GERMANY YIELDS TO ENTENTE

The announcement that Germany has definitely decided to yield to the Allied powers' reparations ultimatum, which was scheduled to expire tomorrow night, is, perhaps, the most important news, from an international standpoint, that has been received by the world since the report of the signing of the armistice, representing the surrender of the Huns in the great war.

Although the reichstag's vote of acceptance of the reparations terms was by no means unanimous, it was sufficiently large, 221 to 175, to show that it represents a majority of sentiment in Germany. The Allies had demanded that a "yes" or "no" vote be taken. No conditions would be tolerated, the Germans were notified.

Following are the chief requirements of the schedule: The German government must pay for reparations the sum of £6,750,000,000; it must carry out disarmament in accordance with the provisions of the peace treaty, leaving it stripped of dangerous military equipment; it must, with reasonable promptness, put into effect the trial of war criminals. These requirements were fixed by the Allies after conferences in which it was decided to no longer negotiate toward compromises. It was determined that Germany could meet the demands; and, therefore, it must meet them.

As usual the Germans, through their only representative, sought to evade the issue, claiming that they could not make the payments, etc., but the Allies, losing patience, finally issued their ultimatum. They gave the Germans until the night of May 12 together accept or reject. In event acceptance was refused, there was to be immediate invasion of the rich Ruhr valley, and whatever other measures were deemed necessary to enforce the ultimatum.

Finally, realizing that their cunning attempts to get a better bargain were in vain, the Germans yielded.

Considering the fact that Germany was responsible for the war, and knowing that if it had been victorious in its military plans, France and England and other Allied nations would have been inflicted with terrible penalties, ten-fold more bitter than the terms imposed by the Allies, we feel that Germany should feel grateful that the punishment it must suffer, though heavy, is small compared with that of the rest of the world, would have had to bear, had the fortunes of war been the reverse.

The yielding of the German government is of vital interest to all mankind. Its potential results are too great to be adequately estimated. It certainly will mean the opening of the way for the vast reconstruction work that must be gotten under way to bring the world out of the chaos and confusion that has developed as a result of the war. This turning toward stabilized international conditions will have a wholesome influence on industry and commerce and social conditions throughout civilized kingdoms.

All mankind should rejoice at this latest victory.—Shreveport Journal.

AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED ON JULY 23, 1921.

The people of this and all other counties of the State are in a way skeptical about making any changes in our present Constitution, but as time changes ways of doing business also change. Our present Constitution met all the requirements of the time when it was first put into operation, but after all the intervening time it needs some altering.

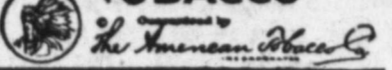

Of the amendments that are proposed for July 23rd the one raising the salaries of the state officials stands foremost. The citizens of our state wish the best material to fill these offices, and still they offer them the salary that many unskilled laborers get. Take the governor as an example, with a salary of $4,000 a year, to direct the affairs of this great state. This money does not meet the amount that he has to pay in the way of entertainment, much less support his family and run the affairs of state. It goes on down the line with other state officers, and especially with members of the Legislature, who at the present time receive $5 a day for the first sixty days, and $2 a day for all the time that they serve thereafter.

This amendment which is to be voted on allows which is to etainnn voted on allows the Governor $8,000 a year; the Secretary of State $5,000; Attorney General $7,500, and other members of the state department $5,000. The members of the Legislature shall receive $10 for the first seventy days and $5 for each day after.

50 good cigarettes for 10c from one sack of

There are three other amendments to be voted on then, and this is the last week that the Enterprise will run these, and everybody is especially requested to read them, so they shall be able to vote rightly. The other amendments for Compensation of Officers and Mileage and Per Diem Rates for Members of the Legislature. For Qualification of Electors in the State of Texas, For Pensions for Confederate Soldiers and Sailors and their Wives and Widows.—Livingston Enterprise.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION

In the railroad meeting held in Nacogdoches Wednesday and Wednesday night, during which time they were discussing "safty first," the superintendent of the E. & W. read to the assembly a suggestion from Conductor Greylock of that road that the windows of the train be screened "so that Polk county individuals could not jump from the coaches into the Trinity river." Conductor Greylock thinks that the screened windows would be a wonderful safety-first attackment. It will be recalled that about one month ago a man on a passenger train of the E. & W., while making it out to Polk county, decided to perform the sensational stunt of jumping out of the fast moving train into the Trinity river. This he did with no bad effects. However, it got on the nerves of the aforesaid conductor, who ventured the suggestion. Mr. Mayo, one of the prominent officials connected with the road, said that the man was induced to jump from the train while reading the scriptures which say that "if your faith be strong enough you may jump into turbid waters and roaring flames, and thy injuries shall be none." The man did this, and was not injured. "But" said Mr. Mayo, "the poor mortal himself had an eye to this 'safty-first' science. It is a known fact that he did not jump from the train until he saw a canoe in the river into which he could climb after having made his spectacular leap."

The suggestion was passed on by the meeting with thanks to Conductor Greylock for "his brilliant suggestion."

NEFF'S REPLY TO GALVESTON

Governor Neff has replied to the request of the mayor of Galveston, for rangers to safeguard the order of the city, that when it is demonstrated that local authorities cannot enforce the laws, he will take the proper steps "to establish a government on Galveston Island."

The governor's reply has the right ring to it. It is one more evidence of the statesmanlike qualities possessed by the governor of Texas. His entire record as governor thus far has shown such an absence of quibbling and equivocation of having a government function in Galveston such as was experienced last year when the city was placed under martial law.

The city and state authorities on the island are bluntly told to either control the situation or step aside and permit authorities that can and will control. And it need not be feared for a moment that the present governor, if it becomes necessary to act, will not establish a reign a law and order in Galveston which will be as efficient as that which former Governor Hobby established, when it becomes necessary for him to act.

It is unfortunate for Galveston that an element of its population seems bent on disproving the capacity of that city for local self-government. The majority of the people of the Island City are, of course, not in sympathy with the forces that would use violence to attain their ends, but unless they show themselves in a position to handle the situation through their local authorities, they will be compelled to submit again to the humiliation of interference by superior powers, and Governor Neff will have the sentiment of the people behind him, if he is forced to act, just as did Governor Hobby when he upheld the majesty of the law in Galveston last summer through the medium of state troops.—Houston Post.

THE NATION'S BULWARK

The bulwark of the nation is education, because—

It is a financial investment that yields the highest dividends.

It results in safe and sane citizenship.

It increases the ability and desire to serve others.

It adds to the appreciation and happiness of life.

It multiplies the chances of success in life.

With no schooling the child has only one chance in 150,000 of rendering distinguished service.

With elementary schooling the child has four times the chance of the one without it.

With high school education he has 87 times the chance.

With college education he has 700 times the chance.

Fewer than one percent of Americans are college graduates, yet this 1 percent has furnished—

Fifty five percent of our presidents.

Fifty-four percent of our vice-presidents.

Forty-seven percent of our speakers of the house.

Thirty-six percent of the members of our congress.

Sixty-one percent of our secretaries of state.

Sixty-seven percent of our attorney generals.

Sixty-nine percent of our judges of the Supreme Court.—Wisconsin Educational News Bulletin.

EXCESS PROFIT TAX

Washington, May 16.—The tax revision discussions took a new turn in the senate committee today when H. Archibald Harris of Chicago stood firmly for continuation of the excess profit tax and urged exemption of coporation dividends from surtaxes.

This is the Way to Make Every Buy a Bargain

BUY advertised goods. Only good goods, fairly priced, can stand the spotlight of publicity.

A merchant or manufacturer would not dare to advertise merchandise that is poor in quality, poor in make or that will not give reasonable wear. The penalty of such tactics is too heavy. No goods—and no business concern—can thrive under the weight of public condemnation.

A merchant places the whole reputation of his business at stake every time he advertises. Naturally enough he is careful of what he says and when his statement is placed in the newspaper—where everyone in town may read—so that any untruth in it will be known to all of his employees and most of his friends—then you may be sure he is doubly careful.

When you buy advertised goods you get a bargain because they must be as advertised.

So it pays you to read advertisements. Advertising protects you.

Read the advertisements in this paper and get the best of the bargain.

NOTICE

To Automobile Drivers

The law regulating the operation of motor vehicles provides a speed limit under different conditions as follows:

(a) It is unlawful to drive on the public highways of the country at any place at rate of speed in excess of twenty-five miles per hour.

(b) It is unlawful to drive on any public highway where the territory contiguous there to is closely built up at a greater rate of speed than eighteen miles per hour.

(c) It is unlawful to drive in the business district of any town or incorporated city at a greater rate of speed than fifteen miles per hour.

(d) It is unlawful to pass along a highway at a railroad crossing where the view of said crossing is obscured either wholly or partially without reducing the speed of your machine to a speed not to exceed six miles per hour before making said crossings, unless there are a flagman or gates at the crossing.

These rules are exceedingly liberal and should be strictly observed.

There seems to be ageneral tendency in the town of Nacogdoches to disregard the law in this respect, both in the out skirts and in business districts and I regret to note that there are not a few of our good women who disregard the law.

I am instructing all peace officers in the county to keep a strict watch and to report every violation of this law to me without regard to where it occurs or who the violator and I will prosecute every violation reported to me or observed by me. Complaints come to me daily from people in the country where the roads have been improved of men and women driving automobiles at unreasonable rates of speed and several instances have been reported to me where women and children have barely escaped death or serious bodily injury as a result of the reckless driving.

This is fair warning to all drivers of motor vehicles in Nacogdoches County and town and if you are arrested next week or later it will be your own fault.

Audley Harris, County Attorney in and for Nacogdoches Co., Texas.

Montgomery, Ala., May 14.—Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi has accepted the invitation of Governor Thomas E. Kilby to dedicate the first White House of the Confederacy here June 5.

OLD-FASHIONED GIRLS

A young man in our presence remarked that a certain young lady was a dandy girl, only she is old-fashioned. Why? Because she uses good English and the vulgarisms and the senseless slang of the present day are not a part of her vocabulary? Because she dresses in accordance with the laws of health and comfort? Because she can and does mend her own garments and bake her own bread occasionally?

We hope we never will be guilty or fighting anything really progressive, but would the world not be better would humanity not be healthier, and would man not be happier if we had more old-fashioned girls?—Moulton Advertiser.

Dodge Brothers' New Announcement

To Make the Purchase Price of the Car as Nearly as Possible the Last Expenditure

All Dodge Brothers Touring Cars, Roadsters, Business Cars and Chassis will be equipped with Cord Tires 32x4. All Sedans, Coupes and wire wheel equipped Touring Cars and Roadsters will be fitted with Cord Tires 33x4.

This change to Cord Tire equipment further reflects Dodge Brothers traditional determination to build into their car to more and more service value. TO MAKE THE PURCHASE PRICE OF THE CAR AS NEARLY AS POSSIBLE THE LAST EXPENDITURE.

Not only have we changed from Fabric to Cord tires, but we have also changed the size from three and one-half to four inch size. This change gives the customer about four times the mileage as compared with the original Fabric tire equipment. In other words, from a standpoint of extra service-value this change is equivalent to a reduction of about $250 in the selling price of the car because it would require three extra sets of Fabric tires, 32x3 1/2 at a cost of about $85 per set, or $255, for the three extra sets, to equal the mileage of the one set of Cord tires with which the car is now equipped.

In seven years the increase in the price of Dodge Brothers car has been the least of any but one.

During that time improvements added to the car have more than offset the moderate increase in price. Other makes of cars with actual less value sell at $400 more money.

The fact that during the year just ended, including the great financial depression, the sales of Dodge Brothers cars to owners were without parallel, both in quantity and in value, reflects the public acceptance of those fundamentally sound business principles to which Dodge Brothers have adhered so steadfastly from the beginning.

We repeat that Dodge Brothers will continue to build into their car such service-value that the purchase price will be made as nearly as possible the last expenditure.

UNJUST CENSURE OF THE GOVERNOR

Naturally there must be a scapegoat to bear the responsibility for the prison delivery at Huntsville last week and already critics of Governor Neff have come forward with the opinion that the governor is responsible because of his attitude on the pardon question. These convicts became desperate, they say, when they heard hope had been taken away.

But among those who broke jail and who was among the last to be captured was a Mexican whose sentence Governor Neff had commuted from death to life imprisonment. Turn the thing around and it would appear that this Mexican escaped because the governor had saved him from the scaffold.

And looking at the records of the ringleaders in the plot that resulted in the mutiny and delivery, is there anything to indicate that these men were deserving of consideration for pardons? The ringleader, sent up from Harris county, had escaped from penitentiaries where he had been confined for desperate crimes, once or twice before, and some of the others had double life sentences hanging over them. Why should anyone shed tears of sympathy over the "desperateness" of such criminals as these?

As the Post has said before, the wisdom of the governor's decision to withhold pardons from state convicts for a time is open to question. The governor's action was taken doubtless to emphasize his impatience with the crime wave and to impress upon the criminal class the fact that they could not count on him to aid them in escaping the full penalty of the law. Whether the good to come from such an attitude outweighs the claims for justice of worthy cases, the Post reiterates, is a question of grave doubt.

But it surely is rather far-fetched to blame the governor for the prison outbreak at Huntsville, especially so, in the light of the records of the admitted ring leaders, and such criticism is as unjust as it is unsound. Houston Post.

POLISH IMPERIALISM

It is well that Americans should understand clearly the present situation in Poland, lest their sympathies be gained by false pretenses and the real welfare of Poland be prejudiced.

The attempt made by large Polish forces to seize extensive regions of Upper Silesia is an unofficial movement on the part of irregular troops, acting in defiance of the Polish government, just as much as in defiance of the League of Nations. Moreover, it is not engaged in "redeeming" territory that is demonstrably Polish. It is trying to seize an area which was awarded to Germany accordingly by the plebiscite commission. Its operations are intended as nothing less than conquest, and a peculiarly dangerous form of conquest at that.

It may be compared roughly to the effort of d'Annunzio and his mutinous followers to add Fiume forcibly to Italy, in spite of the Italian government, though the Poles appear to have even less right to the territory they claim than the Italians had to Fiume.

The Polish government undoubtedly realizes the danger invited by this rash exploit. Germany is naturally inflamed against Poland. Russia has always been hostile, and the bolshevik government might welcome any pretext or any new sign of weakness for another attack upon Poland. If the Poles cannot cultivate the friendship of either of their powerful neighbors, they must at least walk warily, lest they invite destruction. The Allies are their friends; but the Allies are far away, and the slaughter of Allied troops, as well as the defiance of allied advice and authority, can not help Poland in any legitimate aspiration. Shreveport Journal.

GIVE HER THREE CHEERS

A lady received the following reply from a neighbor in answer to a question as why she allowed her children and husband to litter up every room in the house. The sentiment will find lodgment in the heart of every home-loving person in the land:

"The marks of little muddy feet upon the floor can be more easily removed than the stains where the little feet go into the highways of sin. The prints of the little fingers upon the window panes cannot shut out the sunshine half so much as the shadows that darken the mother's heart over the one who will be but a name in the coming years.

"And if my John finds home a refuge from care and his greatest happiness within its four walls, he can put his boots in the rocking chair and hang his hat on the floor any day in the week. And if I can stand it and he enjoys it, I cannot see that it is any body's business."—Exchange.

MARRIED

A quiet wedding which was and will be a surprise to the friends of the bride, Miss Nathalie Lindsey, and the groom, Mr. Don Munsell, was witnessed by the groom's sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Pounds, yesterday at 12:30 at the Methodist church, Bro. Smith performing the simple, yet beautiful ceremony.

The happy couple left on the noon train for Nacogdoches, which will be their future home.

Miss Lindsey is the charming youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Lindsey of this city. She is well known here and is loved by all who know her.

Mr. Don Munsell hails from Nacogdoches and is a real Nacogdoches "fan." He came home from the army only last year. It was not long after his homecoming that his friends found that he thought Lufkin the most attractive spot on earth. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Munsell of Nacogdoches.

All of the bride's friends here wish her the greatest possible happiness and they congratulate the groom. Lufkin News, 16th.

AMERICAN LEGION TO GIVE BIG BANQUET

On the night of Saturday, May 28 (one week from next Saturday) the members of Baxter Duncan Post, No. 86, American Legion, will give a banquet at the Redland Hotel in this city, to which every ex-service man in the county is cordially invited. No matter in what department you served, whether in the army, navy or marines, you will be a welcomed guest, without money and without price. Every ex-service man will be the honored guest of Baxter Duncan Post, and there will be no charge of any sort to be met by the visitors. The Post wants YOU, not your money. It will be a get-together meeting of the boys, and it will be the first of a series of monthly gatherings for social enjoyment, where the ex-service men may have the opportunity of recounting their experiences and getting closer in touch with each other. It is the hope of the Post to enlarge its membership until every eligible man in the county has been enrolled. In other states and at other points in this state the American Legion is becoming a powerful instrument for good government and good citizenship. Its members are 100 percent American, and its object is to promote good American ideals and patriotic devotion to America. Always are they on the side of law and order, and multiplied instances have occurred within the past two years where they have been instrumental in preserving the peace when lawlessness was threatened by alien trouble-makers.

Do you wish to belong to an organization which stands for these things? If so (and we are sure no real American soldier would desire otherwise), come to the banquet at Nacogdoches on May 28th and meet with your comrades. No matter whether you belong to a Legion post or not, and no matter where you have served—on land or sea, in America, in its provinces, or across the water—just so you wore the uniform, you will be welcome.

The managers of the banquet are sending out invitations in poster form to be distributed from every post-office in the county urging ex-service men to come. Attached to these posters is a coupon for your convenience in accepting the invitation. It is necessary for the committee to know how many guests will be present so they may prepare for their entertainment. They want all to come and hope every ex-service man in the county, without exception, will come. But it is just as necessary that they do not provide more than enough as it is for them to provide plentifully for those who will be here.

So fill out the coupon as requested and mail it to the adjutant of the Post according to instructions. If you should fail to get one of the posters with the coupon, just write a letter or postal card stating your intention to be present. Then come, and the committee will do the rest.

UNITED CONFEDERATE VETERANS

Notice of the meeting of Camp Henry Raguet, No. 620.

The Camp met the 7th of May, 1921, a quorum being present with Commander John Burrows in the chair.

In response to an invitation of the Camp, Hon. June C. Harris met with us and delivered a very interesting and instructive address to the old soldiers, which was well received and followed by many expressions of appreciation for the patriotic feeling and sentiment shown by him.

At the close of his address, the camp, by a unanimous vote, extended their thanks to him.

A motion was made and carried that Judge V. E. Middlebrook and H. Blount be invited to be with us at our next regular meeting at 1 p. m. on the first Saturday in June next and address the camp. There were several ladies attended the last meeting. A vote of thanks was also extended to them for their presence and encouragement. It was ordered that the public generally and especially the ladies and young people of the community be invited to be with us at our next meeting. Mr. Harris' opening remark was that the veterans was a remnant of the noblest body of patriots ever organized for battle in defense of principle. He dwelt upon the fact unparalleled in all the history of the world that the South with about five and one-half million population with poorly equipped armies successfully resisted for four long years the armies of a well equipped and well to do people numbering over 22 million population, in the most magnificent manner ever witnessed on earth. He pictured Sherman's raid through Georgia gaining victories over defenseless old men, women and children, burning houses, insulting women in a manner unequalled by Pancho Villa or any modern barbarian. He mentioned the fact that Grant in 1864 with an army of 120,000 men attacking Lee with 60,000 men and being ignominiously defeated. The battle of the wilderness, Spotsylvania, Cold Harbor, Petersburg and other places with Lee's army reduced to a mere fragment and meeting with like defeats. Mr. Harris made mention of many interesting and instructive features of the war of the 60's, as well as our able defense of the righteousness of the South's cause.

We sincerely hope that other invited speakers will respond cheerfully and meet with us at this time. We have no special social feature in our camp, as many others have some with regular programs for their stated meetings.

We want the present generation to become more interested in the history of the period of the war between the states, its causes, the battles and all movements of the armies, to know the heroism, valor and devotion of the privates in our armies, their cherished constitution for the defense of which they made such sacrifices, to know the life and true character of our noble Christian leaders. To keep all the inspiring and soul-lifting incidents of the memorable strife that helps to lift the spirit of the people to higher and better things, that a still nobler national life will be developed by the knowledge and contemplation of the history of the time. To know such things is elevating and ennobling. Come out and help us to encourage especially the youth of the country to know.

E. B. Lewis, Adjutant, Camp Henry Raguet, No. 620, U. C. V.

BOOTLEGGERS CAPTURED

Jake Crawford, colored, a notorious character in the Cushing neighborhood, is in jail on a charge of bootlegging. Following information received from the community in which he makes his habitat, Sheriff Woodlan went after Jake Tuesday night, effecting his capture between 12 and 1 o'clock. Jake was in bed when the officers entered his home, and denied that he was in any way connected in a bottle found under the bed led to further investigations, and when Sheriff Woodlan instructed one of the two men accompanying him to go to the chicken house and "get that bottle of whiskey," the man, who had donned his clothes, darted out of the house and fled through the woods to a field, where he was caught, following an injury to one of his shoulders inflicted when he undertook to break down a wire fence. The whiskey was found in the chicken house, about two and one-half gallons of it, and was brought to town with the prisoner, and may be seen at the sheriff's office. Jake led the officers a merry chase before he was overhauled, his speed being accelerated by pistol shots fired to frighten him into surrender. When he was seized by the sheriff, Jake called to his wife to "break that bottle," this with the view of destroying the evidence against him, but the woman was prevented from carrying out instructions. This negro has given the officers a great deal of trouble through his bootlegging operations, and has heretofore been smart enough to evade detection. His arrest is considered an important one and likely to reduce bootlegging activities around Cushing.

Tuesday Deputy Sheriff Boothe also captured a bootlegger in a different part of the county. A phone summons carried him to the home of a negro named John Mims, some four or five miles from Chireno, a neighbor complaining that Mims had stolen some wagon lines from him. Reaching the negro's house, Deputy Boothe discovered a pit, furnace and trough, parts of a distilling outfit, though the still itself had been removed. Mr. Boothe's representations to the culprit caused him to make a clean breast of it, and claimed the still belonged to a white man, but he confessed he had stolen liquor from this alleged owner and exchanged it at one of the road camps for flour and other groceries. The officer destroyed what he found of the outfit and brought his prisoner to jail. He is skeptical as to a white man owning the plant, and is sure he has at least one of the elusive liquor traffickers of the county.

Both officers did good work and deserve the commendation of the people. They repeated their promise to break up bootlegging in Nacogdoches county if the law-abiding citizens will report any infractions of the prohibition law that may come to their knowledge. Our officers cannot be everywhere, and no matter how vigilant they may be, they are practically powerless without the cooperation of the good people of the county.

MONK-KUYKENDALL

Mr. R. C. Monk and Mrs. Grace Kuykendall were married at 8:30 Monday night at the Baptist parsonage in this city, Rev. S. D. Dollahite officiating.

The marriage was a great surprise to Mr. Monk's friends, than whom no man in the community deservedly has more. As a member of the firm of Cason, Monk & Co., he occupies an important position in the business life of the community, and is a Christian gentleman of the highest standing.

The bride is well known to most of our people as a woman of winsome personality and possessed of those high attributes which go to make a real helpmeet to the man of her choice. At present the happy couple are making their home at the A. C. Smith place in the Walker addition. The Sentinel joins their many friends in wishing for them a long, happy and prosperous life.

Mr. E. H. Sellard of the University of Texas has been in the city this week in interest of the university's geological department. Mr. Sellard's work has been chiefly composed of the duty of visiting the local oil fields and taking note of the topography of the fields. He says that the university will take what he finds as data so that it will be of use in the future. Mr. Sellard said that the Nacogdoches oil fields were hard to map out, and that in reality in his opinion about the best way to tell about these fields was to go after the oil with a rig. He will be here for several days.

ILLICIT STILL RAIDED

Friday afternoon Sheriff Woodlan, following up a tip, went to the home of Field Rusk, colored, three or four miles southwest of town, where he found a still, but not the operator. The outfit was destroyed, together with about 100 gallons of mash. Two gallons of liquor were confiscated and brought to the sheriff's office. No arrests have so far been made in connection with the law violation, but it is only a question of time until the guilty parties will be apprehended. Every good citizen of the county will applaud Sheriff Woodlan's efforts to break up the illicit manufacture of liquor in the county. More power to him.

EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN

The $1,000,000 loan fund to be provided for in the $33,000,000 educational campaign being conducted by the Southern Methodist church is deemed as one of the most important features of the work, owing to the fact that three-fourths of all the students preparing to be ministers or missionaries have to have financial assistance while in college.

Such a large number of young people are now pressing for service of this sort that the church deems it of the highest importance in furthering its cause to equip them and send them out. It is expected that 5,000 ministers and missionaries will be drawn into the work as a result of this campaign, to be waged in all the 18,000 churches in the South May 29 to June 5th.

WICHITA WOMAN SPENT HUNDREDS

Condition Grew Worse in Spite of All She Could do and Became Almost Nervous Wreck

"I had spent hundreds of dollars trying to get rid of my troubles, but Tanlac has given me relief at a cost too small to mention," said Mrs. J. F. Mulkins, of 438 Waco Street, Wichita, Kan.

"Before I took Tanlac my health was so broken down that I was almost a nervous wreck. I couldn't sleep at night and would get up in the morning completely worn out and felt that way all day. I suffered from smothering sensations after meals, had awful pains in the back of my head and such spells of dizziness I could hardly stand up. In spite of all the medicine I took I kept getting worse, until I was right on the verge of despair and didn't know which way to turn.

"But, lucky for me, I started taking Tanlac and now I am just like a different person altogether. My appetite has improved wonderfully, and my nerves have steadied down till I can sleep fine at night. I am so much stronger that I look after an eight-room house with the greatest ease. It is just wonderful the way Tanlac has built me up."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Company and Swift Bros. & Smith and in Garrison by the Dale Drug Company and all leading druggists.

Periodic Bilious Attacks
Persons subject to bilious attacks at regular intervals know about when to expect an attack. They find that they have no desire for food when the attack is due but usually eat because it is meal time. Skip one meal and take three of Chamberlain's Tablets and you may be able to avoid the attack. Persons subject to periodic bilious attacks should not drink tea or coffee at any time. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

Everything around the courthouse these days is pretty quiet. Nacogdoches has become such a peaceful city with so much business spirit that the officers of the law scarcely have anything to do. Too, the marrying has fallen off, and Judge Frank Huston is not very active. Anr the truth of the matter is there's not much use in the reporter going to the courthouse these days for news.

About Digestion
It is claimed that only half as much food is required when it is thoroughly masticated. Digestion begins at the mouth and thorough mastication of the food is of the greatest importance. When needed take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the digestion and insure a regular movement of the bowels. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

Mr. O. G. Bright has opened up the Claxton Cafe on Main street, and he thinks that he will soon be doing a lively business at that place. Mr. Bright has everything epic and span in the new establishment, and he says that he is going to keep the Claxton free from anything that the best of people would dislike. "There will be no cursing or vulgar joking in the Claxton," said he.

The Facts About Rheumatism
More than nine out of ten cases of rheumatism are either chronic or muscular rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment. All that is required is to massage the affected parts freely with Chamberlain's Liniment. You will be surprised at the relief it affords. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

W. B. Bates, district attorney and Phillip Sanders are spending this week in Lufkin attending to court business.

EXAMINATION FEES
County Superintendent Exier Lewis announces that after June 12th the examination fees for teachers applying for certificates in this county will be $4, an increase of $2 over the old fee. The examinations to be held on Friday and Saturday, June 3 and 4, will be the last at which the $2 fee will be required. This applies, of course, to all the counties in the state.

The county board of education will meet Monday, the 23rd, for the purpose of recommending to the state board the approval of the $1 school tax recently voted by the Appleby district. The enterprising people of that community voluntarily assumed the increased tax for the betterment of their school, and it is scarcely probable that their action will be disapproved by the state authorities.

Treatment of Common Colds
"If all who catch cold could be persuaded to remain in bed for the first twenty-four hours of such an attack," says a well known physician, "there would be fewer cases dragging on for weeks and often ending in more serious diseases." To make sure of a prompt recovery you should take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Whether sick or well the bowels should move each day. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

In speaking yesterday of the contemplated W. O. W. building the Sentinel inadvertently neglected to mention the important fact that a Nacogdoches man, Mr. D. Ruifs, is the architect who drew the plans accepted by the building committee. Also the erroneous statement crept into the story that the structure was to be an office building, when in fact it will be exclusively a lodge building, with the groundfloor arranged for mercantile purposes.

SEVERE HAIL STORM IN THIS SECTION

R. H. Gordon-Ross reports the oil business in Nacogdoches county looking better the past few days. "I will resume drilling operations next week in the Moss Creek vicinity on the acreage of the Jewell Oil Company, and on this acreage I expect to bring in some good stuff." Mr. Gordon-Ross said that he already had nine producing wells.

Miss Era Mae Smelley returned to the city Monday from Cushing, where she had been visiting relatives and friends. Miss Smelley had an interesting story to tell about the high school of Cushing, which has already had its graduation exercises, two weeks before the close of school. The students receiving their diplomas do not really know whether they have graduated; and will not know until the close of school, whereupon their diplomas will be filed out in the regular manner.

A person habitually constipated is a shining mark for disease, because his system is full of the impurities on which disease germs thrive. Get rid of the habit quickly by taking Prickly Ash Bitters. It is a stimulating and purgative remedy for men. Price $1.25 per bottle. Stripling, Haselwood & Co., special agents. pa

During the past two weeks business in Nacogdoches has unquestionably been getting better and better. The local hotels are beginning to get crowded with travelers, and the oil business in Nacogdoches is again pinking up. There seems to be more business in every way here. In the meantime, however, Lufkin continues to "train her invincible baseball team."
