SWIFT BROS. & SMITH

Y. M. C. A. NOTICE.

Every high school boy in Texas ought to be vitally interested in the great Conference of Older Boys (15 years and up) to be held at A. & M. College, College Station, Texas, December 1-2-3, under the direction of the State Committee of the Texas Young Men's Christian Associations.

This conference is to be made up of delegations of older boys from practically every section of the state, and its purpose is to get together as large a group as possible of representative boys from each community, and present such a program of lectures on vital topics as will help the boys themselves to solve some of the most perplexing of the problems that confront them during the "teen age."

Besides a strong line-up of the most able speakers of state and national reputation, the boys themselves will have an opportunity to take an active part on the program and will discuss, from their own viewpoint, the questions which will be brought up. No greater opportunity was ever offered the boy who has an earnest desire to get a broader conception of life and his relation to his fellows.

A rate of one and one-third fare for the round-trip has been secured on all railroads, and free entertainment will be furnished all delegates during the three-days stay at A. & M. According to reports from State Headquarters, over six hundred boys are expected to attend.

Full particulars concerning the Conference can be had by addressing Mr. Jno. L. Hunter, State Boys' Work Secretary, 611 Sumpter Bldg., Dallas, Texas.

SWIFT SCHOOL TO GIVE A PLAY

The pupils of the Swift school will give a play at the school house on Saturday night, December 2nd. The title of the play is "The Miller's Daughter," or "Bound in Honor." An admission of 10c will be charged for the benefit of the school.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Editor R. B. Walthall of Garrison was an arrival to the city on the noon train.

BOYS CORN CLUB

Mr. Greer, the county agricultural agent, is especially anxious that all members of the Boys Corn Club of Nacogdoches County, and all other boys who will come, be present at the meeting next Saturday, at which time the prizes will be awarded, and new prizes will be offered.

It will be well worth the time of any ambitious boy to attend this meeting and get in line with the coming citizenship of the country.

The Seed Breeders Association and the Syrup Growers will also meet at this time, and it is hoped that a good attendance will be present at each.

HON. J. B. BURNS WEDS MISS HAZEL DIES

Center Optimist.

On Friday, the 10th instant, Hon. John B. Burns, formerly of this city but now a prominent real estate man of San Angelo, was married to Miss Hazel Dies, eldest daughter of Congressman Martin Dies, of this the second congressional district. The wedding occurred at Sweetwater, at the home of a relative of the bride.

The belated news of the wedding reached Center last week and was quite a surprise to many of Mr. Burns' friends, who, however, extend heartiest congratulations and wish for him a full realization of all his fondest dreams.

Mr. Burns has not escaped misfortunes and trials in life, which have been numerous and grievous to bear, but in them all he has borne up like a real man and the Optimist, with his other friends, sincerely trust that the turn of the lane has been reached and that in future his pathway will be filled with sunlight and roses.

In chronicling this marriage it is proper to say with Johnson: "Were a man not to marry a second time, it might be concluded that his first wife had given him a disgust to marriage; but by taking a second wife he pays the highest compliment to the first, by showing that she made him so happy as a married man that he wishes to be so a second time."

Miss Dies is a charming young woman about twenty-three years of age—is highly cultured, truly intelligent and is capable of knowing her desires and fully appreciating the responsibilities of matrimony.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns will spend the holidays in Center, to arrive here about the 15th of December.

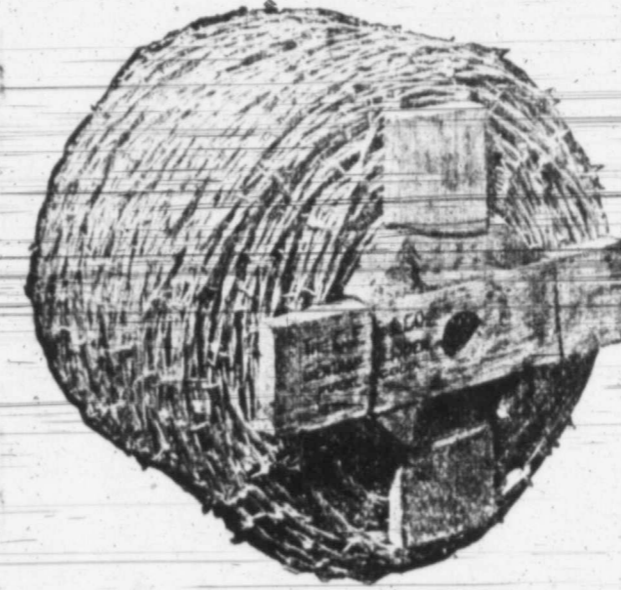

GOMPERS RE-ELECTED.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 26.—The American Federation of Labor brought a notable two weeks session to an end last night by re-electing President Gompers and all other present officers and choosing Buffalo as the 1917 convention city.

The last two hours of the convention were devoted largely to international questions. It was voted, in spite of a committee report that conditions were not auspicious for an international labor congress in connection with the peace treaty meetings at the end of the war, that efforts towards such a congress should be continued. Labor, it was declared, by resolution, should insist

Our Prices on Wires and Nails ... Are Still Low ...

Wire prices, like everything else, have been going higher for the past several months. All things go to show that prices will continue to advance for many months yet to come. We have been buying in big shipments and keeping the prices down for you. Today one spool of wire can be bought by you from us at as low price as we could buy TEN CARLOADS from the factory.

We can't hold these prices down much longer for you and if you are going to fence it will pay you to buy your wire at once.

Andrew Furuseth, president of the Seamen's Union, raised the only dissenting voice. Labor, he said, could not possibly have any influence in the final treaties and the only result that would follow labor's taking part would be to saddle on the labor movement part of the responsibility for the terms agreed upon, no matter what they might be.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Austin, Texas, November.—The Department of Extension of the University of Texas is planning to offer a group study course in wireless telegraphy and is planning to offer help with instruments and lectures. The scheme will be given a test with a group of enthusiasts at Corpus Christi this session. For the working of the plan it is necessary to have a local teacher who understands the principles of physics involved, as all the problems of wireless operating are in the field of advanced physics and cannot be made understandable by amateurs without the aid of someone on the ground to assist in the interpretation of the directions sent out by the specialists. The Group Study plan includes a series of readings planned by a University instructor and a lecture by the instructor offering the course. Any group of five persons may form a Group Study club and register for such courses. Great stress will be laid on actual practice in wireless operating.

Dr. J. B. Smith of Crockett arrived in the city yesterday for a visit to his son, Mr. A. H. Smith, of Swift Bros. & Smith drug store.

nor realize how needy some are until you have made a personal visit. The cold weather now approaching, the demand no doubt will continue to increase. If you are to give anything, now is the opportune time. During the summer months many quit giving, and because, no doubt, the necessity was not so great. If you feel disposed to renew your subscription, you can see or phone either minister or the committee, if they fail to call upon you.

BURGLARY AT CUSHING.

No gains without pains.—

There is no better ballast for keeping the mind steady on its keel, and saving it from all risk of crankiness, than business.—
Lowell.

Pin your faith to the Peanut, and spell it with a big P. Peanuts and Prosperity is a note with real music, and the new opportunity that will bring old East Texas into its own.

Judge Hughes, republican candidate for president in the recent election, has at last come across with his congratulations to President Wilson. It took him a long time to give up, but it had to come, and is couched in very graceful, dignified language.

The Beaumont Enterprise is authority for the statement that a "quarter's worth of rice will carry you further than fifty cents worth of beef." We do not doubt it since watching Mr. Jiggs have ten dollars' worth of steak put through the keyhole.

The dispatches in this morning's state papers bear the sad news of the death of Jack London, one of America's best known authors, which sad event occurred at his home in California last night. Mr. London was the author of many good stories which have been read and seen exhibited in picture shows.

Judge Wm. C. Hook of the United States district court holds that the Adamson eight hour law is invalid. Something of the kind might be expected of a republican by that name. But this does not settle the matter by any means, merely putting it in to the United States supreme court where it will be settled with deliberation according to law and evidence.

The young man making preparation for life should get the lesson early that a good man is cheap at a big price; a poor man is dear at any price. This motto or rule is now observed by all the best business concerns of the country, and is an explanation of why some people draw large salaries, while others with equal opportunities in boyhood draw small salaries. Be a good man, son.

Today's issue of the Shreveport Times carries the announcement that plans are being worked out for the erection of a big cotton warehouse, and a big steel plant for that city, the latter being captured by reason of the advantage afforded in having natural gas. It is such things that make towns and cities, and Shreveport is one of the most progressive and rapidly growing cities of the South.

The secretary of state of California is the latest to try to muddle the election returns from that state, coming out with a statement which appears in today's papers to the effect that he will not certify to the election returns of the state unless "certain mistakes and omissions from Yuba and Orange counties are corrected". But if it is proven, as it has been with the information that is at hand, that President Wilson has received a majority of the votes the country will not stand for such "monkey business". The state succeeded in keeping the Japanese out on a certain occasion, but an imperishable democracy will not be so easy to compromise with.

General Villa, the bandit chief, is causing considerable alarm and trouble in the vicinity of Chihuahua. He was repulsed three times in one day, but he came back with a persistence and with the last report was in possession of the Mexican city.

"The man who is clean inside and out, who neither looks up to the rich or down to the poor, who can lose without squealing and win without bragging, who is considerate of women and children and old people, who is too brave to lie, too generous to cheat and too sensible to loaf, who takes his share of the world's goods and let's others have theirs, is a true gentleman." Georgetown Commercial.

The latest contribution to President Wilson's Thanksgiving dinner, from Texas, is a consignment of ginger ale forwarded by the mayor of Waco. In a message accompanying the ale, "made in Texas," the mayor says: "Inasmuch as the Thanksgiving turkey is furnished by Rhode Island, the smallest state, Texas, the largest state with the greatest democratic majority would be glad to furnish the ginger ale."

The people of this community are deeply grateful to the noble friends who have contributed to our relief and who with their means and words of encouragement have assisted us greatly in the work of rebuilding the school. Among those are Eugene Blount, T. E. Baker, Beaman Strong, Giles Haltom, Lake Orton, Haltom & Gibbs, Wilson Grain Co., Blount & Strong, Mayer & Schmidt, Nacogdoches Compress Co., and T. N. Oxshier. Garrison News.

Prosperity is here, and prosperity can be made to remain if we of the South act wisely. First of all, the farmer must see the necessity for diversifying his crops, so as not to depend entirely on the result of one crop nor to depress the price of the South's great crop by producing more of it than the world actually needs. With the South producing the bread and meat it consumes, living on an economical basis, and producing a normal cotton crop at a fair price, the South will be both prosperous and happy.—Bonham News.

The fact still remains that the county of Nacogdoches will never come into its own until it has a more intelligent and systematic arrangement for the market of its produce. There is a demand for everything that grows, with a good price, if it could be assembled and marketed in a collective, co-operative way, but until we have this arrangement enough will go to waste to make the country independent. During the winter months, while there is not much to do, would be a good time to work out the proposition and be ready for the next crop. We need a central market house, where all kinds of produce could be assembled and handled collectively; we need sweet potato dry kilns; a wholesale hay house which would handle home-grown hay and grain exclusively; and now that the peanut crop is becoming one of the important crops of the county, we should have factories with which to work up the raw products into the various articles of food for which this product is becoming famous. We have an agricultural country through which we derive our support, present and future, and if we wish to grow with the country we must develop the resources and opportunities that present themselves in the evolution of time.

THE WORLD CAN'T BEAT IT.

Here are a few facts which show the result of industry and the wonderful resources of this section when properly handled. Of course the present price of cotton had a great deal to do with it.

Turner Harrison, an industrious young man living about five miles out from town has this year with only $50 of hired help, made two thousand dollars worth of cotton. In addition to this he has made plenty of feed stuff of all kinds, corn, peas, peanuts potatoes and has plenty of hogs to make his meat and lard for another year. Out of this year's labor he has finished paying out his home, paid all running expenses for the year, bought him a horse and buggy and cash enough on hand to run him another year. Turner is a little modest about what he does, never talks nor boasts about what he does, nor does nothing for publication. The Times got these facts from a neighbor without his knowledge of it and we feel like to give them to the public to stimulate some one else to greater effort and economy. The sum total of his year's work, everything taken into consideration, aggregate about three thousand dollars or two hundred and fifty dollars per month. He is now his own boss, business manager, and can sit under his own vine and fig tree and enjoy life. He is independent.—Henderson Times.

The story comes from Galveston that Texas cotton seed crushers are getting ready to import peanuts from the Argentine republic because they have found it impossible to obtain enough nuts in this state to supply their needs. The Beaumont oil mill has paid nearly $200,000 for peanuts this season, only $6000 of which was distributed among farmers in nearby territory. The owners of this mill urged the farmers last spring to plant peanuts. This advice was not taken however. Passing from peanuts to cabbage we find that there are no cabbages in the local market because dealers can not get orders for this vegetable filled at any price. The wholesale house made an effort to introduce number of Jefferson county farmers to plant cabbage. He offered to furnish cabbage plants and to guarantee better than two cents a pound for matured cabbages. His offer was not accepted. It's a ten to one bet that a majority of those who refused to plant peanuts and cabbage would walk ten miles to hear some politician denounce congress for not having arranged to lend them a bunch of money without security and at nominal interest, or to sign a petition urging the president to declare embargoes every morning before breakfast.—Beaumont Enterprise.

A committee of ladies, representing the United Charities Association, have been calling on the business people and others of the city today soliciting donations and subscriptions with which to keep up and finance the depleted treasury of the organization. This is one of the most worthy institutions the city has, and should have the help of every citizen who can possibly contribute something to its support. As a minister said on a recent occasion, you should either help or receive help. Through the organization relief for the needy is distributed in a systematic manner which, if rightly managed, is more effective than so many individual collections, and through the same organizations investigations can be made and imposters turned down who would otherwise impose upon the generosity of many. With the approach of the winter months

The slogan of the world is progress. Jefferson was a progressive. He went against many things that the conservatives of his day opposed. He was a man of wonderful vision and a far-seeing statesman. Mr. Cleveland failed to meet the demands of the spirit of the times; and led his party in the wilderness where it went to pieces. He lacked the tact, the courage and the aggressiveness to get out of the beaten paths into a new world. Wilson is a radical, or a progressive, or a liberal, moving in currents of democracy which touch and permeate the heart of the democratic people of his country.—Col. Milner, in Rusk County News.

Alto voters evidently are not ready for good roads, as they defeated the bond issue last Saturday by a large majority. We understand that very little interest was taken in the election by the good roads advocates, which was the cause of the defeat. We have observed in our own case, that when we did not make any fight for the issuance of bonds, we failed to make much headway, but just as soon as we got on the job and worked hard to get the people to vote for the bonds we accomplished our purpose, and the people of Alto who want good roads will have to do likewise. It took three elections in this district before we reached the goal, but we never lost heart, and within the next twelve months we expect to make a showing on our roads that will help wonderfully.—Jacksonville Progress.

PRINTERS' RIGHTEOUS.

It is said that printers are so scarce at Sing Sing that the management has been compelled to hire outside help to set up the Welfare League Bulletin on the prison linotype machine. It is also said that "a life of eminent piety beckons the boy who learns the printing trade."—Bryan Eagle.

Yea, the poor printer man is more sinned against than sinning. Never losing faith in human nature, he carries his subscribers through the lean years, sending his messages of cheer each week to the family hearth, extolling the virtues of the dear departed, printing kind notices concerning the living, ever clinging to the hope that a time will come when there will be no more delinquent subscribers, and every taxpayer in the county will be a regular reader—paid up in advance.—

PRAISES THE NURSES.

Editor Sentinel:
I think there are people in this town that do not receive the homage due them—the nurses in our hospitals. Think of the lonesome, tedious life they lead. They never go to dances, parties or other places of amusement in the many years I have been here I have never seen but one at the picture show, and she was not working, but under bond and on trial for her life, and whether or not she was guilty, I am glad in my heart that she was acquitted. If you meet one in town she is always in a hurry to get back to her duty of administering to the sick and suffering. I think that each and every one of us should accept it as a sacred duty to show them the kindness, respect and consideration due them, for since the Master walked the earth there have been none who followed more truly His divine examples and precepts than these angels of mercy who soften pain, succor life and sweeten the pangs of death with their ministrations.
Uncle Frank.

All men were singing the praises of Justice. "Not so loud," said an Angel; if you wake him up he will put you to death."

ANTIS IN-ORANGE TRIUMPH BY 225

Now Lookout.

A cold hangs on as often as when you have had one, or when you have had two. You contract another, and you are liable to contract some very serious disease. This succession of colds weakens the system and lowers the vitality so that you are much more liable to contract chronic catarrh, pneumonia or consumption. Cure your cold while you can. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation. It is relied upon by thousands of people and never disappoints them. Try it. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

TEXANS OPPOSE FOOD EMBARGO

Washington, Nov. 26.—Representative Fitzgerald's plan to have congress place an embargo on the exportation of foodstuffs to Europe as a method of combatting the high cost of living, will receive little encouragement from Texas congressmen Rayburn and Young, both representatives of rural districts, who arrived yesterday from Texas.

"Why should the farmer be deprived of the benefits the European war is heaping on this country?" asked Mr. Young. "Manufacturers are prospering, let the farmer do likewise; embargo talk is tomfoolery." Mr. Young added that he will do all in his power to oppose the plan.

Mr. Rayburn entertains similar views, but is of the opinion the embargo measure will not muster sufficient strength to force a roll call.

With but one or two possible exceptions, it is thought the entire Texas delegation will line up with the farmers.

Fitzgerald's plan is being widely denounced by farmers' organizations and it is also being criticized as a retaliatory measure against Great Britain. In some circles it is reported that if an embargo is placed on foodstuffs and Southern congressmen ail in the movement Northern and Western members representing agricultural sections will insist that cotton, too, be included.

Stop the First Cold.

A cold does not get well of itself. The process of wearing out a cold wears you out, and your cough becomes serious if neglected. Hacking coughs drain the energy and sap the vitality. SHERIFF SPRADLEY RETIRES.

After serving the people of Nacogdoches county for twenty-five years as sheriff, Sheriff A. J. Spradley is today retiring from the office of his own free will and accord, having not stood for reelection this time.

This long period of official tenure has not been consecutive, but covers a period of some thirty-five years of time. Unlike many people who aspire to official positions through political conquest, Mr. Spradley has been able to "come back," due to the splendid record he had made for himself as sheriff, and now enjoys the satisfaction retiring in victory.

In retiring to the ranks of private citizenship, and surrendering the commission committed to his care and keeping, Mr. Spradley addresses the following communication to the people of Nacogdoches county:

Nacogdoches, Tex., Nov. 28, 1916 To the Citizens and People of Nacogdoches County:

Today I return to you or your choice as my successor, the sheriff's office I have held by your consent for a quarter of a century. I turn it back to you with a thousand thanks for your oft expressed confidence in my honesty. I turn it back to you with an honest conscience, and, I believe, a clean record, as I have tried to do my duty in all things as I understood it.

As a private citizen I expect to do my full duty as a law-abiding citizen. I will be in favor of the progress of the times, clean politics, good schools and good roads. I am in favor of prohibition, precinct, county, state and nation. I am in favor of granting to our women every right that man claims as a citizen, and will hail with delight the opportunity to vote and to work.

Two years ago many citizens asked this question: "If you are elected sheriff, will you clean out the court-house and keep it clean?" I knew what they meant, I answered "yes," and I believe that I have made my promise good. You have now an empty jail and a clear criminal docket except for a few continued murder cases. I have helped to bring about this condition, and in so doing I have made my enemies, but I am proud to know that my numerous friends are among the very best citizenship of Nacogdoches county, and the State of Texas.

Again thanking you for the many favors shown me in the past, let me assure you that you will ever have a friend in need.

Very respectfully,
A. J. SPRADLEY.

TELEPHONE COMPANY CHANGES MANAGER

Mr. W. C. Finklea, who has been serving as local manager of the local company at this place the past two years, has resigned his position and will go to Houston on the first of December to engage in the cotton business with his uncle.

Mr. Finklea will be succeeded by Mr. R. W. Thacker, a practical telephone man and most excellent gentleman who has been in charge of the exchange at San Augustine for some time, and who has already arrived in the city, coming a few days in advance to familiarize himself with the position here.

During their sojourn with us, Mr. Finklea and his accomplished wife have made many friends who sincerely regret to lose their citizenship. As telephone manager, Mr. Finklea has striven hard and faithfully to serve the citizenship of this city, and the people have nothing but praise for the service he has rendered. He and Mrs. Finklea have also been useful in the religious and social circles of the city, and they will be missed in all walks of life.

Mr. Thacker, the new manager, will move his family to the city immediately after the holidays. Being a man of pleasing bearing and coming to us highly recommended, he and family will receive a cordial welcome to citizenship.

When one has suffered tortures from a bad back and found relief from the aches and pains, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following neighborly advice comes from a Nacogdoches woman.

Mrs. John H. Cox, N. Fredonia st., Nacogdoches, says: "La Grippe left my kidneys in a bad fix. I had a dull ache in my back until I was almost exhausted. I used Doan's Kidney Pills only a short time before I got fine results. I steadily became better and haven't had to use them since."

HASLAM POSTMASTER GETS TWO YEARS

Beaumont Enterprise. John H. Thorn, former postmaster at Haslam, Shelby county, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Gordon Russell of the federal court, to serve two years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta. Thorn pleaded guilty to the embezzlement of $3,061.48 of the postal funds while he served as postmaster at Haslam. He admitted that his accounts were short, but declared that he did not know what had gone with the money.

Charles Smith, an attorney friend of Thorn's made a talk in his defense before Judge Russell. He told the court that Mr. Thorn had at one time been a Baptist minister. His reputation had always been good, Mr. Smith said.

Senator Steve King made a talk in behalf of Mr. Thorn. He said he had known Mr. Thorn for many years and had always known him to be a man of high standing in his community. He felt sure that if the government funds in Mr. Thorn's office were short that Mr. Thorn did not knowingly take what did not belong to him.

In sentencing Mr. Thorn, Judge Russell explained the maximum fine for the offense to which he had pleaded guilty was a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary and a fine of $1000, and the minimum punishment a fine of the amount which had been embezzled. To assess the minimum punishment in this case, Judge Russell declared, would be a farce, because the fine could be paid and within thirty days everything cleared up. This, Judge Russell declared, would not serve the ends of justice because it would have a tendency to lead others to do the same thing, and would not sufficiently punish the offender.

Judge Russell dwelt at length on the sanctity of the mails and the need of enforcing the postal regulations so that the confidence of the public might be held by this branch of the government service. He declared that it was not a pleasure to him to pass a sentence, but that in his official position he had to do so. He concluded by passing sentence on Mr. Thorn.

Miss Lula Fulghum of Garrison passed through the city this afternoon, going to Tyler, where she will take a course in stenography in the Tyler Commercial College.

VOTE FAVORABLE TO PLAN FOR SABBATH

Waco, Nov. 24.—On the recommendation by Dr. A. J. Barton of Dallas, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Texas and chairman of the civic righteousness committee, the Baptist General Convention at the session this morning went on record as favoring the appointment of a commission of fifteen, to meet with a committee of the same number from other denominations to be known as the Sabbath observance commission, opposition to Sunday amusements, including baseball and moving pictures was stressed in the report of the civic righteousness committee, which was adopted.

Following an address by Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of the convention and president of Baylor University of Waco, in behalf of Baylor and Christian education in general, the executive board was empowered, if it sees fit, to set aside from the undesignated funds $100,000 as part of the Baylor endowment fund.

Chairman W. M. W. Splawn of Belton in reading the report for the committee on Christian education recommended raising $1,000,000 in Texas in the next four years for Christian education, which met with the approval of the convention.

Dr. S. P. Brooks was re-elected president; Cullen F. Thomas, first vice president; F. S. Groner, second vice president, and R. E. Burke, third vice president; D. K. Pevoto and G. O. Key were re-elected secretaries.

The following were appointed on the rural church committee: O. C. Payne, J. B. Canfill, E. D. Head, George W. Harris, P. U. Morphy, W. A. Strickland and A. McCall. The special committee on enlistment, consists of B. W. Vining, U. T. Andrews and B. F. Frambarger.

Much too often we quote Mahan's favorite philosopher, Don Marquis, of the "Evening Sun." Here goes again:

"This is an era in which the young man leaves the country and works like the deuce in the city for thirty years so that he can afford to go and live in the country."

Behind these thirty-five words lie a thousand novels, epics, and individual tragedies. How cheerful if one could only feel that in the next two generations this sentence would lose its point!—Collier's.

THE BANK STATEMENTS.

The banks of the country, are the arteries of the financial system through which the money flows, and their condition best reflects the financial strength and resources of the individual communities.

In this particular Nacogdoches is making an especially fine showing just at present. In fact, it is the best in the history of the community, and will compare favorably with the other leading towns in East Texas, taking the lead over many, and led by but few, the latter being places with much larger population.

Nacogdoches has three banks. The Stone Fort National Bank, the Commercial Guaranty State Bank, and the Farmers & Merchants State Bank, and within the past few days The Sentinel has published the financial statement of each. The statements collectively show individual deposits to the amount of $1,050,004.47, surplus $125,000.00. The grand total of the deposits, surplus, dividends unpaid, profits, money reserved for taxes, etc., combining the financial resources of the banks, reaches a grand total of $1,353,957.56.

This is a statement in which not only the bankers, but the whole community, can feel proud, for it shows our community to be in superb financial condition and able to take care of itself most handsomely.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram has found a new definition for G. O. P.—"gone out'n politics."

A late dispatch from California announces that the official count of the votes in the recent election has been made, including the counties about which some discussion was raised recently, and that the secretary of the state is now ready to certify to President Wilson receiving a plurality of 3773 votes. Bully for California!

THE ROAD PROBLEM

The people are going after good roads in the right way.

About ten years ago it was my pleasure to make a canvass of Nacogdoches county and talk good roads to the people. It seemed to me at that time that my talk seldom reached beyond my lips. It has again fallen to my lot to ride over some of these same roads that I could hardly get over on horseback at that time. Now I find places that an automobile can safely make thirty miles an hour. It has put me to studying some, and asking from whence it came, and I find that it is easy to understand. The good roads move is settled for as the citizenship of this county is concerned. They have tried them and now know the value of them. The county has put on a few miles as a demonstration, and the people have taken this as a guide and have silently worked out the problem as best suited to their individual localities. I am sure that if a bond issue had been adopted in this county five years ago there could not have been more substantial work done, so its plain to any thinking man that its not a bond issue or a tax the people need. It's co-operation and a definite system to work to for Nacogdoches county to have the finest system of roads to be found in the state of Texas in a very short time.

The adding to our public schools the art and spirit of road development is very commendable, and will be a great help. Then think a moment, parents: Are you going to let your sons and daughters get up a greater enthusiasm, and do more than you? It is the greatest problem of the present age, and is costing more money, and demanding the greatest attention of our best thinkers.

It was enthusiasm and not the democratic party that re-elected President Wilson a second term. It's the same enthusiasm that will build better roads in Nacogdoches county.

Now is the time to begin preparation for a better road campaign in our county, and I would suggest this plan: That the citizens of each school district set a time to meet and discuss ways and means to put on the good roads move next summer, beginning July 15th, and running until August 15th. Let every man in each district meet and arrange to put in ten days work with team in his district, under the direction of an experienced road man of his community, or some one else, and let the manager arrange that people can work at the most convenient time, and call out teams and hands as they can be best and most successfully used. At the meeting of the citizens of the various school districts, let each district elect two or three delegates to meet at a set time in the county seat to discuss with each other the best ways and means to accomplish the greatest results in the given time.

Now, friends, this is not my move—it is yours. Write your idea. If you can't write, talk, and discuss it. I say again, you don't need a bond issue or a tax. Enthusiasm and co-operation has up to the present built a fine system of roads in our county, and the proper efforts put forth now will make the roads of this county second to none in the state.

Now, men, are we going to sit down and not take the proper interest in this matter, a thing you have demonstrated your great interest in during the past? I would suggest that a district meeting be called in each school district in the county some time soon so that a county meeting can be had near the first of the new year. Will you act? There will be many problems to be worked in the county organization, such as having tools and devising best ways to accomplish best results. If interested, write your paper.

Yours for better roads,

INTERESTING MEETING.

The meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary Society at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Graves Monday-afternoon was well attended, and an unusually interesting program was rendered. At the close of the program the members presented Mrs. Finklee with a handsome cut glass bud vase as a parting gift and loving remembrance of her good fellowship with us.

Mrs. Graves served her guests to a lovely two-course luncheon, friend chicken with tea, hot rolls and potato salad, followed by gelatine and whipped cream with cake.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Parnell are entertaining a fine boy, born Saturday night.

FROM A FORMER CITIZEN.

Editor Sentinel: Apply with in check to my account with your paper. We read each copy with interest, and are always glad to hear from Nacogdoches.

This (Stephens) county has been very dry this year. We had no rain from May until October. Stock water was very scarce, and thousands of cattle were shipped to the Fort Worth market on this account. This county has been cleaning up the fever ticks this year. All cattle have been dipped every eighteen days since May. We think we can get above the quarantine line by dipping a few times next spring. This work has all been done by direction of Federal inspectors. The outlook is good for wheat here at this time owing to high prices and good rains. Much has been sown and it looks good. This county has had some oil and coal excitement for several years, but nothing like we are having now.

The T. & P. Coal Co. of Thurber, has brought in a good oil well near Caddo, and the Producers Oil Co. has one near Breckenridge. Land owners are swept off their feet at the high prices paid for leases. All the small tracts of land near Caddo have been leased for $100 per acre, while large tracts have been leased at prices ranging from $1.00 to $20.00 per acre. Owing to the oil boom, money is plentiful and times are good.

Praise God His children all to whom He gives His daily bread.

"UP TO SNUFF."

There is an old saw which runs "up to snuff." The writer has heard the expression many times but never entertained the serious definition of the phrase with which we are now confronted.

We didn't hit Billy Patterson, but, by jings, we are "up to snuff" as sure as you are born, and there is no water hot.

A few days ago we innocently quoted Allan Seale in an expression of joy over the presidential election, in which he made the statement that he was feeling fine; President Wilson is re-elected and Garrett's snuff remains the same price. Certainly there couldn't be anything criminal in this simple statement. We are sure of our innocence in so far as criminal intent is concerned, and nothing is criminal so long as it does not carry with it the wilful intention, but that big, red-headed Irish-looking drummer, who smiles most of the time, and is a hale fellow well met so long as you meet him the right way, hemmed the writer up in Swift Bros. & Smith's drug store, and with blood in his eye, made some awful threats about what would soon be the fate of a certain little editor in this town.

Peace was finally restored, and when the smoke (cigars at the drummer's expense—and some chewing gum) was cleared away, each repaired to his respective place of business unscratched.

Would that peace, sweet peace, might never perch upon our banner. "Blessed is the peacemaker, for he shall see God"—but preliminary to that time when the mortal coil must release the spiritual, each duty along life's rugged highway must have attention, and either be performed or neglected. To wilfully shirk a duty, through fear, would be cowardice, and the same Higher Power despises a coward—so what must we do? We are "up to snuff" again.

In the hope that a second truce can be arranged, and the writer saved from both counts here goes: Mr. Seale says he is now discouraged with the outlook of the future prosperity of the country, having been advised that the price of snuff will be increased. He had hoped that the country could get along with the difference between fifteen and twenty cents on the price of cotton, but if this leading commodity is to increase the toll it takes from the people of the country, there is not a ray of hope left.

Pending the new adjustment, and in deep meditation upon the outcome of the new disaster, Mr. Seale has retired to Poe Lake. The place to which the writer will retire will not be divulged just at this time.

AMERICAN TROOPS REMAIN ON

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 10.—A protocol providing for withdrawal of American troops in Mexico and for the patrol of the border was signed by the members of the Mexican-American joint commission this afternoon.

Adjournment for two weeks was then taken to allow Alberto C. Pani to go to Mexico to place before Carranza a copy of proposals for an international border agreement made by the Americans. Pani plans to leave for New York late today to start thence for Mexico.

Secretary Lane and other two American representatives expect to leave tonight for their homes. Louis Cabrera and Ignacio Bonillas, the other Mexican representatives, will remain in the United States.

The protocol signed provides for the withdrawal of the American troops commanded by General Pershing, within 40 days of the date of its final approval, unless by that time the conditions in Northern Mexico have become such that the American border is endangered by bandits.

The control of the border has been left to the respective armies of the two governments, each to patrol its own side. The question of co-operation on the border is left to the commanding officers of the two armies on the border.

Although not incorporated in the written agreement the American commissioners told the Mexicans that this government would reserve the right to pursue across the border into Mexico any bandit force which had crossed the international boundary line into the United States.

NEW OFFICERS QUALIFYING

THREE NEGROES BURNED.

Lufkin News. The grim reaper played a star engagement at Brunswick, a station on the Cotton Belt railway about twenty miles north of Lufkin, last night, according to report in this city today.

Describing the catastrophe, it is related that a colored citizen of that immediate vicinity "shuffled off this mortal coil" and sympathizing friends were called upon to "set up" with the corpse over night, pending funeral arrangements today.

In an effort to be as obliging as he knew how, a colored man by the name of Ross, put his three children to bed, locked the door of his cabin and joined the watch party across the way of their night's vigil. It is presumed that Mr. Ross neglected the fire at home upon leaving, and while he was away from the house it was destroyed by the angry flames, together with the three children tucked away in bed.

Of course it was a sad affair, and so far as The News knows, it has not yet been ascertained whether it was absolutely necessary for Mr. Ross to sit up with the corpse or not. This fact will have to be ascertained later. The population of that community is sorely depleted, but hopes are entertained for the future in the way of immigration.

SOME CORRECTIONS IN THE PREMIUM LIST.

In making up and reporting the premium list awarded by the business men of the city for the Woodmen Day, in the issue of yesterday, The Sentinel failed to note that Stripling, Haselwood & Co. furnished the fine quality of tobacco which was used by the Woodman in Liberty County will "time" himself in the future, and that Tucker-Sifton Hardware Co. furnished a fine cooking stove to the Woodman who brought the best half bushel of sweet potatoes. This prize was won by Ed. Greer, a prominent young farmer of the Appleby country.

These two progressive firms are among the most generous and patriotic of the city who can always be depended upon to do their part in every movement of community interest, and we regret the oversight. In assembling the mass of matter, which was scattered, we suffered a confusion through which these errors crept in, and we gladly make the correction, thanking mutual friends for calling attention to them.

The sheriff of Liberty County, Mr. Carlisle, was here yesterday, and carried back home with him E. E. Sapp, who has been confined in the Angelina County jail for several months. It will be remembered that Sapp was tried and convicted here in the district court for the murder of Dick Watts, and given a term of forty years in the state penitentiary. Just recently this case was reversed by the court of criminal appeals. The defendant also stands charged with the murder of his wife in the district court of Liberty County, which is now in session, and it was for the purpose of making some disposition of this case that the party mentioned was carried to Liberty yesterday.—Lufkin News.

COOPER TO PROVE FAMOUS THEORIES

His Celebrated Medicine Accomplishing Remarkable Results in Leading Cities.

Referring to the visit to Texas of Mr. L. T. Cooper, the millionaire philanthropist and lecturer, who has commanded such wide-spread interest in the north and east with his health theories and celebrated medicine, Tanlac, G. F. Willie, his southern and western representative recently said in Houston:

"Thousands of the most prominent people in Houston, San Antonio, Galveston, Beaumont, Memphis, Atlanta, Birmingham, Nashville, Chattanooga, Louisville, Knoxville and other cities where his celebrated medicine has been accomplishing such remarkable results, are even more enthusiastic over Tanlac than Mr. Cooper himself.

"As previously stated, Mr. Cooper contends that nine-tenths of the diseases and ill-health of the average person is due to a catarrhal condition which produces faulty digestion and improper assimilation of the food. "In a recent interview he was asked if Tanlac would relieve kidney trouble, liver complaint, rheumatism and a dozen other ailments, and in this connection said:

"As I have repeatedly said, my medicine acts directly on the mucous membrane, stomach and blood, expelling from them the impurities and toxic poisons, and rendering to them a strong, healthy condition. I am convinced that the stomach regulates the condition of the blood and is the fountain head of health or disease, as the case may be. My medicine is intended primarily for the regulation of the stomach and catarrhal inflammation, but it is no uncommon thing for persons who have used it to come to me and explain that it has relieved them of rheumatism and many other ailments not generally recognized as having their origin in stomach trouble."

"The ingredients or medicinal elements which make Tanlac come from many portions of the earth—the Alps, the Pyrenees, Russian Asia, West Indies Mountain states, near the Rocky Mountains, Mexico and Peru are among the points from which the principal parts of the preparation are obtained. In the principal laboratory of the Cooper Medicine Co., Inc., under the efficient direction of Herr Jos. Von Trisbach, a native German chemist of note, these medicinal herbs, roots and barks are assembled in the rough and painstakingly developed so as to attain that high standard of efficiency shown by the uniform preparation of Tanlac."

In referring to the unprecedented demand for Tanlac in Atlanta, Mr. Chas. A. Smith, manager of the Jacobs' Pharmacy Co., said: "I have been in the drug business in Atlanta 25 years, and not in my experience have we handled anything that even approaches Tanlac as a seller. In less than five weeks time we sold and distributed through our eleven stores over 9,000 bottles, and on one Saturday alone over 7000 people called at our stores to obtain the medicine. Judging from the repeat sales and the many expressions of satisfaction from those who have actually tested Tanlac, the preparation must be something of extraordinary merit." (adv.)

Deputy Sheriff Swab Myers left today for Terrell where he is conveying Tom Bell, recently convicted of lunacy. He will return via Corsicana and bring back Al Lloyd, who is wanted on several charges in this county.

VALUE OF THE COUNTY DEMONSTRATION AGENT

The laws of Texas allow each county to pay out of the county funds any sum up to the amount of one thousand dollars, for cooperative agricultural work. The spending of this money is in the hands of the county commissioners court, and no public money is better spent than that part of the public funds which is used for the advancement of agriculture.

Yet in this day of advancement along agricultural and commercial lines, there are some counties that have not taken advantage of this, one of the wisest laws on the statute books of our state. Such counties who are so far behind the race for progress are to be pitied because for some reason they have not known the benefits to be received from this kind of agricultural work. Nacogdoches county for the past few years has been receiving the benefits derived from the work of the demonstration agent and such workers from the Agricultural College of the state that have co-operated with him; yet it appears to be an open secret that our county judge, along with some present and late county officials, appear to oppose this work upon the grounds that the county cannot afford it, and propose after the first of the year to discontinue the work of the county agent, the same as they discontinued the work of Miss Mason.

Nacogdoches cannot afford to discard the services of these two useful officials. If the county is short of funds, it might be good business to curtail the salaries of some of the county officers who spent half of their time chewing tobacco and defacing our county house by sitting with their feet out of the windows. Is Nacogdoches going to continue to be one of the progressive counties of the state, or is she going to the tall timbers and grow renters and mortgages upon her fertile soil? This is a question for the people of Nacogdoches to decide at once. No time should be lost to let your commissioner know upon which side you stand. They represent you in the government of this county, and let no one man, it matters not what office he may hold in the county, decide this question for you. The Bible tells us that Pilot had to choose, and we all know his decision. Now is your time. Will you have Jim Greer or your late county superintendent of instruction for demonstration agent or will you have none at all. If your late superintendent of instruction is a capable man why did you not place him back in office? Mr. Greer and Miss Mason have both done good work for the rural population of the county. At the Trades Day in Nacogdoches the collection of canned fruits, vegetables and preserves speak for faithful work done. The Trades Day itself, and those held in other towns in the county, show the work of the demonstration agent. The Short Course held in Nacogdoches, the monthly visits of the dairy experts, the visits of Prof. Blackwell to our rural schools are brought here by the efforts of the demonstration agent. Can we afford to lose our Short Course? Can we afford to lose Professors Pou and Thomas amongst our dairymen, or Prof. Blackwell in our rural schools. Yet if we allow our commissioners court at their next meeting to discontinue the salary of the demonstration agent, we will lose all of these men that come here each month to assist in building up the agricultural interests of the county. Let your county judge and the court know that they are your servants and must carry out your wishes not only in this matter but to everything that pertains to the upbuilding of the county.

Freely Given by a Nacogdoches Citizen.

When one has suffered tortures from a bad back and found relief from the aches and pains, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following neighborly advice comes from a Nacogdoches woman.

Mrs. John H. Cox, N. Fredonia st., Nacogdoches, says: "La Grippe left my kidneys in a bad fix. I had a dull ache in my back until I was almost exhausted. I used Doan's Kidney Pills only a short time before I got fine results. I steadily became better and haven't had to use them since."

ENTERTAINED GRAND MASTER

The Magonic fraternity of this city informally entertained their most worshipful grand master, Hon. Dan S. McMillan of White-wright, at the lodge-room last evening.

After listening to a great address from the grand master, others responded with addresses and words of greeting, and the occasion was a most brilliant and inspiring one for all present.

Nacogdoches Masonic lodge is the oldest working lodge of the order in the state, founded by such illustrious characters of sacred memory as Sam Houston, and others of his day, and the grand master enjoyed great satisfaction with the privilege of visiting the mother lodge.

His six children were all present and had been for several days. Rev. Luker was much loved and respected and has been in the service of the Lord for about forty years, preaching in east Texas.

HARMONY SCHOOL FAIR.

From Friday's Daily. Yesterday was a big day for the Harmony School District, at which time a school fair was promoted.

From visitors who went out from this city, The Sentinel learns that a fine exhibit was in evidence, and a splendid program was rendered, altogether making it a most enjoyable and brilliant event.

Mr. McKnight and Mr. Blackwell of the A. & M. County Superintendent Jno. B. Stripling and County Agricultural Agent Jas. D. Greer were among the visitors who participated in the exercises of the day, and added much to the splendid program that had been arranged.

Harmony is one of the most progressive communities of the county, and with Prof. Marshall Sphinx at the head of the school, is building up an educational institution, and an educational sentiment, that would be credit to any place.

HUNDRED MILLION MARK IS PASSED

Washington, Nov. 24.—Population of the continental United States on January 1, 1917, will be 102,826,309, and with its outlying possessions, 113,309,285, the census bureau estimates, the increase as shown by federal census of 1900 and 1910.

ROBBERS IN JAIL.

Marshall, Nov. 26.—Two men were arrested late yesterday near Elysian Fields, this county, and brought to Marshall tonight under guard, in connection with the recent holdup of Wiley Jones, rural mail carrier, south of Longview Thursday and the subsequent shooting and mortally wounding of Constable J. D. Cunningham. One of the men said he was from Chihuahua, Mex., and the other from Ruston, La. Sheriff Sanders threw a strong guard about the jail last night, instructing deputies to remain there all night. Cunningham, who is in a hospital with a bullet wound in the body is not expected to survive. It is claimed that one of the men made the statement admitting that he "shot at the men at Hallville," near where Jones was held up; also, that he admitted shooting at Cunningham, saying he only tried to shoot him in the arm in self-defense.

Information that two men apparently answering the description given by Jones had appeared at his store to buy food was given the authorities by W. R. Busk, a groceryman at Elysian Fields. Deputy Sheriff W. P. Westmoreland of Panola County, with Starnes Wellborn, J. L. Metcalf and James and Junius Fuhr, went to the scene by automobile, and were joined by Busk.

The men were soon overtaken, walking in the public road. When ordered to throw up their hands they quietly complied. A pistol was taken off one man, the other being unarmed. The man from Mexico, who is part Indian, is said to have talked freely to the posse, saying he shot at Deputies Bolling and Terry, and that if he had not been driven by hunger to show himself he would never have been caught. His companion, he said, had nothing to do with the shooting.

DEMOCRATS CLAIM THEY CONTROL HOUSE

Washington, Nov. 26.—As a result of the election to congress of M. Clyde Kelly and Gus Campbell, democrats, from the Thirtieth and Thirty-Second Pennsylvania districts, democrats of the house claim a majority of three in the lower branch.

According to their figures there will be 216 democrats and 213 republicans, with six scattered districts still in doubt, including Congressman Scully's district in New Jersey, which they believe he will win.

Chairman Woods of the republican congressional committee still holds that the republicans will organize the next house.

Prof. A. E. Day, superintendent of Garrison High School, was a visitor to the city between trains today. Prof. Day says that the work of collecting up the assessment against the community for the purpose of rebuilding their school house, which was destroyed by fire a few days ago, is proceeding nicely, and it is hoped that work can be started soon. He also gives eloquent expression of his appreciation for the help that is being extended by Nacogdoches people.

EVER SALVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE!

Calomel is quicksilver and acts like dynamite on your liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked-out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

AT THE RICH MAN'S GATE.

(By Geo. N. Weaver.)

He is old with trembling limbs, and his way to meet his needs is rough and hard.

Who care for him who care for him? He has spent his life of life he spent in sinners to repent, and he is for him who died on the cross the Crucified.

Showing mercy, pity and grace, For the old and orphaned a resting place; Alone he wanders in the evening late And gently laid at the rich man's gate.

He begs for crumbs that fall on the floor; He asks for these and nothing more. His clothes are ragged, old and tattered; He asks not for better—these are enough.

The dogs in pity hiss and do liek, And lull the pain that made him lie; His eyelids close, he falls asleep ere more to wake, ne'er more to sleep.

But hark! A host of angels came sweeping by And bore him away to his home on high; Thus alone he died, sad to relate, A beggar laid at the rich man's gate.

But look up yonder in the skies, In Abraham's bosom now he's prized; Then look down yonder, sad to tell, The rich man's home an awful hell.

Why the difference, can you tell, Why one's in heaven, the other in hell? It must have been in the way they lived, One was hoarding while the other gave.

Hoarded wealth gives no return— It must be placed in the living urn To produce love, joy and peace, From sin's delusion a sure release.

SAFE FARMING AND HIGH PRICED COTTON

W. A. Philpot, Jr., secretary of the Texas Bankers' Association, which has been conducting a study of agricultural conditions in Texas, sends out the following circular which should be of great interest to the farmers and business people of the state:

Dallas, Texas, Oct.—Twelve million dollars is a conservative estimate of the value of the Texas Peanut Crop for 1916, according to investigators of the Agricultural Committee of the Texas Bankers' Association, conducting the "Safe Farming and High Priced Cotton Campaign" under the direction of William G. Breg, of Dallas. From figures gathered by the Texas Industrial Congress it is evident that 300,000 acres were planted in peanuts for the season just closing. Statistics show the average production per acre for the state for several years is approximately forty bushels, while the peanut hay has averaged slightly more than one-third of a ton to the acre.

Early in the season the price of nuts was slightly less than one dollar a bushel, but the price is now well above the dollar mark with every indication of remaining high. Peanut hay brings more than fifteen dollars per ton. On this basis the income from an acre of peanuts is at least $45 to the acre; making liberal allowance for the cost of labor and interest on investment, it should cost about $15 to grow and harvest a crop. Hence the net profit should be about $30 on one acre of peanuts.

Much of the cotton and seed raised for this year was sold long before present prices were reached, and on the average producers have received less than 16 cents for the lint and $15 for the seed. But on that basis the return for a bale of cotton would be $102.50. At a third of a bale to the acre, which is actually more than is produced on the average, the gross receipts would be $34.16 per acre. Call it $35 or $10 less than the income from peanuts. Mr. Ousley, of the extension department of the A. & M. College estimates it costs about $50 a bale to produce cotton. One third of that amount would be the cost of one acre. Deduct it from the $35 and you will have a net profit of $13.33 per acre on cotton against a profit of $30 on an acre of peanuts.

The comparison just made discriminates against peanuts as a crop to the advantage of cotton in every respect. In the first place the average peanuts crop may be easily greater than 40 bushels per acre. Peanut raisers in the contests of the Texas Industrial Congress have averaged about 60 bushels to the acre, and in individual cases have produced more than 200 bushels of nuts to the acre. Peanuts are subject to fewer diseases and insect pests than cotton; they are less exhaustive to the soil when properly harvested; they may be fed to hogs without the cost of harvesting, and they are out of the way, the owner has cashed in much earlier than the cotton grower.

On the other hand the prospect of an enormous cotton crop next year is becoming a certainty. Overproduction will certainly depress the price of the staple for next year so that it may easily and probably will sell for less than the cost of production. On the other hand there is no likelihood of an overproduction of peanuts; if the market does not hold up the nuts may be readily converted into pork, which is certain to command a high price for at least two years.

HOME FROM LUBBOCK.

Dr. J. E. and Mrs. Mayfield returned yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon from a three weeks' visit to Lubbock, Texas, to which place they were suddenly called by the serious illness of Col. Fairris, father of Mrs. Mayfield, who was convalescent when they left.

In speaking of the trip and the place, Dr. Mayfield gives the Sentinel the following report, which will be of interest to the readers of the paper:

Lubbock is about five hundred miles north-west of Nacogdoches in the southern part of what we call the "Panhandle" country. The residents there call it the prairie country. Lubbock contains a hill nor a hollow in it, nor a tree that grew unplanted. Neither has it a running spring, as we call such things here. The town is about a dozen years of age, but it is two dozen in size. At the postoffice general delivery window, the carriers line up for their turn, often to the number of a dozen or more.

There are quite a few East Texas folks living in Lubbock, several families from Cherokee county. One of these is Hub Guinn, a brother of our district judge, L. D. Guinn. Leland Mast also lives there. His wife was a Miss Robinson, a leading family of the older settlers. Dave Greer is there buying feedstuff for Jule Smith's farm. The scramble for these products is amazing and the prices are fabulous. Kaffir corn, milo maize, feterita, sorghum, sudan and alfalfa are strictly all "out of sight". So is wheat, peanuts and many such items. They boast of plenty of water, but short-sighted people from here can't see it. Windmills raise water—and the wind is very abundant, both in the land and in the mouth. The whole business is "windy" to the limit, but there is a reason. They can show you if you wake up. The land is all alike, and is about the same color as in our town, a reddish tint and very productive.

But with all this fuss and bustle and hustle, the town of Lubbock has no daily paper. They were trained early in the race to do without good things, but they may catch on soon. They get the news from Dallas or Fort Worth, next day after, whether it be a blizzard, battle or an election—or an earthquake. And the temperature was down to 8 "above". It varies at times to figures "below".

WILSON WIRES HUGHES THANKS

Washington, Nov. 23.—President Wilson sent a telegram to Charles E. Hughes, acknowledging his message of congratulation received last night. The president's telegram said: "I am sincerely obliged to you for your message of congratulation. Allow me to assure you of my good wishes for the years to come."

After the president had telegraphed to Mr. Hughes the White House made public several thousand telegrams of congratulation from cabinet members, governors of states, Democratic leaders in practically every state and from the presidents of several Latin-American republics. No messages were received from any of the belligerent nations.

Replying to the congratulations of the cabinet, the president said:

"One of the best things about the result is that it means four more years of active association of public service and in that we are genuinely thankful."

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of colic, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 5-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

BEWARE!

When a paint is advertised for less money—There's a reason.

What is the definition of Cheap Paint? A paint that is inferior in quality to the best paint in the market as does a linseed oil paint; takes more gallons and costs as much to apply.

Masury's Pure Linseed Oil Paint

We have handled it for 15 years and unhesitatingly guarantee and recommend Masury's Paint to be the most economical and satisfactory to buy and use.

A standard for paint is established by the U. S. Government. Masury conforms to it.

HIS FRIEND HURT; HE HELPED HIM

Injured Man Laughed When Simple Treatment Was Suggested, But He Thanked Comrade Later.

Once upon a time word came to Henry A. Voel, of Plainfield, N. J., that a close friend had been injured, and full of anxiety he visited the afflicted man, who suffering from a sprained ankle. "It was so bad that the leg had turned back," said Mr. Voehl in relating the story. "I told him I would have him out in a week and he laughed at me. But I took him a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, that night he put some on and noticed the ankle felt better. I told him to use it every day, and in three days his ankle was practically well. In four days he was working. He gladly admits that Sloan's Liniment 'put him on his feet.'"

Sloan's Liniment can be obtained at all drug stores, 25c, 50c, and $1.00.

TO THE TRAPPER OF RAW FURS.

As another fur season is here we take this method in letting the trapper know that we are in a position to handle your furs and pay you more for them than you can get by selling same to any one else.

We have some large orders for coon, skunk and o'possum, and we know that the prices we are paying will interest you. While the prices are not as high as last season we are paying you more than you can get from any one else. Let us figure with you on your next lot of furs. We have the best outlet for raw furs, as we sell them direct to the manufacturer.

COUNTY GINNERS.

There were 11,859 bales of cotton ginned in Nacogdoches county from the crop of 1916, prior to November 16, 1916, as compared with 11,794 bales up to the same date last year, according to the county ginner's report tabulated by the department of commerce of the bureau of the census at Washington.

THE WRONG BOY

The Sentinel was in error in reporting one of Mr. W. C. Lay's boys as the party who used up the Bobbitt boy in a fight at the show tent, a boy by the name of Albert Lockett now being accused of the offense.

It was currently reported on the streets that it was the Lay boy, and the city marshal had his name, but further investigation exonerates the Lay boy who was at home at the time, and we cheerfully make the correction.

Dr. Thomas of Woden was in the city today.

J. E. Ransheck, of Marshall is in the city looking after some business interests.

Mrs. W. J. Teamer of Houston is in the city visiting with her mother, Mrs. R. W. Halton.

Rev. L. V. Aldridge of Garrison passed through the city today going to Jacksonville.

T. G. Vaught and daughters, Misses Essye and Lillian Vaught were in the city this afternoon.

Mr. H. B. Power, a time-honored citizen of the North Church community, was in town today.

Mrs. M. J. Harvey left yesterday afternoon for Nashville, Tennessee, where she goes to visit her son, Dr. Claud Harvey.

Esq. R. E. DeLoney and Constable T. G. Vaught of Garrison, who came down to take the oath of office, made this office a pleasant call yesterday afternoon.

Mr. C. D. Stegall, who has been traveling in Arkansas for some time, will come in this afternoon to spend Thanksgiving with the homefolks.

Misses Essye and Lillian Vaught of Garrison, who were in the city yesterday made this office a pleasant call, coming in to see the linotype in operation.

Judge Perritte, whose illness was noted in yesterday's paper, was not able to come down to his office this morning, as a result of which the county court is in recess.

B. F. Moore, a well known business man of Chireno, was a visitor to the city today, looking after some business interests.

The many friends of Wilton Ratcliff will be glad to hear that he is nicely situated in his new quarters, and hopes to be able to regain his health.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Venable, who have been making their home in this city the past two months while Mr. Venable was engaged in the sale of bibles, are moving back to their home in Enid, Oklahoma. During their sojourn with us, Mr. and Mrs. Venable have won a number of friends who regret to give them up.

Mr. G. B. Phillips, a former citizen of this county who has been making his home at Mt. Enterprise several years, spent last night in the city, and made this office a pleasant call this morning. Mr. Phillips is a good man and a good citizen; and has many friends in this city who are always glad to see him.

Hon. L. D. Smith has been in the city today, coming down to "do his Christmas shopping early." And while here he filled The Sentinel with so much ginger from his optimistic spirit about good old East Texas and her wonderful possibilities just at this time that it will take a four-column editorial to unload, for which we will not have the space to spare today.

Notice to Public—Dr. D. P. Deason, veterinarian, will be here to attend his son's practice during his illness.
