MEXICAN PEOPLE MISLED BY NEWSPAPER CANARDS

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 19.—It was under the British flag that Americans in Mexico, when Vera Cruz was occupied by the Americans, were given refuge. Dr. John Hunter today told the senate committee investigating the Mexican situation. He was in Guadalajara at the time. The newspapers, he said, published stories that the Mexicans had already captured all the American border towns except El Paso, and that the Mexican prisoners in Fort Bliss had killed 500 American soldiers and were marching on that town. This news so excited the Mexicans, the witness said, that they were forced to seek shelter in the British consulate while the American consulate was sacked.

RAILWAY STRIKE IN ITALY.

Paris, June 21.—Northern and Central Italy are in the grip of a general railway strike, but Southern Italy is not so seriously affected, according to the Turin correspondent of the Petit Parisienne. The Italian government was able to run a few trains over the principal lines yesterday, the trains being heavily guarded. Martial law is in force in the principal cities of the country.

CIVIL WAR THREATENED TEXAS-OKLAHOMA BORDER

Austin, Texas, Jan. 20.—Serious threats by claimants of the oil lands in dispute between Texas and Oklahoma that they will take the law in their own hands presents possibilities of civil war along the Texas-Oklahoma border, said W. A. Keeling, assistant attorney general, today andangers have been sent into that region to prevent threatened disorders. Both the Texas and Oklahoma claimants threaten to shoot anyone who interferes with their occupation of the property, he added. Mr. Keeling will leave tonight for Wichita county. Thirteen rangers have been ordered to report to Adjutant General Cope, who has been in that section for several days. Mr. Keeling said the disputed territory would be regarded as Texas land unless the federal courts decide it belongs to Oklahoma, and until this decision comes the state forces will support and defend those holding land under Texas claims.

RANGERS THROUGH FT. WORTH.

Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 20.—Fifteen rangers, commanded by Captain Franklin, passed through here this morning en route to some point on Red river. The men were fully armed, carrying carbines and a supply of cartridges. Although Captain Franklin refused to disclose his destination, he boarded a train for Wichita Falls.

BOMB PLOT LEADERS SOUGHT BY OFFICERS

New York, N. Y., Jan. 20.—Search is being made today by the police bomb squad and Department of Justice agents for half a dozen radicals believed to be the leaders in a bomb plot declared to have been nipped yesterday by the arrest of eighteen reds. The capture was made possible by revelations of an alien held for deportation who divulged the terrorist plot in an effort to obtain consideration from government agents. Evidence of plans for the bomb plots against government officials was obtained in the raids, officials said.

AUTOS ON THE JOB.

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 20.—Six thousand automobiles, trucks and trailers worth more than $6,000,000 are supplementing the railroads in the development of commerce in the Southwest out of El Paso. A radius of five hundred miles covers the commercial activities carried in from this border city into Arizona, New Mexico and old Mexico.

Indicative of the extent of the automobile business here are figures showing $4,000,000 spent for automobiles in the past year; $2,750,000 for gasoline; $500,000 for tires.

TEXAS LEADS IN MOHAIR.

Stamford, Texas, Jan. 20.—Two-thirds of the mohair production of the United States in 1919 came from West Texas, according to estimates of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Ten million pounds, valued at $6,000,000 were produced in what section, it is estimated. The Angora goat industry in West Texas is steadily increasing.

HUGE GOOD-ROADS FUND

Stamford, Texas, Jan. 20.—Thirty six millions of dollars for good roads was voted in West Texas counties during 1919, according to figures compiled by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. This, it is said, represents approximately 45 per cent of the total road bond issue of Texas during the year.

TOBACCO CAUSING BLINDNESS.

Koenigsberg, Jan. 21.—While the use of wood alcohol in the United States is producing blindness or death, German smokers are discovering that partial blindness also is caused by some brands of German tobacco sold here. The police president of Koenigsberg states that numerous cases have been observed recently of chronic disturbance of sight by the use of this tobacco.

Portugal is the most illiterate country in Europe—more than 60 per cent of its population can not write.

"BIG" MAN REQUIRED IN MEXICO, SAYS SENATOR FALLS

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 20.—It will require the leadership of the "biggest" man the people can produce to bring order out of chaos in Mexico and it is doubtful if Mexicans can ever work out their own salvation, according to United States Senator A. B. Fall of New Mexico.

Luis Cabrera, secretary of the treasury in Carranza's cabinet, is the most brilliant man in Mexico, Senator Fall believes, but he regrets that Cabrera is "not particularly friendly to Americans."

"Mexicans have told me," Senator Falls said, "that Francisco Villa is the idol of the Mexican people and that in an election such as we hold in the United States he would defeat any four candidates put up."

"Prosperity talk about Mexico is largely propaganda," the senator said. "Mexico's financial condition and her inability to pay even the interest on her indebtedness amply prove that."

TURKS MUST NOT RULE ANY CHRISTIAN PEOPLE

London, Jan. 16.—A committee has just been formed, with T. P. O'Connor, the widely known member of parliament, as president, to conduct an energetic campaign to the end that the Turks shall never again govern areas inhabited by Christians.

The committee was organized at a meeting which was addressed by W. A. Lloyd, an Australian journalist, who related stories of atrocities attributed to the Turks. Mr. O'Connor, who presided, declared that "not a single Christian subject should be allowed to remain under Turkish mis-government."

Mr. Lloyd fought against the Turks and said he had seen much of their methods since, having only just returned from an investigation of the results of Turkish rule. He stated that there was now, more than a year after the signing of the armistice, a well-equipped, well-organized Turkish army in the field, murdering wholesale unarmed Christian men, women and children.

"Only a few weeks ago," he said, "I helped to gather the mutilated bodies of some 300 or 400 little Christian children for Christian burial in Asia Minor."

EARTHQUAKES IN 1919.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 20.—Four hundred and sixty-eight earthquakes were felt sensibly in various parts of the world during 1919. Of that number, 97 were felt in the United States but there was no loss of life or serious damage to property from those in this country. Of the earthquakes occurring in other parts of the world, loss of life was recorded in that of April 28 in San Salvador and one on June 29 in Florence, Italy.

Eighty of the 97 earth shocks recorded in the United States were reported from California. The remainder were felt in various parts of the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Kentucky, Arkansas, Utah, Arizona, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Tennessee, Washington, Virginia, New Jersey, and Michigan all reported shocks during the year.

OUTRAGES IN MEXICO.

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 15.—Additional accounts of hardships endured by American settlers in Mexico since Carranza came into power were given the senate subcommittee investigating the Mexican situation today by three women—Mrs. Mary Wright, Mrs. Willis and Mrs. Bailey, residing in widely separated regions of Mexico, who told of outrages and murders, Mrs. Wright describing how she concealed her daughters for days in order to keep them from marauding Mexicans.

It was announced that Luis Cabrera, minister of finance in the Carranza cabinet, would be invited to appear before the committee as an ordinary witness, but the committee will not visit Mexico.

Noblesville, Ind., Jan. 15.—"Chief," the best Poland China hog, brought $35,000 in the sale here today. A sow brought $8,000.

PROGRESS AND PIFFLE.

A bucolic exchange, which has more time to juggle figures than real horse sense, says:

"During the year just ended 6,380,000 nickels were spent in this country at the moving-picture shows, or $319,000,000. This vast sum would have purchased 300,000 homes for people in ordinary circumstances, or nearly 80,000 good-sized farms."

Well, there is nothing to prevent those nickels from being invested in farms now. They haven't been destroyed by being spent. The ownership has changed—that is all. Of course, the first owners of the nickels might not have bought show tickets, had they preferred bucolic pursuits to urban excitements. That was for them to choose, and the moving picture impresarios can now buy farms, if they so desire—and have not otherwise spent the money. We publicists grumble a good deal over modern extravagance, but we ourselves are not shining examples of ascetic living. How many of us as political or social economists would be willing for the moving-picture shows to be abolished in order that we might not be tempted to invest an occasional dime in pictorial drama? How many would be willing for telephones to be eliminated in order that we might not have to pay for telephony? How many would demolish the dynamos and snuff out the electric lights in order that we might remain in darkness and owe nothing at the end of the month for kilowatts? Who would blow out the gas and go back to pineknotted light and heat? The telephone, electric, gas and water bills of the average city family would support in fair circumstances a couple of poor children, yet, much as we praise philanthropy, none of us would be willing to forego these domestic conveniences in order to maintain a miniature orphanage. There is a great deal of hypocrisy passing current as benevolence.

NACOGDOCHES COUNTY OIL

It is not being much talked, but it is a fact, nevertheless, that Nacogdoches county is rapidly coming into the public eye as a county of unusual oil possibilities. Prominent oil men are dropping into this county quietly, but with a purpose. What they will accomplish remains to be seen.

Over at Appleby a joint stock company for the determination of Appleby's probable oil resources has been organized. This company will explore the region around Appleby, and if they are successful in finding the coveted liquid, great will be the spring of that little town.

Down at Oil Springs unusual activity is taking place in oil circles. Several wells are being drilled and if these are financially successful, it may be expected that more will follow. The country around Oil Springs has an interesting history. For years oil seeped out of the ground, a nuisance to all, or rather an object of more or less superstition. This oil was used for medicinal purposes by some of the old-timers, who had a wonderful faith in the curative powers of the wonderful medicine that flowed from out of the bowels of the earth. Since those times, however, shallow wells have been drilled by companies with satisfactory results.

Mr. A. C. Smith of this city says that the oil of this county is of unusually fine quality; that it contains a greater percent of gasoline than any oil find in the world. This speaks mighty well for the future of Nacogdoches county, and should make some stop to think before they leave it. "Throw away your hammer and get a horn."

And now comes the sickening information that Nacogdoches is being jeopardized with reference to her getting the promised Stephen F. Austin Normal. It seems that certain unscrupulous things have conspired to obstruct the progress of the normal's immediate erection, these things arising out of misunderstandings rather than a desire on the part of any particular person to wilfully postpone the early building of the prized edifice.

This is only true to nature. Anything that means a thing of value to any existence is always fraught with difficulties and more or less rough sailing. The normal is an object that is very much coveted by other towns which have in the past made some very strenuous efforts to divert the normal their way. It is a fact undisputed that the normal deserves to be placed here, because of the ideal surroundings, and unexcelled location.

But despite all these at present unpleasant little things, Nacogdoches will eventually get the beautiful school. Nacogdoches progressiveness demands such; it commands the admiration, the attention and the respect of the entire state of Texas.

Nacogdoches is preparing one of the biggest building programs in its history; it is preparing one of the biggest road-building programs in the chronicles of East Texas; it is preparing to assist the farmers of the county in diversification of their crops, thereby insuring them still greater prosperity than ever before experienced, and Nacogdoches deserves, by reason of these things, the very best.

If you are a booster, talk for the normal. If you are for Nacogdoches in an educational way, wake up. Help clear away the obstructions and make the matter clear. Nacogdoches must have what has been promised her. "The Stephen F. Austin Normal or Bust," is the slogan. "Build more homes for Nacogdoches" is another maxim, and "Throw away your hammer and get a horn" is the best adage of all!

WHY PAY YOUR POLL TAX?

Because, if you do, you can vote in the next primary for presidential electors, congressmen, governors, state senators, state representatives, all other state officials, and all county officials. The primary is the nomination and more important than the election proper.

Because, our opponents state that they have determined to see that a legislature is elected that will repeal the primary suffrage law. Your poll tax receipt will enable you to help safeguard this law.

Because, thirty-six states will most probably ratify the federal suffrage amendment before election time, and you will then be able to vote in the election proper, as well as on all other matters which are decided by popular choice, if your poll tax is paid.

Because, our opponents are saying ly asserted that they will see to it that the legislature is elected that will rescind ratification of the federal suffrage amendment. Your poll tax receipt will enable you to prevent this.

Because, our opponents are saying that women are not paying poll taxes because they do not want the ballot. Ferguson's Forum asserts in bold-faced type that the women of Texas do not want the ballot. Your poll tax receipt disproves these assertions.

Because, no reform is safe simply because a law has once been passed establishing it. We must be always prepared to put good men into office and keep bad ones out. Without your poll tax receipt you have no voice in any election.

Because, $1.00 of your poll tax money goes to the support of the schools. The best teachers are leaving the schools because of poor pay. Your poll tax money will help to keep good teachers in the schools.

Because, every conscientious, forward-looking woman wants to bear her share of the responsibility for the kind of government we live under, the kind of men who are put into office, the kind of social and industrial conditions that exist in her state, county and city, the kind of schools the children are educated in.

Pay your poll tax today.

TARDY JUSTICE.

Nothing short of a war and dire necessity would have ever brought about the proper regulation of the stock manipulators and food, fuel and other trusts which have grabbed all the necessities of the country, and the middlemen pirates who have robbed the people for many years. The government should have stepped in and regulated these rascally hogs and plunderers years ago, and the reform press and the people have been crying aloud for just such regulation for the past twenty years, but it did little good. Those mixed up in high places in the government have been so closely allied with these trusts themselves, and drawing down such immense profits, that it has been impossible for the people to get justice.

But now that reconstruction demands that the rapacity of these cutthroats be regulated and suppressed, something is being done about it.

It makes very little difference to the masses of the people whether the party in power be democratic or republican—they are seemingly all tarred with the same stick, and the almighty dollar sits enthroned above men, women and children or the commands of the Almighty.

Now, however, the absolute necessity caused by the war, and to prevent wanton hunger and actual starvation stalking through the land, hitting rich and poor alike, some of the reforms which should have been brought about years ago are gradually being recognized. The war has accomplished that much good, if no other.

Among the grossest frauds perpetrated upon the people have been those of the food manipulators and the Chicago and New York wheat and stock pits. Now these are curbed a bit, and they are beginning to realize that unless the speculations in food-stuffs are reformed there is likely to be an uprising among the people themselves and a lot of food-pirates and politicians are liable to decorate telephone poles.

Sometimes the majority rules, and sometimes it only thinks it does.

Women battling for equal rights should remember that very few men receive alimony.

Agitators might be held in higher esteem if they did not insist on being paid for it.

A soldier's first duty is to obey orders, which may explain why married men make good soldiers.

You may have observed that it is the liquor interests which find the most fault with prohibition.

What has become of the old-fashioned girl who used to entertain her steady with a photograph album?

The chances are a great musician could play just as well if he would blow himself for a haircut occasionally.

A cave man might not have been henneped, but there were dinosaurs and such like to keep him home nights.

The modern Turkish woman of the Even such weather as we have had for the past few days is said to have its uses.

Economy can be carried too far, and no one should be saving of soap and handkerchiefs.

Some society women are doing their part in the interest of economy, and are shortening their dresses at both ends.

While women are taking the place of men in many lines of endeavor, no woman has a vocabulary suitable for driving mules.

The chickens that scratch up the neighbors' gardens cause less trouble than those which put on the street parade down town.

When the lady candidates get to casting their hats into the ring, as one already has for the presidency, it is apt to be some millinery display.

Farmers of Nacogdoches county will be especially urged to plant plenty of potatoes and peas next year. These they will feed to their live stock.

Women differ from the courts in this respect: They are apt to believe a man guilty until he proves his innocence, and even then they have their suspicions.

Some years ago parents had to train their stubborn children, but it seems that nowadays the children have taken

GET READY FOR "FLU"

Keep Your Liver Active, Your System Purified and Free From Colds by Taking Calotabs, the Nauseless Calomel Tablets, that are Delightful, Safe and Sure.

Physicians and Druggists are advising their friends to keep their systems purified and their organs in perfect working order as a protection against the return of influenza. They know that a clogged up system and a lazy liver favor colds, influenza and serious complications.

To cut short a cold overnight and to prevent serious complications take one Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, no griping, no sickening after effects. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Every druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not perfectly delighted with Calotabs.—(Ad.)

on it upon themselves to train their stubborn parents.

Human nature is frail. Every man wants all the news printed until he, himself, gets into trouble. Then he assumes the attitude that not everything is the public's business.

A correspondent of a Missouri paper writes: "The deceased leaves some children, wife, dog, cow, pint of whiskey, a pretty good gun, some shells, a knife, a plug of tobacco and $27.50."

There was a young girl of Oakloch Who lived on a diet of squash: But she switched to tomatoes And French-fried potatoes And they doubled her up, b'gosh.

The Lufkin News editor says that he will only be too glad to get that bridge mixed up in politics by turning his part of it over to the candidates to gnaw on. All right, brother; same up here. Won't it be fun?

In a few more days the biggest piece of road-working in the history of Nacogdoches county and East Texas will commence. It is something that makes every true Nacogdoches man and woman feel proud, and it means a great source of prosperity for all. Now, if Nacogdoches can get out of being what Prof. R. F. Davis terms a "home town," and go to building houses for rent, her future will be one of the greatest. "Build More Homes." That's the slogan!

And now comes the information that Lufkin is probably going to be selected as a landing place for airships which will come from Dallas going to Houston. The Lufkinites, with characteristic rusticism, are fairly wild over the proposed route, and are not hesitating to let the world know about it. Nacogdoches could have an air route if she wanted it. But one of the liveliest chambers of commerce in East Texas, coupled with one of the biggest pieces of road building in its history, together with a number of other things, are taking her interest just now.

Over near Jasper the other day some honorable colored citizens were found by the sheriff and his deputies making a full supply of the precious liquid that never fails to make a poor man rich. After an exciting chase, despite the fact that the negroes were heavily armed, the makers of the famous liquid were put under the protection of the law. Their equipment was a bit crude, but according to the authorities, effective, nevertheless. They say there is no telling what the woods of this county might reveal if thoroughly searched. Yet the days of the mint-bed are said by many to be gone.

Nacogdoches county is a county of great resources. The extent of her timbered domains would surprise the average person. Many mills are doing a prosperous business cutting her timber, and such has been the case for years and years. In addition to the lumber, the ties made in this county are out of proportion to normal figures. In the forks of the river, where unusually fine tie timber abounds, men make as high as $12 daily hacking them. The resources in timber are not confined to lumber and ties entirely, however. Each year hundreds of feet of fine walnut, oak, and hickory for the manufacture of fine furniture, are shipped from Nacogdoches county to the far north.

All these things make the future of the county look particularly bright, and suggest the greatest possibilities. The Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce champions the cause of these great possibilities of Nacogdoches county, and it's the duty of her citizens to see that the chamber of commerce makes good. By wearing that button in plain sight, you will be silently boosting your home town and letting the world know on which side of the fence you stand. Wear that button.

SWIFT JUSTICE FOR PROFITEERS IN SUGAR

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 16.—Chicago is going after its sugar profiteers with a vengeance. Of the 25 men arrested on this charge two months ago, 20 were indicted Wednesday. Investigators have been busy collecting evidence and cases will be prosecuted.

The indictments charge selling a necessity of life at exorbitant prices in violation of the Lever food control act. Federal officials plan to push the cases to trial as rapidly as possible. The maximum penalty will be asked in each case. This is a fine of $5000 or two years in a federal prison, or both. Fifteen cases still remain to be acted upon. It is hinted that indictments will be returned in each case.

There is plenty of sugar in the city and now that prosecutions for profiteering and speculation are under way, there is no difficulty whatever in securing supplies. The government hopes, by swift, smashing action in the cases in hand, to teach a lesson that will not be forgotten.

The only idea some people have of prayer is that the good Lord is deaf.

DEWS OF EVE

No More Gentle Than "Cascarets" for the Liver, Bowels

It is just as needless as it is dangerous to take violent or nasty cathartics. Nature provides no shock-absorbers for your liver and bowels against calomel, harsh pills, sickening oil and salts. Cascarets give quick relief without injury from Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Gases and Sick Headache. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without griping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by strengthening the bowel muscles. They cost so little too.

THE ONLY AGENT OF THE MUTUAL BENEFIT, THE COUNTY BROTHERHOOD AND THE HOME BENEFIT ASSOCIATIONS.

UNCLE SAM AND THE FARMER.

The year through which we have just passed has been a prosperous one for the stockman and the farmer but especially for the cotton farmer. A bountiful yield and the high prices received for cotton and other products of the farm will no doubt more than double the number of income tax payers among the farmers for the year 1919. It should be borne in mind by those who have never made an income tax report, but who will be due a tax for 1919, that it is not necessary for the government to notify you of your liability. The law places the duty squarely on you and you should inform yourself as to the requirements and comply with them. Ample time is allowed in which your income tax return may be legally filed—failure to file it on time renders you liable to severe penalties.

The Filing Date.—Returns—or reports—for the calendar year 1919 may be filed at any time after January 15, 1920.

Where Filed.—They may be mailed to "A. S. Walker, Collector, Austin, Texas," or filed with a deputy collector if one is near you.

Income Tax Forms.—Ask your banker for one—if he can't supply you, write to A. S. Walker, Collector, Austin, Texas, and ask for Form 1040-A if you made less than $5000 in 1919 and for Form 1040 if your income exceeded this sum.

Single Persons.—Every single man and every single woman whose net income for 1919 was $1000 or more must file a report. Remember that your board, lodging and other personal expenses are not deducted in figuring your net income.

Married Persons.—Every married man whose income, including that of his wife, amounted to $2000 or more must file a report. Don't forget that $2,000 net income will require you to file a report—the fact that you may have dependent children entitling you to an additional exemption does not relieve you of making a report.

Widows and Widowers.—Unmarried persons, including widows and widowers, are required to file income tax reports if their net income for the year amounts to as much as $1000. You may have dependents that will give you an additional exemption, but the law says that you must file a report if your income equals or exceeds $1,000.

Do It Now.—Go through your bank book, cancelled checks, cotton tickets, store accounts and bills, and other records and figure up the amount of cotton and other produce sold and other income received. Make a detailed list of the expenses you paid from January 1, 1919 to December 31, 1919. Then present your figures to the deputy collector nearest you—he is an employee of the government and will assist you in making up your return without charge—that's his business.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Before using this preparation for a cough or cold you may wish to know what it has done for others. Mrs. O. Cook, Macon, Ill., writes, "I have found it gives the quickest relief of any cold remedy I have ever used." Mrs. James A. Knott, Chillicothe, Mo., says "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cannot be beat for coughs and colds." H. J. Moore, Oval, Pa., says "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on several occasions when I was suffering with a settled cold upon the chest and it has always brought about a cure." Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

FOR DISTRICT CLERK.

R. B. Walthall announced today as a candidate for District Clerk Nacogdoches county.

At the beginning of the Great War he was editor of the Garrison News, and in order to give his entire time to the duties of food administrator Nacogdoches county, he sold the newspaper, resigned as justice of the peace at Garrison and Woodman Clerk and moved to Nacogdoches and served gratis until September, 1918, at which time, on account of the conspicuous service he had rendered, he was promoted and made deputy state food administrator for Texas and assigned to East Texas, holding that position until the end of the war.

When Mr. N. B. Hall resigned the first of last March, Mr. Walthall was appointed to fill the unexpired term of district clerk. At the end of this year he will have virtually served a whole term and is, therefore, asking for a second term, and for this reason it is not believed that he will have any opposition.

Mr. Walthall is giving entire satisfaction in this position, and the voters will not make any mistake in giving him two more years.

Cured at a Cost of 25 Cents.

"Eight years ago when we first moved to Mattoon, I was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation," writes Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill. "I had frequent headaches and dizzy spells, and there was feeling like a heavy weight pressing on my stomach and chest all of the time. I felt miserable. Every morsel of food distressed me. I could not rest at night and felt tired and worn out all of the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets cured me and I have felt like a different person since." Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

GINNERS' REPORT.

Cotton ginned in Nacogdoches county to January 1, of the 1919 crop, amounted to 7,197 bales, as compared with 19,595 bales ginned to January 1, 1919, of the 1918 crop, according to the official government report.

Chamberlain's Tablets.

When you are troubled with indigestion or constipation, take Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Indigestion is usually accompanied by constipation and is aggravated by it. Chamberlain's Tablets cause a gentle movement of the bowels, relieving the constipated condition. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

WANT WILLIAM TO VOLUNTARILY SURRENDER

TEXAS STATE TREASURY IN GOOD CONDITION

Austin, Texas, Jan. 19.—The state treasury was in splendid condition at the end of the last fiscal year. The state revenue account showed a balance of $4,600,000.

Receipts for the last fiscal year, which ended August 31, 1919, were eight percent above receipts of the preceding year, while expenditures increased only four percent. During the year ending August 31, 1918, receipts were $26,008,931 and expenditures were $26,527,469, or $518,537 more than the receipts. During the past year receipts were $28,410,724. Disbursements were $27,200,987, or $1,209,736 less than the receipts.

Port Arthur, Texas, Jan. 19.—L. E. Stout, member of the Texas house of representatives from the Fourteenth district, died today after an operation for appendicitis.

DISCARDED AS DANGEROUS

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

OUR LEGISLATURES.

There are altogether too many lawyers, doctors, merchants and chiefs in the state legislatures of every state in the union. And, incidentally, right now is as good a time as any to begin to throw a lot of them out and put men in their places that not only know something of the needs and rights of the common, every-day people, but are to some degree in sympathy with them because of being of them.

Put a lawyer in the legislature and it is but human nature for him to favor laws such as lawyers want. Put a member of the employing class to making laws and he is going to make laws like the employing classes want. Put a doctor there and he will doctor the laws, same as he does everything he comes in contact with. Put a merchant there and he will never overlook the selling interests for a minute, or consider the ultimate consumer as anything more than the goat. We are not blaming these lawyers, doctors, merchants and chiefs, particularly, as these predilections are but human nature, but we are stating facts, which we defy any living man to refute, and are suggesting that the great masses of the people are continually and everlastingly getting the worst of it because they haven't gumption enough to realize these facts, or, realizing them, to take action to change them and bring about a state of legislative affairs such as common every-day horse sense should teach them they need, ought to have and must have before they can ever hope to prosper.

Some smart individual will now please rise up and state that, following this line of argument, it would be equally true that if you put a laboring man into the law-making bodies of this and other states he would seek to make laws favorable to the laborer. Granted. That is admitted. Now are here, to prevent argument. And that is just exactly what should be done. Let each class and interest have a fair representation—the laborer, the lawyer, the doctor, the merchant and the chief (the "chief" representing big business, corporations, etc.), and then each and every class and interest of the people will get a square deal, and never until then. As it now is, probably two-thirds of the law-makers of the land, both in congress and the state legislatures, are lawyers. Lawyers, as a class and as a rule, represent corporations if they get the chance, and they are all looking for the chance, as that is where the fat fees come from. And no man on earth can represent the corporations and the common rank and file of the people at the same time.

Let us, then, in the interest of the common good and welfare, weed out at least half of these lawyers, doctors (of laws), merchants and chiefs and put in their places good, straight, hard-headed men who have risen from the ranks of the common people and who have the interests of the masses, as well as the classes, at heart, the honesty and integrity to play fair to one and all, and the brains and ability to accomplish something.

SIGNIFICANCE OF SECTION SIX.

It is apparent from the first vote cast by Southern senators that the South is not acquainted with the benefits which it must necessarily reap if Section 6 of the Cummins railroad bill, now in conference, becomes a law. This section was written by Senator Underwood of Alabama with a full realization of its value to the railroad properties which serve the South, and it was accepted by Senator Cummins, as drafted, although it has been opposed with vigor by the powerful railroad interests, which rely upon the North and the West for their earnings.

Under Section 6 the Interstate Commerce Commission is directed to readjust freight rates at least 5 1-2 per cent on the money actually invested and when the physical valuation of the roads is finally determined 5 1-2 per cent upon a fair valuation of these properties.

The group of railroads which will profit most decisively by such a program of rate-making will be the Southern roads which, for the most part, have barely remained solvent or have gone into the hands of receivers. The financially strong roads like the Pennsylvania, New York Central, North Pacific and the Milwaukee, it is pointed out, will not need protection at the hands of the government and they seem to be hostile to any measure which would allow the poorer roads the same degree of prosperity which they have enjoyed in times gone by.

The South has a very direct and a very important interest in any legislation which will guarantee to its lines of transportation sufficient revenue not only to insure good service, but to make possible extensions, upon which the development of Southern territory must depend. It seems to the casual observer that Senator Underwood has initiated a very vital piece of legislation from a Southern standpoint, and that he should be given the fullest support in his efforts to keep Section 6 in the railroad bill. He has this support from certain Northern sections, but has not been able to count upon it from that part of the country from which he has a right to expect.

DO NOT FAIL TO MAKE INCOME TAX REPORT

Nacogdoches, Texas, Jan. 17, 1920
The Sentinel:
Income tax forms are now being mailed to those who filed returns for 1918. Every person not married and living with wife or husband should file a return for the year 1919 if his or her net income is $1,000.00 or more, regardless of exemptions on account of dependents. Every married person should file a return when the net income of the family, including that of husband, wife and children under 21 years of age, equals or exceeds $2,000.00. In arriving at net income do not forget to include dividends. Returns for 1919 should be filed by March 15th. All who are found to be delinquent incur penalties which must be paid even when no tax is due.

All persons, partnerships, corporations or associations paying as much as $1000.00 to any person during the year 1919 as salary, wages, rent, commission, interest, premiums or annuities should make reports on Form 1099 for each such person and a recap on Form 7096. These blanks may be had on application to R. E. Weed, Deputy Collector, at The Banita Hotel. The time limit for filing is March 15th and a penalty is incurred if not filed by that date.

All partnerships should file returns, no matter how small the income. Penalties accrue for failure to file returns.

I will gladly give any information to those who are due reports of any kind in connection with the revenue laws and will assist as many as possible in making up these reports.

As soon as the new income tax blanks are received at my office you will be notified through the local papers.

All matters pertaining to the income tax, and in fact, all kinds of taxes due the government, should be given prompt and careful attention. It is easier to make the original report correct than to correct it later.

R. E. WEED,
Deputy Collector.

SPEEDERS PAY THE FREIGHT
Houston, Texas, Jan. 20.—Drunkness, and fines in police court resulting therefrom, decreased in 1919, but fines collected from automobile speeders almost doubled the total amount of money collected in corporation or police court during the last year. Fines in 1919 aggregated more than $62,000, whereas, in 1918 the total was only $33,000.

This unusual increase in the number and amount of fines assessed by the police court is explained by the fact a special officer was employed to follow-up speeders whose names and addresses were taken by the traffic officer and who were released on their own recognizance. Formerly speeders would give assumed names and wrong addresses or would fail to appear in police court. Since the employment of the special officer about ninety per cent of cases against speeders have been brought before the court.

The fines collected in the corporation court this year will pay approximately one-third of the total expenses of the police department for 1919, or one half the salaries of all police officials for the year.

COWS FOR THE PHILIPPINES.

Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 21.—More than one hundred Texas cows have just been purchased by the United States government and will be shipped to the Philippines to be cross-bred with the native Indian or humpback cattle of the islands. The purchase was made by Dr. A. S. Shealy, purchasing agent for the Philippines, who said the island cattle were poor beef producers. By crossing the Indian breed with the hardy Texas stock, he said it was believed the home supply of beef could be increased in the islands, thus decreasing the heavy importation of meat.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TELLS OF SUFFRAGE QUALIFICATIONS

Replying to an official inquiry from the county attorney of Travis county, Attorney General Cureton has given the following opinion relative to the qualifications of female voters in the coming primary:
COMPTROLLER'S DEPARTMENT
Austin, Texas, January 15, 1920.
Hon. John W. Hornsby,
County Attorney,
Austin, Texas.

Dear Sir:
Answering your inquiry, with reference to what is necessary to qualify women to vote in the primary elections and to participate in the nominating conventions, held under the laws of this state during the year 1920, you are advised:

1. Every woman who desires to vote in any primary election or who desires to participate in any nominating convention, shall, first of all, possess all of the qualifications necessary of an elector, such as twelve months' residence in the state, six months residence in the county, and must vote in the precinct in which she lives.

2. In addition to possessing the qualifications of an elector, she must have paid the same poll taxes that are now required of female voters and must have paid taxes and obtained a receipt therefor prior to the 1st day of February, 1920. The form of receipt now used for male voters shall be used for female voters.

3. In addition to the above requirements, the female voter must have paid, not only the state and county poll tax of $1.75, but, if she resides in a city which levies a poll tax upon male voters, she must pay the city poll tax. In other words, she must pay the same poll taxes,—state, county, and city—which are required of male voters.

4. And further such female voter must pay said poll taxes in the manner required of male voters, that is to say, if she resides in a city of ten thousand inhabitants and over, she must appear in person before the tax collector and pay her poll tax. If she resides outside of a city of ten thousand inhabitants, she may pay her poll taxes as is required of male voters, either in person or by a written order to an agent authorizing said agent to pay her poll taxes and providing the necessary funds with which said poll taxes are to be paid; and in which event, the tax receipt should be mailed by the tax collector to the female person paying same and shall not be delivered to her agent. The forms for paying poll taxes by agents now applicable to male voters shall likewise be applicable to female voters.

5. Female voters, more than sixty years of age, or those who are blind, or deaf and dumb, or permanently disabled, or who have lost one hand or foot, shall be entitled to vote without being required to pay the poll tax, but such female voter, if she resides in a city of ten thousand inhabitants or over, shall be required to obtain her certificate of exemption from the county tax collector before the first day of February, 1920.

6. Female voters who shall reach the age of 21 years after the first day of February and before the day of the following primary election or nominating convention, and who possess all of the other qualifications of a voter, shall be entitled to vote at such election, if she has obtained a certificate of exemption from the county collector before the first day of February which shall specify the day when she will be twenty-one years old and contain all the other requisites of a certificate of exemption. Before the certificate of exemption shall issue, the applicant therefor shall make a written affidavit of her age to be administered and certified to by the county collector, who shall file and preserve the same. The same rules as to residence now required of male voters to obtain tax receipts shall apply as to exemptions for both male and female voters.

7. No poll tax is levied on women and the payment of poll taxes by women cannot be enforced, but the payment is only prerequisite to the right of women to vote in primary elections or to take part in nominating conventions.

Yours very truly,
C.M. CURETON
Attorney General.

Women desiring to procure a poll tax receipt, and who are from any cause unable to visit the office of the tax collector, may send to that office for a blank order, which, when properly filled out and signed, will enable them to procure a poll-tax receipt through another person, but this legal form is the only order the collector is permitted to accept for the issuance of a poll-tax receipt. Collector J. C. Melton informs The Sentinel he has an ample supply of these blank order forms. Send for one in case you are unable to go in person to his office.

MARTIN DIES WILL AGAIN ENTER RACE FOR U. S. CONGRESS

In Outline of Platform Declares He is Opposed to Socialism and Large Standing Army. Will Start Campaign After Holidays

(From Beaumont Enterprise.)

Hon. Martin Dies, of Turkey Creek and Woodville, for ten years congressman from this district and a notable figure in Texas politics, yesterday announced that he would again be a candidate for congress, opposing the incumbent, Hon. John C. Box of Jacksonville. The announcement will be something of a political sensation in this district, as well as a distinct surprise even to the close friends of the former congressman. His entry as a candidate in the July primaries makes certain what the optimists would call a "hoos race" for the congressional honor.

Mr. Dies is a veteran campaigner, and after a long vacation on his Turkey Creek farm declares himself in the pink of condition. He will conduct a vigorous campaign throughout the district, beginning early in January, and that it will be an interesting contest none who knows the newest candidate will deny. His friends regard him as a strenuous political scrapper. Mr. Dies declined to run for re-election two years ago, desiring to rest up from his long duties at Washington.

Campaign Will be Fought to Finish.

An interesting phase of the Dies entry is the fact that while Judge Box is now serving his first term, and presumably will be a candidate to succeed himself, he opposed Mr. Dies when that gentleman was a candidate for a second term in 1910. Mr. Box, however, withdrew from the contest before the election. The two candidates are of about the same age, 49 years, and of approximately the same weight, both in fine fettle for the task of campaigning in a district as large as some of the states of the union, so there can be no question as to the flying of the fabled fur and the ringing of the well-known welkin. Those who like a real-old fashioned political campaign will be accommodated in full measure, at least so far as Martin Dies is concerned. The primary election will be held July 31, the last day and last Saturday of that month.

Mr. Dies who will return to his farm this morning came to town yesterday and after conferences with a few friends, casually made his intention to run again known to a newspaper man who had suggested the possibility that he might have something to say about the men and the times. Later he supplemented this with a formal statement of his candidacy, with an outline of his views. The statement follows:

Will Start Drive After Holidays.

"As soon as the holidays are over I shall begin an active campaign of the district. It will be really the first opportunity I have had to make a thorough campaign since my first race in 1908. I am a party democrat, and shall wage my contest inside the party, subject to the action of the democratic primaries. My campaign will consist largely of a discussion of the fundamental principles of government, and the tenets of democratic faith. I have an abiding opinion, which grows stronger with the years, that these basic principles of representative democracy, can alone save and perpetuate our free institutions. Their application to government produced the great American republic. There has been a drift towards socialism for many years, and due to the necessities of war these great principles have, to a large extent, been abandoned. In many instances they were given up without discussion. War makes changes and innovations in government easy, but the return to the ways of peace is difficult and slow. In my opinion the people have been led as far away from the ancient landmarks as they dare to go, and there are many indications of a desire to return to the tried and tested ways. The war is over and the people have a right to demand a return of the government to the sober and steady liberty of peace days. I genuinely believe that there ought to be a full and able discussion of the great principles upon which our democracy was established and there is no other practical way in our system of politics to have such public discussion except in campaigns for public office.

"It is probably superfluous to subscribe myself to a platform because most voters know what is meant by the great principles alluded to. How-principles and policies I shall discuss:

"First. The multiplicity of laws. The democratic tenet is that that government is best which governs the least, consistent with the protection of life, liberty and property of the people.

"Second. Freedom of speech and the press is guaranteed under the constitution. The war made it necessary to abridge this freedom, but now that the war is over, we should return to the constitutional guaranty of free speech. No man, even in peace, has the right to preach anarchy or the overthrow of government by force, but the liberty of English speaking peoples has always found its surest and safest bulwark in free speech and free press.

"Third. Economy in the administration of government. The people opened their purses to win the war but now that victory is more than a year old they rightfully feel that taxes should be reduced, and they know of course that the only way to reduce taxes is to reduce the expenses of government. The high cost of government is very closely akin to the high cost of living.

"Fourth. State sovereignty. Only certain of the rights of the states or people were delegated to the federal government in the constitution. The reserved rights and powers of the state should not be encroached upon by the federal government.

Gives Views on Foreign Policies.

"Fifth. As to our foreign policy, I agree with Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Andrew Jackson, and Grover Cleveland that we should encourage friendly commerce with all nations and form entangling alliances with none. Of course the war abrogated all the treaties we had with foreign governments involved, and new treaties must be entered into but when that is done, by whatever name, the constitution must remain the supreme law of this land and the people must never surrender their right under the constitution to either make war or not make it, as they may choose, through the representatives of their election.

"Sixth. I am opposed to socialism and the various schemes of government ownership proposed by socialists and near-socialists.

"Seventh. I am more than ever opposed to a large standing army and compulsory military service in times of peace.

"Eighth. I am opposed to foreign immigration of persons into this country who are incapable of self-government, and those aliens already admitted who preach anarchy, revolution and the overthrow of the government, should be returned to the land of their allegiance.

"Ninth. I believe in law and order. No government is worth the name which does not protect the citizen in his life and property.

"If I am returned to congress I shall earnestly and with all the force at my command endeavor to re-establish the government upon these principles." (Adv.)

IN THEIR NEW HOMES.

The Stone Fort National Bank has moved into the new home prepared for it at the northeast corner of Post-office square. No expense was spared to make this one of the most attractive banking houses in the country, and every convenience devised for conducting a modern, up-to-date banking business has been installed.

A short time ago the Commercial Guaranty State Bank took possession of its new quarters on the north side of the square, and probably no banking house in the state exceeds it in equipment and beauty.

The Sentinel is proud of the banks of Nacogdoches. They would be a credit, in appearance and management, to any large city.

There has been a tax on beer in England since the twelfth century.

Have Pains?

Aches and pains seem to be the lot of the ordinary mortal. However, these should be taken simply as nature's warning signals that some part of the human machine is out of order. It is a mistake to resign one's self to physical torture when the cause can be removed.

JOHN N. WILSON.

Rev. John N. Wilson was born in Jasper county, Georgia, August 28, 1838. His parents came to Texas in 1839 and settled near Chisno. He was married to Miss Leah Hardeman on August 4, 1868. They lived forty-five years in the old home in or near Melrose, where they raised their family of seven children—four boys and three girls. They took their orphan child to raise. She is now a noble Christian woman. He departed this life November 12, 1919. He was 81 years old. The funeral services were conducted by Bro. J. L. Massey, station preacher of Nacogdoches, and Bro. J. F. Wallis, P. C. on Melrose circuit. They spoke of the noble Christian life he lived—they could not do otherwise.

A magnificent array of lovely flowers marked his last resting place. The funeral was largely attended, showing the high esteem in which he was held by the people of Nacogdoches and surrounding country.

He has gone to that home where time is not measured and pain is not known. His remains rest in the Oak Grove cemetery in Nacogdoches. His funeral services were held at his daughter's, Sister Deller Simpson.

A useful life has closed, a good fight is ended and a glorious victory won. A good faithful husband and father will be missed in Melrose and all over the county. He had three brothers, two of whom have crossed over and left a noble life behind them. They were Randel and George. Jim is still fighting and battling and will make the landing soon. I am glad that I ever met the Wilson family. They have been worth a great deal to me and to this country. My front gate and front door and heart are always open for them. I would like to see them meet up yonder.

I went to see Bro. John a short time before he passed through the golden gate. He raised his hand and pointed up with a low voice, said "Soon, soon be up there," and he was in his right mind. Around the tree of life he is waiting for his loved ones. The cold hand of death unlocks the door to Heaven! He served four years in the Confederate army; he loved the South and her cause. They say he was a fine soldier, always ready to do his part, and brave as a lion. He was wounded twice. No more shall the booming cannon disturb him, the rattling drum, the ear-piercing fire and the soul-inspiring bugle! It is gone! Heaven's music will take its place! As a citizen he always stood for the right. He had a good wife to stand by him in his life's work. He was a member of the Methodist church for forty-five years, and a good one. He had a stored mind full of information, rich in experience. To talk with him you would be a wiser and better man. I was glad to be in his company. I have often been in his home. It was a pleasant home to visit. When Cullis, his son, was called to the colors and went to France his prayer was that he might live to see him return home, and that prayer was answered.

Eternity alone will tell the good accomplished by this faithful servant of God. His wife and children will rise up and call him blessed. He bore his afflictions like a good soldier. He endured many hardships and privations, suffered many trials, but his faith in God never wavered. He came to the close of life without a spot on his religious life. The labors of his long life gave him but little of the world's good. His riches consisted in the great good he did, and that is worth it all. I am an old trustee for the church, and I have got him so often to survey or write deeds. He never would charge for it. He was a man full of energy, nearly always at work.

Such good men as Brother Wilson are missed. I wish we had more of them in our country. John, we have been a long time together. Through pleasant and cloudy weather. It is hard to part while you are so dear; it will cost a sigh. Yes, it will cost a tear!

MR. AND MRS. D. W. DALE.

I lived a neighbor to them for sixteen years and am glad to say that he was a good neighbor and a consecrated Christian, and we feel that our church and neighborhood have lost a good man and woman, but the Lord was good to them even to the end, for both passed away without even a struggle. They fell asleep in the arms of Jesus like a child falling asleep in the arms of its mother.

Brother Dale went home eight days prior to his wife's departure, and looking at the going from an earthly point of view, I believe he had his Heavenly mansion all decorated and waiting for her who had borne with-out murmur or complaint the trials and disappointments of this life as she walked in love and confidence by his side.

Oh, if we could have only looked in to the eternal city and witnessed that reunion and have seen the wife clasp the husband and son in her loving arms, how it would have alleviated our grief; but we can only see through a glass darkly here, but after a while we shall see face to face, for the roll is being called and one after another is answering the call, and when we feel sure that our loved ones are safe in that eternal city, how sweet it is to dwell on the thought after they have left us that we shall meet them when the night has passed away!

We can say with Bishop Heber, "Thou art gone to the grave, but we will not deplore thee, though sorrow and darkness encompass the tomb, thy Saviour has passed through its portals before thee, and the lamp of His love is thy guide through the gloom. Thou art gone to the grave—we no longer behold thee, nor tread the road paths of the world by thy side. But the wide arms of Mercy are spread to enfold thee, and sinners may die for the sinless have died."

We can say with the poet:

"Brother and Sister thou has left us,
Thy loss we deeply feel;
Though it's God that hath bereft us
He can all our sorrows heal."
H. L. WRATTEN.

SHAFT FOR UNKNOWN DEAD.

Corpus Christi, Texas, Jan. 16.—The purchase of a plot of ground for the burial of the unknown dead of the September storm and the erection of a shaft of marble in their honor is contemplated by the American Red Cross.

Approximately one hundred bodies of those who lost their lives in the September hurricane here still remain unidentified. It is expected that this number will be reduced by about half, as the identification bureau maintained by the city is in touch with friends and relatives of many of those carried as missing.

The bodies at present are buried in a corner of Rose Hill burial park here. It is planned to set aside one lot for all of the unknown storm victims and to erect one monument in their memory.

RAISIN REALLY VIOLENT WHEN DEEPLY STIRRED

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 16.—Ordinarily the raisin of commerce is a humble, spineless sort of thing, without much character, but under manipulation of the home brewer, it arises almost to the heights of a deadly weapon, at least it is a mischief maker.

On the north side today there was an explosion, a big splash, a lot of noise and a call for the fire engines. A home brewer, working with raisins had left them to their own resources too long and they developed a kick that blew up the still, smashed out the windows of the basement and the mash, portions of the vat and other evidence was smeared all over the sidewalk right where the vil'gnt federal sleuths could tabulate it.

When a fire company responded to all the hubbub, it found no fire, but evidences that plenty of fire water had been in making. The walls of the basement were plastered with raisins in various stages of violent eruption. The big vat was beyond any hope or repair and the mash was scattered everywhere. The air was redolent with green booze, but there was one at hand to explain how it all happened. Government investigators are now on the job.

In the meantime the oilmen continue to pour into the county. Not much is being said, but they are here, just the same. Looks sorter suspicious—don't it?

BIG INCREASE IN TEXAS ASSESSMENTS

Austin, Texas, Jan. 17.—Assessments of property in Texas during 1919 for taxation showed an increase of $187,475,918 over the assessed values of 1918 according to a summary of tax rolls in the office of the state comptroller. Assessments upon which taxes will be collected this year total $3,200,295,205.

Land is the item showing the greatest value, and the largest increase also came in land, of which 167,336,544 acres were assessed at $1,291,098,471. This was an increase of 1,902,320 acres valued at $102,703,669. A considerable portion of this increase may be accounted for by the fact that all state lands, when sold to individuals, become immediately subject to taxation, and considerable land was sold between the two assessments.

Assessments of town lots show a considerable growth of Texas cities, if the increase does not happen to be due to unusual activity of assessors in 1919, for their value increased $29,180,023 and reached $751,798,343.

Horses and mules numbering 1,840,518 were assessed at $81,102,674, an increase of 145,721 in numbers and $2,264,768 in value.

Scarcity of foodstuffs and high prices are reflected in the cattle assessment, which shows a decrease of 259,945 in number but an increase of $5,696,510 in value. The protracted drouth which gripped the cattle country for three years may also have brought about the decrease in number by leaving a scarcity of breeding cattle to stock the ranges renewed by the rains of 1919.

Assessments of 1,640,610 sheep was $6,798,507, an increase of 134,986 in number and $942,745 in value.

Goats: 1,301,646 in number were assessed at $3,335,429; increase in number 348,219; decrease in value $144,509.

Hogs: 882,063, assessed $4,577,780; decrease in number 73,364; increase in value $97,842.

Dogs in Texas increased only three during the year, according to the tax rolls, but increased $18,742 in value. Texas rendered 11,742 dogs valued at $158,587.

Vehicles of all kinds: $69,486,670; increase $14,753,414.

Goods, wares and merchandise: $142,256,421; increase $16,199,226.

This Medicine Recommended by a Doctor

DR. J. H. WAGNER

It is beyond a doubt that PE-RU-NA is what you need. PE-RU-NA may be purchased anywhere in tablet or liquid form.

When a doctor uses a medicine himself besides prescribing it to his patients, he must know that it has merit.

This is what Dr. J. H. Wagner, a prominent physician of Skato, Kentucky, has to say about Dr. Hartman's well-known remedy, PE-RU-NA: "I have used PE-RU-NA myself for catarrh and have given it to others for catarrh, bloating after eating and other ailments. It has proved a success in all cases with old and young men and women. All speak well of PE-RU-NA. It is the best of all tonics."

Dr. Wagner, out of the fullness of his own personal experience, for the good of all sick and suffering, recommends a medicine which he knows to be good. You may be sure a doctor would not endanger his professional reputation by endorsing PE-RU-NA unless satisfied beyond a doubt of its value.

Whether your trouble be a cough or a cold, or a more subtle catarrhal affection of the stomach, bowels or other organs, give PE-RU-NA a trial. The immediate improvement which you will see will satisfy beyond a doubt that PE-RU-NA is what you need.

The Velvet tin is twice as big as shown here

There's a World of Solid Comfort In the Rich, Red Tin

YES, sir, we mean that same warm, red and gold tin that smiles a welcoming "Howdy" to you in every tobacco store. Know what those colors mean?

The red is for the friendly warmth, the mellow cheeriness, that Velvet puts into your old pipe. And the gold is where the Kentucky sunshine, that ripens good old Velvet, has just sort of soaked through.

Remember what Velvet Joe said about it?

"You've met canned meat and canned music. Ever see any tinned sunshine? Well, look into any Velvet tin."

And think this over:

We don't have to hide Velvet's taste or smell with a lot of this, that and the other thing. Because Velvet has naturally what pipe smokers want—real simon-pure tobacco taste and fragrance. It's just good, honest Kentucky leaf, made still more friendly and mellow by two years' ageing in wooden hogsheads. Just good tobacco. That's all. But it's mighty near enough for the man who wants a pipeful of tobacco and not a box of bon bons.

The picture of a pipe on the tin needn't keep you from rolling a jim-dandy cigarette with Velvet.

How's the Velvet holding out in your old red tin?

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

There are more than 3,000,000 Ford cars in daily service throughout the world, and fully eighty per cent of these are Ford Touring Cars. There are many reasons for this, not the least of which is the simplicity in the design of the car, so easy to understand; likewise it is easy to operate; and mighty inexpensive compared to other motor cars. On the farm, in the city, for business and for family pleasure, it is the car of the people, and the demand is increasing every day. Let us have your order promptly if you want one.

NASHVILLE MAN GAINES TWENTY-FOUR POUNDS

Pugh Says His Rheumatism and Other Troubles Disappeared After Taking Tanlac.

"I gained twenty-four pounds by taking Tanlac and my rheumatism and other troubles are now gone," said W. B. Pugh, a well-known grocer at 301 Hermitage avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

"For two years" he continued, "I suffered from rheumatism and stomach trouble that weakened and crippled me so I could not attend to my business properly. After eating anything gas would form in my stomach and press on my heart so I could hardly breathe. My appetite was poor, I would have smothering spells and would get so nervous I could hardly sleep. My legs and knees hurt so I could hardly get about at all.

"Soon after I started taking Tanlac my appetite picked up and my nerves became quiet. Now I can eat anything I want and the smothering spells and fluttering of the heart have disappeared. Besides gaining in weight the rheumatism has entirely left my legs and knees, I sleep like a log and can attend to business without any trouble."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Co., in Garrison by The Dale Drug Co., and in Woden by M. J. King.
