HIGH PRICES SWATTED

Ranger, Texas, May 13.—It used to cost between $7 and $10 to go to Franklin from Ranger, a distance of 12 miles, via the automobile line, but this price has been reduced to as low as $2 by the inauguration of passenger train service on the Wichita Falls Ranger & Fort Worth railroad. The road has just been completed and rent car drivers have cut their prices from 100 percent to 400 percent.

MAIL CAR ROBBER KILLED

Chicago, May 14.—A rifle squad of police today cornered and shot and killed the man who robbed an Illinois Central railroad mail car of currency estimated at $100,000.

A policeman wounded in the fight died at a hospital later.

The holdup was said to have been the most daring perpetrated in the Middle West in years.

The robber was identified as Horace Walston, aged 22 years, of St. Joseph, Mo.

NON-UNION MEN ATTACKED

Port Arthur, Texas, May 18.—Twelve non-union negro longshoremen went to a hospital today following an attack on the street car on which they rode to unload Mallory steamers. Police said union negro longshoremen attacked, shattering the car windows with bullets. Twelve arrests were made.

TO GET DOWN TO WORK

Austin, Texas, May 18.—Immediately upon the convening of the special session of the legislature Thursday a concurrent resolution will be introduced in the house proposing an investigation of conditions in the pink boll worm district, announced representative Leonard Tillotson following a conference.

PINK BOLL WORM

Austin, Texas, May 18.—Efforts to have the pink boll worm bill considered by a joint session of the senate and house committees, and alter to have each branch consider the bill sitting as a committee of the whole to expedite action, will be made, said Senator Leon A. Smith, acting chairman of the senate agricultural committee, today.

PLEASES GERMANY, ANYWAY

Berlin, May 18.—Commenting on the Knox peace resolution, the Tageblatt says it believes the United States has found a "convenient solution of the situation growing out of the Versailles peace treaty," but suggests that it will be necessary to enter friendly negotiations before normal commercial relations can be resumed.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS TO MEET AT BRUSSELS

Rome, May 19.—The council of the League of Nations has requested President Wilson to convoke the league next November at Brussels. It was pointed out that Geneva would not be ready to receive the assembly.

WHERE THE ROW STARTED

Washington, May 18.—Senator Penrose, republican, not Rear Admiral Sims originated the basic charges against the navy department made by Sims, Secretary Daniels asserted today before the senate naval investigating committee. The senator, in a speech in 1918, said procrastination on the part of the secretary delayed the termination of the war at least three months and cost $15,000,000,000 and many lives. Secretary Daniels said almost these identical words were used by Admiral Sims a year later.

COUNTER CHARGES

Washington, May 18.—Two reports, one republican, condemning the government's wartime nitrate program and charging reckless waste and extravagance, the other democratic, demanding the program and charging partisan bias by the majority, were presented to the house by a special investigating committee which began its investigations a year ago.

CONCESSIONS OBTAINED

Washington, May 18.—Concessions were obtained by Secretary of Labor Wilson from both miners and operators during a conference today which, officials said, would make possible a settlement of the controversy over the increased wage demands of anthracite coal miners, probably tomorrow.

PACKERS INDICTED

New York, May 18.—A federal grand jury in Brooklyn has returned indictments against Morris & Co. and the Cudahy Packing Co., of Chicago on a charge of profiteering on foodstuffs.

DENOUNCING PROFITEERING

Washington, May 18.—Profiteering was denounced today in the senate by Senator Walsh, democrat, who asserted that extortion by profiteers was the principal cause of the widespread unrest, and that congress "has been culpably inactive" in moving to relieve the situation.

HUGE REPARATION BILL

Paris, May 18.—It is understood in official circles that at the Anglo-French conference at Bythe yesterday it was decided that Germany should pay a reparation of 120,000,000,000 marks, gold ($30,000,000,000). It is also understood Germany will be permitted to issue bonds covering her indebtedness to the Allies, paying in annual installments. It is stated a special Allied conference will be held at Ostend independent of the League of Nations to consider the financial question.

HUNGARY WILL SIGN

Budapest, May 18.—It was indicated today that Hungary will sign the peace treaty presented by the Allies. Count Apponyi, a strong treaty opponent has resigned from the peace delegation.

HOLDUP AT BURBURNETT

Wichita Falls, Texas, May 19.—Masked men last night secured $1,000 by the holdup of a resort at Burburnett.

FOR GREAT HOSPITAL

Washington, May 14.—Authority to build a $1,500,000 hospital in New Orleans was unanimously voted to the Home Mission Board by the Southern Baptist convention today.

So long as eggs, bacon, butter, callio and shoe leather maintain the present price levels, then we think the woman teacher who gets less than $1,500 a year is being hunched by old vox populi.

WOULD MODIFY LAW

Austin, Texas, May 18.—County officials have appealed to the governor to submit at the special session the road law for amendments providing for the issue of bonds at not less than 6 percent. Proponents of the measure say that millions of dollars of road bonds voted can not be sold because the present law provides 5 1/2 percent and requires that bonds bring par with accrued interest. The exemption of municipal bonds from the state tax was urged.

THE MEN ARE JUST AS BAD

Some specimens of gall amaze one by their greatness, as for instance, Joe Bailey notifying the Texas congressmen that he would endeavor to secure the defeat of those who failed to answer his campaign manager's letter in regard to the Fort Worth "principles". Other specimens amuse us, and still others spoil our appetite. Among the latter is the chronic kicker who is forever fuming about female fashions. We poke a little fun at them ourself, as we do about most every thing else, but it is only in fun. Others actually take themselves seriously about it. When the hoopskirt was here they were in agony; then came the pullbacks and they threw a fit and fell into it. Now it is the short skirt and decollete waist, and if it is not one thing it is another. Ever since Eve attired herself in a few freckles and a fig leaf this critic has been reforming the fashions. Like a peacock crying in the night, he is disagreeable but not worth while—real men will never forsake you because of your clothes, even though it gets back to the cool, comfortable costume of the Garden of Eden.

And speaking of these smart Alceks with the indestructible gall, why don't they take a look at themselves? Any male biped that struts around with a form-fitting suit and felt, fuzzy hat, ring-streaked-and-tripled shirt, fire-alarm socks and toothpick shoes should have nothing to say about feminine fashions.

And in the big cities, on all dress occasions they wear plug hats, Oh, Lor! Oh, Lor! Of all the inartistic and awkward monstrosities ever designed by the imp of darkness to make the Almighty ashamed of his masterpiece, that is it. A great idea was never born under one yet. Fancy a statue of a hero or the picture of a martyr with a plug hat on.

If Apollo, the god of manly perfection, had rigged up in the garb of a 1920 New York swell, and came loafing into the court of High Olympus, Jove would have hit him with a thunderbolt so hard there would have been nothing left of him but a wilted chrysanthemum and a pair of beer-colored shoes.

DEFINITE IRISH POLICY

London, May 14.—The decision by the government to make an early appeal to the country by a general election in an effort to fix upon a definite Irish policy has been reached, according to rumors in London last night. In well-informed circles these are ridiculed, however, and as yet there has been nothing to confirm them. Some of the morning newspapers infer from statements by Lord Birkenhead, lord high chancellor, that the government has decided to send more troops to Ireland, as the chancellor intimated that police officers in future would be accompanied everywhere by armed soldiers.

INTERNATIONAL AIR TRAFFIC

San Francisco, May 13.—Aerial passenger traffic from London to San Francisco in 100 hours, with connections to Hawaii, was predicted within a decade by John M. Rogers, aeronautical engineer of New Brunswick, N. J., who attended the airplane show held recently there.

"Dirigibles flying fifty or sixty miles an hour, an easy matter, can make the Atlantic in between fifty and sixty hours," said Rogers. "Service between San Francisco could be made in less time."

"Equipped with numerous motors, any disaster due to engine trouble is a remote possibility, and should every engine stop, the big balloon would float until aid could be summoned by wireless."

DEADLOCK ON ARMY BILL

Washington, May 18.—A deadlock on the army organization bill was reached today by the senate and house conference. The senate provisions to reorganize the force caused a breach, and the question is to be brought to the house for a vote. The disagreement came, said Chairman Wordsworth of the senate managers, despite the offers of the senate side to eliminate the senate provisions for voluntary military training for youths between 18 and 20 years of age.

UNJOINING SIMS' CHARGES

Washington, May 14.—Rear Admiral Sims' "fallacious and baseless" charges that navy department delays prolonged the war four months unnecessarily was "practically the only charge of unfavorable results from the many alleged sins of omission and commission," Secretary Daniels told the senate investigating committee. It was fully refuted, he added, by the admiral's own testimony. "The charge of prolongation of the war was a definite and serious one. It was made with a reckless disregard of facts and reasoning, and the statistics produced in its support are those which one might expect to find in the fantastic tales of a Baron Munchausen. Admiral Sims based his estimate of unnecessary loss of 500,000 lives on the average loss for the Allies of 3,000 men a day," Secretary Daniels said.

"SASSY" PRISONER JAILED

Dallas, Texas, May 13.—Judge Felix Robertson of corporation court, fined Joe De Grazier $20 for speeding. "I'd give you about sixty days in jail if it were in my power," De Grazier stormed at the judge when he pronounced the sentence.

"And I'll give you twenty-four hours in jail to show you it is in my power," retorted Judge Robertson. "Perhaps it will give you time to think before you speak, and learn that the court must be carried on in a dignified manner."

MINISTER PRODS SENATE

Dallas, Texas, May 13.—Loud hand clapping responded to the statement by Dr. George W. Truett, pastor of the First Baptist church of Dallas, made in the middle of a sermon, that "the senate of the United States has disgraced America in the eyes of the world by rejecting the peace treaty and the league of nations."

"America can not stand by and let the other nations fight out their differences," Dr. Truett declared. "Rome adopted a policy of selfishness and undertook to live without other nations. She went on the rocks: Ability means responsibility, and if America is able to help the world she will be held responsible for not doing so. The Robinson Crusoe policy was not intended for America."

Dr. A. J. Queen, geologist, was in the city Sunday, having come from Melrose, where he is drilling an oil well. The doctor says he has already encountered a good showing of oil at a very shallow depth, and that he is confident of bringing in a well at an early date.

The Alto Herald has changed hands, Mr. E. E. Allen, who was its manager for ten years, retiring, and Messrs. F. L. Weimar and O. B. Powers, both practical printers and newspaper men, assuming charge. Mr. Allen will devote all his time to real estate and insurance. The Herald is one of the best papers that comes to our exchange table, and the Sentinel wishes it continued success.

FEMALE POLICE OFFICER

El Paso, Texas, May 13.—El Paso has a police officer that takes care of prisoners up to the number of seventeen single handed and without handcuffs. This "policeman" is Mrs. Emma Webster, probation officer, who handles the juvenile prisoners without any trouble.

Mrs. Webster attracted a great deal of attention recently when she marched seventeen boys, ranging in ages from ten to sixteen, from the city prison to the railroad station to board a train for Gatesville to serve terms in the state reform school. The boys usually make friends with the probation officer and seem to have no desire to attempt an escape.

More Miles --- Less Gas BY USING A Pledger Gas Saving Accelerator

On May 7th, we "were shown" that so called "gas saving" attachments for Ford cars were not fakes. On a Ford five passenger touring car belonging to a private citizen of this city, this car carrying the regular Ford equipment, after draining tank and carburetor covered a distance of 3.4 miles on one quart of gasoline, equal to 13.6 miles per gallon. This same car after installing a PLEDGER device covered a distance of 6.1 miles on a quart of gasoline equal to 24.4 miles per gallon--

A GAIN OF 11.2 MILES ON A GALLON OF GASOLINE OR AN INCREASE OF 82 PER CENT IN MILEAGE

IF YOU ARE A FORD USER EITHER FOR PLEASURE OR COMMERCIAL PURPOSES and wish to reduce the cost of your gasoline from

30c a Gallon to 20c a Gallon

We cordially invite you to call at our garage at 10 o'clock A. M. TUESDAY, MAY 25th, and see for yourself that this device will do what the manufactures guarantee it to do.

INCREASE YOUR MILEAGE 50 PER CENT on the same amount of gas.

This demonstration will be under the supervision of J. H. Lewis & Son of Houston, Texas, State Distributors of this accelerator, and three disinterested citizens of Nacogdoches will be asked to act as judges of this public test.

We are going to guarantee this "money saving" Ford attachment to do everything that we claim for it, and desire that you see with your own eyes just why we feel so strong about it.

WET OR DRY PLATFORM?

The Association Opposed to National Prohibitions, whose attorney has been so overwhelmingly defeated in Texas, has as its larger plan, if possible, to get a wet plank into the platform of one or both of the greater parties. It is true they have at present a limited objective. They are asking for the endorsement of light wine and beer, but securing that, we all know that they would demand greater things. The ultimate objective is to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment.

Each party will go to the bat to win. It is essential to each that they win. This sometimes may be a short-sighted policy, but it is a necessary policy. The question arises as to whether it would be wise for either party to yield to the demand of the Association Opposed to National Prohibitions and to incorporate a wet plank. We do not believe that the Republican party will yield. In the North the Republican party in the past has been a great deal drier than the Democratic party. The fact that the Democratic party in many Northern states has flirted with the rum demon in favor has discredited in the eyes of the best element of the voters and has handicapped the party in National elections.

The important question before Texas is as to whether the Democratic party can afford any more such flirtations. The booze politicians are putting up a nice talk. They tell us that the democrats in the bone dry South are solidly behind the party whether wet or dry. That New York is overwhelmingly wet and will back whichever party promises the most for booze. They make promises regarding other states, many of which they cannot deliver.

Let us examine the record of the last campaign in order to obtain light on the question:

In 1916 Mr. Wilson carried every dry state in the union except Iowa, Maine, Michigan, South Dakota and West Virginia. He carried the dry state of Idaho by slightly over 14,000. Idaho is overwhelmingly dry and a change of 7,000 along with the vote of the prohibition party in the State would carry Idaho republican.

Mr. Wilson carried Kentucky by only 18,000. There are more than 3,000 who vote the prohibition ticket there. That party will not likely have a candidate in the field. A change of less than 8,000 would swing Kentucky to the republicans. Mr. Wilson carried New Hampshire by 56 votes. The prohibition vote of that state alone would make it republican. Mr. Wilson carried North Dakota by 1,800. A change of 1,000 would swing it to the republican column. Mr. Wilson carried Washington by 16,000. The prohibition vote was nearly 7,000. A change of 5,000 would swing Washington to the republican column. Mr. Wilson carried Wyoming by less than 7,000. A change of 4,000 would swing it to the republican column. Kansas is normally overwhelmingly republican. Kansas will blackball any party with a wet platform.

Mr. Wilson carried California by less than 4,000, but there were more than 27,000 in California to vote the prohibition party ticket, California, while not officially dry, has a dry vote that dominates the state. A dry candidate with progressive principles will carry California.

Mr. Wilson lost Maine by 5,000. Maine is the oldest dry state in the union. A change of 3,500 would put it in the democratic column. Mr. Wilson lost Oregon by 5,000 and there were nearly 5,000 who voted the prohibition party ticket. Oregon will go with the driest party. Mr. Wilson lost South Dakota by 5,000. South Dakota was born dry. A change of 2,000 along with the prohibitions vote would put South Dakota in the democratic column. Mr. Wilson lost West Virginia by a little over 2,000. West Virginia is bone dry.

The states that the democratic party will certainly lose by adopting a wet plank have an electoral vote of 59. It did not carry New York in 1916 and yet won, and it can better afford still to lose New York with 45 electoral votes than to lose the dry states with 59. On the other hand should the republicans lean to the wets and the democrats adopt a bone-dry platform, they would certainly win 24 electoral votes that went to the republicans in the last election and would retain all the doubtful dry states with 59 votes. Now add a majority of 23 electoral votes in the last election. This would give the democratic party a majority of 106 electoral votes out of a total of 531. With these assured it would be independent of any of the wet votes in any state. But where are the wet votes to lose? The democratic party lost wet New York in the last election and wet New Jersey and wet Rhode Island and wet Pennsylvania and wet Massachusetts; and, in fact, the election in 1916 points clearly to the fact that the democratic party's hope for the future lies in a bone-dry platform.

IN APPRECIATION OF HON. GEORGE F. INGRAHAM

On the afternoon of April 27 the immortal spirit of our beloved brother and fellow citizen, Judge George F. Ingraham, left the earthly house of the bodily tabernacle and ascended to the right hand of God, the Father on high. This departure deprives our county and city of one of those grand characters whose christian service and patriotic devotion so largely shaped the ideals and made possible the great institutions that have established Texas into a democratic empire and made its people a unified commonwealth of culture, spiritual power, educational progress and commercial strength. There may be a sense in which some such men belong to an immediate family, fraternity or religious order, but such men as Judge George Ingraham, like the Divine Master, belong to all—the city at all times honoring him as a resident, the county as a leading professional man, the fraternity as a loyal and helpful brother, but best of all, the masses such a christian as really translated the written doctrines of the word of God into terms of loving service to men. We can say of him, as Paul said of the ancient saints: "We thank God upon every remembrance of you."

Judge George F. Ingraham was born in New York City, January 15, 1842. After the death of his father, he came to Texas with his mother while a mere boy in 1854. Before he became of age he volunteered as a soldier in the army of the Confederate States of America, joining Col. William Clark's Company G, of the 8th Texas infantry, in January, 1862. After the Civil War he took up the study of law, receiving his license in 1870, serving the public in his profession with unswerving fidelity and to the honor of his county. He was elected, initiated, passed and raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason by Milam Lodge, No. 2, June 14, 1873, since which time he has been a faithful member until his death on April 27, 1920. He was honored and loved by all his Masonic brethren, being elected as Master of Milam Lodge June 15, 1878, and High Priest of Nacogdoches Chapter in 1895. This brother and Master has laid aside the implements of earthly industry to enter that "Sanctuary not made with hands eternal and in the heavens."

We congratulate every member of the family of Judge Ingraham upon their rich heritage coming to them from his life—unsullied honor, strict integrity, unalloyed devotion, a good example and pure and immortal love. May these traits of his character linger in your hearts as priceless val-

We congratulate the officers and members of Milam Lodge, No. 2, upon the record of this true Mason and good Master. Brother Ingraham lived on the square, served in the faith of immortality, and, in the experience of God's abounding grace for him, had a heart that went out in love and good will for men.

We congratulate the city and county of Nacogdoches for the historic and permanent benefits descending from such a character. The pioneers and pathfinders are rapidly passing away, but behind them are fertile fields, great institutions and prosperous cities which bear enduring testimony to their worth. Such men were surely under the divine superintendence, and from holy conference with God, builded more permanently than could those ancients who placed their thoughts on longing and ideals of immortality in the temples of stone that are now crumbling from the winds and waste of time, because their labor was invested in character-building, which ages cannot destroy.

In expression of our loving appreciation of our loving appreciation of Brother Ingraham a copy of this paper shall be spread upon the minutes of Milam Lodge, No. 2, a copy to the Sentinel, a copy to the Redland Herald, and a copy to the family.

It Took 20 Years To Build This Tire

Only a year old in general service, the Oldfield Tire is by no means "just another new tire."

It's not a new tire at all For it's a development—the result of 20 years of study and test by the greatest tire user in the world.

Ordinary tires would never have carried Barney Oldfield safely through year after year of breaking records, and transcontinental touring. He had to study, experiment, design and actually build tires to secure a type he could really trust.

So today we have Oldfield Tires—faithful copies of these specially-built tires to which the Master Driver pinned his faith.

Ride on Oldfields. You will learn to trust them as Barney Oldfield does.

WHY WE SHOULD BUY AT HOME.

We have been reading for years about the "Buy It Made in America" and "Buy It Made in Texas" campaigns, and we believe they are good.

The reason we should buy in America, is to foster home enterprises and to help our country take care of itself in competition against the outside world. If we had had no such sentiment as moves in the past,
America today would be dependent on
Europe for her manufactured goods.

The same reason applies to the
"Buy Things Made in Texas."

And its the same principle that causes us to advocate the "Buy At Home" movement. Unless we do these things, we shall never have a home community able to compete with the outside world, and become developed in a way to take care of our demands and meet our desires.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, . . . and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? . . . I did, and soon saw it was helping me. . . . After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.

RAILROAD IN DANGER EARLY ABANDONMENT.

San Angelo, Texas, May 13.—West Texas towns, from the Red river to the Rio Grande, have launched a concerted movement to save the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad, the operation of which will cease the first of September, under the Esch-Cummins bill, unless conclusive proof is shown the Interstate Commerce Commission will be constructed by Elbert Summers near the light plant is rapidly nearing completion. Already the shed has been finished, and the doloways have been built to about 200 feet in length. So far, it is understood, no machinery has been located, but this part of the program will be taken care of in a few days. Another interesting thing connected with the lumber business of the county is the fact that the Chronester Lumber Company of Forest, Texas, is planning to extend its railroad over the Loco near Nacogdoches for the purpose of getting some timber near the city. This should interest the business men of the city, who can readily see that the opportunity is afforded Nacogdoches to get connected by rail with the Cotton Belt railroad at Forest. June C. Harris, attorney for the company, is very enthusiastic over the prospect of getting Nacogdoches connected by rail with Cherokee county in two places.

That kissless courtship now being advocated might be all right for old folks—just how old, this old codger isn't old enough to say.

HONORS MEMORY OF JUDGE GEORGE INGRAHAM

The memorial services by the Nacogdoches Bar Association in the circuit court room Sunday afternoon were largely attended by our people and visitors from other points, and proved a fitting tribute to the man whose memory all cherish.

The room was draped with the American flag and beautiful flowers, and throughout the exercises the audience evinced a feeling of profound reverence and deep affection for our departed friend.

Judge S. W. Blount, chairman, called the meeting to order in a brief but beautiful address and paid a touching tribute to his dead friend.

Rev. J. L. Massey of the First Methodist church offered the opening prayer, invoking the divine blessing and comfort for the family and friends of the dead.

This was followed by a quartette rendered by Captain and Mrs. I. L. Sturdevant, Mrs. C. D. Stegall and Mr. T. E. Baker.

Hon. June C. Harris as chairman of the resolutions committee, submitted the following, which were unanimously adopted.

We, your Committee appointed to prepare a tribute to the Nacogdoches Bar to the life and career of George F. Ingraham, beg to report the following:

Men pass away but their works endure. Monuments are raised and marble or granite rock record the deeds of heroes dead. Warriors are perpetuated in bronze or stone and the pages of history bear to those who follow them the story of their life's achievements. But he, whose career we now eulogize, built his own monument and wrote the page of his own story in a glorious life, richly endowed with admirable and enviable qualities.

We say as a truth that the page of his life was written without blot or stain, his record as citizen, patriot, soldier and public official is unchallenged, the breath of suspicion could not reach it, the rancor of aspersion could not touch it.

Holding pronounced political views and many times before the people as candidate for political place, malignity and vindictiveness found no place in his nature.

His loyalty to truth, and his fidelity to duty have carved for him in the hearts of men an enduring tablet. Modest and unassuming his acts of mercy and philanthropy, though many, were unproclaimed.

A formidable antagonist he was, yet just and generous to his opponent. Courageous and aggressive, yet respectful and considerate, outspoken in defense of his convictions, he was courteous to those who differed from him.

As a man he pursued the even tenor of his way and accepted with courage and fidelity every responsibility of citizenship, never shirking a duty nor dodging an issue, thus the pathway of his life was illumined by a radiance born of high purpose and noble aspirations.

George F. Ingraham was born in New York City, January 15, 1842. He came to Texas and located in Nacogdoches county in 1854. As a boy he was a diligent student and attended only the country schools of his day. Before he was twenty-one years of age he volunteered as a soldier in the Confederacy and joined Company G, 8th Texas Infantry, under command of Col. William Clark, then a member of the Nacogdoches Bar. He remained in the army until the close of the war, where he was loved by his comrades and admired by both officers and the men in the ranks for his courage and valor. Returning from the war in 1865 he began the study of law and was admitted to the practice at Nacogdoches in 1870, where he continuously lived and labored till stricken by disease some months before his death.

In the day of his prime George F. Ingraham was classed among the best lawyers in Texas, noted for his devotion to the interests of his clients and his splendid ability as lawyer and advocate.

He served the county and Second Judicial District as Judge, acquitting himself with honor and credit. As a presiding judge he regarded scrupulously the rules of law, yet tempered justice with mercy when official duty required him to act, and neither the partiality of friendship, the power of influence nor the interests of individuals or groups ever warped his judgment or tainted his decisions. As a practitioner before the Bar he was bold and forceful, yet fair and just, both to the court and his adversary. No carping criticism, ungenerous reflection or words of censure escaped his lips.

His sympathy was as broad as the field of human struggle and the young lawyer found in him a ready friend and safe advisor. His example has been a beneficent influence in the

For Colds, Catarrh or Influenza

Do you feel weak and unequal to the work ahead of you? Do you still cough a little, or does your nose bother you? Are you pale? Is your blood thin and watery? Better put your body into shape. Build strong!

An old, reliable blood-maker and herbal tonic made from wild roots and barks, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This "nature remedy" comes in tablet or liquid form. It will build up your body and protect you from disease germs which lurk everywhere. One of the active ingredients of this temperance alternative and tonic is wild cherry bark with sillingia, which is so good for the lungs and for coughs; also Oregon grape root, blood root, stone root, Queen's root,—all skillfully combined in the Medical Discovery. These roots have a direct action on the stomach, improving digestion and assimilation. These herbal extracts in the "Discovery" aid in blood-making and are best for scrofula. By improving the blood they fortify the body against an attack of grip or colds.

Catarrh should be treated, first as a blood disease, with this alternative. Then, in addition, the nose should be washed daily with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Send for trial pkg. of Medical Discovery Tablets or Catarrh Tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

community in which he lived.

When the insidious touch of disease warned him of the approach of the hour of his dissolution, he suffered patiently and courageously through the long weary months till the summons: "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joys of the Lord," called him to "That bourne from which no traveller returns." And so we say:

"Farewell: nor mist, nor flying cloud, nor night can ever dim,
The wreath of honor, pure and proud,
Our hearts have twined for him."

June C. Harris, Chairman.
V. E. Middlebrook
C. A. Hodges.

Judge James I. Perkins of Rusk, the principal speaker, who for more than forty years had enjoyed the friendship and confidence of Judge Ingraham, followed with a masterful tribute to the life and career of the deceased.

Another song by the above named quartette followed Judge Perkins' address.

Judge V. E. Middlebrook, Judge S. M. Adams, and Hon. C. A. Hodges then spoke in the order named.

The meeting closed with a benediction by Rev. C. D. Atwell, rector of the Episcopal church.

HAD RIGHT TO FUNDS

Eagle Pass, Texas, May 15.—Judge Bonnett of the Maverick County Court dismissed the criminal proceedings against Manuel Ochoa, charging embezzlement, brought by revolutionary agents. Judge Bonnett said Ochoa, as the representative of Carranza, had a right to bring customs funds across the border into Texas. He based his decision on the fact that Carranza's was the recognized government of Mexico.

It is a powerful and scientific combination of sulphur and other healing agents for the relief and cure of diseases of the skin. It is especially effective in the ITCHING VARIETIES; giving instant relief from the itching and smarting sensations and by its germ-destroying properties it exterminates the microbe which is the cause of the eruption, thus curing the disease completely.

Littell's Liquid Sulphur Compound is used in all cases of Eczema, Tetter, Barber's Itch, Psoriasis, Herpes, Rash, Oak and Ivy Poisoning, also for relieving the annoyance caused by chiggers and mosquito bites.

In the treatment of ECZEMA—the most painful and obstinate of all skin diseases—it is one of the most successful remedies known.

Treatment of Common Colds.

"If all who catch cold could be persuaded to remain in bed for the first twenty-four hours of such an attack" says a well known physician "there would be fewer cases dragging on with distressing symptoms for weeks and often ending in some more serious disease." To make sure of a prompt recovery you should take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Whether sick or well, the bowels should move every day. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

SPEAKING AT NAT

There will be a public discussion of the gubernatorial candidates at Nat next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, A. J. Spradley espousing the cause of J. W. Bailey, and Angus Russel opposing. The local candidates and the public generally are invited.

Periodic Bilious Attacks.

Persons subject to bilious attacks at regular intervals know when to expect an attack. They find that they have no desire for food when an attack is due but usually eat because it is meal time. Skip one meal and take three of Chamberlain's Tablets and you may be able to avoid the attack. Persons subject to periodic bilious attacks should not drink tea of coffee at any time. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

It is reported that the oil well at Garrison has proven to be a "dry hole" and the owners of same are dynamiting it in an effort to get the casing they put in the well removed from the hole. The well was drilled to an approximate depth of 2400 feet. It is understood that the drillers of the Garrison well are planning to do some drilling in the eastern part of the county.

About Indigestion

It is claimed that only half as much food is required when it is thoroughly masticated. Digestion begins in the mouth and a thorough mastication is of the greatest importance. When needed take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the digestion and insure a regular movement of the bowels. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

The Facts About Rheumatism

THE OLD BLUE PITCHER.

Written by Mrs. Mary E. Lockhart Sterling and dedicated to Mrs. Bettie Pierce, mother of Dr. C. C. Pierce, Nacogdoches, Texas.

Here is my dear old blue pitcher
That I have kept in my service so long;

It has become a household treasure,
And now I am writing it up in song.
Yes, dear old pitcher, I will memorialize you,

While yet in your strength and beauty you last;
I will link you with my sweet and sad memories

And joys and sorrows of the past
When first I clasped you in my hands
I was then a young and lovely bride,

Just setting up my housekeeping,
With my loving husband by my side

Since then the time has been so long,
Since then the time has passed over fifty years

Some days my heart has been full of joys,
And other days my eyes have been full of tears

Since then my devoted husband has passed away
And then, too, my darling angel boy,

Who was just entering into his beautiful manhood,
But his happy exit now fills my soul with joy

Six loving sons were given to me—
Six sons so manly and dutiful,
Who always loved and revered their mother,
And thought her the best and most beautiful.

Through all these years of joys and sorrows,
Dear old pitcher, you've been my attendant friend;

Now I will love and cherish you
Till my time and life shall end.

My children and my children's children
Have sipped the milk that flowed from your pure mouth;
I always kept you clean and neat,
And never were you foul or uncouth

Hundreds and thousands of gallons
Of this life-giving fluid, pure and white,
Have flowed from your blue fountain,
Which I poured morning, noon and night.

When disposing of my household goods
Son Charlie said: "No, mother; that can never go.

I will keep that dear old blue pitcher
And take it where ever we may go.

"Dear mother, the first thing I remember,
When just on tip-toe I would stand
Watching you fill the glasses
From that blue china with your dear loving hand."

O' dear old pitcher, if you could see
How my life has faded and worn away:

My steps are tottering, my eyes are dim,
And my dark hair has changed to silver-gray

While the hand of time has passed gently
Over you with never a trace

Or an imprint of a smile or a tear
To mar the beauty of your smooth face.

Filled with love and by-gone memories,
Dear old pitcher, I will set you away

To be kept as a dear souvenir
Of my long ago happy wedding day.

And when I shall have passed away,
I want you filled with sweetest flowers

And by loving hands placed beside my casket
To brighten and cheer death's gloomy hours,

And, dear old inanimate friend, at the last
You can only return to the dust,
While my life will have a sweet renewal—
I know, for in Jesus I have put my trust.

Secretary McKnight of the chamber of commerce returned Wednesday from Mount Pleasant, where he went to attend a meeting of the board of directors of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce.

EUROPE TAKES TO 'TYPISTS'

Business Men There Are Gradually Laying Aside Steel Pen and Using Modern Methods.

Without a typewriter an American office would not be an office, but a relic of a past age. In Europe, however, the writing with pen and ink, and is just waking up to the typewriter, remarks the Golden Age. In France the courts are working on the problem whether a document such as a deed or a mortgage is legal if written on a typewriter.

The world war taught Europe many things, among others to value the typewriter. Prior to the conflict the proportion of the American writing machine output that was exported was 35 per cent to 40 per cent; now it is 50 per cent. The machines would be going over the water much faster if Europe could get the credits necessary to correct the unfavorable conditions of exchange. When the great loans that are expected have been made, the situation will be improved and a much greater volume of typewriter exports is looked for as a result of the credits.

Europe needs among other things modern office methods. She will be helped in effecting this improvement, because the prices of writing machines have not increased nearly as much as those of other products, partly perhaps because the prices were unduly high before the war. Improvement is the order of the day, and the tendency will become ever more marked as the golden age comes on.

NEED OF SPECIAL TRAINING

Youth Starting in Life Must Remember That This is an Age of Specialists.

We are living today in the age of specialists in almost all lines and unless the young man who goes out to earn his own living is definitely trained in some one line, his chances of advancement are negligible. It is true that he can earn good wages at the outset and can hope for a few advancements, but unless he fits himself by training, experience and study for something bigger he will soon find he is in a blind alley job.

A boy does not always realize this: school life becomes humdrum to the lad bubbling over with fun and energy, and for him to sit on a bench with a book in his hands, studying what seems to be uninteresting facts, impresses him as a real hardship when he longs to be out in the world taking a place among comrades who have proved themselves independent.

This is the place where the guiding hand of the parent is necessary. The boy must be made to understand that the training he is receiving now is sharpening him for future opportunities. He is likely to be reasonable if his parents have retained his confidence, and if they can show him that in dollars and cents he will be the gainer by continuing in school.—Emma Gary Wallace, in Christian Herald.

Coastal Defense of China.

The government of Peking, it is said, has a complete coastal defense plan for China, according to which the whole Chinese coast will be divided into four sections, i. e., the Gulf of Chihli, the coast of Kiang-su and Chekiang, the coast of Fukien and the coast of Kwantung. A coast defense commissioner will be appointed for each section, and he will be held responsible for the maintenance of peace and order in his own section. He will also control all ships entering his section.

The first, the second and the training squadrons will retain their present status, under the direct control of the navy department. The navy ministry contemplates appointing Admiral Li Ting-hsing as commissioner for the Gulf of Chihli, Admiral Lan Chien-shu for the Kiang-su and Chekiang section and Admiral Liu Kuan-hsing for Fukien. As to Kwantung, the commissioner will be appointed after the north and south have been reunited.—East and West News.

One Day Late.

The women's club of the little town where I worked in a grocery store near the depot had arranged for a well-known speaker to give an address in our theater one evening. The evening arrived, the hall was crowded, but no speaker appeared, and everyone was disappointed. The following evening just after the train came in a stranger appeared in the store and asked where Mr. — was to speak that night. I replied that he was to have spoken the night before, but added, "The big boob didn't come." Just then one of the leading women of the town came in and recognized the man as the speaker who had been expected the night before. Needless to say, I soon found work in the back of the store which needed immediate attention.

Terrible Effect of Prohibition.
The wives of two Muncie factory workmen were discussing the effect of prohibition on their husbands.

"When John comes home on Saturday noons nowadays with his pay envelope and turns it over to me," said one, "I always deals him out fifty cents for spendin' money and he spends it for himself."

"And what did he do in the old saloon days?" asked the other.

"In them terrible days," said the first, "when John turned over to me his pay envelope on Saturday noons, I used to give him fifty cents for a little spendin' money for himself, and soon he'd be back with a growler of beer for the two of us, bless his heart."—Indianapolis News.

UTILIZE YOUR SPARE MOMENTS

Why not use your leisure time wisely? What have you gained from your spare time last year? In every city, town and community in our great Union, some ambitious persons are studying by correspondence, are climbing upward, while their associates are standing around the foot of the ladder of success. Already thousands too busy or too poor to attend college are finding education at their door; already they are studying, mastering, succeeding. We are as near to you as your mail box. An hour a day for three months devoted to one of our courses will make you stronger, wiser, better fitted to cope with the world and wrest success from her hands, success which can be won only by those trained in their work.

The demand for trained office assistants, bookkeepers, stenographers, telegraph operators, is now greater than ever before, and salaries are in proportion to their demand. We are teaching, under our Money Back guarantee plan, and have for years successfully taught by correspondence, thorough courses of bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, telegraphy grammar, spelling, arithmetic, business law, penmanship, salesmanship, advertising, etc. In a few months time, without interfering at all with your present employment, we can equip you for a position as a trained office worker. And your income need never cease during the period of training. When you have completed a course of business training with us you will be better able to accept a position at a far better salary than you are now receiving. This is the age of specialization; the trained men gets the big salary.

The advantages of a correspondence course are in part as follows: Less cost, not one-sixth of that required to attend school. No lost time or salary. You "earn while you learn", save your leisure time that would otherwise be wasted. Make just as much salary as if you were not studying at odd times. You study at home—the education comes to you. Three months free use of a standard typewriter is given with full shorthand course. If you decide, when partly finished to enter for personal work you may do so without paying additional tuition.

"WHOM THE GODS WOULD DESTROY"

There were some estimable citizens in attendance upon the mass meeting of Senator Bailey's friends in Dallas on Saturday, but easily the outstanding figure was Mr. Morrison of Mitchell.

He fitted the occasion out of the common place by his lurid oratory. "If there ever was a _____ in Texas Governor Hobby is one," he shouted.

Rather startling language to reverberate in a gathering of the self-constituted elect, the guaranteed pure and undefiled democracy.

"There was some applause," says one report.

Did he say it but once?

"In a few minutes he repeated the term he applied to Governor Hobby, nor did he smile as 'the Virginian' insisted should be done in such usage," the story runs.

As is often the case, repetition rather aroused the meeting to a sense of what was happening. A few men protested against such insults to the governor of Texas.

Chairman Duff felt called upon to express the belief that the offensive term had been "thoughtlessly used," yea, thoughtlessly, and "intended as a joke and not to be taken seriously." Surely not to be taken seriously.

And so accurate was Chairman Duff's keen interpretation of Orator Morrison's perverid eloquence that Orator Morrison confirmed it himself, at least so far as his language reflected upon the venerable mother of the governor of Texas, for to that extent he graciously consented to withdraw it.

Another report says that of the several ladies present, all withdrew but two, and these hung their heads in shame. Perhaps they felt what so many of Senator Bailey's friends have declared, viz., that "politics is too dirty for our good women to take part in." Maybe, it was the purpose of the gentleman from Mitchell to demonstrate to the few women present, and to the many who with wonder perused the account of the mass meeting, that, indeed, politics is too filthy for women to participate in.

But this episode is enlightening, to say the least. The Post recalls that not so many weeks ago, it informed Senator Bailey that he could hardly be proud of some of the elements that had joined his colors, and that time would prove it.

And the ladies who were shocked and stunned at the occurrence in the mass meeting by the outrageous and unpardonable affront to the governor of Texas were not the only ones who felt that something disagreeable had happened. Some were the governor's friends. They must have been exceedingly uncomfortable to hear that vile epithet ringing in their ears, followed by applause.

For, mark you, the man who uttered it was as powerless to insult the governor of Texas as was the veriest slumgullion who could have been dragged from the shadiest quarter of Dallas.

But it was an insult to the great democracy of Texas, to the womanhood of the State, to the convention that heard it—an insult that the people will not forget, either.

There was no possibility for the governor or his venerable mother to take action, nor for the people of Texas to act then, but the mild reproof the convention uttered at the conclusion of the episode probably vindicated its own wounded dignity. Let us hope that it did.—Houston Post.

ASSIMILATING THE ALIEN

One of the outstanding revelations of the war to America is the alien menace. No sooner had the upheaval in Europe begun and our much-boasted "melting pot" began to stir, and we found out for the first time just how little it had boiled, and what a mass of unassimilated matter it contained.

Now we find that we have 17,500,000 aliens in this country, only six million of whom have been interested enough in their adopted home to become citizens, while over ten million owe their allegiance to foreign governments.

If American institutions and American ideals of justice and morality are to be maintained, it is manifest that our assimilating process will have to be speeded up. To use force is out of the question. That method has been tried in Europe and found unsuccessful. It is neither desirable nor effective.

To accomplish this huge task of Americanizing ten million aliens the various forces of uplift and education must join hands with the government in a mighty campaign of education in Americanism among the alien groups.

What has become of the mother who used to lengthen her daughter's skirts?

This is such a contrary world that people are seldom as sleepy at bedtime as they are when they get up in the morning.

Using cream as a substitute for butter in a cupcake is a good deal like the economy of a short skirts that calls for high boots.

"What has marriage taught you?" asks Dorothy Dix of her readers. Say, Dorothy, we have no time to write an Encyclopedia Britannica. We have a family to support.

It is said that American women wear $50,000,000 worth of corsets a year. And the funny part of it is that they used to wear $25,000,000 worth until they had the upper half of the things omitted, and then the price doubled.

When crops are "laid by" the candidates for county office will respond to invitations to visit various communities of this hallelujah and submit their claims to the voters. These invitations from the several precincts indicate a desire upon the part of people to form a closer acquaintance with the aspirants who seek their support.

Wesley Lynch and John McKinney, the two boys arrested Saturday for the robbery of a freight car at the Nacogdoches Grocery Company's warehouse Friday night, had a preliminary hearing before Judge Frank Huston Wednesday morning and were remanded to jail in default of $500 bonds to await the action of the next grand jury.

$1,100 PRIZE OFFERED TO CAVALRY TROOP

The local cavalry troop will compete for a $1,100 prize at Austin for attendance at the summer encampment during August. This troop has taken first honors both at Longview a year ago and at target practice last summer at Camp Mabrey. To make their usual record this summer will be to win a cash prize in addition to the honor.

The list of members required to attend this camp will be published next week. Captain Lee will be held responsible for the appearance of these men at camp.

Horses and full equipment will be carried from the local armory. Additional horses will be furnished at Camp Mabrey so that each man will have his own horse.

The encampment lasts only 15 days. Transportation and expenses will be paid. Regular pay for the period will be received by the men before they return home.

NEGRO IN TROUBLE

"No, sah! I had no idee that I wuz violatin' the law ob the country when I caught dat train, I had been down to Lufkin from Shrepete to see mah sick sister, and was cemin' back to Shrepete without any pass. I got here to Nacogdoches and a man hollered at me and told me I wuz under arrest. Boss, dis is the first time I ever wuz under arrest in my bawn days. Won't you see somebody that wants a good, honest, hard-working nigger and get them to pay mah fine of $15 and let de sheriff git me out ob dis place? Honest, I ain't no bad nigger!"

The above were substantially the remarks made to the reporter by a negro Monday afternoon at the county jail, to which place the reporter had been called by the troubled negro. Further investigation of the negro revealed that he had been taken off a train Monday morning by the sheriff's department, tried in the justice court and fined $5 and cost, all of which amounting to $15.85. The negro says that he is an employee of the H. E. & W. T. railroad and that he spent all his money while visiting his sick sister. He seemed rather bothered when informed that he would probably have to pay his fine by road work at the rate of 50 cents a day. But the negro says that he will work hard for any one who will pay his fine. He is 20 years of age.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Finding that my business interests will require all of my time it becomes necessary for me to withdraw from the race for tax collector of Nacogdoches county. I am truly grateful for the many expressions of encouragement from my friends, and but for the reason stated above would gladly continue the race.

COMMUNITY MEETING

The people of Attoyac (Black Jack) have invited Secretary McKnight of the chamber of commerce and County Agent Deabler to attend a community meeting there Saturday night.

Mr. McKnight will discuss "Community Building" and Mr. Deabler will outline a plan whereby one boy from Nacogdoches county will be given a free trip of 4,000 through the East and North during the month of August.

A good attendance is assured by those who have the meeting in charge.

BRIDGE MEETING DEFERRED

The conference between Nacogdoches and Lufkin citizens, which was to have been held at the Angelina river crossing Thursday, has been postponed at the request of the citizens of Lufkin, pending some possible road legislation for that county which is hoped can be secured during the special session of the legislature which meets Thursday.

The Angelina county folks are committed to the proposition of securing good roads and a permanent bridge over the river, and they are merely asking that the proposed conference be deferred, and not abandoned.

Nacogdoches county is ready to meet Angelina county half way in this much-desired and long deferred enterprise.

Rev. G. W. C. Self of Rusk, highly esteemed and popular former minister of Nacogdoches county, was in the city Wednesday and received a cordial welcome from old-time friends.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

Vice President Marshall made a speech recently before the Lion's Club, a popular organization of high-class citizens of San Antonio who invited him as a guest at their regular weekly luncheon, in which he drew forth applause when he said in a forceful manner that he had stopped off to see the Alamo. His applause was greater when he added that "The invisible Alamo—the Alamo of sacrifice and high adventure, the Alamo of history and inspiration—this belongs to the people of the United States; but the visible Alamo of stone and wood, with a roof or without it, belongs to the City of San Antonio. The whole nation will preserve the traditions and glory, but San Antonio must preserve the material building. Americanism, patriotic pride and veneration are evidences of love of land and liberty."

The trials and tribulations that Texas pioneers underwent, their hardships and problems are not properly appreciated by modern residents.

Think of it: Houston's army had but one wagon and it drawn by a yoke of steers; not a road over the rain-covered lands. Such a thing as a public road, kept in order, was not known until after Texas became a republic. "The run away scrape" in 1836 by settlers from Nacogdoches to the Sabine river to escape Santa Anna's invasion had a rough trip, fleeing along rude routes where roads were trails. Travellers coming west from Natchitoches on Red river usually came afoot. Streams and hills and swamps were passed in any old way passable. At Nacogdoches such a thing as going straight up or down the Iron hill or Orton hill was not thought of till about 1850. The original old road beds around these hills can yet be seen, where they were travelled until impassable and then abandoned; and the town creeks were crossed at fords for lack of bridges. Later on there were bridges on the Lanana at two points, one where the present bridge stands, and another lower down on the bluff below Aqua Vitae park. These two bridges were called the upper and the lower bridge. High waters occasionally destroyed them or they wore out. Then the old fords were used of necessity. Pedestrians used foot-logs.

The old road out of town going down the creek once ran for years down through Aqua Vitae park. Wallace Jones built the first house fronting on it, on the east side of it. The road was afterwards changed to where it now runs on the east side of his same present home. He had to change fronts. The next house beyond this at that time on the Marion road was the old Emsley Burrow home where now is the Frost-Johnson mill. It was first called the Isaac Lee place, and was his homestead on the Isaac Lee labor of land, a Spanish survey of 177 acres. Horney Cleaver now owns the site of the dwelling.

It was all out in the woods when Lee lived there. He had many fat cattle in the range, a milk house at the spring where buttermilk was kept in abundance. Sam Houston was a frequent caller and liked to drink buttermilk. Oh, those dear old memories! But we would not swap back now for then.

Wagons were then made by hand here, not in Ohio, and buggies also. The wagon maker was a great man, the blacksmith was greater, but the buggy-maker was "it." Major John T. Shanks was a leading wagon-maker. His shop was on the corner of Main and North streets, in front of the present court house. David Lee and his brother Jesse, were also wagon-makers, but they added a negro blacksmith, Bill Lee, W. H. Hamill was the leader of his profession. Their blacksmith shop stood on Main street about the middle of the first block east of the present public square, using old-time Mexican houses. This block was then owned by a Natchitoches Frenchman named Michamps, pronounced "Meeshaw." One of the heirs came here about 1873 and sold it to David Strahan, a farmer at Shady Grove, for $500.

The artistic buggy-makers name was Byron. His shop stood where the G. B. Crain home afterwards stood. Judge Ingraham was Byron's apprentice, and he could make any part of a buggy wheel. He was proud of it.

But Byron quit his trade, married a Wisener, and moved out on a farm on the Durst Lake road opposite the old Tubbe place, where he died a failure. And his young apprentice retired from the buggy-maker's profession. But wagon making and blacksmithing lasted until the days of Studebaker, and the anvil chorus is yet loud and musical here.

A noted wagon-maker of that day was Bill Davis, whose home and shop were located on the old Douglass road 13 miles west of town, where that big rock has since shown up. This was

MASONIC WORK.

Thursday night was a great time for the Masonic Lodge of this city and brethren from other near-by lodges. The 32nd degree team of Dixie Lodge, No. 272, of Troup, twenty-one strong, were here to confer the Master's degree upon a candidate. The Dixie Lodge team is said to be one of the best drilled in the country, and their work, which is seen at initiations all over East Texas, always attracts the attention of the fraternity of the sections they visit.

A toothsome luncheon followed the conferring of the degree, and a number of interesting and instructive speeches were made.

The visitors expressed in warm terms their appreciation of the hospitable reception tendered them by Milam Lodge, asserting that it exceeded anything of the kind that had greeted them in many a day. Altogether, Thursday night's meeting was a most enjoyable one to all participating, the pleasure of the hosts equaling that of the guests.

Following are the names of the visiting Troup team:

T. L. Tipton, Will D. Pace, W. B. Blount, Max O. Jarvis, Joe Cross, J. T. Seay, A. C. Tancray, W. C. Driskell, Henry Edwards, John D. Shaw, J. Emerson Edwards, M. D. Mock, Everett Smith, S. V. Sanders Weaver, about 18 year old, was wounded Thursday afternoon by the accidental discharge of a .22 rifle in the hands of Joe Lambert, the mishap occurring at the residence of T. M. He did not know the weapon was loaded. The bullet struck young Weaver in the hip, ranging downward, and was not extracted, the attending surgeon deemed it inadvisable to operate at the time. The wounded boy is doing nicely, it is said.

TWO YOUTHFUL CRIMINALS CAUGHT.

Sheriff Woodlan captured two youthful criminals Saturday afternoon and thereby put an end to the activities of two crime-artists who made fair to prove a real menace.

Friday night a box-car consigned to the Nacogdoches Grocery Company, standing on the warehouse siding near the station, was burglarized, and Saturday the sheriff's office was notified. The thieves evidently had been promoted by hunger to make the raid, as only some food-stuffs, eaten in the car, and a lot of cigarettes were missing.

A description of two boys loitering about the warehouse Friday was furnished the sheriff, and he immediately got busy. He first telephoned the section house at Redfield, 6 miles east of Nacogdoches, and was informed that two boys answering his description had passed a few hours previously. Sheriff Woodlan then called up Deputy Sheriff Isom McGuire at Maytown, who took up the search and found and arrested them at Fitz. Sheriff Woodlan motored to Garrison and doubled back, and was much gratified at the prompt apprehension of the criminals.

The boys, who are about 16 or 17 years old, gave their names as Wesley Lynch of Humble, Texas, and John McKinney of Sheffield, Alabama. On their persons were found 38 packages of cigarettes filched from the burglarized box car.

The importance of the arrests was emphasized when the two prisoners confessed to Sheriff Woodlan that they were not only guilty of the box car robbery, but were all-around tough and dangerous criminals. They asserted that they had made two attempts to wreck passenger trains on the H. E. & W. T. railroad by piling ties upon the track in order that they might gather loot from the derailed trains. The attempts were provisionally frustrated.

The examining trial was set for Tuesday morning.

NATIONAL BOY SCOUT PROGRAM

The recent meeting of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America was one of the greatest in the history of this nation, being attended by the largest financiers, great statesmen and the leading educators and churchmen. So many decided improvements have come to the boyhood of America through this splendid and growing organization, that, with the approval of its honorary president, Woodrow Wilson, it has been decided to institute a great nationwide "Boy Scout Week". The purpose of this movement is to enlist the schools, women's clubs, commercial bodies and even the churches to assist in the matter of securing membership of all the boys between the ages of 12 and 18 in every city and village in the land.

National Boy Scout Week is from May 30 to June 6, next, and Nacogdoches is behind this program in a most splendid way. The fine boost given by Mayor Middlebrook in the way of the great business men's meeting which was held in the city hall and which was so splendidly agreed to finance the movement will tell in the future citizenship of our community. The chamber of commerce, with its efficient secretary, Mr. H. L. McKnight, offers the glad hand. And we are confidently looking for assistance from the mothers and women's clubs of the city, for they never fail.

The pastors of every great city in the nation, as a rule, will either preach a special sermon, on Boy Scout Week or join in a community meeting of all the churches in this behalf. The pastors of our city are requested to do this, June 6th is the day. All the Boy Scouts of Nacogdoches county and all the boys who want to be Boy Scouts are requested to meet on the school campus at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, June 7, for enlistment.

BROKE JAIL

S. S. Hollenberger, confined in the Nacogdoches county jail on a charge of bigamy, gained his liberty for a few hours, making his escape about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon by sawing the bars at the southwest corner of the prison. Though he must have been in plain sight of a good many people, he made his get away without attracting notice. The hole he cut was very small and it is a puzzle to understand how he managed to squeeze through. In order to do it at all he was forced to remove all his clothing except his rousers. He then slipped down a wire on the ground.

Suspecting he had returned to Maytown, where his alleged offense was committed, Sheriff Woodlan left the city at 7:15 Friday evening for that place and came upon his man walking the railroad track about a mile south of that village, taking him into custody without any trouble and returning him to jail.

Hollenberger says the saws he used in cutting the bars were furnished him by another prisoner. He told Deputy Hardeman that on several occasions he had been offered tools with which to make his escape, but had declined them because he hoped to make bond and secure his liberty in a lawful manner. He further stated that he went to Maytown with the hope of securing bondsmen, returning and "squaring" himself with the officers.

SCHOOL HOUSE BURGLARIZED

The Nacogdoches High School building was burglarized Monday night, the thieves effecting an entrance through transoms and into the various rooms by means of skeleton keys. Superintendent Davis' office was raided, the desk rifled and a sum of money abstracted therefrom. Some noise probably frightened the invaders, who made their escape down the fire escape, scattering the stolen money along their trail. There is so far no clue as to the identity of the criminals.

BIG FUSS OVER SMALL FOX

Extensive Litigation in Prospect Because of Water Sport in Dutchess County, New York.

Every sportsman in Dutchess county is interested in a lawsuit over the skin of a fox which already has involved two hunters, two farmers, four lawyers and one justice of the peace, bidding fair to take a trail leading straight into the Supreme court, a dispatch from Dutchess to the New York Evening Sun says.

Reynard was shot and wounded while in woods belonging to De Witt Clinton Mastagan, formerly member of congress. The wounded fox reached the farm of C. C. Hart, where it was discovered by Edward Meade, an employee of Mr. Hart. Meade used a club and dispatched the animal, taking possession of the skin. The two sportsmen demanded possession of the trophy, but this was refused.

One lawyer representing the sportsmen found an ancient law which provided that a wild animal shot by hunters belongs to them whether it is recovered immediately or escapes to other parts.

In a justice's court Meade was arraigned on a charge of having hunted without a license, his weapon having been a club, but he was promptly acquitted.

But the question of the pelt remained unsettled until the justice found a colonial statute which states that whenever a dog (included holding of land) is invaded by a predatory animal said animal may lawfully be set or killed. Under this ruling the fox skin was awarded to Meade.

STILL CLING TO RAG DOLL

Simplicity of All Playthings Remains Enthroned in the Heart of Small American Girl.

The old rag doll still retains its supreme seat in the realm of child fancy, despite the invasion of airplanes that fly, hisque dolls that walk, talk and roll their eyes, wireless sets that wire and automobiles that auto, according to Homer Stephens, president of the American Toy Exhibitors, Inc., the New York Evening Telegram states.

"Although we have every form of toy imaginable which can and does please the heart of the child, there is nothing like the old rag doll," Mr. Stephens said. "There were more rag dolls manufactured and sold last year than ever before, and I understand the demand has increased this year."

"All toy manufacturers have inventors who turn out new articles every year. This year's innovation is the popular-priced toy phonograph, which plays any record and costs but a few dollars. Toys this year have been made especially to promote what might be called 'juvenile engineering.'"

"They are built for the purpose of instilling the constructive spirit in the child, and we have found a market for those things even among the grownups."

"But the American child still demands its rag doll."

As It Used to Be.

A young member of the Uniform Rank, K. of P. lodge was making arrangements to go to the annual party which his chapter gave. The affair was called the "annual-annual," and he talked a great deal about it at home.

One evening his mother became interested in the party. "I don't believe your lodge has enough affairs," she told him. "Now, several years ago when your father attended lodge regularly there used to be something almost every night. 'Let's see,' she mused, 'what kind of night they called them.'"

The younger man winked at his chum. "Probably nightcaps then, mother," he retorted. "You remember that was before we went dry in Indiana."—Indianapolis News.

Some Excitement in Oil Wells.

Competitive drilling plays a great part among wells in a single vicinity because all oil leases leak at the edges, and whether you get your neighbor's oil or he gets yours is largely a matter of speed. Consequently a well in the middle of a large tract is usually let alone by the owner, or, at least, he undertakes further drilling with deliberation, but if he strikes oil near his boundary he drills his borders with all haste, knowing that his neighbor will "offset" his wells, on the other side of the boundary just as fast as he can get the equipment on the ground.—Ray Morris in the World's Work.

Need Birds the Year 'Round.

The little packet of eggs that would have given rise to thousands of caterpillars form lunches for the winter birds. In the orchards irregular holes through the loose flakes of bark attest to their usefulness again for they tell of their inroads upon the hibernating codling moths. Summer is not the only time for birds, says the American Forestry Magazine. If we had more of them during the winter we would not need so many in the summer.

Forests in New England.

The forest area of southern New England is now about 46 per cent of the total land surface. This is equivalent to 1,750,000 acres of forest land, says the American Forestry association of Washington. The area forested is apparently on the increase. In 1910 the forested area was estimated at 41 per cent, in 1850 as 32 per cent and in the Connecticut portion of the territory in 1820 as about 26 per cent.

"IS GRANDEST ON EARTH" SHE SAYS

Mrs. Daley Gains Seventeen Pounds Taking Tanlac—Thought Case Was Hopeless.

"They said I couldn't live much more than six months longer, but I am still here and feeling fine," said Mrs. Mary Daley, of 530 Oak Street, San Francisco, Cal.

"I have actually gained seventeen pounds since I began taking Tanlac," she continued, "and to look at me one wouldn't think that for several months I was unable to do my household work, I suffered from gastritis all the time, and would bloat terribly and always felt miserable. I had no appetite and felt nauseated all the time. I was so nervous that the least little noise would startle me and it was almost impossible to get a good night's sleep. I had night sweats and was so run down and weak that the slightest exertion would almost exhaust me completely. I lost weight dreadfully and was told that I could not last six months at the rate I was then going down hill."

"Nothing helped me until I began taking Tanlac and I honestly believe it is the finest medicine in the world for it has made me just like a new person. My appetite is splendid and I never have the slightest indigestion any more, and I never enjoyed such fine and refreshing sleep as I do now. My house has eight rooms and I do all the work with ease. Tanlac has been a god-send to me and I would be selfish not to tell others about it."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Swift Bros. & Smith and Stripling, Haselwood & Co., and in Garrison by the Dale Drug Co.

ABOUT THAT BRIDGE

Secretary McKnight of the chamber of commerce states that he has word from the Lufkin chamber of commerce that the business men of that city desire to meet the business men of Nacogdoches at the river for a conference. It is presumed that the meeting will be to consider the proposition of bridging the river and working out plans for a good road between the two towns.—Nacogdoches Herald.

As the result of so much talk and determination upon the part of the people of both towns, it is almost certain that a passable bridge over the Angelina river will be the result. The cost of same will be negligible compared with the good that will be accomplished for all concerned. Give us a bridge across the river or nothing.—Lufkin News.

Interment was made Sunday afternoon in the Maroney cemetery. His daughter, Mrs. R. L. Commander, of Garrison, accompanied by Mr. Commander, attended the funeral, passing through Nacogdoches to and from the old home.

YOU WOULDN'T TRY TO TAME A WILD-CAT

Mr. Dodson Warns Against Use of Treacherous, Dangerous Calomel Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist, and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

When your breath is bad, appetite poor, and you feel "blue" and discouraged, you need Herbine. One or two doses will set you right. It is a great system purifier. Price 60c. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

CLOSE RECRUITING STATION

The local recruiting station will close next Friday, according to Sergeant Barron E. Phillips, who has charge of the station. He received information to that effect Friday. Accoutrements are being packed up by the Sergeant and prepared for shipment to Dallas.

The station has been here for about eight months, during which time Nacogdoches has been visited by a number of soldiers who were here on recruiting duty. It is understood that the station would have been made permanent by Col. Grimes of Dallas, but it did not come up to the standard of productivity necessary for being made so. It is not known by the Sentinel just how many men have been enlisted here by the station.
