THE GRAND FARCE.

London, Feb. 17.—Germany has been informed that she may try the men accused by the Allies, while Holland may intern William of Hohenzollern and satisfy the Allied powers. Notes to this effect will be sent to Berlin and The Hague by the Supreme Council.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan of Timpan were in the city Monday shopping.

COL. CRAWFORD DEAD.

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 17.—Col. William L. Crawford, aged 81 years, a prominent Texas attorney, died here today. During the Civil war he was lieutenant colonel of the 19th Texas infantry. Col. Crawford was a member of the Texas constitutional convention in 1875. He received his early law training in the office of David Culbertson, father of Senator Culbertson.

PRESIDENT TALKS STRAIGHT TO ALLIES ABOUT TREATY.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—President Wilson, in his memorandum to the Allies concerning their proposed Adriatic settlement, informed them that the United States might have to consider withdrawing the treaty of Versailles from the senate if the Allies went ahead with their plans without the consent of the United States. It was said the president's message was not an ultimatum, but set forth that the United States would stand on the agreement to which it was a party when the president was in Paris. Under this agreement the United States was to be one of the five nations to police the Adriatic.

A BOTTLE'S LONG JOURNEY.

Belle Plaine, Kan., Feb. 12.—Miss Alma Lane of Belle Plaine, in August, 1916, threw a tightly corked bottle containing a slip of paper bearing her name and address, into the Minescah river, near here. Recently—three and a half years after launching the bottle—she received a letter from R. S. Baldwin, an engineer for the Puget Sound Light and Power Co., Seattle, Wash., stating that he had picked up the bottle while boat riding on Washington Lake canal near Seattle.

"Evidently the three and a half years journey of the bottle took it down the Minescah to the Arkansas river, thence to the Mississippi, out into the Gulf of Mexico, around Cape Horn, and up along the Pacific coast to Seattle," said Miss Lane. "I don't believe by any chance it could have made its way through the Panama canal."

RAILROAD ORGANIZATION TO BE DEMOBILIZED.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—Discontinuance of all regional and district offices of the railroad administration March 1 was directed today by Director General Hines as another step in the demobilization of the federal railroad organization.

STANDARD BUTTER PACKAGE.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 16.—Dairy men and growers of Texas met here today, under call of F. C. Winert, commissioner of weights and measures, to consider the fixing of a standard package of butter for sale in this state.

The new weights and measures law provides for the establishment of standard units in which various foods may be offered for sale. As proof of the need of establishing a lawful standard unit for butter in order to prevent short weights being given the public, the commissioner offered two packages of a well known brand of butter. Both of these packages were bought by his inspector in the open markets. They are identical in size and shape, and the bricks of butter therein are the same size. One package is marked "15 ounces" and the other "one pound." The weights correspond with the contents of the packages. The 15-ounce brick is pressed tighter, and according to the commissioner, it is prepared for sale to careful customers who take pains to secure full weight. The lighter package, however, the commissioner said, is the one that generally is handed over the counter when the average customer merely calls for a pound of the butter.

WILSON'S OBJECTION REJECTED.

Paris, Feb. 16.—The prompt rejection of President Wilson's objections to the compromise agreement, by which England, France and Italy hoped to settle with Jugo-Slavia the question relative to the future status of the Western Adriatic coast, is reported in the Echo de Paris. Premiers Lloyd George and Millerand drafted the reply to the American chief executive and insisted that Jugo-Slavia must agree to the compromise, with the alternative of seeing the treaty of London become operative, it is said.

BIG ONION CROP.

Laredo, Texas, Feb. 16.—Big cabbage and onion crops in the Laredo section are in fine condition, and unless there is exceptionally cold weather, it is expected 2,000 carloads of onions and several hundred carloads of cabbage will be shipped from this district this spring.

GALVESTON WHEAT REPORTS

Galveston, Texas, Feb. 16.—Exports of wheat from the port of Galveston for the month of January totaled 881,063 bushels, according to records compiled by H. A. Wickstrom, chief of the grain inspection department of the Galveston Cotton Exchange and Board of Trade. Exportation of wheat in January, 1919, aggregated 594,000 bushels. During the period beginning July 1, 1919, and ending January 31, 1920, 13,828,918 bushels of wheat have been shipped from this port. This compares with 4,920,024 bushels during the corresponding period a year ago.

PREFERRED JAIL.

Corpus Christi, Texas, Feb. 12.—Fifty-seven Mexican-Americans, convicted of evading the selective service law of the United States, have been released here on the completion of serving a thirty-day jail sentence. They crossed the Rio Grande into Mexico in 1917 to avoid serving in the armed forces of this country, they say, and recently crossed back to avoid armed conflict in Mexico, preferring to spend thirty days in the county jail.

ITALIAN FREIGHT TRAIN PLUNGES INTO CHASM

Florence, Feb. 17.—A freight train between San Lorenzo and Borgo was derailed last night while crossing a bridge and plunged into a deep chasm. Newspaper reports state that many persons were killed and injured.

WARN PRESENT PROSPERITY MAY BECOME ARTIFICIAL.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.—Warning that the prosperity and activity indicated by banking figures may become artificial and deceptive was given today by John Skelton Williams in his annual report as comptroller of the currency. He said that in 1919 there was no national bank failure involving loss to depositors, and that the banking power of the country had increased 1900 percent within the last thirty years.

PRISONERS PROBABLY SAFE.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—Confirming reports of the capture of four American Red Cross workers by the bolsheviks in Siberia a cablegram received at national headquarters late today from Vladivostok said that it is not believed the prisoners are in any danger. A request for their release has already been forwarded to the bolshevik authorities through the Czechs, the cable added.

According to this message the four Red Cross men taken by the bolsheviks are Dr. W. H. Ford of Kingston, Okla., (probably); Dr. J. N. Medill of Jarso, Colo.; Otto W. Lowe of New York City; and Edward E. Charlette of Stockton, Calif. The Red Cross representatives at Vladivostok said in the cablegram that their belief in the safety of the prisoners was founded on reports that in the newly conquered parts of Siberia the bolsheviks are pursuing a liberal policy, avoiding rapine and releasing prisoners.

HUGHES NOT CANDIDATE.

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 17.—Charles Evans Hughes has written County Clerk Dewey asking him not to proceed with the plans to put Hughes' name in the state primary as a candidate for the republican nomination for the presidency.

1919 RAINFALL AT DALLAS.

During the year 43.43 inches of rain fell here. The heaviest rainfall occurred in October, 10.94 inches being recorded. October 31, 3.47 inches was registered. The lightest precipitation came in December when less than half an inch fell.

NEW INTERIOR SECRETARY.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.—John Barton Payne of Illinois has been selected by President Wilson to be secretary of the interior, succeeding Frankling Lane. Mr. Payne is now chairman of the United States Shipping Board. He will take over his new duties March 1, when Secretary Lane retires at his own request.

FLU "MEDICINE" POPULAR.

Ranger Texas, Feb. 18.—When influenza assumed menacing proportions here, it was decided to issue confiscated whiskey in limited amounts on doctors' and nurses' prescriptions.

Chief of Police Parrish supervised the dispensing, and the "flu" chasing liquor went out in 4-ounce, 8-ounce and pint allotments.

At the end of the first day, the supply of whiskey was exhausted.

ASKS NAME WITHHELD FROM DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES

New York, N. Y., Feb. 18.—William Gibbs McAdoo announced today that he would not permit his name to be used on presidential primary ballots in the various states and advocated sending un instructed delegates to the Democratic National convention.

The former secretary of the treasury said he believed the highest constructive leadership can best be obtained if the national interest is not submerged in a contest of individual candidacies. "I am not seeking the nomination, and am reluctant to do anything that would create the appearance of my candidacy," his letter read.

WILL POLISH OFF VILLA

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 18.—General Manuel M. Dieguez, military commander of the northern zone, with headquarters at Chihuahua City, has made a "solemn offer" to President Carranza and the Mexican people that he will put an end to Francisco Villa's activities within three months, according to an official statement given out in Juarez, the Mexican city opposite El Paso.

The statement, issued by General J. G. Escobar, commander of the Juarez district, says not a single rebel is active in the Juarez district, and that General Dieguez has a force of approximately 20,000 men under his command. In pacifying Villa element General Dieguez looks to the co-operation of the residents of the state of Chihuahua, said the statement, which reads in part:

"General Dieguez has under his orders a considerable number of troops, numbering more or less about 20,000 men. With these forces he has all the important towns garrisoned and the railroads fully protected. At the same time he has sufficient elements to have flying columns which continually carry on the pursuit of Villa. At times General Dieguez uses the airplane squadron for exploration and messenger purposes, and up-to-date satisfactory results have been obtained.

"As a result of this tenacious campaign, Villa has constantly been forced to give battle, losing considerable men and materials until he has been reduced to a following of 200 men, badly conditioned and poorly munitioned.

"General Dieguez has made a solemn offer to the president of the republic and to the Mexican people that he will end with Villa within three months. He expects to do this with the co-operation that the people of Chihuahua have been giving the government, especially the ranching classes, who have organized themselves into 'social defenses,' and who possess the peculiar advantage of being perfectly acquainted with the country.

ECHO FROM BIG STORM.

Corpus Christi, Texas, Feb. 18.—The body of A. B. Clarkson of Austin, storm victim, has been identified here. Mr. Clarkson, with his wife and two daughters, arrived in Corpus Christi just two days before the storm of September 14 last. All were swept into the waters of Nueces bay while the storm was at its height.

Mrs. Clarkson and one daughter, Helen, were picked up alive at the Turner ranch on the opposite side of the bay the following morning. But Mrs. Clarkson died a few days later from the exposure. The body of the other daughter, Joy, was identified some time ago. Helen is still living.

WEEKLY SENTINEL

BY GILES M. HALTOM

USED TO BE WORSE.

Having frequently made the seemingly raw assertion that the world is getting worse, it seems sort of up to us to prove it, or at least to make the effort, so here goes:

We don't have to wear boots and pull 'em off with a bootjack, thus rupturing blood vessels and our disposition, do we? Well, that helps a lot, as anyone knows who used to wear these old-fashioned boots and kick dents into the baseboard of the room in the morning trying to get them on, and then break the commandments about swearing, in the evening, trying to get them off. The duds, or dandies, as they were termed in those "good old days," wore calfskin boots, which were not so bad, and had a squeak like somebody had stepped in a mouse, but common, everyday men wore cowhides, with pants tucked into 'em weekdays and pulled down over the outside Sundays when they went to meetin' and were told they had to go to hell, which maybe some of them had.

We have outlived the horrors of a days, although we have accumulated a lot of new one of our own, such as forming trusts and profiting and sticking our thumb around where people sit and say things that they ought not to.

We have outlived the horrors of Mother Shipton's prophecies, but still have some pretty bad by Taft, Sherman, Knox and Bryan.

The ladies do not wear chignons, tilter hoops of bustles, for which let the Lord be thanked—in fact they do not wear much of anything top or bottom and but little amidships.

Sidewalkers are not rampant like they used to be, and neither are the literary efforts of Josh Billings or Artemus Ward, though, of course, we still have society sections of the Sunday papers and similar junk to contend with.

We don't have grasshopper plagues although yestered some I. W. W.'s and bolsheviks.

On the whole there is a gradual improvement going on, as the Lord will ed it should be.

BEING AN EDITOR.

Most any man can be an editor. All the editor has to do is sit at a desk six days a week, four weeks a month, and twice a month in a year and edit such stuff as this:

"Mrs. Jones of Cactus Creek let a can opener slip last week and cut herself in the pantry.

"Joe Doe climbed upon the roof of his house last week looking for a leak, and fell, landing on his back porch.

"While Harrold Green was escorting Miss Violet Wise from the church social last Saturday night a savage dog attacked them and bit Mr. Green on the public square.

"Mr. Fang while harnessing a broncho last Saturday was kicked just south of his corn crib."—Exchange.

Farmers around Nacogdoches are rapidly converting their farming lands into beautiful plowed areas. During the recent sunshine, which was enjoyed in Nacogdoches county for a period of ten days, and during which time much relief was obtained from the troubles protracted wet weather had brought on, the farmers became very active, laying off work on their farms for the coming months. It is thought that good crops will be made in the county this year, and there is an excellent morale among the farmers and businessmen in general of the county. The weather is wet at present.

Frank Irvin, the well known newspaper writer, says: "The strongest bulwark against bolshevism in America is the American home-owner. Men never plant bombs on their own hearth stones; they don't burn the roofs over the heads of their families. Put the price of an automobile into a house and lot and you have a permanent insurance policy against radicalism."

GOOD GUESS, ANY WAY

Mother (reprovingly)—"When I was young, girls never thought of doing the things that they do today."

Daughter—"Well, probably that's why they didn't do them."

Ex-President Taft, in an address before the Midlothian club of Springfield, Ill., denounced all persons who seek to stir up party animosities or appeal to class prejudices as "traitors to the nation, whether they know it or not," and so they are.

THOSE WOMEN WHO DREAD MIDDLE-LIFE

Houston, Texas:—"To a woman who looks with dread upon the approach of middle life, I would say there is nothing whatever to fear if she will only take the right medicine just as soon as she has any of the distressing symptoms. I became so weak that I could scarcely get around to do my own housework, and I was just as miserable as one could be when I started to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The first bottle made a wonderful difference and before I had finished the second bottle I was safely through the critical time in absolutely perfect health—no more hemorrhages, no heat flashes, dizzy spells or nervousness. I felt more than repaid for the cost of those two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and would have been glad to purchase more, had it been necessary."—Mrs. M. M. Brooks, 4304 Center St.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a remedy that any ailing woman can safely take because it is prepared from roots, does not contain alcohol or narcotics. Its ingredients printed on wrapper.

SOME WILLIE

Bishop William McVickar, of Rhode Island, was a man with tremendous physique. He was also a bachelor, for whom his sister kept house.

Once the bishop phoned to a local tailor that he wished to have some clothing pressed, and the tailor sent a boy to the bishop's house to get the clothing. The bishop's sister admitted the boy, calling up the stairs as she did so, "Willie, the boy has come for your clothes."

When the bishop's frame hove to sight, the messenger's mouth fell open with amazement.

"Hully gee!" he exclaimed, as his glance embraced the bishop's vast frame. "Is that Willie?"

LEGION TO HAVE GREAT DAY ON FEB. 22

On the twenty-second of February the American Legion all over the United States of America will have memorial services in remembrance of the boys who made the supreme sacrifice while in the service in France. The Nacogdoches chapter of the legion is planning ceremonies on that date in remembrance of the illustrious dead, and are making preparations to make the affair a complete success. The Nacogdoches churches will be asked to have a joint service, and it is understood that some of the most important services will probably be held in the city auditorium. The speaker for the occasion has not been yet selected, but the legion will give out his name later. The legion of this city is especially urging the public to be present at the services, and arrangements are being made to give the exercises as much publicity as possible. People who have relatives who died while in service are especially urged to be present during the service in order that a very beautiful pamphlet, presented by the French government, can be given to them. The French government is doing this in order to show her deep gratitude to the relatives of the boys who so bravely fought for France and democracy. Everyone should remember the date, February 22, and make every effort to be at the great event.

The girl of the old time would say, "I have nothing to wear," and then rig out in chemises, pantalets, three petticoats, a skirt dragging the ground and a waist with a collar climbing over her ears. The girl of today says "I have nothing to wear," and if she is really up-to-date, she is telling the truth about it.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

Half a century ago there were only three brick buildings in this old town, namely, the Orton brick, a small two-story building located on the south side of East Main street, about midway the block between the public square and the site of the present courthouse; the old original brick college, yet standing, back of the present high school building; and the first old brick courthouse fronting on the south side of the square. Each one of these three buildings would make a subject for a big narrative. Each had an interesting career.

But old hotels is the intended subject of this article. The first one to be mentioned now, was the Hyde House, which stood where the Mayer & Schmidt store building now stands. There have since been other Hyde hotels here, notably one by the widow of Dr. George S. Hyde, on the corner of Hospital and Church streets, fronting north and taking in the entire north half of the block including the present First Presbyterian Church. This later Hyde house was for many years a noted popular hostelry. Mrs. Hyde was the sister of Dick and George Muckleroy's mother. Her childhood home was not far from the present city of Cincinnati, Ohio. There was another still, later Hyde house, by the present widow of H. R. Hyde, situated on Pilar street. But the oldest one was the John H. Hyde early-day house built about 1830. It was a long double log house with a full length front gallery. This fronted an old time Catholic Church or store building to the south of it, where the new bank building now stands. A public well affording water used by the Old Stone Fort, the old Hyde hotel and the Catholic Church and other neighboring parties was located between the Stone Fort and this old Hyde house where Fredonia street now runs. All these structures are gone. Few are the surviving witnesses. New comers can hardly imagine the romances and tragedies of those days.

The John J. Simpson hotel comes next in date, about 1848 to about 1878. It stood on East Main street and North street fronting south, being directly opposite the present courthouse. This old hotel is now almost forgotten. It had its day and it pulled off a full share of memorable events, both as a hotel, and later as a residence. Dr. Griffith made it his family home at one time. Bill Harris lived there, and it is probable that his very earliest recollection is the killing of a man named Kinsey by two or more men from San Augustine who were pursuing him for revenge. This was about 1862. In early manhood June C. Harris read law there in Col. Clark's office and later lived there, and his first child was born there. The Simpson family disposed of the property long years ago. Captain A. I. Simpson's wife was Emma Kyle, half sister of Mr. H. Harris. On one occasion there was a big ball on the third floor of this hotel, and Dock Simpson and Bill Harris and their sweethearts were there cutting tall shins, as we then expressed it. The girls wore white lawn dresses with trains extending away back on the floor. They had to lift them as they danced cotillion and waltzes. The famous old negro fiddler, Uncle Wiley Rusk, was the boss prompter and musician.

There was another old time hotel on Pilar street, just back of the present Masonic lodge, fronting south. The lot is now the property of Charles Hoya. It had a long and eventful history, beginning back about 1830, when

NACOGDOCHES C. OF C. MEETS AT GARRISON

Saturday afternoon the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce was represented at Garrison by Secretary H. L. McKnight, who made a very powerful speech and several business men from Nacogdoches who did as much as possible to create some enthusiasm for the chamber of commerce.

There was a considerable crowd in the town who had come to the city for the purpose of hearing Mr. McKnight deliver his address. An open-air meeting was held, the people gathering on the public square and listening to Mr. McKnight with the greatest of interest.

At the beginning of the program Captain R. B. Walthall introduced Mr. McKnight to the Garrison people, telling them that Mr. McKnight had some extremely important things to tell them, and that it was well worth their time to give their whole attention and then co-operation.

Mr. McKnight responded with a primary expression of appreciation for the kindly consideration the Garrison people had shown him and the great organization, the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce, in coming out to hear his speech in the interest of the commercial club.

In his speech the secretary told the Garrison people that he wanted to see better rural conditions existing; that he wanted to see boys in the country have as good chance schools educationally, and in every way as those in the city, and that he had dedicated his life to that kind of cause. Mr. McKnight made a powerful plea to the farmers and business men for co-operation, reciting example after example to them, showing the wonders of co-operation, and illustrating the good to be derived from a thorough application of it.

He assured the farmers present that they were going to have the support of the Nacogdoches business men and the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce in the form of a revolving farm loan. He told them that the prosperity of Nacogdoches depended on their prosperity and that the business men of Nacogdoches, appreciating these facts, were going to make every effort to let them have money with which to buy fine blooded stock, good seed and for the preparation of good pastures.

He informed them that fully $15,000 or $20,000 would be subscribed to this fund so that the farmers could improve their surroundings.

Mr. McKnight talked for fully one hour during which time the greatest attention was given him. He was loudly cheered by all through his speech and it can be truly said that he won the respect and the consideration of every farmer and business man in Garrison. His main theme during all his speech was to try to impress upon the audience the great importance of co-operation, telling them that Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce proposed to see that the farmers and business men alike in the county were organized to work in harmony.

At the conclusion of his speech no effort was made to get any members to the club, but it is understood that a membership campaign will probably be started in Garrison as soon as possible. The Garrison division will be an auxiliary of the Nacogdoches Chamber proper. As he stepped down from his speaking position, several farmers made a rush to shake hands with the Secretary, assuring him that they were going to stand by the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce in future. "Men, are you with me in this work?" Mr. McKnight said to one group of interested farmers, shaking hands with them. "We are" came almost simultaneously from every throat. And they meant it, too.

Numerous candidates were present and much electioneering was going on in the city.

BIFF!

Stop jolting Liver and Bowels with violent drugs, but take "Cascarets."

"Dynamiting" bile out of your system with calomel and other sickening purgatives is all wrong. Salts, Oil, and Cathartic Waters act by flooding the bowels with the digestive juices which are vital to the stomach. Cascarets are different. They act as a tonic to the bowel muscles, which is the only sensible way to relieve a bilious attack, a sour, acid stomach, or constipated bowels. There is no gripping or inconvenience. You naturally return to regularity and cheerfulness. Cascarets cost very little and they work while you sleep.

What causes Indigestion

An excess of acid in the stomach sours the food and starts fermentation. Distressing gases form. Your meals don't digest, but lay like lumps of lead. Then you have heartburn, flatulence, fullness, belching, headache, and real misery in your stomach and intestines. A few tablets of "Pape's Diapain" bring relief almost as soon as they reach the stomach. "Pape's Diapain" costs little at drug stores.

AIMS OF THE LEGION.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 16.—Bonuses for ex-service men and compulsory military training were announced as the principal aims of the legislative committee of the American Legion, which is here today for a series of conferences with congressmen. Franklin Dolier, national commander of the legion, was present to direct the activities of the committee.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES.
Three cases of state-wide importance have been transferred from Pope county to Nacogdoches, and will be tried March 1, according to the way they were set yesterday by the court. These cases will bring witnesses from all parts of the state, and will probably call for representatives from outside papers, who will get reports. Will Hancock of Waxahachie and S. M. Adams of this city will represent the defendant and W. B. O'Quinn and L. G. King will represent the state. The cases are coming here on a change of venue.

Judge Quinn will change benches with Judge Platt of Groveton during the trial of some important cases during the month of March. Both judges will try ordinary felony cases while operating in each other's respective courts.

The court set two murder cases Thursday. Jim Yarbrough who is charged with killing his wife, will be tried March 1; Henry Randall, charged with murder of Blum Coleman, will be tried March 2.

A very interesting case was tried at the courthouse Thursday. The parties involved were the Bethel Chapel school district and the Little chapel district. It seems the Bethel chapel district has brought suit against the Little chapel district to have part of the Little chapel territory detached and added to their district. It also seems that the Little chapel school district voted taxes on themselves by means of bonds, and an effort is being made to have these bonds nullified or taxes cancelled, by enjoining the payment of taxes. Judge Middlebrook represented the plaintiff and Judge S. W. Blount the defendant. It is understood that the case has been a bone of contention for several years.

Mr. J. D. Davis of Douglass is planning to erect a sawmill at Douglass. Some of the machinery for the mill passed through the city Saturday. Mr. Davis has purchased a fine body of timber surrounding Douglass, which consists of several hundred acres, and this he will make up into lumber during the coming years.

F. G. Briley and Tom Cureton of the Shady Grove community were in town Saturday.

Carrying a Ton a Mile for less than a Cent

Freight rates have played a very small part in the rising cost of living.

Other causes—the waste of war, under-production, credit inflation—have added dollars to the cost of the necessities of life, while freight charges have added only cents.

The average charge for hauling a ton of freight a mile is less than a cent.

A suit of clothing that sold for $30 before the war was carried 2,265 miles by rail from Chicago to Los Angeles for 16½ cents.

Now the freight charge is 22 cents and the suit sells for $50.

The cost of the suit has increased 20 dollars.
The freight on it has increased only 5½ cents.

Other transportation charges enter into the cost of the finished article—carrying the wool to the mills and the cloth to the tailors—but these other charges amount to but a few cents more.

The $10 pair of shoes that used to sell for $5 goes from the New England factory to the Florida dealer for a freight charge of 5½ cents—only one cent more than the pre-war rate.

Beef pays only two-thirds of a cent a pound freight from Chicago to New York.

American freight rates are the lowest in the world.

SUNDAY PICTURE SHOW.

The navy pictures shown at the Queen theatre Sunday afternoon were viewed by a packed house and all present gratified and edified by the exhibition. As an educational measure the performance could hardly have been surpassed, as the pictures conveyed information which most of the audience utterly lacked and which could not have been obtained otherwise except by a long visit to the navy and a close scrutiny of the work of the sea fighters—Uncle Sam's "first line of defence."

The Sentinel can see no objection to a properly conducted Sunday picture show—and Mr. Brantley may be depended upon to offer no other kind. A discriminating choice of subjects without doubt would prove beneficial instead of detrimental to the uplift of the audience. The time spent in a show where wholesome pictures are exhibited bridges over an idle hour Sunday afternoon which might be much more unprofitably applied. These shows do not compete with church services, as they are given at a time when there are no church activities. The Sentinel thinks attendance upon a performance such as suggested would be much more decorous and elevating than if the time were wasted in idle and sometimes harmful street-corner or drawing-room gossip.

The Sentinel yields to no one in reverence for the Sabbath or for religious institutions, but we cannot conceive how a person's morals could be made to suffer by witnessing a clean, educational picture show on Sunday afternoon. However, that is a matter of individual conscience.

A DEVICE THAT READS TYPE.

The Sentinel office linotype has recently been improved with a device that keeps wrong font letters from getting into print in the everyday reading matter. Not that the paper has been in anyway hampered with this cause of late, but it being merely an attachment that warns the operator with a bell that there is a wrong font letter running loose in the machine and will continue to ring at intervals until the unwelcome intruder is removed. At present there is a device on linotypes that does this in a way that is not at all in keeping with other parts of the machine, it being necessary for the operator to climb up on the back of the linotype and take out the letter that has become clogged in the mechanism of the automatic. This is now done semi-automatically, which is better in a way than the automatic, as the stoppage of the mechanism is done away with, but the intruding letter trips a bell and warns of its presence in the magazine. It is then run out from the front of the machine with the aid of the keys, and as the offending letter has been cast on the last line or slug, it is an easy matter to know just where the wrong letter was located. Mr. Jones of The Sentinel force is the inventor and a patent is being applied for.

FOR DISTRICT JUDGE.

Judge L. D. Guinn of Rusk announces this week for re-election as judge of the Second district. He has served on the bench for eight years, and his record is without blemish, both as a judge and as a man. He has always presided with the utmost impartiality, and his rulings have been characterized by a depth of legal learning and a fairness which have won for him the respect of all litigants having causes in his court. Judge Guinn has thus far no opposition, and it is not likely that anyone will contest for the place. His standing with the bar and with the people at large is of the best.

FOR COMMISSIONER.

J. F. Fulghum offers this week as a candidate for commissioner from District No. 3. He was a candidate four years ago and was defeated in the run-off primary by a small majority. Like the good democrat that he is, he believed the man elected should have a second term, and therefore, in observance of this doctrine, waited until now to gain enter the race. Mr. Fulghum is well qualified to intelligently discharge the duties of commissioner, is a good citizen and a good man, and asks the voters to give his candidacy favorable consideration when they go to the polls.

DAUGHTER OF AGUINALDO IN U. S. CAPITAL

She Meets Many Wives of American Statesmen and Makes a Hit.

When General Emilio Aguinaldo was leading the Filipino army against the American forces twenty years ago he probably little dreamed that some day a daughter of his would visit the city of Washington and would be given a great reception at the famous Congressional Club! And that the wives of 120 members of the American Congress and two wives of members of the President's cabinet would call upon her to pay their respects!

But all this actually happened when Miss Carmen Aguinaldo, his nineteen-year-old daughter, visited Washington recently. And those wives of the American statesmen expressed themselves as both charmed and surprised at the refined, tactful, college educated young miss who greeted them.

"Miss Aguinaldo was simply delightful," was the expression of one congressman's wife. "She was very modest, yet she acted so natural and thoroughly at home that she captivated everybody."

On another occasion while in Washington Miss Aguinaldo was given a real ovation by a Filipino-American audience when she recited "My Last Farewell," poem of Dr. Jose Rizal, the Filipino martyr.

Miss Aguinaldo is a student at the University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill. While in Washington she was the guest of Mrs. Jaime C. de Veyra, wife of one of the resident commissioners from the Philippines. The Capitol building and the Congressional library appealed particularly to the young Filipina, while the beautiful sights from the Washington monument thrilled her with delight. When asked how she liked America, she smiled and answered:

"It is a wonderful country. I didn't like winter at first, but since I have learned how to skate I am having fine times. All the Americans whom I have met have been very good to me. My friends in Urbana and my classmates in the university are just lovely, but I cannot help feeling homesick at times because I am missing my father. My coming here was indeed a great sacrifice for him, for we are very close. He is so good to me."

Miss Aguinaldo is intensely patriotic. She does not conceal her resentment when she hears or reads of a misrepresentation of the Filipinos. "It is unfortunate," she once exclaimed in a voice full of sadness, "that my country and my people are hardly known, much less understood, by the people of America."

Politics is tabooed in any conversation with this Filipino maid. She evades the topic by replying that she is too young to express opinions on things political. "All I can say," she declares, "is that I share with my father in the desire for independence for my native land. There is no question about our being able to govern ourselves."

Filipinos declare Miss Aguinaldo has a "genuine Filipina temperament"—that is, she does not believe in the occidental custom of "dates" between young men and women. She does not see anything wrong in it, she says, but it is such a violent departure from the custom in the Philippines that she cannot adopt it.

"You might laugh at me," she said, "but I cannot go out with one single escort unchaperoned. I simply can't. I will go back to my country with the soul of a Filipina."

A newspaper in one of the large American cities that Miss Aguinaldo visited expressed the opinion that she would no doubt be greatly impressed by the sight of street cars and some of the fine residences she would see, but the truth is the young lady was raised in Manila, where she has seen an up-to-date street car system all her life.

TO "CONQUER AND DESTROY STATE," U. S. COMMUNISTS CALL FOR LABOR REVOLT

Revolutionary Pamphlet, Found in U. S. Department of Justice Investigations, Gives Message of Communists in Chicago, to Russian Headquarters.

Extracts from "Manifesto and Program—Constitution—Report to the Communist International" by the Communist Party of America, Chicago, Ill.

Communism does not propose to 'capture' the bourgeois parliamentary state, but to conquer and destroy it. As long as the bourgeois state prevails, the capitalist class can battle the will of the proletariat.

In those countries in which historical development has furnished the opportunity, the working class has utilized the regime of political democracy for its organization against Capitalism.

The older unionism was based on the craft divisions of small industry. The unions consisted primarily of skilled workers whose skill is itself a form of property. The unions were not organs of the militant class struggle. Today the dominant unionism is actually a bulwark of Capitalism, merging in Imperialism and accepting State Capitalism.

The proletarian revolution comes at the moment of crisis in Capitalism, of a collapse of the old order. Under the impulse of the crisis, the proletariat acts for the conquest of power, by means of mass action. Mass action concentrates and mobilizes the forces of the proletariat, organized and unorganized; it acts equally against the bourgeois state and the conservative organizations of the working class. Strikes of protest develop into general political strikes and then into revolutionary mass action for the conquest of the power of the state. Mass action becomes political in purpose while extra-parliamentary in form; it is equally a process of revolution and the revolution itself in operation.

The Communist Party is the conscious expression of the class struggle of the workers against capitalism. Its aim is to direct this struggle to the conquest of political power, the overthrow of capitalism and the destruction of the bourgeois state.

The Communist Party prepares itself for the revolution in the measure that it develops a program of immediate action, expressing the mass struggles of the proletariat. These struggles must be inspired with revolutionary spirit and purposes.

The Communist Party is fundamentally a party of action. It brings to the workers a consciousness of their oppression, of the impossibility of improving their conditions under capitalism. The Communist Party directs the workers' struggle against capitalism, developing fuller forms and purposes in this struggle, culminating in the mass action of the revolution.

The Communist Party shall make the great industrial struggles of the working class its major campaigns, in order to develop an understanding of the strike in relation to the overthrow of capitalism.

(a) The Communist Party shall participate in mass strikes, not only to achieve the immediate purposes of the strike, but to develop the revolutionary implications of the mass strike.

(b) Mass strikes are vital factors in the process out of which develops the workers' understanding and action for the conquest of power.

(c) In mass strikes under conditions of concentrated capitalism there is latent the tendency toward the general mass strike, which takes on a political character and manifests the impulse toward proletarian dictatorship.

In these general mass strikes the Communist Party shall emphasize the necessity of maintaining industry and the taking over of social functions usually discharged by the capitalists and the institutions of capitalism. The strike must cease being isolated and passive; it must become positive, general and aggressive, preparing the workers for the complete assumption of industrial and social control.

(a) Every local and district organization of the Party shall establish contact with industrial units in its territory, the shops, mills and mines—and direct its agitation accordingly.

(b) Shop Committees shall be organized wherever possible for the purpose of Communist agitation in a particular shop or industry by the workers employed there. These committees shall be united with each other and with the Communist Party, so that the party shall have actual contact with the workers and mobilize them for action against capitalism.

The Communist Party must engage actively in the struggle to revolutionize the trade unions. As against the unionism of the American Federation of Labor, the Communist Party propagandizes industrial unionism and industrial union organization, emphasizing their revolutionary implications. Industrial Unionism is not simply a means for the everyday struggle against capitalism; its ultimate purpose is revolutionary, implying the necessity of ending the capitalist parliamentary state. Industrial Unionism is a factor in the final mass action for the conquest of power, as it will constitute the basis for the industrial administration of the Communist Commonwealth.

(a) The Communist Party recognizes that the A. F. of L. is reactionary and a bulwark of capitalism.

(b) Councils of workers shall be organized in the shops as circumstances allow, for the purpose of carrying on the industrial union struggle in the old unions, uniting and mobilizing the militant elements; these councils to be unified in a Central Council wherever possible.

(c) It shall be a major task of the Communist Party to agitate for the construction of a general industrial union organization, embracing the I. W. W., W. I. L. U., independent and secession unions, militant unions of the A. F. of L., and the unorganized workers, on the basis of the revolutionary class struggle.

The Communist Party shall encourage movements of the workers in the shops seeking to realize workers' control of industry, while indicating their limitations under capitalism; concretely, any movement analogous to the Shop Stewards of England. These movements (equally directed against the union bureaucracy) should be related to the Communist Party.

The unorganized unskilled workers (including the agricultural proletariat) constitute the bulk of the working class. The Communist Party shall directly and systematically agitate among these workers, awakening them to industrial union organization and action.

How Would You Like to Harvest Two Crops of Corn a Year as They Do in the Philippines?

No, reader, this corn was not grown by one of our legal farmers! It wasn't grown in the United States, even. It was grown in the faroff Philippine Islands by Filipino schoolboys. Two fine crops of corn a year are produced in the Islands.

The Philippines are doing some wonderful things in the agricultural line. The Philippine government has fine agricultural schools throughout the islands, and the Philippine legislature, composed entirely of Filipinos, is each year making larger and larger appropriations for this important work.

The staple food of the islands is rice, but corn is coming right along in popular favor. Its use was given great impetus in the last year because of a rice shortage. Other important Philippine crops are hemp, sugar cane, coconuts, coffee, tapioca and pineapples. Lumber is also an important industry.

There are hundreds of thousands of acres of land lying idle in the Philippines, which have a greater area of fertile land than Japan—this in spite of the fact that the population of the Philippines is 11,000,000 while that of Japan is around 55,000,000. There is every reason to believe that some day the Philippines will have a population as large as that of Japan today. The Filipinos are the only Christian people in the orient, and their young men are working night and day to prepare themselves for the responsibility of citizenship in the Philippine Republic, which they believe to be near at hand.

ENUMERATOR TURNS RESCUER.

In the central part of New York state, near Oswego, an enumerator making his rounds on snowshoes arrived at an isolated farm dwelling only to find that an able-bodied man was needed more than a census taker, as the man of the family had been sick in bed for several days and the farm animals were suffering for lack of food and water. The census man, like any good neighbor would, stopped long enough to do the chores, dig out paths through the deep snow and put things in shipshape order before continuing his journey.

Paris, Feb. 17.—Joseph Caillaux, former premier of France, was placed on trial today before the senate sitting as a high court, charged with conspiracy against his country. The accused man entered the chamber accompanied by three police officers.

COURTING A WALLOPING

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 17.—Formal announcement of his candidacy for governor of Texas will be made by Former Senator Bailey after his address at Gainesville tomorrow, he told his friends here today.

MACHINE GUNS POLICE

Beaumont, Texas, Feb. 14.—Manipulation of machine guns may next be taught the police of Beaumont, if Samuel A. Cole, captain of the local machine gun troop, carries out his plans.

If the "higherups" sanction the plan instructions will be given daily, and a gun will be mounted at police headquarters for use in case of emergency.

While it is not definitely announced, it is thought that the next place visited by Mr. McKnight will be Chireno. Chireno is a live little town, and has some as good people as can be found in Nacogdoches county, and Mr. McKnight ought to find with ease a great deal of interest manifested in the organization he represents among the Chireno people.

During the war the British Secret Service cost the British people $7,000,000 a year. No report is ever made on expenditures.

CENSUS-TAKER TAKERS USE AEROPLANES.

Everything from aeroplane to snowshoes was used by the agents of Uncle Sam in taking the 1920 census of the United States. About the only modern method of transportation either on, over or below land or water that has not been employed in enumerating Uncle Sam's nieces and nephews seems to be in the submarine. Aeroplanes have come in handy in enumerating the dwellers on the islands off the coast of Florida; yachts and rowboats have been used in the harbors of the country; native canoes have been in demand among the Hawaiian Islands; "flivvers" are being used everywhere; the tried and trusty mule team has carried the census takers out on the desert regions; and snowshoes have become the trusted aides of the census gatherers in the northern states and Alaska.

KEEPS DATE BY AIRPLANE

Chanute, Kan., Feb. 14.—A flight from Wichita to Chanute, approximately 100 miles, in an airplane, was made by the Rev. E. A. Blackman, pastor of the Chanute Christian church to enable th pastor to be at his customary place, teaching his bible class, at 10:45 Sunday morning.

The pastor, who came back from "Y" service overseas, was referee at a boxing bout staged in Wichita Saturday night by the Wichita post of the American Legion. As it would be impossible for him to make the trip by train in time to get to Chanute for Sunday school, the Legion made arrangements for the air trip.

THE OLD LADIES' HOME DAMAGED BY FIRE.

The Old Ladies' Home, at Pilar South North streets, was discovered to be in flames at 9:50 this morning. The fire originated from a defective flue in the roof on the west side of the building, but the prompt arrival and effective work of the fire boys soon had it under control and the damage which was slight, was confined to the roof.

The inmates consisting of five women and one man, were safely removed from the burning building, as was also practically all of the equipment. The furnishings were handled with unusual care by the volunteer salvage brigade and were about all out by the time the water was turned on.

The property, formerly the Hyde Hotel, is owned by Mrs. H. R. Hyde, and is maintained under lease by the county as a home for indigent old women. Judge Marshall had the inmates quartered in the court house pending repairs to the damaged building, and stated to a Sentinel man that he expected to have the home in shape for the occupancy of its dwellers by Tuesday night.

Some of the old ladies were taken out in chairs, being too feeble to walk. The male inmate, Jim Moore, was entirely helpless, having suffered a stroke of paralysis on Saturday and being unable to use his right arm or leg.

Fire Chief I. L. Sturdevant wishes to especially thank Lieutenant Harant of the U. S. Recruiting station for valuable services rendered at the fire. His intelligent and effective work in removing the inmates and the household goods was a strong factor in preventing damage probably to both.

Serjeant Bullock of the recruiting office also did good work, and County Clerk I. D. Parmley was everywhere at once, it appeared, and rendered valuable service. He was the wettest man in town when he left the scene of the fire.

Dreadful Cough Corrected.

It relieved his cough right away and before he had finished taking one bottle he was cured. I think it is just fine for children." For sale by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

SOME FACTS AND FANCIES ABOUT THE PHILIPPINES

There Has Been Much Misrepresentation in America About People and Conditions.

By MAXIMO M. KALAW, Secretary of the Philippine Mission.

A certain lady at the St. Louis Exposition saw at a ballroom a brown complexioned man in faultless evening dress and accosted him with the inquiry, "I suppose you are Japanese, sir?" The man addressed replied, "No, madam." "Then you must be Chinese," she said.

"No, I am not. I am a Filipino," he replied. "How's that?" asked the lady. "I thought they were all savages living in the woods."

"Well, I'll tell you how I came here," he said. "A month before I left the Philippines I was living in the woods, but the American Governor decided to catch as many wild men as possible, train them and send them over here. So here I am, just as you see." And the St. Louis lady actually believed him.

That is what you would call fancies about the Philippines. The fact is, however, that the 11,000,000 Filipinos and their ancestors have been civilized and Christians for 300 years; that the non-Christian population, according to the census of 1918, is only 500,000, and even these are not all uncivilized.

Another fancy is that not until the coming of the Americans were school buildings seen in the islands, roads built, or substantial houses erected. Do you know that for hundreds of years the Filipinos have had colleges and schools and that the University of Santo Tomas is only twenty-five years older than Harvard? That as early as 1803, out of a population of 4,000,000 people, there were 841 schools for boys and 833 for girls? That in 1892, eight years before the coming of the Americans, there were 2,137 schools?

To grant self-government to Luzon under Aguinaldo would be like granting self-government to an Apache reservation under some local chief. Thus spoke a former President of the United States during the Filipino-American war. Exaggeration could be an excuse at a time when the dignity of the American people demanded the extinction of Filipino opposition, but do you know that the Philippine Republic, before the American occupation of the islands, had the approval of prominent Americans who were on the spot—like John Barrett, Director of the Pan-American Union, who compared it favorably with the Japanese government? That Admiral Dewey considered the Filipinos better fitted for self-government than the Cubans? That they had drafted a constitution at Malolos which elicited the approval of distinguished Republicans like the late Senator George F. Hoar? That before the coming of the Americans they had produced national heroes like the martyred Jose Rizal, pronounced by a Republican congressman, Representative Cooper, as the noblest victim that has ever fallen into the clutches of tyranny?

And do you know that the Filipinos have not had for hundreds of years any caste system, blood distinction or royal families, and that, unlike their oriental sisters, they are the only Christian people in the Orient?

People have pictured an ignorant mass of Filipinos, illiterate, poor, living a life of servitude for a few wealthy land owners and foreigners, with no houses or farms or property of their own. Do you know that 70 per cent. of the people above ten years of age can read and write and that this percentage of literacy is almost as high as some of the states of the Union? That it is higher than in any country of South America, higher than the literacy of the Spanish people, and unquestionably above that of any of the new countries recognized in Europe? Do you know that there are a million and a half farms in the Philippines and that 96 per cent. of these farms are owned by Filipinos. In other words, that out of the 11,000,000 Christian Filipinos, 8,000,000 of them at least live on their own farms, with houses of their own, independent of any absentee landlord or foreign master? That 91 per cent. of the urban property consisting of houses and lands is owned by the natives of the Philippines, and only 9 per cent. is in the hands of foreigners? Yet these are facts cabled by Acting Governor Charles Emmett Yeater to the War Department from the recent census estimates.

Having solemnly promised the Filipinos their independence and having gone before the world as the champion of self-determination, the Filipino people cannot understand how America can consistently refuse to make good these promises.

CLIMATE OF THE PHILIPPINES.

The Philippine Islands have a mild, tropical climate. The nights are cool and sunstrokes are unknown. The temperature record for the past thirty years shows an average of 80 degrees.

NAVY RECRUITERS HERE RESPONSIBILITY FOR DIVORCES.

The U. S. traveling recruiting party, with Chief Machinist Mate A. E. Stovall in charge, under command of A. Macomb, lieutenant commander U. S. N., of the Dallas district, is visiting cities in east Texas remote from the seaboard and not in easy reach of the recruiting station, in the interest of advertising and recruiting for Uncle Sam's first line of defense, the navy. E. E. Sweeney, chief commissary steward, will have a temporary recruiting office located in the post office building, and will take applications for enlistments in the navy till Feb. 22. Sweeney has been in the navy for ten years and is prepared to give you much information about the service, and can tell you some interesting things about his experiences while in the navy. The navy ships go to all important ports in the world and employ men of 55 different trades. They maintain many schools in which to train the men to sufficiently man the ships. Below are a few of the trades taught in these schools: Seamen, firemen, machinists, blacksmith, boilermaker, coppersmith, electrician, general and wireless; painter, printer, photographer, musician, hospital apprentice, yeoman, cook, baker, etc.

Now that the ships are offered to visit all foreign ports, this is a chance of a lifetime. You can see more in the next two years than an ordinary person will see in a lifetime.

Galveston, Texas, Feb. 16.—Society itself is largely responsible for the ever-increasing number of divorce cases which clog the courts, according to Judge Robert G. Sweet, of the fifty-sixth district court.

A Divine, Texas, lady complained bitterly of the "laxity" of the state's laws governing divorce proceedings. In answer to her letter, which was brought forth through published accounts of the great number of divorce cases pending in his court, Judge Sweet said:

"Divorces in this state are granted only for the causes for which you say they ought to be granted, that is adultery, cruelty and desertion. Our laws in this respect have undergone no change in fifty years. They are not lax. Nor do I think laxity in administration is responsible for the increased number of divorces. The trouble lies deeper. In my judgment, it is due to the laxity with which society views divorces as evidenced by the continued social recognition accorded to the guilty party."

Collusion on the part of seekers after legal separations, Judge Sweet pointed out, was almost impossible of detection by the court.

Getting Rid of Colds.

The easiest way to get rid of a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation has been in use for many years and its value fully proven. No matter what remedy you use, however, care must be taken not to contract a second cold before you have recovered from the first one, and there is serious danger of this. A man of middle age or older should go to bed and stay in bed until fully recovered. It is better to stay in bed three days at the start than three weeks later on. OLDEST OHIO EDITOR

Xenia, Ohio, Feb. 14.—The oldest newspaper editor in point of service in Ohio probably is James Parker Chew, editor in chief of the Xenia Gazette. For 70 years he has engaged in newspaper work and for the last 43 years Mr. Chew has been editor and publisher of the Gazette.

Editor Chew is now 88 years of age and is assisted in publication of the Gazette by one son and two grandsons, which makes the Gazette one of the very few newspapers in the world managed by three generations.

That Terrible Headache.

Do you have periodic attacks of headache accompanied by sickness of the stomach or vomiting, a sallow skin and dull eyes? If so, you can get quick relief by taking Chamberlain's Tablets as directed for biliousness, and you may be able to avoid these attacks if you observe the directions with each package. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

A GOVERNOR ASSASSINATED. CO-OPERATION AT GALVESTON.

Panama, Feb. 13.—Governor Perriault of Chiriqui province, which lies along the Costa Rican frontier, was assassinated last night according to advices received here today.

Some men will drop a nickel in the collection plate on Sunday and imagine that the five cents' worth of religion will last them all the week.

Galveston, Texas, Feb. 14.—More than 600 families have subscribed to stock of the Galveston Co-operative Stores, according to Mrs. A. T. Webster, president of the Housewives League, who said that over $14,000 so far had been paid in for shares.

Methods to be used in cutting down living expenses, how the overhead expenses should be calculated and how bad debts are to be avoided, are among the subjects engaging the women backing the new enterprise.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

LANSING RESIGNS AS SECRETARY OF STATE

Washington, D. C., Feb. 14. — Rebuked by President Wilson for calling cabinet meetings during his illness, Secretary Lansing has resigned. The president has accepted his resignation with appreciation, and Lansing becomes the second secretary of state to leave the administration over a disagreement with his chief.

Although the correspondence between Mr. Lansing and the president makes the calling of cabinet meetings the incident which leads directly to the secretary's resignation, persons on the inside who know what has been going on say the real reasons for the break go back over a period of many months and come from fundamental differences of opinion in policy. The even antedate the entry of the United States into the war. The relations between them almost reached the breaking point in 1917 when Secretary Lansing issued his celebrated statement saying the United States was daily being drawn nearer and nearer war. The president made every effort to overtake the statement after it was given out by the state department, but it was impossible.

No information was available at the White House as to the probable successor to Secretary Lansing, but the appointment is expected to be made soon. John W. Davis, ambassador to London, and undersecretary Polk are being discussed. Polk becomes secretary ad interim today, and will serve until a successor is named by the president.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 14.—Secretary Lane declared today that he considers himself "quite just as much responsible as secretary Lansing" for calling cabinet meetings during the president's illness. He said Lansing called him on the telephone and obtained his approval of the idea before calling the first meeting, and presumably secured the approval of the other cabinet members also.

STRIPLING, HASELWOOD & CO. Nacogdoches, Texas

FOR ASSESSOR.

To the voters of Nacogdoches county

In announcing my candidacy for the office of tax assessor, subject to the action of the democratic primaries, I desire to make the following statements:

I am 29 years of age, was raised in Nacogdoches county, as a farmer boy, in the Blake community on the Martinsville road. I moved to Nat ten years ago and reentered school after losing several years. Since that time I have taught and attended school and am at present serving in the capacity of principal of the Cushing school.

When our country became involved in war, I resigned as principal of the Libert school and volunteered my services, going with the company of coast artillery from Nacogdoches. I served 21 months in the army, four of which were in France.

I am entering the race with no intention of mud-slinging and with the highest regard for my opponent, whom I regard as a perfect gentleman.

If elected I promise to stay on the job and faithfully discharge the duties with which I am entrusted.

Yours truly, Clyde Shofner.

WIRELESS TELEPHONY IS HERE

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 12.—Wireless telephone service for commercial purpose will be established between Chicago and New York, it was announced today following a successful conversation held last night. Robert F. Gowen, New York, inventor of the radio-telephone, talked for thirty minutes with R. H. Matthews, in Chicago.

A wireless station also will be established at Dallas, Texas, it was announced.

MYSTERY OF OUTLAW WIRELESS PLANT SOLVED.

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 12.—The mystery wireless plant which for weeks had interfered with radio work in the southwest has been found and dismantled, and its two unlicensed operators are in custody. The operators are Mexicans and they face possible fines of $5,000 each for circulating fake wireless calls. The plant was discovered in the Mexican quarter of El Paso.

For a long time the eighteen amateur wireless operators in El Paso complained that an "outlaw" plant was persistent in its efforts to prevent them "listening in" on commercial radio messages, by filling the air with anonymous S. O. S. calls and other similar interruptions. Becoming emboldened the "outlaws" began courting trouble by interfering with army border stations. Federal agents began an investigation and soon located the mystery plant.

The end of the activities of the Mexican amateurs came suddenly after the interruption of a radiogram being transmitted to Fort Bliss from a station in Florida. Government agents swooped down on a Mexican 'dobe hut in Piedras street and found the two Mexican operators equipped with a plant whose range, according to the officers, was as great as that of the Fort Bliss' station—one of the most powerful plants in the country.

Now All You Good Fellows, Come Fill Up Your Pipes

The Velvet tin is twice as big as shown here

IF ever men are "Tom" and "Bill" to each other, it's when good pipes are a-going. If ever good pipes go their best, 'tis when Velvet's in the bowl.

For Velvet is a mighty friendly smoke. Kentucky Burley is the leaf that Nature made for pipes. Wholesome and hearty, honest as the day. And Velvet is that same good Burley leaf, brought to mellow middle age.

For eight long seasons Velvet "meditates" in wooden hogsheads, throwing off the rawness of "young" tobacco—truly "ageing in the wood." Out Velvet comes—cool, calm and generous—the tobacco Nature made good, kept good and made better.

Velvet's sweetness is the sweetness of good tobacco, not "put on" like "frosting" on a cake. Its mildness comes from natural ageing, not from having the life baked out. Its fragrance is true tobacco fragrance, not a perfume. And Velvet makes an A Number One cigarette. Roll one.

As good old Velvet Joe says:

"Fill yo' heart with friendly thoughts,
Yo' mouth with friendly smoke—
An' let the old world wag."

On February 22 the American Legion all over the country will have memorial services in remembrance of the boys who made the supreme sacrifice.

The Nacogdoches churches were requested by the Baxter Duncan Post of the American Legion to have a joint service at the school auditorium at 11 o'clock Sunday morning and they have gladly consented to do so. All Nacogdoches county citizens are requested to be present and a special invitation is extended to the relatives and friends of the forty-one boys from our county who gave their lives for their country. All who wore uniforms during the war are requested to wear them on this occasion and the members of the legion are expected to come early and act as ushers.

At the service honorary certificates of the French government will be given to the next of kin of the men of this county who made the supreme sacrifice in this world war.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH GETS PASTOR GEO. C. MOORE.

Rev. Geo. C. Moore of New Willard has accepted the call of the First Presbyterian church at Nacogdoches and will come about March 1.

Mr. Moore is not a stranger to East Texas, he having served the Presbyterian church at Trinity, and the Thompson Memorial church at New Willard. He grew up at Sherman, his father being pastor of the First Presbyterian church there for twenty-five years, and we bespeak for him the hearty co-operation of his own church, the pastors of all the congregations and of the town generally in working for his Master's cause.

This church is to be congratulated upon securing the services of so splendid a young man.

DEATH OF BABY.

A telegram was received last night announcing the death at Strawn, Texas, of Mary Ella, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Blount and granddaughter of Judge and Mrs. S. W. Blount and Mrs. Ella Swift of Nacogdoches. Pneumonia was the malady which caused death.

Owing to the illness of both parents, the baby was interred at Strawn.

Tucker, Hayter & Co. are doing some extensive work on their store. The front has not yet been completed, but will be finished shortly. Some extensive work will be done in the interior of the building, also. Thomas & Richardson have about completed their repairing, and blossomed out in dress colors. Some interior repairing is the only work that remains to be done in order to complete their building.

LONG ENLISTMENT.

Dan Cupid played it rather low down on Lieutenant Harant, local recruiting officer, when, through the machinations of the blind and irrefragable little deity, a member of his team "enlisted" for life in the matrimonial army.

Private Joseph Cain, 4th machine gun battalion, 2nd division, regulars, was married at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by Justice of the Peace Frank Huston at the latter's office in the courthouse, to Miss Ida Bonnett of San Antonio.

As the groom has been pretty thoroughly drilled and disciplined through his army experience and training, and has learned to "obey orders" without question or "back talk," he may escape some of the "corrections" which usually fall to the lot of a new benedict, but he will have to walk a chalk if he escapes a long stretch of K. P. duty.

The Sentinel joins with Uncle Sam in congratulations and best wishes for the old gentleman's courageous nephew and his new commanding officer.

W. J. CROSBY.

Mr. W. J. Crosby died at the Stripling House in this city about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon of cerebral hemorrhages, aged 69 years.

Deceased has been a resident of Nacogdoches about three months. He was the father of Mrs. Pearl Newton, teacher of the primary department in our public school, and of Gaston Crosby of this city. Another son resides near Alto, to which place the remains, accompanied by Mrs. Newton and her brother, were taken Monday night for interment in the family burying ground five miles east of Alto.

SIX O'CLOCK DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Davis were host and hostess to a dinner on Saturday evening served by the Ninth Grade Domestic girls.

The colors were red and white, and were carried out in heart form. An immense red heart graced the center of the table and was filled with fern and hyanthids. The miniature bon-bon baskets were also in shape of hearts, and contained heart mints. The soft glow of the lights shining through the red candle shades accentuated the beauty of snowy linen, covered with silver and china. Other suggestions of hearts were carried out in the menu in the salad and dessert courses. On the place cards was painted a small cupid dressed in the cooking uniform—ap and apron—with a heart as a background.

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Davis, Miss Dodd, Mr. Hunt, Miss Cowling, Miss Price, Miss Barham and Mr. Monk.

The girls serving the dinner looked especially attractive in white uniform cap and apron. On the front of each uniform was a large red heart. These cooks planned the dinner at a minimum cost, cooked with the skill that many housewives would envy, and served with an art admired by the guests.

Ten following girls served the dinner: Gladys Means, Helen Augusta Nelson, Mattie Bonner, Lorene Burk, Sallie Martin, Dollie Muckleroy, Vela Weaver, Martha Lou Childress, Audrey Hardeman and Clifford Muckleroy.

The roads in Nacogdoches county are on the whole in very good condition, considering the severe weather we have been subjected to during the past winter. The roads going to Garrison are in navigable condition, the roads going west to Alto are in pretty fair shape, except in the Loco bottoms, one or two hills, and in the Angelina river bottoms, which is reported to be in an almost impassable condition. The roads leading to the east to Chireno can be traveled over with a pretty fair degree of comfort; also the roads to Martinsville. Roads leading to San Augustine are said to be in an almost impassable condition. The road to Lufkin is said to be in an impassable condition—but as to that, who cares? Who in thunder wants to go to that benighted town, anyway?

NACOGDOCHES DATES FOR INCOME TAX COLLECTOR.

R. E. Weedin, deputy internal revenue collector, will maintain offices at points named in Nacogdoches county for the purpose of assisting individual taxpayers in the preparation of their 1919 income tax returns:

Nacogdoches, February 23 to February 28, 1920.

Cushing, March 1, 1920.

Garrison, March 2, 1920.

Persons residing in the vicinity of these places, or elsewhere in the county who need information about the income tax laws and assistance in making out their returns should keep the above dates in mind and apply to Mr. Weedin. Neglect to make the proper returns at the right time will subject the taxpayer to a heavy penalty.

H. T. BURK DEAD.

H. T. Burk, one of the older citizens of Nacogdoches, died at his home on Irion hill early Monday morning of pneumonia after a brief illness, aged 63 years.

Mr. Burk was reared in Nacogdoches county, and was numbered among the most progressive and successful of our farmers. For several years he was engaged in the hardware business.

Deceased was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and was a loyal Knight of Pythias.

He is survived by his wife and several children and a large connection of relatives in the county.

S. B. HAYTER HAS SOME COSTLY BUILDING PLANS

S. B. Hayter is planning some very expensive improvements on a building on Main street between the West Union telegraph office and the Armour building. It is understood he is planning to put an additional story on the building, which he will model for an office building. The lower story will be utilized for a merchandise apartment. This new addition to the city's already probable great building achievements for the year will make Nacogdoches look more than ever like the real metropolis of East Texas. Is there another city in all East Texas that can boast of as much?

Don't Neglect the Little Ones.

Mrs. J. S. Pitson, 376 East 156th, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I can't speak too highly for Foley's Honey and Tar. When my little girl has cold I give her Foley's Honey and Tar and that stops her coughing in a little while. Children like it. It contains no opiates. It is healing, soothing, prompt in action. Stripling, Haselwood & Co. f"

From all reports, it seems that the prevailing inclement weather is not failing to cause its share of sickness. Several persons have been reported dangerously ill of influenza or pneumonia. It is whispered that small pox has a small footing in one part of the county, but this is not confirmed.

The "Frostproof" Wakefield Cabbage plants are ready for delivery—100, 40c; 500, $1.50; 1000, $3.00. Also have Tomato, Pepper and Potato slips as soon as season opens. D. L. James. 16-3dwl

Secretary H. L. McKnight says that it is getting alarming how many boys and girls from the rural districts are crowding into the city, leaving the farms deserted, and producing nothing. Texas in every normal cotton producing year produces over four million bales of cotton. It is a banner corn producing state. It is a banner cattle state. Texas has the money, the resources and the will to be the greatest state in the union. Why should red-blooded boys on the farm leave their best interests, come to the city, sell themselves for a few paltry dollars behind the dusty counters of an often times unappreciative firm? Of course this is a free country, but the boy who has a good place on a farm has an equal chance with the boy in the dry goods store. Social starvation is another thing that is hurting the rural districts of our country. There is a great truth in this statement. Boys and girls who live in the country seeing and associating with no persons but a few homefolks, never having an opportunity of getting out in society, suffer more than the average town man or woman can possibly imagine. But these things will be righted. The views of the secretary of the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce will some day be vindicated.

DALLAS WOMAN WAS ALMOST HOPELESS.

Her Five Years of Misery Ended After Taking Tanlac—She Gains 13 Pounds.

"I gained thirteen pounds on taking Tanlac and feel as hearty as I ever did," said Mrs. Ella Faulkner, of 2916 Blackburn street, Dallas, Texas.

"I had no appetite," she continued, "and the misery in my stomach after eating was frightful. The gas pressure on my heart would almost smother me to death and I was actually afraid at times to lie down. I had awful pains in my feet and legs, was constipated and suffered constantly from headaches. I often had dizzy spells and was so nervous I could hardly sleep. I took all kinds of medicines, but nothing helped me.

"For five years I had been going down like this and had almost lost all hope of getting well, and was down in bed for several weeks before trying Tanlac. Since taking this medicine my appetite has improved, my nerves have become quiet and I never have a headache or pain of any kind. I sleep sound as a child and get up full of life and energy and am able to work all day long without getting tired."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

The building at West Main and North streets, formerly occupied by the Cooper Ice Cream parlor, has been cozily fitted up as a temporary office for Secretary McKnight of the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce. The location is convenient, and the secretary says the office is open to all. He wants everyone to call and see what the chamber of commerce is doing.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The pupils and students—no scholars—of the Nacogdoches High School were handed their report cards Tuesday. These cards showed the grades made during the past five months by the students. For the most part the students made pretty fair averages, although there were some who had tight squeezes. Only four months remain to be taught in the Nacogdoches High School.

The high school students enjoyed a remarkably pleasant time in the auditorium Tuesday morning during chapel services. Songs were sung speeches were made and the entire was married at 3 o'clock Wednesday pleasantness. Superintendent R. F. Davis made a very interesting in spirational talk for the benefit of the students, and this was very much appreciated by them.
