U. S. WAR PLANS PARTLY EXPLAINED

Half Million Troops in France, Million and Half More Ready to Go "Get the Enemy."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Five hundred thousand troops in France early this year—and 1,500,000 more ready to go fully equipped and with the artillery to support them, this was the answer Secretary Baker today gave the senate military committee to the charge of inefficiency and breakdown in the military establishment. As a climax of a day's explanation of all that the military establishments have done, freely confessing faults and imperfections in so vast an undertaking, but maintaining that out of each deficiency the remedy has been found, Secretary Baker disclosed what hitherto has been guarded as a military secret, and what the German people little suspected.

This great fighting force, probably little expected by the German general staff itself, will be composed of the men now with General Pershing, the 32 divisions of troops now in cantonments and camps in the United States and ready to move, Secretary Baker said, and by the next increments to be drawn and trained this spring under the selective service law.

Allies to Supply Guns.

Elemental equipment of the men from the United States is assured and artillery necessary to their support will come from the British and French governments, which have such an excess of ordnance that they have on their own initiative offered to supply the guns and save ships which would be used for their transportation.

Mr. Baker described to the committee how the American army has built great lines of railroads, one of them 600 miles long up to its headquarters

CASON, MONK & CO

Constable Vaught of Garrison arrived in the city yesterday afternoon with another refugee, and landed him in jail. The constable was on the alert for John Barkley for whom he had a complaint charging bootlegging and swindling. In the course of his search for him the officer discovered that Barkley was making his way toward Beaumont, and he caught the next train in pursuit. Barkley pleaded guilty to the charges filed against him and will be carried out to the county road gang today.

Corporal Grady C. Hammer of the Ordnance Detachment, Rock Island Arsenal, Rock Island, Ill., and whose home is in Timpan, Texas, where he is visiting relatives, spent some time in the city this morning while en route to Diboll where he will visit his brother, Prof. J. F. Hammer, for a short while. Corporal Hammer has several friends here who were glad to meet up with him again.

in France; how ports and terminals have been constructed to handle the great quantities of supplies and equipment which the army will need on the firing line. All this has been done by Americans and since General Pershing's troops landed last June.

Leaning forward and addressing the senators earnestly the secretary told a story the German general staff probably would have given much to know long before. He approached the subject by departing from the answer to criticisms and referring it as "the plan for the war."

"I think I understand Senator Chamberlain felt there was not any plan," said Secretary Baker. "I don't know how the committee and the country felt about it, but I want to say there is a plan. It's the only possible plan under the circumstances."

"Get At the Enemy."
"It was not for us to decide the theatre of war. That was in France. It was not for us to decide the line of communication. It was 300 miles away with one end infested with submarines. It was not for us to decide whether maneuvers in the open should be attempted. Many men were already in the trenches in a death grapple."

"Our problem was and is to get over and get at the enemy. It was not for us to map out at the war college an ideal plan of campaign, a theoretical plan."

"That problem could not be decided here. It can't be described in words. It is so extraordinary and so vast that it must be seen and studied on the ground before it can be comprehended at all."

Mr. Baker told of the coming of the British and French missions with Balfour and Joffre. These men were seen in the halls of congress, but four people saw the staffs of trained experts they brought with them and who distributed themselves through the war department.

"They were the most brilliant men in their armies," he said. "Every country has sent us that sort of experts."

American's Experts Few.
"This is a moving picture," he said. "It was necessary that we have eyes there to see and report, and we sent General Pershing and the major part of the trained personnel of the army—that pitiful handful of trained men." General Pershing now reports daily in cablegrams that run into hundreds and even thousands of words, he added. "We are using the eyes there to keep up to what they want us to do. The startling progress of the war in the development of munitions will be shown," he said, "by the fact that weapons devised by American experts during the last few months have been discarded."

SHADY GROVE LADY DIES THIS MORNING

Mrs. Jas. A. Day died at her home in the Shady Grove community about 8:30 this morning, and her remains will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Shady Grove tomorrow afternoon at 4:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Day was about seventy years of age at the time of her death, and was a member of the well known

Cox family of this county, being a daughter of Rev. John R. Cox, a prominent pioneer citizen and minister, and a sister of Messrs. John H. Cox, Zeno Cox, Sr., Geo. S. Cox, W. M. Cox, and Mrs. Tom Blacksher, who survive. In her immediate family she is survived by her husband, six sons and one daughter.

Mrs. Day united with the Methodist church in childhood, and her long life has been one of christian devotion. She was loved and admired by all who knew her and had a great circle of friends whose hearts are made sad with the separation that must follow in her death.

Let us "mark for slaughter" those politicians who would embarrass the government with their partisan ambitions at this time. They are more vicious than the "alien enemy" for the latter is held under surveillance with a remedy for his control.

Buy a home, tenant farmer, and pay what you have been paying as rent, and it will not be long until you will have a home of your own. With the present price of farm products and the diversified productivity of the soil in this section, one or two crops will pay for a small place.—Lonewave Leader.

There's one beauty about the graphophone, and that is you don't have to listen to them; if the music doesn't please you, it can be stopped.—San Augustine Tribune.

Suppose the "thing" belongs to your neighbor who happens to be placed with the selection that is repulsive to you, Mrs. Hays.

Nacogdoches seems to have caught the contagion and is going after oil at what is commonly known as Oil Springs. Here—hoping we get ours first.—Lufkin News.

Your little hope will be in vain, dear Alphonse, for we have had "ours" all the time; the present activity in the mining revival production. Bring your bucket up and get some real oil.

The "dusky gentry" in the wood-piles of Germany is poking his head out with the announcement that he will hold Alsace-Lorraine, make some new lines for Russia, and allow some other nations to decree their own lines provided, of course—they deal direct with the German government in the matter. We are not through with the war yet.

The rich beds of lignite and the rich veins of oil abounding in Nacogdoches county are needed now of all time in the history of the world, and it is encouraging to note that renewed interest is being revived in them. An intelligent development of these great resources will bring a great wave of prosperity to our county, and we will render the nation a patriotic service in the meantime.

Funny how fate always gets the wrong man in the right place, or the right man in the wrong place, or both, or vice versa, or some other dazed kind of a mix-up. But what we wanted to say was that we have a man in our town who could have had the war fought to a finish and the Kaiser whipped to a frazzle if he had only been consulted. We know it, because he says so.—Ex.

A well written advertisement appearing in the different papers of the country, makes the declaration that we do four things, "think, remember, imagine, act." This might be correct with the normal individual, but some act on imagination and think when it is too late, while others never get any further than the "thinking" stage and have left only the memory of their mistakes.

At a prayer meeting service held in one of the churches of this city a few nights ago, the subject of "love" was the topic, in the course of which much emphasis was placed on the scriptural injunction, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." This was followed with an analytical discussion of who constituted the "neighbor," all except one agreeing that it meant every one with whom we came in contact in our earthly pilgrimage. Attention was finally directed to the one lone individual who did not seem to agree in a matter that was so plain in all of its aspects, and in defense he plead for time until we could "lick the Kaiser."

Those mothers and fathers who may be alarmed for the safety of their boys in the army will be comforted with the statistics that only one in twenty-nine have been killed. Of course, your boy might be the unlucky twenty-niner, but it is comforting that he has twenty-eight chances against it. The same logic is true with the health of the soldiers. Recently there has been a great epidemic of pneumonia in the training camps at Fort Worth, which caused widespread alarm with those who have loved ones in it, but the fact remains that a greater ratio of the citizenship at home have been sick with the same disease, and normally the health of our soldiers is better, and far more closely guarded than they would enjoy with their freedom at home. It is the great numbers that confuse us.

LUFKIN "ERUPTING."

The "crater" in Looney Lufkin is erupting again, all because we show up with the most "oil," and assaults and assaults us from every side. In another place we reproduce a deserved chastisement we receive—but in accepting that it does not go that we will take everything. Listen to this, for instance:

"At first guess, we would say Nacogdoches needs a standpipe to put her oil in."

"Nay, Pauline, you can't unload that on us. We recognize the "method in your madness," and the "dusky gentry" in your woodpile. No standpipes for us, if you please."

This would be enough, but listen again:

"Is that oil which Brother Gibbs claims Nacogdoches has had all the time, merely oil of joy?"

What shall a fellow do with so many "angles" to one subject—submarines, aeroplanes, battleships and heavy artillery all turned loose at one time.

The Sentinel is giving space to a call from the president and a protest against federal control upon the teachers of the country to assist the local board in its work of indexing the recent registrants whose questionnaires are now being classified, and it is important that every teacher should volunteer with his "bit." The members of the boards are putting practically a year's time for a most insignificant compensation—not as much as the soldier receives—and they deserve all the help and co-operation they can get.

While ex-Governor T. M. Campbell was away attending district court in a neighbor city a few days ago, the remaining members of the district exemption board moved headquarters back to Tyler, and the ex-governor has tendered his resignation. In speaking of the matter he says "That the duties of a member of the board take practically all of a man's time, and that he has served several months at a great sacrifice to his personal interests and cannot afford to serve longer."

A SCHOOL PIG.

What is your school doing to help win the war? Have you begun to make your children feel Mr. Teacher, that they have a definite part to play in this great world conflict? Do they feel that they are a part of it—that they are helping to win by supporting our boys at the front?

Are you teaching them the great necessity of eliminating all waste and conserving in every way possible? Mr. Hoover has told us time after time that food will win the war. Is your school and are your children, helping to win the war by saving food?

What are you doing with the scraps from the lunch baskets? There should be few scraps, but always there must be some food that is not palatable.

This food that is not palatable for people is palatable for pigs. Have you a pig at your school to eat that part of the food that is too frequently thrown out?

There are approximately eight thousand rural school districts in Texas. Think of the help those eight thousand schools can give by raising a pig at every school. Almost any two hundred pound pig will bring $30.00. If every school were to raise a two hundred pound pig this year the schools would produce $240,000 worth of meat for our soldiers.

There are two economic reasons that make this project distinctly worth while. In the first place, our great task in America at present is to make everybody realize the necessity of food conservation and food production. The school has an excellent opportunity to do this through the feeding of a pig on "lunch scraps." Hogs are becoming scarce in the country and we need to stimulate greater production.

A rural school in McLennan County raised two pigs in one year. Can't your school do half as well?

AMERICA'S BUSINESS.

"War is work for young men—a business for youth." How often have you heard people say that?

But is it, after all? A person's business is the thing which affects him most. There is not a soul in this land who is not affected by war. War is not a young man's business. It is not an old man's business, nor is it the business of a child. But it is the business of—it is everybody's business.

It is the business of each one of us. It is the business of every American, and each one of us must work to make that business successful. If a man owned a large office building that was in need of repairs, it would be poor business to allow it to go to ruin. For a company in the business of supplying heat, it would be death to fail to stoke the fires.

Our business today is to help our armies out to victory. It is our business to see that their bodily fires are well stoked with wholesome, abundant fuel.

Each one of the 22,000,000 American homes has become a business house, working as one great co-related machine for a common end. And it is our business to see that those business houses are efficiently managed—run economically and for victory. Concretely they must be so managed as to reduce American consumption of business commodities most needed abroad—meat, wheat, sugar and fats. If our business over here is poorly managed our business over there will go to ruin.

It is the young men who have been drafted, but there is not a person in this country who can escape the cares and trials of the grimpest, most gigantic business task that has ever been placed upon the shoulders of Americans.—Food Administration Bulletin.

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found a proclamation from the president and an appeal from the Administrator Hoover urging the people to do all in their power to conserve the food supply of the country, and it is important that every one should give it heed. Up to date the people of Nacogdoches county have not been brought under the rigid restrictions of the law, those in charge of the matter hoping that the people would live up to its requirements without this action, but if there should be any general complaint of violation, the step will have to be taken. There is a remedy which is provided with a price-fixing committee composed of two wholesale merchants, two retail merchants and two consumers who meet once or twice a week and formulate a schedule of prices and restrictions. Any wholesale merchant who violates the provisions will have his license to do business cancelled, and among the restrictions placed upon him is one that provides that he must not make further sales to any retail merchant who violates the provisions. The retail merchant is not allowed to sell an excessive amount of flour, meats, sugar, etc., to any customer. It is also a violation of the law, punishable by heavy fine and imprisonment, for any person to buy of these commodities for the purpose of hoarding, and here the customers will do well to take notice if they should be inclined to "stick up" on any of the forbidden articles.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The food administration today issued this statement: The following is a summary of the rules that have been formulated by the United States food administration with the approval of the president in order to effect the further conservation in foodstuffs necessary to support the allies and our own armed forces over the next four months. These rules are effective from the morning of Monday, January 28.

DEPEND UPON WOMEN

"The effectiveness of these rules is dependent solely upon the good will of and the willingness to sacrifice by the American people." In the last analysis the success or failure of any plan, such as here outlined rests with the people. We are dependent upon the co-operation of the trades. We have but one police force—the American women—and we depend upon her to organize in co-operation with our state and local food administrators to see that these rules are obeyed by that small minority who may fail. Part of the rules will be enforced under the Lever food act; other parts are voluntary and will depend for their success upon public sentiment. Our experience hitherto has shown a willingness of the vast majority of consumers and a full co-operation of the trades to undergo the self-sacrifice necessary to render such measures effective.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try H! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of KNOX'S Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

PRESIDENT ISSUES FOOD PROCLAMATION

"Many causes have contributed to create the necessity for a more intensive effort on the part of our people to save food in order that we may supply our associates in the war with the sustenance vitally necessary to them in those days of privation and stress. The reduced productivity of Europe because of large diversion of man power to the war, the partial failure of harvests and the elimination of the more distant markets for foodstuffs through the destruction of shipping places the burden on their subsistence more largely on our shoulders.

"The food administration has formulated suggestions which, if followed, will enable us to meet this great responsibility without any real inconvenience on our part. In order that we may reduce our consumption of wheat and meat products by 30 per cent, a reduction imperatively necessary to furnish the supply overseas, wholesalers, jobbers and retailers should purchase and re-sell to their customers only 70 per cent of the amounts used in 1917. All manufacturers of alimentary pastes, biscuits, crackers, pastry and breakfast cereals should reduce their purchases and consumption of wheat and wheat flour to 70 per cent of their 1917 requirements and all bakers of bread and rolls to 80 per cent of their current requirements. Consumers should reduce their purchases of wheat products for home preparation to at most 70 per cent of those of last year or when buying breads from the baker.

"To provide sufficient cereal food, homes, public eating places, hotels and manufacturers should substitute vegetables, corn, barley, oats and rice products of the types which contain an admixture of other cereals. In order that consumption may be restricted to this extent on Mondays and Wednesdays should be observed as wheatless days each week and one meal each day should be observed as a wheatless meal.

"In both homes and public eating places in order to reduce the consumption of beef, pork and sheep products Tuesday should be observed in each week, while in addition Saturday in each week should further be observed as a day upon which there should be no consumption of pork products. A continued economy in the use of sugar will be necessary until later in the year. It is imperative that all waste and unnecessary consumption of all sorts of foodstuffs should be rigidly eliminated.

"Conservation of health and strength of our own people is vitally necessary at this time and there should be no dangerous restriction of the food supply, but the elimination of every sort of waste and the substitution of other or economical supplies for those which we regard to as luxuries will insure the strength of our people and will enable us to meet one of our most pressing obligations of the war.

HOOPER ISSUES RULES FOR FOOD REGULATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The food administration today issued this statement: The following is a summary of the rules that have been formulated by the United States food administration with the approval of the president in order to effect the further conservation in foodstuffs necessary to support the allies and our own armed forces over the next four months. These rules are effective from the morning of Monday, January 28.

TUESDAY MEATLESS

"It is further desired, in order that meat and pork products be conserved, that one meatless day (Tuesday), in every week and one meatless meal in every day be observed, and in addition, two porkless days (Tuesday and Saturday) in every week, be strictly kept. By 'meatless' is meant without hog, cattle or sheep products. On other days, use mutton and lamb in preference to beef or pork. By 'porkless,' is meant without pork, bacon, ham, lard or pork products, fresh or preserved. Use fish, poultry, and eggs.

RESTRICTS USE OF FLOUR

"1. As to their part in reducing the consumption of wheat flour the consumers of the country are called upon in purchasing such flour to buy at the same time an equal weight of the other cereals (corn meal, corn grits, barley flour, rice flour, oatmeal, rolled oats, buckwheat flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soy bean flour and farmaceous flours and meals). The housewives may use these products separately in making bread, cakes, pastry or mix them as she thinks best.

"The retailers are to sell wheat only with an equal weight of these other cereals. URGENT USE OF VICTORY BREAD

"2. Consumers will be able to obtain mixed cereal bread from their bakers, who will be required under the license regulations to mix 5 per cent of other cereals with their wheat flour, both in bread and rolls and will be required gradually to increase this substitution until beginning February 24, a minimum of 20 per cent of such cereals is to be used. The food administration strongly urges on consumers the buying of this bread which will be known as Victory Bread, and will contain less than 20 per cent of cereals other than wheat. Graham or whole wheat bread will also be given this name because containing as they do 25 per cent more of the wheat grain than ordinary white bread, they, too, will serve the purpose of saving wheat.

"If you bake bread at home use wheat substitutes, if you buy it buy only Victory Bread.

"3. Manufacturers of macaroni, spaghetti, noodles, crackers, breakfast foods, pie, cake and pastry are not to purchase to exceed 70 per cent of the wheat flour they used during the corresponding months of 1917. These manufacturers will be performing a patriotic service by using cereals other than wheat in their production.

"4. Individuals will be required under these regulations, not to buy more than 70 per cent of their purchases of flour from retailers, as based on their purchases from the corresponding months of the previous year, and their sales to the retail trade must be in the proportion of one pound of other cereals, this being the same proportion in which the retailer sells to the consumer, unless the wholesaler satisfies himself that the substitutes have been already purchased from another source.

"5. Retailers of flour are to distribute their output through their customers, through retail markets, in a manner that insures two and one-half times the amount of flour that has been reported to produce one pound of flour (150 pounds) from the pounds of wheat that a white flour mill produces from two per cent to ten per cent higher extraction than that of the average.

"6. The quantity of flour in conservation, Monday and Wednesday of each week are to be observed as wheatless days and one meal of each day as a wheatless meal. This applies to both in the home and in the public eating places such as such as—meats, soups, crackers, pastries, macaroni, breakfast foods or other cereals containing wheat should be used. The only exception to this is such small amounts of flour as may be needed for thickening soups or gravies, or as a binder in cornbread or other cereal breads.

TUESDAY MEATLESS

"7. On wheatless days and at wheatless meals the food administrator urges that bread baked in the home be other than wheat bread. Where bread is purchased for use in public eating places or in the home Victory bread should be used, if no wheat substitutes can be found.

SATURDAY PORKLESS

"8. It is further desired, in order that meat and pork products be conserved, that one meatless day (Tuesday), in every week and one meatless meal in every day be observed, and in addition, two porkless days (Tuesday and Saturday) in every week, be strictly kept. By 'meatless' is meant without hog, cattle or sheep products. On other days, use mutton and lamb in preference to beef or pork. By 'porkless,' is meant without pork, bacon, ham, lard or pork products, fresh or preserved. Use fish, poultry, and eggs.

FOR LOCAL SITUATIONS, WHERE EXCEPTIONS ARE NECESSARY, APPLICATION SHOULD BE MADE TO THE STATE FOOD ADMINISTRATOR.

HEAD AND NOSTRILS STUFFED FROM COLD

Don't stay stuffy! Quit blowing and sniffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe, misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs. It promptly opens clogged nostrils and air passages, stops heavy discharge or nose running; relieves sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness. "Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, safest relief known and costs only a few cents of drug money.

TEACHERS ARE CALLED TO ASSIST

Following is a copy of a letter from President Wilson followed with a letter from Provost Marshal General Crowder calling upon the school teachers of the nation to assist the various local exemption boards in the matter of indexing the registrants whose questionnaires are now being returned, and it is very important that they should respond wholeheartedly in this patriotic service:

FROM THE PRESIDENT

"The success of the Selective Service System has been largely due to the reliance that has been placed on the co-operation of all citizens in its execution. In the registration the election officers of the several states were called upon to perform a specific task and they performed it unanimously and efficiently. Latterly, I have had occasion to call the lawyers and the physicians of the country to specific duties and they have responded in a solid rank. The time has now come when the teachers of the country can perform a very necessary task and I have no doubt that they will respond in the same manner.

"The process of classification of all men within the field of selection is proceeding rapidly. It becomes necessary to carry this forward with this process, the making of a very complete index, which shall accurately locate ten millions of our enrollment lists. The local boards are so overburdened with the work of classification that this task cannot be put upon them, and the necessities of the Nation require that it be performed with the greatest possible dispatch and accuracy. This duty can be performed best by the teachers of the various communities. Under authority conferred upon me by the Selective Service Law I therefore call upon all teachers to present themselves to the local boards having jurisdiction over the areas in which they reside, for the purpose of examining the questionnaires and filling out the index cards in accordance with more specific instructions to be issued by the Provost Marshal General.

FROM MARSHAL GENERAL CROWDER

"To the Principals of High Schools in Every County, City and Town Having Local Boards:

"The Nation is entering this war relying on its citizens. Whenever a national task presents itself which can be performed by any class of citizens, the President has called upon that class and, without fail, it has responded effectively and efficiently. The time now comes when there is a definite and a most important task for school teachers. This task can be performed through a systematic organization and not otherwise.

"Every man of draft age is now registering to his Local Board a Questionnaire. Upon these questionnaires all our young men will be classified. An index of this classification is absolutely indispensable. We can not wait until the end of the classification for the first installment of that index because the national need for certain specially skilled men is now so urgent and very urgent.

"The local boards can not be called upon to make this index because they are now working to the limit of their capacity. There is only one class of citizens that can be organized immediately and called at once to this service and that is school teachers.

"The primary district for organization is your jurisdictional area. Under authority granted him by the Selective Service Law, the president now calls upon you to take charge of the work in this area and to see that it is accomplished in accordance with instructions herewith.

FORMER CITIZEN DIES IN SAN AUGUSTINE

News has reached the city that Mr. Durham Goings, a former citizen of this county who has been making his home in San Augustine for some time, died yesterday, and his remains are being brought back to the cemetery at Swift where they will be laid to rest today (Saturday).

Many of the older settlers remember Mr. Goings, and concur in the statement that he was a good man and a good citizen. He has a number of relatives and friends in the county who are made sad with his death.

LOCAL MARKETS ARE ESSENTIAL

Equal Responsibility for Their Support Rests Upon the Farmers and Merchants.

MUST ASSIST EACH OTHER

Prosperity of Community Depends Upon Each of These Two Classes
Buying Products and Goods of Each Other.

(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)
The first essential in the development of any business is the possession of a market. The manufacturer must have a market for his products or he cannot succeed, no matter how valuable these products may be or how efficiently his plant may be operated.
The wholesale merchant and the retail merchant may have the choicest stocks of goods, but they may as well go out of business if they have not a market where they can dispose of their stocks. The farmer may produce bumper crops, but they will rot upon the ground if he cannot find a market for them. The wage earner's skill and muscle bring him no returns unless there is a market for his labor.

The question of markets is the big one in every line of business and in every community—the question is a vital one. In each community, which must be taken to include not only all the people who live in the town but the farmers who live in the surrounding country as well, there are two sides to the market question. The business men of the town must have a market for the things which they have to sell. Otherwise they cannot continue in business. At the same time the farmers must have a market for the things which they raise or they may as well go out of business.

When Either Fails Both Suffer.
The merchants of the town can provide a market for the products of the farmers and the farmers can provide a market for the goods which the merchants have to sell. As long as each class of citizens provides a market for the other class all is well and the goose hangs high, but when either class fails to provide a market for the other the goose is cooked, not only for the class which is deprived of the market but for the other as well.

The farmer has a right to expect the town which is his natural trading point to provide a market for his products, and the town is not performing its proper function as the trading center of its community if it does not see that such a market is provided. The responsibility of looking after the fulfillment of this obligation rests largely upon the merchants of the town. The farmer is a producer and he must dispose of his products before he can become a consumer. It is, therefore, not only right but necessary from a business standpoint that the merchants should aid the farmer in turning his products into money. Otherwise the farmer naturally will have no money to spend in the stores of the town.

Obligation on Farmers.
On the other hand, the merchants of the town have a right to expect the farmers to provide a market for the merchandise which they have to sell, and the farmers are not doing their duty to their community if they do not provide such a market. In this case, also, it is not only right but it is necessary to the prosperity of the farmers that they should aid the merchants in turning their merchandise into cash.
Otherwise it is obvious that the merchants will have no money with which to buy the products of the farmers.

This is a double-barreled proposition and the obligation rests equally upon both the merchants and the farmers to maintain the markets which are essential to both classes of citizens. Any town which would import from points
hundreds of miles distant the farm products which it could buy at home would be pursuing a very short-sighted policy, for it would be making it impossible for the farmers in its territory to buy the goods of its merchants. As a matter of fact no town does this unless it is forced by unusual conditions to do so. A town may be located in a community which is not productive enough to meet the local demands, and in that case it is forced to import farm products but the town which is compelled to do this is at a disadvantage from a commercial standpoint—unless it is essentially a manufacturing town, in which case its products are sold to other communities and bring in enough cash to offset that which is sent away to purchase farm products.

Must Have Outside Business.
In the average community, however,
the town is dependent for its prosperity upon the money received from the farmers in the ordinary channels of trade, rather than upon that obtained from the sale of its own products. In the average town the merchants cannot make money and continue in business if they are dependent solely upon the people of the town for their business.

No business can last long with "er-

there must be an even trade between the business men of the town.

Had the Grip Three Weeks.

With January comes lagrippe.
Lingering colds seem to settle in your system, causing one to ache all over,
feel feverish and chilly, tired, heavy drooping. Mrs. Lizzie Tyles, Hen-

MR. ERNEST HALL DIED AT CHIRENO

From Monday's Daily.
News reached the city yesterday of the death of Mr. Ernest Hall, aged 25, highly respected citizen of Chi-reno, who passed away at the family home at that place last Saturday evening, following an illness with pneumonia.

Deceased had been sick just a week,
and his death came as a surprise to many of his friends over the county.
He leaves one child, about 8 years of age, and several relatives, a number of whom live in our city.

Mr. Hall followed the avocation of farming and was one of our prominent citizens. He was born in this county and had never lived anywhere else, his father being Mr. I. J. Hall, who still lives at Chireno and who survives him.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon, and his body will be laid to rest by the side of his wife who preceded him to the great beyond some few years ago.

The Sentinel extends condolence to the grief-stricken friends and relatives.

ANOTHER CROP THAT IS WORTHY OF NOTE

Mr. A. T. Stallings, a well known citizen and farmer of the county, also tried out the peanut as a commercial crop on his farm last year, and the results proved most satisfactory, bringing a gross income of upward of eighty-three dollars an acre.

From the nine acres Mr. Stallings gathered 323 bushels of peanuts which sold for $574.79. From the same crop he saved hay to the value of $179.00, making the total of $753.79.
The Sentinel did not get the data first-hand from Mr. Stallings, and we are therefore not advised as to the approximate cost of producing the crop, or the character of land on which it was produced. But from a general knowledge of agricultural conditions as they obtain and apply in this section we are safe to assume that he did not have to give them more than two or three cultivations—much less than cotton—and figured thus the returns are better than the country is enjoying in the cotton crop at the present inflated prices.

COURT HOUSE MARRIAGE

From Friday's Daily.
Mr. Eunice Bender and Mrs. Pearl Roshto were married at the court house last evening, Esquire Frank Hudson officiating.

The bride has been making her home in this community the past few years, and the bridegroom has been residing here the past eleven years, being engaged as a fireman at the light plant for some time. Both parties are well known to many people of the city enjoying a wide circle of friends with whom The Sentinel joins in congratulations and good wishes.

Preparedness applies to the human body as well as to nations. A bot-

The many friends of Hon. Beeman Strong will be pleased to learn that he will be able to be out again within the next day or two, after suffering an attack of pneumonia, which has previously been reported in this paper. The disease was broken the early part of last week, but his physician is having him remain close in until he thoroughly recovers. Mr.
Strong says he did not know how many friends he had, and how comforting they could be to him, until he got sick.

"CASCARETS" WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach,
Sluggish Liver and Bowels—
Take Cascarets tonight.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Yellow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with unassimilated food, which causes and ferments the gas in a swell barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad-breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Ellington hurried to Garrison yesterday afternoon in response to a message announcing the sudden death of Dr. Ellington's father. Dr. Ellington had been confined to his bed a day or two with an attack of la grippe, but with the shock of the sad news he discarded all feeling of personal comfort and went to comfort his sainted old mother in her great hour of grief, which is also shared by him.

Mr. W. S. Satterwhite, a prominent citizen of Cushing, was an arrival to the city yesterday afternoon, and has been spending today in the city. In conversation with the Sentinel editor,
Mr. Satterwhite related a sad incident that happened to a family residing on his farm this year. The family consisted of four members, Mr.
W. F. Mays, his wife, son and daughter. After a few days illness the son died and was buried on the first Sunday in December, and last Tuesday the father was buried, leaving the wife and daughter alone.

"Who Will Win This Battle?"

Your kidneys are the filters of the body. If they become inactive and fail to eliminate the waste matter, they are apt to throw the whole mechanism of the body out of order, thus toxic poisons can accumulate in the system and be as deadly as snake venom.

Besides causing the minor ailments of rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago and backache, neglect of the kidneys is apt to develop into more serious diseases,
such as diabetes or stone in the bladder.

Rid the body of toxic poisons—clean the bladder, and kidneys and cure the twinges of Rheumatism with Anurid and you win the battle of life.

Anurid was first discovered by Dr.
Pierce, and has benefited thousands of sufferers as well as appeased and eliminated the ravages of the more serious kidney diseases. Now procurable for 60 cents at any good drug store, or send Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for trial package.

SEAGOVILLE, TEXAS.—I wish to state to the community that I have rheumatism that I am 45 years old and have had rheumatism most all my life. In executing my duties as a peace officer of this state in the winter of 1916, I was exposed to some very bad weather, which brought on a very severe attack. In fact, it was so bad that I could not ride horseback, and I was confined to my bed for several weeks. I then began a search for a permanent cure, which I did not find until I learned of Doctor Pierce's Anurid Tablets. I began taking them about 10 months ago and am satisfied beyond any doubt.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY

Diboll today to visit Mrs. Hunter's sister, Mrs. Mary Killion.

Mrs. Bernard Fort came in Saturday night from Apple Springs community on a visit to her parents, Mr.
and Mrs. P. J. Gee.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Gee, left Satur-

who have been visiting the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Tindall, in the Alazan community, left this morning for their home in Kellys.

The body of Thos. J. Long arrived here yesterday from San Pedro, California, and was conveyed to Trawick for interment. Mr. Long had been in some branch of the military service at Fort McArthur up to the time of his death. The Sentinel was unable to obtain further information regarding the death of the young man up to the hour of going to press this afternoon.

Hon. Ford Clevenger went to Lufkin today to look after his household goods which he recently shipped there.
Mr. Clevenger expects to move his family to Lufkin in about ten days, having had to rearrange his plans because of the sudden sickness of his baby. Nacogdoches people regret having to give up this good family as Mr. Clevenger is one of our home raised boys and gives promise to a brilliant career in his chosen profession.
However, they recommend him and his family to the sister town in both a social and business way and wish him every success in his new field.

Our good friend, Mr. John N. Lucas, of Sacul, sends a check to the Daily Sentinel which runs his subscription up to 1920. Mr. Lucas has always been punctual with his annual remittance, and doubtless sends the extra year this time to help his little daily carry the load of burdens that have come to us with the war,
and we greatly appreciate the friendship of such men.

Beginning February 4th the Department of Agriculture will conduct a two days campaign of education in this county in which it is hoped to arouse the farmers to the importance of growing more feedstuffs and foodstuffs with the next crop. Mr. Greer is working a program for the campaign, which will be published later.

The Beaumont Enterprise in its issue of yesterday carried a mighty pretty writeup of Nacogdoches which was prepared by Mr. Louis P. Head on the occasion of his visit to the city last week. Mr. Head is preparing a still more extended writeup of the town which will be illustrated with pictures he secured while here. The good voluntary service will be worth much to the city and county in an advertising way, and our people will appreciate it.

A headline in one of the morning papers announces that "War Secretary Baker's Story of Nation's Preparation for its Task Amazes Senators." A reading of the document certainly furnishes more news than we are used to receiving, and brings the idea that if the public had been better posted the big political row which has recently been engaging attention might have been avoided. There are many people who do not yet appreciate the seriousness of the task we have on our hands, and for that reason do not enter into that spirit of cooperation and sympathy that is necessary to carry on all the enterprises of war.

The time in which to pay poll tax and preserve franchise at the ballot box is rapidly drawing to a close, and if you have not attended to this important duty you owe to yourself and your country, you should go at once and discharge the obligation.

The weather bureau reports another "norther" on the way, with temperature ranging from six to eighteen degrees, but with the increasing amount of cold weather we have had this winter we are "used" to it and can stand it so long as we do not forget to turn off the water and save the pipes.

The campaign being inaugurated to encourage people to grow more feedstuffs and foodstuffs is one that should engage the serious attention of the people of the country. The time is fast approaching when we must raise it if we have it, and with the opportunities we have in this glorious section we should raise some to spare for our neighbors and the soldiers who are fighting our battles.

COUNTY AGENT GREER APPEALS FOR HELP

Editor Sentinel: Will you allow me a small space for the purpose of making a call for help for our government, for the purpose of making a call for every loyal man woman and child to help in the food production and food conservation campaign which the United States government is putting on in every community in the United States?

For the past few days I have been receiving letters—some special delivery, telephone messages and telegrams urging me to try to secure the volunteer help of every man, woman and child that can talk at all to help me in the food production and food conservation campaign that will be put on next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and Friday.

The government is begging the south to feed itself. The report shows the world's greatest food shortage in modern history. We are 700,000,000 bushels short on wheat in the United States.

We are correspondingly short on other grains. We are seven million head of hogs short of this date last year. Butter fats are correspondingly short. This report does not give the amount of these crops grown but the amounts now on hand and that is the data that interests us.

The report gives the price of eggs in Germany at 11 cents per egg, or $1.32 per dozen; sugar is selling at 56 cents per pound; good steak $1.50 per pound. The report also shows 40 per cent of Europe's fine dairy cattle butchered for beef, which sold for from $400.00 to $1,000.00 per head before the war.

We are made to wonder how long we can have plenty at home with the hungry world so near us.

With all this shortage the government has only asked the south to feed herself. What a reasonable task!

Of course we farmers will be expected to feed our business men and replace the amount of flour, sugar, coffee, spices and other imported foods with some kind of food or feed stuff for human beings or livestock. The man who grows all cotton will likely get only a part of it moved by the rail roads and is very likely to have all flour, sugar, coffee and other food supplies cut off.

The government had to take charge of the railroads in order to relieve as much as possible the freight congestion; the necessity of moving our armies and their supplies and the actual necessities of life at home.

Think of the large number of live stock which starved to death in Texas in the last few months, because the railroads could not get food to them in time to save them. For this same reason our government will be unable to haul any large amount of feed from the north to us, even if there should be plenty.

It will take about nine tons per year for each soldier sent to the battle front in Europe and we are planning to have at least one and one-half million men in the trenches soon. With the great shortage of food and with the government burden of moving such an enormous amount of tonnage, we people of the south are urged to at once get busy and do our part in this great crisis.

For my part I believe we will. The County Agent of Van Zandt county recently got enough help to hold 156 meetings in one day. I hope their mark is not too high for us.

Jas. D. Greer,
County Agent.

PEANUT DEALERS MUST REGISTER

All firms and dealers importing, manufacturing, storing and distributing peanuts, including raw peanuts and its products, as feed, must be licensed by February 15 and have been so notified by Administrator Peden. This step has been found necessary because of the number of complaints received by the federal food administration of Texas that certain oil mills and dealers throughout the state are speculating in and hoarding peanuts, thus keeping them from being crushed promptly and seeking to force the market price to higher levels.

Administrator Peden has been advised by the enforcement division of the United States food administration at Washington that peanuts and peanut products, being a food and feed stuff, are under the hearing and penal provisions of the law.

By the president's proclamation of January 10, all those importing, manufacturing, storing and distributing peanuts, including raw peanuts and its products, as feed, must be licensed with regard to obtaining such license should be addressed to the United States food administration, law department, license division, Washington, D. C. Those who can not show a clean record as to their previous difficulty in securing a license.

Peanut meal and peanut oil are already subject to license. Sales of peanuts by one mill to another will be considered as a sale within the trade and special permit for such resale will only be granted when the facts in the case appear to justify.

FOOD PRODUCTION MEETING TO BE HELD

A campaign is being inaugurated here the purpose of conducting a series of meetings over the county to encourage, during this year, a larger production of food supplies. To this end speakers will visit all school and church houses in an effort to line up every man woman and child to do his bit toward the raising of food stuffs, this applying to town people as well as our farmer citizenship.

In connection with this movement, Mr. J. R. Edmunds of the government extension department, will visit this city next Wednesday, February 6th, and at 10:00 o'clock a. m. will deliver an address on the movement to which meeting it is hoped every person in Nacogdoches and surrounding territory will be in attendance.

As many of our citizens who can take a part in the movement will be asked to volunteer in the work of pushing this campaign, this including men, women and children.

At this meeting Mr. Edmunds will explain the purposes of the campaign and give all the data for the pushing of same, and as he is a very able speaker no doubt a large crowd will hear him.

While in the county he will also visit the following towns; Martinsville, Wednesday, 2:00 p. m., Appleby, Thursday, 10:00 a. m., Garrison, Thursday, 1:00 p. m.

Remember this war is the survival of the fittest, and your dollars will make our Army and Navy the fittest.

He bore his sufferings with cheerfulness and christian fortitude. He was laid to rest in Bethel cemetery Jan. 16th in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives.

Mr. Skeeters was a member of the Baptist church, in which he lived a consecrated christian life.

FOR COMMISSIONER.

Nacogdoches, Texas, January 30, 1918 To the Democratic Voters of Precinct No. 1:

I am hereby offering my name as a candidate for county-commissioner of precinct No. 1, and if I should be honored with this office, I beg to assure each of you that I will fill the office to the best of my ability and feel sure when I say that no one will regret having supported me.

I am a poor man and have worked for a living all of my life. I would be glad if I could see all of the voters, and will see as many as possible, but being a farmer, it will take all of my time about, to make a crop and therefore it may not be my privilege to see each of you.

I am experienced in road building and also bridge work. I invite you to investigate my work along this line, and then if you think I am competent and can do the work, I would appreciate your support. I have lived in this county for thirty-seven years, save about four years, and have lived in the Harmony community all of the time.

I would ask that you search my record and then if you think I am worthy, would appreciate your vote and support. Thanking you in advance for your support, I submit my name for your consideration.

Yours respectfully,
R. S. SHOEMAKE.

FOR COUNTY CLERK.

To the Voters of Nacogdoches County:

I made the race for county clerk four years ago. I was second in the race, being defeated by Mr. W. T. Orton. Though defeated, I received a vote which I was proud of. Since then I have continued to improve myself for useful citizenship as best I could. I again come to you asking for the office of county clerk and earnestly and sincerely solicit your influence and support in my race. Should you see fit to elect me, I'll show my appreciation by giving you the best service that is in my power. I remain as ever.

Yours truly,
WHIT B. MARTIN.

NEWS FROM WODEN.

Special to The Sentinel. WODEN, Texas, Jan. 28, 1918.—Measles still prevail throughout the community, but most of us are able to withstand the attack. Among those who contracted pneumonia after measles are Mr. Pitt Hill's family, who have been very ill, but we think they are recovering now. Mrs. G. M. Hallie is also getting able to be up again.

The Woden school has added twenty-five dollars worth of books to its agriculture library, some of which have been received. The course in plant production as offered in the agriculture department is proving to be popular, and valuable in the school. We are expecting some good results from this bunch of students, who are taking the course.

The literary society has discontinued its activities for a while on account of many of the members being unable to attend.

The attendance in school has been very low since Christmas, due to sickness. Prof. Hale and Miss Yates have both been unable to teach. We shall be glad to have them back again soon.

We are expecting Mr. R. G. Bressler, Assistant Director of Agriculture, of Texas, to assist Mr. Shoults in perfecting his plans for the first year's work in vocational agriculture.

DIED AT MAHL.

At 2:00 o'clock a. m., Monday, January 27, 1918, the death angel visited the home of our friends Mr. and Thos. Bessert, at Mahl, and claimed for its victim their only daughter, Tommie, who was an unusual and lovable child; always cheerful and pleasant, and who had a great host of friends.

She was a native of Louisiana, and was but nine years of age. All was done for her that loving care and the best medical skill could do, but all in vain; and sister's work is done. She completed the task assigned her and has passed beyond into the great unknown.

We wish to say: "Well done, good and faithful servant," maye thou partake of the joys which have been prepared for the righteous from the beginning of the world.

To those of her immediate relatives and friends who are most heart-stricken at the loss they have sustained we can only say we sincerely sympathize with them in their bereavement. "It is appointed unto all people to die, and after death cometh the resurrection."

Then let us improve this solemn warning; for we know not the hour in which our call may come. So let us be at all times in readiness to meet the Saviour and little Tommie if our call should be next.

The remains were laid to rest in North Church Cemetery, Rev. C. G. Freeman officiating, using as his text 1st Corinthians 1st to 19th.

May God's richest blessings rest upon the father and mother of this home as our prayer.

C. G. FREEMAN.

TOM KINSEY TAKES OVER THE COX STORE

Mr. Thos. J. Kinsey, a well known tailor who has been operating his shop and tailoring business in the house next door to the Childress barber shop, has purchased the gent's furnishing goods-store and business of Zeno Cox, Jr., further down the same street, and is moving his business to the new stand, consolidating the two.

In speaking of the change and his removal to larger quarters, Mr. Kinsey said that the growth of his business demanded larger quarters—more floor space, larger stocks, etc., which he would obtain with the new arrangement. In the new location Mr. Kinsey will conduct his cleaning and pressing business in a building in the rear, which he gets with the Cox store, and that in the front he will conduct a store that will be modern in every respect, carrying a complete line of clothing, furnishings, shoes and hats for men and boys.

Mr. Kinsey is a good business man, in every way capable of handling the good increase in the volume of his business, and he has many friends over the country who will rejoice with him in his good growth in a business way.

In retiring, Mr. Cox says that he will continue to remain a citizen of Nacogdoches, but has not yet settled in his mind what line of business he will pursue. He, too, is a good business man as well as one of our most progressive citizens, and has many friends who will be pleased with the information that he will remain a citizen of the city.

Mr. J. W. Holland of Lufkin who has been here to attend the bedside of his daughter, Miss Netta who is a patient in Smith's Hospital, mention of which was made in yesterday's issue, returned home today. The condition of the young lady this morning was reported as much better.

The remains of the old gentleman will be tenderly laid to rest in the Tabbe graveyard today.

Mr. Castleberry was about seventy-seven years of age, and has long served the cause of his Master as a Primitive Baptist minister. He has been in failing health for some time, and death relieves him of a great load of suffering, at the same time giving him entry into the refuge of peace and rest he has long held up to others. He came to Texas from Georgia in 1859, and is therefore what might be termed one of the early or pioneer settlers of the county, and it can be said to his credit that he was a good citizen, doing his part for the moral, spiritual and material uplift of his country.

Mr. Castleberry is survived by his widow and a large family of sons and daughters, with whom a large circle of friends will enter into profound sympathy.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon and her tenement of clay laid to rest in the silent city of dead at Swift. Words of comfort and sympathy are extended to those of her relatives who are left to mourn.

SPRADLEY-GRIMES.

Yesterday evening at 7 o'clock at the Baptist Parsonage on North street, Rev. C. A. Westbrook performing the ceremony, Mr. Jim Grimes and Miss Lillian Spradley were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

This wedding culminates a courtship of long standing which had its beginning while Mr. Grimes was a resident of our fair city, and before he enlisted in the service of the country's cause.

The bride is one of our fairest and sweetest daughters. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spradley, are among the county's most progressive and highly respected citizens, coming from a lineage that represents the oldest and best of Nacogdoches county's families. Her sweet disposition and many winsome ways has won for her a host of friends and admirers.

Mr. Grimes is a progressive young man of sterling worth and excellent character. Several months ago he answered to the call of the colors and was assigned to company "A" 360 infantry, at Camp Travis, San Antonio, where he is now located, doing service for his country. ### HEAVY MOVEMENT OF PEANUTS ON

The last week or so has found a heavy movement of the peanut crop of last year, many wagon loads having been sold on the streets of the city and stored here, or shipped to other markets.

One firm in the city, so we understand, paid out over $4,000.00 in one day for peanuts brought to town by the growers, and at the store room located across the track from the N. & S. E. depot a group of wagons backed up the street almost to the square waiting to be unloaded. The movement put into circulation during these days several thousand dollars. The market price today is $1.75 per bushel.

At the meeting last night a large class received the degrees, and after the business of the evening a social hour was spent during which time refreshments were served to all present. The Nacogdoches hive reports much upbuilding as the result of Lady Botzler's visit.

CONSIDERABLE CHANGE IN MILITARY DRAFT

Washington, Jan. 29.—New provisions of the draft law to bring in young men as fast as they become 21 were passed today by the senate military committee with the following changes: General Crowder explaining them: Another proposed amendment supported by the war department, would discharge men as fast as they become 31 if they have not been inducted into the military service.

In future operations of the draft law, General Crowder explained, a new drawing would be held, under the new classifications in order to fix individual liability.

"We would exhaust class 1," he said, "before calling on other classes. I hope we will not have to call any class except class 1. If you pass the resolution to enroll men becoming 21 we will be assured, almost, of not having to go out of class 1. If class 1 in any community became exhausted, according to its quota, we would call on all other men of class 1, in other communities before calling men of lower classes in the first community."

General Crowder opposed plan recommended by Secretary Baker exempting men becoming 31 without being drafted.

If the amendments for registration of those attaining 21 years are accepted, General Crowder estimated there would be 2,000,000 in class 1 available for the draft. Of the new young men required to register upon attaining 21, General Crowder said about 75 per cent would come under the highest classification.

The new registration, according to General Crowder, will not be nearly so great a task as the first, because the registration machinery is provided and working well.

Regarding another bill for assignment of men specially skilled in industry, General Crowder stated that a census of registered men, detailing their peculiar qualifications should be completed by February 15, when the government would know just how many carpenters, plumbers or other special artisans are available. Although military and not industrial drafting is now authorized, General Crowder said the special detail bill would facilitate assignment of men in the service to places where their qualifications may be best used.

FORT WORTH AIR INSTRUCTORS IN CRASH

The two machines ran into a cloud bank and collided, while hidden from view. The occupants crashed 200 feet to the earth.

Today MacDonald and Cadet W. J. King are dead, while Hickey is believed to be dying. Cadet Simpson was seriously injured, but may recover.

ITALIANS STRIKE THE ENEMY A TELLING BLOW.

London, Jan. 30, 12:48 a. m.—Another hostile air raid over Eastern England began at 9:30 o'clock last night, and up to the present hour is still in progress, according to an official communication—just issued. None of the enemy machines has yet been able to penetrate the London defense, although there are reports that bombs have been dropped in the outskirts of the city.

The communication says: "Hostile airplanes crossed the coast of Essex and Kent about 9:30 p. m. Some machines have attempted to penetrate into London about an hour later."

"Up to the present none of them has succeeded in penetrating the London defenses. Some bombs are reported as having been dropped in the outskirts."

"The raid still is in progress."

SPECIAL SESSION LATE IN FEBRUARY

Austin, Jan. 28.—A special session of the legislature, in the event that Governor Hobby decides one is necessary, after he has examined recommendations of the legislative investigating committee, will not be called to meet until the latter part of February, at the earliest.

The governor, it is learned, takes the position that members of the legislature should have three or four weeks time to familiarize themselves with the subjects to be taken up, before convening.

A decision as to whether to call a special session is expected to be reached by the governor during this week.

AGREEMENT REACHED IN LABOR DISPUTES

An official dispatch from Washington Wednesday morning stated that an agreement has been reached by the department of labor with the operators and workers in the oil and gas fields of Texas and Louisiana for the adjustment of all disputes during the war by arbitration.

This agreement was reached after many lengthy conferences attended by a number of operators and from the coastal field and representatives of organized labor. None of the operators or union representatives have yet returned from Washington.

Secretary of Labor Wilson as chairman of the president's mediation commission, announced Wednesday that impartial arbitrators had been chosen. The arbitrators will be Judge F. C. Proctor of Houston, the United States district judge of the Southern District of Texas (the position is soon to be filled) and a labor member to be appointed by Secretary Wilson. This action has assured for a war industry producing 3,000,000 barrels of oil per month conditions which will make for uninterrupted maximum output during the present emergency.

The agreement also provides for preference of employment for men who went on strike and are now available for reemployment and contains provisions against any discrimination against members because of their union affiliation. Both sides have been in conference with the commission in Washington for the last ten days and the terms of the agreement resulted from mutual concessions.

Judge Proctor is general counsel for the Gulf Pipe Line Company and affiliated companies. He was appointed to represent the operators.

GOVERNMENT LICENSES ALL SEED DEALERS

The most extensive proclamation yet issued by President Wilson, with the one exception of the proclamation of August 10, which licensed all dealers and firms engaged in the wholesale handling and selling of the 29 food staples needed by the government to make possible the winning of the war, is the proclamation applying the same supervision of the federal government upon all seeds, oil bearing and feed, grains, tankage and forth, not included as food and feed in the proclamation of August 10. The rules and regulations governing the seeds and grains in the proclamation of January 10, become effective on February 15 and affect firms and businesses in Texas upwards in the millions.

Through some strange miscarriage of the mail or breaking down of wires, the proclamation of January 10 failed to reach Texas; and it was not until Tuesday that Administrator Peden received the document confirming a long series of inquiries asking for information as to the application of the law. Not only do the rules and regulations effective February 15 apply to the seeds and grains set forth in the proclamation, but all of the by-products.

While no prices on these seeds or grains are fixed by the administration, dealers operating in them come under exactly the same regulations as wholesale grocers, retail grocers doing $100,000 or more of business a year, cotton seed oil mills, and so forth.

RANGERS REPORTED KILLED IN BATTLE

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 29.—Reports reaching here from the Big Bend country today told of a battle between armed and fortified slackers and Texas rangers. The reports declared that several rangers had attacked the slackers in their lair among the crags and peaks of the canyon at an early hour and the battle lasted for some time. The name of one of the slackers, the one killed, was the same as that reported here more than one month ago when the location of the hostile resistors of the draft law was first made public.

At that time it was said that five slackers of the Big Bend country had armed themselves in a canyon in the Van Horn country and had sworn they would fight to death before registering or enlisting. These slackers left their homes before June 5, 1917, and have not returned. The former report reaching here was that they kept in touch with the world through Mexicans who bought their food and supplied them with ammunition.

That the rangers discovered the cave of these slackers two months ago is known here. Also it was known that a determined effort was to be made to capture them.

BRICK CHURCH FOR HEMPHILL.

HEMPHILL, Jan. 29.—At the services now being held by Evangelist Abe Mulkey, assisting Rev. J. Harvey Carlin, the Methodist people and their friends Sunday evening raised $6000 on a $10,000 brick church, to be located on the site where the old church now stands. These people are enthusiastic over the new project, and will construct one of the most modern brick edifices in East Texas. Hemphill is a most thriving and prosperous little town, surrounded by a beautiful forest of virgin pines. Good roads, fine churches, Sabine county is coming to the front.

HOPBY IS TO HAVE TWO HEADQUARTERS IN CAMPAIGN

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 29.—An aggressive campaign is to be waged by Governor Hopby for election at the July primaries, and it may be said that there will be two district headquarters, one at Dallas and the other at Houston.

There will also be established headquarters at El Paso, Beaumont and several other Texas towns.

The governor plans as the campaign progresses to make a number of speeches in behalf of his candidacy. Just when he will take the stump has not as yet been indicated.

The Vierra Hawaiian Singers who have been occupying the boards at the Queen Theatre in a successful tour to this city left today for Diboll where they will fill an engagement tonight.

Rev. Dr. Leo R. Scarborough, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, and Dr. J. L. Gross, Baptist State Enrollment Secretary, with headquarters at Dallas, are in the city today in attendance upon the educational meeting in progress at the First Baptist church here today.

Miss Catherine Alders, aged 83 years and 6 days, passed away at her home in Woden last Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, p. m.

Miss Alders was the daughter of the late Thos. and Lucy Alders of Woden, both of whom preceded her to the better land many years ago.

Her remains were laid to rest in the family burying grounds at Woden, last Friday, where a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives gathered to pay their last respects to this good woman.

The Sentinel extends its expression of sympathy to bereaved relatives and friends.

FROM CAMP TRAVIS.

(Division of Publicity)

Private Clarence Matthews has been detailed to attend a Division School for drivers. No doubt he will make a good teamster with his previous experience and the training he has received.

Private Buidie Norris of Co. C, 354th Machine Gun Battalion, is on special duty at target range, and says he likes the job very much.

Private Ira L. Pack, Private Jas. H. Lilly and Corporal Robt. L. Bledsoe have been transferred to the 25th Engineers, Bivens, Mass.

Private Lee Fenton has returned to duty from a fourteen-days furlough.

Private Luther G. Hilliard has returned to his company from the hospital, where he was treated for a case of pneumonia, and reports that he received the best of care.

The health of the Nacogdoches boys seems to be good.

Private William O. Alvis, formerly of Etoile, who has for the past three months been serving with Battery D, 344th Field Artillery, at Camp Travis, Texas, has been transferred to the Quartermaster Corps branch of the service, stationed at Camp Merritt, New Jersey. Private Allen has been a faithful servant for his country, and when the call came for men in the branch to which he has been transferred came, he was picked from among his companions and brother-soldiers as qualified to fill the same.

Among the features to be found at Camp Travis to give to the men opportunity for relaxation and self-improvement during the hours when they are "on their own," as the British say, is a substantial, conveniently located and well lighted library building, in charge of the American Library Association, under the auspices of the War Department's Commission on Training Camp Activities. The building is an attractive structure located near the camp post office, Y. M. C. A. auditorium and the Y. W. C. A. hostess house. It now contains more than 15,000 volumes, many of them fresh from the publishers, and a large number of them given by generous donors individually.

Prefers Chamberlain's.

"In the course of a conversation with Chamberlain Medicine Co.'s representative today, we had occasion to discuss in a general way the merits of their different preparations. At his suggestion I take pleasure in expressing my estimation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have a family of six children and have used this remedy in my home for years. I consider it the only cough remedy on the market, as I have tried nearly all kinds."—Earl C. Ross, Publisher Hamilton County Republican-News, Syracuse, Kan. dw

FINISHED INSPECTION OF RURAL SCHOOLS

State rural school inspector, Mr. L. L. Pugh, completed the work of inspection of rural schools in the county Thursday.

In the inspection all of the schools showed up in good shape with the exception of toilets which have not as yet been installed. The work of installing toilets has been placed with contractors who have been busy in other counties at the same work and will be finished just as soon as they can arrive and begin the work.

This is a splendid endorsement for Nacogdoches county and one which all of our citizens have good cause to rejoice in. May the good work continue.

MYSTERIOUS VISITOR TAKES HIS LEAVE

George Steele, who, it will be remembered, was taken up by City Marshal Woodlan and other officers here some weeks ago, who found him in the suburbs of the city in an unconscious condition, and upon investigation found a nice little sum of money sewed up in his clothes, was released from further restraint in so far as the officers were concerned, last week and allowed to proceed to Shreveport.

Having no cause of action for a criminal action against the party, the officers did not attempt to confine Mr. Steele. To the contrary they allowed him to use a bed in the court house, provided him with medical attention and care, but in the meantime held him under surveillance.

In explaining his condition and the peculiar circumstances under which he was found, Mr. Steele explained that he was taken sick on his trip and got

Soon Over His Cold.

Everyone speaks well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. George Lewis, Pittsfield, N. ARRANGING DETAILS THRIFT CAMPAIGN

The Sentinel is informed that all three banks of the city are now handling thrift stamps and war-savings certificates in connection with the post-office and carriers, and will all combine forces in pushing the sale. Arrangements will also be made for some of the stores where they will be more convenient to handle them, fuller announcement of which will be made later.

The Sentinel is glad to note that the people of the city and county are waking up to the beauties of the proposition as an investment, and are responding more patriotically to the call of their government.

The thrift stamps and war-savings certificate serve a three-fold purpose—encouraging the citizenship in the art of saving; the first step to accumulation; the returns in interest which grow while your money is invested with it, and the patriotic response which all are due to their country in its hour of need.

The stamps and certificates are guaranteed by the same government that guarantees the value of the money you possess, and are therefore as secure as the currency itself with the added advantage of its interest-bearing feature. Last, but by no means least they are issued in small denominations to the end every citizen, no matter how humble, may have a part and become one of the bondholders of the government.

Avoid irregularity in the bowel movements; it leads to chronic constipation; a condition that poisons the blood and breeds disease. Prickly Ash Bitters restores regularity and puts the system in order. Price $1.25 per bottle. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

SUGARLESS AND EGGLESS DAYS

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—In addition to present meatless, wheatless and porkless days the people soon will be compelled to observe sugarless, eggless and other "less" meals, according to Harry A. Wheeler, federal food administrator for Illinois.

"Announcement will be made from Washington as soon as plans are completed," Mr. Wheeler said.

Mr. Wheeler said the new order probably would not be applied to households but its observance by hotels and restaurants would likely be made compulsory.

Her Trouble is Gone.

Mrs. Thomas H. STATE CAMPAIGN IS INAUGURATED

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 23.—Governor Hobby today appointed B. F. Johnson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Wichita Falls, to be manager of a statewide campaign to be conducted during the next four months, to stimulate the production of more food and feed in Texas during 1918 than ever before.

Headquarters are to be established in the capitol at once, in the governor's private reception room.

Among the organizations that have signified their intention to co-operate in the campaign are the commercial organizations of Austin, Wichita Falls and Gainesville, and the Federal Reserve Bank, the land bank, A. and M. College, the University of Texas, Texas Industrial Congress, and state warehouse department.

For the ailments common among women, such as sick headache, backache, heartburn, nervous, weakness and constipation, Prickly Ash Bitters is a splendid remedy. It purifies the bowels, tones the stomach, clears the complexion, sweetens the breath, restores energy and cheerfulness. Price $1.25 per bottle. Stripling, Haselwood & Co., Special Agents.

SOLDIER GRAD FOR RED CROSS SWEATER

Private Thos. E. Rhodes of the Base Hospital at Camp Travis, San Antonio, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. S. E. Rhodes, at Attyac, left today to resume work in his command.

Mr. Rhodes was wearing a sweater to which he called the attention of the Sentinel reporter, stating that it was a "Santa Claus" gift to him; coming with a Red Cross shipment of packages to be disbursed among the boys at Camp Travis. Some of the boys, he said received sweaters in their packages, some home-made socks, and others various other articles of clothing, and included with the clothing was a safety razor in each package.

The package Mr. Rhodes received contained the address of a lady at Clarksville, Texas, and Mr. Rhodes was indeed proud of the gift.

Speaking of the Red Cross, he said: "I see all of you are members, and I am glad of that. One does not know," he continued "how to appreciate that great organization until they come in contact with its work like we soldier boys do."

This leads the reporter to say let's have more Red Cross.

FOR CONSTABLE.

The Sentinel is authorized to announce Wade Walters as a candidate for Constable of Precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the forthcoming democratic primaries.

Mr. Walters has lived in the county all his life, and in this city for a number of years, and is well known to the voters of the precinct. He has served as deputy city marshal for the past several years, through which he has helped preserve the order of the community, and through which he has gained much experience which would be valuable to him in the discharge of the duties of the position he now seeks.

With these remarks The Sentinel submits the candidacy of Mr. Walters, believing that he would do all in his power to make the community a good officer if elected.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop using dangerous drug before it salivates you! It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

CAPT. M'CONNICO IN HONORABLE DISCHARGE

Lufkin News.

The many friends in Lufkin and throughout East Texas will be pained and grieved to learn that news has reached this city from Fort Worth to the effect that Captain C. M. McConico has become so broken in health that higher army officials did not regard it prudent to keep him at the head of Company D and have given him an honorable discharge. The report as circulated here is to the effect, also, that Captain and Mrs. McConico have gone to Rochester, Minnesota, where the captain will be under the treatment of the Mayo Brothers, noted specialists of that city. For several months Captain McConico has gradually grown worse with a stomach affection, and after an operation at Camp Bowie some time ago no relief has been forthcoming.

Columns could be written about Captain McConico without telling all of the good points in his life and character. But readers of The News know him, many of them from childhood, and should this paper devote unlimited space in praise of good acts in the past it would be but repeating what our readers already know.

Early last spring when the State was calling for volunteers in the great war with Germany, Captain McConico was one of the first men to lay aside his personal interests and apply for a commission as captain to organize a company. This was readily granted, and in a remarkably short time he had recruited a company of 270 volunteers. His ability as a recruiting officer immediately attracted the attention of Colonel John S. Hoover and he was immediately pressed into service in recruiting other companies.

Captain McConico left Lufkin with his company for Camp Bowie the latter part of September, and reports coming from there since that time indicate that he was one of the most efficient and highly respected commanding officers of the entire camp. Now that his health has failed him, and he has been forced to retire with an honorable discharge, his many friends will join The News in wishing for him a speedy recovery and an early return to his home and friends in Lufkin.

Dear Sir:—You ask me how I was pleased with my Delco Light Plant. Will say that I am highly pleased with it. It makes so fine light—the very best. Simple in operation and the cost of running expenses is practically nothing compared with the service it gives. I have run my lights, fans and iron for 5 days and nights on one charge of the batteries without running the engine, with good lights and I could have run a week. Anyone will make no mistake when they buy the Delco Light. I would not take twice what my plant cost me if I couldn't get another like it. You can use my name for reference.

Yours very truly, I. E. ROBERTS, Tax Assessor.

When a woman uses Cottolene in her cake in place of butter, she adds economy, without leaving out richness and wholesomeness.

Use your own recipes for cakes, pastry, biscuits, muffins. But remember: Use one-third less of Cottolene than of butter because Cottolene is richer; it contains no water or salt.

RECIPE

Chocolate Nut Cake

- 1/2 cup Cottolene
- 2 cups sugar
- 4 eggs
- 1 cup milk
- 2 1/2 cups flour
- 3 level teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 squares chocolate melted
- 1/2 cup English walnuts broken in pieces

Cream Cottolene, add gradually one cup sugar, stirring constantly. Beat egg yolks thick and light, add gradually remaining cup sugar. Combine mixture, adding melted chocolate. Sift together flour, baking powder and nutmeat. Mix first mixture alternately with milk. Add nutmeat and vanilla. Lastly fold in stiffly beaten whites. Bake in well greased tube pan for 45 minutes in moderate oven. Finish with boiled frosting.

FOR COUNTY CLERK.

The Sentinel is authorized to announce Mr. John Perkins as a candidate for County Clerk of Nacogdoches county, subject to the action of the forthcoming democratic primaries. In placing his announcement Mr. Perkins says that he will make the race solely on his own merits and fitness for the position, and that he enters the race on his own initiative. Mr. Perkins has been a citizen of Nacogdoches the past twenty-three years, during which time he has been engaged in the drug business, and he well known to many of the voters of the county. He is an upright, obliging, courteous gentleman, in every way capable to perform the duties of the most responsible position, and if elected would make the county a worthy public servant.

Mr. Perkins will follow this notice with a letter under his own signature, in which he will press his claims for the position, and tell you what he is for.

INJUNCTION GRANTED AGAINST J. O. RAY

Restrained From Collecting for Deliveries of Intoxicating Liquors.

An injunction has been granted by District Judge L. D. Guinn restraining J. O. Ray of this city from collecting for deliveries of whiskey to people in Nacogdoches county, as a representative of J. E. McAdams, a liquor dealer, until district court convenes in this city, when we assume the injunction will be heard as to its merits for permanent restraint.

The petition was filed by County Attorney Langston King, and alleges in substance that the defendant maintains an office in the city of Nacogdoches, near the office of the Wells-Fargo Express Company; he represents himself to be a collector while in truth and fact he is the direct agent of J. E. McAdams; that he has recently been known to have as much as sixty quarts of liquor stored in his place of business; that he has witnessed ninety per cent of the delivery of some eight hundred or one thousand packages of liquor from the express office during November and December, 1917; that he has an understanding with the company that they will not deliver packages to consignees until he has been paid for same. The injunction also restrains the defendant from maintaining an office, and also restrains McAdams & Co. from continuing to recognize said Ray as their representative pending the operation of the injunction.

Complaint is also made against the Wells-Fargo Express Co., charging that it had knowledge, or could have had, of illegal delivery, and enjoin it from further delivery of this kind. In discussing the matter with the writer, the county attorney says that he is directed by the attorney general to go into a thorough investigation of the matter, both as to the operations of Mr. Ray and the express company, the further details of which will doubtless be brought up and threshed out when the case comes to trial in the district court.

A PROMINENT MAN OF GARRISON DIES SUDDENLY

From Saturday's Daily. Mr. John M. Ellington, a prominent citizen of Garrison, and father of our townsman, Dr. J. D. Ellington, died suddenly with an attack of apoplexy at his home in Garrison yesterday afternoon.

His remains will be laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery, at Garrison, this afternoon.

Mr. Ellington is survived by his widow and five sons, the latter all being prominent professional and business men of the state. He is a native of Shelby county, belonging to one of the best and most prominent pioneer families of that section of East Texas. He moved to Garrison some fifteen years ago, for the benefit of his health, at the time being afflicted with chronic stomach trouble. The mineral waters relieved him, and he enjoyed good health for the remainder of his life save for an occasional attack of headache which would sometimes become very violent in its misery. He retained his big plantation and other property in Shelby county, but had a nice home in Garrison, and conducted a small farm more to employ his mind and body than for any profit. He was a member of the Methodist church, in which he lived a devoted christian life, a good neighbor and a good citizen, and enjoyed the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

With his passing, the town of Garrison and Nacogdoches county loses another of its best citizens.

MR. FAYETTE BELL GETS S. P. PROMOTION

The many friends of Mr. Fayette Bell in Nacogdoches will be pleased to learn of his promotion to the office of soliciting freight agent of the Southern Pacific for the city of Beaumont.

Mr. Bell will be transferred to the new position on the 1st of February.

This promotion is a merited one, Mr. Bell having been a faithful employee of the company here for several years, during which time he has rendered efficient and faithful service. Acting as agent here for a period of several weeks between the time of the resignation of former agent Mr. Greve and the installation of the present agent, Mr. D. A. Washburn, he demonstrated his fitness in a business way.

In leaving Nacogdoches Mr. Bell leaves many friends who rejoice to know of his success but who regret that success takes him from our midst, yet wish for him continued prosperity where he goes, and recommend him to the citizens of Beaumont as an industrious and capable gentleman.

Changes in the local freight office because of the promotion of Mr. Bell

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I tried it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and my Vegetable Compound made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."—Mrs. FRANK HENSON, 1040 S. Orchard St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," backache, headache and "the blues" should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

PERSHING REPORTS 3 U. S. SOLDIERS KILLED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Gen. Pershing today reported three American infantrymen killed in action on Jan. 21. He gave no details of the engagement. The dead are: Private Albert Cook, West Almond, New York.

Private Harry V. Garman, Catawba, Va.

Private Leo E. Radi, Cleveland, Ohio.

The following other deaths, not in action, were reported by Gen. Pershing:

Private Ovid Herriock, gunshot wounds, Frankfort, Ky., and Thomas M. Coyne, meningitis, 1019 North Anglin street, Cleburne, Texas.

These are the first reports of men killed in action in more than three months. In the opinion of army officials, the appearance of "killed in action" does not necessarily mean that American soldiers have returned in front line trenches for further training after an absence of some weeks, but that in the interpretation, they generally passed on the news.

For military reasons the war department declined to say whether a definite sector has been taken over by the Americans.

Casualties resulting from participation by an American company in a reconnoitering party conducted by French troops, or from a chance hit by enemy artillery among a party of dispatch riders, would all be reported under the head of "killed in action."

DISTRICT CLERK.

The Sentinel is authorized to announce Normal B. Hall as a candidate for re-election to the office of District Clerk of Nacogdoches county, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

The Sentinel does not feel that it is necessary to make an extended comment on the candidacy of Mr. Hall. He is serving his first term, in which he is making good, giving entire satisfaction, and with this record the democratic usage of the county would be to give it to him again. In addition to his good official record, he is a gentleman of pleasing bearing, courteous and accommodating to all with whom he comes in contact, and he thus combines all the elements of efficiency and character that go to make up a worthy public servant.

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little Stomach, Liver, and Bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If soiled, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

REPORT OIL STRIKE OVER AT CHIRENO

Ten-Barrel Well Has Been Brought In and Others Will Be Drilled in the Vicinity.

The news comes from Chireno that Mr. Brown Cornelson, who has been at work the past several months in drilling a wild-cat well on the H. W. Birdwell land, out a mile from Chireno, had been rewarded with a ten-barrel well at a depth of some four hundred feet. It is also reported that Mr. Cornelson will develop the well he has, and put down others in the vicinity, preferring a "bird in the hand to two in the bush."

In previous experiments it has been found that a good strata of oil underlies the Chireno country, as well as the whole western part of this county, producing from ten to fifteen barrels a day, and we understand that it is Mr. Cornelson's plan to develop a group of them together, which seems to be a most practical plan and offer a profitable investment.

Similar activity is being planned for some other parts of the county, and the outlook now is that old Nacogdoches county will soon have a great oil industry to go with the other good things she has.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. DICKINSON.

Editor Sentinel.

I regretted to hear of the death of Aunt Jane Dickinson, and although she had reached the extreme age of 82, her death to me, was no less a matter of regret. When I think of her as she was and used to be as I knew her last, I have to travel back many years along the pleasant paths of memory and recollection, when she lived on old Martin Creek, not far from the Hall old place, and later near old Cove Spring camp ground, for at both places it used to be a pleasure of mine to spend much of my time at her home.

Aunt Jane was a daughter of B. M. and Harriet Minerva Hall, and it is probable that she was the oldest child. I am not sure whether she was born in Tennessee or on the Hall old place near Melrose. Her mother, Grandma Hall, was for forty years or more the guardian angel and good spirit of a vast section of country of which the old Melrose in the time of Dr. Johnson and Dr. Leak was the important social and business center. In her humble calling of midwife, God Almighty only knows or can measure the good that Grandma Hall did in her day and time, and well even the younger of the present generation have gone to join the innumerable throng that moves continually and forever toward the eternal hills. Her name will be remembered, venerated and loved. Of this noble, loving, angel-woman, Jane Dickinson was the oldest daughter, the other daughters being Mrs. Elizabeth Kemper of Groveton, Texas; Mrs. Laura Bentley of Arlington, Texas, and Mrs. Francis Amy Fuller, of Melrose, Texas.

The sons were B. M. Hall, of Nacogdoches, Henry Hall of Erath county, Sam Hall of Nacogdoches county. Tom Hall died a few years ago near Melrose.

Through the earlier maiden life of Aunt Jane ran a tragedy that touched with heavy hand the heart of many a girl whose young married life began with the Civil War. Her first husband was Sam Stanley and when the call for volunteers for the Confederacy sounded through the country, Sam Stanley, brave, strong young fellow that he was, bade good-bye to his wife and three little children, one of them a babe in the cradle, in the little cottage that stood where now stands a grove of stately cedars by the side of a little branch, a mile north of Melrose, and with breaking heart took his way to the distant command.

One of these children, a little white, tousel-headed fellow now a man with children grown and married, has often described to the writer how his father looked the last time he saw him as he left his little home forever; as he turned at the top of the hill waved his hand and burst into tears as he disappeared from all that he loved. This little boy of sorrowful days was Sam Stanley, who now lives near Mayo, in Nacogdoches county, or perhaps near Mah, I am not sure.

After several years of widowhood, Aunt Jane married John Dickinson, who was a nephew of W. H. Swift, a business man of Nacogdoches county, who in earlier days served his district in the state senate.

By her second marriage Aunt Jane was the mother of four children—two sons Henry and Lee Dickinson of Melrose, Corinne who married Joel Blanton and subsequently lost her life by accidental burning, and Mrs. Josephine Hardy of Garrison.

The life of Aunt Jane was eventful as events are known and recorded in the locality in which she lived, and I sure that at last when she came to answer the final summons, that she did so cheerfully and without fear or regret. I believe I failed to state that

Dear Sir:

On November 4th, in company with a party of friends I made a trip from Houston to Clear Lake in Oakland cor No. 235234, motor No. B-26250. Before starting the return trip a careful measurement of the gasoline was made. After returning to Houston, a distance of 32 miles, we had only consumed one (1) gallon of gasoline. The 32 miles were covered in a little less than 50 minutes.

Doubting this result, measurement were taken the following Sunday over the same route, with the result that the thirty-two (32) miles were covered twice, each time on one (1) gallon of gasoline.

The trip the second time was made after a heavy rain and the road was not in the best of condition, however, the car did not consume but one gallon for the entire trip.

If it is so desired this statement can be verified by the parties who accompanied us on this trip.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) MRS. J. LOEB.

EDWARDS SAYS IT'S WORTH $1,000 TO HIM

Gains Twenty-one Pounds on Tanlac and Health is Restored.

"I have gained twenty-one pounds and if you had seen me the day I began taking Tanlac you wouldn't recognize me as the same man now," said Mr. Edwards, 320 23rd street, Denver, Colo., a few days ago. Mr. Edwards is a mechanic for the Union Pacific railroad.

"Last fall," continued Mr. Edwards, "I took a trip up in the country on a big truck, then I had to walk nearly thirty miles through the rain and mud. From this I contracted grippe and certainly had an awful time. I kept going down until finally I had to give up and was confined to my bed for forty days. I had to cut out eating entirely and for a month I lived on nothing but milk. I hardly knew what sleep was and more than half the time I had to prop myself up in bed so I could get my breath. I had awful headaches and such a terrible cough that I had begun to think that my lungs were affected. No kind of medicine did me any good.

"I have taken four bottles of Tanlac and have never felt better in my life than I do right now and wouldn't take a thousand dollars for the good these four bottles have done me. My appetite is fine and I can eat and digest just anything I want. I sleep like a rock every night and my strength has increased until I can do any kind of work that comes to hand. Tanlac has done me so much good that I feel almost compelled to praise it and I know several people taking it now on account of what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Co., and Swift Bros. & Smith, in Woden by M. J. King, in Garrison by Garrison Drug Co., in Appleby by Weatherly Bros., in Sacul by Arkan Cranford, in Cushing by A. J. Beck, in Douglas by Campbell & Watkins and in Chireno, in Nat by E. M. Jarrell.

NOTES FROM SWIFT

SWIFT, Texas, January 28, 1918.

The funeral services of Mrs. Shelton Martin were conducted by the Rev. Lee Heflin at the Baptist church, January 23rd, and interment was in Swift cemetery. Mrs. Martin's death, which took place at her home near Martinsville, was the result of pneumonia.

Mr. J. D. Goens, of San Augustine, died January 25th. His remains were conveyed to the Baptist church at Swift where funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. A. Acrey and burial was in Swift cemetery. Mr. Goens was formerly of this community, having resided here most of his life. He would speak of here as his old home. He leaves an aged wife and children and a host of friends and relatives to mourn his death.

Mrs. Cureton is real sick with pneumonia.

In my last communication I reported about 15 cases of measles. There are about twenty new cases with several yet exposed who will probably have them.

Mr. Walter Byers and family, formerly of Appleby, are now located in their new home two and one-half miles south-east of Swift. Mr. Byers just recently purchased this farm from Mr. H. J. Daniels. Mr. Daniels has purchased a farm seven miles north-east of Nacogdoches where he and his family are now located.

Pearson Chandler has been sick for the last twelve days with pneumonia. We are glad to report his condition improving.

Mr. Editor, the huntsmen of this community are all well pleased with the decision of the candidates in agreeing to leave off the canvassing. The huntsmen claim that it is near impossible for them to shoot a bird without hitting a candidate.

We have had more rain, snow, cold weather and plenty of measles.

YOUNG FRIEND! IF GEORGE WASHINGTON COULD RISE FROM HIS GRAVE

And see our cities at midnight lighted as bright as day, hear the whirl of the electric car, talk over the telephone send a message by wireless to a ship far out at sea, examine his own bones with an X-ray, view the snowy fields, sunny plains and canals of Mars through a telescope, take a flight from ocean to ocean in an air ship, cross the ocean in a submarine, get run over by an automobile going ninety miles an hour—but what's the use going back a hundred years? A system of shorthand and bookkeeping twenty years old is of but little use today.

As the steam ship has crowded the sail boat out, as the typewriter the goose quill pen and polkberry ink, so has the famous Byrne systems of Bookkeeping and Business Training and Shorthand taken the place of the old systems. The reason is plain; these systems cut in half the time and cost of becoming an expert accountant or stenographer; they teach business as well as bookkeeping, they make it possible for the student to graduate and begin earning while the student of other systems is less than half through his course; they give the student a better practical working knowledge, which means a higher salary.

These practical, modern, time-saving systems can be had in this section only in the Tyler Commercial College. You would not think of riding in an ox cart in preference to an automobile. Then why think of studying the old ox cart systems of accounting and stenography when you can get the Byrne systems which possess such wonderful advantages that they enable the management of the Tyler Commercial College to build the largest business training school in America, with an annual enrollment of more than 2500!

There will be preaching at Canaan church Sunday, Feb. 3rd, at 11:00 a. m., and at Little Flock in the afternoon at 3:00 o'clock of the same day. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public. Rev. Otto Zimmerman, Pastor.
