OVER TEN MILLION REGISTERED YESTERDAY

Washington, June 5.—Ten million young Americans enrolled themselves Tuesday for war service. Registration day, with but a few weeks of preparation, saw the first military census ever taken in the United States completed without a single untoward event of consequence.

The manhood of the nation obeyed the president's call and volunteered in mass, setting at naught all the schemes and plottings of German sympathizers and the few cranks who have agitated against registration. It remains but to select the men who are to go to the front.

From every state congratulatory messages came Tuesday night to Brigadier General Crowder, provost marshal general, federal supervising officer of the great enterprise. While no complete returns from any state were transmitted up to a late hour the governors were unanimous in reporting that complete quiet had prevailed throughout the day and that a full registration was indicated.

Full Turnout All Over U. S.
The early reports, showing a full turnout all over the country, indicated that the estimates of the census bureau as to the number of men within the specified age limit would be verified with the count.

With the closing of each registration precinct, officials went at once to the task of sorting and classifying the cards. There is much work to be done in order that the brief synopsis, which each governor will make to General Crowder of the registration of his state may go forward promptly.

General Crowder is hopeful that another 24 hours will see the full record of the country on his desk. The state department was called upon for additional cards. The day by the thousands. For a seventh hour rulings were found necessary. The system devised by General Crowder of avoiding the political machinery of the nation in the last worked with a smoothness that spoke of perfect cooperation of state, county and municipal officers.

Splendid Order Prevailed.
Department of justice officials had an inkling of only local or sporadic disturbances and had predicted that the men opposed to registration would not resort to force anywhere, but they took every precaution.

Every man in the field had strict orders to arrest offenders promptly and hail them before federal commissioners. The success of the plans of the work of the men in the field in the splendid order that prevailed generally surpassed even the expectations of government officials. The reports passed without even such exciting disturbances as mark a general political election.

PRESIDENT WILSON WELCOMES VETERANS

Washington, June 5.—Veterans of the Confederacy gave President Wilson a tremendous ovation here today when he welcomed them to the national capital at the opening meeting of the twenty-seventh annual re-

Cason, Monk & Co.

As the president, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, ascended the platform, the soldiers waved their hats and the hall resounded with the famous "Rebel yell" of '60's.

The great hall was packed to the doors and thousands stood on the streets outside, unable to obtain admittance.

President Wilson, before war broke out, was glad to remember the heroic things done on both sides in the war between the states and that there was no man among them who could not be proud to have sprung from that stock.

"This is a day of memories," the president declared, "and yet the world does not live on memories."

President Expresses Pleasure

The president spoke as follows:

"I esteem it a very great pleasure and a real privilege to extend to the men who are attending this reunion the very cordial greetings of the government of the United States."

"I suppose that as you mix with one another you chiefly find these to be days of memory when your thoughts go back and recall those days of struggle in which your hearts were strained, in which the whole nation seemed in grapple, and, I dare say, that you are thrilled as you remember the heroic things that were then done. You are glad to remember that heroic things were done on both sides and that men in those days fought in something like the old spirit of chivalric gallantry."

"There are many memories of the civil war that thrill the blood and make one proud to have been sprung of a race that could produce such bravery and constancy; and yet the world does not live on memories. The world is constantly making its way forward into new and different ways, and I believe that one of the things that contributes satisfaction to a reunion like this and a welcome like this is a day of oblivion."

"There are some things that we have thankfully noted, and among them are the great passions of devotion which once threatened to rend this nation in twain. The passion of admiration we still entertain for the heroic figures of those old days, but the passion of separation and the passion of difference in principle is gone—gone out of our minds, gone out of our hearts; and one of the things that will thrill this country as it reads of this reunion is that it will read also of a rededication on the part of all the great nation which we serve in common."

J. B. Brown, a good citizen of the Melrose country, was a pleasant caller at The Sentinel office this morning.

Miss McNe Day arrived in the city at noon today and is a guest of her friend and former schoolmate, Miss Lorne Gibbs.

To be conscious that you are ignorant is a great step to knowledge.—Disraeli.

It is sometimes not expedient for the welfare of yourself or your community to say all you think.

With the fine crop of vegetables, berries and fruit that is being grown, the slogan should be "Can all you can."

The Shreveport Times is getting a little arbitrary in the matter and urges that we "don't do anything that'll please the Kaiser."

The town of Lufkin and the county of Angelina, through their officials, have issued proclamation declaring tomorrow (June 5th) a legal holiday in the interest of the military register and sale of liberty loan bonds. Nacogdoches has brought her work up with other duties and has no need for the holiday.

The campaign committees which went out from this city Saturday afternoon met with a hearty response in almost every section of the county, and as a result of the activity the subscription for the county has been brought up to about two hundred thousand dollars. This is very creditable to both the patriotism and good business judgment of our people who are always ready to do their part in any worthy undertaking with good measure.

The speaker at the Chautauque last night uttered a great truth when he said that "father" should have a flower, too. He would not take a single honor from the dear old mother, but he would add a flower for the dear old father who also does his part in rearing and providing for the children—and so it should be. Many fathers have been "mashed" in middle life by the manifest lack of appreciation of their children to whom they have given the best part of their lives.

The people of Nacogdoches county have responded with generous measure and good nature to every demand made of her by Uncle Sam thus far. We have doubled our allotment in the subscription to liberty loan bonds, we have given a full rendition in the census of military registration, and our farmers are working early and late to grow all the feedstuff and foodstuff possible for the country's relief. If anything else is needed, that, too, will be forthcoming with the same good grace.

The suggestion of a peanut refinery and a peanut factory for Nacogdoches is full of good logic. The peanut is the coming crop of this section, and the conservation of opportunities it brings will add so much to the permanent wealth of the community.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

Since the peanut is becoming of such great importance as a food crop to both man and animal it is indeed a difficult task to keep the market supplied. Many thousands of acres are being added this year, yet it has been felt that the demand could not nearly be supplied. It is indeed gratifying to learn that we are to have a peanut factory so near, and now if Lufkin will go do likewise we shall doubtless have peanuts to go round.

WAKE UP AMERICA.

The trouble with the people of this country is that they think of the war as being three or four thousand miles away. This is the wrong angle from which to view it—the war is a week away, for that is the time it would take the German fleet to reach New York and Galveston harbors.

The German Government has made up its mind that America shall pay for this war. Ambassador Gerard told us this in the plainest language some months back, and who knows better the feelings, sentiments and intentions of the German Government than our ex-ambassador at Berlin?

Supposing that the people of this country (Texas in particular) continue to be indifferent to the fact that money and supplies are urgently needed to keep fleets of the United States Great Britain and France at their present efficiency.

Drained by years of financial and physical strain, our allies will be sufficiently weakened and demoralized to allow the German fleet to venture forth. Where will they go? To England, which has been drained of billions of dollars? No, they will carry out their threat of making America pay.

The American nation possesses intelligence second to none in this world and yet they are suffering the fate of all wealthy and successful nations, they have become sluggish with ease. We should recognize facts instead of making it necessary for German shells to fall in the streets of New York, Portland, Maine, Galveston and Brownsville, before we wake up.

We are at war. This sounds commonplace. Everybody knows it you say. They do not! To know a thing is to recognize a fact in all its bearings, so we say without fear of contradiction, that the American people do not know that we are at war.

Not only are we at war, but with a relentless enemy, a vicious enemy, an enemy prepared to do unspeakable things to our women and children.

TRIBUTE TO JUSTICE KING.
The Beaumont Enterprise pays the following pretty editorial tribute to Hon. S. M. King, the new associate justice:
"Governor Ferguson's choice of Senator Steve M. King to succeed the late A. E. Davis as associate justice of the Ninth court of civil appeals is most pleasing and will meet with wide approval.

"Justice King is one of the best known and most popular men in east and southeast Texas. He has served the people of Nacogdoches county in the lower house of the legislature, and for years past has represented this district in the state senate. In both capacities he has reflected credit upon himself and his constituents. An able lawyer, with wide experience, he is particularly well fitted for the office to which he has been appointed.

"The governor could have made no better selection, and certainly none would have been more satisfactory to both the bar and the public."

IRISH POTATO RECORD IS MADE BY CITIZEN
From the information we have at hand, The Sentinel believes that a Nacogdoches citizen has made a record in the growing of Irish potatoes which will make him famous when it is known.

Mr. B. F. Evans, who moved up here from Lufkin some two years ago, lives on the Bob Jordan-old place, up North street.

Being persuaded to grow something to overcome the high cost of living, he turned his attention more particularly to Irish potatoes. He had a piece of low land on the place which he filled in during the winter, adding a generous supply of stable manure to the filling. The ground was thoroughly plowed and worked in advance, getting it pulverized deep and in a fine state of cultivation before the crop was planted. With the large amount of fertilizer used, Mr. Evans decided that there was no use wasting good land with the old-fashioned "rows," and planted his potatoes about six inches apart each way. At digging time he found a solid bank of potatoes, with the ground cracked and swollen with its deposit.

In gathering the crop Mr. Evans measured a small piece of the ground, which seemed to average in production with the whole, and multiplying it with the whole estimates that the production of this "patch" was at the rate of 1089 bushels to the acre.

If any section of the state can beat this experiment, The Sentinel would like to hear from them; if any doubt the statement, Mr. Evans can show them.

LUTHER M. JOHNSON, SR., DIES AT ATLANTA, TEXAS

The following report of the death of a brother of our townsman, Rev. M. C. Johnson, which occurred at Atlanta, Texas, is taken from a recent issue of the Dallas News:

"Luther H. Johnson, Sr., died at his home here Monday at noon and was buried by Atlanta Camp, W. O. W., at the Atlanta Cemetery at 11 o'clock a. m. Tuesday. He was employed by the Texas & Pacific Railway Company as operator for more than forty years, and was at one time train despatcher. He was reared in Marshall. Mr. Johnson was widely known in railroad circles and had many friends. A large number of out-of-town relatives and friends attended his funeral, and the grave was covered with floral tributes. He leaves a wife and a number of married children. He has several sisters and two brothers, one of whom Rev. M. C. Johnson is pastor of the Presbyterian church, at Nacogdoches, Texas."

AMERICAN LINER ATTACKED BY U-BOATS

New York, June 3.—Two German submarines made a concerted torpedo attack on the American line steamer Kroonland on her last outward voyage from this port, firing four torpedoes, two of which hit the liner glancing blows, according to a report brought here Saturday by an American recently in England.

The liner was nearing the British coast, the American was informed, when two torpedoes fired from opposite sides were seen. Both torpedoes missed the bow of the ship by less than 200 feet. The Kroonland already going at high speed then started a zigzag course.

Quickly two more torpedoes were launched. This time the aim of the Germans was better, for the missiles actually touched the sides of the liner but the blows were not sufficiently direct to explode the torpedoes. The naval gunners on the Kroonland opened fire at the unseen targets sending explosive shells into the water at the point it was judged the submersibles were when the torpedoes were launched.

The honest man does not fear inspection.

CROP CONDITIONS.

Washington, June 1.—Cold weather in April and May hurt the cotton crop severely through the entire South.

An official statement Friday by the department of agriculture says:

"Temperatures for many days in early May were so low that frost formed even in the southern part of the cotton belt. Much cotton was killed outright and the stand was damaged everywhere."

Revised estimates announced Friday of the area planted and in cultivation at the end of June last year place the acreage at 36,052,000, the area picked last year at 34,985,000 acres and the yield per acre at 156.6 pounds of lint.

The statement continued: "There has been much replanting in every state and the cotton everywhere has a stunted appearance and has grown very little. In addition to cold weather drouth in some sections has kept the seed from germinating. The crop will average probably three weeks late in age and probably more in size and appearance.

Many sections report lice. There is some complaint of weevil, but they have not shown up yet to any great extent, probably owing to the lateness of the crop. Generally, cultivation is fully up to the normal and there is little grass in the fields. There is a considerable shortage in the labor supply, but farmers are well up with their work in most places, owing to the generally dry weather. Labor shortage applies to the states east of the Mississippi river, those west of the river probably have sufficient labor to make the crop."

BUYS $1,000,000 IN LIBERTY BONDS

The Gulf Refining Company, of which W. L. Mellon of Pittsburgh is president, and which has in excess of 9000 employees in Texas, has subscribed $1,000,000 to the Liberty Loan for itself and for its employees, the latter to be allowed to purchase bonds on an easy payment plan.

An official of the company stated in Houston Friday that while the subscription to the fund was made in Pittsburgh, full credit will be given to Texas for such amount of the bonds as are taken by the Texas employees of the company, and this amount is expected to be very large. "It would be difficult to estimate the amount of the bonds that will be taken in Houston and Texas, but you can put it down that there are no 'slack-ers' with the Gulf Refining Company" said the official spokesman.—Houston Chronicle.

SCHOOL'S OBLIGATION TO THE HOME

Training for life in the home is more important today than ever before in the history of civilized society. That decent homes are essential to a decent citizenship has long since been recognized by all thoughtful persons, but to make the most of the latest and best things of modern science in the home, practical scientific training for housekeeping must be had. The fireless cooker, the dustless sweeper, the cream separator, the sanitary sink, the refrigerator, the meat, vegetables and milk, and many like conveniences make it indispensable that the modern housewife has a scientific knowledge of the material with which she is to work. Food selection and food preparation are better understood than they ever have been, and the best medium for extending the benefits of this scientific information to the homes of our land is through the schools. A knowledge of foods and sanitation is as important as arithmetic or botany.

Courses in cooking, sewing, agriculture, and homemaking successfully put into effect cannot fail to create new confidence and ingratiate the school in the minds of all who patronize it. With discreet and intelligent direction they beget a new community faith. They dignify the idea of home and increase the respect the average layman has for the school. When properly taught, they give lessons that are easily appreciated by all and promote that type of interest that means for educational, social, and domestic uplift. Bath-tubs, well balanced rations properly prepared, pictures, music, books, a right appreciation for the beauty of a home, and not a few other things of interest that means for educational, social, and domestic uplift.

Better homes mean much for the community life of a higher order. Homes—make civic clubs, social centers, and other forms of community co-operation comparatively easy to establish. Home betterment is a much a problem for the school as for the social worker. The school and the home have a common interest. With the proper unity of interest and action each becomes an influence for good in rehabilitating the life of the other.—Division of School Interests, University of Texas.

Hon. S. W. Blount of Nacogdoches was in the city Friday visiting his son, Mayor Lamar Blount, and family, and attending to some business matters. Judge Blount was reared in San Augustine and has thousands of friends in this section—his old home—who congregate around him upon his visits and listen to his interesting talk.—San Augustine Tribune.

APPROPRIATION FOR THE UNIVERSITY IS VETOED.

Austin, Texas, June 3.—Governor James E. Ferguson late yesterday vetoed the entire appropriations made by the Thirty-Fifth Legislature for the support and maintenance of the University of Texas for the next two fiscal years, making, however an exception as to the appropriation made for the operation of the School of Mines at El Paso.

The veto includes the medical branch of the university at Galveston.

This action of the governor had been anticipated for the past two days, and means, that undoubtedly, the university will be unable to operate for the next two fiscal years.

No Fear of Mob Bluff.

"Regardless of consequences," the governor said, "I am not going to sit idly by and approve $1,600,000 appropriations, and have my friends whom I have appointed to assist me in carrying on the affairs of the government permanently restrained from having a voice as to how this vast sum of money shall be spent and being required to keep any official against their will.

"Aside from any court procedure I refuse to be intimidated or bluffed by any mob, and as long as I am in the governor's office I shall not be afraid to exercise any powers which the constitution of the state gives me in any manner that to me seems right and proper. I am only answerable to my own conscience and to the people who elected me."

"High Brows" Versus "People."

Further the governor said, "We may just as well face the issue and determine whether this state shall let the autocratic educated high brows control it or whether the people themselves are going to reap some of the benefits which the government can bestow. I have thought this matter over carefully. I had hoped that the issue might be avoided, but it seems otherwise.

"I therefore throw down the gauntlet to those who want to oppose me on this issue, and let us take it to the people and let them decide who is right and who is wrong."

Governor Ferguson pointed out that he has been threatened with physical violence if he vetoed the appropriation and declared, "but I shall not falter, and I shall face my accusers as I have always faced every other issue, trusting in the merits of my position, and the loyalty of our masses to sustain me."

Students are Warned

When it became known last night that the governor had disapproved the appropriation Judge J. C. Townes of the law faculty of the university, called the entire law class together at the university and cautioned them not to make any demonstration in the matter, but to act like men and let the proper authorities take care of the situation.

VETERANS LEAVE FOR CONFEDERATE RE-UNION

Thirteen of Nacogdoches county's grand old Confederate veterans left this afternoon for Washington, D. C., where they go to attend the Confederate re-union, and notwithstanding the weight of age that is wearing heavily upon many of them, they were buoyant and jolly and are expecting a great trip.

Barker, I. N. Dill, N. Pitts, T. J. Hunt, J. C. Fall, Joseph Turnage, O. C. Dotson, E. B. Lewis, E. Hogan, J. S. Doughtie.

Sixteen had signed up to make the trip, but several could not get away for different reasons at the eleventh hour.

Every courtesy possible will be shown these grand old men on their trip, and it is the wish of all that they may have the greatest trip of their lives, returning much refreshed for the outing.

This includes the gross amount of all that has been subscribed, but in a few instances does not give the names of all the subscribers, some having taken stock through the banks which is included in the amounts listed by them.

Others are arranging for subscriptions, and with the county wide campaign tomorrow old Nacogdoches county will set neighbor counties a pace that will prove her superior patriotism in furnishing funds.

In addition to the money that is being put into the service in the county, we have furnished a greater per cent of men for the various services of the county, and a strong Red Cross society is being organized, through all of which every one in the county has opportunity, and many are responding.

Since writing the above, the county manager requests the statement that if any names have been left off the list he will greatly appreciate it if the party or parties will call his attention to the matter, as it is always possible to lose a name in transcribing a list. And all others who wish to subscribe are invited and urged to give him their names and amounts at once as it will be impossible for the committee to see all personally in the short time.

LINDSEY, TEXAS HIT BY TORNADO

Gainesville, Texas, June 1.—A tornado which swept the country around Gainesville late last night did several hundred thousand dollars damage, chiefly here and at Lindsey, a little town six miles west of Gainesville, but there were no casualties. Several were injured, but not seriously. Myra and Munster also reported damage.

Lindsey, a German settlement, with about 150 inhabitants, was the worst sufferer. There the terrific wind leveled all but the steeple of the new brick Catholic church, completely demolished several residences and badly damaged the general store.

NACOGDOCHES OFFICERS CAPTURE HORSE THIEF

Joe Batson, who is supposed to hail from Louisiana, but who has been making his headquarters in East Texas for several months, has a fondness for horses which has caused him much trouble, but the trouble he has suffered in consequence, does not seem to lessen his fondness for the quadruped of the horse variety.

As the story goes, Batson served a term of four years in the penitentiary in the Pelican state for appropriating to his use and benefit a horse that did not belong to him. Finishing his term, probably feeling that he did not receive his "money's worth," he appropriated another horse while the owner was not looking and came to Texas with him. The officers of this county finally located him down in San Jacinto county and Deputy Ed. King went after him while Sheriff Prince was busy with the wires getting an officer from Louisiana to meet the deputy here and take charge of him, which he did, and the Louisiana officer took his prisoner on the same train on which he was brought in, having previously provided tickets.

W. P. Burrows, Tiler.

It wears down your strength, racks your nerves, keeps yourself and all the family from sleeping. Besides, you can easily stop it with Foley's Honey and Tar. A standard family medicine of many years standing for its grippe and bronchial coughs and colds, tickling throat, hoarseness, stuffy, wheezy breathing and for croup and whooping cough. Its effect on the inflamed lining of the throat and air passages is quickly felt and very soothing. —E. J. Campbell, Paoli, Ind., writes: "I coughed continually and at night could hardly sleep. Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me and one bottle cured my cough entirely." Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

U-BOAT BASE IN CARIBBEAN PLOT

Washington, June 3.—A German plot to establish a submarine base in Caribbean, close to the Panama Canal was disclosed here yesterday.

The intrigue, which contemplated the purchase of the Island of Margarita off the Northern coast of Venezuela from that government, was discovered by United States agents. Full information was cabled immediately to the state department.

Secretary Lansing at once wired the facts to Preston McGowin, United States minister as Caracas, with instructions to present them to President Gomez, together with the private declaration that the sale of the island would be regarded by this government as an unfriendly act.

It was known here last night that an American battle squadron is ready to seize the islands and all the Venezuelan ports should Gomez consent to the sale.

The state department has been aware for some time that a strong German propaganda was being carried on in Latin America. It failed in Brazil, but the object there was merely to force the Brazilian government to remain neutral.

In Venezuela it had other objects, as it had in Columbia. These were to obtain bases for German submarines, which could sweep the Atlantic trade lanes from Panama to Canada, and lying off the entrance of the Panama Canal, practically end its usefulness. In addition, attempts to blow up the canal were to be launched from the Caribbean base.

BELATED WEDDING REPORT.

The Sentinel has failed to note sooner the marriage of Prof. H. B. Graves, a well known teacher of the county, to Miss Mattie Long, which happy event occurred one night last week.

Prof. Graves is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Graves, living up North street about one and one-half miles from town, and has been superintendent of the Center District school the past two terms. He is an ambitious young gentleman of sterling worth. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Bettie Long, and is accomplished, lovable young woman who will make an ideal queen for the new home over which she has been chosen to preside.

The Sentinel joins the many friends of the happy couple in congratulations and good wishes.

Mrs. J. Bright and family, former citizens of this city who have been making their home in Austin the past several years, are in the city visiting with relatives and friends and preparing to move back. Mr. and Mrs. Bright moved to Austin to give their daughter, Miss Mabel, benefit of the finishing courses of her education in the State University, after she had graduated in the schools of this city. Nacogdoches people hail with delight news of their return to citizenship.

WILL OPEN RESTAURANT.

Mr. P. M. Sanders, the owner, is putting the building next to Cason, Monk & Co., formerly occupied as a tailor shop, in shape for the operation of a restaurant which will be conducted by Dan Cruze, who is well known in this business in Nacogdoches.

After selling his former restaurant, Mr. Cruze went to Humble where he engaged in similar business for awhile, but proof that he likes Nacogdoches better is in the fact of his return

ITALIANS CAPTURE 85,000 AUSTRIANS.

The Italian offensive in the Austro-Italian theatre again has greatly diminished in violence, being carried out mainly by small detachments. An indication of the extent of the Austrian losses in the recent fighting is a statement issued by the Italian war office showing that between May 14 and 29 the Austrians lost 85,000 men in killed, wounded or missing.

Five generals and 48 high officers are included in the figures of the Italians.

Again there has been considerable fighting between the entente and Teutonic allied troops on the Macedonian front. Paris reports engagements with alternating results near Lymniza, while Jofia records successes for the Bulgarians over the French along the right banks of the Vardar and the repulse of the British who attempted an advance in the Serez region.

The Austrian official communication says that on the Moldavian front the Roumanians successfully attempted an advance between the Suchitza and Putna valleys.

The old teachers who are retiring are doing so of their own accord.

MARRIED SUNDAY.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK APPEALS FOR PATRIOTISM

The Sentinel is in receipt of the following telegram, which is self-explanatory:
Dallas, Texas, June 6, 1917.
Sentinel,

Nacogdoches, Texas.
In an interview given to the press last night, Secretary McAdoo said: "I regret to find that there is a disposition to stop the campaign for further subscriptions after a city has reached the tentative allotment. It is most important that there shall be no cessation of the work even in those cities which have already responded so promptly and patriotically. It is imperative that the loan shall be largely over-subscribed."

The wisdom of Mr. McAdoo's advice to the districts which have already secured their quota cannot be questioned for some one must make up for the lack of response to this district, seeing that there is only one county in the eleventh district which has secured fifty per cent of its quota; it will be necessary for the people of other parts of the country to accept our responsibilities, and to follow Mr. McAdoo's advice, namely: Not to stop work because they have done their share.

Why does Texas wait? Surely her people intend to subscribe to the liberty loan. It is almost incredible that she will shift her responsibilities on to others, yet this appears to be the case. Recent German, French and English loans have been over-subscribed, notwithstanding the terrible drain on the finance of these countries. Surely Texas has more patriotism than a German, French or English. See Texas wait? Germany is watching us. The world is watching us. Why does Texas wait?
J. W. HOOPES,
Deputy Governor Federal Reserve.

DISCUSSING IMPROVEMENT INTER-COUNTY ROAD

Lufkin News.

C. M. McConico, the road contractor and builder, is interesting himself in the construction of a highway through the Angellina River bottom on the Nacogdoches road that can at least be used. He has offered to do the work on the same basis that he is now constructing the Pollok and Zavalla road and estimates that the stretch of road through the bottom can be placed in good condition for the sum of $3,000. Of this amount, he states that the county will pay $1,000. Mr. McConico, who has never been known to lag behind on any kind of a proposition agrees to pay $500 on the work, leaving a balance of $1500 to be raised. In order to raise the money, The News understands that a committee of citizens will at once get busy with a subscription list and the remaining amount should be forthcoming in just a little while. In fact, if every automobile owner in Lufkin would donate $5, the amount would be over-subscribed. Of course some who own cars are not going to give anything, while others who own no cars realize the importance of having a road leading out of the county, will help some. The News believes the importance of improving this particular piece of road will appeal to all classes and that there will be no trouble in raising the amount of money necessary to place it in first-class condition.

POTATOES AND TOMATOES GROW ON SAME PLANT

The following report of an experiment in making potatoes and tomatoes grow on the same plant, is taken from the Evansville (Ind.) Courier, and the party is a cousin of our townsmen, Joe Wolseifer:

"Potatoes on the roots and tomatoes on the branches, are growing on plants being nursed at J. C. Elspersman's green house on Outer Michigan street. He is beating the old adage of making two blades of grass grow where one grew before."

"They are the creation of Carl Elspersman, son of the veteran florist, who for over thirty years has conducted a flower kingdom in that locality. The veteran trained his heir, from youth up in the secrets attendant to nature's endowment to vegetation according to the rules laid out by masters of the past."

"Faithfully young Elspersman followed these rules, greatly assisting his sire in building up a nursery, which from a small green house grew until it now covers an entire half block."

"Of late the elder Mr. Elspersman, because of illness, practically has been compelled to lead a retired life and during this period the former apprentice, who now is in his thirty-second year, began experimenting on the plants entrusted in his care."

"The prevailing high cost of living; the general action toward utilizing all available ground to raise foodstuffs and the concentration of everything to prevent waste and loss, awakened in Carl Elspersman the idea of a possibility of causing two or more plants to bear two or more vegetables just the same as Luther Burbanks succeeded in producing a number of kinds of fruit from one tree."

"According, six weeks ago, he trimmed a potato plant which he had tenderly nursed among others in his plant kingdom, and trimming a tomato plant also of his own creation, spliced or grafted the two together. The roots of the potato plant were kept intact in the ground and the stem of the tomato plant was made the top of the stock."

"Several days of tender nursing, satisfying him that they had joined, remained and healthy, and would make true his dream, caused him to apply his grafting process to other similar plants."

"The grafting was made on the stems of the potato plants to be eight inches from the roots, the stems of the potato plants being of shorter length, but with the tops bushy."

"After a period of two weeks, following the grafting process, the tomato plants began budding and have since fully developed, giving every indication that they will bear the juicy red vegetables. Equally as promising are the roots of the potato plants."

"It was to be only an experiment," declared Mr. Elspersman when a Courier reporter called the other day at the green house and admired his great accomplishment, "but if it turns out the success it gives indications it will, I intend to push it on a larger scale and will assist others in doing likewise, especially if it will prove a benefit to conditions confronting us because of the war."

THE NATION'S NEED.

The response that is being made by the people to the Liberty Loan is both inspiring and encouraging. Individuals and corporations alike are subscribing generously, among the first of the latter being the National Biscuit Company which took a half-million dollars of the bonds. To conserve what our ancestors fought for and to make the world safe for democracy the Liberty Loan must be made a great patriotic success, for the future peace and security of the world are in the balance. Here is a real opportunity to help the nation. Now is the time for all good men to come to its aid.

SOLDIERS FROM SOUTH THE FIRST FOR DUTY

Birmingham, Ala., June 5.—General Leonard Wood, commander of the Southeastern department of the United States army, in an address here Tuesday, predicted that Southern soldiers would be among the first troops to be sent to Europe.

"Very likely we will have to send 1,000,000 men or 2,000,000 men across the sea," General Wood said, "and perhaps leave many thousands of them there, so the thing for us to do in America is to make munitions, raise big crops and train our men well. I expect that our Southern men will be among the first to go."

General Wood was principal speaker at the raising of a flag on the recently erected municipal flag pole this afternoon. Earlier in the day he reviewed a patriotic parade, in which more than 30,000 men, women and children marched.

CUT YOUR WEEDS AND CLEAN UP THE ALLIES

The city health officer requests The Sentinel to give notice to any people who may have neglected the matter, that they must cut the weeds on their premises, and clean up the allies.

This move is very necessary to the health and civic attractiveness of the city, and good and sufficient ordinances have been made by which people who will not do so voluntarily can be required to perform the service. Since each person doing so is the beneficiary, no one should wait to be required to perform this most necessary duty, and The Sentinel hopes that all will rally with this notice. For one man to neglect to keep his premises clean not only jeopardizes the health of his own family, but his neighbors as well, and it is a matter in which co-operation must be employed if the best results are obtained, and it is for this reason that ordinances help me. I am glad to give must be made and enforced in this statement and I hope that lots of other suffering people Let's give the old town a mowing and summer cleaning.

THIS WOMAN GAINS SEVENTEEN POUNDS

Tanlac Makes Her Well and Strong After Fifteen Years of Suffering.

"Tanlac has made a well woman of me after I had suffered for fifteen years and had gotten to the point where I didn't believe I could possibly live much longer," Tanlac makes her well and strong after fifteen years of suffering. Lottie Swofford, wife of H. H. Swofford, the popular salesman for the Jewel Tea Company, and living at the St. Charles Hotel, Galveston, Texas.

"Yes, it's true," continued Lottie Swofford. "I have gained seventeen pounds on Tanlac and I am stronger and feel better than I have since I can remember. Ever since I was a child I have suffered terribly with catarrh of the stomach and I don't believe anybody could have been in a worse condition than I was for the past few years. I suffered constantly with the most awful pains in my stomach and nearly all over my body and I had such terrible headaches that sometimes I almost went distracted."

"My food soured on my stomach and formed gas that would get around my heart and breathe me so I could hardly flutter and palpitate until I almost thought it would jump out. I got to where I didn't hardly eat enough to keep a bird alive, but even that little would come right back up in my throat undigested and at last my stomach got into such a condition that it wouldn't even retain raw eggs and I had to live on beef tea alone."

"I was so weak that I couldn't walk across the room and when I tried to walk I would get so dizzy I would fall, and would have to be lifted around from place to place. I was as nervous as I could be and the slightest sound would make me jump and tremble all over, and I gradually went down in weight until I only weighed eighty-five pounds. I was an absolute wreck and didn't see how I could possibly ever get well. I tried everything I could find but I didn't get one bit of relief and goodness only knows where I would be now if it hadn't been for Tanlac."

"I began taking this medicine as a sort of last resort and I couldn't tell at first whether it was doing me any good or not, but I stuck to Tanlac determined to give it a thorough trial. Well, sir, when I was on my fourth bottle I began to notice an improvement and from that time on I began getting better and now, after taking eight bottles, I feel as well as I ever felt in my life. I never dreamed or dared to hope that I would feel as well as I do now and I can't begin to tell you how grateful I am."

"All my troubles are gone and my nerves are as steady as iron. I eat just anything I want and nothing gives me a minute's trouble and I now weigh one hundred and two pounds. I sleep splendidly and feel strong and full of energy all the time. Why, it's no effort at all for me to walk from here to the beach and back and that's a distance of two miles, and I feel so fine I just can't help telling everybody I meet about Tanlac. My husband thinks it's the greatest medicine that was ever made and he tells all his customers how it brought back my health when nothing else would even help me. I am glad to give this statement and I hope that lots of other suffering people will read it and get relief like I did."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Co., and Swift Bros. & Smith, in Garrison by Garrison Drug Co., in Appleby by Weatherly Bros., in Sacul by Arkan Cranford, and in Cushing by A. J. Beck, and in Douglas by Campbell & Watkins.

HONORABLE ALF. TAYLOR DELIVERS GREAT ADDRESS

Speaking to the subject of "Civilization in the Crucible," Hon. Alf Taylor, the well known patriot and statesman from Tennessee, delivered a great address at the Chautauqua meeting last night, and was the recipient of much applause.

Mr. Taylor acknowledged that he was inspired in this subject with recent utterances of America's foremost man, President Wilson, and he handled it much in the same vein that has characterized the great logic and eloquence of our president. He encouraged the people in doing their duty to the utmost in the present crisis which he characterizes as a war to restore the rights of humanity. Delving into his subject at this point, Mr. Taylor says that man has evolved from the savage, and made a pretty line of reasoning to the effect that it has taken a constant battle to evolve from this state by reason of man's inclination to return to his native state with every interruption.

After much discussion of the different wars, government reigns, political careers of noted characters of history, our own troubles and our duty in the premises, Mr. Taylor entered into a prophetic vein in which he foresees a great blessing emerging from the mighty conflict that has been raging—a time when democracy will rule the world, future wars will be made impossible with the government of a league of nations co-operating in one great purpose, and universal peace will reign forever. He believes the hand of the Supreme Ruler is helping direct affairs in this direction, and that we are on the threshold of the ideal hoped for by all ages of the world, and fulfilling the mystery of Revelations which could not hitherto be understood. It was in all things a great address, worth the price of the whole chautauqua course, but only one of the many gems this great enterprise is bringing to us.

BRAZIL GREETES U. S. SQUADRON

Rio Janeiro, Monday, June 4.—The chamber of deputies voted today on the motion of Deputy Murico Lacerda to authorize the cabling of a message of congratulations to the congress of the United States on the arrival of an American squadron.

Washington, June 5.—The foregoing dispatch is the first published information of the relieving of British and French cruisers in the waters of the Western Hemisphere with American warships. For the present the navy department withholds further information or comment up it.

Several farmers are shipping out tomatoes by express this week and the sample is very fine. One farmer brought in a couple of crates this morning that were as perfect as nature could make, and he will doubtless receive a very fancy price for them.

Sour Stomach.

This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to our digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little neat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.

Mr. and Mrs. Trueman Holmes of Fort Worth are in the city visiting relatives and friends.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

CONGRESS ACTS ON FOUR BILLS

Washington, June 3.—Congress finished another war week with real action yesterday, disposing of four important emergency measures.

The senate passed the $10,000,000 food production bill.

The senate adopted the conference reports of the $3,300,000,000 war budget and the $140,000,000 civil bills, appropriating funds for the army navy establishment and miscellaneous government propositions.

The house passed the war risk insurance bill, appropriating $50,000,000 for insuring of fliers and sailors manning American merchantment during the war.

President Wilson retains broad powers for carrying on the proposed emergency shipping program under the war budget bill finally agreed upon. The chipping provisions is substantially as passed originally by the senate.

The conferees made one change in the bill authorizing army appropriations for soldiers, who will be free from service four months after peace is declared, or as soon thereafter as transportation facilities can be secured.

Under the food bill passed by the senate, there is a provision authorizing the president to close grain exchanges in cases of urgent need, when those exchanges are found to be dealing in futures of wheat or other necessities of life.

The house has adjourned over Monday and Tuesday, but the senate will meet Monday to begin the discussion of the preferential rail bill authorizing the president to stipulate what products shall have preference in interstate and foreign commerce. The measure also prohibits interference with commerce. On the ground that it is a subterfuge for anti-strike legislation, many opponents of the bill are planning a vigorous fight on it.

The city of Nacogdoches has already subscribed for practically the whole amount assessed against the county, and after the campaign of Saturday we hope to report two for one to the assessment.

In the meantime The Sentinel will listen for a report from Lufkin and Jacksonville, would-be competitors of Nacogdoches in all things, and our county at large will offer a lead with its neighbors.

Let us hear from you, brethren, or forever after hold your peace.

SENATOR STEVE M. KING RECEIVES APPOINTMENT

Resigns State Senator to Accept place on the Bench Court of Civil Appeals at Beaumont.

The Sentinel received a message at noon today announcing that Senator Steve M. King, formerly of this city but who is now making his home at Beaumont, had resigned his place as state senator from this district and Governor Ferguson this morning appointed him to fill out the unexpired term of Judge A. E. Davis on the bench of the Ninth Court of Civil Appeals, at Beaumont.

Judge King accepts the appointment and will enter immediately upon the duties of his new position. It has been expected for some time that our senator would be offered this position, and the appointment was held up until after the adjournment of the special session of the legislature to the end that there would be no interruption to the service from that quarter.

Judge King is a native of this immediate section of the state, and has spent practically his whole life here, launching his professional and political career in this city. He has held a number of positions of public trust, in which he has distinguished himself with faithful and efficient public service, and his great host of friends in this section have an abiding faith in his ability and energy to distinguish himself with brilliant service in his new position. He is yet a young man in years, but having always enjoyed a large practice as attorney and having had much experience in law-making as well as "law-interpreting," he is especially equipped and trained for the service in which he is now engaging.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To the sheriff or any Constable of Nacogdoches county:—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Nelse Moore by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the district court of Nacogdoches county, to be held at the courthouse thereof, in Nacogdoches, on the 1st Monday in September, A. D. 1917, the same being the 3rd day of September, A. D. 1917, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 10th day of January, A. D. 1917, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 431, wherein Effie Moore, is plaintiff and Nelse Moore is defendant, and said petition alleging Plaintiff was legally married to defendant on or about the 1st day of January, A. D. 1913 and that they continued to live together as husband and wife until about the first day of March, A. D. 1913, at which time defendant abandoned plaintiff without cause or provocation on her part and since which time they have not lived together as husband and wife.

That during marital relations between plaintiff and defendant, plaintiff was ever mindful of her duties and performed all duties required of her, but defendant on date aforesaid without cause or provocation, left and abandoned this plaintiff voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, since which time they have not lived together as husband and wife. That said marital relations still exist between plaintiff and defendant.

Plaintiff further alleges that the defendants' actions and conduct towards her generally are of such a nature as to render their future living together as husband and wife insupportable. Premises considered wherefore plaintiff prays the court, that defendant be cited to appear; and answer herein, and for judgment dissolving marital relations, cost of suit and for such others and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity, that she may be justly entitled to, etc.

Herein fail-not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Nacogdoches this 25th day of May, A. D. 1917. N. B. HALL, Clerk.

Enhaut, Pa.—"I was all run down and weak inwardly. I had female troubles and nervous feelings and my head both-ered me. I would often have crying spells and feel as if I was not safe. If I heard anyone coming I would run and lock the door so they would not see me. I tried several doctors and they did not help me so I said to my mother 'I guess I will have to die as there is no help for me.' ## A MYSTERIOUS BOX FOUND THIS MORNING

Sheriff Prince recovered a mysterious box this morning which he would like to know more about, by whom it was hidden and what has become of the owner.

The box was first discovered by a boy in a cluster of bushes in woods out beyond the light plant, and being on the alert just now while there is so much excitement in the country, the sheriff and some other parties went out and got it, bringing it to his office.

The box was about the size of a carpenter's tool chest, and has a lid. It contained several oil cans, some writing and copying inks, stencil letters, and various other little articles, including some rubber stamps with the letters, "Van Deventer Mfg. Co., Ltd., Manufacturers of Harwood Lumber Products, Wood specialties, Slack Staves, Hoops, and Heading, Jonesville, La." together with a large number of printed cards for this enterprise with a blank line left for "Presented by" to be filled in. The card lists the main office as being in Chicago Ill. Added to the contents that caused suspicion and excitement are four sticks of dynamite, and some time lunch checks which were at first thought to be some arrangement for arriving at the combination of an iron safe dial, and the first impression of those who saw the combination was that it was a safe blowing outfit, but the second investigation gives strength to the idea that the box was deposited by some itinerant tie maker.

Just why the owner should have secreted his outfit in the bushes, and so far as we have knowledge, disappear, no one knows, but as a rule these men are used to living in the woods, and the probabilities are that he is somewhere in the county looking for timber and will return for his box. Neither should there be any unnecessary alarm about the dynamite as all woodsmen use it with which to burst big timber.

Tom Vaught, a prominent young jeweler of Port Arthur, was in the city yesterday en route to Garrison where he goes for a little visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Vaught, before entering the training camp where he goes to serve his country.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

In 1857 Texas as a state was just twenty-one years old, the legal age of majority, but Nacogdoches was then about a century old, and about the foremost town in Texas.

The wise men of the East landed here first, and big politics started here first. So did wars and rumors of wars, and revolutions. The first Baptist church was organized here in 1837, and is here yet, known as the "Old North Church." The first protestant sermon was preached here by a Cumberland Presbyterian minister in 1828, standing upon the sills of a house foundation about where the Commercial State Bank now stands. The first Masonic Lodge was organized here, being Milam Lodge No. 2. A younger lodge accidentally happened to get No. 1. All this showed that Nacogdoches was "first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of her countrymen." And so when any "big-to-do" was to be staged in Texas, Nacogdoches took the lead—it began here as a matter of course. And in those days it came to pass, in the years called fifties, that General Sam Houston, who was U. S. Senator from Texas, as was also General Thos. J. Rusk, and both from Nacogdoches, that there were many exciting political issues before the congress, and Rusk and Houston were not always agreed, though they were nevertheless warm personal friends. One of these questions was whether slavery should exist in the territories such as Kansas and Nebraska were at that time, and when such territories should thereafter become states. Houston's position favored what was called "the Missouri compromise," and Houston also favored a kind of party called the "Know Nothings," or the American party which opposed foreign-born citizens holding office. These political questions were added to others that reduced Houston's popularity and brought out heated opposition to him in a race for governor in which he was defeated by Hardin R. Runnels. This was a hot fight among the voters and the friends and enemies of Houston. The recent "Bailey question" pales in comparison with that Houston question. Turbulence, turmoil and controversy went wild. The Houston followers in old Nacogdoches were loud, vociferous and fierce to the limit. They erected a pole in the center of our town plaza, a towering, tall-straight and graceful flag pole of native pine, tipped off at the top with a golden rooster or weather-cock perched upon an Indian arrow, or similar emblems. And a brilliant U. S. flag was hoisted, and it floated in the breezes to the great delight of "Old Sam's" devotees, and to the discomfiture of his foes. Francis Rusche was the successful engineer. He could raise or move anything from a mountain down to a cellar, and furnish the noise in excelsio. The Houston men rallied beneath their flag, and around flag pole, yelling and cheering in victorious voices while the others stood afar off in sullen silence. But the Runnels men got busy and raised a taller flag pole, topped off with a huge set of buck horns or antlers, and they hoisted a bigger, brighter flag with mottoes added. As this feat was in progress their opponents became less exultant, and more relaxed in spirits. "Spirits" in that day were quite abundant on all such occasions, in both kind and quality. In order to secure a taller pole than the Houston men had, the Runnels men got Joe Muller an athletic mechanic, to do the stunt. He spliced it and got greater length. Then came the fun of raising the pole. Every one came to see the performance. When the pole reached an angle of about forty-five degrees, something gave way and it fell. The big laugh from the Houston side rang out loud and long. But Joe came alive. The pole had bent, but he stretched it straight on the ground and put more iron bands around it and finally got it set up straight. But when the flag was to be hoisted, the top pulley failed to roll for the cord to raise the flag. More laughing and jokes. Joe jerked off his shoes and climbed the pole like a squirrel till he reached the pinnacle and remedied the trouble. The slender pole bent over from his weight, and when he descended, the pole failed to straighten up. More laughing followed. But the Runnels colors went up and were quite conspicuous and overtowering in height and quality. When the election resulted in favor of Runnels, the biggest laugh and exultation was on that side. Those flag poles were not taken down for months.

In 1859 General Houston ran for governor again, and was elected by a large majority on the independent ticket. He again lost his great popularity by opposing secession. He was ousted from the office in 1860 or General Houston frequently visited Nacogdoches and made political speeches. On such occasions there were wild and dangerous demonstrations. His last speech made here was about where now stands the dwelling of S. W. Blount. He said that this would be his last speech here and so it was.

4000 VILLA BANDITS SURPRISE AND SLAUGHTER

Del Rio, Texas, June 1.—A serious engagement between rebel forces and soldiers of the de facto government occurred at Cardenas between San Luis Potosi and Tampico during the afternoon of May 28, resulting in the death of at least a hundred soldiers and the wounding of approximately 200 others, according to reliable information reaching here Friday.

The combined rebel forces of Canuto Reyes, Manuel Cabelero and Herrera Torres, numbering about 4,000, had concentrated near Cardenas the reports say and attacked a garrison of approximately 500 Carranza soldiers on guard duty in that vicinity. Overcome by superior numbers a veritable slaughter of the government forces followed. A train load of dead and wounded reached Montrey on May 30, the report adds, among the dead being Fidela Garza and Major Hernandez Cardenas. The government forces are said to have been commanded by Gen. Alberlardo Gonzales.

Through train service between the border and Mexico City has been prostrated during the past several days it is reported, although no reason has been assigned for this.

THE "LIBERTY" LOAN COMMITTEES

To the Public: The County Judge appointed me "Sales Agent for Liberty Loan Bonds." I am not trying to go into the "limelight," but feel, as you do, that each person should contribute something, some way.

I am trying to get correct list of those who have subscribed, and the names and amount of those who wish to subscribe, and as this is a patriotic appeal, in which all are, no doubt, interested. I am sure that you will not expect me to call upon each one of you personally. I have, and will see as many as I can and I am hoping that you will accept this as a direct appeal to you for your subscription. The government is not wanting the different banks to do the subscribing, but much prefer that the individuals throughout the country subscribe for these bonds, as the banks are much interested in this. If you prefer you can subscribe through either bank of the county, in any sum from $50.00 on up.

I am taking the liberty of asking the public, generally, to render all such assistance they can and particularly the following, whom I am sure will be glad to take your subscription.

Nacogdoches—S. M. Adams, June C. Harris, Beaman Strong, V. E. Middlebrook, Worth Whitel, Oscar Matthews, Tom Maroney, J. W. Christian, J. J. Greve.

If you have not, you are now requested to see one of the above named and subscribe for at least one bond.

I will be very much disappointed if Nacogdoches County does not lead any county in East Texas, not only in amount of bonds subscribed, but in furnishing more volunteer soldiers.

Yours respectfully, C. A. HODGES.

WONDERFUL STUFF! LIFT OUT YOUR CORNS

Apply a few drops then lift corns or calluses off with fingers—no pain.

No, humbug! A corn hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift out, without a particle of pain or soreness.

This drug is called freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask any drug store for a small bottle of freezone, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus.

Put a few drops directly upon any tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus will loosen and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This drug freezone doesn't eat out the corns or calluses, but shrivels them without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards. If your druggist don't have freezone have him order it for you. 62

TRIBUTE TO C. T. GRIMES

Our hearts were made sad to learn of the sudden death of our friend and brother, C. T. Grimes, who was found cold in death Tuesday about 9:30 p. m., May 29, 1917.

Brother Grimes was a faithful worker for the Lord and Savior. He was united with the Baptist church twenty years ago. He has always made his bible a constant study and found delight in telling to the lost world how Jesus had saved him. Oftentimes he would read his bible until far into the hours of night. But thank God he is permitted to blend his voice with the heavenly praises on the sun-kissed shores of God, where the healthful air refreshes the weary frame and the whole landscape delights with its beauty. Thou are gone, my friend and brother.

To a land where flowers bloom, Where the sun shall set no never,

And the day is free from gloom. There the angels, blessed spirits,

Vie around the throne of God, Chanting hymns to teeming millions

Who the road of death have trod.

Thou hast left this vale of shadows,

Thou hast dropped this load of care,

Thou shalt rest in sweetest pleasure.

And no foe shall harm thee there Oh, my brother, you were faithful,

While you lingered here below; You were patient with your afflictions—

You no doubt were glad to go.

We shal not weep your departure.

But resign to God's own will,

Praying Jesus, if he pleaseth, He the vacant places fill.

We shall never forget thy kindness.

While here on earth we may roam,

Till we hear our blessed Savior Shouting us a welcome home.

Then we'll meet thee in that city

Where the streets are paved with gold,

Then we'll meet thee, faithful brother,

Any thy shining face behold.

Then we'll shout and sing together

As we've been done before;

Then we'll know each other better

Than we did in years of yore.

But there's one whose heart is broken,

And the world has nothing but gloom;

How the darkness gathers o'er her

Causing beauty to lose its bloom.

She possessed an angel spirit

While you lived her love to share;

Now her heart is filled with sadness,

And she's weighted down with care.

Precious Jesus, gently lead her

Till from earth she's called to go

Then send angels out to meet her

As she scales the glory height,

Opening gates for him to greet her,

As she's clad in robes of white." —A Friend.

Whooping Cough.

In this disease it is important that the cough be kept loose and expectoration easy, which can be done by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. P. H. Martin, Peru, Ind., writes, "My two daughters had whooping cough. I gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it worked like a charm." dw
