FIGHT IN PROSPECT OVER PROHIBITION AMENDMENT

(By Associated Press.)
San Francisco, June 23.—Rumbblings of democratic discord over prohibition became hourly more ominous today as delegates and party chieftians arrived in increasing numbers for the party convention. The hope that the gathering storm might spend itself behind closed doors of the platform committee was virtually abandoned by leaders, who are now prepared to face a tempestuous debate on the convention floor. Already the overshadowing issue in pre-convention conferences, prohibition took almost the entire stage today as the gathering delegates heard Postmaster General Burleson's announcement that he was for a modification of the Volstead act. By many accustomed to regard Mr. Burleson as the political spokesman for the White House, this development was accepted as a warning of the way administration influence will go.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE WATCHING THE RADICALS

Washington, June 22.—Armed with broadened powers provided in the recently enacted alien exclusion act, Department of Justice officials announced today a new drive against radicalism. Orders have been issued, officials said, for a strict watch on the activities of those preaching radicalism and assisting in spreading theories while they refrain from actual anarchistic activities themselves. "Theoretical red parlor bolsheviks" are the special objects of the campaign. Advocacy of sabotage or opposition to organized government by aliens is sufficient to bring them within reach of the new law, the authorities said.

STATEWIDE GANG OF AUTO THIEVES ARRESTED

Dallas, Texas, June 22.—One of the most notorious band of automobile thieves and handits that ever operated in Texas was broken up, according to local officers, by the arrest of six men and a woman in various parts of the state recently. Officers said that one of the men made a confession which cleared up safe robberies in various states, two of which ended with running fights between the robbers and officers, and resulted in the recovery of eleven automobiles, five of which were stolen from Austin, one from Dallas, one from Terrell, two from Greenville and one from Ardmore, Okla. "I am of the opinion," said a Dallas detective, "that this cleanup will stop a lot of automobile thefts. This gang did not confine their efforts to automobiles, but only stole them to use on various robberies. The lineup of the robbers was so complete that only for the confession of several of the men arrested, we would have had lots of trouble tracing the different robberies."

RAILROADERS' STRIKE

Chicago, June 23.—The sporadic railway strikes which broke out in half a dozen or more cities during the past week have spread to Savannah, Illinois, where 50 men went out today. The situation elsewhere in the Central states is improved, according to reports to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen officers here.

John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardmen's Association, and Harold E. Reading, president of the United Engineer's Association, two orders of "railway vacationists," as the strikers term themselves, have issued a call for a mass meeting Friday night to "lay before the public the true side of the present railroad situation and just what means have been employed to bring the present controversy to a successful conclusion."

Ultimatum Threatened

Washington, June 23.—Information prepared for submission to Secretary Lane today indicated that unless assurance is given immediately to railway workers that a wage adjustment might be expected soon, the unauthorized strikes of trainmen at Philadelphia, Baltimore and many other points might not be opposed further by the brotherhood.

HEAVY ENROLLMENT AT U. OF T. SUMMER SCHOOL

Austin, Texas, June 22.—With an enrollment of 1410 students for the first term of the summer school of the University of Texas the increase of attendance over last year at this time is approximately 12 percent. It is expected that some increase to these figures will be made during the next few days.

The summer normal of the university opens next Monday. According to Dr. Frederick Eby, dean of the summer school, prospects for a good increase of attendance at the summer normal session are very encouraging. He predicts that the attendance will be between 400 and 500, as compared with about 350 last year.

BOUND TO HAVE McADOO

Kansas City, Mo., June 22.—Burriss A. Jenkins, clergyman and publisher of the Kansas City Post, issued a positive statement today that the name of William G. McAdoo will be placed in nomination before the democratic convention whether McAdoo consents or not. Jenkins has been selected for the McAdoo nomination speech.

ENORMOUS LUXURY TAX

Detroit, Mich., June 21.—The highest automobile luxury taxes ever paid in the United States, amounting to $21,500,000, were collected from manufacturers in and around Detroit for the first four months of 1920, according to John A. Grogan, collector of internal revenue. The sum represented an expenditure of about $417,857,000 by customers. The manufacturer paid this tax and passed it on to the purchaser.

SEISMIC DISTURBANCES IN CALIFORNIA COUNTY

Los Angeles, Cal., June 22.—A survey today of the damage by the earthquake last night indicated that at Inglewood, ten miles from here, 21 business buildings were destroyed, the town deprived of lights and gas and scores of dwellings seriously damaged. Several persons were injured by being struck by falling brick in Los Angeles and one death is attributed to the earthquake, which was confined to Los Angeles county.

Another Quake Today.

Los Angeles, June 22.—Another slight earth shock was felt at Inglewood today, but there was no damage.

SWITCHMEN STRIKE

Houston, Texas, June 22.—Less than a hundred switchmen, mostly from the Southern Pacific, are out on a "vacation" today as a result of the activities of the switchmen's and yardmen's association. All regular freight and passenger trains are moving with full crews, railroad officials declared.

Out in the East.

Baltimore, Md., June 22.—The railroad strike situation in the Baltimore and Philadelphia district is virtually unchanged. About 60 percent of the switchmen are out in the Baltimore district.

GAVE LIFE TO SAVE BABY

Texarkana, Texas, June 22.—The final chapter of a mother's sacrifice for her baby was written when Mrs. Lynne Frazier died recently while en route to a hospital in Minnesota for treatment of progressive paralysis.

Mrs. Mrs. Frazier sustained injuries to her shoulder and spine when she was thrown from an overturning automobile with her infant baby in her arms near here several weeks ago. Those who saw the accident said that Mrs. Frazier cuddled the baby, which came through uninjured, in her arms and made no effort to use her hands to break the force of her fall.

BIG PROFITS IN TOMATOES

Tyler, Texas, June 22.—As the end of the tomato shipping season draws near, stories of fabulous returns from tomato crops in East Texas are being received. In some instances, farmers have already realized as much as $500 per acre from their tomatoes, and are not half through gathering the crops. Some yields will be in excess of $1,000 per acre. The weather conditions for gathering the crop have been ideal. It is estimated that between 1,000 and 1,500 cars will be shipped from East Texas.

DEMOCRATS GATHERING

San Francisco, Cal., June 22.—While the hotel lobbies today began to take on the appearance of a national political convention, only a few democratic chieftians are here.

Much discussion is in progress as to the elements which will be involved in shaping the party platform, and strikingly little talk about candidates.

Out of the talk today came an increasing rumble of dry movements which clearly indicated that the leaders look for a fight on the convention floor over efforts to make the democratic platform advocate a modification of the prohibition law through a beer plank.

The league of nations plank was not prominent in today's discussion, but a possible struggle over the exclusion of Japanese was suggested by California's contention that the situation is becoming serious here.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

San Antonio, Texas, June 22.—Postmaster General Burleson today declared for a modification of the digastic and absurd provisions of the Volstead act, asserting that it will be impossible to repeal the act itself, and expressed himself as against government ownership except the railroad and telegraph lines.

MAN TRYING TO PROVE THAT HE'S NOT DEAD

Akron, Ohio, June 22.—A dead man's club, composed exclusively of ex-service men now living but listed officially as killed in action overseas, is the latest kind of fraternal organization suggested by William Wirt of this city.

Wirt is having a hard time trying to convince the government that he isn't dead and buried in France. His name is now being chiseled from the memorial bronze tablet recently erected here in a memorial building.

Wirt estimates that there are nearly 2,000 ex-service men now living, whom the war department records show were killed and buried overseas. He also declared that court records show about 900 men declared officially dead who are still alive. He suggests they organize a "Dead Man's Club" and adopt the slogan, "We may be dead, but we won't lie down."

EXILED TERRAZAS FAMILY TO RETURN TO MEXICO.

El Paso, Texas, June 21.—After an exile of seven years, Alberto Terrazas, son of General Louis Terrazas, once one of Chihuahua's wealthiest men, is preparing to return to Mexico and attempt to restock the Terrazas ranches in an effort to recoup the family fortune.

At a conference here Senor Terrazas was assured by an official of the new regime that the family would be given every protection by the de facto government if they desired to regain possession of extensive lands from which they were driven by revolutionists in 1913. It is said that the Terrazas lands in Chihuahua cover millions of acres, and thousands of cattle were confiscated or stolen from them during the early days of the revolution.

HOMICIDE IN DALLAS

Dallas, Texas, June 23.—Charles E. Eubanks, a well-known business man, was shot and killed today in an office building here. Allen E. Charlton, an attorney, was taken into custody by the police for examination. Eubanks was connected with a gin manufacturing company.

NO SUNDAY MOVIES

Austin, Texas, June 23.—The validity of the law which prohibits the operation of motion pictures on Sunday was upheld today by the Court of Criminal Appeals in affirming the case of J. M. Ealy, from Wichita county. "Nothing appears in the record save every evidence of a flagrant effort to trample on the law," said the court's opinion.

YOUTHFUL CULPRIT SPANKED

Dallas, Texas, June 23.—A sound spanking administered by a husky policeman was the sentence imposed in corporation court here recently upon a sixteen-year-old boy who had been convicted of speeding. The boy's mother agreed that the sentence should be carried out, and the culprit was removed to an ante-room for its administration. Officials said that was the first time in history that a whipping had been ordered by the city court.

HUGE TRADE BALANCE

Washington, June 22.—Since the beginning of the World War in 1914 the United States has rolled up a trade balance of approximately $17,000,000,000, against the world. This exceeds by several billion the total balance in favor of the United States from 1875 to 1914, according to the Department of Commerce figures made public today.

BATTLE STILL RAGING

Londonderry, Ireland, June 23.—There was no cessation today in the battle between the Unionists and Nationalist factions which has kept Londonderry terror-stricken for several days. During the night the rival factions erected new barricades and kept up a continuous firing. The malcontents today are in full charge of the city. The military remainder passive and watcher bodies of armed men march through the side streets to battle positions. It is rumored the Sinn Feiners are gathering outside the city and that Irish volunteers are about to take a hand.

ACTION POSTPONED ON MINIMUM WAGE LAW

Austin, Texas, June 22.—The Industrial Welfare Commission decided today not to enforce that section of the minimum wage law which requires the fixing of a minimum wage for women and minors until the law can be amended. This action was taken in compliance with a resolution adopted by the legislature.

THE HOME OWNERSHIP AMENDMENT

The state democratic executive committee is to be commended for its unanimous vote in granting the request of Governor Hobby to place on the ballots for the primary next month the question of submitting the home ownership amendment, comments the Houston Post.

Continuing, the Post says: The amendment was defeated by only 787 votes in the last election, and had not some misunderstandings over it arisen, it is certain that it would have carried. Now that it will appear on the ballot again, there is scarcely a doubt but that it will be adopted.

The sentiment for the amendment is in all probability much stronger now than when it was voted on before. The people in the cities, in particular, have suffered so much in the last two years from the housing shortage and high rents that they will appreciate more than ever the opportunity to secure state aid in buying their own homes.

The housing question has been of paramount interest in the cities and towns and various plans have been adopted to bring relief. Private corporations have been formed to build homes and sell them on long term payments, and some of the great life insurance companies are placing their investment resources at the disposal of policy holders of small means to aid themselves in acquiring homes. Still, no material relief has yet been afforded.

The tenancy problem is also realized as being much more acute. More land is idle in this state than for many years. Conditions of life for the tenant have been so unfavorable that many have given up agriculture and moved to town to work for wages. Those who remain on the farms are not making the progress they should. Tenancy is one of the greatest obstacles to the further development of the agricultural resources of the state.

Governor Hobby does not promise to depend upon other agencies to bring the needed relief to both the city worker and the farmer of Texas who desire to secure homes. It has been his desire to amend the constitution as to enable the state to use its credit in assisting the homeless to acquire homes and for the landless to acquire lands.

If the amendment be adopted, as it is almost certain to be, it will constitute a fitting climax to the long list of constructive achievements of Governor Hobby's administration.

Some men do a good deal of grumbling about misfortunes never coming singly. Well, what of it? Good fortune often comes along in bunches and chunks, too.

A fellow lives only about fifty years after arriving at maturity, and ten years of that time is too much to spend in a barber shop waiting for a shave.

Mr. W. M. Parker of the Carolina Oil Company reports that the company has been unable to unload their two boilers and two of their stills. Two more stills are expected, and when these arrive the required number of stills will have been provided. Mr. Parker declares that the mason work is progressing nicely, and he thinks within sixty or eighty days, if no unforeseen obstacle arises to prevent, the company will be refining oil.

TELEPHONE RATES TO BE INCREASED.

Mr. E. G. Pike divisional commercial superintendent of the division in which Nacogdoches is located, of the Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone Company, a resident of Houston, was in the city Wednesday investigating some important business for the company. Mr. Pike said that the telephone company had to raise the rates or suffer loss it could not afford. Residents will be charged an increase of 50 cents a month and business houses will be charged an increase of $1.00. This rate is to take effect July 1 of this year. Mr. Pike while here did not get to see the mayor of the city on account of his absence, but he saw some of the other officials of the city and he said that all to whom he talked favored the raise. He said the company had no desire to "bulldoze" the people, but wanted the people to know just exactly what it is having to face.

When asked when he thought the mill people would be given service with the people living in Nacogdoches, Mr. Pike said, "Just as soon as we can get the necessary equipment for such. We are up against it for utilities just the same as any other business. We would need a supply of cable to do that, and we cannot get any cable just now. The shortage of everything is alarming. In Houston there are 3,000 people crying for telephone service and we cannot supply them; in Beaumont there are 1,100; and in New York City there are 30,000 deprived of telephone service simply because telephones cannot be gotten for them. However, I think that in less than a year we will be able to connect the mill people with the people of Nacogdoches with the same system." Mr. Pike said that the present condition of the local telephone board was "particularly gratifying to the company because of its efficiency." He goes from here to Houston, where, after a few days stay, he has several other places to visit. He says there are fifty exchanges in his division and 400 in Texas, and they are all calling for something, making it very difficult for the company to serve them all efficiently as it would like to.

SUPERINTENDENT RESIGNS

Mr. H. B. Stegall came down yesterday from Garrison, where he recently resigned the superintendency of the public schools to accept a similar position at Huntington. He called at the News office, and among other things stated that he was the advance guard of the Stegall family, moving back to their native heath. Although he was still carrying one arm in a sling, as the result of an accident some time ago, he was as "happy as a big sunflower", and characteristic of his old-time self, he still believes in scattering sunshine along the way. The many friends of this excellent family are indeed glad to welcome him back to the land of old "Nip and Tuck."—Lufkin News.

Now that all the other cities are putting up rat killing campaigns, Nacogdoches should arouse herself to the realization that she is not a ratless town. There are plenty of the pests here to destroy, contaminate and injure things, besides pester the life out of the people. Rats are an expensive proposition, so expensive that the average man or woman cannot afford them, and in view of this Nacogdoches should join in the "rat killing."

County Superintendent G. B. Layton is in receipt of a letter from L. G. Borden, chief superintendent of the state rural schools, telling him just what arrangement must be made to get the desired state aid for rural schools of the county. The letter is a long one setting out the detailed plan and Mr. Layton is anxious for the trustees of the county to call at his office and confer with him so that as much state aid as possible can be secured.

SADDLE HORN CAUSES FATAL INJURIES

Herman Hart, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hart of the Garrison community was, the physicians think, fatally injured Wednesday afternoon when a horse he was riding to the funeral of Mrs. Reuben Ray at Attoyac became suddenly frightened, throwing the unfortunate boy from the saddle and then falling upon him in such a manner as to cause the horn of the saddle to crush his head. Physicians were called immediately to minister to the boy, but no hope is held out for his recovery. His father and mother are old citizens of Garrison, well known here, and their many friends, with whom the Sentinel joins, extend them heartfelt sympathy.

WHY WE SHOULD HAVE A REVIVAL

The hope of the world is in revivals of religion. Every great movement towards popular government and the uplift of the masses, during the past eight centuries, had its origin in a great, widespread revival of religion. Revivals emphasize the worth of the individual as being of infinite value in the sight of God. Appeals are constantly made to the judgment to determine between this and that course, to consider their results in time and eternity and to decide wisely. The power of free choice is the most valuable of all intellectual gifts, but it may become the most dangerous. The powerful preaching of these three doctrines: The immortality of the soul, God's impartial judgment of all men by the same standard, and that every man's real welfare in this life and the next depends upon his own decisions and conduct, cannot fail to produce most wholesome results.

It has been objected that too strong appeals are made to the emotional nature in such meetings, that excitement runs too high and that they may develop fanaticism. This criticism might be admitted readily as correct, if applied to some individuals among the many, but it is never wise to condemn the many because of the abnormal few. Every four years when political interest and enthusiasm run high in this nation, there are some political fanatics in every part of the country; but we would not change our form of government nor abolish campaigns and political discussion on that account.

Again, we shall always need revivals, because everyone has in him propensities which war against the Spirit. The neglect of prayer, religious meditation and Christian service increase the "bent to backsliding" until in this busy, exacting age it is surprising that so many do so well in maintaining a measure of spiritual power and earnestness.

Beginning June 27, our church will engage in a series of evangelistic services. The meeting will be held in Mullins and Windom Bros., cotton shed in the east part of town. Doctor A. A. Duncan, pastor of the First Baptist church at Greenville, will do the preaching. Dr. Duncan has a mighty soul's grip on the great truths of the Bible and a burning compassion for lost souls. He is not a typical evangelist, but a great, warm-hearted pastor. The music will be directed by Mr. and Mrs. Blankenship of the Baptist Home Mission Board of Atlanta, Georgia. It is our hope to organize a great choir and we solicit the co-operation of all the singers of all the churches. You will be highly pleased with Mr. and Mrs. Blankenship. It is our sincere desire that all the churches shall be greatly blessed as a result of this meeting. Our good friends and neighbors who live out in the country are especially urged to be with us in these services. May we all enter this series of revival services in a spirit of prayer and trustful obedience to Almighty God.

S. D. Dollahite,
Pastor Baptist church.

News was received in the city Friday that Herman Hart, the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hart of Garrison, died Thursday afternoon after an attempt had been made by the surgeons to operate on his skull, which was crushed by the horn of a saddle when his horse fell upon him while he was riding to the funeral of Mrs. Reuben Ray at Attoyac Wednesday. As stated in yesterday's paper, the horse became frightened, throwing the boy, then falling upon him in such a manner as to cause the horn of the saddle to gouge into the boy's skull. Physicians held out no hope for the boy's recovery, but in order to satisfy the parents' wish, an operation was performed, after which the patient died in fifteen minutes. The funeral will be held at Garrison, but the details have not been made public.

A traveling man from Dallas the other day had occasion to journey up North street in this city, and so enthusiastic did he become over that particular street that he imparted confidentially to the reporter the information that North street was the prettiest street in Texas. The man said that he was fully aware that he was making a broad assertion, but he would back his word. North street does present a handsome appearance just now, its trees green, flowered yards and a general look of prosperity manifest in every part of it. A street with such beautiful appearances should be kept in the best condition at all times; weeds should be cut along its sidewalks, and not left to die and decay on the walks, and there should be started a movement to get it paved. Nacogdoches is getting large enough for it, and why not have more paved streets?

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

The displacement of the original old family residence of Francis Rusche, located on the north side of Hospital street and east of Fredonia Street, brings up memories of "long, long ago." It was built away back in the early 50s, and has been the Rusche homestead about seventy years, never changing ownership. All of the children of Francis Rusche and his wife were born and raised there. Henry W. Rusche, the present occupant and owner is one of them.

When Rusche first settled there he owned the entire block, from Fredonia street to Church street, fronting out the north side of Hospital street. It probably cost him about $100. There were very few dwellings near it. The nearest was a small one across Hospital street, almost in front of Rusche, that belonged to Bill Boykin. It later became the Dr. Hyde homestead, and the lot included almost the entire block. This Hyde House was for many years a popular hotel. There was an extensive frog pond on it. Wild ducks landed there.

Rusche has been dead perhaps fifty years. His wife died about ten years ago at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. E. Clifton, in San Antonio, Texas. When he landed in America he became at once an American, and stuck to it, like a good citizen, as did other Germans, not even keeping up the German language in his family.

Fredonia street did not cross Hospital street till about 1880. A big two-story dwelling blocked the way. This house was owned by Jim Hart, one of an Irish family living here about 1880. He also owned a place on Fredonia street midway the block next to the public square on which the old Stone Fort stood. This was a long time the Sleet homestead and then the Muller homestead. William Hart's tombstone may be seen in the Oak Grove cemetery stating name and place of birth in Ireland. He was called Judge Hart, and he owned a pretentious home where the L. L. Sturdevant home is now located. His two sons, Jim and Bill lived out on the Loco beyond Alazan. Jim became justice of the peace. He solemnized the rites of matrimony between Mr. George F. Ingraham and Miss Martha Cooper in 1867 at the humble home of the bride's widowed mother in the Alazan vicinity, and died without returning the marriage license. The absence of the marriage license was discovered a few years thereafter by Judge Ingraham. The county clerk's office had no record of the license, and the original paper could not be found. Judge Ingraham had become the father of a family, and lived in his first home near where the Banita hotel was afterwards built. He owned the entire block, except some small parts.

He was fond of jokes, droll ones. One day he went down home and said to his wife, "Now you are free, we are not married. There is no record of the pact in the courthouse. You may go if you choose, but if you will stay with me, I'll get Joe Mayfield to make an affidavit that he witnessed our wedding, and that was in due form of law, by Jim Hart, J. P. This may supply the demands of the records."

CENTER YOUTH IS SLAIN BY YOUNG COMPANION

Center, Texas, June 18.—Tommy Kethley, who was struck on the head Wednesday by a club in the hands of Pete Watson, died Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, and the funeral service will be held today. Both are young boys, Watson's age being 14 years and Kethley's 16.

The boys became engaged in a playful scuffle on the streets of Center Wednesday morning, with the result that Watson became angered. He walked away from Kethley and returning in a few minutes with a club, striking young Kethley on the head with the result that his skull was fractured. The injured boy was carried to the home of his stepfather, R. M. Gilmore, and was given medical attention, but died shortly afterwards.

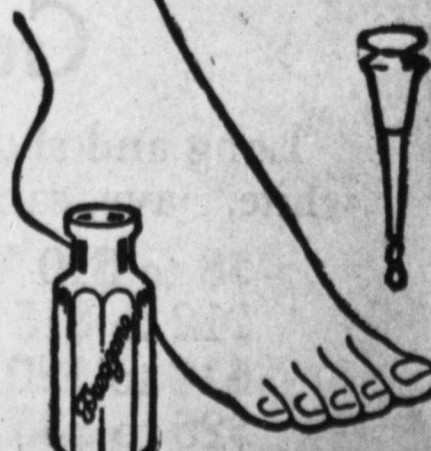

Watson was placed under arrest.

GUMDROPS VS. SPUDS
Columbus, Ind., June 22—The gumdrop has replaced the potato as a stopper on the oil can in Columbus. Grocers no longer can afford to let even the smallest spud go for that use when they are selling for 12 1-2 cents per pound. A local grocer introduced the gumdrop as stopper here recently for that purpose. The candy was much cheaper, he said.

STATE DEPOSITORIES TO GET GUARANTY FUND

Austin, Texas, June 18.—As a result of the audit of the State Treasury for a period of the past twenty-one years, which was conducted by the committee of the legislature, the committee recommended that an auditor be employed by the State Board of Control to keep an accurate check upon the receipts, disbursements and daily balances of the treasury.

The committee also recommended that the bank guaranty fund should no longer be kept on deposit in the treasury vaults, but should be placed at interest in the state depositories. "There is now in the hands of the treasurer the sum of $574,474.16," said the report, "which if loaned at the prevailing rate of interest paid on funds in the state depositories, would bring to the guaranty fund approximately $25,000 per annum, and if this fund had been so loaned since first created, the interest would have partly taken care of the amounts which have been drawn from the guaranty fund by reason of bank failures."

GLAD TO GET BACK

Wichita Falls, Texas, June 16.—A local driller, who with twenty others signed a contract with the Burmah Oil Company last July to go to Burmah, and who recently returned here, agrees with Kipling that "the best is like the worst" east of the Suez.

"American coolies," he said, was the designation of Yankee drillers who worked in the sultry Burmah heat punching holes in the oil field two miles long and half a mile wide which had been worked for thirty years, and contained a number of wells which had been dug by hands of coolies who were paid from $2.40 to $7.50 a month.

"We thought we could live on $50 a month," said the spokesman, "when we signed our contracts in this country; but we found that it cost $6 a day to live. Some of us sent money from Burmah, but it never arrived. One of the drillers who was sending $100 a month home found upon his return that his wife had secured a divorce for non-support.

"Imagine," he added, "working in an oil country where it is always sultry in the cool season, I didn't stay for the hot season. Where coolies earning from ten to thirty-three cents a day dress all the tools and handle them without cranes or chain hoists. Where some oil wells were dug by hand, one coolie working with a helmet to protect himself from the gas while another squats at the top of the hole and flashes light to him with a mirror."

TO SETTLE TROUBLESOME BOUNDARY QUESTION

Austin, Texas, June 19.—C. W. Taylor, assistant attorney general, is preparing to take testimony for the hearing of the Texas-Oklahoma boundary dispute before Special Commissioner Ernest Knobel who has just been appointed by the Supreme Court.

Oklahoma and the United States, as intervenors, are given until August 15 to complete the taking of testimony, while Texas is given until October 1, according to Mr. Taylor. Oklahoma and the United States, he said, are then to have fifteen days after that period to take testimony in rebuttal.

Hearing before the Supreme Court has been set for November 15, according to W. A. Keeling, assistant attorney general, who with Mr. Taylor recently returned from Washington. Two legal questions involved in the case, he said, are: whether the Greer county case is to govern in determining the boundary in the present case; and second, if the Greer county case is not res adjudicata, what was the boundary fixed by the treaty of 1819, between the United States and Spain.

ALLEGED PROFITEERS

Austin, Texas, June 18.—I. Heidenheimer, David Lowenburger and L. Strassburger were indicted late yesterday by a federal grand jury on a charge of sugar profiteering. Lowenburger and Strassburger made $500 bonds. Heidenheimer is in Europe.

AUTOMOBILES REGISTERED

Austin, Texas, June 19.—Late figures announced by the State Highway Department place the number of automobiles registered in Texas at 361,435. Since the beginning of the year 65,679 transfers of second-hand cars and trucks have been recorded, and 15,756 chauffeurs were licensed. Motorcycle registration totaled 3,410 and dealers licenses 2,847. Total number of duplicate seals issued was 3,897.

ATTEMPT MADE TO SINK MALLORY LINE STEAMER

Port Arthur, Texas, June 17.—That an attempt was made to sink or damage the Mallory steamship, San Marcos four weeks ago, was revealed today when an insurance adjuster offered for sale 75 tons of newsprint, hundreds of bags of coffee and a large quantity of school books damaged by water entering through a seacock which was secretly opened while the vessel was en route from Galveston to Port Arthur on her first trip after the Mallory line diverted its ships following the strike at Galveston. The seacock was later closed as secretly as it was opened. A federal investigating officer was unable to fix the responsibility.

The print paper, consigned to Houston and Dallas papers, was refused because it was made practically useless by water damage.

A BIT OF TAFFY

Austin, Texas, June 17.—Resolutions commending the Mexican provisional government "for its efforts to establish stable government" and "its manifested desire to protect the lives and property of foreigners within its borders" were adopted by the senate today. The resolution read: "We have further noted with much gratification, the expressions of friendship for the United States by President de la Huerta, General Obregon and other prominent leaders in the new Mexican government."

LEGISLATURE ADJOURNS

Austin, Texas, June 18.—After the enrollment of a number of bills and disposing of conference committee reports, the legislature adjourned sine die today.

The house adopted a resolution inviting the continued co-operation of the Federal Horticultural Board in the fight to eradicate the pink boll worm and saying the quarantines established against cotton products of this state are precautionary acts.

TEXAS DEATHS FROM FIRES

Austin, Texas, June 19.—Reports received at the office of the State Fire Insurance Commission show that twenty-five persons in Texas lost their lives and twenty-six were injured during April as the result of fires. The dead were divided as follows: 14 male; 11 female; 19 adults; 6 children. Eleven of the deaths were caused by gas, kerosene and gasoline fires.

This report brings total deaths and injuries from fire since September 1919, to 134 and 249, respectively.

THE BUBONIC PLAGUE

Galveston, Texas, June 18.—Federal, state, county and city officials began a war on rats today following the death yesterday of a youth from what physicians diagnosed as probably bubonic plague. A committee, comprising C. W. Goddard, state health officer; M. F. Boyd of the State Medical School; R. L. Wilson, United States Public Health Service; Major G. W. Larendon, brigade surgeon of the Texas National Guard, and others, was appointed to take charge of the situation and adopt such measures as they may deem necessary.

THIRTY-TWO CASES AT VERA CRUZ

Mexico City, June 18.—There have been 32 cases of bubonic plague and 22 deaths since the first outbreak at Vera Cruz, according to unofficial reports. No new cases have been reported in the last 48 hours.

MAMMOTH ROAD-BUILDING CONTRACT IN EASTLAND

Ranger, Texas, June 19.—Work under the largest single contract for highway construction ever made in the United States, according to county officials, began in Eastland county when 1,000 men and 300 teams began the construction of 150 miles of hard-surfaced road and fifty miles of graded road under a contract with a local firm for $4,500,000.

The company has two years within which to complete the work, and will establish eight camps at convenient points in the county.

GUARDSMEN RAID SHIP, CAPTURE MUCH BOOZE

Galveston, Texas, June 17.—National Guardsmen last night raided the steamship Elsinore, from Porto Rico, and confiscated 119 quarts of intoxicants. Two of the ship's officers were arrested and turned over to the federal authorities, and military guards were stationed on the ship today. General Wolters said strict orders to prevent violations of the liquor law were given because under present conditions one drunken man might cause a disturbance.

AUTOS KILL SEVEN

Dallas, Texas, June 18.—Automobiles, by killing seven people on the streets of Dallas during the month of May, proved to be more dangerous for that month than any diseases except tuberculosis, heart disease and cancer, as only these passed the automobile death mark.

Of the 178 deaths in the city during the month, automobiles were responsible for two more than are charged as homicides, five being the latter number.

Births nearly doubled the deaths, there being 126 boys and 125 girls born, a total of 251 births to offset the 178 deaths.

NACOGDOCHES COUNTY LEADS IN 1919 TOBACCO SALES

Houston, Texas, June 18.—Tobacco sales by Texas farmers are reported by the United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, by counties as follows:

Cameron county, 4,586 pounds; Maverick, 3,586 pounds; Nacogdoches, 29,842; total for the state, 38,014.

SHORTAGE OF ICE

Brownsville, Texas, June 18.—The large increase in the size of the winter and spring vegetable crop in the Rio Grande valley this year is indicated by the increase in the amount of ice the railroads used in cooling cars in which the vegetables were shipped.

More than 60,000 tons of ice have been used by the Gulf Coast Lines, according to J. C. Nolan, superintendent, who said that in preceding years the largest contract for the season was 8,000 tons and much of that had been wasted. This year, he added, even by sweeping all available territory, enough ice to meet the needs could not be made, although shipments were made from points as far distant as Texarkana and New Orleans.

SPECIAL SERVICE SQUADRON

Washington, June 21.—A special service squadron of cruisers and gunboats, to be based on the Canal Zone and held available for duty in Mexican, Central American and adjacent ports, is to be organized about October 1, it was announced today at the Navy Department.

SIX KILLED IN FIRE

Vancouver, B. C., June 21.—Six persons were killed and several injured in a fire that destroyed a fashionable apartment house at midnight last night.

MILLIONS TO BE SAVED IN HANDLING COTTON

Galveston, Texas, June 22.—Millions of dollars annually is expected to be saved by cotton shippers of the Southwest through the construction at this port of six new high-density compresses, according to cotton exporters here. The entire battery of presses will be erected at ship-side, it was said, monorail and overhead conveyances to connect them with thirty-one piers.

Nine compresses are already in operation here, but none of them are near the wharves. Texas City is said to be the only gulf port with high-density presses at ship-side.

A reduction in freight rates and elimination of delay in handling export cotton will probably follow inauguration of the new facilities, the exporters said. Much of the delay and expense at present is due to drayage from compresses to the water-front.

Another big saving, it was explained, will be recorded when ship-side presses are in operation, since shippers will then receive through bills-of-lading. At present they are given local bills to Galveston, where it is necessary to take ocean manifests.

The exporters declare that under the proposed new arrangement, shippers will be enabled to bank their through bills-of-lading the moment they are signed by the rail carriers and obtain their credit, immediately, thus saving large sums in interest which now pile up during the process of compressing cotton for ocean stowage.

NEGRO RIOT FOLLOWS ATTEMPT TO BURN FLAG

Chicago, June 21.—The police today are searching for R. D. Jones, an alleged agitator, and three negroes in connection with rioting in the Chicago Black Belt last night, in which two white men were killed and two negroes seriously injured. The fight followed an attempt by negroes to burn an American flag at one end of a parade. Seven negroes said to have led the parade, were arrested today.

Roundabout Route to Equality

Chicago, June 21.—R. D. Jones was found today by a reporter and told his version of the rioting. He said he met a negro named Redding, who posed as an Abyssinian, and other "Abyssinian princes," whom he had denounced as radicals to the federal authorities without result. Jones said the Abyssinians called the meeting yesterday to boom Mayor William Hale Thompson as the presidential candidate of the Third party, composed of Irish, negroes and trade unionists; that the treaty negotiated under President Roosevelt would, if restored, vivify the jimcrow laws in the South, as negroes claiming protection as Abyssinians could claim the right to travel on the same terms as whites.

WHEAT HIGHEST IN YEARS

Fort Worth, Texas, June 21.—New wheat is bringing from $2.25 to $2.50 in this territory today from farmers to dealers, the highest price in several years.

FINE HAND OF I. W. W.

Washington, June 21.—A call for a convention of railroad workers at Chicago on June 29 to perfect the organization of the One Big Union of railroad workers, according to information received today by the Department of Justice. The call for the meeting has been published in the Butte, (Mont.) Daily Bulletin, which Department of Justice officials said they believed was an I. W. W. publication.

LOST MOTION, SAYS HUGHES

Cambridge, Mass., June 21.—Charles E. Hughes, speaking at the Harvard law school today, declared: "In the art of governing ourselves we not only fall short of what we should expect of a free people of so great intelligence, but we frequently present a sorry spectacle. The passion for legislation is not a sign of democratic progress, and in the mass of measures introduced in the legislatures of our free commonwealths there is too little evidence of perspective and an abundance of elaborate and dreary formalities. Occasionally a constructive measure of great benefit is skillfully planned, but we are constantly impressed with the lost motion and vast waste in the endeavor of democracy to function wisely."

CIVIL WAR IN IRELAND

London, June 21.—Civil war conditions prevail in Londonderry, Ireland, and the authorities are powerless, declared an Exchange telegram received here. Several additional persons were killed today following the renewal of the rioting in which a number were killed last night by pistol and rifle firing. Business is at a standstill.

SOUTHERN ROADS PROSPER

Washington, June 21.—Railroads in the Eastern and Western classification territory sustained a deficit in their net incomes in April, but the roads in the Southern territory had a net balance of $2,583,913 after paying all expenses, according to a partial summary made public today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

According to all reports the negroes conducted, themselves in a most ideal manner all over the country on the 19th. No reports of drunkenness, crime or anything evil have been received, and so quiet was the day that it is attracting a bit of attention. "I think newspaper mention should be made of it," was the comment of one public official Monday morning while talking about the matter.

Washington, June 22.—Terrell's population is 8,349, an increase of 18.4 percent.

STOCKMEN HAVE GREAT MEETING TUESDAY

Tuesday at the farm of Mr. W. B. Wortham, located in the Garrison community, the Nacogdoches County Livestock Association, for the first time since it has been organized, held one of the most interesting meetings that has been held in Nacogdoches county of any nature in many a day. Men and women, boys and girls, were there from all parts of the county, together with some from other counties, including Louisiana. The meeting was an open air affair, held under the shade of the trees of the Wortham farm. At the noon hour a delicious barbecue was served, this being supplemented by a bountiful supply of good coffee, cake, pies, etc.

Promptly at 10 o'clock the stockmen and visitors were called to assemble by Secretary H. L. McKnight, who in a few words told the assembly the purpose of the meeting, commenting, too, on the worthy spirit that was animating the cause. He pointed out some of the possibilities of Nacogdoches county in a livestock way, and assured the livestockmen that a great future lay in store for Nacogdoches county.

Dr. Dollahite, pastor of the First Baptist church, this city, then made a few remarks, commenting on the spirit of progress causing the livestock men to desire to come together in a better understanding about their stock, concluding by saying that all such things came about as one of the by-products of true Christianity and religion; that all things worth while came as a result of Christian endeavor or from that influence.

Following Mr. Dollahite, Mr. Jarrett of Garrison, a merchant and farmer of that section, made a few brief remarks, saying that he was heartily in favor of the new movement, and that he would try to give it all his support.

Hal Tucker then made an interesting address, telling what the banks of the county were willing to do for the man or boy who was willing to raise better livestock. He said that any person interested in raising better livestock, and could prove it, "could get money to the limit at any of the Nacogdoches banks." Mr. Tucker was deeply in earnest in his remarks, and his words conveyed earnestness.

Charlie Langston of Garrison was the next man to speak. He said that he heartily endorsed the spirit of Mr. Tucker, and that he was willing to lend money to the ambitious person, boy or girl, man or woman, who was willing to raise better livestock.

This view of the situation was sanctioned by Capt. I. L. Sturdevant, who followed these gentlemen with a few remarks that struck a responsive chord in the hearts of his hearers. Captain Sturdevant is very enthusiastic over the livestock possibilities of Nacogdoches, and he made himself clear on that part of his belief.

A bit of enthusiasm was created by Mr. Joe P. Clevenger telling of his profits on "a certain sow" he was forced to take from a man who owed him some money. He told how he kept that sow, which, he said, "was not in reality a good sow," and how that sow brought him a gain of some $2,000 before she died. The original cost of the hog, he said, was only $75. This caused cheering from the crowd present.

C. M. (Si) Evans of the A. & M. College then came forward with a prolonged discussion of the merits of certain kinds of stock, the types most preferred, the selection of the stock, the best feeds to give them, and many other things of vital interest to the farmers and stockmen present. His speech was appreciated by the men and women present, as was indicated by the attention received and the remark which is given here as coming from a man who paid close attention to him. It is self-explanatory: "Well, if I had heard that man speak before I bought a certain cow, I would not have got beat as I did." Mr. Evans is a man full of energy, and his talk carried a snap and earnestness that made all take notice.

One of the most energetic and forceful talkers of the day was Mr. A. L. Ward, secretary of the Texas Swinebreeders Association, who made a lengthy talk on swinebreeding, selection, feeding, types, and many other interesting things connected with the industry. Mr. Ward is a man deeply in earnest with his study, and he will enthrall the most uninterested. For one hour he poured out a literal volley of information on hogs, and he had no trouble in making himself understood. He gave the kind of hog "boarding with his owner without giving anything in return" a particular scorching, and warned the farmer against raising such creatures.

The man following him has no less a personage than Col. Louis J. Wortham, editor and owner of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and father of Mr. W. B. Wortham, owner of the farm on which the stock was shown at the meeting. Colonel Wortham was deeply touched with the meeting, saying that what his son "Billie" was doing was the dream of his soul. He said that the raising of livestock had been a hobby with him all his life. He caused a good deal of enthusiasm when he declared that "Nacogdoches county was absolutely the best county in all East Texas!" Col. Wortham spoke for at least one hour, and there was not one dull moment in his address.

His son, W. B. Wortham, followed him, but in a different vein. He was interested in the organizing of a bigger membership of the livestock association. Twenty-five new members were added to the roll. Prominent business men of Nacogdoches bought memberships for their farmer friends and conferred upon them. Mr. Wortham said that co-operation must be had if a success was made of the organization.

When Mr. W. B. Wortham concluded his address, Mr. Smith of Timpson invited the Nacogdoches County Livestock Association to be sure and come to the Timpson Fair. This was agreed to by all present.

The meeting was concluded at 1 o'clock with the understanding that "the same bunch" would meet again Wednesday on the school campus for practically the same purpose. The photographer for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram was present, and a number of pictures were taken of the different things of interest on the farm, and some of these pictures may be reproduced in the local papers at a recent date.

THE BREWERY SOB SQUAD

Ten years too late! That tells the story of the brewers' frantic effort to save beer. They had plenty of chances a decade ago to preserve their business; so did the winemakers, and they will go into oblivion unmourned!

Had the brewers and makers of light wines broken with the hard-liner dealers ten years ago—had they taken a definite stand at that time against the saloon, being content to develop a bottle trade that would eliminate the evils of downtown carousals, such a thing of a bone-dry law would have been impossible.

Instead of being content with reasonable profits the brewers tried to see how many dives they could open in defiance of public opinion. As was inevitable, they paid the penalty. Their greed has cost them millions. Their business is outlawed. Their influence is forever ended.

EAST TEXAS C. of C. NOW MEMBERS NATIONAL BODY

Tyler, Texas, June 21.—Formal notification has been received by Vice President and General Manager A. L. Burge that the East Texas Chamber of Commerce has been elected to membership in the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Affiliation with the National Chamber gives the East Texas chamber a voice in the activities and affairs of that constantly growing business organization, which now numbers about fourteen hundred commercial and trade organizations.

At a coming meeting of the executive board of the East Texas chamber a national conciliator, who will serve as a connecting link between the local organization and the national chamber at Washington, will be named, and when policies affecting business are discussed by federal authorities the East Texas Chamber of Commerce will have a chance to express itself. One of the chief functions of the chamber of commerce of the United States is to voice the business sentiment of the country.

The National Chamber of Commerce is soon to have a home of its own, just across Lafayette Square from the White House. A $2,500,000 fund for this building has practically been subscribed. It will be an elaborate workshop for American business in the study and solution of its national problems.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States is thoroughly departmentized, including foreign trade, insurance, transportation and communication, domestic distribution, fabricated production, natural resources and civic development. The aim of the departments is to help the business man solve his problems and to gain new markets for trade. All members will have the privilege of utilizing them, which gives the East Texas organization a special representative in Washington.

HAD BRIEF DAY OF FAME

Beautiful Paisley Shawl Achieved Immense Popularity, but Only for a Short Time.

The story of the Paisley shawl—a specimen, I hear, has just been presented to Lady Bonham-Carter—forms one of the shortest and most romantic chapters in the modern history of industry, says a writer in the Westminster Gazette. The manufacture of these beautiful things was begun, reached a great height of prosperity and became extinct in the space of a little over eighty years. No Paisley shawl has been woven since 1880, and none is likely ever to leave the looms again. The shawl had its origin in the ambition of the Paisley weavers to produce on the loom the amazingly elaborate patterns, woven by the needle, of the Cashmere shawls that had been sent home from the East by Scottish officers and traders to their women folk.

The Paisley weavers were notable craftsmen, and they produced a shawl which excelled its prototype in beauty of design and richness of color. Their success was the reward of patience, skill, taste and a delicacy of touch which, experts say, has probably never been equaled before or since in the weaving craft. A common price for one of these shawls in the days when they were not a rarity was $100, and they were worn by women of all classes in Scotland except the very poor. Then fashion decreed that the Paisley shawl should no longer be the mode, and its fate was sealed. Queen Victoria gave the dying industry a new, but brief, lease of life when she bought seventeen of the famous shawls and wore one at the baptism of the prince who was to become King Edward.

RHODESIA "LAND OF OPHIR?"

Archeologists Have Long Contended for and Against Arguments of That Effect.

The extensive ruins of ancient forts, temples and gold workings in Rhodesia have been given rise to considerable controversy from time to time, some archeologists contending that they are only four hundred or five hundred years old and others holding that they date back to at least two thousand years before the Christian era, and that Rhodesia was the land of Ophir, mentioned in the Bible at chapters ix and x of I Kings.

It is noteworthy that Milton in "Paradise Lost," book II, speaks of the angel Michael leading Adam to a hill of paradise from whose top his eyes might there command wherever stood

City of old or modern fame, from the walls of Cambalu to Sofala (thought Ophir to the realm of Congo, and Angola, farthest south.

The theory has been advanced that if Rhodesia was not actually Ophir, it was at least the "Havilah" whence the gold of Ophir was obtained and which was so much in evidence at Solomon's entertainment of the queen of Sheba. If this theory is correct then Sofala of today would be the site of "Tarsish," the ancient seaport for "Havilah," the ancient source for precious stones, metals and other merchandise, Ophir being situated in all probability on the southern coast of Arabia and constituting a distributing emporium rather than the place of origin of these things.

Emaciated Bride Considered Beautiful.

Javanese marriage customs include a period of religious instruction for both the bride and the groom. The young man starts his instruction by paying daily visits to the priest of the village, and learning all the complicated phrases which he will have to utter on the day of his wedding. The pupil is placed in a tank of cold water and stays there submerged up to his chin while the priest bends over him and reads the Koran, the performance taking place in front of the church.

The girl begins her preparations for the great day by several weeks of semi-starvation during which time she takes only sufficient rice and hot water to sustain life. Because of this hunger strike enforced by custom, she loses considerable weight, an emaciated bride being considered a thing of beauty on the island of Java.—Detroit News.

Where the Shah Sits.

The throne of the Shah of Persia is the most valuable one in the whole world, and its enormous dimensions and exquisite decorations would inspire a multimillionaire with awe.

It is of pure white marble, and is no less than 18 feet in depth by 10 feet wide. The actual seat is mounted on a large platform of the same material, and is upheld by fourteen spotted ivory pillars, carved in the shape of men and women; while the whole is covered with pictures worked in the purest gold leaf. Ascending to the platform is a staircase of solid gold.

One Millionth of an Inch.

Steel gauges accurate to the incredible fineness of a millionth part of an inch are now being made in quantities at the United States bureau of standards. So extraordinarily precise is the method of manufacture, simple as it is, that in one instance 32 finished gauges out of a lot of 83 were absolutely accurate to .000,001 inch, and the balance all within .000,002 inch of precision, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The gauges are steel discs.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. ## Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

AUTOMOBILES BLAMED FOR SCARCITY OF FARM LABOR

Austin, Texas, June 19.—Automobiles are blamed for the scarcity of farm labor by W. B. Yearly, cotton specialist of the State Department of Agriculture, who said:

"In the cities thousands of men formerly employed in productive enterprises or on the farm are employed as chauffeurs or yard men."

"With prosperity hundreds of thousands of automobiles were sold in the South. Farmers who had not been able to own a buggy or carriage became owners, mainly of cheaper grades, while many of the city and town people bought the finest made. Automobiles call for garages, sales agencies and gasoline stations, averaging one of those upon nearly every block. They had to be manned, which drew heavily upon productive labor."

"Mr. Yearly goes on to say that these 'yardmen and chauffeurs' earn larger salaries than many farmers with an investment of $25,000; "With the uncertainty of prices of farm products and the low price compared to cost, those formerly on the farm have not felt safe in returning," he said, and added, "for the same reason farmers hesitate in paying the price for labor."

A SUCCESSFUL FIGHT AGAINST BOLL WEEVILS

Mr. J. A. Jones, a farmer residing a short distance west of Nacogdoches, has evolved a new and successful plan of combatting the boll weevil menace. He has a patch of one and one half acres of cotton which he has kept entirely free from the pests. At intervals of 50 or 60 yards throughout this field he has sunk shallow holes, in which he kindled small fires, and upon these fires he poured a tablespoonful of powdered sulphur. The best time, he has found, for the application of the remedy is just before sunset. The fumes from the burning sulphur envelope the plants and the insects succumb at once to the poison in the atmosphere. In this acre and half he has been unable to find a single punctured boll.

In the same field he left a patch of the same size which he did not treat with the sulphur fumes, and in this area he found at least two punctured bolls to each stalk. This patch was left untreated in order to prove the efficacy of the treatment.

The sulphur remedy was applied every three or four days, and, according to Mr. Jones, there is no doubt that it will do the work effectively. It is worth trying.

FOR THREE MONTHS HE COULDN'T WORK

Back on the Job Making More Money Than He Ever Did in His Life. He Says.

"For the first time in fifteen years I can sit down and eat a big beef-steak and go to bed afterwards and sleep like a log," said George Sanderson, a well-known miner living at 1616 Smith St., Peoria, Ill.

"This Tanlac has overcome a mighty bad case of stomach trouble and rheumatism for me," he continued, "My legs ached and pained so bad that I couldn't sleep at night and my hands were so drawn I couldn't use my pick half the time. Everything I ate bloated me up with gas for hours afterward and I would have the worst cramps in my stomach you ever heard of. Sometimes a cramping spell would hit me when I was at the mine and I would have to run out and lie down until it passed off. I finally got in such bad shape I had to quit my job and for three months I was not able to hit a lick of work."

"I saw in the paper where Tanlac had relieved out State Mine Inspector of troubles just like mine, so I decided to try it, too, and sir, it was simply amazing the way Tanlac put me on my feet. I haven't a trace of rheumatism or stomach trouble now and actually I believe I am stronger than I ever was in my life. You would think so, too, if you could see the tons of coal I pile up every day—and I am making more money than I ever did. Tanlac is certainly a real medicine and I boost it every chance I have."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Swift Bros. & Smith and Stripling, Haselwood & Co., and in Garrison by the Dale Drug Co.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER

To the voters of Nacogdoches County: I am at present suffering from an attack of rheumatism and may not get to see all the voters in person before the primary July 24, but I hope to be remembered at the polls in my race for County Treasurer. I have been a citizen of Nacogdoches county for 22 years, and being one of five contestants for the office four years ago I was defeated in the second primary by Mr. Hall, who has served two terms. Yours for County Treasurer, J. F. Floyd. 25-1wp.

Why That Headache. When you know the cause of a disease a cure may often be effected. This is particularly true of headache. These tablets are easy to take and mild and gentle in action. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

THAT NEEDED BRIDGE

Mrs. Effie Rivers and children, Miss Ruby Dixon and Messrs. John Nelson and Dewitt Lafgent, motored over to Nacogdoches county yesterday in a Mitchell car and attended the all-day singing at Press, where a sumptuous dinner was served on the ground, and on the earth nearby, to all the multitude. They made the trip by way of Alto, as this is the only way for Lufkin folks to reach Nacogdoches overland, although the airplane distance is only twenty miles, whereas, around by Alto, something like sixty miles is involved. If there was a bridge across the Angelina where it should be—but never mind, that question won't be discussed. Those who attended the singing had a good time, and the roads were fine outside of Angelina county.—Lufkin News.

FIRE AT DIBOLL

About 3 o'clock Tuesday morning a disastrous fire visited the thriving little city of Diboll, and as a result thousands of dollars' worth of property was destroyed. The News learns that the fire was discovered in the store of Mr. Waltman, and there being no adequate fire protection, the building and contents were destroyed, nothing being saved. Nor did the ravages of the flames stop here; the dwelling nearby was also consumed. The large storehouse of Dan Holloway, heavily stocked with general merchandise, being in such close proximity, was also destroyed, as was the fine home of Mr. Holloway, his barn and outhouses.

The News has not ascertained the total estimated loss, nor what insurance, if any, was carried by the parties mentioned. It was but a short time ago, it is said, that Mr. Holloway had added another story to his dwelling, and made other valuable improvements, converting same into one of the nicest homes in Diboll, while his stock of goods, not only included dry goods, groceries, etc., but also hardware, it is certain that whatever insurance might have been on the property destroyed, the loss falls heavily on both Messrs. Waltman and Holloway.

There was one rumor current on the streets here this morning that possibly the fire was caused by parties who were pilfering the store.—Lufkin News.
