FISHING CATCH REDUCED

Galveston, Texas, Feb. 23.—Catches of red snapper during the month of January by schooners of a local fisheries company reached a total of 122,820 pounds, or 26,835 pounds under the December record.

RUSSIA MUST END OUTRAGES

London, Feb. 24.—The Allies decline to deal with Soviet Russia "until they have arrived at the conviction that bolshevist horrors have come to an end," it was announced after the meeting of the Allied Supreme Council today.

GARRISON BANK ATTACKED BY THIEVES TUESDAY NIGHT

The First State Bank at Garrison was attacked by yeggs sometime Tuesday night, but the attempt at robbery was a failure.

The thieves pried open a window and attacked the vault, digging about a foot into the masonry, but did not succeed in penetrating to the inside. There they would have met a still stronger obstacle to their plans in the shape of a modern time-lock safe. It is not known what caused them to abandon the attempt at robbery.

Sheriff Woodlan and County Attorney King were summoned to make an investigation Wednesday morning, but found no clue as to the identity of the near-robbers. They are of the opinion that the work was that of amateurs.

THE MICHIGAN UPRISING

Washington, D. C., Feb. 25.—A complete investigation of the prohibition controversy in Iroon County, Mich., will be made by the bureau of internal revenue, Commissioner Roper announced today. Deputy Prohibition Commissioner Gaylord leaves tonight for Michigan to take up the matter.

ANOTHER AMERICAN KIDNAPED

Washington, D. C., Feb. 25.—Barry hogarty, an American citizen, was kidnaped by Mexicans at Matimi, Durango, and is being held for ransom, according to state department information.

REFORMED REPUBLICAN NOW IS SECRETARY OF STATE

Washington, D. C., Feb. 25.—Bainbridge Colby of New York, one of the leaders of the Progressive party under Roosevelt, succeeds Lansing as secretary of state, it was announced at the White House today.

The selection of Colby was a surprise, most of the officials assuming that Acting Secretary Polk would be the choice.

The first inkling that the president would appoint someone outside his official family came when Mr. Colby visited the White House early today. He saw the president on the south lawn, and a few minutes later the formal announcement was made.

Mr. Colby was a member of the shipping board and the emergency fleet corporation in July, 1917, and also a member of the American mission to the Inter allied Shipping conference in Paris the same year. He retired from the shipping board over a year ago.

Mr. Colby was a life long republican until the famous Bull Moose bolt at the Chicago convention in 1912 helped Roosevelt to form the Progressive party. When Roosevelt threw the weight of his influence to Hughes in the 1916 presidential race, Colby identified himself with the Democratic party. He was born in St. Louis 51 years ago.

BOARD ENJOINED

Austin, Texas, Feb. 24.—A temporary injunction restraining the board of control from interfering with the board of managers of the Southwestern Insane asylum in the discharge of their duties was issued today, by Judge Calhoun of the Fifty-third district court. The judge held that the board of managers was provided for by the constitution and cannot be deprived of their office over their protest.

ROBBED ROYAL TOMBS

Berlin, Feb. 24.—Burglars rifled the mausoleum of Charlottenberg castle Sunday. They forced the lid and removed the jewels from Queen Louisa's coffin and the silver and gilded crowns lying in the coffins of Emperor William I and Queen Augusta, Prince Albrecht and others.

REVOLT HAS SUBSIDED

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 24.—The liquor rebellion in Iron county, Upper Michigan, had apparently subsided today in the face of the approach of Major Dalrymple, with a picked force of armed assistants, reports from there indicated. Major Dalrymple announced that he would clean up the county and arrest the state, county and Iron River city officials who interfered with federal agents seizing contraband wine last week.

ENJOINED FROM SELLING SHIPS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 24.—Associate Justice Bailey of the District Supreme Court signed the formal injunction against the shipping board to prevent the sale of 29 former German liners. William R. Hearst brought the proceedings.

REPLY REACHES LONDON

London, Feb. 25.—President Wilson's reply to the Allied note on the Adriatic question reached London today and was delivered to the Allied Supreme Council.

ELECTED TO COMMONS

London, Feb. 25.—Former Premier Asquith was elected to parliament from the Paisley constituency in the recent bye-election, it was announced today.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL SLAIN

Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 25.—Florence Housal, aged 50, owner of the Huntington Hall school for girls, in South Pasadena, was shot and killed in her room last night by an unknown assailant, who then fired the building. Her father extinguished the flames.

HOUSTON WILL ENTERTAIN THE AMERICAN LEGION

Fort Worth, Texas, Feb. 25.—Houston will be host of the first annual convention of the American Legion August 21 to 24, the executive committee has decided. A telegram was sent National Commander Bolter denouncing the Wadsworth bill would draft them into the service, desiring to see them trained through guard organizations. The committee also condemned the construction of memorials to dead soldiers while thousands of living soldiers, including 7,000 Texans with tuberculosis are in dire need of help.

TO SIGNAL MARTIANS

Bryn Mawr, Pa., Feb. 25.—The use of the government's smokemaking material left from the war in signaling Mars is suggested by James Crenshaw associate professor of chemistry at Bryn Mawr, who served in the chemical warfare section of the army. Smoke screens hundreds of miles wide, he believes, probably covering a space as large as the state of Pennsylvania was more likely to be discerned by possible Martians than the geometric designs which Sir Oliver Lodge suggested be laid out on the Sahara desert.

SOVIET IN ITALY IS PROCLAIMED BY WORKERS

London, Feb. 25.—Workers at Pieve di Soligo, Italy, have seized the municipal buildings and proclaimed a soviet government, according to a Rome Central News dispatch. In the fighting between the workers and the authorities many persons were wounded. Disorders also occurred at Vittorio, Monte Bella and other points.

WILL DELAY ACTION

Washington, D. C., Feb. 24.—The president will not act immediately on the railroad compromise bill passed yesterday by the senate. Representatives of the railroad workers and other organized labor are expected to urge the president to veto the bill because of its labor and other provisions. In a conference of railroad workers regarding the president's proposal for a settlement of their wage demands, it was declared there were threats of a break in the affiliated railroad employees' organization.

WANT AMENDMENT ANNULLED

Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 25.—The brewers of the United States will use every legal constitutional means "to keep that liberty and property guaranteed to us by the constitution," Christian Feigenspan declared at the United States Brewers conference, of which he is president. He pointed out that there are 21 referendum states where the people reserved to themselves the power to approve or to reject at the polls any act of the legislature. It is inferred that this will be the procedure in an attempt to retract the prohibition amendment.

SWEEPING AMNESTY GRANTED

Paris, Feb. 18.—A sweeping grant of amnesty will be declared by Paul Deschanel upon assuming the functions of president of the French republic today. Civil and military offenders will be included, the only exceptions being persons convicted of treason against the state.

MAY REACH AGREEMENT

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—Many days of partisan wrangling over the peace treaty promised to give way today to actual progress toward disposal of the pact, just one year since debate started on the League of Nations. A vote on the first proposed modification of the reservations, adopted at the last session of congress, was expected to be reached during the day.

STEAMSHIP STRIKES MINE

Paris, Feb. 20.—The steamer "Danube" struck a mine in the Black Sea 13 miles off Cape Ramili, on the European shore at the entrance to the Bosphorus, today, thirteen persons being killed by the explosion. The vessel succeeded in reaching Constantinople.

RUSSIAN SOVIET GOVERNMENT NOT TO BE RECOGNIZED

London, Feb. 24.—Recognition of the Russian Soviet government by the Entente is not contemplated by the Supreme Allied Council, but trade relations may be resumed. Mutual engagements relative to abductions were agreed upon as a result of yesterday's conversations by the council, the newspapers say. Premier Millerand is understood to have voiced the fear of France that a united Russia might be a serious menace to Western Europe, while Premier Lloyd George and Nitti held that Russia was broken up and not dangerous.

CONFER WITH PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C., Feb. 23.—Representatives of the railroad brotherhoods who conferred with President Wilson recently on wage demands called at the White House today to present a memorial protesting against the passage of the railroad bill and stating that the labor provisions are wholly unacceptable to railroad workers.

MURMANSK HAS FALLEN

London, Feb. 23.—The bolsheviks have seized Murmansk and the shipping in the harbor there, following a revolution, according to a Lloyds dispatch. Murmansk is on the Murman peninsula, and jutting eastward from Finland and north of the White sea. Last year the allied base was at Murmansk.

A LONG FENCE

Calxico, Cal., Feb. 23.—What is said to be the longest fence in the world has just been completed here. It is 12,000 yards long and separates Calxico from Mexicali, Lower California, Mexico. It is believed that it will materially reduce the work of immigration officers of both Mexico and the United States. The fence is composed of wooden posts painted red, and staunch barbed wire.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

Paris, Feb. 29.—Premier Lloyd George favors opening peace negotiations with Russia through Maxik Lithindoff, bolshevik representative in Copenhagen, and is supported by Premier Nitti of Italy, according to Echo d'Paris. Premier Millerand has been called to London in connection with the proposal.

A NEW CAMOUFLAGE

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 23.—The "forest camouflage" is the latest means of attempting to violate the immigration laws here, according to the federal officials.

Remedias Tolles is under $750 appearance bond charged with trying to work the "camouflage." According to the charge, Tolles brought four aliens, "not duly admitted by immigration officials," across the Rio Grande near El Paso and concealed them in bushes. Later, under cover of darkness, it is alleged that Tolles "camouflaged" the aliens by binding tree branches to their backs, and smuggled them to a ranch house. Here they were discovered by immigration officials.

HEARST MUST GIVE BOND

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—Associate Justice Bailey of the supreme court today fixed at $10,000 the bond to be given William Randolph Hearst in the injunction proceedings against the shipping board to prevent the sale of the thirty former German liners.

DENIED IN LONDON

Washington, D. C., Feb. 23.—In authoritative quarters here today it was said that Great Britain is not contemplating the resumption of diplomatic relations with Mexico. Great Britain has not had diplomatic representation at Mexico City for several months.

WEEKLY SENTINEL

COMMON SENSE NEEDED.

You may think all you want, theories till your head aches, embrace isms, join cults and paw the air, philosophize, argue, read, study and rant, and after all is said and done you will return to the starting point, acknowledge you have traveled in a circle, and that what is needed to set us all on our pins again as we should be is just plain, old-fashioned, common "boss" sense.

We need honesty very badly, also, but if we had plenty of good common sense we would have honesty, the latter being part and parcel of the former.

The loudest yell we hear is about profiteering. There are two reasons, aside from dishonesty, for profiteering: One is because we are suckers enough to stand for it, and the other is that we are, speaking generally, doing our best to profiteer upon those who are profiteering upon us.

The milkman and the baker raise the price two cents a quart or loaf, and we scream "profiteer" until we are black in the face, yet perhaps our brother or our son drives a milk wagon, or bread wagon, demands $45 a week for doing it, and makes it stick. Who, then, is the profiteer? The truth is that it is about fifty-fifty.

Rears-Sawbuck Co. can sell cheaper than the local merchant because they have the volume of trade, make no deliveries and do a strictly cash business, so frequently the thrifty housewife orders therefrom. And yet maybe her husband or son or brother has a good job with some department of the county or town, into the treasury of which the foreign firm pays no taxes.

No woman who pays $25 for a flimsy mosquito-net peekaboo thingamijig called by courtesy a waist has any sympathy coming, and neither has the mutt who pays $70 for a hand-me-down suit worth half that and $3 for a tie worth six-bits. They are simply ministering to their own vanity and vaunting their lack of common sense. Also, somebody has been profiteering or they wouldn't have money to burn in any such bonfires.

And so it goes all down the line, with thousands of instances and ramifications, each and all of which, as said before, lead right back over the circle to the starting point.

And out of it all looms the plain, homely, good old-fashioned fact that a little more honesty and a little more common sense are the real remedies needed to cure more than half the ills of which we so loudly complain.

Every man who works at all, works too hard to throw his money away.

When lovely woman stoops to jolly a man, he falls for it, b'golly.

The milk of human kindness is not put up in tin cans, but it is condensed more than it ought to be.

Better sleep over what you intend to do than to be kept awake afterward by what you have done.

Pistols and charge accounts are dangerous things in the hands of people who do not know how to use them.

Don't get discouraged because your part in the game of life is small. The fle is not large, but he makes other people scratch like blazes.

There are quite a number of people in this country who are willing to sacrifice all they have for their country except their lives and their money.

Let a mother's son fall in battle and she bears her agony and martyrdom with the dignity of a faupreme sorrow, but let the government sting a money-grub with a war tax and he will bel-low like a calf.

The next "drive" that shows up around this think emporium is going to get driven right through the side of the house. The "drive" business has been driven ino the ground and broken off.

The dear little girls may not know it, but they would be much happier if they would treat their poor, abused feet like friends and emancipate them from the agony of high heels and toothpick toes.

We suppose the reason why a broker with seven scratches of a pen or lead-pencil can make more out of a 500-acre potato crop than the man who planted, worked, gathered, packed and shipped it is that he needs the money.

WHAT THE SOLDIER THINKS OF THE ARMY.

One way to find out what the enlisted man thinks of the army is to give him a chance to "knock" to his heart's content without fear of reprimand. An inquiry recently made the commanding general of one of the largest demobilization camps in the United States brought interesting replies.

Out of 1,440 questionnaires sent out among enlisted men about to be discharged 89.5 per cent stated in reply that their military training had benefited them personally in one or more ways. Only 10.5 per cent believed that they had not been benefited.

It is interesting to note the following extracts from some of the typical answers received:

"The army has given me a broader outlook. One learns to consider the other man as well as himself. I never felt better physically in all my life. I have straightened up my shoulders, which were bent over, and have got out of the habit of looking at the ground. The army has taught me when given a job to get it done as quickly as possible and to do it correctly. It has shown me the value of working during working time and using resting time for rest. I have also learned to keep better hours and to appreciate being out in the open air and not staying in all the time."

"I have keener sense of duty. I can think quicker. I have regular habits. I am a better Christian. What I have learned in first aid will enable me to help a friend in time of emergency. When I came into the service I had quite a stomach, but now I am thin around the waist, but I have a great chest."

"The greatest benefit was to get out of the satisfied rut in which I had been living and be made to feel more ambitious and dissatisfied with what I was doing. I consider the mingling of different classes of people in the army helps them to understand each other much better than could happen otherwise."

NEGRO BAPTIST CAMPAIGN

The negro Baptists of Texas are to raise during the next five years five million dollars for their evangelistic and educational work in the state. This decision was reached by the recent board meeting, held in Hearne. Encouraged by the success of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, the negro Baptists have asked for the co-operation of the white Baptists of the state, and Dr. F. S. Groner, general secretary of the Baptist General Convention, has promised them prominent speakers in their campaign.

The negro Baptists will spend two millions of this sum for foreign missionary work. Most of the foreign missionary work of the negro Baptists of Texas is done in Africa and Mexico, among their own people. Fifty thousand dollars will be spent in Sunday-school work in Texas, and a like amount in B. Y. P. U. work.

A campaign for 10,000 new subscribers to the negro Baptist paper of the state will also be waged.

The negroes have adapted for their campaign the same type of organization that was used by the white Baptists of the state in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign.

When considering the beauties of nature, start with your own front yard. Clean it up, cut the grass at the proper time, plant flowers in season, make it a joy to the eye. Move right on around to the back of the house, repeat the operation and then look around to see if anything has been missed. If your neighbor's yard is a little better than yours, make up your mind that your must be better than his. Man should not judge of the works of the Lord until he has first set his own domain in order.—Timpson Times.

The reason we have a labor problem is that we do not understand labor. Another fallacy is that capital gets everything and labor nothing. Statistics prove that eighty per cent of every dollar spent in the stores goes to labor. We—the big majority of us—the toilers—have lost the religion of our fathers, which is the religion of thrift and hard work.—R. B. Babson.

"Prohibition in America," says an interview in the London Times, "was largely due to the nature of American whisky. It is harder liquor to 'carry' than our British whisky, and if anything could be devised to encourage the prohibition movement here, it would be the circulation of the same stuff that brought 'drink' into disrepute in the United States."

Some singers have no cause to throw stones at the cat.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS.

Continuing as to the notable olden time hotels, the old Hart House is well worthy of mention, first, from its unknown age, probably being built about 1830; secondly, its primitive form and material, setting low near the ground, having two large front rooms, with wide, full length front gallery or porch, a spacious hallway, two big back rooms and extensive kitchen and cook room, and elaborate garret with rooms and dormer windows on the second floor, and out-houses for various purposes, all built of timbers sawed by water-mills with upright sash saws, or hewn logs from the woods; third, its purposes for the primitive times, being Col. Thorn's family residence, for the lavish entertainment of his frequent distinguished guests, and adventurers who were entering the new promised land of Texas, and kindred uses.

Col. Thorn died about 1835. He had grown opulent by trading in peltries, merchandising and speculating in lands. He was survived by his widow, one son, Frost, Jr., and one daughter, Marcelite. After his death this family all went back to New York to live. Marcelite married Commodore Garner, and Frost married Fanny Davenport, both being of great note. These two Thorn children were both drowned by upsetting of their pleasure yacht, "Mohawk," in New York bay about the year 1870. The widow Thorn returned to Texas and lived in Tyler with John Durst, her great-nephew, until her death many long years afterwards. She was buried beside her husband in Nacogdoches.

Mrs. Thorn's widowed sister, Mrs. Hart, turned the old Thorn home into a hotel in 1868. There was then no other house in the block and only one house on the block across East Main street in front of it which all belonged to the Thorn place, except the Episcopal church, on Church street, where the Sentinel office now stands. This church lot was donated by Col. Thorn.

But those wonderful and romantic old days are gone, and so are the participants in their history. The subject is fascinating, but here it must end by saying that there is not even a Thorn relative in Nacogdoches. The name, however, is perpetuated by descendants of Thorn's slaves.

"Princes, this clay must be your bed, in spite of all your towers."

The old Mitchell Hotel was quite a large two story framed building located on the corner where the opera-house was afterwards built by Mayer & Schmidt, who bought it and paid the occupants to vacate. The Mitchells had vacated and rented it to other patriots. The grounds of the hotel property included about one-fourth of the block in which it stood. It once belonged to the noted Dick Parmalee, who operated a livery stable and extensive mail route contracts. Alexander G. Mitchell became the owner about 1857, and lived there until his death. The hotel was built for his widow, after that, by a transient architect carpenter named Kirk or Curt, who died before it was completed. The widow Mitchell lived there, raised a large family of children and operated the hotel many years. Many shade trees then stood in front of the Mitchell Hotel and on the premises.

The original old county jail stood on the southwest corner of Pecan and Hospital streets. It was a queer structure, built of 2x12 pine, both walls and floors, and was 16 feet high and 20 feet square. The walls and floors inside were filled thick with nails, to prevent prisoners from cutting out. An outside stairway led to the upper door. There was no lower door at first. The entrance to the lower room was through a trap door in the middle of the upper floor, and a light ladder was used for descent and ascent. This ladder was drawn up for closing. This jail was built about the year 1856. Later on a lower front door was made. There is a skeleton in every family closet. The jail answers as a closet for the county.

BABY'S LONG WALK

He was a college professor, greatly beloved of his kind heart, but with the common scholastic failing of being very absent minded. He visited his married niece and listen to her praise for her first born. When she paused for breath the professor felt that he must say something.

"Can the little fellow walk?" he asked with every appearance of interest.

"Walk?" cried the mother indignantly. "Why, he's been walking now for five months."

"Dear me!" exclaimed the professor again relapsing into his abstraction. "What a long way he must've gone!"

Give Me a Friendly, Natural Hand-shake

an' a friendly natural tobacco. Keep yo' put-on airs an' "sauces-up" tobaccos for the fellow that likes nut sundaes better than home made pie—

So says a friend of ours named Velvet Joe. And he just about hits the nail on the head.

Velvet is made for men who think there's no smoke like real tobacco. If you are that sort of man, listen:

Velvet was born in old Kentucky, where more than one good thing comes from. It was raised as carefully as any other Kentucky thoroughbred. But the real secret of Velvet's friendly qualities is its slow natural ageing in wooden hogsheads. Ageing in the wood never hurt anything—and least of all, tobacco.

And so we say, Velvet is good tobacco—nothing more or less. It runs second to none.

The picture of the pipe on the tin needn't keep you from rolling a jim-dandy cigarette with Velvet.

"Gentlemen of the jury," said a newly elected justice of the peace in Indiana, on the occasion of his first trial, "chargin' a jury is a new business to me. All I got to say is this: You have heard the evidence in this case as well as me. You have also heard what the learned counsel have said. Oo you believe that the counsel for the plaintiff has said, then your verdict will be for the plaintiff. That follows. An' if you believe, on the other hand, what the counsel for the defendant has said, you'll reach a verdict in his favor. But if you are like me and don't believe a dang word either of them has said, then the Lord help you. Constable take charge of the jury."

Chicago, Ill. Feb. 23.—Major A. V. Dalrymple, federal prohibition director for the central states, with six armed aides, are enroute to Iron county, Upper Michigan, to quell what the revenue agents regarded as incipient insurrection. Major Dalrymple was informed that Washington, Iron county was in open revolt against the federal authorities. It was said that county officials took from a federal agent a quantity of wine he had confiscated.

MARINE KICKED BY MULE WILL NEVER FORGET IT.

Houston, Tex. Feb. 18.—A kick from a mule is guaranteed to make just about as much impression on the memory as it does on the anatomy. Yet Clyde D. Jarvis has made sure that he does not forget the kick he received from a Missouri beast of burden for the rest of his natural life.

Jarvis applied for enlistment in the Marine Corps here today and was accepted. He exhibited a scar about six inches long on the left side of his abdomen, and explained it was the result of operation he had undergone, some six months before, for a supposed ruptured spleen, following the kick from the mule.

The operating surgeon had made the wrong diagnosis, however, and found that Jarvis' spleen was O. K. Tattooed above the scar in large letters were the words, "Opened by mistake."

GARDEN SEED DISTRIBUTION.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The supply of garden seed for distribution by the Department of Agriculture upon requests of Congressmen has been so greatly reduced that I will not be able to send a package to every family. Several thousand packages have recently been sent out, and I have a few thousand left, which I will send to those who advise me that they want them. Special varieties will not generally be furnished by the department, but they will send the packages already prepared. If you want a package, mail your request at once. A postal card will do. Address John C. Box, M. C., Washington, D. C.

PREMIERS IN OPPOSITION

London, Feb. 23.—Premiers Lloyd George and Nitti are believed to favor the resumption of relations with Soviet Russia, although Premier Millerand is not inclined to agree to immediate action, according to the Daily Mail, which says this problem must be considered by the Supreme Council of the Allies at the sessions begun today. It is maintained by the Chronicle that "all candid minds must recognize that, as no anti-bolsheviki organization exists any longer, Soviet Russia is now Russia."

U. OF T. EX-STUDENTS CELEBRATE MARCH 2

Austin, Texas, Feb. 18.—Plans are on foot by former students of the University in many towns and cities of Texas and other parts of the United States to celebrate March 2, Independence Day, in their respective communities. This is a custom that was very widely practiced in the years before the war, and is now to be resumed on a large scale, according to John A. Lomax, secretary of the ex-Students' Association.

Mr. Lomax has received, among many other letters on the subject, one from Mrs. Wayman Adams of New York City advising him that the University of Texas Association of New York will celebrate March 2 with a big dinner at one of the large hotels. She asks to be notified of the whereabouts of as many former university students who may be residing in that city as possible.

Definite plans have been made to hold March 2 celebrations by former students of the University of Texas at the following places so far as Mr. Lomax has been advised up to this time:

Abilene, Austin, Brownsville, Beaumont, Beeville, Bonham, Chicago, Ill., Cisco, Clarksville, Coleman, Dallas, Decatur, El Paso, Ennis, Fredericksburg, Fort Worth, Galveston, Hillsboro, Houston, Huntsville, Jacksonville, Jasper, Kansas City, Mo., Llano, Livingston, Marshall, McKinney, Midland, Mineral Wells, Mt. Pleasant, Nacogdoches, New York City, Orange, Plains, Perryton, Plainview, St. Louis, Mo., San Angelo, San Antonio, Temple (for the whole of Bell county), Waco, Washington, D. C., Waxahachie, Wichita Falls.

BREAKS LEG.

C. W. Butt, general merchant of this city sustained a broken leg Thursday when he stumbled over a box in his store. An ankle was also dislocated by the wrench of the fall, and he must have suffered when his hurts were attended to by a surgeon, though he underwent the ordeal manfully and without a murmur. His many friends hope he may soon recover and return to his place of business.

R. W. Tillery of Appleby was in the city Wednesday on business.

RAILEY IS A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF TEXAS.

Gainesville, Texas, Feb. 19.—Joseph Weldon Bailey, former United States senator, yesterday formally announced his candidacy for governor on the democratic ticket. Simultaneously with the announcement he made public a telegram from former Congressman Robert L. Henry of Waco, in which the latter stated that he would withdraw from the gubernatorial race in favor of Bailey.

Mr. Sam Wilson carried a Sentinel man to Garrison Thursday to the C. of C. meeting, and while on the journey took opportunity to show him the merits of a certain little Chevrolet that he was driving.

The Sentinel representative is willing to admit that the car has all the merits claimed for it by enthusiastic owners, and the only thing he sees wrong with the car is that he is not able to rake enough money together with which to get one himself. The roads were in pretty good condition, and the little Chevrolet behaved nicely.

I enlisted in the first week in January and have just got through my three weeks drill. I wish to say that I did not find it as hard as you told me, and I have enjoyed myself, except just one week that I had the flu.

I am snapping it on the rifle range now and I am going to do my best to make an expert rifleman.

WEEKLY SENTINEL

BY GILES M. HALTOM

CONGRESSMAN YOUNG'S SPEECH

To the Business and Professional Men of Nacogdoches:

This is to express the hope that each and every one of you will read the speech of Congressman James Young delivered before the House of Representatives on February 5. Mr. Young is voluntarily retiring from public service after twelve years in congress.

He is going back to his farm in Kaufman county. Therefore there can be no political significance attached to his remarks on this occasion. Mr. Young has for eight years served as chairman of the agricultural committee of the lower house. In his speech he calls attention to the economic significance of rural depopulation. He is neither an alarmist nor a calamity howler.

He must know that what he says about the trend of population cityward is true. It is true right here in old Nacogdoches, even with her admitted agricultural advantages. Information comes to me every day about idle farms in our immediate vicinity. And Mr. Young cannot be very far wrong in his prophecy of the logical result of this state of things. The address referred to can be found in today's Chronicle and likely in all the other state papers.

H. L. McKnight
Secretary-Manager Chamber Commerce

ATTENTION FARMERS.

The Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce has arranged for three farm terracing demonstrations to be given in Nacogdoches county at the following places and on the following dates:

Near Sacul, on the M. S. Lacy farm, Monday, March 1st.

Near Garrison, on Frank Garrison's farm, Tuesday, March 2nd.

At Earl Reid's farm, 9 miles northeast of Nacogdoches on the Shady Grove road, Wednesday, March 3rd.

These demonstrations will be given under the personal supervision of Mr. C. L. Beason, a soil specialist of Owensboro, Ky.

Mr. Beason will use the Martin ditcher in building these terraces.

In connection with each demonstration he will give a lecture on soil conservation.

Farmers in each of these localities are urged to be present to witness the actual work of terrace building and to take part in the general discussion that will be held in connection with the lecture.

Other speakers will likely be present. It is hoped that each of these demonstrations will be made to serve a definite purpose in the program of agriculture regeneration in Nacogdoches county.

Read the dates and note the locations again, then tell your neighbor about it. Better still, bring him along with you to the demonstration. You cannot make a better investment of your time on that day.

NACOGDOCHES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. By H. L. McKnight, Secretary-Manager.

STONES AS MONEY SAYS THIS MARINE.

San Francisco, Feb. 24.—Stones, flat smooth ones, with holes drilled in the center, constitute the form of money the Yaps use, according to Marine Corps Sergeant Albertos Bresanhan, who has just returned from the Orient and who was a visitor recently at the island of Yap, a tropical isle in the Pacific used as a trans-Pacific cable station.

"A Yap dollar stone weighs two pounds," adds the Marine. "When the natives get on top of a mountain and pitch pennies it reminds one of a landslide."

For the Blind.

A tradesman in a certain town put a box outside his shop one day labeled, "For the Blind." Most of his customers dropped in pennies and complimented him on his charity. A few weeks later the box disappeared.

"Hallo, what's happened to your box for the blind?" he was asked.

"Oh, I got enough money," he replied, "and," pointing to the new canvas blind that sheltered his shop window, "there's the blind. Not bad, is it?"

One of the 3,000 Philippine Islands should be set apart as a "Red" colony, says Nicholas Murray Butler. An island should be selected whose climate is genial and whose soil is rich, and the colonists would be at liberty to try out their schemes one upon another.

CONGRESSMAN BOX AND IMMIGRATION AS DIES SEES IT

Former Representative Says He Has Much to Do With Present Law.

To the Beaumont Enterprise.

In your issue of January 25th I read a special to the Enterprise from Washington, under the following headlines:

"Box would bar foreign element, urges congress to pass immigration bill with teeth in it."

In this special it is alleged that Congressman Box delivered an hour's address on the subject. And in your issue of Feb. 3rd there appears under a Washington date an article headed: "Box wins out in barring Mexicans."

Now in order to keep the record straight, I wish to state the facts in regard to this immigration question.

Our immigration laws debar all foreigners who are unable to read and write in some language. It also seeks to debar the anarchistic and vicious element. The literacy test bill, excluding those unable to read and write was passed by congress during the administration of President Taft. It was only after the most strenuous efforts that we got the bill out so a vote could be had. I secured the caucus action myself by obtaining the necessary congressional names to the caucus petition to our chairman, Mr. Burelson, on May 2, 1912, and on his next day, May 27th, the following Washington dispatch appeared in the Louisville Courier Journal and most of the leading papers of the country:

"By his charges the republican and democratic leaders of the house were displaying cowardice in dodging a vote on the immigration question, Representative Martin Dies of Texas, has aroused the democratic majority to action. He circulated a petition for a caucus today, obtained more than the necessary number of names and caucus was called by Representative Albert S. Burelson of Texas, the chairman, for next Wednesday night, when the Dillingham-Burnett immigration bill will be considered and a course of action agreed upon. This bill provides an illiterate test for aliens coming into the country and is so drastic that it has been estimated that it will reduce the number of immigrants by 50 percent annually."

The caucus was held and we failed to get the bill up for a vote because it was election year and the fellows did not want to lose any votes. After the election was over we passed the bill and President Taft vetoed it and we failed to get the necessary two-thirds to pass it over his veto. After President Wilson came into office we began the struggle all over again to get a vote on the bill but the work was harder than ever because the president was against the bill, and his opposition scared most of the friends of the measure into silence. However we finally got the bill up and passed it. President Wilson vetoed the bill and that time we mustered enough strength to pass it over his veto by the necessary two-thirds majority and it is a law today. Under that bill the Mexicans Judge Box is complaining about cannot legally be brought into the United States, because they cannot read and write. They were admitted as a war measure under the direction of the president or his cabinet minister, and I find on Page 7401 of the congressional record, 66th congress first session, Congressman Box uses this language:

"With reference to the admission of Mexicans to meet certain industrial needs I took no action."

On page 7400 of this record I find the following colloquy between Congressman Hudspeth of Texas, and Congressman Box:

Mr. Hudspeth — "But I want to say this to my colleague from Texas: If you were so much opposed to bringing Mexican labor across to harvest the crops, you should not have loaned yourself to the committee and the Texas delegation that went down and interceded with the secretary of labor."

Mr. Box. "Will the gentlemen yield?"

Mr. Hudspeth, "No, I will not. To bring them across."

Mr. Box. "Will the gentlemen yield?"

Mr. Hudspeth. "The gentlemen ought not to have been present if he was so much opposed to bringing Mexican labor for a few short months to harvest the crops in Texas."

Mr. Connally: "The gentlemen does not refer to me?"

Mr. Hudspeth. "No, I am referring to the gentleman who is opposed to having Mexicans sent across but who went with the Texas delegation to ask the commissioner of labor to lift the ban until the first of January."

So it appears that the law which I helped to pass was set aside temporarily as a war measure and that Judge Box was in the party that went before the secretary of labor to have this done. So much for the victory of Judge Box over the Mexicans. Now as to the hour's address urging congress to pass an immigration law with teeth in it. At page 2056 of the congressional record I find that Mr. Flood yielded 25 minutes to Judge Box and that Judge Box inserted in the record eight and one-half columns of matter without the leave having been granted him to extend his remarks. If he had read the article to congress it would have taken more than an hour to do it, and as he was granted only 25 minutes it was physically impossible for him to have read the matter. He simply wrote it out, read all he could of it in the 25 minutes he had, and inserted the remainder without leave. If anyone doubts it, let him get the Box article and try to read it in 25 minutes. I wish to give Congressman Box credit for all he does and says but I cannot permit him to come forth at the eleventh hour and build up a record on the immigration question by newspaper dispatches. To permit him to do so would be an act of unfairness to the people as well as my own candidacy. Judge Box not only did not make the hour's speech, but in the matter he read and inserted he made no proposition to change immigration laws. He ran against me for my second term in 1910 and the literacy test bill was before congress. I was actively engaged in trying to make it the law. It was designed to shut out a million ignorant foreigners each year, and yet when Judge Box wrote his platform he did not endorse the efforts we were making to shut out this ignorant million a year, but contented himself by declaring against Asiatic immigration. And as there was practically no immigration from Asiatic countries to the United States at that time, that plank of Judge Box's form was quite harmless. He did not in any way declare his position upon the then live issue by shutting out the colossal immigration from Russia and south eastern Europe amounting to more than a million a year. It has always been my position that no immigrant should ever be admitted who is incapable of self government. The bill which we passed and which is law now, cut out at least half of the bad ones. We couldn't make it any stronger because we had to have a two-thirds majority to pass it over President Wilson's veto. Now if Judge Box really wants to strengthen our immigration laws let him introduce a bill to that effect and go to work to get it passed. Let him circulate a petition for caucus and try to get our party to back him up. If necessary let him cry aloud and denounce the cowardice of those who tremble to do their duty. If the president is still opposed to restrictive measures, let Judge Box honestly but boldly cross swords with the president of the United States and declare his convictions. If cowardly leaders shirk their duty let Judge Box stand in the big aisle and appeal to the congress and the country and whip timidity into action. Let the congressman go as far as he can along that line, and I shall give him credit. But I shall expose any sham battle or make-believe efforts. I have battled too hard and too long and been punished too bitterly on account of my immigration views to willingly allow any man to take from me what glory there is in having aided the passage of a measure which shut out of this country one-half of the ignorant millions who were endangering the life of our free government.

PRESIDENT OF C. OF C. ASSURES SUPPORT ON TOWN CLOCK.

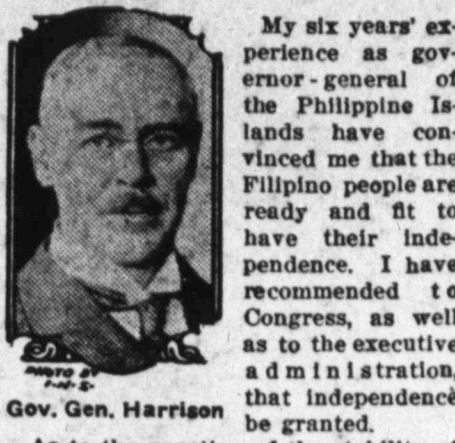

"I think it is an excellent thing, and Nacogdoches should have one. It is a thing that the women of Nacogdoches should have become interested in and try to materialize. However, the board of directors of the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce will see what arrangements can be made toward getting the desired clock," were the words spoken Monday by Attorney A. A. Seale, who is president of the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Seale said that the matter would have been discussed Monday night with the directors, but Mr. McKnight was absent, and the meeting had to be postponed until Wednesday night, at which time Mr. McKnight would be present.

Everyone is anxious to see the town clock put into action, and the proper move toward getting it is the only thing that needs to be done. Boost it; Nacogdoches should have a town clock.

GOV.-GENERAL OF PHILIPPINES FOR FREEDOM

Declares It Not Right That Freedom Should Longer Be Withheld.

By FRANCIS BURTON HARRISON, Governor-General of the Philippines. (First Article.)

My six years' experience as governor-general of the Philippine Islands has convinced me that the Filipino people are ready and fit to have their independence. I have recommended to Congress, as well as to the executive administration, that independence be granted.

As to the question of the stability of government, I wish to say to the American people upon my responsibility as the governor-general that in my opinion there exists today in the Philippine Islands a stable government, which I think should answer the requirements laid down by Presidents Grant and McKinley, and as I understand it, also by Mr. Root—namely, a government elected by the suffrage of the people, which is supported by the people, which is capable of maintaining order and of fulfilling its international obligations.

I am very glad to go on record as being entirely in sympathy with the aspirations of the Filipino nation for independence.

I have recommended to Congress that in granting independence some provision be made similar to what is known as the Platt amendment in the treaty with Cuba, which restricts the ability of the new republic in borrowing of foreign governments and also permits the United States to interfere with the affairs of the new republic in case conditions of disorder should be found to prevail. Such recommendation does not come as an expression of the views of the Filipinos; it is my own view of what would be desirable to secure a feeling of confidence and satisfaction on the part of all persons who have already invested money in the Philippines or who contemplate doing so in the near future.

But it is not right that independence itself should longer be delayed. By temperament, by experience, by financial ability, in every way, the 11,000,000 Filipinos are entitled to be free from every government except of their own choice. They are intelligent enough to decide for themselves.

I have found the native Filipino official to be honest, efficient and as capable of administering executive positions as any men I have met anywhere in the world.

These officials are today governing 1,000 municipalities and forty-two provinces, economically, efficiently and for the good of the entire people. They have a native congress, including many graduates of Yale, Princeton, Harvard and other American universities. Other members are graduates of Santo Tomas and other Philippine universities, and in education and ability they compare favorably with any I know.

They have leaders like Speaker Osmena of the House of Representatives and President Quezon of the Senate who would adorn any office.

The Philippines are way ahead of the United States in successful government ownership and operation of public utilities. The government took hold of the steam railroads and made them pay a profit of 1,000,000 pesos a year more than under private ownership. It took hold of the highways, and we have 7,000 miles of the best macadamized roads in the world. The Manila city government is about to take over the street railways and the gas and electric plants, while the territorial government is arranging for ownership and control of the coal supply.

The movement for independence is a peaceful one. No territory was more loyal to Uncle Sam during the war. It offered an armed and equipped division to our government, gave it a submarine destroyer and oversubscribed Liberty loans and Red Cross funds. Two million natives speak English fluently, and there are 700,000 English speaking children in the public schools. I am more than willing to retire if the Filipinos can be granted what they deserve—a government like that of the United States.

A MISREPRESENTED RACE.

The Filipino people are a much misrepresented race. The frequent publication of pictures of semi-naked Mindanao Moros and Igorotes has caused a great many Americans to believe they are typical of the inhabitants of the Philippines. Such is far from the case, however. Of 11,000,000 inhabitants of the islands, 10,500,000 are a Christian, civilized people with a culture and refinement that will compare very favorably with that of other nations. The Filipino women are exceptionally modest. A street flirtation in Manila, so far as a Filipino woman is concerned, is something that is almost unknown, as any American that has visited Manila will testify.

ILLINOIS DOCTOR PRESCRIBES IT

Says He has Never Known Medicine to Produce Result Like Tanlac.

B. H. Elder, M.D., with offices at 410 Schradzki Building, Peoria, Ill., comes out with his unqualified endorsement of Tanlac.

Dr. Elder graduated from Butler University of Indianapolis, Ind., later took a post graduate course at Rush College, Chicago, and has also studied abroad.

He has been in active practice over twenty-five years in Peoria—and is one of the best known physicians of that city.

"So far as my knowledge goes," said Dr. Elder, in an interview recently, "medical science has never produced a medicine that brings results like Tanlac. It is altogether too good to keep from suffering humanity and I have been prescribing it in my practice for some time with remarkable results."

"For years I had suffered from stomach trouble and rheumatism and had devoted my best thought trying to find relief, but all to no avail. Right after eating, gas would form in my stomach and affect my heart, causing poor circulation, cold hands and feet, dizzy spots before my eyes, peculiar feelings, terrible headaches, and cramps by uric acid deposits in the blood, which find their way into the joints, and the pain was so great I could hardly stand to move my legs and arms."

"So, it's no surprise that I devoted lots of time and thought, using all my powers, trying to free myself of these troubles. But nothing I ever found until I got Tanlac affording me more than a little temporary relief. And here is how I found out the powers of Tanlac: I had a patient who had suffered for years with the same kind of troubles and while I did all I could for him, the same as for myself, he failed to improve any. Well, this party came to my office one day, after having been away for about six months, and I never in all my life saw a man look in better health or seem to feel better. While sitting there in my office he told me Tanlac was what brought about the wonderful change. I could not doubt it, for I knew what an awful condition he had been in, and I made up my mind then and there to try Tanlac in my own case. So I did and the results are that a few bottles relieved me entirely of stomach trouble and rheumatism and all my other ailments as well. I am an extra hearty eater, especially of meats and such foods as often produce bad effects, but none of these things disagree with me any more. So now, as I have discovered the value of Tanlac I am ready to honor it as one of the most beneficial of all medicines. I have prescribed it, in cases of rheumatism, kidney and bladder disorders and a run down condition, with wonderful result. I feel that I ought, for the benefit of suffering humanity, to give my experience with Tanlac to the general public."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling-Haselwood & Co., in Garrison by the Dale Drug Co., and in Woden by M. J. King.

HIGH COST OF RAILROADING

THE CUSHING MEETING.

Nacogdoches was well represented in Cushing Saturday when a large crowd of Nacogdoches business men motored to this city in the interest of the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce. Cushing is the second largest town in Nacogdoches county.
A large crowd was present to greet the representatives of the Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting was an open air one, held on the public square of Cushing and probably 500 people, men and women, were in attendance.

George McNess of the Nacogdoches county experiment farm explained the purpose of the visit and recited some of the problems confronting Nacogdoches county just now, stating that the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce recognized these things and had resolved to relieve the situation. Mr. McNess called attention to the fact that more interest had to be taken in the rural districts of Nacogdoches county if the county was expected to prosper. "The old system of farming has passed away and a new one takes its place," said Mr.
McNess. "The Nacogdoches experiment farm is doing everything in its power to help the farmers in the county, but more will have to be done.
The Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce proposes to do that."

Attorney W. B. Bates of Nacogdoches introduced H. L. McKnight, secretary of the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Bates told the Cushing people that Mr. Mc-Knight was going over the county visiting every town and creating auxiliary divisions of the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce, and that the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce desired very much the support and indorsement of the Cushing people.

Mr. McKnight made an interesting talk and told the Cushing people that he was originally a farmer boy and a small town boy, and that he understood what the rural and small town people had to undergo; that he had dedicated his life to the betterment of rural conditions in Nacogdoches county. "I have come to see the people of Cushing to interest them in co-operating with the Nacogdoches people," said Mr. McKnight. "I want to see the town of Cushing and its surrounding vicinity with as many conveniences and comforts, with as many good features as Nacogdoches, the county seat. The thing Cushing must do is for its citizens to cooperate with the Nacogdoches citizens. Nacogdoches has already come over half way, and it is a thing of concern to Nacogdoches to see us understanding each other's problems."

A large number of farmers were present and Mr. McKnight in addressing them said: "The business men of Nacogdoches want an increased interest in the stock raising industry.
They have authorized me to inform you that they have $25,000 to loan at a nominal rate of interest to the farmers with which to buy fine bred hogs, cows and horses. This fund has been subscribed by Nacogdoches business men especially for that purpose.
This money is at your disposal if you will put your shoulder to the wheel, co-operate with the business men of Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce and try to make Nacogdoches county the leading county in Texas."

Speaking of the women the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce secretary said: "The Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce proposes to beautify the city of Nacogdoches, but it will be glad to assist in the beautification of Cushing if the Cushing people will accept it."

Mr. McKnight laid special stress on the boys and girls leaving the rural districts and going to the now "too overcrowded cities." He said the farm must be made more attractive, and was going to be made more attractive in Nacogdoches county because the moneyed interests had in Nacogdoches county assured him of their support in getting and helping the people of the county interested in making the county a bigger and better county.

At the conclusion of the secretary's speech a large crowd assured him that Cushing could be depended upon to co-operate in every way with Nacogdoches and inviting the chamber of commerce representatives back to Cushing any time they might wish to come. There was no band, the weather was warm and sunny and everyone enjoyed the open air meeting.

The Nacogdoches delegation immediately left for Nacogdoches at the conclusion of the program.

ARMY SCHOOLS ARE CROWDED.

The following reports to the war department show that out of a total enlisted strength of 172,256 soldiers 92,827 are taking instruction in educational subjects, outside of their practical military training. The number of subjects taught in different camps varies from two to forty, the greater variety being in the Panama Canal department. The number of men taking strictly educational courses is 18,589 and the number taking vocational instruction is 18,574. These daily studies are such as to give the man adequate and requisite training in vocations useful to civil life as well as in the army. The number under instruction includes most of the men in the administrative departments and technical services and also bandmen, horseshoers, company cooks, quartermaster store keeper, etc. At camp Hollibird, Maryland, the educational center of the motor transport corps in this section, more than 1,000 men are taking instruction in motor corps transportation. Walter Reed Hospital, Baltimore, has 953 men taking some form of instruction, and 221 men are in training at the aviation station at Bowling Field, Anacostia. The greatest number of men under instruction at any single post or camp in the United States is at Fort Bliss, near El Paso, Texas.

Camp Taylor, Kentucky, is second in numerical attendants. The Philippine department has over 10,000 soldiers studying special subjects, out of the total enlisted strength of 113,084.
Over 60 per cent of the army in the Hawaiian department are studying, while only about one-fourth of the United States forces in Germany being 3,825 out of a total of 16,230 are improving their time by study.

Lieutenant Herant of the local recruiting station when interviewed said that enlistment papers received to January 31 show 172,860 enlistments, including 2,224 for the week ending January 31. Of the quota of enlistments assigned to the general recruiting service for the present recruiting drive, three. Sixty-four per cent were obtained during the first twelve days.

FIRE MONDAY NIGHT.

The residence of Roscoe Hauser, occupied by Mr. W. O. Gamble, located on Houston street, burned Monday night at 10:40 with a loss of $4, 500 of which $3,500 was covered by insurance on the house and about $2, 000, with $1,000.00 insurance on furniture. A near tragedy was barely averted by reason of the inmates of the home being asleep when the house was in flames. A negro, it seems, discovered the fire, turned in the alarm, frantically endeavored to arouse the sleeping occupants of the burning building, getting them aroused and out of the building just a few minutes before it collapsed. No household effects were saved except a phonograph and sideboard. It is not known just how long the house had been burning prior to the discovery, but it is presumed that it had been a considerable time. The spot on which the house was located has been the scene of two other fires.

The fire department fought desperately, but on account of the great headway the fire had already obtained; their efforts were in vain.

LETTER FROM MR. W. H. WOOD.

Georgewest, Texas, Feb. 19, 1920

Dear Sentinel:

I left Nacogdoches December 12, going direct to Houston as a messenger to the Texas Baptist State Convention, was there for three days.
Came to Wharton to visit with relatives, thence to Beeville to visit with old Nacogdoches friends. Thence to this place to visit with my son, Holt.
Find them all well and prosperous.
Have seen light frost three mornings and thin ice only once since December 18. The grass and weeds fine, green and flourishing like June 1st there.
Cattle are real fat now. Ear corn is plentiful here at $1.00 per bushel.
When it rains here the black mud is something fierce. I have had venison to eat often here. However, I have killed none. Have caught some nice fish out of the Nueces river.
Have spent five days in Corpus Christi. All in all have spent the winter very pleasantly. On the 28th inst, will start to San Antonio, thence to Wharton and a day or two in Houston, and home about March 1st
W. H. WOOD.

CHANGED ITS NAME.

The Sentinel is in receipt of a card conveying the following information:
"The officers and directors of the San Augustine Chamber of Commerce take pleasure in announcing the change of the name of the San Augustine Business League to San Augustine Chamber of Commerce and the appointment of S. W. Adams to the position of general manager."

in stomach and intestines.
"Pape's Diapepsin" helps regulate dis-ordered stomachs so favorite foods can

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found no good at all for my trouble. I heard

ALLAN SEALE FOR COUNTY JUDGE.

Much discussion has been had both in the towns and country of late, touching the question of a new administration of the affairs of the county. Some folks say that the spirit of extravagance has run riot for several years, and in order to meet the expenditures taxes must go up and up to correspond with expenditures. Some say that the solution of the matter is to elect a business man for county judge who will consider the value of a dollar in spending the people's money. There are still others who say that for the money spent the people are getting lots of good things and are satisfied. Be that as it may, many people from various portions of the county have persuaded Allan Seale to offer for county judge and his announcement will appear in this issue of the Sentinel.

Allan Seale has been a business success; he is regarded by those that know him best as safe, sound, and in telligent in business. The administration of the affairs of the county is a business matter, and a big one.

The law does not require that the county judge be a lawyer; he must have a knowledge of the law. Nacogdoches county has had several county judges who were not lawyers, and they served very satisfactorily.

Mr Seale says that if elected he will administer the county business with the same economical care that he gives to his own business.

SPANISH MINISTRY RESIGNS

Madrid, Feb. 21.—The Spanish ministry resigned today. Inability to obtain sufficient support in parliament of pass appropriations and increase railroad rates was given as the reason for the resignation.

TYRE BURK.

H. T. Burk, commonly known and loved by his intimite friends as Tyre, departed this life at 5 o'clock Monday morning, February 16, after a brief illness, at the age of 62 years, 2 months and 23 days.

With his death Nacogdoches loses one of her best and most respected citizens, and one of the county's pioneer families loses a worthy and honored son.

Among the family records of J. W. and Anna Burk, father and mother of the deceased, we find this statement: "J. W. and Anna Burk moved from Franklin county, Tennessee, to Nacogdoches county, Texas, in 1848; came in wagon and were seven weeks on the way, arriving at this place December 5th." "This place" is the old Burk homestead on the Little Loco creek about four miles east of Douglas. Here H. T. Burk, the deceased, was born November 24, 1857. He was married to Ella J. Baxter on December 15, 1881. To them were born seven children, four of whom are living—Willie Dean of San Antonio, J. B. Burk, Mrs. Douglass Patton and Robert Burk of Nacogdoches.

After his marriage he remained on the old home farm for nine years, moving to Nacogdoches in 1880, locating on Irion Hill at the same place where the family now resides and where he resided for 29 years and until his death.

After moving to town, he engaged for many years in the hardware business under the firm name of Lucas & Burk. After Mr. John L. Lucas moved to Sacl, Mr. Burk continued the business alone until 1911, when he sold to Tucker, Sitton & Company.

Since 1911 Mr. Burk lived the life of a retired business man, but took a renewed interest in farming. In this activity of life, he will be greatly missed.

The deceased was a consistant member of U. S. A. Presbyterian church and the K. P. lodge.

He is survived by a wife, one brother, Brit Burk of Trawick, and three sisters—Mrs. John Watkins of Mahl, and Mrs. Will Sanders and Mrs. John B. Dorsey of this city.

Fulton Martin of Martinsville was in the city Thursday.

FIRST ANNUAL CONVENTION TEXAS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 20.—The problems now needing solution in this state will be studied at the first annual convention of the Texas Chamber of Commerce to be held in San Antonio Thursday and Friday, April 15 and 16, preliminary announcement to that effect having been made from the chamber's general headquarters here.

These problems will be grouped under three heads: Production, distribution and transportation. Various subheads will be in charge of experts. World-famed Americans have been invited to address the convention by President J. S. Cullinan.

Production will be discussed from the standpoint of resources, production proper and conservation. Distribution problems will be considered from the angles of equivalent values, warehousing, domestic and foreign trade, and financing trade. The deliberations over transportation will include air, land and water shipping problems.

The St. Anthony hotel has been secured for the convention headquarters. The membership of the Texas Chamber of Commerce now numbers 642.

Nacogdoches is becoming the rendezvous for oil men who come here every day in large numbers to investigate the oil probabilities of Nacogdoches county. At Garrison the oil excitement has opened up with fever heat. One well is already down 1,000 feet and it is thought that more wells will follow if indications on the test well prove favorable. Operations around Oil Springs continue to develop more confidence in that territory, and it is thought by prominent geologists who have examining the lands of Nacogdoches county that oil in pay-quantities can be found in the vicinity of Melrose and Swift. Every day finds more and more interest taken in the matter.

JENKINS CASE AGAIN.

Mexico, City, Feb. 19.—As a result of the controversy between the courts of Puebla as to jurisdiction, the case of W. O. Jenkins, United States consular agent in that city, is again before the supreme court. Following the arrest of Jenkins last November on various charges, including that of aiding the rebel forces of that district, it was decided by the supreme court that the federal court in Puebla has authority to try the case. Throughout the proceedings Jenkins has been attempting to secure a trial before the federal courts.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—Opposing factions of the railroad reorganization bill lined up for a last stand in the house today, with the final vote on the Esch-Cummins compromise measure scheduled to be cast before adjournment. In addition to a majority of the democratic members lined up against the bill largely because of its financial provisions, there were members on both sides ready to attack the bill because of objections of organized labor.

TEXAS AGRICULTURAL OUTLOOK

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 23.—The agricultural situation, especially in Texas, is serious, according to Clarence Ousley, former assistant secretary of agriculture. He declared here recently that he could see no possibility of increased farm production in 1920 and that "we will be fortunate if we equal the production of 1919."

"The fact that there can be no increased production in 1920 over that of 1919," Mr. Ousley explained, "is due to several main reasons. The first is that the production of the years 1919, 1918 and 1917 was in each year on the basis of greatly increased acreage due to war pressure. In fact, the acreage of those three years increased as much as it did in the preceding seven years. The production of those three years was made possible by the extraordinary effort of the farmers and their families and it is beyond human endurance for them to continue those efforts another year.

"We have a forecast of reduced acreage in all crops in the reduced acreage of winter wheat and winter rye, which respectively are 22 and 23 percent below 1919. Much land, ordinarily used for pasturage, was devoted in the last three years to the raising of wheat and other grains.

"The second factor, operating against an increase in farm production, is the diminished supply of labor. There are not as many men on the farms as when we entered the war in 1917. The only possibility of approximating the acreage of 1919 in two crops is the larger use of improved farm machinery. Of course, there is a limit as to what can be done in that respect.

"The industries are absorbing more and more farm labor because of the reduced hours and the easier industrial pursuits. The masses of manual labor, skilled and unskilled, under stand perfectly that there is a shortage of manpower throughout the world due to the loss of 10,000,000 men during the war and due in the United States particularly to the lack of immigration, which has practically been suspended for five years and will not be renewed for a number of years to come. Even if Europeans should incline to come to the United States, it is a matter beyond question of doubt that the American people will not permit immigration after a fashion of preceding times. Hence, American increase of labor must come by the Biblical method of multiplying and replenishing the earth.

"Moreover, labor is resolved not only to work shorter hours and to receive higher pay but among a large number of laborers there is a fixed purpose to reduce the output. Generally speaking, it is safe to say that the output per man throughout the United States, for these various reasons, is not more than 75 percent of the prewar output.

"I think that all fair men will rejoice with the improved conditions which laboring men are now enjoying because in a democracy the general welfare is best promoted by widespread comfort. Every man who does a day's work either on the farm or in the city is under a moral obligation to do a day's work. That is the only way that we can increase production of either manufactured materials or of raw products. Until we can increase production we cannot lower the scale of prices. Speaking in general terms, the world is not producing in the staple commodities what the world demands. As long as this condition prevails the prices must be high."

Does it Catch You in the Back?

It may be that you are mysteriously attacked by pain in back (lumbago), or limbs, "neuralgic" pains—shooting anywhere. Backache of any kind is often caused by kidney disorder, which means that the kidneys are not working properly. Poisonous matter and uric acid accumulate within the body in great abundance, over-working the sick kidneys. Perhaps you have become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish, irritable, have spots appearing before the eyes, bags under the lids, and lack ambition to do things. The latest and most effective means of overcoming such trouble, is to drink plenty of water between meals, and take a single Anuric (anti-uric) Tablet before each meal for a while, or until recovered.

Simply ask your favorite druggist for Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets (double strength). Send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalid Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

YOAKUM, TEXAS.—"After using different kinds of medicines for kidney and bladder troubles will say that I have given Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets a fair trial and was greatly benefited, and do hereby cheerfully recommend Anuric to all persons suffering from kidney and bladder troubles."—HENRY BOTS.

They couldn't be built now for twice $71,000

When the talk turns from politics to railroads, and the traveler with the cocksure air breaks in with, "There's an awful lot of 'water' in the railroads," here are some hard-pan facts to give him:

American railroads have cost $80,900 a mile—roadbed, structures, stations, yards, terminals, freight and passenger trains—everything from the great city terminals to the last spike.

A good concrete-and-asphalt highway costs $36,000 a mile—just a bare road, not counting the cost of culverts, bridges, etc.

Our railroads couldn't be duplicated today for $150,000 a mile.

They are capitalized for only $71,000 a mile—much less than their actual value. Seventy-one thousand dollars today will buy one locomotive.

English railways are capitalized at $274,000 a mile; the French at $155,000; German $132,000; even in Canada (still in pioneer development) they are capitalized at $67,000 a mile. The average for all foreign countries is $100,000.

Low capitalization and high operating efficiency have enabled American Railroads to pay the highest wages while charging the lowest rates.

The Douglass people, headed by Mr. B. K. King of that town, have asked the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce, through Mr. McKnight, to come to Douglass, assuring the chamber that Douglass will be glad to give any assistance needed for the carrying out of any C. of C. plan. Douglass is located in the richest part of Nacogdoches county, her citizens are progressive people, and there is no question about Douglass becoming a greater Douglass.

A GOOD FARMER DIES.

News was received in the city Thursday that Mr. James Wiggins, who lives three miles west of Appleby, and a prosperous farmer of that section, died at his home Thursday morning. Deceased had been suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia, and had gradually grown worse until the fatal hour. Mr. Wiggins, according to the best information, was somewhere near 69 years of age, and has been living in the vicinity of Appleby a number of years. He was a progressive man in his community, and was always ready to take part in any measure that worked for its welfare. He was buried at Bethel Chapel, a beautiful little cemetery close to his home.

Deceased leaves a wife and three children, who, with his many friends, including The Sentinel, greatly mourn his loss.

NACOGDOCHES BUSINESS MEN MAKE TRIP TO GARRISON.

Under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce a delegation of Nacogdoches business men visited Garrison Thursday afternoon. The object of the visit was to discuss with the business interests of Garrison a plan for improving agricultural conditions in Nacogdoches county, but owing to the absence of some of the leading merchants of the city it was thought best to defer any formal discussion of the matter until a later date. Secretary McKnight was assured of the co-operation of our Garrison friends, and he will return at a date to be fixed by the Garrison business men and will go into details concerning a county-wide plan of development for Nacogdoches county.

In the meantime he is arranging to give a demonstration in farm terracing in the Garrison community. This demonstration will be made on Tuesday, March 2, and will be attended by as many farmers as can be interested in farm terracing. The farm on which this demonstration will be given is to be selected by the business men of Garrison. Full details of this demonstration will be announced later.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit: Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE

Single-year enlistments open at present in two good branches. Recruits for the army must now enlist for three years, except in the field artillery and the engineers corps, in which one-year enlistments are still received. The quota of one-year enlistment men permitted in the army is practically filled, as there are now approximately 90,000 one-year enlistments, which is practically a third of the total strength allowed by law, that is, 280,000.

Three-year enlistments today require no further service in the reserve corps, as was the case before the war, but ceases when the individual has served three years in the regular service. This form of enlistment is believed to be far more beneficial to the men, however, because during that time of the new educational plans of the army can be better carried out and a profession or vocation learned thoroughly while the man is in the service.

I will give any good farmer with team three-fourths of all he will raise on my place. If interested write phone or see W. M. Byrne, four miles east. d&wtf
