Double Cable Base TIRES

Exclusive Advantages!

FEDERAL improvements have resulted from years of careful study and most improved methods of manufacture. Every wearing surface has been scientifically reinforced. The hard head filler which cuts and grinds into the fabric has been replaced by one which grips with the tire.

Rim cuts, blow-outs above the rim and tube pinching have all been eliminated in Federal construction.

The Double-Cable-Base contains four unstrained steel cables which hold the tire firmly and securely against the rim and keep it from shifting or rocking.

Two scientific tapered treads are optional. The white "Rugged" and the black "Traffik."

Let us explain the many vital advantages of Federal construction—it will save you money.

CAMP TRAVIS NEWS

(Special to The Sentinel)

CAMP TRAVIS, Texas, April 27.—Garland White who was short time back assigned as a recruit to Battery B of the 315th Field Artillery, at Camp Travis, Texas, has been assigned to a gun squad and appointed a regular private. This is quite a record to make as he has only been in training about two months and has accomplished in that time what requires the average recruits from four to six months to do.

Private Kenneth Eskridge Box of the 315th Trench Mortar Battery, is still laboring in the Officer's Mess. We have not heard much of Eskridge lately, all we know is that a certain young lady here is getting about nine tenths of his time. We can't figure out how he expects the government to pay him $20 for one month of his time, Eskridge is all right in a way, but he don't weigh enough.

Mose S. Green, who has been serving with Battery D, 314th F. A., since his induction into the military service, has recently been promoted to the rank of Battery Mechanic. In this capacity, Mechanic Green superintends the upkeep of all battery tools, equipments, etc., and has under him several skilled men.

Sergeant David L. Thomas, Co. A, 360th Infantry, of Nacogdoches, Texas, left last night for a few days visit with home folks and friends in Nacogdoches, Texas.

Corporal George B. Wessels, Co. A, 360th Infantry, of Nacogdoches had his squad on detail, the other day cleaning up the barracks and every thing that was in the way.

Corporal Guy E. Stripling, of Nacogdoches, now in Company "D" 315th Machine Gun Battalion, Camp Travis, has been detailed on special duty to assist in the work of interviewing and classifying the newly arriving recruits.

Sergeant Randolph C. Fall, of Chireno, in Co. A, 360th Infantry, our Mess Sergeant, is giving us plenty to eat, and we think we will soon be strong enough to get the Kaiser.

Private W. W. Walker is back with Company E, 315th engineers, after several weeks in the base hospital. The prolongation of his stay has not been explained, but it is rumored that there are some mighty good looking nurses at the base.

For the reclaiming to useful service in the army, of defectives physically and mentally, a special battalion has been organized at Camp Travis and placed in the hands of experienced officers. It had been thought that the nation was too busy with the haste of preparation to give attention to the matter of improving the quality of material sent to its cantonments by the draft machinery. The theory of the selective draft was selection, but some of the local boards failed to grasp the idea at the time of the first increment, and defective feet, defective teeth, defective eyes and numerous other ailments were represented among the new men.

The army had the choice of keeping these men, or sending them home. Many of them were tall and thin.

The men in the battalion are given such exercise and drill as they are capable of, and attention is constantly given to individual cases, so that each soldier has a chance to make of himself a full power fighting man before he is asked to face the demands to be made upon him in the fields and trenches of France.

Not only men but materials are conserved in the army. Even the trash cans of the camp are sorted and every usable thing gathered up before the refuse is consigned to the huge incinerator.

That reason the reclamation but equipment of material has a sound part about it, it is within the province of the people's share to be taken by the government.

WELL FOR FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

14 Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Roscoe City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary K. Kline, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl... my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me... but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable... I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot... I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial. J. T.

THIS WOMAN SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, One of Thousands of Such Cases.

Black River Falls, Wis.—"As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation, I cannot say enough in praise of it. I suffered from organic troubles and my side hurt me so I could hardly be up from my bed, and I was unable to do my housework. I had the best doctors in Eau Claire and they wanted me to have an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me so I did not need the operation, and I am telling all my friends about it."—Mrs. A. W. BINZER, Black River Falls, Wis.

It is just such experiences as that of Mrs. Binzer that has made this famous root and herb remedy a household word from ocean to ocean. Any woman who suffers from inflammation, ulceration, displacements, backache, nervousness, irregularities or "the blues" should not rest until she has given it a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. CURFEW NOW ON ENGLISH DINING

(By Associated Press) LONDON, April 2.—Dining in public places in England must stop at 10 p. m., and theatrical performances must end at 10:30 p. m. under the curfew order which became effective this month. The regulation under the Defense of the Realm Act is intended to save the use of coal and gas for lights and fires. "Dora" as the Defense of the Realm Act is popularly known has now been responsible for something like 212 orders since its birth in November, 1914. Its powers range over a wide and varied area and deal with regulations for the distribution of stray dogs to the control of mines, canals, highways and shipping. The civilian population is controlled by it in a way not even dreamt of before the war.

FINGER PRINTS OF OFFICERS TAKEN

(By Associated Press) FORT WORTH, Texas, April 25.—The finger prints of every officer at Camp Bowie now are being taken as a means of identification according to an announcement by Lieut. Col. Metcalf, division surgeon. Formerly the custom was to take the prints only of enlisted men. Red ink impressions of about 1,000 officers have been taken. There are on file about 135,000 prints at the camp.

KAISER WILLIAM IN INTERVIEW

(By Associated Press) AMSTERDAM, April 25.—"People who wish to destroy us are digging their own graves," said Emperor William of Germany in a recent interview. He continued: "Our victories in the field and at home must make those over yonder think we cannot be subdued by arms and economic isolation."

MORE SOLDIER BOYS TO TRAINING CAMPS

Guy Parrish, Robert Roy Prince, Joe E. Mims, Buster Evans, Ocie Pye, Walter Lavender, Wm. F. Heaslett, George Arrington, R. E. Banks, Hernando de Bockman, George W. Tinkle, Marshall Stone, Enoch W. Spencer, John B. Allison, Geo. E. Self, Nelson T. Dickerson, Jefferson B. Garrison, A. O. Mangham, Rufus Glenn, Ellis V. Cureton, Mark A. Furra, Bartlett M. Hall, Cleveland Kenney, J. A. Gaston, Culberson Denman.

The boys were put in charge of Jefferson B. Garrison and the trip is being made via Houston. Like the fine young men they are, the boys all leave happy with the opportunity to be of service to their country, and they will return with a record of efficient, honest service to their country, to take their places in the good citizenship.

MARKETING CROPS.

The Sentinel in the past has had much to say, in an editorial way, of the importance of devising better plans and means for the marketing of crops and co-ordination of the forces that handle the produce of the country. Bearing on this subject we take the following editorial from yesterday's issue of the Houston Chronicle, which we commend to readers of the paper for serious reflection:

Anyone who has given this subject the slightest consideration must be struck with the appalling losses incident to our loose, haphazard system of selling and distributing farm products.

Practically speaking there is no co-ordination of effort, no standardization of method, and no public supervision of any kind in this most important branch of production.

Even with respect to staple and imperishable commodities the price fluctuation is all out of proportion to the actual law of supply and demand, while truck and vegetables exhibit such instability as to leave farmers and consumers completely at sea.

Of course speculation plays its part, but the chief defect is lack of system and co-ordination.

In the first place we have no adequate facilities whereby the producer and consumer can be brought into such close contact as they should. Instead of serving this purpose our public markets are almost exclusively in the control of middlemen.

In the second place, we have no means by which to store, save and conserve perishable truck and vegetables. If there happens to be a large surplus it must rot or be ploughed under.

In the third place we have no well-organized agencies of sale and distribution, except those which have been built up and are controlled by private interests.

We have employment bureaus, clearing houses and farm loan banks, but we have no publicly operated machinery to help the farmer sell his goods, and this, too, notwithstanding the fact that his goods are recognized as all important.

Just now the potato-growers of this state are facing a very grave situation. There is a large surplus of old potatoes on the market, yet if new potatoes can not be marketed within a very short time they will spoil.

Buy that Liberty Bond now if you wait you might not do it.

OUR BOYS "OVER THERE" ENJOY TOASTED CIGARETTES

Through the patriotism of the citizens of this country thousands of smoke kits are being distributed to American soldiers in France. Authorities agree that men in the trenches need cigarettes almost as much as food and munitions.

Doctors, nurses, and commanding officers all join in the demand which has awakened in this country a great movement to keep our boys supplied with smokes.

Millions of the famous LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes are "going over" all the time. There's something about the idea of the toasted cigarette that appeals to the men who spend their time in cold, wet trenches and billets.

Then, too, the real Kentucky Burley tobacco of the LUCKY STRIKE cigarette gives them the solid satisfaction of a pipe, with a lot less trouble.

THE HEROIC SPIRIT.

An incident occurred in this city yesterday morning when the draft board was making up its quota for the training camp which proves that "the spirit of the fathers" still lives in this good old county, and that the patriotism of her sons is 100 per cent perfect.

When the name of Vernon Cox, who recently married, was called J. A. Gaston volunteered, insisted on taking his place, and Culberson Denman volunteered for the place of J. H. Day, who is also married and recently resigned as teacher of one of the schools of the county to go into service.

Neither Mr. Cox or Mr. Day had asked for an exemption, but to the contrary were ready to go if their country needed them. With the gallantry of the young men who took their places they will be able to remain at home awhile longer, and of course they will ever remember with fond appreciation the beautiful manifestation of patriotism exhibited in their behalf, and in behalf of the country, who needs the young men physically fit on the front.

It is the "spirit of the fathers" such as Houston, Crockett, Bowie and others who helped blaze the way for settlement in Texas, carried to perpetuation by gallant sons who are ready for any service and any task.

MRS. CHRISTOPHER IS WITH THE DEAD

From Saturday's Daily. Mrs. Martha Jane Christopher, who died at her home in this city yesterday morning and whose remains will be laid to rest in the North church cemetery tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, Rev. A. T. Gerard officiating.

Mrs. Christopher was sixty-two years, two months and fourteen days old at the time of her death. She is survived by two sons and four daughters who hold places with the good citizenship of the country. She is descendant from one of the good old-time families of the county, and was a noble Christian woman who was loved and admired by those who knew her, and many hearts are being made sad with her death.

Our good farmer friend, Mr. Joe Strubling, brought three very fine turkeys with his complaining of the hair loss on his neck, for which we are very grateful. Mr. Strubling remembers the printers every spring, and it is our wish that his shadow may never grow less. The three turkeys brought today weigh 5 1/2 pounds.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is made evidence of a neglected scalp of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its life, and the hair falls out. It is a very common trouble, and it is very easily remedied. Danderine is a very effective remedy, and it is our wish that his shadow may never grow less. The three turkeys brought today weigh 5 1/2 pounds.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. It's your hair—Try it!

HON BEEMAN STRONG IS HIGHLY ENDORSED

Judge Mantooth is in receipt of a letter inviting him to meet in conference with the friends of Hon. Beeman Strong, of Nacogdoches, who are advocating his appointment to a place on the Commission of Appeals, the new board created by the last legislature. This position requires the services of a man of irrefragable character, learned in the law, and of a fine, analytical mind, and Mr. Strong's friends claim that in him all these qualities are found to the superlative degree. It is needless to say that Mr. Strong will have the active support of a large contingent of the bar of East Texas and especially here at Lufkin, his friends are exceedingly anxious to secure his appointment.

Judge Mantooth will probably attend the meeting being among Mr. Strong's warmest personal friends and strong supporters.

The above complimentary to our townsman is taken from the Lufkin Daily News of Thursday. The Sentinel has hitherto refrained from discussing Mr. Strong's application for this position out of a spirit of expediency, but now that the applications are all in, and the contest is on, we deem it not out of place.

Judge S. W. Blount and Hon. June C. Harris, Moss Adams and Langston King, accompanied by some six or eight prominent attorneys from other counties spent yesterday in Austin, where they called upon the governor in person in the interest of Mr. Strong's candidacy. They were cordially received by the governor, who made the statement that Mr. Strong had a very strong endorsement, that he considered him eligible to the position and that his application would have due consideration when the time arrived for making the appointment.

There are six of these places and about one hundred applicants on file for them, but with the strong endorsement he has, which includes many prominent attorneys of the whole Texas bar and many friends outside of the profession, the friends of Mr. Strong are confident in the belief that they will capture one of them.

The appointment will not be made until after the primary next July and the friends of the East Texas applicant felt that they should present the claims of their champion now while other applicants are doing so, and no candidate thus far has shown up with a better support, if as good.

In offering Mr. Strong for the place, the bar of East Texas and other friends feel that they are offering a man who is in every way qualified for the position. His most successful experience as a practitioner, both in civil and criminal law, and as a prosecutor as well as a defender, his integrity and moral stand on all matters of community interest, and the further fact that he is now in the prime of life, enjoying good health and activity, mentally and physically, of an athlete, especially fit him for the mental and physical endurance of any task, and he is by nature a hard worker who would enter very actively upon the service that would be assigned to him, and would despatch it with the same earnestness that is characteristic of him.

MAKE IT A SMASHING FINISH

(Houston Chronicle)

This is the last week of the Liberty Loan, and every existing circumstance is a summons to subscribe.

The hard-pressed allied lines in France are waiting anxiously to learn the result, for the manner in which the United States goes over the top means much to them.

In one sense of the word it will be a promise—a promise of swift and vigorous action, or of procrastinating indifference.

You and I, and our hundred million neighbors, have the opportunity to send a message across the Atlantic next Saturday night and shall hearten those brave boys and make the kaiser tremble.

If the American people come across with billions to spare, they will know, and he will know, that this nation means business.

The adding machines in Washington are tabulating, not only dollars, but the spirit of our answer to the German offensive.

Let us make it so unequivocal that it will prove an inspiring beacon of hope to our friends, and a handwriting on the wall to our enemies.

Let us go over the top with such a display of irresistible force as to stagger even the orator of Berlin.

They have accused us of carrying our hearts in our pocket-books, but let us prove to them that the reverse is true.

Let us make them understand that we are willing to lay our wealth on the altar of humanity, and that our participation in this struggle for right and liberty is a matter of profound conviction.

Let us make this loan a ringing pledge of good faith, a guarantee of unconquerable assistance.

Let us fulfill our obligations to our own government in such an emphatic, enthusiastic way, that France and England will have no misgivings about the way we are going to fulfill our obligations to them.

Let us answer the kaiser's challenge of ruthlessness with such an outpouring of gold that he will realize it has no terror for us.

Let us warn Hindenburg that his mad onslaughts are only serving to rouse America and mobilize her millions of men behind her billions of wealth.

It is our chance to speak a telling word in this agony of nations; let us make the most of it.

Another Red Cross drive will be the next matter to engage our patriotic attention, and as usual, old Nacogdoches county will go over the top. We are in practice now, and we are also very much in earnest.

That man who is able and who refuses to take any part in the patriotic work of the county is in a class with the man who slips around and reads his neighbor's paper to avoid the expense of subscribing himself.

The Shreveport Times of Wednesday contains a list of 31 Louisiana boys at Camp Pike, Ark., who have been recommended for recommissions, following the successful completion of their training courses. Among the number is the name of Ben Levy of Shreveport, a nephew of N. Picard, a resident of this city.

All Fall left this morning for Chicago on a visit to friends and relatives.

$10,000 QUOTA RED CROSS FUND

Plans are now being worked out for launching in Nacogdoches county the Red Cross Second War Fund Campaign. One year ago the Red Cross came to the people of the country with a request that $100,000,000 be raised to carry on its work. At that time this country had just gotten in the war and the Red Cross had to have money to enable it to get ready to take care of our wounded and distressed soldiers. In a few days' campaign the money was raised. Last December the Red Cross found itself in need of more workers and a membership campaign was put on. 10,000,000 members were asked for and over 16,000,000 were secured.

At the close of the campaign for members, Nacogdoches county had nearly 7,500 members of the Red Cross. Where it had only a few workers before making Red Cross supplies it soon had hundreds. The same thing was true with every county in the whole United States.

The Red Cross is now asking that funds be provided to defray the expenses of the organization in carrying on the work of caring for the wounded behind the battle lines for another year. Probably no part of the war work is better understood than the Red Cross work, by the people of the county. They know that for every dollar contributed there will be 100 cents spent for the relief of suffering by the organization. Therefore The Sentinel will only attempt to tell of the plans for the raising of the county's quota for the $100,000,000.

A quota of $10,000 has been assigned to the county. A chairman and an executive committee have been appointed. Mr. N. D. Naman has been appointed chairman by the manager of the Southwestern division, and the following executive committee to help conduct the campaign has been appointed: N. D. Naman, H. T. Mast, W. S. Davis, Chas. Perkins, Beeman Strong, R. C. Monk, Rev. C. D. Atwell, and Geo. T. McNess.

In order that the quota may fall equally upon all parts of the county, a quota has been assigned to each school district. This quota has been arrived at by considering the population and the property value of the district and will not be very heavy on any district.

An effort is going to be made to have the quota raised before the opening of the campaign, which will be from May 20 to 27. It is hoped that Nacogdoches county will be able to wire headquarters that we are over the top and 100 per cent patriotic on the opening day. In order to do this three big days have been designated for advertising the campaign and soliciting the funds.

Sunday, May 12, all the ministers of the county are going to be asked to preach Red Cross sermons and to urge the success of the campaign. In the larger places the churches are going to be asked to hold union services and Red Cross programs.

Saturday, May 18, there will be a Red Cross Rally at Nacogdoches. The feature of the rally will be a parade of the mothers, wives, sisters sweethearts and other near women relatives of the boys now in service from the county. In addition to the parade there will be patriotic music and speaking and other features in keeping with the day. Since the campaign is to raise money to take care of our soldier boys it is desired that the women from every section of the county lend every effort to make this a big day. March for your boys and help to raise the money for him when he is in distress. The parade will be short and every comfort arranged for those who participate. A speaker of national reputation will address the people. Sunday May 19, there will be Red Cross speaking all over the county. The committee on speaking is working on this part of the program and the hour, place and speaker will be announced in a later issue. No funds will be solicited until May 18, but a community may do just as the county committee is going to try to do. It may raise its quota and have it ready at any time, but it is desired that the whole quota of the county be raised by the close of the speaking on the 19th. If it is not, the county will not be able to wire in that it is over the top on the opening day. 25 per cent of the money raised in this campaign may be retained by the county for carrying on the work in the county branches and auxiliaries. In the Christmas drive it was found a difficult proposition to determine the amount which was due each branch and auxiliary at the close of the drive. Nacogdoches county was no exception to the rule, for the manager of the Southwestern division states that the same trouble has been experienced all over the division. However, in this campaign a treasurer has been appointed who will devote all his time to keeping a record of the money as it is turned in and this difficulty will be avoided this time.

WALDEN'S METHODS ARE DIFFERENT.

They are called the "New Way," the "Short and Easy Way." Every subject is illustrated from the blackboard, explained, made "Easy" to every member of the class; by lectures, talks, drills, explanation and by daily reviews.

The Walden method gives all of his time to each and every pupil. A pupil will gain more knowledge, make greater progress in one hour under the Walden plan than he would from days of "DIGGING" in a text book, the usual college method, the so-called "Individual" method as described and praised by other schools who use it. Teachers, high school pupils, and others can easily finish in three months, and double and treble your salary. No use to worry about a position—it's only a question of getting ready.

TWO WEEK'S SALARY PAID FOR HER COURSE

The father of one of our girls paid $40 for her shorthand course. Her salary for the first month, including her transportation, which was paid by her employees was $90; hence two weeks' 12 working days—repaid the cost and her future salary will be "Clear Gain." She writes that she is delighted with her position and surroundings. Her employees are delighted with the high-grade service she is giving—and have promised her an early raise. Now that is success! Her skill in shorthand and typewriting—the result of "Walden's Short and Easy Way," at a cost of only $40 makes her independent, self-sustaining and safe against future misfortune and disaster. Parents who put their boys and girls in Walden's school are making the best investment, and are providing against future misery or want. Success is certain if they attend Walden's Summer School. A position is certain if they only prepare. Don't turn "right wad," and deny to those you love, these safe, sound, rich, and "take wings and fly away," but a practical and money-making education will last as long as reason exists. Make your loved ones safe. Better be safe than sorry.

PEANUT MEAL AS A WHEAT SUBSTITUTE

COLLEGE STATION, Texas.

April 29.—Peanut meal can be employed as a good substitute for meat in the event the war should bring about a scarcity of the latter product, and preliminary investigations at the Texas agricultural experiment station have demonstrated that there is a large quantity of fat in Texas acorns, according to statements made before the meeting of the American chemical Society at A. & M. College last night. The paper on the food value of peanuts was presented by F. B. Porter, president of the Fort Worth laboratories, while the discussion of fats in acorns was made by Dr. G. S. Fraps, state chemist and chemist to the experiment station here.

A permanent organization was formed, by-laws adopted and officers chosen as follows: Dr. G. S. Fraps, state chemist, College Station, president; W. W. Battle, city chemist, Dallas, secretary-treasurer, and Dr. E. P. Schoch, University of Texas, counsellor.

Meetings will be held annually, though it is probable special meetings will be held oftener and the Dallas chemists present asked that a special meeting be held in their city during the coming summer.

All papers published on the original program were read and in addition to these Herman Rosenthal, chemist to the city waterworks of Dallas, read a paper on "Water Purification in Its Relation to Health."

GARRISON SCHOOL EXERCISES MONDAY

From Supt. G. B. Layton, the

Sentinel obtains the information that the Garrison High School held its commencement exercises yesterday evening, this session of the schools having come to a close yesterday.

Prof. Layton was present at the exercises and delivered the class address, which The Sentinel learned was a very able discourse and was well received by all present.

Prof. M. A. Shaver, superintendent of the Garrison school, presented diplomas to the class, there being ten graduates to receive diplomas.

This year's session of the school has been a very successful one. This is indeed remarkable, considering the many reverses which have befallen the institution, the most prominent being the big fire which almost completely destroyed their magnificent building some few months ago. This school ranks with the best in the state among its classes.

The Sentinel is informed that the school at Douglas closes next Friday and will hold its exercises on Friday night.

TREASURES STORED FOR PERIOD OF WAR

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, May 1.—The treasures of the British Museum, including its priceless collection of mummies, have been stored for the period of the war in a deep uncompleted subway, which was being constructed for the use of the post office authorities when the war began. The employees of the postoffices along the line of the subway have just raised a protest against the use of the boring for this purpose, asserting that it should be reserved for use as an air-raid shelter for postal employees.

"Should postal workers or mummies use the subway air-raid shelter?" asks the Postman's Gazette in its latest issue. "It is nothing short of a scandal that relics of doubtful value should get choice positions in this subway while access is denied to members of the postoffice staff in time of emergency."

SOLD HIS HOME AND SPENT HIS MONEY IN SEARCH OF HEALTH

"Two Bottles of Tanlac Did Me More Good Than Everything Else," He Says.

"After I had spent every cent realized from the sale of my home, and several hundred dollars besides, in trying to recover my health, two bottles of Tanlac did me more good than everything else put together, which certainly was a wonder to me," was the statement made recently by Robert A. Land, a motorman on the El Paso Electric line, who lives at 1013 San Antonio street, El Paso, Texas.

"My health gave way five years ago," he continued, "and I began to go down hill so fast that for four years I wasn't able to do a lick of work. My stomach was in such an awful fix I had to force down what little I ate and nothing gave me any nourishment. Even the raw eggs and milk I lived on soured on my stomach and I would be almost checked with gas and my heart acted so strangely I was afraid something was wrong with it. I have been a railroad man ever since I was able to work and was used to exposure to all kinds of weather, but I was so full of malaria and my system had been weakened so by five spells of pneumonia during the last four years, that if I got wet in a shower the least bit it laid me up several days with a cold."

"Well, sir, it was the greatest surprise I ever had the way Tanlac took hold and began to straighten me out right from the start. I kept on improving every day till now I have such an appetite I am ashamed to eat enough to satisfy my hunger and I can enjoy my meals for the first time in years. Nothing hurts me any more. I sleep like a log and get up in the mornings ready for my job. I work ten hours a day without getting tired like I did before and am stronger and more vigorous and have gained in weight. Why, I have been soaked to the skin several times during the past two weeks and it didn't hurt me in the least. I intend to keep up the treatment some time longer and I am so grateful for what Tanlac is doing for me that I want everybody to know it."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Co., and Swift Bros. & Smith, in Woden by M. J. King, in Garrison by Garrison Drug Co., in Appleby by Weatherly Bros., in Sacul by A. J. Beck, in Douglas by Campbell & Watkins and in Chireno, in Nat by E. M. Jarrell.

LIBERTY LOAN NOTES

(Special to The Sentinel) DALLAS, Texas, April 30.—A one-hundred per cent patriot comes from what was the free state of Van Zandt.

Ed. Walsh's father was a carpenter. His mother died years ago. Ed. is now twenty-two. At the age of seventeen he started growing cotton, made fifteen thousand dollars, bought a laundry, and was well on the way to affluence.

Ed. made a momentous decision the other day. He had heard the call: "Your country needs you." He responded, not grudgingly, not in any spirit of "what is there in it for me." He bought eleven thousand six hundred dollars worth of Liberty bonds. He will sell his laundry and put the proceeds into Liberty bonds. Further, Ed. will give himself and his future to his country. He leaves for France in the good old uniform very shortly.

Ed. told a representative of the Federal Reserve Bank: "If I die in France, I ask only one thing, and that is that my name shall be recorded somehow, somewhere, as one who did his best for his country." No man could stand in the presence of such a man and argue about percentages. How does your conduct in this crisis measure up with Ed. Walsh's?

Dr. J. L. Massey, the beloved pastor of the Methodist church, was seized with a violent hemorrhage and fainting spell while seated in his car near the post office yesterday afternoon, and for a time much alarm was felt about his condition. He was borne to his home by a physician and friends, where he has been given every attention, and The Sentinel is glad to report that he is resting much better this morning, but pained to note that the physicians advise that he will likely be confined to his bed six weeks to get suitable treatment for his trouble. Since coming to us, Dr. Massey has proven himself to be a very earnest, consecrated Christian worker, and our people have learned to greatly love and respect him, all joining in the hope that he may rapidly recover and be spared many more years of usefulness.

Do You Enjoy Life?

A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are despondent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. A few doses of Chamberlain's tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it. dw

SCHOOL TEACHERS AND THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

Are you content to continue teaching without any increase in salary when the cost of living has more than doubled in the past twelve months? Or will you enter the broad field of business where the demand for trained young men and women is the greatest in the history of this nation? The commercial concerns of the country, realizing the advance in the cost of living, have increased salaries in proportion, and Bookkeepers, Stenographers and operators receive from $75 to $100 per month for twelve months in the year, and receive advances promptly as they progress in experience and skill. The increase in salary during the school terms added to the additional salary in vacation amounts to a large gain over the teachers pay, and the expense of schooling is over after the few months spent in a commercial college. Teachers' salaries are limited, while business positions pay salaries as large as the abilities of the employees justify. Salary and ability seek their level in business very quickly, because of the widespread demand for help. Can you blame several thousand teachers who are quitting the profession annually to enter commercial work where they have an opportunity of increasing their earning power each year and where their training fits them for the responsible positions in life? Do you know that, with only a small cost in money and from three to five months' training, you can step into a good paying commercial position? Compare this with the time and money which teachers must spend in preparation before they can begin earning, after which they are employed only six to nine months in the year and spend what little money they save to attend summer normal during vacation. Make up your mind now to spend your vacation this summer in America's largest commercial training school and prepare yourself to answer one of the many calls we have daily for our students. Write the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler Texas, for their large, free illustrated catalogue and read what teachers who have attended this institution say of the many advantages it offers to those who desire to enter the business world.

GIRLS! IT'S YOUR STEP THAT ATTRACTS

Says women pay too much heed to their face instead of their corns.

Watch your step! A brisk, lively step is what charms more than a lovely skin, but your high heels have caused corns and you limp a little. That's bad, girls, and you know it. Corns destroy beauty and grace, besides corns are very easy to remove.

Rid your feet of every corn by asking at any drug store for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, touchy corn relieves the soreness and soon the entire corn root and all lifts right out without pain.

This freezone is a gummy substance which dries instantly and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding skin.

Women must keep in mind that cornless feet create a youthful step which enhances her attractiveness.

AUTO ACCIDENT THIS MORNING

This morning while driving a Ford truck out East Main street Wylie Weatherby came very near meeting with a serious accident on the bridge just west of the Union depot.

Mr. Weatherby was driving east and turned just as he reached the bridge to let a farm wagon pass. In making the turn, the steering rod on his car failed to work, as he went onto the bridge and the car crashed into the bannisters on the bridge threatening to break through and go into the ditch. After applying the brakes Mr. Weatherly jumped from the car. He was uninjured.

The car was badly crippled and the side bannisters on the bridge was broken off. Parties who saw the accident say Mr. Weatherby was not driving over about eight miles an hour.

OUR COUNTY IS OVER THE TOP

COUNTY'S QUOTA RAISED WITH $50,000 TO SPARE AND WE GET FLAG

Nacogdoches county's quota in the Third Liberty Loan was placed at $273,300. At the rally yesterday afternoon Hon. Beeman Strong, acting for County Chairman Harris who had been called out of the city, announced that $24,900 had already been subscribed, placing the county "over the top" with fifty thousand dollars for good measure.

Another good feature of the matter is that this subscription comes from more than two thousand people, thus best attesting the co-operation of the people of the county in the enterprise.

This announcement came yesterday afternoon as a happy climax to the big liberty parade which was participated in by the school children, the Home Guards and the Boy Scouts, marching to music furnished by the patriotic Concert Band which has been ever ready to do its part in all matters of community interest. The parade was concluded at the court house where a great crowd assembled on the lawn and speaking from the steps of the building Hon. Beeman Strong made the happy announcement. Mr. Strong was followed by Mayor Geo. H. Matthews, who, in a most appropriate little address, made the speech of acceptance of the honor flag which Nacogdoches county wins for going over in advance of the close of the campaign.

Another most appropriate feature of the meeting was the unanimous adoption of a resolution, suggested by Mr. Strong, and in a pretty speech by Mr. E. H. Tucker nominated, that a vote of thanks and appreciation be tendered to Hon. June C. Harris for his untiring work and wise leadership in leading the county on to victory in the campaign.

Other interesting features of the meeting was the music furnished by the band, and some vocal selections by the school led by Prof. I. B. Davis. Immediately following the close of the exercises at the court house, the Home Guard exhibition drill, in which they exhibited splendid efficiency for the time they have had at practice.

All business and industry of the town was suspended for the afternoon, and altogether it was a great occasion for the old town, in which her people lived up to the record of patriotism of her ancestors and leaves a record for future generations.

In each of the three liberty loans, and in the Red Cross drive, old Nacogdoches county has sustained her reputation by going over the top with a generous surplus. She has also furnished her quota of men for the firing line, and has responded to every feature and enterprise of the cause of her country. This she will continue to do, and Old Glory will continue to unfold to the breezes with unsullied and untarnished brilliance in this vicinity.

Glory! Glory The standpipe is running over, an assurance of an abundance of water in the near future, that will be the cause of rejoicing from one end of the city to the other—Lufkin News. "Lord God of hosts, be with us yet. Let us forget, lest we forget."

Nacogdoches county would cheerfully give the surplus rain she has been receiving the past few days to the drouth section of West Texas.

CANTEEN SERVICE CHEERS SOLDIERS

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, April 29.—Tired and travel worn, dust begrimed from long tedious hours spent in packed coaches, soldiers of United States' army traveling through this city are being cheered most effectively by the "canteen service" of the Red Cross.

Steaming coffee, sandwiches, prepared by mothers many of whose sons are in France, chocolates, home-made cookies, magazines, books and tobacco—all these are given the traveling troops. For several months the service has been conducted under secret orders, the Red Cross being notified an hour in advance of the arrival of all trainings carrying boys in khaki. Members of the unit are the only persons in Chicago, informed in this manner of the movement of the soldiers.

Women of social note have been most active in this volunteer work. The success of the service is attested by the great length, now under way, of the "Triple A" building, which will become the headquarters of the unit.

Distribution of food delicacies, tobacco and reading matter, however, is not the entire scope of the unit. Service is the watchword. Post cards are supplied the men that they may write home. Messages are taken and promptly attended to by members of the unit. Many soldiers give the workers telephone numbers to call just for a friendly "Hello" to acquaintances and relatives.

When word is received of the imminent arrival of a troop train, automobiles, the use of which is given for this work, are sent with well filled baskets to the depot. The workers pass the baskets through the coaches and gain reward for their efforts from the unqualified delight that shines from every group of faces.

SAMMIES WILL NOT BE DEPRIVED OF TRIPS

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE.—(Continued from page 1.) Enlisted men of the American Expeditionary Forces have received the welcome news that, hereafter, men who have not saved their money will not be deprived of their leave by desertion. Leave areas because of lack of funds. They will be considered as having a duty status and therefore quarters will be provided for them and the cost of rations computed at the established rate of a dollar a day. Soldiers on leave in other areas will not be furnished with quarters but will receive a ration allowance of sixty cents a day.

While the only designated leave area for American troops at present is in Savoie new leave centers will be designated as needed and summer-time leave areas probably will be near the sea.

LACK OF LABOR IS VERY SERIOUS

(By Associated Press) DALLAS, Texas, April 29.—Lack of labor in South Texas and along the Gulf Coast is most serious, according to reports here, and an earnest endeavor is being made by farmers in that section to recruit farm help from other sections of the state. Efforts have been made to find help in North Texas, but labor in this section is likewise short.

Raymond G. Miller, in charge of the United States employment service bureau at Galveston says he has on file in his office there almost any kind of a farm position that could possibly be desired.

The government has under consideration a plan whereby men experienced in farm labor now in army cantonments be given a furlough when the harvest season arrives. This, it is said, would greatly help the situation and assure an early movement of the wheat crop to the mills.

At a meeting of the State Council of Defense, held in Dallas recently the labor shortage question was discussed at length. It was suggested that Congress suspend the immigration laws, permitting thousands of farm laborers in Mexico to enter the fields in the United States. Labor from other Latin American countries would be interested, it was said. A resolution was adopted providing that a committee go to Washington and ask the Department of Labor to set aside the Bennett Bill to permit the immigration of labor from Canada and Mexico.

There are thousands of idlers over Texas, a member of the council said, who would be pressed into this work if necessary laws were passed. This member was R. E. L. Knight of Dallas, who said that if these men had no inclination to enter industries vital to the carrying on of the war that they be rounded up and put in Class A-1 of the draft. These men, he said, could be found around the streets, pool halls and picture shows. He still doubts whether all of these men who have no visible means of support.

FOREIGN MEN AT CAMP TRAVIS

AN ANTONIO, Texas, April 29.—112 enlisted men at Camp Travis, who cannot speak a word of English. This was disclosed recently in a survey by military authorities on instructions from the Intelligence Office.

Nine national army Indians at the camp can speak only their native language. The greatest part of non-English speaking men are of Mexican descent, there being sixty-eight that speak Mexican and Spanish only. Other tongues found are Bohemian, 15; German, 9; Chinese, 3; Swedish, 2; French, 2.

These men are among the recent arrivals and schools are being established so that they might be given instructions in English. All of them are from Texas and Oklahoma.

A message from Mrs. Gibbs this morning announces that her little nephew, Sidney Black, Jr., died last night at 11:00 o'clock, and his remains will be laid to rest this afternoon. The little fellow was some ten or twelve years of age, and was a bright, hardy little fellow until he suffered an attack of measles some time ago, from which complications set up that caused his death.

FRENCH AVIATORS ESCAPE GERMANS

PARIS, April 29.—(Continued from page 1.) Correspondence of the Associated Press) —In escaping from a German military prison, Lieutenant Roland G. Garros and Lieutenant Antonine Marchal, the two celebrated French aviators, repeated the exploit of the famous German "Captain Koepenick." After having been twice caught and punished for attempting to "take French leave," Garros and Marchal recalled how gullible the people and soldiers proved themselves in the case of the shoe-maker Voigt who, under the name of "Captain Koepenick," and in an officer's uniform laid everything under contribution and was saluted and honored as only a German military officer could be.

So they made French blue horizon cloth uniforms resembling as closely as possible those of German officers. When they were finished all they had to do was to simply walk out of their prison, out of the camp and out of the town, saluted on every hand by sentinels, soldiers off duty and civilians.

Once clear of the town they doffed their uniforms and made their way to the frontier of Holland by rail quite comfortably. Their greatest difficulty was in crossing the line. It took them three days, during which they crept on hands and knees backward and forwards alternately, dodging sentinels.

PEP

Your mind may be a mighty store of information rare; your hats may read two sizes more than other fellows wear; mathematics and geography may hold no fears for you; the paleozoic age may be a source of rapture true. You may discourse most learnedly on Thun and Timbuctoo, till all your hearers must agree there are no flies on you. And yet, without you always fall asleep with large and small, simply can't bring home the kate, your hunch won't work at all. With brains and brawn you over-erly and still you can't keep step. The reason? Well, if you must know, you haven't any pep. The little maid across the way has hair of golden hue; her smile is sweet, her voice is gay, her eyes are dreamy blue; and eat with all her witching ways no suitors for her fall; although her beauty all may praise she doesn't last at all. Some day she'll be a sour old maid with keen and baleful eye, and all the kids will be afraid, when she comes walking by. Now if I'll not you help, she might as well have been stone blind; she hasn't any pep. Both strange and wonderful, I wish; this pep of much renown, for if you find you lack in this your best move out of town. Steer for the fields and meadows where you are the only one, and where the cows and geese don't care if nothing much is done. But do not buck the game when there are men to fight with you; nor seek to pay with matches where the chips are mostly blue. Although you've sterling qualities, they do not cut much ice; you'll find the world is hard to please, success is high of price. Whatever else you lack, don't doubt—one thing will make your rap. The rest you may jog on without, if you just have the pep.—Aline Michaelis.

INTERVIEW WITH LEON TROTSKY

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, April 29.—Profits of Russian factory owners are to be limited to five or six percent on their investment and the manufacturers are to be required to reinvest a quarter of their profits, under the Bolsheviki economic plan outlined by Leon Trotsky now Russian minister of war and marine, in an interview with Professor E. A. Ross of the University of Wisconsin.

Prof. Ross was sent to Russia by the American institute of social service to study the social conditions of that country and has reported his conclusions to the institute. The Bolsheviki revolution took place when he was in Russia. Trotsky was foreign minister when he explained the Bolsheviki economic program.

"It is the intention of your party to dispossess the owners of industrial plants in Russia?" Professor Ross asked.

"No," Trotsky replied. "We are not ready yet to take over all industry. That will come in time, but no one can say how soon. For the present, we expect out of the earnings of the factories to pay the worker 5 or 6 percent yearly on his actual investment. What we aim at now is control rather than ownership."

"What do you mean by control?"

"I mean that we will see to it that the factory is run not from the point of view of private profit but from the point of view of social welfare democratically conceived. For example, we will not allow a capitalist to shut up his factory in order to starve his workmen into submission or because it is not yielding him a profit. If it is turning out economically a needed product it must be kept running. If the capitalist abandons it he will lose it altogether for a board of directors chosen by the workers will take over the charge."

"Again, 'control' implies that the books of the concern will be open to the public so that henceforth there will be no industrial secrets."

"Do you propose that the profits earned by a concern shall be divided among its workers?" asked the Professor.

"No," said Trotsky. "Profit-sharing is a bourgeois notion. The workers in a mill will be paid adequate wages. All the profits earned will belong to society. It is only pure profit that should be divided."

"Where will the money come from that will build new factories?"

"We can impose on the capitalists to whom we allow a dividend of five or six percent on his capital the obligation to invest in some industry a part—say 25 percent of what he receives."

"If in Russia you hold the capitalists down to five or six percent while other countries they can hope for twice or thrice as much return, won't Russia be stripped of capital?"

"They won't be allowed to remove their capital from Russia at will," said Trotsky significantly.

"I submitted this Bolsheviki program to various Russian economists and all agreed that the Russian workmen are too ignorant and short-sighted to conform to the sound principles which may be held by their leaders," added Professor Ross. "Conscious of being masters of the industrial properties, they will not submit themselves to indispensable discipline. They will not follow the counsel of technical men and they will 'eat up capital,' so far that before the factories have been long in their hands it will be impossible to keep them going."

WOMEN ARE TO HELP IN

Women are to help in the war effort by making bandages, caps, and other things for the soldiers. Many women are working in the factories and in the hospitals. They are doing their part in the most efficient manner possible.

BIG RIFLE RANGE READY FOR USE

(By Associated Press) GREAT LAKES, Ill., April 29.—The biggest rifle range under control of the United States Navy Department is ready for use. It is located at Camp Igan, just north of Zion City, Ill. and is part of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. The range will accommodate approximately 2,000 men every ten days and is in charge of Ensign S. L. Abrang who now is completing work on the range houses.

Before the first of May shooting will be in full swing. The range will accommodate 1,000 men a day, forty shots a man. The course will last ten to fourteen days and about 50,000 men will get training this summer. It is estimated that 2,000,000 rounds of ammunition will be used every month.

The shooting by the men will be done in three courses at distances varying from 200 yards to 1,000 yards.

ORGANIZE TWO CAVALRY BRIGADES

(By Associated Press) AUSTIN, April 29.—Work organizing the two brigades cavalry which are to form a part of the new Texas National Guard is progressing satisfactorily, according to Adjutant General Harley. The general estimates that it will take upwards of two months time to complete organization.

Although no definite statement has been made, it is believed in well informed circles that organization of the infantry brigades will be started as soon as the cavalry units are completed.

A Business Should be as Big as Its Job

If bigness is of benefit to the public it should be commended.

The size of a business depends upon the needs which that business is called upon to serve. A business should be as big as its job. You do not drive tacks with a pile-driver—or piles with a tack-hammer.

Swift & Company's growth has been the natural and inevitable result of national and international needs.

Large-scale production and distribution are necessary to convert the live stock of the West into meat and by-products, and to distribute them over long distances to the consuming centers of the East and abroad.

Only an organization like that of Swift & Company, with its many packing plants, hundreds of distributing houses, and thousands of refrigerator cars, would have been able to handle the varying seasonal supplies of live stock and meet the present war emergency by supplying, without interruption:

First—The U. S. soldiers and the Allies in Europe by shipping as much as 800 carloads of meat products in a single week!

Second—The cantonments in the United States.

Third—The retailers upon whom the American public depends for its daily supply of meat.

But many people ask—Do producers and consumers pay too much for the complex service rendered?

Everyone, we believe, concedes the efficiency of the Swift & Company organization—in performing a big job in a big way at a minimum of expense.

Swift & Company's total profit in 1917 was less than 4 cents on each dollar of sales of meat and by-products. Elimination of this profit would have had practically no effect on live stock and meat prices.

Do you believe that this service can be rendered for less by any other conceivable method of organization or operation?

These questions and others are answered fully and frankly in the Swift & Company 1918 Year Book sent free on request.

CAVALRY COMPANY CYCLONE AND RAIN ALMOST COMPLETE VISITS THE COUNTY

MUCH INTEREST AROUSED AT BIG RALLY SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Capt. Thomason informed The Sentinel this morning that he had ninety-three applications on file for membership in his new cavalry company which will be composed of 105 men; and in commenting on the matter said that so much interest had been aroused in the enterprise that he could organize another in this county if he had authority. He also expressed delight with the class of men he was receiving, the great majority of them being young fellows who are nearing their majority and anxious to come into the service of their country while it needs men and means to defend itself against a ruthless foreign foe.

Capt. Thomason hopes to complete his list in the next day or two, and is arranging to have a cavalry drill with the new company in this city next Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, which will be a most interesting event, as many have never witnessed an enterprise of this kind.

At the mass meeting Saturday afternoon interesting patriotic addresses were delivered by Rev. M. C. Johnson and Capt. John S. Doughtie. The district court room was filled with people interested in this enterprise, and the fervor of patriotism ran high, best attesting the new spirit of interest that has been aroused in the cause of the war in this section. As this meeting did not have much previous boosting, Capt. Thomason believes that double the crowd would have been present with a more widespread advertising of the event.

When the list has been filled, Capt. Thomason will notify his headquarters, and the signers will hold themselves in readiness for call to service. It is possible that they will not be called into active training and service before some time in the summer, which will give those boys who are engaged on the farm time to finish their crop. In the meantime Capt. Thomason will call them together once a week for practice, the first of which will be next Saturday as granted above.

As soon as Captain Thomason completes his list, The Sentinel will publish the names.

BARN AND TREES BLOWN DOWN IN WAKE OF GALE LAST NIGHT

From Monday's Daily.

Accompanying the heavy down-pour of rain and the electrical storm which visited this section about midnight last night was a cyclone which dipped at various places and did considerable damage at some of them. In town it seemed to spend the greatest part of its fury up North street, blowing down trees in the yards of Messrs. F. H. Tucker, John Perkins and T. Tilford. The pretty grove of trees at the place known as the Jordan place, owned by Mr. Eugene H. Blount, were badly damaged, a number of them being blown down, and similar fate was visited upon a pretty grove of trees at home of Mr. Tom Lloyd. A barn at the home of Mr. G. W. Cavin was blown down. Many trees in the Normal grounds were also blown down, and there were doubtless trees blown down at other places in this part of the city, of which we have no report at the time this is being written. A silo on the farm of Henry Millard was blown down, and the barn of Cash Linthicum was blown over. All the fence, and many trees on Mr. R. A. Hall's place were blown down. Some "outhouses" at other place were blown down. Out north-east, it is reported that considerable damage was done out in the vicinity of the home of W. J. McKnight, and that at one place a swath of timber was cut clean in the wake of the wind. Much fence was blown down, and some injury was done to growing crops at different places.

So far as The Sentinel has been able to learn, no occupied residence was caught in the path of the cyclone, and no one was hurt.

There was also some hail at several places, but the hail in this rain was not as heavy as it was in the rain Saturday night.

More than a score of women already are engaged in this work in one factory.

U. S. S. ST. PAUL OVERTURNS TODAY

(By Associated Press)
AN ATLANTIC PORT, April 29.—The American battleship St. Paul overturned at her dock today. The ship had not yet left the dock when she overturned, with her decks partly smashed, but with masts lying across the roof of the pier shed. She had earlier come from the dry docks. It is supposed that her sea-cocks were left open.

So far as is known no one was injured. The military authorities have taken charge of the situation. Between five and six hundred men were working on the ship at the time of the explosion. Some of them jumped in the water and escaped.

The St. Paul is one of the crack steamships of the American line. She registers 11,629 tons gross.

Many workmen appear to be imprisoned in the hold. St. Paul observers from the tops of buildings overlooking the pier saw rescuers cutting holes in the bar of the hull over the water and letting down ladders and bringing up men who had been imprisoned. Workmen who were allowed to leave the pier said that at least six men drowned and that a number of others were missing.

MORE BIG GUNS TO BOMBARD PARIS

(By Associated Press)
AMSTERDAM, April 29.—Three new long range, German guns designed for the bombardment of Paris, passed through the English Channel in the night of April 28, according to reports received here.

The resolution offered at the mass meeting yesterday commending Hon. June C. Harris, county chairman, for his untiring and wise leadership in leading the forces to victory was very timely. Mr. Harris abandoned personal business and has given his whole time to the work for the past several weeks. There are other patriots in the county who are doing the same, who've also to be commended. The exemption board has devoted practically a year to government work, the workers in the recent Red Cross drive promoted a brilliant and successful campaign, and the county chairman of the Food Administration has been very faithful since his appointment. Mr. Sam Hayter is sparing neither pains nor personal expense in promoting his campaign for the sale of war saving certificates and stamps, an organization of ladies is doing likewise, while other ladies are most earnestly and energetically engaged in the Red Cross work. There are others, and the patriotism being so unselfishly exhibited by so many different people should inspire every one to do his bit at every opportunity.

Don't take nasty, dangerous calomel when bilious, constipated, headachy. Listen to me!

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

MICHIGAN TO BONE DRY

(By Associated Press) DETROIT, May 1.—Today was experiencing a day as a "bone dry" amendment to the statute providing for prohibition having become effective a night last night. Many 3,285 saloons affected by law, remained open today—their business was confined to the serving of lunches and dispensing of what is advertised as "temperance beer." It was particularly true in the case of downtown saloons in the cities and larger villages.

The manufacture of beer by 62 breweries of the state discontinued sometime ago many of them turning to the production of soft drinks, while others were converted into factories.

Close watch was being kept today on the number of physicians' prescriptions for liquor presented at drug stores. Under the new law, the maximum amount of spirituous liquor any person may purchase is eight ounces, provided a prescription signed by a physician is presented at the time. To legally carry that amount of intoxicating liquor on the person, the bearer must be able to prove that it was purchased with a prescription.

Responsibility for the enforcement of the dry laws rests with Fred Woodworth, state food and dairy commissioner, who has been given authority to call upon any department of the state for assistance to bring about rigid observance of the laws. At a recent conference of county prosecutors with members of state attorney general's office, it was made plain that the state expects county and local authorities to co-operate to the fullest extent in enforcing the law.

With the maximum amount of liquor a person may have in his home limited to eight ounces and purchased upon a physician's prescription, and druggists required to keep a record of all prescriptions filled, state officials expect the sale of intoxicants in Michigan will be reduced to a minimum.

Throughout April a price slashing campaign had been carried on here, marked by liberal store-front advertising and a daily drop in the price of some of the more popular brands of spirituous liquors.

The business of nearly 3,300 saloons in the state is affected by the law, although many of them will remain open to dispense soft drinks.

HAIL DAMAGED CROPS AROUND DOUGLAS

Messrs J. P. and W. B. Baker of the Flatwood community, were visitors to the city today on business. In conversation with these gentlemen, The Sentinel reporter learns that crops suffered heavily from the hail storm up in that section last Friday night.

The gentlemen stated that fruit, garden and farming crops were badly damaged in the section two miles south of Douglas, and that peaches were knocked from the trees and the fruit crop in that immediate neighborhood would be practically a failure as a result of the hail. A path of several hundred feet was visited by the downpour of hail, according to these gentlemen, and the storm came from a Southerly direction, the hail lying on the ground all through the night, covering the ground like snow and some of it not melting by eight o'clock the next morning.
