WAR-SAVING STAMPS FIND READY SALE

Sales of the United States Government War-Savings Stamps in Nacogdoches are finding a ready market among those who are informed concerning the purpose of the sale and the movement generally, but the movement being yet young, all of our citizens have not come to an understanding concerning them.

Of the sales reported so far the Stone Fort National Bank reports $1,000.00 and the post office $4,000.00.

Referring to the sale, Mr. Sublett, Cashier at the Stone Fort Bank, says that he has pushed the work some and found ready purchasers among those with whom he talked, and felt sure that as our citizens come to understand the movement they would readily invest.

Mr. Pearson of the post office was also of that opinion and agreed that sales would reach a large total after the work was organized and gotten into order.

Our county chairman, Mr. Sam Hayter, is starting a movement to push the work all over the county, and will, no doubt, have on a campaign shortly which will tend toward educating citizens of our county in just what the stamps are, and why they should purchase them. Mr. Hayter is the right man in the right place for this work and deserves the assistance of every patriotic person in this great campaign. There is no salary attached to the carrying on of the work, consequently home people should see that Mr. Hayter has plenty of assistance along the line of work needed and a general get-together in helping him to successfully carry on the work.

The Sentinel today carries a page ad which will be published in both the Daily and Weekly and is paid for by the home people, whose names are published, which sets forth the object of the sale of both stamps and certificates, and a careful reading of the matter will enlighten the reader as to just what the movement is.

INTEREST ON IN OIL CITY FIELD

In conversation with Mr. Ben Lang of Moss Creek, while in the city yesterday, the Sentinel reporter learned that several companies were making arrangements to push the sinking of wells in our oil district at Oil City. One company has purchased of Mr. T. J. Williams the rigging and drilling machinery which that gentleman has already installed there and proposes to go right ahead.

Another company has been on the ground making arrangements to get its shipment of rigging, etc., unloaded when it arrives and obtain the teams and wagons necessary to transport it to the field. It is presumed that this latter company will be about the first to start the work there and Mr. Lang says that a great amount of interest is being displayed over the entire field.

BUILDING NEW COUNTRY HOME

One of the new rural homes being built in the county is the one now under course of construction by Mr. Tom Prado, 7 1-2 miles from town on the Woden road. Mr. Prado bought his home place from Mr. Geo. Meisenheimer and is erecting a nice four room bungalow, which he and his family will occupy as soon as completed.

Mr. Prado is a long time resident of this county, having been born and raised here. He was married to Miss Lena Montes in the community where he now resides and has been living there for the past twenty years. To this union were born 10 children one of whom is married and is the wife of Mr. Ed. Mora. This family is one of the best citizenship of Nacogdoches county.

Mr. Prado and his good family now live on the Scott place near Woden, where they have lived for some time. Speaking of his new home Mr. Prado said he expected to improve same and put up some good houses, etc., after he gets located.

ERECTING NEW HOME AT ALAZAN

In the improvements going on in Alazan, The Sentinel reporter learns that Mr. Lonnie Johnson is erecting a nice Bungalow home on the property recently bought by him from Mr. Sam Hayter. Mr. Albert Coultz has finished the re-covering of his home place which he bought last fall. The place recently occupied by Rev. Morrison is also being reshingled this week.

Thus does improvements continue throughout the county.

INSPECTOR HERE NEXT THURSDAY

County Superintendent Layton requests The Sentinel to again give the information that next Thursday and Friday are the days in which Rural School Inspector Pugh, will be in Nacogdoches County for the purpose of finishing up the inspection of our rural schools who desire aid in the Million Dollar fund contributed by the State.

This visit will probably be the last one Mr. Pugh will make here and those schools to be inspected should get busy with the matter and be ready for Mr. Pugh when he arrives.

PERSHING ASSURES AMERICAN MOTHERS

Washington, Jan. 22.—"There never has been a similar body of men to lead as clean lives as American soldiers in France," said General Pershing today in a telegram to Secretary Baker in inquiry to reports that there are immoderate drinking among the men.

General Pershing's message was made public by Secretary Baker in a letter to Governor Capper of Kansas:

"You may recall writing to me several days ago concerning persistent reports as to the immoderate sale of liquor among our forces in France.

"My impression was that the rumors were not well founded in fact; but I felt it my duty to convey their content to General Pershing and to ask him to communicate me the facts. So you will be glad to know that I have just received the following words from the commander of the American expeditionary forces:

"There has never been a similar body of men to lead as clean lives as our American soldiers in France. They have entered this war with the highest devotion to duty and with no other idea than to perform these duties in the most efficient manner possible. They fully realize their obligation to their own people, their friends and the country."

"A rigid program of instruction is carried out daily with the traditional American enthusiasm Engaged in healthy, interesting exercises in the open air, with simple diets, officers and men like trained athletes, are ready for their task. Forbidden the use of strong drink and protected by stringent regulations against sexual evils and supported by their own moral courage, their good behavior is the subject of most favorable comment, especially by our allies. American mothers can rest assured that their sons are a credit to them and to the nation and they may well look forward to the proud day when on the battlefield the splendid men will shed a new luster on American manhood."

NEW CITY OFFICERS.

At the call meeting of the City Council last night, which was called for the purpose, Lee Wilkerson was elected superintendent of the light and water department; Judge E. B. Lewis was elected city attorney, and W. F. Wilson was elected city bookkeeper.

Mr. Wilkerson has been with the operation of this department for several years, and the members of the council express faith in his ability to carry on the same good service to which we have been used to in the past.

The appointment of Judge Lewis as city attorney is to fill a vacancy in the position made by the resignation of Ford Cleveland to take effect February 5th. Judge Lewis is a veteran lawyer of the city, in every way qualified to fill the position.

The time is rapidly drawing to a close in which taxes can be settled without penalty, and poll taxes can be obtained with a suffrage franchise. In the last days there will doubtless be a rush, and the logical thing to do is to hunt up the various tax collectors at once and make settlement of the debt, from which there is no ultimate escape.

The Tyler Morning Tribune catches the idea for an interesting department of an already interesting paper: "The Tribune invites every farmer who made money farming last year to call and report his success to this paper for publication in its columns. These accounts will make mighty interesting reading to all of us. So come in and report."

There is a local and a "human" interest in such reports just now which makes of them the best "feature" stories, and The Sentinel will give right-of-way to all such features.

The Sentinel is reproducing a dispatch elsewhere in today's paper which gives notice that beginning with next Friday all industries east of the Mississippi, which are not engaged in the manufacture of food products, will be shut down for a period of five days, and that each Monday following will be declared a holiday. Newspapers will be allowed to use coal for but one edition a day, rigid restrictions are placed upon office buildings, and theatres will be put out of business for a certain time. With this warning, the people west of the Mississippi should use the utmost care in conservation, not only of fuel, but foodstuff as well, for the time is coming when more rigid regulations along all lines are coming to us. We can prepare for it by having a supply of wood for all industries, and raise all the foodstuff possible for home consumption—if we fail to do so, we will be caught in the meshes of want just as are the people who have not the opportunities we enjoy. Let's get back to the soil, fellers and take advantage of the opportunities while it is opportune.

A petition is being circulated today, and is being generously signed by those to whom it is presented, asking the city council to retain the services of Carroll Holt as superintendent of the light and water department. Without entering into any discussion of why Mr. Holt tendered his resignation, The Sentinel concurs in the idea that it would be very desirable for the best interests of the city if he could be retained in this position, if the adjustment can be worked out along a just and equitable basis to both Mr. Holt and the city. During Mr. Holt's administration in the capacity, the people of the city have enjoyed perfect service. The night never got too dark or cold for him to race to any place that needed his attention, and as a civil and electrical engineer he has always been equal to any task. In addition to this qualification, he has manifested good initiative and executive ability, being able to plan ahead to meet any emergency that might arise, and being able to cope with any emergency that confronted him. The people of Nacogdoches have been perfectly satisfied with the service they have been receiving, and would entertain a change with some apprehension, hence the interest that is being manifested in the matter.

"GETTING RICH."

It is the ambition of every one to get along in the world, while the crowning ambition of some is to get rich.

Riches would not be despised by any one, but some do not aspire so high as to make it their single ambition, preferring to develop along some useful line which will support them and at the same time give them greater honor, but the dollar mark has a place in the affairs of men, for it is the end of all material considerations and must be reckoned with on one side of the ledger.

Some of the world's greatest men have died in poverty, measured from the standpoint of the dollar—but some other man has appropriated their philosophy and made it yield in revenue because he has devoted more of his attention to this particular line of study. It were better, therefore, that the young man be better balanced and divide his study and training to both features.

In the art of making money Russell Sage gives the definition in a humorous way, but true, of how the money wizard succeeds in a single purpose. "It is very easy to make money, and does not require more than average intelligence," says Mr. Sage. "People miss the mark because they scatter their fire. The man who would make money must think of money continuously as a distinct entity. For example, he must fix his mind on an actual, tangible single dollar. When he has saved that dollar he must send it out to bring five cents back to him, and let it work until he has two silver dollars. Then he must send both of them out to work. The certainty of success lays in the fact that men grow tired. But dollars never weary in working."

"Yes," said Sage, "any man can get rich. The only difficulty is in saving the first million dollars."

A man of average intelligence and good energy will succeed in any undertaking to which he gives his whole time and concentrates his whole energy, but he is a better citizen who can give a necessary amount of time to very necessary avocation of making money, and a portion of his time to the affairs of community interest and the spiritual and moral improvement of his character.

There are vast beds and rich veins of lignite coal over Nacogdoches county and other parts of East Texas which should be developed as speedily as possible, and mined with all possible despatch. There is a fuel famine as well as a food famine over the world, and the supply we have can be mined more profitably at this time than it can be in normal times. Possibly such an opportunity will never come to the country again, and it is certain that the past has never witnessed such. At one time there was profitable lignite mines at Garrison, in this county, which was finally abandoned with the bringing in of the big oil fields at Spindle Top, making the price of lignite unprofitable. Over two hundred men were worked in this mine, and the industry thrived for awhile, as noted. It would thrive with far greater prosperity if revived at this time, and there is a possibility that the supply, while great, could be exhausted before the present distress is relieved, for it is certain that the bulk of our coal will be used with the ship until the war ends. Here is a great opportunity for some of the idle wealth of the country.

THE "GRIP."

Hon. J. H. Lowery, editor of the Honey Grove Signal, and one of the best known editors and writers of the state, under the caption, "And Then the Grip Comes," makes the following observations about the malady which could not be improved upon, and those who have suffered its pangs would not submit to the subtraction of a single suggestion.

Read it and give your testimony!

And then the grip comes! No use talking or wishing, we can't have Christmas, New Year, the Fourth of July, and other good things without having the grip also. The grip is just as much a part of the year as spring-time or Thanksgiving. Perhaps some of my readers have paid little attention to the grip and know nothing of its origin, habits or cure. The grip is a native of Russia and is just as unreliable as the Bolsheviks or anything else that comes from that annex of hades. The grip was born in the Ural mountains. Its father was a Siberian blizzard, its mother the crater of Vesuvius. When very young the grip sat upon a glacier and sucked from its snowy breast enough cold to chill all the planets for a century; then it dipped its bill into a volcanic crater and filled its veins with red-hot lava. Still craving heat, it went to Mexico and snuffed chili pepper. Its meat was Indian turpentine, its drink tobacco sauce. The despicable malady swallowed a thousand rotten eggs, stirred itself with a poll cat's tail, tied itself together with a cyclone and then began an offensive movement against humanity. The symptoms of la grippe are unmistakable. If you feel too tight and unbutton your clothes for relief, only to find that you were too loose, be careful, for the grip is seeking you out. If you are sure you are freezing to the sheet, and pile cover high above you and place a hot iron to your feet, only to find that you were too hot and a locomotive was spilling burning cinders upon you, you have a symptom that never fails. If your head goes on a tare and won't bust, and your stomach turns to a seething volcano that can't erupt; if your bones tie themselves into fantastic knots and you feel your flesh slipping away and feeding itself into a sausage grinder—no doubt about it, you've got the grip. What shall you do? Why, call a doctor, of course. He can't do you any good, but he will make one more subject for you to cuss. Icicles will dance a quadrille on the bottom of your feet, your eyeballs will swim in lakes of boiling blood and steers with frozen hoofs will do a cakewalk on your spine, but don't despair; you will not die. There's no such relief as death for the victim of la grippe.

In answering the fuel committee as to the cause of the shortage of fuel over the country, the representative of the mining interests made the statement that there was no shortage of fuel at the mines, but that the trouble lay in the fact that the railroads had not furnished sufficient cars and distributed it. He made the further statement that the growth and development of railroads had not kept pace with the growth of the country, and in this statement he uttered a great truth which should engage most serious attention of the people at large and the business world. No section ever develops beyond its transportation facilities, and just now Texas is one of the greatest sufferers for this reason. The cause of this stagnation in railroad development is charged up to ad-

2 Discoveries 1 in cake 1 in economy

We had a friend who was very sure that without expensive butter you could not make a real cake. She was quite stubborn about it. Preferring not to argue, we just gave her a can of wholesome Cottolene and a cook book.

This friend, Miss S—, took both and made a chocolate cake with Cottolene.

If you could have heard her enthuse over that cake you would have thought that economical Cottolene for cake-making was her particular private discovery.

Perhaps you are like our friend, Miss S—, used to be. Maybe you would like to "discover" the delicious economy of Cottolene for your cakes. Why don't you try wholesome Cottolene and the very same recipe she used? Here it is:

- 1/2 cup Cottolene
- 2 cups sugar
- 3 eggs
- 3 cups flour
- 1 cup milk
- 3 level teaspoons baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Flavoring.

Process: Cream Cottolene, add one cup sugar gradually, stirring constantly. Beat yolks thick and light, add remaining cup sugar gradually, continue beating. Combine mixtures, mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt. Add to first mixture alternately with milk. Add flavoring and fold in the whites of eggs beaten stiff and dry. Bake 15 minutes in a moderate oven.

(But if you prefer one of your own recipes, be sure to use one-third less of Cottolene than you would of butter. Cottolene goes farther—thanks to its greater richness.)

BOUGHT NEWSPAPER.

J. B. Power has bought from Eugene Vondersmith the business and plant of the Sour Lake Daily News.

The Daily News has been suspended and the plant is being overhauled and put in the best of condition. As soon as things can be made ready the Sour Lake Banner, a weekly six-column all home-print quarto, will be issued.

W. H. Harris, for a long time with the Signal, will have charge of the new publication, which of course, guarantees its success.—Silsbee Signal.

EATING DOGS.

(Contributed.)

The following items of news is translated by a London correspondent from the "Norddeutsche Volksstimme" of Bremerhaven:

"An illicit dog slaughter house was raided a few days ago by the police at Waren Mecklenburg.

"The flesh of hundreds of dogs, stolen from their owners, had, it appeared, been manufactured into sausages.

"These were labeled 'Finest pork sausages' and has been exclusively sold for the last few months to visitors from Prussia at the rate of about $1 a pound."

ELECTRA OIL CO. PRESIDENT HERE

Mr. P. O. Johnson, president of the Electra Oil Co., of Dallas, with an associate, Mr. Wm. Ott, together with their wives, were business visitors here yesterday in connection with the oil fields at Oil City. These gentlemen left this morning for Oil City, where they go to look after their interests, this company having extensive holdings there.

Speaking of the field at Oil City, Mr. Johnson said to the Sentinel reporter that this place was attracting the eyes of the whole United States oil men just at this time and that there was no doubt but that many companies would endeavor to exploit the field in the next few months. His company is throwing up rigging there now and will begin drilling at once. "The oil is there," said Mr. Johnson, "and we are going to get it."

In connection with the development at Oil City it might be interesting to some of our readers when they call to mind the sinking of the first wells in that vicinity in the year 1885.

Judge Perritte, our present county judge, calls to mind the drilling of the first well there in that year. Others of our older citizens likewise remember the first days of development there.

Judge Perritte was then about 17 years old, and hauled oil from the wells sunk there to Nacogdoches. This oil, Judge Perritte says, was of fine quality and there seemed to be plenty of it. Growing reminiscent of those days, he called to the mind of Justice Frank Huston, that many of the young men of those days were frequently visitors there and Judge Perritte stated that in 1886 he met Justice Huston at the place, that being the first time he ever had the pleasure of meeting that gentleman.

A little later, he said, a pipe line was laid from the field to the city of Nacogdoches and oil was piped into this place. The old tank into which the oil was emptied from the pipe line here is still standing on Judge Middle-brook's place in this city.

At a later period it seems that some large corporation came into possession of the holdings and eventually the oil fields were abandoned, and development ceased.

There seems to be no doubt among our local citizens that there is an abundance of oil there, and it can be gotten if the proper people go after it. If this proves true, and the field is developed it will mean much to this country just now, and will be a great builder for Nacogdoches county as well as the city proper, and local people ought to encourage every movement tending to properly promote the industry.

Herbert Massey, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Massey, will leave today for the Kelley Field, at San Antonio, to take the examination for the aviation service. The young man had filed his application for service in this branch, and received a telegram yesterday to come ahead. During his brief sojourn with us, Mr. Massey has made many friends in the city whose good wishes will follow him into the service of his country, trusting that a kind providence will attend him and that he may return to citizenship with us when the war is over.

Mr. L. R. Crawford, of the Shady Grove community was a business visitor to Nacogdoches Friday. Mr. Crawford is one of our highly respected citizens.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 Year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak. I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught." Seventy years of successful use has made Theford's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. ## FOR COMMISSIONER.

The Sentinel is authorized to announce Mr. J. C. Anderson, a well known citizen of the county residing in the Red Oak community, as a candidate for commissioner of Beat No. 1, subject to the action of the democratic primaries.

Mr. Anderson came to this community from Arkansas twenty-two years ago, and is one of the best known and most highly respected farmers of the county, enjoying the respect of his neighbors and the people of the other communities who know him. He is a man of good intelligence and good judgment, full of life and energy, and if he should be elected to this position, would enter upon the duties of it with the same earnestness and energy that characterizes his work on the farm. He says that he has had considerable experience in road building, and some experience with public work, and this knowledge, together with the knowledge he has of the country acquired in experience in his long residence, would enable him to know how to take hold of such matters as might come under his jurisdiction.

With these remarks, The Sentinel submits the name of Mr. Anderson for the position, with his assurance that he courts a thorough investigation of his life and character by any who do not know him.

Gets Good Results Quickly.

These few lines from J. E. Haynes, McAlester, Okla., deserve careful reading by every one who values good health: "I find no medicine which acts so mildly and quickly with good results as Foley Cathartic Tablets. ## FROM CAMP TRAVIS.

Private first-class Guy E. Stripling of Nacogdoches, Texas, now in Company "C" 343rd Machine Gun Battalion, Camp Travis, Texas, has been promoted to the rank of corporal.

Private Clarence Matthews is the best man in the company when it comes to entertaining. His ready supply of wit has brightened hours which would otherwise have been gloomy for the men.

"No man that has not been educated to taking in information readily," says Lieut. Col E. E. Haskell, Commanding Officer of the Ninetieth Division Training Camp, now being held for student candidates for army commissions at Camp Travis, "can be expected to digest the many branches of study here." Given physique and character, education has stood first in the qualifications demanded of the candidates for admission to the camp.

Among the features of the camp for the first week is the fact that this far not a single man has been tired and asked to be dropped out, in contrast to previous camps where resignations began to trickle in as soon as the warlike words appeared on the schedule. "According to the officers in charge of administration and those in charge of instruction, the men are wading into the work with a will."

Had the Grip Three Weeks.

SAPP CASES POSTPONED.

Bill Sapp is in receipt of letter from his brother, Em, in which it is stated that the trial of himself and Lou has again been postponed, the writer having been so informed by the district judge in person. This will call for the retention of these two accused in jail at Waxahachie for another six months, a fact that the writer of the letter deeply regretted and which was spoken of in rather bitter terms. This case is one of wide-spread notoriety and has aroused an interest in this portion of the State that no other alleged murder case ever has, especially here in Angelina County where the accused were born and raised and where they have many relatives and friends.—Lufkin News.

Lame back may come from over-work, cold settled in the muscles of the back, or from disease. In the two former cases the right remedy is BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. Sometimes we gain more strength in what we quit doing than what we do, that depending upon the nature of the pursuit.

Don't sit down and think about what you would do if you could live your life over. Get busy and improve what is left of it.—The Hartford Agent.

Some author suggests that we try cultivating the sunny side of our nature with assurance that it would revolutionize the whole life. It's a fact—our character is what we make it.

The older inhabitants say that we have had more steady cold weather this winter than has been experienced in a similar length of time for many years, and others aver that a good crop year always follows a cold winter. If the latter is a true and sure sign, we have no more "kick" against the weather, for we shall need the crop.

An East Texas county introduces the campaignless campaign for office. In other words, candidates, announcing for county and district office incline to the notion that the usual persistent personal canvass with glad hand in action is certain to interfere in no small degree with farming operations, public work, business and enterprise at a time when every minute and every hour must be conserved to production, development and war work. Hence it has been tacitly agreed that campaigning shall be confined to Saturday hand-shaking at the larger towns where farmers come for supplies on this day. The idea is good. Pass it along.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

The Sentinel regards it as a very unfortunate matter that a political row had to be launched in the United States senate just at this time, and especially so since it was inaugurated by a democrat whose own reputation for loyalty is not any too brilliant. The only purpose it can serve will be to draw the political lines tighter and impede progress in matters that should have the co-operation and undivided attention of all patriots. Granting that the republicans headed by Col. Roosevelt, may be concentrating their forces for a showing in the next election, as much was to be expected of them, and if they go too far with it, it will react to their injury if they are given sufficient rope.

NEW SHELL FOR U-BOAT ATTACKS

Washington, Jan. 22.—The "non-ricochet" shell, a weapon as deadly as the depth charge, is the newest device perfected by the navy ordnance experts for use against German submarines. The new shell dives when it strikes the surface of the water instead of bouncing as do the ordinary missiles used in either naval or coast defense artillery. The charge can be made to explode on contact with a solid surface under the water or at a pre-determined depth. The value of the latest anti-submarine weapon lies in the fact that shots which fall slightly short will be of as much effect as those which register direct hits. The navy department has forbidden the publication of details of the invention, but it is known that the British and French admiralities also have adopted it.

WEDNESDAY JAN 30 IS TAG DAY

Acting on instructions from the State and National Headquarters of the movement, a campaign is being waged in Nacogdoches county by Dept. of Public Instruction, G. B. Layton, to successfully organize the public school pupils of the county in the "Tag-your-shovel Day" which will be next Wednesday, January 30th.

This is a National movement and the tagging of every coal or fuel shovel in the United States will be carried on by all school children in our public schools.

The movement is to afford a reminder as to the necessity in conserving fuel and the tag placed on the shovel will act as the same reminder to the person using the shovel as the proverbial string-tied around the finger.

It is planned to have every school in the county hold a special meeting on that day in which the teachers will explain to pupils the plan of tagging and the reasons thereof. Tags furnished by State Chairmen will be distributed and the children despatched on the errands of tagging shovels.

In this county, as well as other counties so situated, there is little coal used as a fuel, as a consequence of which the campaign will be carried on pretty extensively in reference to wood—the fuel commodity used here.

The fuel commission calls upon all patriotic citizens to aid in the conservation of fuel supplies, and a live wire has been selected in promoting "Tag-your shovel Day" in Nacogdoches county in the person of Prof. Layton. Like all other such movements which have been carried on here, let our citizens encourage the work and in a patriotic way help carry it on to completion.

AUSTIN PROS WIN BY SMALL MARGIN

Austin, Texas, Jan. 22.—The pros won out in yesterday's election by a majority of 100 votes. The total vote cast for the antis was 1988, and the pros received 2088. The vote was confined to the city of Austin, and it was not as heavy as the votes cast in the previous elections.

Radam's store and St. Elmo, two boxes outside of the city limits, both voted dry. These two boxes were not included in the vote cast in the city.

Immediately after the result had been announced there was a gigantic parade of pros up and down Congress Avenue. This is the first time in the history of Austin that it has been in the dry column.

DROUTH IMPERILS WEST TEXAS BANKS

Austin, Jan. 22.—In a letter to State Comptroller Terrell, with reference to conditions in drouth stricken West Texas, Clarence Ousley, assistant secretary of agriculture, expresses the belief that in a short time Texas banks in the affected territory will be embarrassed if they do not receive funds above their local deposits.

This fact will be emphasized at the meeting of the Texas drouth relief committee with Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller Williams to be held in Washington soon, Mr. Ousley said.

Editor R. B. Walthall of Garrison was a visitor to the city today, coming down to look after some business interests, and he made this office a pleasant call while here.

Mr. Travis Stone went to Coushatta, La., today on a visit to his father, S. P. Stone.

HAS NO MORE NEED FOR WALKING CANE

Retired Merchant Gained Fifteen Pounds on Tanlac—Health Restored.

William Ludwig, a retired merchant and prominent citizen of Port Arthur, Texas, made the following statement recently.

"For six years I have suffered from indigestion and painful disordered kidneys and fell off until I was little more than a skeleton. I had no appetite and what little I did eat felt like a lump of lead in my stomach. I was so bloated up that I could hardly get my breath and could not button my clothes. My kidneys disturbed me so I had to get up most every hour of the night and could scarcely sleep at all. Maybe I would doze a little just before day and in the morning I felt awful. I was so weak I had to walk with a stick and couldn't get up the steps at all.

"I bought Tanlac because I was a sick man and it was so highly recommended, and now I am praising it because it has restored my health, I have gained fifteen pounds in weight; can eat anything I want and sleep as well as I ever could. My cough has disappeared, the gas has stopped forming on my stomach and my kidneys are in good shape. Nothing bothers me now and I have no more use for a walking stick. I have taken many different kinds of medicine and have been coming to San Antonio every year for my health but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Tanlac and I can recommend it because it has done the work."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Hasewood & Co. and Swift Bros. & Smith, in Woden by M. J. King, in Garrison by Garrison Drug Co., in Appleby by Weatherly Bros., in Sacul by Arkan Cranford, in Cushing by A. J. Beck, in Douglas by Campbell & Watkins and in Chireno, in Nat by E. M. Jarrell.

HOMER HARDEMAN RETURNS TO NAVY

Homer Hardeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hardeman of this city, who has been engaged in the grocery business at Chireno, sold his stock of goods to Tom Curl yesterday and is in the city today arranging to leave tonight for New Orleans, where he goes to re-enter the service of the navy.

It will be remembered by those who know him more intimately that Mr. Hardeman served four years in the navy, from which he was honorably discharged by reason of having served the time for which he enlisted. Recently a call has been issued for fifty ex-service men from the United States Navy, Marine Corps or Army, who have been honorably discharged, for important inspection duties for the period of the war only, and Mr. Hardeman goes forward in answer to this call, ready and volunteering to serve his country again in the capacity in which he can serve it best, and in doing so he exhibits a most commendable spirit of patriotism.

HERE IS AN ARTICLE WORTH READING

You do just four things: you think, you remember, you imagine, you act. When you learn to think better, you increase your efficiency and, therefore, your income. Perhaps you are very successful now, but of how much benefit will a practical business education be to you. You will agree with us that to violate a part of the laws of business means partial failure, and to violate all of the laws means complete failure. You are also aware that to observe part of the laws of business means partial success, and to observe all the laws means complete success. Our aim is to help you observe a higher per cent of the laws of business success. The late Prof. James, of Harvard, declared that the average man uses only ten per cent of his brain power. Suppose you are twice as capable as the average man? Even that would mean you are only twenty per cent of your maximum possibilities. The purpose of our course is to produce a greater efficiency with less effort. Did you ever stop to think that eighty-five per cent of the men of this country are earning only $15 a week or less? That ninety-two per cent fail in business between the ages of 40 and 50? That ninety-five per cent have no money at the age of 60? We have been very successful in getting men out of the eighty-five, the ninety-two and the ninety-five per cent class. Let us increase your salary. We have been marvelously successful in raising salaries, as is conclusively proven in our catalogue by the letters from former students. The business world wants thinkers and doers. There's a famine of high priced men today; there are thousands of men worth a thousand dollars a year, but only a few worth ten thousand a year. Be the latter kind of a man, you can if you will. We know that a man is worth only about $2.00 a day from the chin down, selling muscle, but as high as a hundred thousand dollars a year from the chin up, selling brains. Be a chin upper and sell brains; but remember you must get them before you can sell them.

Announcement of the appointment of Father Kirwin was made today by Bishop Theophile Meerschaert of Oklahoma, senior bishop of this province, and has been confirmed by the apostolic delegate at Washington. ### SOLDIERS HAVE 29 CHANCES TO ONE

What are the soldiers chances in this great war? This question has been debated for many months, but until now little reliable information could be had.

Because of the many Canadian casualty lists the impression seems to prevail that the American soldiers who get into action "over there" will stand little chance of coming back home alive or uninjured.

The military hospital in the province of Quebec, Canada, has kept an account of the manner in which the Canadian troops fared on European battlefields. The following statistics, based on casualty lists from the time the Canadians first went into action to the present time, were compiled by the military hospital's commission in Canada.

The man who goes to the front has 29 chances to come home, as against one that he will be killed. He has 98 chances to recover from a wound, against two that he will die because of wounds received in battle.

There is one chance in 500 that he will lose an arm or a leg.

It is explained, also, that in this war only one man dies from disease, as against 10 to 15 who fell victims of various other diseases in other wars. This estimate is proportional.

But 10 per cent of the Canadian soldiers disabled on the former occupations.

There ought to be the cause for general encouragement in these figures.

ELDERLY MAN IN SERIOUS ACCIDENT

News comes from Garrison that Uncle Joe Turnage, a well known and highly esteemed old gentleman of that town, had the misfortune to fall from a high gallery last Saturday and break his leg.

At the time of the accident Mr. Turnage was walking on the front gallery of the Westfall store, which is some feet above the ground. He was wearing a long overcoat at the time, and a gust of wind caused it to tangle in his limbs, throwing him before he could extricate himself or recover his balance.

Mr. Turnage is up in the eighties in age, and is an honored Confederate veteran. It will be remembered that he attended the last re-union with the delegates from this county. For some years he has been living with his aged sister, Mrs. Dr. Lane, in Garrison, and both these grand old people were general favorites, loved and esteemed by all who knew them, and The Sentinel joins the great host of friends of the old gentleman in the hope that he may soon recover from his injury.

Now is the time for you to buy your onion sets at 2 quarts for 25c. At Lee Variety Store of course.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

Looking back fifty or sixty years would show up conditions in this town that are interesting topics. The town had never been incorporated. A horse race on the streets was not unlawful. Six-shooters, as the name of revolvers was called, were ornamentals, like jewelry. And streets fights were honors, especially with pistols. John Graham killed Street Shanks. Alex G. Mitchell shot Floyd Kendall in the leg with a shot gun, firing from the same building, and Kendall fired back with a pistol and struck near his head in the door facing of the Parmlac livery stable, which stood about where Branch's store now is. Young heroes often displayed their bravery on the public square by pistol plays, in which whiskey was often a factor, and when politics were at white heat and Sam Houston was a candidate and a speaker, there was indeed a hot time in the old town. But rules of honor were not overlooked, and things generally turned out well. The county jail at that period stood on the south west corner of Pecan and Hospital streets, where the Crisp Hotel now stands. It was a two-story plank structure on the order of what is called a boxed house, the planks being two inches thick, running up and down, and filled full of big nails driven in to prevent sawing, boring or cutting out. This failed. Some prisoners bored out. The stair way was outside landing on a platform at the second floor, and a trap door opened into the lower story, from the upper floor. The original Odd Fellows hall stood just a few steps west of this jail. It was a neat framed building, painted white, and it had an emblematic altar in side. It was about 30x60 feet. The entrance was at the north front on Hospital street. The lot adjoined Capt. A. A. Nelson's homestead on the west, and he was an active Odd Fellow. An immense pecan tree stood at the southern end of this hall. The town boys could not knock the top pecans by throwing a stick. The Odd Fellows dropped out and a temperance organization took charge. Charles Hoya made a big temperance speech in it. Then the Thespian Society took its abode there and flourished like a green bay tree. Lawrence Taylor took the part of a young lady in the drama, and when made up he was indeed a beautiful girl and a fine actress. The Thespian built a hall of their own on the south-east corner of Pecan and Hospital streets, and for years this was quite a popular theater, and was used as a kind of city hall, or public ballroom and auditorium resort.

This old Odd Fellows hall was subsequently used as a Methodist church. John N. Wilson reached in it; so did Tom R. Jennings.

The Catholics, as usual, landed first, and built where the church yet stands, close by this, about the year 1840. The present Methodist church is modern. Mrs. G. B. Crain threw the first spade of dirt for it. It was originally the whole membership and sexton.

The Nacogdoches high school is in an old dwelling standing here the parsonage now stands. It was moved back onto the north-end of the lot and is there now, belonging to Pat Jenkins, very old structure. The teacher was Prof. G. M. L. Smith, brother of Dr. W. I. M. Smith, the first-born. John Rusk and Lawrence Taylor were two of his scholars. Before this there had been a school taught there by two English ladies, Miss Burns and Miss Bettie Hargraves. The lots between this and North street were then a cultivated farm. The present homestead of L. S. Taylor, bounded it on the north. Some Mexican dobeey houses had stood on the south side of this on Hospital street. Mrs. F. L. McKnight was born in one of them, and Nick Gryard of Jacksonville, when a little boy, lived in one of them. There was a big dwelling standing where Capt. I. L. Sturdevant now lives, known as the Judge Hart place. The present home of L. S. Taylor was then where it now is, quite a pretentious house, and the Ireson home was also where it now stands.

When you pass the present Catholic church off your hat and keep it off till you get away up North street. Nacogdoches grew here, and then some.

HOME GARDENS WILL HELP WIN THE WAR

"Conditions in the United States and in Texas," said H. M. Mayo, head of the development department of the Southern Pacific Lines, "are not a whit different in their relation to a successful prosecution of the war than they were last spring and fall, except that they have become more acute."

"High priced cotton, food and feed crops, should not be permitted to interfere with the development of individual effort in the production of food for the farmer, the citizen, and their cattle and hogs."

"It was estimated that as a result of the propaganda for home gardens conducted last year, that products to the value of $350,000,000 were added to the food supplies of this country in addition to making to the comfort and enjoyment of the people as a whole. This was largely due to the development of small gardens by home owners, both in the towns and rural districts, and the efforts of last year should be continued this year on an even greater scale."

"It is good business, and the results should be much more extensive and beneficial because of the great amount of educational work done in the spring and summer of 1917, by the forces of the government and commercial organizations and which resulted not only in a vast increase in the number of home gardens but in the successful canning of products from these gardens by farmers wives and by housewives generally."

"Even if the United States makes record crops of food and feed stuffs during 1918, the demands of the European countries will draw not only upon our surplus products but also upon the supplies which we have hitherto regarded as being intended solely for the consumption of our own people."

"Patriotism and profit can go hand to hand in this work and no effort should be spared to this end. Irish and sweet potatoes, peas, beans, corn and other more perishable vegetables should be developed upon every available garden plot, while the dairy cow and "home grown" hog should be given every attention. Poultry must not be neglected and provision shall be made for supplying these with feed grown on the home garden, to some extent at least."

"Thrift, energy and enterprise will not only make us more self-supporting but will assist the government along lines which may be regarded as fundamental."

COUNTY TEACHERS RETURN FROM AUSTIN

Prof. J. C. Schoultz of the Woden school, Prof. S. V. Perritte of the Nat school and Prof. Marshall Spinks of the Harmony school arrived in the city last night from Austin where they went to attend a state meeting of the teachers whose schools are affiliated with the agricultural service, and they report a most interesting and profitable trip.

The schools represented by these gentlemen met all the requirements to get federal aid in teaching the agricultural branches, and Prof. Shoultz informs The Sentinel that Nacogdoches county had the biggest attendance and made the best showing at the meeting, which is an accomplishment we may well feel proud of. Our teachers all had places on the program.

This aid, to sustain this splendid work, comes from the Federal government, authorized by congress in the act known as the Smith-Hughes law, which gives to a community meeting other requirements an equal amount put up by the community. The Sentinel hasn't the information at hand as to how much help Nat and Harmony are receiving, but Prof. Shoultz informs us that Woden is receiving two hundred dollars which, with the community appropriation, gives them four hundred dollars.

The department of agriculture is now giving much attention to the matter of encouraging the rural schools in the agricultural branches, and making liberal allowances for county agents, which will go a long way in developing the resources of our county, and these three schools, which are leading out in the work are to be congratulated.

FROM ASA MOORE.

To the People at Home. Somewhere in France, December 23, 1917.—Some few months ago, just before I left the states, I wrote to the people at home through The Sentinel and told them I would write again and tell something about our experiences coming to France. But since I reached my destination I have not had many opportunities to do anything except work.

Our experiences coming over were few for we saw nothing in the shape of a submarine, and consequently we had no excitement worth mentioning. But when we landed in England we received a hearty welcome from the "Tommys" and then in a few days we had the pleasure of marching through the streets of London and seeing a few things of interest. Then came our trip to France across the channel which was very quiet except some of the fellows were displeased a little about living in stables where horses and mules had formerly been. We thought the ship we came across the Atlantic on was something terrible, for the English tried to make us drink tea now as they did once before, which was almost another failure, for we preferred coffee. But when it came to sleeping in a stock boat, why that was going from bad to worse. Then came a trip some distance in France by rail, and with it came some beef and "hard tack," and for sleeping some of us slept on the floor, some in the put rack in the coach, some on the seats. The change from a stable to a hat rack was quite a variety of beds. By this time the fellows all realized that "we are in the army now," and had nothing else to say.

Since the time that I have been here at "Somewhere in France," I have been getting along fine, and have been blessed with good health and happiness, for it gives me a great deal of pleasure to serve "Uncle Sam" and do all that is in my power to defend Old Glory from insults of the Germans.

A few weeks ago I had the pleasure of seeing four fellows from home who enlisted with me and words can never tell how glad I was to see them, for they were the first men I have seen from that part of Texas. I spent as much time as I could with them until we had to part and go where we were needed most.

At the present time I am on the coast living in a fine three-story house that an American lady has let us have. The house is on a hill not more than a hundred yards from the Atlantic, and is well furnished, having all kinds of "easy chairs" to sit in around the fire in which some of our number plays the piano. In other words, we are at home. The only thing I dislike is that we can never get to visit home on a furlough as the other fellows from home can. They are among people who can talk with them, and who use the things they are accustomed to using, while we are among all kinds of French and Germans, (the latter prisoners, and who use many things which would make any one laugh at times and almost swear at other times.

Wherever I am, and whatever I might be, my heart is now and forever with Nacogdoches and the people. I certainly am regretting it that the normal was put off longer. I want to congratulate the foot-ball team of this year for winning as they did. I read in detail the Palestine game which The Sentinel was kind enough to publish.

Would like to hear from all the people who have a few minutes they can spare to write me. I receive a number of letters which are my greatest pleasure. Must close for this time. I am as ever a true friend to Nacogdoches and her people.

ASA MOORE,
Co. O, 17th Eng (Ry) with A. E. F. in France.

FOR SHERIFF.

To the Voters of Nacogdoches County: In announcing for the office of sheriff of Nacogdoches county, I only desire to state to the people of the county that I feel that I am qualified for the position to which I aspire.

I have had no experience in the sheriff's office, however, for the past three or four years I have held the office of city marshal of Nacogdoches, and feel that the knowledge I have received in the duties connected with said office make me qualified to fill the office of sheriff.

Most of the voters of Nacogdoches county know me, as I have lived in this county all of my life, and in Nacogdoches for the past 16 years.

I have no promise to make to the citizenship of Nacogdoches county save and except to do my duty in case I am honored with the office.

I have endeavored to fulfill the obligations resting upon me as a peace officer since having been honored with the office of city marshal, and I assure the voters that if they see proper to place in my hands a commission for the next two years, that not one person will ever have cause to regret a vote cast for me.

G. W. L. WOODLAN.

W. H. Gray, Jr., formerly of Chireno, in this county, but who is now making his home in Logansport, La., writes for the Daily Sentinel with which to keep up with the movements of the people of his old home county.

FOR COUNTY CLERK.

To the Voters of Nacogdoches County:

After a very serious consideration of some solicitations by personal friends, and realizing the fact that I am no stranger to many of you, inspires me with much confidence in announcing to you as a candidate for the office of county clerk.

I was born in Texas 51 years ago today; have been a resident of Nacogdoches county for 6 years. Many of you were personally acquainted with my father, Rev. M. L. Hines, who carried the gospel into all parts of this and other counties.

I very heartily endorse the suggestion brought out by our county papers, that the old and wasteful custom of house-to-house canvassing by candidates be eliminated, as it will make the campaign less burdensome on the candidates as well as the people as they are usually poor men and need every day of their time at home, more especially this year. However, I shall make an effort to see as many of you as I can during the campaign. Those of you whom I may not be privileged to meet, please remember that I ask and need your support, assuring you that same will be very highly appreciated.

If you see proper to elect me as your county clerk, I shall prove my appreciation by giving you my very best efforts in serving you. Please let me add that my reason for entering the race and asking for your support is that I need it. And I want it bad enough to ask you for it.

Soliciting your favor, I am,
Sincerely yours,
GEO. H. HINES.

COAST ARTILLERY CO. IN FIELD ARTILLERY

It was recently announced that the Coast Artillery Co., organized in this city, was undergoing a change in its organization, in which it would receive new officers and its officers would be changed to other companies.

This news aroused much protest from the boys who regret to give up their old officers, but who do not flinch at the change of service if it is in the interest of the cause for which they volunteered.

Since the news of the change, The Sentinel has been on the alert to get more information as to just what change would be made, but the only thing we have been able to learn so far is that the company has been mustered into a company to be known as Battery F, 4th Field Artillery, manning 8-inch Howitzers, with Capt. Dingley in charge.

IS FOND OF OUR RIBBON CANE SYRUP

Mr. J. J. Bowen, a well known citizen of this city, is in receipt of a letter from Hon. Murphy W. Townsend, an attorney of Dallas, in which he says:

"I enclose a dollar bill and am going to ask you to do me the favor of handing it to somebody in your town who will, in consideration thereof, send me a can of syrup of the same kind that you brought to me on your last visit to Dallas. I don't know how much it costs, but it is worth anything that may be charged for it. If there is any change left, put it in the collection plate the next time you attend the Baptist church."

The point of interest in this letter is that when a West Texas man gets a sample of this good old East Texas ribbon cane syrup, he wants more, and is willing to pay a fancy price for it.

Any mail carrier will sell you Thrift Stamps.

NEW STORE OPEN.

The new store of Orton & Spears has opened its doors to the trade, and as noted in this paper a few days ago, has on display a nice stock of goods.

Mr. H. B. Davis, Mr. Ellis Asforja and Mrs. Will Pressler constitute the clerical force of the new store, and are all sales-people of experience who know how to serve the trade. They were formerly engaged with the store of Allan Seale & Co., in the same building, and are therefore very "much at home" with a line of merchandise at the same stand.

COUNTY COURT.

Yesterday's proceedings in the County Court disposed of the following cases.

State of Texas vs. Tom Cross in three cases of violation of the local option law, tried by jury in one case and convicted; given a fine of $30.00 and 30 days in jail. Plea of guilty in second case and fined $50 and 60 days in jail. Third case dismissed by the county attorney.

State of Texas vs. Will Hightower, violation of local option law, tried by jury and given a fine of $25.00 and 20 days in jail.

State of Texas vs. Henry Dishman, violation local option law, tried by jury and fined $30 and 30 days in jail.

State of Texas vs. Tom Parker, letting stock run at large in stock law district. Plea of guilty and fined $5.00 and costs.

DISTINGUISHED MINISTERS COMING NEXT TUESDAY

As has previously been noted, Dr. J. B. Gambrill of Dallas and Dr. L. R. Scarbrough of Fort Worth will attend the educational rally at the Baptist church in this city next Tuesday, filling the preaching appointments morning and evening, and the Baptist people with their friends from other churches are looking forward to a most interesting and profitable meeting.

The ladies will serve dinner at the noon hour, and the whole day will be devoted to the rally. A good attendance from the churches of the county is assured, and many visitors will doubtless be present from other counties, insuring a fine attendance and a great day.

FOR TAX ASSESSOR.

The Sentinel is authorized to announce Mr. B. S. Shirley as a candidate for re-election to the office of tax assessor of Nacogdoches county, subject to the action of the forthcoming democratic primaries.

In submitting his announcement, The Sentinel does not feel that it is necessary to go into an extended comment. He is serving his first term, with which he has made good, giving universal satisfaction so far as we can learn, and this should commend him to re-election. He is a man of good educational attainment and clerical ability, enabling him to keep the records as they should be, he is industrious and would not shirk any task because it had a little work in it, and he is an upright christian gentleman who enjoys the respect and esteem of all who know him. Nothing more could be desired of any one.

Mr. T. J. Prado, one of The Sentinel's staunch friends residing out a few miles from town, was a pleasant caller at the office Tuesday morning, dropping in to make annual settlement for his paper. Mr. Prado is one of the charter subscribers of The Sentinel, and as such we greatly appreciate his friendship and continued loyalty.

THRIFT STAMPS

United States
War Saving
Certificate
Stamps

TO OUR PATRONS AND FRIENDS:

We, the undersigned, have bought this space to extend to you the greetings and good wishes for a Prosperous and Happy New Year, and to assure you of our esteem and continued loyalty in all matters of community and national interest.

As you all are aware, our country is engaged in a great war which makes it necessary for us to draw closer together, and get in closer touch with each other, to conserve our community interest at home, and assist our nation in freeing itself from a threatened yoke of oppression which would rob us of the splendid resources and opportunities we now enjoy. Our community and national life depends on our success, and the undertaking is so great that we are advised it will tax our resources of every kind to the limit, to accomplish the result. We have subscribed liberally to the Liberty Bonds, the Red Cross, and the Y. M. C. A. work in the past—but as one of the units of a great organization, we must keep on doing our bit to the limit of sacrifice if needs be.

The next patriotic issue to engage our attention and bid for our support is the THRIFT STAMP and the WAR-SAVINGS CERTIFICATE, brought to us in the opportunity of a good and secure investment which pays interest on the money we loan to our government, encourages us in the great lesson of THRIFT, and enables us to help ourselves while helping our country.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT—WAR-SAVINGS STAMPS.

In offering "War-Savings Stamps" to the public the United States Government has made immediately available for every man, woman and child in the country a profitable, simple and secure investment.

WHAT THEY ARE—"War-Savings Stamps are the answer of a great democracy to the demand for a democratic form of government security. They are "little baby bonds." Like Liberty bonds, they have behind them the entire resources of the Government and people of the United States. They have the additional advantage that they steadily increase in value from the date of purchase until the date of maturity, and this increase is guaranteed by the Government. These stamps are issued in two denominations, the 25c stamp and the $5 stamp.

For the convenience of investors a "Thrift Card" is furnished to all purchasers of 25-cent stamps. This card has spaces for 16 stamps. When all the spaces have been filled the Thrift Card may be exchanged for a $5 stamp at post offices, banks, or other authorized agencies by adding 12 cents in cash prior to February 1, 1918, and 1 cent additional each month thereafter.

Those who prefer may buy a $5 stamp outright. These will be on Sale from December 3, 1917 until January 31, 1918, for $4.12. They automatically increase in value a cent a month every month thereafter until January 1, 1923, when the United States will pay $5 at any post office or at the Treasury in Washington for each stamp affixed to a War-Savings Certificate.

When you purchase a $5 stamp, you must attach it to an engraved folder known as a "War-Savings Certificate" which bears the name of the purchaser and can be cashed only by the person whose name appears upon the certificate, except in case of death or disability. This certificate contains 20 spaces. If these are all filled with War-Savings Stamps between December 3, 1917, and January 31, 1918, the cost to the purchaser will be $82.40, and on January 1, 1923, the Government will pay the owner of the certificate $100—a net profit to the holder of $17.60. This is based on an interest rate of 4 per cent, compounded quarterly from January 2, 1918. The amount of War-Savings Stamps sold to any one person may not exceed such stamps or War-Savings Certificates to an aggregate amount exceeding $1,000 (maturity value.)

If the holder of a War Savings Certificate finds it necessary to realize cash on it before maturity, he may at any time after January 2, 1918, upon giving 10 days' written notice to any money-order post-office, receive for each stamp affixed to his certificate the amount paid therefor plus 1 cent for each calendar month after the month of purchase of each stamp. A registered certificate may be redeemed, however, only at the post office where registered.

In other words, the plan is simple, straightforward, and certain. The holder of the certificates can not lose and is certain to gain. He is buying the safest security in the world in the most convenient form in which the security of a great Government has ever been offered to its people.

Why You Should Buy Them.—The main reason for the purchase of War-Savings Stamps is because your country is at war. Your country needs every penny which every man, woman, and child can save and lend, in order to feed, clothe, arm and equip the soldiers and sailors of America and to win this righteous war in defense of American honor and the cause of democracy throughout the world.

If we are to win the war, we must win it as a united people. The savings of every man, woman and child are necessary if we are to hasten the victorious ending of the war. War Savers are Life Savers.

A single strand in the cables which uphold the great Brooklyn Suspension Bridge is not very strong, but thousands of these strands bound together uphold one of the great triumphs of the world.

When our fathers and sons and brothers were called by our Country to take up arms in her defense you did not hear an individual soldier refuse to serve because his service alone would not win the war. Each man was ready to do his part. The great army thus formed is going forward to face the fire of battle and to risk everything for the safety and security of our homes and our families, and for the very existence of our Country.

These are the men for whom you are asked to save and lend your dollars.

A Country worth fighting for is a country worth saving for.

To save money is to save life.

Buy War-Savings Stamps at post offices, banks, trust companies, or other authorized agencies, and strike a blow for our country.

The stamps and certificates are on sale at the various banks in the county, at the post offices, and committees of business men and citizens in the various communities will be appointed to offer them for sale. Every citizen of Nacogdoches county should do his bit in this great enterprise, as they have in other matters, and we rely on you to subscribe liberally.

Calomel is quicksilver and acts like dynamite on your liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what Calomel is. It's mercury's quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It craves into your bile like dynamite, creating and scattering you. Calomel attacks the bowels and should never be put into your system. When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous Calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for Calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and city not salivate. Don't take Calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. ## MR. ALBERT BRIGHT RETURNS FROM FUNERAL

Albert Bright arrived home last night from Hemphill where he went to attend the funeral of his relative, Sheriff Bright, who was killed by a negro in Sabine county a day or two ago, report of which appeared in this paper.

Mr. J. Bright, the father of the victim of the tragedy with his wife and daughter, remained for a more extended visit, and the old gentleman is reported to be greatly distressed over the tragic and untimely death of his son.

Mr. Bright says that the funeral was held at Hemphill at 4:30 yesterday (Thursday) afternoon, being delayed an hour to admit of the arrival of out-of-town relatives and friends, and that it was attended by a great host of sorrowing relatives and friends, among whom were many people from San Augustine and other towns. The whole country was greatly aroused over the tragedy, and the people of a wide section of territory enter into profound sympathy with the bereaved family left behind.

Upon inquiry for further details about the tragedy, The Sentinel gets the information that the sheriff was killed by a negro by the name of Jim Battle, who was wanted for the shooting of a commissary clerk by the name of Joel Williams, employed by the Knox Lumber Company at East Mayfield last week. The sheriff received a clue which led him and two deputies to a negro house about three miles east of Milam. Calling at the house of a negro named Wiseman, he inquired if the negro fugitive was there, and being answered in the negative, he and his deputies instituted an immediate search of the house. The negro was found, concealed in an inside room, and attempted to escape by a rear door, but ran into the two deputies. He then rushed back into the bed room and attempted to conceal himself behind a bed. The deputy sheriffs followed him and fired at him as they went in. They missed the mark, and Sheriff Bright in his effort to ascertain if the negro was wounded, peered around the edge of the bed, when the negro fired upon him, shooting the sheriff through the throat. In the melee that followed the deputies killed the negro. The sheriff lived about three hours after being wounded.

Wiseman, the negro who harbored the fugitive, and his wife disappeared, and the house was later burned. As to whether or not Wiseman and his wife have subsequently been captured, and who burned the house has not been learned.

Mr. Bright says the commissary clerk was still alive, but it is not thought that he can survive his injury for much longer.

With the announcement that I am associated with a new mercantile business in the city, some may get the idea that I will not give my attention to the office of county clerk, to which the people elected me, for the remainder of the term, and to disabuse the idea before it becomes widespread I take this method of announcing that you will find me at my post of duty as of yore until my term expires, ready to serve you and looking after the

BUYS ALF SPEARS' FARM AT MAHL

Mr. G. H. Hudkins, of the Hickory Flat community was in the city last Friday on business. Mr. Hudkins is a new comer to this country, having bought from Alf Spears a part of the old Grimes homestead in the Hickory Flat community near Mahl.

Mr. Hudkins made this purchase just before the holidays and has just finished moving his household goods, implements and foodstuffs from Rusk county about eight miles from Mt. Enterprise, where he has lived for many years.

This good citizen comes to us well recommended. He is a progressive farmer of the intensive type and makes a specialty of growing corn, a product of which the raising is so badly needed in this county. Mr. Hudkins raises a special variety of the red corn and says that he always raises a heavy crop supplying his own needs and selling many bushels to the market. He selects from the best a splendid lot of seed corn for which he always finds a ready market. In his family are his wife and 12 children, 7 of whom are living at home with their parents.

Mr. Hudkins bought in this transaction 122 acres, paying $2,000.00 for 52 acres on the plot on which his home is located and $30 an acre for the remaining 70 acres. To this place Mr. Hudkins contemplates making several improvements and is now busily engaged in getting ready for this year's crop.

Mr. Spear, who formerly lived on the place, has purchased and moved to the Jenkins place above Mahl, for which place he paid a consideration of $2,000. Nacogdoches county citizens will extend to Mr. Hudkins and his good family a warm welcome to our midst.

The Complete Electric Light and Power Plant.

San Augustine, Texas, July 20, 1917
Mr. J. R. Dickerson, Delco Light Dealer, San Augustine, Texas.
Dear Sir:—You asked me how I was pleased with my Delco Light Plant. Will say that I am highly pleased with it. It makes so fine light—the very best. Simple in operation and the cost of running expenses is practically nothing compared with the service it gives. I have run my lights, fans and iron for 5 days and nights on one charge of the batteries without running the engine, with good lights and I could have run a week. Anyone will make no mistake when they buy the Delco Light. I would not take twice what my plant cost me if I couldn't get another like it. You can use my name for reference. Yours very truly, I. E. ROBERTS, Tax Assessor.

That there was born of said marriage a girl, Lamerle Drake, now about a year old, residing with plaintiff; that plaintiff is a proper person to have the custody and control of said child. Wherefore plaintiff prays that defendant be cited to appear and answer this petition, that said marriage relation be dissolved, that she be awarded the custody of her said child, for costs of suit and for general and special relief.

HOUSTON LEADS NEW ORLEANS

Washington, Jan. 16.—Plans for relieving borrowers under the farm loan system of most of the expense of title examination were made today by presidents of twelve farm land banks in their first annual conference with the federal farm loan board since organization last spring. Arrangements probably will be made by a few Eastern land banks with surety companies to guarantee titles after limited examination and if the experiment proves successful the system will be adopted by all banks.

The presidents also considered plans for marketing their own and loan bonds, between $10,000,000 and $12,000,000 of which must be disposed of monthly in the next year, since marketing through private bond dealers has been abandoned. Loans paid to farmers in December by the federal land banks amounted to $9,309,000, the federal farm board announced today.

Houston December loan payments were $972,000 and New Orleans $612,000.

MEN PASSED THIRTY-ONE TO BE DISCHARGED

Congress has passed a bill taking young men in the military classification automatically, as they reach twenty-one years of age. Previous to this order only those young men who were of age when the selective draft first went into effect were eligible, and it is estimated that the new order will add many men to the service to take the place of those who are automatically dropping out for different reasons.

Following close upon this new order Secretary Baker is out in a statement, featured in today's papers, in which he has advised the senate military committee the war department favors discharging from draft liability men who have passed the aged of thirty-one registering on June 5, 1917, and without having been called to the colors.

CLOSE DOWN INDUSTRIES IS DRASTIC FUEL ORDER

Washington, Jan. 16.—Fuel Administrator Garfield tonight issued an order closing down for five days every manufacturing plant in the United States, except those producing food, as a means of meeting the fuel famine.

The order goes into effect Friday and applies to all war industries as well as to the non-essentials.

In addition the administration will close down all manufacturing industries except those producing food on every Monday for a period of 10 weeks.

The order applies to all states east of the Mississippi River and to parts of the states of Minnesota and Louisiana.

In the period designated coal will go only to railroads, households, public buildings, ships' bunkers, cantonments, naval stations and public buildings.

Office building may be heated during the five-days period to prevent freezing, but on Monday holidays they must be closed down.

Newspapers will be permitted to use coal for but one edition a day. This applies both morning and evening papers.

Banks and trust companies are not included in the order unless the governors of the states specifically declare that they shall be included.

The order makes allowance for any industry which might be put out of business by permitting it to keep its plants heated, but the plant will not be permitted to run.

State administrators will be permitted to issue special permits for the use of coal if it appears necessary to make a grave emergency. This, however, will not be blanket exception and it will not be permitted to be used.

The plan received the approval today of President Wilson after its deed was submitted to him by Doctor Garfield and Secretaries Baker and Daniels.

Under the order, during the 10 weeks period Mondays will be holidays just as is Sunday, and stores and shops will be closed. During the five-days' period specified stores will be permitted to remain open.

Theatres will be required to close on the 10 Mondays, but not during the next five days.

Warning is given that provisions of the Lever food control bill, under which the order is issued, and which carries a penalty of $5000 for violation, will be vigorously enforced. The bill gives power to forbid the use or delivery of coal.

Doctor Garfield expects to save 30,000,000 tons of coal during the 10 weeks.

M. E. Aten, Prop.

Every planter of corn should owe it to himself to plant only the best seed corn that may be secured.

I devote my attention entirely to the selection of seed corn, and offer the readers of this paper, selected seed corn, grown in the Ozark region, where perfection of maturity is reached. Our crop here this year is better than ever before. You will best serve your interests by using this splendid seed the coming season.

Write me for prices. Frank H. Lane, Siloam Springs, Ark.

LOOK AT THE TAG ON THE BAG.

The Texas Inspection Tag on ordinary Cotton Seed Meal made by our mill, shows 43% protein.

There is a Mixed Feed being sold in town resembling Cotton Seed Meal. The tag on this Mixed Feed (if it has a tag) shows 20% protein, which means that it has less than half the feeding value of ordinary cotton seed meal. Some people buy this 20% mixed feed thinking it is Cotton Seed Meal, and pay nearly as much for it as the 43% meal is worth.

Look at the tag when you buy, and don't be deceived. NACOGDOCHES OIL MILL dw-tf.
