GRAND JURY REPORT.

Hon. L. D. Guinn, Judge of the District Court:

The Grand Jury begs to report that they have labored eight days during this term of court; five days at first sitting, and three days at last sitting.

We have returned 47 bills in all 32 felonies and 15 misdemeanors. We have examined diligently all witnesses coming before us. As is usual, a great many complaints come before us that do not justify action. There seems to be quite a lot of complaint about theft in some sections, but in most cases we were unable to get evidence sufficient to get bills; and we suggest to the officers and the injured parties that they work together to apprehend such violators. We believe that the precinct officers in the various precincts should be more diligent along these lines, and when a criminal is caught, that instead of fining him $1.00, which seems to be the minimum, which enables them to collect their fees, they should fine them an amount in keeping with the crime; if this is done there will be more coming into the funds of the county.

We have visited the jail and find same in good condition, seemingly sanitary and comfortable.

In coming together this term we found an unusual situation in that there was not a single murder case pending, and we did not have to investigate any murder cases at all. We are glad to say that we believe this particular kind of crime is on the decrease; however, as referred to in this report, we find that the petty offenses seem to be on the increase, and we believe that this is due to the suspended sentence law largely more than to Suffered From Lame Back, Weak Kidneys and Dizziness.

Dear Editor:

"Last winter I suffered terribly from lame back, weak kidneys and dizziness, and uric acid in the blood caused rheumatic pains. I sent to Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., for his new remedy, 'Anuric.' As soon as the box of tablets came by mail I commenced taking them, and reaped untold good from their use."—(Signed) Mrs. Kate Thompson.

Note.—This "Anuric" is adapted especially for kidney complaints and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine and urinary troubles. The physicians and specialists at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, in Buffalo, N. Y., have thoroughly tested this prescription and found it 37 times more potent than lithia. 50c. at all drug stores, or send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package.

anything else; and while speaking of this particular matter, we want to take the opportunity to say that the abuse of his law by petty juries of this county, as well as the entire state of Texas, is responsible in a large way for these conditions. Is there not a chance or is there not room for us to improve our conscience along this line.

In view of the fact that this county is working under the old local option law, thereby making it hard to convict violators, we think it would be wise for this county to have another election, placing us under the law which will enable us to better enforce the law against bootlegging.

In conclusion we wish to thank the district attorney together with the county attorney for their untiring efforts in assisting us in our investigations.

MAN WAS KILLED AT LUFKIN YESTERDAY

The information is gleaned from the Lufkin News of a tragedy which occurred at Lufkin yesterday morning in which W. C. Morris was shot to death by C. C. Matthews, city marshal of the town.

An enmity had been aroused between the two men over the opening of a new street which led up to the tragedy.

Mr. R. W. King, a good citizen of the Woden country, was a visitor to the city today, and honored this office with a pleasant call. Mr. King says that good rain visited his section of the county Monday afternoon which will be of much advantage to the farmers, as the ground is getting pretty dry. He, too, also verifies the report of the epidemic of measles that is raging in that vicinity.

THE BOOZER CASE GOES TO TRIAL

The case of Mrs. Sallie Boozler was called for trial in the district court yesterday afternoon, and the work of impanelling the jury inaugurated. Much care is being used in the selection of the jury by both the state and the defense, and up to the time this report was gathered this morning only four jurors had been selected, making the guess safe that most of today will be consumed in this part of the work, and that it will take the remainder of the week to try the case.

Later—The jury was completed by noon, and is composed of the following well known citizens of the county: Louis Trawick, Trawick; J. W. Stalling, Garrison; Rufus Wallace, Cushing; S. W. Holbrook, Mahl; Ernest Russell, Nat; Wm. Grigsby, Nacogdoches; Henry Moore, Nat; R. R. Loy, Nat; Dave Baker, Cushing; M. W. Pybus, Nat; Sam Parmelly, Nat. Ellis Mills, Garrison.

MAN WAS STABBED OVER AT CENTER

The following short dispatch to the state papers gives a brief account of a big fight over at Center in which a man was stabbed to death, and a young lady injured:

"Center, Texas, March 27.—Charlie Loring was killed by being stabbed in the throat and Miss Brown and J. E. Lock were wounded Thursday night in a fight at the home of J. F. Lock. The Lock home is located near Center. An arrest has been made."

The remains of the dead man were carried to Lufkin for interment.

JOHI BANKS WAS BURNED TO DEATH

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hall of this city are in receipt of a letter from Olin Banks, reporting the death of John Banks, who will be remembered as having been here with the work of putting down the paving, during which time he became acquainted with many of our people, among whom he has a number of friends. The details of the tragedy are best reported in the following extract from the letter:

"John died last Monday night and was buried Wednesday afternoon. On the 8th of March he was burned by an electric explosion by a carburator at the Dallas Electric Light plant, and just lived twelve days. He was burned from his shoulders to his shoe tops, and it is a mystery that he lived as long as he did. It is still unknown just how it happened, but he was trying to save another boy that had received an awful shock and couldn't get loose. Every one down there is saying that he saved the plant and over fifty lives."

Favorite for Colds.

J. L. Easley, Macon, Ill., in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy says, "During the past fifteen years it has been my sister's favorite medicine for colds, on the lungs. I myself have taken it a number of times when suffering with a cold and it always relieved me promptly."

The Pneumonia Season.

The cold, damp weather of March seems to be the most favorable for the pneumonia germ. Now is the time to be careful. Pneumonia often results from a cold. The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less danger. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. As to the value of this preparation, ask anyone who has used it.

A Bilious Attack.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter.

Hon. Earl B. Mayfield, who has been serving the state as railroad commissioner for some time, announces for governor in the next election on a platform of statutory prohibition.

The Shreveport Times observes that "you can go around the world now without treading on the dominions of a king." The theory is correct in so far as the existence of kings are concerned—but don't forget to look out for the submarines, brother, when you enter upon the journey.

To eliminate the necessity of farmers feeding hogs after they are fat enough to kill, a meat curing plant will be built at Kirbyville, Texas, a progressive Santa Fe town. Farmers can have their hogs killed, cured and wrapped under instructions of the state department. The plant will also be used for storage of other perishable commodities.—Henderson Times.

Mr. M. H. Gossett, president of the Houston Federal Land Bank, has returned from a visit to Washington, where he went to attend a conference with the presidents of other land banks, and announces that the banks have agreed upon a flat rate of five per cent interest. He renders the opinion that this low rate of interest will be a great boon to the farmers of this district and anticipates that loans will aggregate ten million dollars in a very short time.

While he has been the author of many good articles of historical lore, Dr. Mayfield gives readers of The Sentinel an article today that will grip with interest every one who reads it, and it will fire the spirit of patriotism and justice of every loyal citizen be he a resident of Nacogdoches or some other part of our great commonwealth. The committee could find no better argument for Nacogdoches' claim to the Normal school than some of the great truths contained in this contribution, and will doubtless use them in the circulation of the literature they send out. There is also great historical value to the article which should be preserved.

A meeting of some press association, composed of Lufkin, Nacogdoches and other editors, is to be held at Timpson next month. It is probable that a newspaper man from Houston or Port Arthur will be present so as to have proof that the meeting is to be that of a press association.—Port Arthur Record.

If The News editor were called upon to explain the meaning of the above paragraph, or resign his job, the job would have to go. It is evident, however, that the writer attempted to convey the idea that a press association "composed of Lufkin, Nacogdoches and other editors" would be a tame affair indeed unless some newspaper man from Houston or Port Arthur happened to direct the proceedings. If that is the idea the Port Arthur gentleman is attempting to convey, then he is invited to be present only as a silent spectator, for egotism and "rot" are not to be made characteristics of the East Texas Press Association. Come on to the meeting, Bud, and you may be able to absorb something from the proceedings that will do you good.—Lufkin News.

"Nacogdoches boy makes a record," swears a headline in the Nacogdoches Sentinel. The best, most sunny, best light and ventilated in the State; it can ideal place for summer work.

news story under the headline was five inches long. We should think that the news value of anything like a Nacogdoches boy making a record would make the story good enough for at least two columns.—Port Arthur Record.

It must be true that "all people are creatures of their environments." It is manifest from the above that if a Port Arthur boy were to "make a record" he would get a two-column writeup in the Record, the "fatted calf" would be killed, and the populace would hold a mass meeting in celebration of the event. In Nacogdoches it is quite different—all boys who go out from here "make records," and the occurrence is so often and so common that there is no news value to it, hence the "five inches" is sufficient depth. Come to Nacogdoches.

TEACHERS HAVE SHORT LIVES.

The professional life of the teacher in Texas averages less than four years. More than one-fourth of the more than 25,000 public school teachers in Texas quit the business every year. This means that every twelve months approximately 6,000 inexperienced boys and girls must be enrolled to fill up the depleted ranks, all of which means that twenty-five per cent of Texas' school children are annually subjected to the experiment of a novice teacher. This also means that the country schools are suffering more from inexperienced teachers than the city schools, for since most teachers are initiated in schools are in effect little more than practice schools for the training of city teachers.

Teaching is not a profession in Texas; it is merely a temporary employment in most cases. It never can become a real profession until it is made more lucrative and attractive as a life business to strong men and women. So long as teaching as a business remains so undesirable that it is but a stepping stone to something else, the inferiority of the Texas public schools will be attributable to inefficient teachers more than other single cause.

But the evils of the short life of the teachers are further augmented by the roving practice of those teachers who remain in the profession longer than the average. In Fisher County, 1913-14, investigation showed that out of a total of sixty-two teachers, only four were teaching the same school they taught the previous year, not one had held the same position for a period of three years, and forty-three had never taught in the county. That similar conditions obtain in much of the State this year, no well informed persons will dispute. That an army of migratory teachers can never make a complete educational conquest of Texas we are all agreed. What then can we do to draw able people to the profession, retain them in the profession, and render their tenure of office more secure. Note what Denmark has done.

(1) Each teacher is at least a graduate of one of the twenty normal schools. (2) The teachers hold office during good behavior and seldom remain less than seven to ten years in the same community. (3) All country teachers are provided with free homes, free fuel, and a garden. (4) Counting the salary, and the free use of the teacher's home, the Danish teachers are paid more than three times as much as the Texas teachers holding similar positions. (5) Educationally and industrially, Denmark stands well in the forefront of the nations of the terests.

THE BOY ON THE FARM.

Editor Sentinel:

My daddy never gave me a cent of "spending money," not a cent. True, he fed and clothed me, gave me a warm place to sleep and let me get the best schooling he was able to afford. Did your "paw" do any better for you? From the time you were big enough to spend a nickel and know what you were spending it for, did you have the nickel to spend? Many parents do not consider that their children have any use for a little change in their pockets, yet it is not to be disputed that a little money, which the boy has earned by hard licks, will put a stiffening in his back bone that nothing else will accomplish. There are thousands of good cows in the county that could be made revenue producers by turning them over to the boy (or girl) to look after. Let him have the cream and let daddy take the skim milk, the increase and the fertilizer for his part of the pay. The boy will not fool the money away because he has gotten it by hard licks and has found out what it has cost him. The girl is sixteen years old and wants little trinkets she hates to ask father to pay for and if she and brother are earning that money daddy will not have to cough it up so often.

The milking of cows, the study of balanced rations and the general handling of the dairy afford more scope for the application of good qualities of young men than any other branch of agriculture. You can prepare the seed bed, fertilize the soil, sow the seed, cultivate the crop and harvest the grain but you are still at the mercy of the elements. You can take a heifer with her first calf and handle her so as to bring forth her limit production, and as she comes in again you can improve her condition so that the gain in production will be more than it would have been without you, and by intelligent breeding you can practically insure the calf being a better producer than her mother. The dairy herd is a unit in which there is absolute response for anything you do for it. It will improve with intelligent care and it will depreciate readily when treated with neglect. One man can take a dairy herd and build it up and another man can take a corresponding herd and run it down.

Start the boy with an interest in the farm; give him a heifer calf, a good one, not a brindle scrub; furnish him with the feed to raise it, and put him on his metal in the competition with his neighbor chum; take an able interest in him and let him have the money he can make out of the deal. He is soon going to be the land owner and the leading citizen. The girl is going to be the mother of the next generation. Do you want them to be slovenly, half-fed, timid citizens or would you like to see them leaders in their communities? If the latter, put them on the road with the dairy cow. While she is making the boy a man she will not hurt daddy's corn crop a darned bit.

Yours truly,
H. H. COOPLER.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

There was an old saying that "All Roads Lead to Rome." The day when those roads were so much traveled has passed, but Rome is there yet, and is called "The Eternal City." It is still a wonder for its present as it was for its past. Everybody knows about Rome—and should know more.

All this might well be said of this legendary city of mystery, heroism and beauty, Nacogdoches.

Texas was born here, grew up here, and it was here that Texas was formulated and launched upon the seas of human and national reality.

About one mile west of the present village called Douglas, which was settled as a permanent town in 1837, and is located in Nacogdoches county just fifteen miles west of this old county site, and on the prehistoric route which had become the Spanish King's Highway, Texas, as a name of a people and a land, was first used. The point was at some bold springs of fine soft water, now on Bradley King's homestead. A tribe of Indians lived there, and they had a chief who was leader of several other tribes living at other places a few miles away. These Indians had a crude kind of dwellings or homes, and were not of the usual type of roaming Indians. Their houses or shelters were covered with boards which in the Spanish language, are called tejas, which also spelled Texas, and pronounced tayhas, a word usually meaning tiling. It here became used to designate these located Indians as different from the wandering tribes. The Texas Indians were the sheltered or domiciled Indians. And this point or abode was the central or leading town; or, in other words, the capital of the federation. This was the true origin of Texas. The date of origin was about 1690.

These facts, or events, were revealed by Catholic priests or missionaries who first ventured here. They established a mission at Nacogdoches, a place then known as the picturesque village of Indians by that name. This mission probably stood in what is now the central public square or plaza of the city. This was a most charming site, in a dense forest of mammoth trees, watered by two streams or creeks of ever running water, and springs that gushed from the picturesque hillsides that surrounded the vale.

This was an ideal town-site. Its prominent pre-historic mounds added greatly to its attractiveness. It became a fixed town of note about 1776. It is said to be as old as Philadelphia, and it was quite as noted in its day.

It was in reality TEXAS, and ALL ROADS LED TO NACOGDOCHES.

If any man from anywhere thought of Texas, or started to Texas, it simply meant Nacogdoches.

Immigrants over-land to Texas came first to Nacogdoches. Stephen F. Austin, Sam Houston, Travis, Crockett, Bowie, Milam, Kaufman, Burleson and many other such notable men came here first. Nacogdoches sent many martyrs and heroes and statesmen into the field of action that made Texas. The spirit of freedom, of progress and patriotism was the dominating influence of the town. From here it spread over Texas.

All roads led to Nacogdoches! All patriots and leaders of the day went out over these roads, which led to the Alamo, to Goliad, to San Jacinto, and to the other historic scenes!

Why not remember Nacogdoches substantially as well as historically?

Where is the town or locality that has more attractions, or more advantages, for the benefit of its residents?

Where is the town that has more merit?

Where is the town that has done more and received less from Texas?

Where is the town that is entitled to more credit, or has done more for Texas than has Nacogdoches?

Who can show any better reasons or claims for the location of the Stephen F. Austin Normal School than Nacogdoches?

In the name of justice, merit and good sense, Nacogdoches should have this great recognition and reward. J. E. M.

In the baseball game played here Saturday afternoon by the boys of Rusk Academy and the boys of Nacogdoches High School, Rusk was victorious in a score of thirteen to twelve. The game was a most interesting, closely contested and well played throughout, and was highly enjoyed by those who witnessed it.

MEXICO IS BUYING SUPPLIES FROM JAPAN

San Francisco, March 25.—Venustiano Carranza, president of Mexico, has been buying military supplies in Japan, according to a story printed in the Japanese Advertiser reaching here by way of Shanghai. Some of these supplies, the paper says, already have been shipped, one shipment, aboard the steamer Kotohira Maru, being now on the way from Japan to Mexico, if not already delivered to Carranza's agents at Salina Cruz. Aboard the vessel also went 27 Japanese gun experts.

The Japanese, who hitherto have sold munitions only to the allies, broke the restriction at the instance of three Mexicans who went to Japan provided with a credit of more than $2,000,000 of real money, according to the Advertiser.

At the time these operations were in progress the German government, through Foreign Minister Zimmermann in Berlin, and Count Bernstorff in Washington, was trying to form an alliance between Mexico, Germany and Japan, with the United States as an object of attack.

Mr. F. D. Allen of Stripling, Haselwood & Co., met his brother in Shreveport yesterday and spent the day very pleasantly with him. Mr. Allen relates a very interesting event that came under his observation while in Shreveport, which is a good index of the increasing "war feeling" that is being aroused in the country. A conductor coming in on one of the passenger trains entering the city was very severe in his criticism and denunciation of President Wilson. On arriving in Shreveport some of the passengers who had become indignant reported the matter to the headquarters of the conductor, and the gentleman was called in, and after interrogation, in which he re-iterated some of his declarations, was dismissed from the service.

Mrs. E. Openshaw, Mr. Openshaw's mother, and Mrs. J. P. Cook, Mrs. Openshaw's sister, and Mrs. Frank Bono of Pafacious, have been in the city a day or two, coming in response to a message announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Openshaw of this city.

CONGRESS PREPARING FOR ORGANIZATION

Washington, March 25.—With the convening congress in extra session only a week off, congressional leaders are here for conferences with administration leaders on legislation that is to be demanded by the virtual state of war existing between the United States and Germany.

Aside from the great business for which congress has been called, the question of organization is chiefly occupying the house leaders. Both Democrats and Republicans said tonight the election of a speaker probably would follow soon after the house was called to order, but organization of committees presented a problem, the result of which no one could forecast.

The attitude of the so-called "wet" members and of the Northern Democrats, while the Republicans are troubled over the Progressive wing. Any of these elements might easily wreck the organization plans of the majority of either side and some observers are predicting that the seniority rule in filling committee chairmanships will be the first manifestations of their strength.

Prof. Geo. M. Hale and Prof. Joe Day of the Woden school have been spending the day in the city, their school still being in vacation on account of the epidemic of measles in the Woden country.

"ALL ROADS LEAD TO NACOGDOCHES"

A splendid message came to us through The Sentinel, Thursday for our esteemed fellow-townsmen, Dr. Mayfield. It is a splendid argument in our behalf for the State Normal to be located in East Texas, as well as a gem of history, and is the moving cause for my breaking into public print.

Motor passage and traffic is here to stay. Some counties of our state have forged rapidly ahead in their preparation for profitable and satisfactory use of the automobile and truck. Some counties are much more able to undertake such preparation than others, and therefore find it less burdensome to open up the country for such traffic than the less wealthy counties and the more sparsely populated, and, no doubt, many counties have somewhat over-done the good roads proposition, and at least, unless the roads had been made more nearly permanent. On the other hand, a vast majority of the counties of our State have not done practically anything. As for our own county, I am persuaded that taking into consideration the topography of our county, the diversified soil, the lack of gravel, the number of bridges, culverts, etc., necessary for road construction, and our numerous hills, we have received more in proportion to the amount of taxes paid, in the betterment of our roads in the last twelve or fifteen years, than any other county in all of East Texas; and I venture the assertion, that there is not another county in the State, where like conditions prevail that can match our roads for the amount of money spent, and yet it is certain that considerable of our road and bridge fund has not been spent with the highest degree of intelligence, and no doubt some has actually been squandered.

It is regrettable to note the number of little accounts, and sometimes considerable accounts, which show up in the reports of the Commissioners' Court for road work from time to time. Not that the party who presents the claim has not done a sufficient amount of work to earn the amount for which he places his account. The trouble is the work for which these little accounts are allowed is nearly always makeshift work and attains no final good. I have in mind now a place called Red Flat. It is just down the hill after you make the right angle turn a mile beyond Appleby on the road to Garrison. Three or four weeks ago I passed over this road and we had to get out and cut pine tops and fill in the ruts to keep from sticking, as we did not have our chains along it, but it is certain there was at least one man and a wagon and team, more than likely half a day. One would need no transient or level to determine that a team and plough and a couple of hands for half a day would be sufficient to deepen the ditch through a rise about one hundred yards below the real bad road in order to drain off the water which stands in a continuous pond on the east side of the road, and by so doing make the road at that particular place permanently better. In the last five years there have been sufficient poles and brush cut and hauled and put in the road at that place to make that particular part of the road permanently ideal if the work had been intelligently done. This is only an illustration; there are hundreds of others just like it. We want the State Normal. Every citizen of this county wants the Stephen Austin Normal. We each feel that we are willing to do anything right and righteous in our power to secure it. We say: we have two main lines of railroads, crossing each other in our town that run diagonally northeast and southwest and southwest and northwest through the entire district to be accommodated by this normal, and this is true and a great asset in our behalf. We have also the Nacogdoches and Southeastern R. R., which accommodates quite a territory due east of us and this is a good argument in our favor. We have, in my judgment, another proposition worthy of more consideration than these. Our public roads leading into Nacogdoches from every direction should be improved that traffic over them be not a burden and fraught with danger of expense to those desiring to patronize the new college. The students for this institution will not depend upon railroads to get here. Many of them will use the automobile instead, and our neighbor counties who will be the patrons of this college, and whose influence and prestige we now covet, will want to know about our roads. The committee which is to locate this college is going to know about the roads, and the road spirit of the county in which they locate the college. This is common sense incident to the increasing automobile traffic. Therefore, a studious and aggressive spirit of road betterment of building should be manifest among us right now. In my humble judgment, no stronger argument could be placed before the locating committee when it visits Nacogdoches than to be able to take members of the committee in every direction from Nacogdoches over a system of well kept roads, and to be able to show them that the civic spirit of our citizenship is such that as time progresses our roads will be made still better. The voting of the one and one half mill tax in the election, soon to come, would be the strongest argument along these lines we could offer. And if it takes private donations and a canvass of the county for such funds to accomplish it, we should by all means take steps and repair treacherous places in our roads before this committee visits us, for, regrettable as it may be, in the last two years many of our roads have been neglected and valuable work once done, permitted, more or less, to go to waste. More anon.

V. E. MIDDLEBROOK.

The grand jury which recently adjourned makes some very timely and interesting recommendations, which should engage the attention of the people of Nacogdoches county. First, the body complains of the abuse of the suspended sentence act which seems to be having a bad effect in the way of encouraging crime; 2nd, they find considerable complaint petty theft which they recommend precinct officers to run down, and they recommend that the county have a new prohibition election for the purpose of getting the advantages of the new law in the punishment of bootleggers, the county now operating an old statute which was in existence at the time prohibition was voted.

SAYS TANLAC SAVED HIM FROM THE GRAVE

Father of Sixteen Thought End Was Near and Told Wife To Put Children in Odd Fellows Home When He Died

What is probably the most remarkable indorsement ever given a proprietary medicine was the statement made recently by H. J. Williams, a coal miner at the Tennessee Coal & Iron Co., mine No. 8, near Fairchild, Ala., in the Birmingham district.

The story of his wonderful restoration to health was told in his own words, and is profoundly interesting. His statement follows:

"I am fifty four years of age, and am the father of sixteen children, eight living and eight dead. I came to Birmingham from East Tennessee, and have been following mining for a good many years.

"About two years ago I took sick. The doctors at first thought I had Tapeworm, then Hookworm, and finally decided it was Pellagra. I took treatment from a well-known Alabama Pellagra Cure, but got no good, and I quit going to see them.

"I suffered from a sort of numb feeling all the time in my back, and was dizzy-headed. I couldn't stoop over, or stand on my feet for any length of time, and couldn't hardly eat anything and nothing tasted good. In fact, I was slowly starving to death.

"I lost all of my strength and fell off forty-five pounds in weight. I used to weigh, when I was well, one hundred and thirty-three pounds, and got down to where I only weighed ninety pounds, and was almost a walking skeleton.

"I finally decided that there was no hope for me in this life, and I gave my ring to my wife and told her to put the children in the Odd Fellows' Home when I died.

"This is just the shape I was in when one day my little daughter said: 'Papa, why don't you try that new medicine everybody is talking about? It has helped so many people, it might help you.' Of course I had no faith in anything, but just to please the family, I made one more trial and got this Tanlac. May the good Lord bless the day I got this medicine, for it was my salvation.

"I got relief from the first bottle, and I began to eat and pick up right from the start. I am now on my fifth bottle, and have actually gained back twenty-five pounds, and now weigh one hundred and fifteen. It just looked like the more I took the better I got, and I keep on picking up every day.

"I went over to the mines yesterday and made arrangements to go back to work. I am strong enough to walk around wherever I want to go, something I have not been able to do for over a year, and that is a fact. Tanlac 'mighty nigh' raised me from the dead, that's what it has done for me. If you don't believe what I have told you, just ask any of the men around mine No. 8, and they will all tell you the fix I was in, and how much better off I am now.

"Thank God, I will soon be able to earn a living for my family, and I will owe it all to this medicine, Tanlac. I have just written to a daughter of mine in LaFollette, Tenn., who needs a medicine like this, and I want her to take it and get well.

"I don't believe now I ever had Pellagra, because I never did have any breaking out of any kind. I don't believe I had Hookworm either, but whatever it was, this Tanlac has certainly fixed me. I don't reckon there was ever a medicine on earth than Tanlac. I will always bless the day I bought

They Earned $ For Each $1 Invested IF YOUR FOOD IS NOT DESTROYED

THAT'S WHAT INVESTORS EARNED WHO PURCHASED ORIGINAL SHARES IN MY FIRST COMPANY. OTHER COMPANIES I ORGANIZED EARNED SHARE PURCHASERS TREMENDOUS PROFITS. NOW I AM ORGANIZING A BIG, NEW, COMPANY JOINING ME NOW MAY BE THE MAKING OF YOUR FORTUNE. INVESTIGATE IT.

FORTUNES IN OIL

Here in the Coastal Oil Belt, millions of dollars are being earned by all classes of investors, from the man who can afford to invest only a few dollars a month to the investor of thousands. Single wells often come in with initial production of 10,000, 15,000 and 20,000 barrels of oil daily. Oil is selling up to $1.30 a barrel at the well, so that single wells often produce enormous fortunes every day that passes. Figure it for yourself. I organized the Hoffman Oil Company and sold shares at $10 each. Within nine months investors in the original shares of this company received $29 for every $1 invested, or $2900 for every ten share purchased. Here's what some of my investor friends got for coming in with me:

One man invested $70. In nine months time this small sum grew into $1906.70. Two ladies invested $84 each, and within the same time got back over $2200. One man invested $670, and when the profits were divided he received over $18,000 as his share. Many others profited in proportion, at a rate of $29 for every $1 invested.

YOU CAN INVEST

Now I am organizing a big, new company, the Hoffman Oil & Refining Corporation. I want to make this one of the biggest oil producing, refining and marketing companies in the Southwest. The par value of shares in this company is $10, the same as in my first company. But for a limited time, early buyers will get the benefit of a big discount. The recent allotment of shares will be sold at only a fraction of the actual par value. But this offer is positively limited. At the present price and terms, no matter how MUCH or how LITTLE you can afford to invest your opportunity to participate in the large profits we expect to make is just as great as anyone else, because ALL shareholders will share equally in the profits, according to the interest each one holds.

Don't lay this paper aside until you have clipped out and sent in the attached coupon. By return mail I will send you full details about my phenomenal success in the oil business and the wonderful profits I made for my investor friends in previous companies I organized. You'll be interested, and it may be the means of making your fortune.

Mr. Haltom came several days ago, and Mr. Houston came around by Beaumont, the other boys coming in with the special train which brought the

A dispatch from Orange announces that a "Barefooted Club" has been organized with a binding agreement that the members shall not wear any kind of shoes on and after the first of April until the approach of another winter, and that over four hundred men have signed the agreement. If the price of shoe leather continues to soar much higher we know men nearer home who will not have to sign any agreement to observe the new fashion, and just today we have news of a neighboring editor who has departed for the "tall uncut." Who knows but this is the reason.

Prof. J. B. Stripling has returned from a visit to points in Central Texas where he went to represent his house in the sale of school furniture.

We glean from the Times that a big mass meeting was held at Timpson yesterday, and that visitors were present from Tena-ha and Carthage, to launch a campaign for the new normal school. Miss Mary Price, one of the accomplished daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Price, who is attending the State University at Austin, came home yesterday to recuperate from a recent illness. Mr. Price was in Houston and called up his daughters over the long distance telephone, through which he learned that Miss Mary was still quite indisposed, and he went on to Austin and accompanied her home. The young lady has been working very hard with her studies in Austin which taxed her strength and undermined her health, but with a few days rest at home, and the tender care and nursing she will receive will soon restore her and enable her to return to her studies.

The Produce Exchange.

The Produce Exchange, on Whitehall street (near the lower end of Broadway), occupies a building which is one of the notable architectural features of New York. The exterior is of brick and terra-cotta, of rich red tones; the decorations are the arms of the States, the prows of ships and heads of domestic cattle. The structure is of immense size, 300x150 feet, and 116 feet in height, with a square tower rising 225 feet from the pavement. The foundation rests upon 15,037 New England spruce and pine piles driven down to bedrock and cut off below the level of tide water. The exchange room is an apartment 220x144 feet, and 60 feet in height to the peak of the skylight. The floor space is, next to that of Madison Square Garden, the largest in the city.

The business done here is the wholesale buying and selling of produce. Grain, flour, lard, provisions, petroleum, oil, naval stores, seeds, butter, cheese, hops, hay and straw are the principal articles dealt in. The volume of business exceeds a billion dollars a year. The long tables are for the display of samples, upon which many of the transactions are based; and in the corner is the oval "wheat pit," where wheat is bought and sold. Bulletins announce the prices current in other trade centers, and give other information. "While on the floor a buyer may receive from Europe a cable order for a cargo of grain, flour or provisions, may purchase what is ordered, charter a vessel for shipment, engage an elevator to load the grain, or a lighter to move provisions or flour, effect insurance, sell exchange, cable back the fact of his purchase, and write and mail his letters." The membership is limited to 3,000, and is full. To view such things as these exchange buildings are very educational to the boy who expects to make a business of his life.

It's indeed, an interesting sight to visit the New York Stock Exchange, which is the greatest market of stocks, bonds and other securities in the world. The exchange has 1,100 members. Seats have sold as high as $95,000. Admission to the visitor's gallery is by card from a member. The chief external feature of the million dollar building is the Broad street facade.

On first entering this building, I could hardly keep from feeling a bit strange, as the maneuvers of the members of the exchange reminded me of the big "gambling dens" that I have chanced to learn about through a secret detective. However it was very interesting to me, as a feminine explorer, and I've often thought how much more it would mean to the masculine who is more capable of understanding the real meaning of its business.

Mr. Leander Liles left yesterday for St. Louis, where he will have some models made for some patents he has in mind, after which he will go on to Washington to get the patents, and at the same time take the matter up with the government of selling his patent for a new idea in a propeller for airships. From Washington he will go on to Chicago to negotiate the sale of other patents, and will be away several weeks. Mr. Liles is becoming an "Edison" in the invention line, and he has a great host of friends in Nacogdoches county who trust that fame and wealth will reward him.

BRILLIANT MEETING EASTERN STAR LADIES

Local Chapter Tendered Visiting Ladies Which Was Attended by a Large Crowd.

One of the most brilliant lodge or fraternal events in the history of Nacogdoches was held at the Masonic Lodge rooms last evening, when Nacogdoches Chapter, 428, O. E. S., tendered a reception to the visiting ladies who are here attending the School of Instruction, and have with them the worthy matron and other grand officers.

The program as previously arranged, was carried out in brilliant manner as follows:

Welcome address on behalf of city, Mayor Geo. H. Matthews; On behalf of the Masonic fraternity, Rev. M. C. Johnson; On behalf of local chapter, Mrs. Lottie Futch.

Response—Mrs. Etta Day Wallace, assistant deputy grand matron.

Supplementing or following this part of the program, an address was delivered by Mrs. Mabel Lee Eldridge, grand matron, followed with another address by Miss Irene Clevenger.

At the close of the different talks, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and souvenirs were distributed.

Good music was interspersed during the evening in selections on the virola.

A large crowd was present who listened with much interest to the very able talks made by the different members on the program, and all were charmed with the brilliance and splendor of the occasion.

The ladies will give their attention to routine matters as outlined in the program today, and tonight the Nacogdoches Chapter will initiate a candidate.

The grand matron did not arrive until 1:30 yesterday afternoon—but she came, and the local chapter feels honored in having her, as well as the other distinguished visitors, with them on this occasion.

Lufkin parties who motored to Nacogdoches yesterday afternoon report that they saw a cow running at large on the streets. Editor Gibbs, of the Sentinel, should look into this matter at once. We keep the stock up here in Lufkin.—Lufkin News.

They possibly saw the "cow that jumped over the moon" when they took an aerial flight from the car in which they were riding, while in the scrubs Doc. Ask them if they saw any stars, also.

ANOTHER SHIP SUNK BY GERMAN TORPEDO

Twenty-one Victims in Unarmed and Unwarranted Attack is Report Reaching Here.

London, March 23 (2:25 a. m.)—Thirteen members of the American steamer Healdton's crew have arrived at Ymuiden, Holland. They say the steamer was sunk without warning in the so-called "safe zone," and expressed the belief that 19 men aboard the vessel were drowned.

Twenty-one Victims, Says Consul

Washington, March 22—American Consul Mahin, at Amsterdam, cabled the state department tonight that the American steamer Healdton, sunk by a submarine yesterday off Terschelling, Holland, was torpedoed without warning, and that 20 of the crew were drowned and one died of injuries.

The consul's dispatch follows: "Standard Oil ship Healdton, from Philadelphia for Amsterdam, cargo, torpedoed without warning 8:15, evening of 21st, 25 miles north of Terschelling, Holland. Twenty of crew drowned. One died of injuries. Others (taken) to north of Holland. Submarine seen after torpedoing. More details to follow."

The sinking of the Healdton adds another grave chapter to the story of war waged against American shipping by Germany to be laid before congress by President Wilson at the special session he has called for April 2. It can cause no immediate change in the situation.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

Tells how to loosen a tender corn or callus so it lifts out without pain.

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison from told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callus the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts off with the fingers.

Freezone dries the moment it is applied, and simply shrivels the corn or callus without inflaming or irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but will positively rid one's feet of every kind of soft corn or hardened callus. If your druggist hasn't any freezone he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you.

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

CONGRESS TO CONVENE APRIL 2, IS CALLED

President Hurries up Extra Session to Deal With the German War-like Situation

Washington, March 21—President Wilson, recognizing that Germany practically is making war on the United States on the seas, today called congress to assemble in extraordinary session on April 2, to deal with the situation.

The purpose of the session, now called two weeks earlier than the date first set, as announced in the president's proclamation, is to receive a communication from the chief executive on "grave matters of national policy."

The president in his message to congress will detail how Germany has been practically making war on the United States by the ruthless destruction of American lives and ships on the high seas in contravention of all the laws of nations and humanity.

Congress then is expected to pass a resolution declaring that a state of war has existed between the United States and Germany for some time.

Such a resolution, in itself, will not be a declaration of war in a technical sense, although practically it will amount to the same thing.

As a consequence the United States will take further steps to protect its interests on the high seas and elsewhere against the warlike acts of Germany, and whether an actual state of war will come to exist in its full sense will depend on the future acts of the imperial German government.

GRADING DEMONSTRATION WILL BE GIVEN SOON

The Sentinel is advised that an early date representatives from several manufacturers and dealers in road graders and road machines will give a demonstration of road building with modern methods at Cushing, in this county, to which the general public, and particularly the citizenship of Nacogdoches county, is invited to witness.

Mr. W. E. McMillan, who has spent many years of his life for the betterment of roads in this county, will be present with machines of the company he represents, and there will be representatives from other companies.

Definite dates will be announced, and all who can should go over and witness the demonstration.

NACOGDOCHES WILL HAVE TRADES DAY

Mass Meeting of Business Men Select May 15th as Date—Appoint Committees.

All roads will lead to Nacogdoches May 15th, because that is the day that Nacogdoches is going to make it to the interest for the people from many miles around to come and is going to entertain them in a way that they will want to come again.

May 15th is the day set for a big Trades Day here, and people are behind the enterprise whose reputation in the past insure success for this event in the immediate future.

Pursuant to call of a group of business men who took the initiative in the matter some thirty or forty business men assembled in mass meeting at the city hall this morning for the purpose of discussing the advisability of having a trades day, and if favorable to the majority, to set in motion a campaign for its success. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Hal Tucker, who was elected chairman with Mr. E. J. Ezzell as secretary. The object of the meeting was stated by Mr. Tucker, in which he recommended the organization of a trades day in connection with the circus and other attractions that will be here on May 15, when merchants may get together and make special prices and offer special bargains on their lines of merchandise in an effort to widen the scope of trade territory for this city, bringing people here from a greater distance and showing them in personal exhibit and contact the superior advantages we have to offer.

Suggestions were made by Messrs. Wallace Lee, Ben Tucker, and Henry Schmidt as to the means and manner in which prices and bargains were to be offered, and the best methods to give the whole town the benefit of the advertisement. By unanimous vote the event and date were agreed upon.

Mr. Lee suggested that a steering committee be appointed to see all the merchants and agree on the means and manner in which the trades day be conducted. The chair appointed Messrs. Wallace Lee, N. D. Naman and Henry Schmidt as a steering committee to confer with the merchants and perfect the plans and means of conducting this meeting, with power to appoint other committees as needed, after which the meeting adjourned subject to call of the steering committee.

Thus the business men of Nacogdoches have taken another progressive step, and The Sentinel vouches for it in advance that nothing will be left undone that will contribute to the success and brilliance of the event.

Begin making your preparation right now to be in Nacogdoches May 15th, because it will be profitable if you have supplies to buy, and you will be entertained as never before at a public gathering.

The memorial of William H. Seward occupies a conspicuous position in the southwest corner of the Square. It is of bronze, by Randolph Rogers, and represents the statesman seated in a Senatorial chair, with pen in hand. Those who knew the living Seward aver that "the legs were not the prominent features here presented. On the contrary he is spoken of as a man who was "All head and no legs." Seward was governor of New York, United States senator, and Secretary of State of the United States under Lincoln.

The most notable adornment of the Square, and the one which ranks as one of the best examples of contemporary sculpture possessed by the city, is the memorial of Admiral David Glascoe Farragut, by Augusta St. Gandens. It stands in the northwest corner of the Square, miral is represented as standing upon deck of his ship, with field-glass in hand, and coat-skirt flying in the wind. The sturdy pose and erect, rugged figure, give fine expression to the character of the man who took the fleet past the fort in Mobile Bay, and "whose name will ever stir like a trumpet the hearts of his grateful countrymen." The pedestal designed by Stanford White, is in the form of a bench with high curving back; in the center is an admiral's sword; waving lines suggest the sea, and on either side are graceful female figures in low relief, personifying courage and patriotism.

Farragut was born near Knoxville, Tennessee, July 5, 1801. The statue was by the Farragut Memorial Association. I've heard mention that an interesting circumstance of the dedication in 1881 was the presence there of the sailors of the Hartford. At the moment of presentation John H. Knowles, the sailor who lashed Farragut to the mast in the battle of Mobile Bay, assisted by J. B. Millner, who was also on the flagship Hartford, drew aside the drapings from the statue; and B. S. Osborne, the sailor who hoisted the colors of the flagship as she entered the engagement, displayed an admiral's flag as a signal for an admiral's salute of seventeen guns.

Opposite the Farragut statue in the triangular plot at the parting of Broadway and Fifth avenue is the Worth monument, erected by the city in 1857 over the tomb of Major General William Jenkins Worth, a hero of the war of 1812 and the Mexican War. General Worth was the first to plant the flag of the United States on the Rio Grande and the first to enter the city of Mexico. He died here in Texas in 1849, and in 1857 his remains were interred in Madison Square. The granite monument bears a bronze portrait the legends "Ducit amor patriae," (Love of Country Guides"), and "Honor the Brave," and the names of the battles in which General Worth had part.

Fifth avenue is the route of the great civic and military parades and the reviewing stand is usually placed opposite the Worth monument. Metropolitan Tower is another interesting feature. The observation balcony of the tower is opened to visitors during the day. The dimensions of the tower are 75 feet on Madison avenue and 85 feet on Twenty-fourth street; and the total height is 700 feet. In general design and outline it is modeled after the famous Campanile of St. Mark at Venice.

The highest lookout is reached at the balcony of the fiftieth story, 660 feet above the sidewalk lever, from which vantage point a most comprehensive and unique panoramic view may be obtained. Within range are visible the homes of over one-sixteenth of the entire population of the United States.

The Tower Clock.
The Tower Clock is one of the interesting and unique features of the Tower Building. This mammoth clock being the largest four-dial clock in the world, located 346 feet above the sidewalk and visible far and wide over the city.

The dials are built up of reinforced concrete, faced with vitreous blue and white mosaic tile. Each dial is 26 feet 6 inches in diameter. The figures on the dial are 4 feet high and minute marks 10 1/2 inches in diameter.

The minute hand measures 17 feet from end to end, 12 feet center to point, and weighs 1000 pounds. The hour-hand measures 13 feet and 4 inches from end to end, 8 feet and 4 inches from center to point, and weighs 700 pounds. The hands are built on iron frames, sheathed with copper, and revolve on roller-bearings.

The driving power of this huge mechanism is electricity, none of the many devices connected therewith requiring any manual operation, the entire installation being automatic.

The master clock, located in the Director's Room on second floor, not only controls the entire tower clock outfit, but about 100 other clocks throughout the building, as well as several program instruments for sounding various schedule of bells in the different departments.

an automatic actuated switch lights up a great electric octagonal lantern, eight feet in diameter, located at the top of the tower, from which powerful electric flashlights, marking the hours in the evening may be seen for a great distance, far beyond the possible transmission of sound, the time being signalled therefrom as follows: Each of the quarter-hours is flashed in red and the hours in white lights. One red flash for the quarters, and four red flashes for the even hour—these latter flashes followed by a number of white flashes, marking the hour.

Now won't you all agree this is some clock? An instrument worthy of our memory.

CABINET PLANNING AN AGGRESSIVE WAR

Washington, March 23.—The American government has decided upon sweeping measures, to be put into effect following the expected declaration by congress soon after it meets, April 2, that a state of war exists between the United States and Germany. Fully appreciating Germany's policy of acting in war first and talking afterward, the government has determined to provide against every possible emergency.

Broad questions involved were discussed today at a long cabinet meeting, to which heads of departments carried reports on preparations already made and others contemplated. Details are being taken up by President Wilson and the individual cabinet members.

Regrettably, the government apparently has decided that, since Germany was making war upon the United States through ruthless killing of Americans and destruction of their ships, the issue must be met with steps much more far-reaching than mere attempts to protect individual merchant craft.

If anything is ahead to prevent this, it is not now foreseen. Once a state of war is declared to exist, aggressive measures are expected to be taken. As outlined after today's cabinet meeting, the preparations of the government are not to be for a short war or a war marked by half-way measures. Nothing is to be taken for granted. A complete program has been considered, so that everyone concerned could carry it out in a systematic and orderly manner.

BEAUMONT LANDS BIG SHIP BUILDING PLANT

Beaumont has been selected as the site for the establishment of the Lone Star Building company, authorized capital of $2,000,000, over every other gulf port and every city on the Atlantic coast.

Work of erecting a $100,000 ship building plant will begin next week. The plant will be located on the property of the Kirby Lumber company between the Southern Pacific and the Kansas City Southern railroad bridges over the Neches river.

Uncle Elisha Roberts went to Garrison this afternoon, and will spend the remainder of the crop season with a farmer near that town.

Although these facts have been known for several weeks, permission to publish details could not be obtained until the arrival of George B. Leighton, president of the company, from his home in Boston last night. McKee Duncan, one of the consulting and managing engineers reached the city Wednesday night.

Already the Lone Star Ship building company has closed a contract with the Kirby Lumber company for the construction of ten schooners averaging in price $150,000 each. Work on the first of these vessels will begin as soon as the shipyard is adequately prepared to care for the contract—Beaumont Enterprise.

Hon. W. E. Thomason, Nacogdoches county's representative in the State Legislature, arrived home yesterday afternoon to spend the little vacation with his family. The Sentinel has not been able to get an interview with Mr. Thomason for today's paper, he being kept so busy in receiving the greetings of his many friends, but from the records we find that he has made the county a most faithful and efficient representative of whom we may well feel proud. As chairman of the committee on educational affairs, he was possibly the busiest man and hardest worker of the house, and those who visited Austin during the session of the legislature found that he had become one of the most popular with his colleagues, giving him great influence with the body. And it was through this good influence that he was able to carry the special measure to refund the state taxes to the Garrison School for a period of five years for the purpose of rebuilding the school house. There was much opposition to the measure because of the dangerous precedent it carries with it, but the members yielded in friendship and special favor to Mr. Thomason as they did with Mr. King in the senate. Mr. Thomason was also pressed into service on the committee of appropriations, and will have to return to Austin in about two weeks to help make up the budget in time for the special session. The Sentinel hopes to get an interview with the gentleman at an early date, with which we can furnish our readers an interesting article.

GALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 60 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. DON'T LEAVE NACOGDOCHES.

No Need to Seek Afar. The Evidence is at Your Door.

No need to leave Nacogdoches to hunt up proof, because you have it here at home. The straightforward statement of a Nacogdoches resident like that given below, bears an interest for every man, woman or child here in Nacogdoches.

Mrs. J. B. Eaves, Nacogdoches, says: "A dull ache settled right over my hips and the pains bore down on me like a great weight and wore me out. Sharp, darting pains run into the back of my neck, causing headaches and spells of dizziness. My kidneys didn't act as they should, either. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Stripling, Haselwood & Co.'s Drug Store, gave excellent results."

While the smartness and beauty of the outer Dort is in complete keeping with its excellence within, it is the inner Dort that you should know thoroughly. Here, under the surface, is beauty of another sort—the beauty of sturdiness and efficiency.

All the Dort's component parts are remarkable for their unflinching dependability, simplicity, accessibility.

This kind of excellence has opened the eyes of thousands of motorwise men and women—and made them Dort owners. It makes the Dort a car that the whole family can use and enjoy.

With all this quality, with complete equipment, with 'big-car' refinements and conveniences, the Dort is a moderate priced car—$745—and it is a supremely good car.
