum of human valor.

"The voyage of the Deutschland and her sister ships, if there are others in the family, may prove convenient and comfortable to many people. Seven hundred and fifty tons of good dyes are not to be despised during a chromatic famine such as that through which the feminine world, not to mention the masculine world, is passing. In many ways the first submarine merchantman has added color to a somber summer.

Other interests equal at least in importance to the tint of my lady's frocks will be affected by the subsea freight line. Money and securities may be transmitted with some degree of safety. The curiosity of the British and French censors concerning mail sent to Germany and Austria may be balked somewhat. The German governments have now a means of secret communication with Washington and, too, with German citizens in this country.

Altogether the prospect opened up by the Deutschland is engaging. We may assume that her character as a genuine merchant ship will be upheld and that there will be others like her. Note, too, may be taken of actual results accomplished. High admiration should be accorded the brave men who made the trip and the inventive men who made it possible. And then for the present certainly the conclusion must be accepted that the large situation is unchanged."

NATIONAL ROAD BUILDING.

The use of national funds for road improvements was urged early in the history of this country by Alexander Hamilton. A little later Albert Gallatin succeeded in securing the passage by Congress of an act setting aside one-twentieth of the proceeds of the sale of public land in Ohio for building a highway from tidewater to the Ohio river. In 1806, President Jefferson Davis appointed three commissioners to locate this route, which ran through Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia. The first contract for construction was placed in 1810 and in 1818 part of the road was opened to travel. It was called the National Road and was built with national funds exclusively, so that the bill just passed by Congress to furnish money for road building purposes is nothing new.

The federal government did not have the same views then that it has now of the importance of maintaining highways. The National Road was the main thoroughfare for the heavy travel between the seaboard and the Ohio valley, and lack of maintenance resulted in the road becoming very poor. In 1831 Pennsylvania asked Congress to turn over to her care the portion of the road within her boundaries, and Maryland and Virginia also made a similar request somewhat later. Unfortunately, state control did not result in any marked improvement. The counties which had charge of the portions within their boundaries did not pay much attention to highway improvements, and it was not until the comparatively recent organization of state highway departments that the old National Road was given any real care.

In the last ten years, however, reconstruction has been going on steadily. In about two years the entire length in Pennsylvania will be in good condition and the portion in Maryland is also very nearly reconstructed. Farther west the old highway is not in such good condition, although sections of it have been rebuilt there. So this early venture in national road building, successful until the railroad took its place, is again in a prominent place among the highways of the country.

THOUGHTS ON ADVERTISING.

The business problem is how to get more of it and how to make it more satisfactory.

Reaching out for more business is advertising; convincing more people is good business sense.

Getting the modern spirit into advertising necessitates that the establishment must have the modern touch. No establishment can wait for business; life is too short, and rents too high. Every store must present an argument for business, and must spread that argument to a wide field. That's advertising.

The news columns of the newspaper appeal to the interest of the reader; the news value of the advertisement must fasten the attention of the same readers, and fastening that attention, will compel buying.

The advertisement can't do it all, but the advertisement can create the interest and the store force does the rest.

Advertising is a never ending problem and must be studied, worked with sweat over. The results are possible if the advertising is right.

Today is the day of advertising. Make the best of it.

The best advertisement is yet to be written, and the advertisers of today are practicing up to their best efforts.

Business comes to the man who knows how to tell about the advantages of buying what he is offering.

It is impossible to convince people unless you have both the stock to sell and the ability to tell why it is worth buying.

Old friends are made better friends through better advertising.—Brenham Banner.

CARRANZA WOULD SEEK TO SUBDUER LOWER CALIFORNIA

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Inauguration of a campaign by the de facto government of Mexico against General Cantu, governor of Lower California, was reported today in advices transmitted to the war department by army officials on the border. The war department issued a statement saying it was reported 4000 men had been ordered to Guaymas to embark for Lower California ports.

Governor Cantu has held aloof from all factions in Mexico, issuing a formal neutrality proclamation, and Lower California has been independent since the war between Carranza and Villa began.

URGES COLORED FARMERS TO FIGHT BOLL WEEVILS

To the Colored Farmers of Nacogdoches County:

I take this method of urging upon you the absolute necessity of taking immediate action to do what you can to check the destructive work of the boll weevils. The remedies are simple, requiring only industry to use them. Pick up and burn all punctured squares at once as they form the hatching places for the young weevils. The weevils bore a hole in the squares and deposit their eggs therein and in fourteen or twenty-one days you have a new generation of boll weevils. So you easily see how hundreds of weevils soon become thousands, and thousands soon become millions if left alone. When the first appear in early summer they are usually few in number but later in the summer there are a great many. You see the reason. The increase is due to the rapidity with which they multiply. If the squares and other blighted forms are gathered and burned there is no other way for them to increase, according to the best authority I have on the subject, and I have read bulletins from both the State and National Departments of Agriculture, heard demonstration agents talk, read a great deal in the newspapers, studied the subject in college, heard it discussed in four meetings of the State Farmers' Congress by Hon. Clarence Ousley and other experts from the A. & M. College, spent twenty-five years of my life on the farm, and therefore, feel that I am fairly well prepared to advise you.

If you are not in a position to pick up the squares you will have to resort to the next best thing which is the cultural method. It is as follows: Plow through the middles with a large sweep. Use an old shovel six or eight inches wide so that you can plow very shallow. Tie a small, limber brush to your single tree that will touch the cotton gently as you plow, and cause all punctured forms to fall at once and your sweep will bury them in the hot sand and there they will be baked so they will not hatch. I would suggest that you do this once every eight or ten days until the middle of August. This shallow sweep-cultivation has another great advantage. It breaks the capillary tubes and stops the moisture from escaping. So you save your moisture at the same time which insures a greater yield per acre. Knocking through the cotton with the boxes will also help greatly. Do not "lay by too soon."

Let us see the economic value of all this. Suppose, for argument's sake that your crop will be six bales of cotton. You have heard that weevils cut crops from one to two thirds. Suppose yours is cut one third. Taking the current prices at an average of 13c you would lose between $150 and $160, counting the seed; half would cause a loss of $300 or more, a handsome sum, it seems to me for a farmer to save in thirty or sixty days. More than you can make at a mill or any other kind of work that I know in the length of time. But the greatest loss comes in the loss of your credit. Money saved is money made. I have been picking up my squares for about three weeks and do not see that I have many more weevils now than when I first began, while if I had not picked up the squares, I really think my field would be full of weevils today, as each female lays about one hundred eggs.

A large number of the white business men and farmers have begun an active campaign against the boll weevils in this county and are accomplishing wonderful results, but this is a battle that they can not fight successfully alone. There must be co-operation among all of the farmers if the weevil is to be controlled. We can not expect a continuance of credit unless we take a lively interest in this fight and do our utmost to eradicate the pest as the white people are doing. It is a common enemy and all must fight, so I urge upon you again to act along the lines just suggested. These methods, have brought results to others and will bring results to you. I shall be glad to talk more with you about this pest at your school houses or any other place you may suggest. Save your cotton and have peace of mind for yourselves, happiness and comfort for your families, and the respect and confidence of your friends. Yours for less boll weevils and more cotton, J. H. ROWE, Secretary of Col Teachers' State Association, Trawick, Texas.

THE NORMAL CLOSSES.

From Friday's Daily.

The Nacogdoches Summer Normal closed its successful eight weeks' session today at 4:30. The attendance has not been as great as expected, but has been good—much better than that of any other summer normal of this section of the state. We have heard from five or six other normals that have enrolled from forty to seventy-five student teachers each. Our total enrollment has run to about ninety. The attendance has been exceptionally regular and the student body and teachers have all done as earnest and efficient work as could reasonably be expected for the summer months.

The Normal takes this method to thank the people of Nacogdoches for the many courtesies shown us. Among these we want to especially mention the use of the excellent buildings and equipment that have been at our disposal, the ride given by the city in honor of the Normal, the many instructive, helpful and interesting lectures, addresses and other entertainments given us, and other special favors too numerous to mention. We wish also to express our appreciation to Prof. T. R. Day of Rio, Brazil, for his excellent address to the body, and to several other out-of-town guests who have extended us courtesies.

The writer of this column is sure that he expresses the sentiment of the Normal when he thanks the Sentinel for the space given us in the paper for the Normal news. The space hasn't always been well filled, but we wrote as we have seen and have and by the help of the good editors, we have produced what you have been reading in the column. Pass your own judgment. We have finished.

ROBT. LINDSEY, President. H. T. MAST, Secretary.

FROM J. E. TEUTSCH.

To the Voters of Nacogdoches County: I feel very grateful for the support given me last Saturday. I am duly appreciative for every kindness and courtesy extended me.

I earnestly solicit your vote in the coming second primary. If elected I will do my duty by your office at all times.

Again thanking you for your past favors and courtesies and respectfully soliciting your further consideration, I am,

Gratefully yours, JOHN E. TEUTSCH, Candidate For Tax Collector.

The Sentinel learns with regret that it was necessary for the physicians attending Master Eugene Thomas, to re-set his broken leg yesterday, and that he is suffering very much today. At the time of the first set his limb was swollen so it was impossible to give him the scientific treatment that was necessary, hence the second treatment, from which he will rally in a few days and have a perfect limb when he finally recovers.

NACOGDOCHES TOURING PARTY IN EUREKA SPRINGS, ARK.

The following report of a party of Nacogdoches people, who have been touring several states in automobiles, report of which has already appeared in this paper, is taken from the Daily Times-Echo, of July 13, published in Eureka Springs, Ark.:

"I. L. Sturdevant, president of the Stone Fort National Bank, of Nacogdoches, Tex., and family, Thomas E. Baker and family, and Judge B. E. Strong and family, arrived in Eureka Springs this morning in three Reo automobiles, after a road trip of about 667 miles. The party is on a pleasure tour and will spend several days in Eureka Springs. The tourists named their outfit 'The Reo Special.' They have completed a rather unusual and remarkable trip. They camped last night at the spring this side of the Sanitarium Lake.

"While in Fort Smith the party were interviewed by a Reo Dealer, who turned the interview into an advertising ad, and as it makes good reading for the readers of the Times-Echo, we copy the ad from the Times-Record verbatim:

"Five Hundred and forty-seven miles through Texas and over Arkansas hills without a single repair! That is the remarkable record of three Reo cars that passed through Fort Smith yesterday. Read what a Texas fanker says about the Reo:

"Shortly after noon Monday, three arrived in Fort Smith three Reo automobiles en route from Nacogdoches, Tex., to Eureka Springs. These cars had just accomplished what is perhaps one of the most remarkable overland tours recorded in Fort Smith. The fact that three cars of the same manufacture were used by tourists is unusual in itself, but the fact that these three cars should each undergo the same severe test of endurance and each reach its destination—547 miles—without a single repair is recognized as a test without parallel in this section of the country. Much has been written of endurance tests of single cars but when three Reos act and work identically the same under the same road conditions it is evidence in itself that the Reo stands supreme in uniformity of construction.

"The pleasure party was composed of Judge B. E. Strong and family, Thomas E. Baker and family, I. L. Sturdevant and family. Mr. Sturdevant is president of the Stone Fort National Bank of Nacogdoches, Tex.

"We left our home in Texas on Thursday morning," said Mr. Sturdevant, "and spent one-half day at Shreveport La., and arrived in Fort Smith shortly after noon Monday, making the trip consume only about three and one-half days actual running time. The Reo stood up under every test, plying through the deep sands of Texas and over the rough roads in the vicinity of Hot Springs. This is my first overland trip and I want to say that the Reo can always be depended upon under any circumstances and is ready to go at the touch of the button."

FOOD SHORTAGE FOLLOWS FLOOD ON EAST COAST

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 21.—Food shortage in many of the more remote sections of Western North Carolina, which were swept by last Sunday's floods, were reported today, and information here was that at some places, notably Mortimer and Collettsville, near Hickory, the population actually feared famine unless speedy relief was forthcoming. Federal aid has been asked for the people in Morgantown and vicinity that Wilkesboro, and it was expected that similar requests would be made for other sections.

Latest reports today were of great destruction by the floods in parts of Wilkes, Ashe, Watauga and Alexander counties, and it was in those counties that the greatest suffering among the people existed. In many places the people were said to be living on potatoes alone, all other foodstuffs having been carried away by the flood waters.

Seven additional fatalities were reported overnight and the death toll from the floods now stands at from 80 to 90. Denial is made of reports yesterday that 10 persons had met death at Alta Pass, and if there were no fatalities there the known toll of life stands at 80.

Mrs. Gilbert Clappitt and two children, of Siloam, Ark., are in the city, visiting with the father of her husband, Mr. Frank Clappitt. This is the first time "Grandpa" Clappitt has had the opportunity to get acquainted with his grand-children, and he is enjoying the privilege.

COUNTY MAN MOVING TO SAN AUGUSTINE

Messrs. H. C. Wiley and W. W. Turner motored to the city Tuesday for the purpose of closing a contract for a building in which to open a new mercantile establishment. General merchandising with special catering to the high class dry goods and gents furnishing trade will be the line handled.

Mr. Adams of Pineland, a prominent lumberman of that city, who is a brother-in-law of Mr. Wiley, and has been in this city several times recently looking over the city and investigating matters connected with the new business, is interested with Mr. Wiley.

Mr. Wiley is a man of family. He has been in the employ of Garrison, Langston & Co., of Garrison, for the past six or seven years, and is considered a splendid salesman.

AUSTIN HAS FIRE LOSS OF $50,000

AUSTIN, Texas, July 23.—Austin was visited a little after noon today by a disastrous fire in the heart of the city, which not only destroyed upward of $50,000 of property, but put out of commission the telephone service of the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company.

The fire broke out in the rear of Johnson Bros. Tire Company on Congress Avenue and before the firemen could check the blaze it had practically gutted the building.

The wall from the burning building fell on the roof of the Southwestern Telephone Building and practically ruined the switchboard.

This occurred just three minutes after the telephone operators had escaped from the building.

A section of wall also fell on the roof of the building adjoining, occupied by John L. Martin's plumbing establishment, and the loss to this place is quite heavy.

The large hardware store of W. H. Richardson & Co. was seriously threatened, but the fire was under control before it reached the Richardson store.

The seed store of C. J. Martin, which was in a portion of the building burned, was also almost a total loss. Several firemen were overcome in fighting the flames. The building was owned by the Kreisle estate. The loss to the telephone company may reach $15,000.

SEVEN INJURED IN COLLISION: TROOP TRAIN IS IN WRECK

Seven persons were injured, one dangerously, but none fatally, when a homeseeker train collided with a troop train on the Gulf Coast line's Sunday morning at 6:50 o'clock at Bay City. All of the injured were members of the homeseeker train. It was reported to the company agent at Bay City that two soldiers claimed slight injuries.

The injured: Cliff Poe, porter, seriously injured. Conductor Sparks, arm broken and other injuries.

John J. Conway of Minneapolis, Minn., arm fractured.

C. H. Holton of Perry, Mo., arm fractured.

Mrs. L. B. Ash of Mission, Texas, slightly injured.

George Swaysie, porter, slightly injured.

Joe Wood, chef, slightly injured in the side.

The troop train contained the First and second sections of the First Minnesota Field Artillery and was going south. The homeseeker train was northbound. An investigation was started by officials at Bay City, but general offices at Houston were told that failure of the troop train to take the siding at Bay City, according to orders, was believed to be the cause of the accident. The troop train was standing still and the homeseeker train going at a slow rate when the accident occurred.

Six Guardsmen Hurt.

BAY CITY, July 23.—It was reported here this afternoon that six soldiers were hurt, none seriously, in the Gulf Coast lines wreck this morning, and that Jack Ryan, cook in Battery D, First Minnesota Artillery, was hurt badly enough to be taken to the hospital. The soldiers were all able to accompany the battery to the border. Conductor Sparks is in the hospital here. Artillery wagons were slightly damaged in the wreck.

U. S. SHARPLY CALLS ON ALLIES TO REPLY

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Acting Secretary Polk announced today he had made formal inquiry of France and Great Britain as to why no reply had been received to the last American note regarding interference with neutral mails, and had asked for a response at the earliest possible moment.

Inquiry as to why certain business concerns in America have been placed on a black list under Great Britain's "trading with the enemy act" were directed to the British government by the state department today through both the British embassy here and Ambassador Page at London.

Information is sought specifically regarding a number of firms, names of which have been made public by the department. There is no discussion of principle in the inquiry, that matter being left for attention after the American government is fully informed on the facts.

LONDON, July 21.—The foreign office today handed to Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador, a memorandum replying to specific complaints made against the British mail censorship in the recent American note on that subject. The actual reply to the note, however, is not yet in readiness. The memorandum will be published Monday.

CURE FOR INFANTILE PARALYSIS FOUND

NEW YORK, July 20.—Health department officials and physicians who have been attempting to discover a remedy for infantile paralysis showed keen interest in a statement made by Dr. N. McL. Whitaker of Brooklyn that in about a dozen cases of the disease which have been treated by him beneficial results had been obtained by hypodermic injections of quinine and ureahydrochloride.

Dr. Whitaker said that this prescription can be used internally, but he prefers to use it as an injection because it acts as an anesthetic and does not disturb the child's stomach as it does when given internally.

Parents were urged to give particular care to the mouths and teeth of their children.

On only one day since the inception of the epidemic of infantile paralysis on June 26 have more fatalities from the disease occurred than in the last 24 hours. During this period the plague killed 31 children and there were 119 cases reported in the five boroughs of New York City.

The latest figures show that the mortality rate still is slightly less than 20 per cent. Since the beginning of the epidemic there have been 487 deaths and 2446 cases.

E. C. ROBINSON DIES

AT LOGANSPORT, LA. LOGANSPORT, La., July 19.—E. C. Robinson, Sr., one of Logansport's oldest and most honored citizens, passed away this morning after a lingering illness.

Mr. Robinson was born in Madison county, Tenn., March 24, 1847. For many years he was a prosperous farmer in East Texas, moving to Logansport about 20 years ago. Until his retirement from business a few years ago, he was a prominent merchant and director in the Bank of Logansport.

The deceased is survived by three daughters: Mrs. J. O. Pace and Miss Mollie Robinson of this city, and Mrs. I. C. Oden of Dallas, Texas; five sons, Dr. E. C. and Clyde of this city, and J. M., H. C. and Yancey Robinson of Shreveport; one sister, Mrs. Flora Simpson of Shreveport and two brothers, W. M. Robinson of Godeau, La., and Kit Robinson of Shreveport.

The funeral services were conducted this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member. Dr. M. E. Dodd of Shreveport had charge of the services.

A host of friends extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved family in their hour of sorrow.

East Texas crops are fine and flourishing.

The candidates are still joking about it, win or lose. Better laugh than cry, and live until they die.

If you did not get all of your favorite candidates nominated, don't feel peeved—the other fellow didn't, either.

Cheer up! You know what Sherman said about war—the definition will apply with equal force to political warfare. It is—terrible.

Quit worrying about your troubles and think what a fine, juicy, red-meat watermelon you can get for a dime. Isn't it a wonder!

Now that the primary election is over, and the candidates have been thinned down to two in a hill, let's all get together and thin down the boll weevils.

Colquitt is about 20,000 votes ahead of Culberson, but in the next primary it is expected that Culberson will exceed Colquitt by the support from the retired candidates.

In San Antonio, a blind man, Judge Osceola Archer, was nominated for district clerk, over Andreo Coy, a Mexican who had held the office for ten years.

A headline says that "Villa's Hurt Leg Makes Him Give Squawks of pain." The daring desperado could get an "operation" on this side of the border which would forever put to rest that trouble.

Stripped of his "Cyclone," J. H. Davis did not weather the gale.—Temple Telegram.

This "Cyclone" "spent its force" when he made uncomplimentary reference to illustrious sons of sacred memory of the south. Not even a "gentle zephyr" remains.

Mr. O. M. Gibbs, The Sentinel's editor, has been confined to his bed with malarial fever and "tacky chills" for the past few days, and this editing business is rather strenuous on the balance of us boys.—Please pardon all of Mr. Gibbs' shortcomings and don't throw too many bouquets at the balance of us. Gibbs is just trying to pull off a fashionable stunt in using a little quinine.

With a $300,000,000 naval appropriation and a $300,000,000 army bill the country should have no reason to complain of what the present administration is doing for preparedness.—Houston Chronicle.

And as patriotic citizens we will be supposed not to raise any "howl" over the burdens it imposes in taxations, high-cost-of-living, etc.—It is great to be "prepared," you know.

An editorial paying tribute to the Confederate veterans appearing in yesterday's paper should have been accredited to the Hamilton Record, and we hasten with this explanation in the fear that it may be misunderstood to have reference to some particular condition in this county. The article was written by a young man who believes, in common with many of the balance of us, that a man should not be condemned for his age so long as his usefulness is not impaired.

A beautiful lesson of heroism can be gleaned from the report of the mine disaster, near Cleveland, Ohio, a few days ago, in which twenty-two men lost their lives. The first rescue party consisted of seven men, four of whom lost their lives; the second party was comprised of eleven men, six of whom lost their lives. On the theory that "if there is a greater probability of saving my brother's life than losing my own," the third rescue party was at work when the report was closed. Such heroism, and the manifestation of such brotherly love, is the greatest virtue of American manhood, and contributes the most prominent part in making America great.

A dispatch from Washington says, in substance, that the Republicans are pleased with the strength of Colquitt, construing it as a repudiation of the Wilson administration. This should be enough to put Texas democratic voters on guard. As Governor, we remember his spectacular performances, in which he tried to tell the national government how to run its affairs, and his radical moves along many other lines, in lending his efforts to win the German vote to his column through a compromise of American disloyalty. We are glad to supplement this information with the fact that the good German citizenship was too intelligent and too patriotic to be inveigled with his scheme, and that many of them will join native-born Americans in burying under an avalanche of votes this man of such doubtful loyalty.

The matter of loaning China thirty million dollars, to "put it on its feet," is engaging the attention of American financiers. The old nation has had a long time in which to accomplish this desired end; now let it lay aside its wooden shoes and grow a foundation of social and financial fabric upon which to use its "feet," and American financiers will do the rest.

If the Sentinel appears "top-heavy" with editorial matter today, it may be charged up to the fact that it was all the editor could do to assist with the make-up of the paper today, having not sufficiently recovered from his illness to "chase the fire wagon," "work the hotels," and other public places and keep up with the local news as it breaks.

The Republican congressman who boasted that Texas has repudiated President Wilson and nominated Colquitt as United States Senator will have another guess coming after the next Senatorial primary. Mr. Colquitt's vote was not a majority vote of the people of Texas by long odds and viewing the situation from this point the story will be better told at the next primary. There is little doubt in the minds of the people of Texas, at this time, but that Culberson will succeed himself.

Quinine has gone "out of reach" on account of the war, it being now 750 per cent higher than it formerly was. Such a price as that ought to put chills out of favor until conditions become normal.—Lufkin News.

Wrong, brother. For some years it has been considered exceedingly "tacky" to have chills, and people of respectability have had to be content with "rigors," "slight indisposition," etc. Now only the well-to-do can afford the treatment, and we look for a return of the old-fashion chills.

The reason it meant so much by way of surprise to so many people is because the average man is too prone to let his wishes run away with his judgment.

There is nothing very remarkable in the strength developed by Colquitt, the vote against Governor Ferguson or the closeness of the contest over submission.

Mr. Colquitt's aggressiveness, coupled with the fact that he is the center and front of all democratic opposition to the Wilson administration in this state could not help giving him a very sharply defined position among so many candidates. Of all the aspirants for the United States senate he was the only one who carried the real issue into the campaign, and that this issue should have resulted in giving him possibly one-fourth of the total vote is not particularly insignificant. In the run-off he will find conditions very different, for then his issues will prove a handicap as well as a help, and will serve to concentrate against him all supporters of the present administration, just as they served to concentrate all its opponents in his favor in the recent primary.

The unexpectedly large vote cast against Governor Ferguson was by way of protest again some of the methods he has employed and some of the things he has favored. As a governor the people of Texas like him very well, but they take issue with some of his ways. They do not like his interference with general politics. They do not like his palpable inclination to dictate who shall, or shall not, be elected to certain offices.

The closeness of the contest over submission simply proves that the liquor question is the big issue in Texas. Those who try to persuade themselves otherwise are merely the victims of self-illusionment. For the past ten years the people of this state have been very evenly divided on this issue, a fact which would perpetuate it as a political bugbear whether or not it possessed any interest by itself. Not only has it become a bone of contention in principle, but what is more regrettable, it is made the determining factor in many races where the character and qualifications of the candidate should constitute the only issue involved. Many a voter makes his choice purely on the ground of whether a man is an anti or a pro. This proves that prohibition is the overshadowing question, but at the same time it leads to many an unwise selection.—Houston Chronicle.

Luther Prince of Garrison, one of the candidates for Sheriff who succeeds to the second primary, was in the city today meeting with the voters on his second race.

TEXAS SUGAR.

For something like a year I have been carrying in my pocket the inclosed clipping, all the while wondering if it be a colossal lie or a shameful truth," J. P. Ward wrote to The News not long ago. The clipping from the Brenham Banner, stated that there is a sugar refinery in Texas with a capacity of 12,000 barrels a day, but that only 600 barrels a day are sold in Texas, notwithstanding the sugar consumption of Texas last year was nearly 50,000 barrels." Of course the figures are awry, since if Texas is consuming 600 barrels of Texas sugar every day, its total annual consumption is decidedly more than 50,000 barrels. But what aroused Mr. Ward into asking whether this was a colossal lie or a shameful truth was the further statement that "Texas consumers could locate a half dozen refineries in Texas by asking for Texas-made sugar." Mr. Ward was evidently under the belief that this Texas refinery which made 12,000 barrels a day could sell only 600 barrels a day in Texas, notwithstanding Texas used many times its output.

The question was passed on to Mr. Eldridge of the Imperial Sugar Company, which operates the only refinery in the state. Mr. Eldridge replied that its output is 1,400 barrels a day—not 12,000; that from 800 to 1,000 barrels per day are sold in Texas, dependent on market conditions, and that the consumption of sugar in Texas is about 4,000 barrels a day. So the tale is neither a colossal lie nor a shameful truth, but in some respects an exaggeration of the facts. It is true, however, as a criticism of Texas enterprise, in that Texas falls far short of making enough sugar even for its own needs.—Dallas News.

WHAT HAVE WE EVER DONE.

We are rather a backward people. Barring a few railroad enterprises which were inaugurated by the first settlers of this country we have only left the rats as we have been forced to cut. We have taken the initiative in nothing. The telephone was forced upon us and forced out in the rural districts. No body of persons ever put their money and brains together and went after these things. The rural route delivery came like the rains, but in a mysterious way we pay all the costs. But if it had not come until our people whom it serves had taken the initiative, voted the tax and made all the arrangements it would not be here now. We hear people crying in a loud voice, for a rural credit system by which the farmers can borrow money at a low rate of interest on long time. The law is here, and we hear not a word of any man to take the necessary steps towards the organization required under the law before money can be loaned. We may expect later, however, the coming of some shrewd fellow or fellows who will attend to the rural credit business all right. They will be in on time. The Federal government is expending millions of dollars for the eradication of ticks, and thereby saving the farmers many more millions of dollars, but that requires co-operation for the good of the many, and as the government is not willing to do the whole thing, as carrying the mail, etc, we pay our part of the mysterious tax and deny ourselves of any of its benefits.—Col. Milner.

MAKING TIME PROSPEROUS.

Prosperity to a considerable degree rests upon the whims of the business interests of the country and upon the people themselves. If they are optimistic and believe in prosperity and work faithfully to that end prosperity will be with us, regardless of conditions in other countries. We are a self supporting people and are not dependent upon the whims or exertions of others. But if we become pessimistic and constantly predict disaster and force ourselves to the belief that it is to come, then we are likely to get no more than that which we predict.

A few people through the constant use of their tongues can in time instill into the minds of others the same atmosphere of gloom that pervades them, and this is spread to others, until communities and states and whole nations suffer from the effect. But prosperity can be made, if we want it. It will remain, if we nurse it.

We should talk prosperity, feel prosperity, and act prosperity if we would have prosperity, for in no other way will we meet up with the favors of the gods.

It is up to you, to every citizen to work for prosperity in this community for it is an almost universal rule of man that we receive in proportion as we do.—Ex.

AUTOMOBILE AND PREJUDICE.

This prejudice that we hear so much about against the automobile is bound to be of short life. The same kind of prejudice existed against the ox cart. When the man who had carried his freight from his farm on his shoulder and his goods from the store back home, had to give part of the trail to the man who came along with one steer hitched to a cart, he got mad, declared that the country was rapidly going to the demitition bow-wows, and that he would never consent to have the trail made wider for a lot of big-headed, stuck-up drivers. It was not long, however, until nearly every man in the country had him a cart and a steer, and later two steers were often hitched to one vehicle. But those were equally times in the land when the fellow came trotting along with two horses harnessed up to some kind of a truck, four wheels, all of wood. Between the ox driver and the horse truck chaffeur there was a veritable war. Ox carts measured their strength with horse trucks, and many a scene, dust rising like a whirlwind, and things like the wreck and ruin of a cyclone disappearing in the woods, often occurred along the public highways. But when the carriage and the buggy made their appearance, claiming the right to travel through the country on public roads there was something doing which caused other public highway contests to pale into insignificance. It was not so long ago that buggies first appeared in East Texas, and the sorriest negro in the land is now given all the room he needs to pass by in his buggy. It will not be a dozen years until we poor white folks and negroes will be using automobiles, and all we will ask of the rich will be to keep their flying ships just high enough from the earth that they will not become entangled with the head-gear of our seven passenger limousines. The more we think about prejudice and what it means, the more thoroughly are we convinced that Jim Hogg was correct when he said that it is the child of ignorance and the idol of fools. In Iowa a majority of the farmers already, and as horse truck superseded the ox cart, so will the automobile take the place of the buggy, and the motor trucks will take the place of the wagon; and the time in which all these things will take place is drawing near.—Col. Milner in Rusk County News.

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nacogdoches County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Seymour March, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Nacogdoches County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Nacogdoches, on the 1st Monday in September, A. D. 1916, the same being the 4th day of September, A. D. 1916, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 6th day of December, A. D. 1915 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 384, wherein Mattie March, is Plaintiff and Seymour March is Defendant, and said petition alleging that she is an actual bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas, and has resided in Nacogdoches County, Texas, for more than six months next preceeding the filing of this suit.

That on or about the day of January, A. D. 1896, Plaintiff and Defendant were lawfully married to each other and lived and co-habited together as man and wife until on or about the day of September 1911, when Defendant abandoned this Plaintiff without cause on her part, and with the intention of permanently abandoning her and not living with her again as his wife, and they have not so lived together as man and wife since the date of their separation.

Plaintiff alleges that she at all times made the Defendant a kind and affectionate wife; that more than three years have elapsed since the date of their separation, therefore, she pleads the statute of three years abandonment for the dissolution of said marital contract.

Premises considered Plaintiff prays the Court that the defendant Seymour March be cited to appear and answer this petition; that upon a hearing hereof she have judgment dissolving said marriage contract, for costs of suit and such other and further relief both special and general as she will ever pray.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Nacogdoches, this the 25th day of July, A. D. 1916.

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nacogdoches County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Garfield Anderson, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Nacogdoches County, to be held at the Court House hereof, in Nacogdoches, on the 1st Monday in September, A. D. 1916, the same being the 4th day of September, A. D. 1916, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 10th day of July, A. D. 1916, in a suit numbered on the docket of the said Court as No. 409, wherein Lellie Anderson is Plaintiff, and said petition alleging that on or about the day of—A. D. 195 Plaintiff and Defendant were lawfully married to each other in Nacogdoches County, Texas, and thereafter lived together as husband and wife until on or about the 15th day of February A. D. 1916, when Plaintiff was compelled to abandon Defendant with the intention of remaining away from him.

That during the time they so lived together as husband and wife Plaintiff made Defendant a kind and dutiful wife, but Defendant unmindful of his marital vows persisted in cruel, outrageous treatment, towards Plaintiff, and would strike Plaintiff without cause or provocation, thereby rendering their living together insupportable.

That as a result of said marriage there were born to them three children, Chester Anderson, a boy 11 years old, B. B. Anderson, a boy 8 years old, and Genevieve Anderson, a girl now 6 years old; that all of said children are now with this Plaintiff, who is earning for and supporting them. That Defendant refuses to contribute anything to the support of said children, and is not a proper person to raise and educate them.

Wherefore Plaintiff prays the Court that Defendant be cited to appear and answer this petition; and that upon a final hearing hereof she have judgment annulling the bonds of matrimony now existing between Plaintiff and Defendant for the custody of children above named, for costs of suit and general relief.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Nacogdoches, this the 25th day of July, A. D. 1916.

CLAUDE C. WATSON, Clerk. District Court, Nacogdoches County.

FROM V. E. MIDDLEBROOK. To the Voters and Citizens of Nacogdoches County: According to press reports my opponent, Hon. A. E. Davis, has received the primary endorsement to succeed me in the Ninth Court of Civil Appeals.

To those who unselfishly came to my support when I was assailed by some of my homefolks, I tender my sincere thanks and I trust that in my humble way, I may, some time, have the privilege of serving you as potently as you have been pleased, without solicitation on my part, to bare your arm in my behalf.

Fire brings out the gold; test under adversity finds the friend. I trust that gratitude shall continue to be one of the major tenets of my life, and that ingratitude shall never find lodgment in my heart.

To those of my home people who opposed me, whatever may have been your reasons for doing so, I tender you the victory and hope that you may be able to look back over your activities against me and find cause for more pleasure to you than the defeat has caused me pain.

To the citizenship at large, permit me to say my work as Associate Justice has been faithful and upright without fear or favor, regarding any person or concern, and when analyzed by competent, honest minds will stand the test of legal expression and precedent as handed down by eminent jurists of our land.

It pleases me to announce that nothing has been said or done by me during the campaign that could cause any person displeasure.

Now that the little scrap is over, let those of us who belong to the legal profession work to the end that the Ninth Court of Civil Appeals shall become the leading and most efficient appellate forum of the land, and Nacogdoches and Nacogdoches county, the loved spot of all Texans.

Sincerely yours, V. E. MIDDLEBROOK.

FROM J. F. PERRITTE. To the Voters of Nacogdoches County: I am deeply grateful for the majority I received at the Democratic primaries last Saturday over both of my opponents, making my nomination secure without a second primary.

I shall ever remember with gratitude those who so willingly and faithfully supported me in the race for County Judge, and will entertain no feeling against those who supported either of my opponents, who are excellent gentlemen.

My one aim and ambition shall be to perform my duty well and faithfully to all of the people of this county, and I earnestly ask for the co-operation of the citizens of this county, looking to an administration of the affairs of the county, so that no one shall have just cause to complain.

Respectfully, J. F. PERRITTE.

FROM B. S. SHIRLEY. To the People of Nacogdoches County: I have no other means at this time of expressing my appreciation of the splendid vote you gave me in last Saturday's primary.

I would be glad to have the opportunity to meet each of you and in person express my thanks for your support. I cannot do so at present. I am most grateful to everyone, who in any way assisted me in the campaign.

To those in whose homes I have been entertained I express my most grateful appreciation. To those who saw fit to support my opponent will say that I have the kindest regard for them and I will endeavor in every respect to be faithful to their every interest.

Yours to serve, B. S. SHIRLEY.

FROM EDWIN W. TILLERY. As you, perhaps, already know that I am one of the lucky candidates to go to the second primary, I want to thank every one who helped me and say to those who voted for the other candidates that I have no blame to lay up against anyone for voting for their choice.

If those who voted for me in the first primary will come out to the second primary and help me again and those who voted for Mr. Muckleroy will join us, I feel that I will be elected. If the people of this precinct will elect me to the office of commissioner I pledge them the very best service in my physical and mental power.

I want to say in this connection that I favor good roads and shall give them special attention.

Very respectfully, EDWIN W. TILLERY.

FROM A. T. RUSSELL. To the Democrats of Nacogdoches County: Some of you voted for me on last Saturday; the majority of you voted against me. I want to sincerely thank those who voted for me, because I think you did so believing you could raise the standard of public service thereby. I congratulate those who voted again for me for they are on the winning side.

I also congratulate my opponents—Judge Perritte for the overwhelming endorsement his administration received, and Judge Ingraham for the remarkable support he received, without personally soliciting a single vote, without making a single speech, and record as a citizen, lawyer and judge.

My gratitude for past honors is not in the least diminished by my defeat on last Saturday.

Yours very sincerely, A. T. RUSSELL.

FROM W. Y. HALL. To the Democratic Voters of Nacogdoches County: I very much appreciate the splendid vote given me on last Saturday, in the Primary, for County Treasurer.

I received enough votes to put me in the Second Primary, and I take this method of saying to the voters of this County that I will very much appreciate your support and influence in said Primary. Of course it will be impossible for me to see any great number of the voters between now and the second Primary on account of the limited time, and for that reason I am taking this method of asking your support.

I assure you that if I am elected to the office of County Treasurer, that I will devote my entire time and attention to it, and will undertake to perform the duties of the office faithfully.

Sincerely yours, W. Y. HALL.

FROM J. C. MELTON. To the Voters of Nacogdoches County: I wish through the medium of the press of the county to express my sincere appreciation to the voters for their loyal support on Saturday last at the Primary election held on that date.

I assure you that I am very grateful indeed for this expression of confidence and to also say by this loyal support you placed me as one of the leading men to go before you again in the Second Primary with Mr. J. E. Teutsch as my opponent.

Since the short time that will elapse from now until the next Primary will not enable me to visit every voter and personally solicit his support, I take this opportunity of appealing to you again go to the polls on Saturday, August 12th and render me all the assistance you can.

I feel that I am capable of filling the office to your entire satisfaction and having been so unfortunate as to lose one of my limbs prevents me from doing manual labor and, if elected to the office I ask at your hands I will be able to be more comfortably situated than at present.

Again assuring you of my deep appreciation for your past support and earnestly asking you to help me out on the "home stretch," I remain, Yours very truly, J. C. MELTON.

FROM G. B. LAYTON. The Daily Sentinel: Please say to the good people that I am very grateful for the large number of votes given me last Saturday.

I shall ever cherish this expression of their kindness and confidence, and will try to act so that no one may have cause to regret supporting me. While I have a lead of 515 votes over my opponent, I do not want my friends to feel too confident, but to get busy and to stay with me to the end. I shall count on each one of them.

Prof. Stripling, Matthews and myself are good friends and I have no unkind feeling for any one who thought best to vote for them.

I wish every voter to investigate the qualification of Mr. Matthews and myself and to vote for the man who will make them the best officer. I wish to thank each and every one of my friends for their loyal support on last Saturday and urge them to stay with me in the next Primary.

I shall not be able to make a house to house canvass, but will see as many as possible. Thanking the people for what they have already done for me, and asking for a continuance of their support, promising if elected to give my entire time and best efforts to the schools.

Yours for better schools, G. B. LAYTON.

FROM A. J. HAGAN. To the Voters of Precinct No. 1: I am deeply grateful for the support given me for constable. I am still in the race, and I most earnestly solicit the support of all concerned.

Please give me your careful consideration. I promise to make good in every way. Let me show you, A. J. HAGAN.

FROM LUTHER PRINCE. To the Voters of Nacogdoches County: You very kindly gave me a big vote in the Primary Saturday. I am the leading man for Sheriff according to unofficial returns.

I have made a hard fight in an honorable way and thank the people for their kindness. I am a poor boy and hard pressed financially and I take this method to ask you to help me win in the Second Primary.

I have had two years experience as constable and feel that I am well qualified for the office. I have no trade or profession and you will help me a great deal by giving me the Sheriff's office.

If you elect me I promise to give the people my best efforts, day or night. I will select capable, clean men for my deputies.

I promise to run the Sheriff's office for the people and run it in a respectable way. Give me a chance and I will give you the best there is in me as an officer.

I was born and raised in Nacogdoches County, and my father and mother are natives of Nacogdoches County and lived useful, honorable lives here. Again thanking you I am, Yours very respectfully, LUTHER PRINCE.

FROM NORMAL B. HALL. To the People: In the recent primary I was one of the fortunate ones to go to the second.

I want every one who voted for me to know that I greatly appreciate their support and to those who voted for one of the other candidates to know that I feel no animosity toward them but fully appreciate their position in having some one else for their first choice.

If the people will turn out to the next primary August 12th and elect me to the office of District Clerk I shall do all within my power to make a good one, and certainly never give them cause to regret their action.

Very respectfully, NORMAL B. HALL.

FROM MR. MATTHEWS. To the Voters of Nacogdoches County: I take this method of thanking each of you for the splendid vote you gave me on last Saturday.

I am very grateful for this expression of confidence you have in me. I received sufficient votes on last Saturday to put me in the Second Primary. I will not be able to see each of you personally between now and the Second Primary as the time is limited, and I respectfully solicit, through the columns of the press your support and influence at said Primary.

Again thanking you for past favors and assuring you that I shall greatly appreciate your further support and influence in my behalf at the coming Primary, I am, Yours for an energetic school administration, ERNEST W. MATTHEWS.

FROM JUDGE HUSTON. To the Voters of Justice Precinct No. 1: This is to express to you, in my humble way, my sincere thanks for your most liberal support in last Saturday's Primary.

I feel like the large vote I received indicates that I have discharged my duty, and now assure you that it will be my greatest aim and desire to fully and faithfully perform my duties the very best I possibly can to all alike.

I again express my heartfelt thanks for your support as my re-election assures me a living for the next two years and I hope to be able to prove to you that I appreciate my re-nomination. Gatefully yours, F. D. HUSTON.

FROM J. E. TEUTSCH. To the Voters of Nacogdoches County: I feel very grateful for the support given me last Saturday. I am duly appreciative for every kindness and courtesy extended me.

I earnestly solicit your vote in the coming second primary. If elected I will do my duty by your office and at all times. Again thanking you for your past favors and courtesies and respectfully soliciting your further consideration, I am, Gratefully yours, JOHN E. TEUTSCH, Candidate For Tax Collector.

FROM J. L. BURROWS. To the Democratic Voters of Justice Precinct No. 1: I take this method of expressing my sincere and heartfelt thanks to the voters of this precinct for the splendid vote given me at the Primary on last Saturday.

The gentlemen in the race against me were all good men, and as I only liked about seventy votes of receiving a majority of all the votes in the first Primary, I feel that the people of this precinct approve of my effort to assist in the enforcement of the criminal laws, and my punctual service of civil process placed in my hands.

I have put forth my very best efforts to make a faithful and worthy officer in the past, and if re-elected I shall continue to pursue this course and devote my entire time, as in the past, to the duties of the office.

On account of the County Court being in session at this time and other official duties requiring my attention, it will be impossible for me to devote much time to my campaign during the next two weeks, and for that reason I will be unable to see and talk with many of the voters of this Precinct, but I beg to assure you that I will appreciate your support and influence.

I again thank you for the splendid support given me in the Primary on last Saturday. Sincerely yours, J. L. BURROWS.

FROM BOB YARBROUGH. To the Voters of Nacogdoches County: I wish to thank each and everyone of you for the support I received in the race for Sheriff.

Yours respectfully, R. H. YARBROUGH.

So favorably impressed were the Normalites with the hospitality of the citizenship of Nacogdoches, that by unanimous vote Nacogdoches was 20-YEAR-OLD SUIT SETTLED.

Houston Chronicle.—History was made Friday in the Eightieth District Court. The final chapter in one of the most famous cases in the annals of Texas jurisprudence was enacted when Judge J. D. Harvey wrote an entry of "settled and dismissed as defendant's costs," in the case of James Washington against the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railroad Company. Twenty years after he had both legs cut off by a train at Winter and Colorado streets the plaintiff, a negro, has received $500. His attorneys received the same amount. By this agreement the railroad also pays all court costs, which are enormous.

Filed in 1896 in the Eleventh District Court at Houston, the case has never been tried in the city. Yet there have been six trials, three each in Fort Bend and Waller counties. Twice the case has been reversed and remanded by the Court of Civil Appeals at Galveston. Once the case has been before the Supreme Court at Austin, where the Appellate Court was sustained. The first and final chapters were enacted in Harris County.

Hurt When Only Eleven

Washington was then but child, 11 years old. Today he is a grown man, 31 years of age. He hobbies about the street on crutches. There have been four mistrials. In 1898 in Wharton, Washington received a verdict for $10,000. Because the court failed to give a certain special charge the court at Galveston reversed and remanded the case. The Supreme Court upheld the Galveston court.

In 1904 at Wharton a jury returned a verdict for $12,000. It was also reversed and remanded. On the railroad's claim that it could not get a fair and impartial trial by a Harris County jury the case was transferred to Wharton County. After a mistrial and two reversals by higher courts, the railroad had it transferred to Fort Bend County, of which Richmond is the county seat. Then it was sent back to Harris.

"We would as soon leave our baggage as go on a vacation or camp out without Sloan's Liniment." Writes one vacationist: "We use it for everything from cramps to toothache." Put a bottle in your bag, be prepared and have no regrets. dw dw

TYPHUS CARRYING VERMIN ARE TO BE EXTERMINATED

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 20.—The united resources of the United States public health service and of the Texas State board of health are to be employed to prevent typhus carrying vermin from Major Bolivar Lloyd of the public health service, who is in complete charge of the work along the entire international boundary between the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific ocean.

Four disinfecting plants, designed to give gasoline baths and to steam sterilize the clothing of refugees from Mexico, are to be erected at once at El Paso, Laredo, Eagle Pass and Brownsville. These will be of large capacity and will be supplemented by smaller plants at other crossings where the influx is not so great. The equipment, Major Lloyd said, is already on the way for the El Paso plant, and it will be followed immediately by that for the other three large stations. Two weeks will see the El Paso plant in operation. Thereafter, it will be exceedingly hard for the industrious pediculus vestimenti or body louse to emigrate from Mexico to the United States.

WOMAN HAD NERVOUS TROUBLE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

THE SPIRIT OF AMERICA.

Many orators and many writers have undertaken to define the spirit of America, but few have found words to express it so beautifully, so pitifully, so inspiringly, as Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, in his address to the "inspirational meeting" of the Associated Business Clubs of the World at Philadelphia.

"The spirit of America is a spirit of progress and of all humanity. It is a spirit of freedom, of justice, of peace, of good will, of a few stars and stripes, which will never lag when a border is to be kept quiet or a demand is made upon us. It is against war, not because we have grown cowardly and fear death, but because America has something larger to do. The United States government exists to work and to allow each man to work, and a democracy goes to war when its work is interfered with."

"Read that again," urges the Pittsburgh Dispatch, "and say if that is not the essence, the vitality of the American spirit, as it has been, as it is, and as the ideal at which we all aim in our noblest aspirations."—Beaumont Enterprise.

CITY COUNCIL DISCUSSES TWO IMPORTANT MATTERS

At a Called Session Last Night the Matter of Water Supply and Sewerage Engaged Attention.

The City Council met in called session last night for the purpose of discussing the water supply and sewerage system, both of which have not been in a satisfactory condition lately.

After some discussion as to the advisability of drilling more artesian wells, and the discussion of a proposition from a gentleman named Wood, who wants to take over the sewerage system, the council finally adjourned until next Tuesday evening when some well drillers will submit estimates for the drilling of more artesian wells, and Mr. Wood will come back for a further conference in the sewerage matter.

His honor, Mayor Matthews, read the following communication to the council which best explains the details of the matters under consideration: NACOGDOCHES, Texas, July 20, 1916. Gentlemen of the Council:

This special session has been called by me for the consideration of two very important matters, which now confront us as representatives of the city, and about which something must be done.

This first is to determine on some plan to obtain a sufficient supply of good water for the city. While we have a bountiful supply of surface pond water for all purposes, as you know it has been condemned by the State Health department, and City Health officer for use for domestic purposes, and in consequence we have abandoned its use and are now using water from the ice factory well, which does not furnish enough as we now get it for the needs of the city, and if it would under any condition furnish the water, we would be relying on a water supply not owned by the city, which I don't think advisable. I don't believe, after the action of the health department, that the people of the city will ever again be satisfied with the use of the pond water for domestic purposes. A filtration plant has been suggested. This would cost something like ten or twelve thousand dollars and in order to purify it would require the use of minerals, which I fear would not be very satisfactory, so it looks as if the only thing for us is to make an effort to obtain a sufficient supply of artesian water, which I believe can be done.

I therefore recommend that you purchase a lot, near the ice factory lot, and put down a sufficient number of wells to supply the demands. As you know, we have a well put down at the light plant, which we have made every effort to develop without success, and if we could develop it the water is not the same as that at the ice factory, and its quality does not seem to be satisfactory to the people.

The other matter is that of a sewer system for the city, which you know is very much needed. Those who have no access to a sewer are clamoring for it, and what little sewers we have are very unsatisfactory to the public, by reason of the stench continually arising from the inlets of same. Then, too, we are forced to comply with a state law requiring us to divert our sewerage from the creeks in which it now empties, or subject ourselves to criminal prosecutions by the state. The city is not now in financial condition to either put in a sewer system, which would cost something like thirty thousand dollars, or divert the sewerage from the creeks, which would cost five to six thousand dollars, so we are forced to look to some other source to meet these requirements of the law.

We have a proposition from Mr. Wood of Henderson, who is now putting in a sewer system for that city, if the city will grant him a sewer franchise, which he has prepared and submitted to me, and which I have submitted to each of you for your information.

While personally I am very much opposed to the ownership of a sewerage system by anyone except the city, I can see no other alternative under our present financial condition, and would not now sanction the granting of a franchise to any person, without first in some manner obtaining the approval of a majority of the property owners, thereto.

I have several objections to the plan offered by Mr. Wood, which I will later discuss with you, and upon a discussion with Mr. Wood, we may be able to change it to suit our views. Mr. Wood being now present to take the matter up with you.

These are both very vital matters for the interest of the city and ourselves, which I hope you will give careful consideration, and your prompt action as aldermen of the city.

Respectfully,
GEO. H. MATTHEWS, Mayor.

EPIDEMIC STILL GAINS; 30 BABIES DIE IN 24 HOURS

NEW YORK, July 19.—Both deaths and new cases in the infantile paralysis epidemic took another jump today. During the 24 hours ending at 10 a. m. today the disease killed 30 children and attacked 142 others in the five boroughs of New York City.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop using dangerous drug before it salivates you! It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels. Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 60 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything without any harm.

RAILROAD WAGES

Shall they be determined by Industrial Warfare or Federal Inquiry?

To the American Public:

Do you believe in arbitration or industrial warfare?

The train employes on all the railroads are voting whether they will give their leaders authority to tie up the commerce of the country to enforce their demands for a 100 million dollar wage increase.

The railroads are in the public service—your service. This army of employes is in the public service—your service.

You pay for rail transportation 3 billion dollars a year, and 44 cents out of every dollar from you goes to the employes.

On all the Western railroads in 1915, seventy five per cent of the train employes earned these wages (lowest, highest and average of all) as shown by the pay rolls—

	Passenger		Freight		Yard
	Range	Average	Range	Average	Range	Average
Engineers	$1747	$2195	$1537	$2071	$1056	$1378
	3094		3076		2445
Conductors	1543	1878	1454	1935	1151	1355
	2789		2933		2045
Firemen	703	1317	751	1181	418	973
	2078		2059		1552
Brakemen	854	967	874	1135	862	1107
	1719		1961		1821

The average yearly wage payments to all Western train employes (including those who worked only part of the year) as shown by the 1915 payrolls were—

	Passenger	Freight	Yard
Engineers	$2038	$1737	$1218
Conductors	1772	1624	1292
Firemen	1218	973	832
Brakemen	921	1000	1026

A 100 million dollar wage increase for men in freight and yard service (less than one-fifth of all employes) is equal to a 5 per cent advance in all freight rates.

The managers of the railroads, as trustees for the public, have no right to place this burden on the cost of transportation to you without a clear mandate from a public tribunal speaking for you.

The railroads have proposed the settlement of this controversy either under the existing national arbitration law, or by reference to the Interstate Commerce Commission. This offer has been refused by the employes' representatives.

Shall a nation-wide strike or an investigation under the Government determine this issue?

PENNY POSTAGE RECOMMENDED BY THE POSTMASTER GENERAL

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Postmaster General Burleson today told the National Association of Postmasters' convention that if the revenues from second class mail were increased "extravagance for useless political service" in the rural mail system were curtailed and payments to railroads for mail transportation under the new space basis were reduced, he could recommend to congress next year that letter postage be reduced to 1 cent.

The postmaster general, making today's principal address before the convention praised congress for the space provision for railway mail pay in the postal bill, as "the first step toward settlement of railway mail transportation."

"This is an initial step to solve the vexatious problem and enables the government to pay railroads an adequate compensation, but pay only for what we receive," said Mr. Burleson. "If next year we can have those who use the second class mail privilege pay a part of what that service is worth, we can send a recommendation to congress for the first step toward penny postage in this country."

You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health. It has benefited thousands and thousands of weak, ailing women in its past half century of wonderful success, and it will do the same for you. You can't make a mistake in taking

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 1, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything." Begin taking Cardui today. Sold by all dealers.

Has Helped Thousands.

Predicting that this year's postal surplus would be between four and five million dollars, Mr. Burleson said: "If I can keep down useless extravagance—not postal, but political—in the rural mail service, I could promise you now that I would take the first step toward penny postage."

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Blakeslee was loudly cheered when he said:

"There is a real interest in the party in control in Washington. There is no well-worn path for multimillionaires or special privilege; no back stairs for the soft-foot artist in Washington. I think expressions of satisfaction and security floating around in Washington are founded on what is about to happen."

"I don't think anything but a calamity," he concluded, "could prevent it and don't believe it is necessary to say to you that your part is, of course, 'back home' and I'm sure you'll attend to it when the time comes."

When Postmaster Weaver of Oklahoma City, a former congressman, made a speech in which he told the postmasters to "go home and remember that greatest work of all the nation's is the re-election of Woodrow Wilson," President Selph announced that hereafter speakers must confine their remarks to postal subjects. He said the convention could not afford to subject itself to criticism in this respect.

IN MEMORY OF HOLLIS HARGIS.

Poor Hollis, while in the bloom of life, Was slain asunder, and left this world of strife. He had high ambition, this noble boy, And always worked with pride and joy.

A studious and laboring youth, Who left behind from sacred truth, That on him we could all depend, Upon the word, the answer of a friend.

As a pupil of mine, I know him true, When I called on him, he always knew; And never would let a question pass, Of which he felt would interest the class.

While yet but in his youthful days, He followed the path of manly ways; And strove with sweated brow to give, An upright boy to the world in which we live.

But now we hope he has found a home, Far better than in this world to roam; To spend his joys with our Lord on High, In that world where never comes a sigh.

Our last respects before we say goodbye, Is for us to think how we should die; There to meet our Lord and King above, Where all is peace and joy and love.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Barnett Monday afternoon with quite a number of members present. Mrs. Alice Kelley led the devotional exercises which brought out special lessons in obedience. Miss Lewis Muller came next on the program as leader in Home Missions with the Indian work for her text. Miss Gretta Cunningham told graphically the beautiful story of "Little Elawalla," while Mrs. Barnett on the Foreign Missions work brought out the current events of same. Mrs. A. D. Parnell our visitor gave us some very interesting facts concerning the social work of her church.

The social hour was indeed pleasant. The refreshment, as usual of Mrs. Barnett, taking on the form of a beautiful social function. A dainty course of moulded salad was followed by a course of delicious iced watermelon.

AN EARLY MORNING GERMAN.

Mrs. D. H. Barnett complimented a crowd of visiting girls with an early morning German Saturday that was very much enjoyed.

John Lack Barnett and Miss Beatrice Williams led the grand march. The house was dainty with exquisite cut flowers. Cooling beverages were served and everything done for the pleasure of these delightful guests.

A DINNER PARTY.

Miss Valerie Cash honored her weekend guests with a delightful six-course dinner party Friday evening.

The place cards were characteristic rhymes and afforded quite a deal of merriment, and the dining room was beautiful in its decorations of yellow. Misses Annie Marie Townsend, Edna Price, Hattie Burk, Annette Watford, and Ruth Childress of Lufkin, Miss Beatrice Williams of Bisbee, Arizona, and Miss Martha Nelson of our city, and Messrs. John Lacy Barnett, Arthur Summers, Richard McKinney, Richard Haltom and Frank Tucker were the happy guests. After dinner was served the evening was spent in dancing and was thoroughly enjoyed by this happy crowd.

REAPING BENEFIT.

We are fortunate people indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Nacogdoches residents on the following subject will interest and benefit many of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

W. H. Johnson, grocer, S. Fredonia St., Nacogdoches, says: "My children have taken Doan's Kidney Pills with excellent results when they were suffering from spells of weakness of the kidneys."

Mrs. L. T. Bargaineer of Clawson, was carried to the hospital in Nacogdoches a few days ago for the purpose of undergoing an operation, which was performed by Dr. Dunn of this city, and Dr. Sweatland of Nacogdoches. The intelligence came from there this afternoon that Mrs. Bargaineer was not expected to survive the trying ordeal which will be sad news to her many friends in this locality.—Lufkin News.

CARD OF THANKS.

The wife and children of Mr. St. Clair, who died suddenly on Friday p. m. last, desire to take this means of thanking all of those who so kindly assisted in the preparation and burial of our husband and father.

Also we deeply appreciate the sympathy shown the little daughter and son who were with him at the time of his death.

To those kind friends we wish to say that we regret more than we can express our inability to arrive in Nacogdoches before the funeral.

Mrs. St. Clair & Children.

Infantile Paralysis? Yes; just think of it. Relief at hand yet parents do not seem to know it. Osteopathic literature teems with accounts of instances of restoration to usefulness. The muscles left paralyzed is the result of what is known as Infantile Paralysis. If given in time, Osteopathic treatment lifts the embargo on nature's vital forces by freeing the blood supply to the impoverished motor cells in the spinal cord, thus restoring the vital nerve power to seemingly useless muscles. Parents who remain deaf to this well proven fact, may, when it is too late, find that they have something to regret. A hint to the wise should be sufficient. Dr. Bruce, the Osteopath. wtf
