His Troubles Are Ended.

"We, the undersigned, justice of the peace and jury, who sat upon the inquest held this 25th day of August, 1905, on the body of Robert Rusher, found in precinct No. 9, of the county of Lincoln, find that the deceased came to his death by reason of gun shot wounds, and said guns in the hands of L. F. Avent and Geo. A. Titsworth; and we further find that it was justifiable homicide, and that deceased met his death while resisting lawful arrest.

A. J. CRAIG."

Such was the verdict rendered this morning on the homicide that occurred last night.

Many of our readers are acquainted with the fact that Robt Rusher had been committed to jail sometime ago, from this precinct on the charge of arson, but fewer knew that Rusher had made his escape last Tuesday night, and that the officers were on his trail.

It was known that he was in this neighborhood, and it was apprehended that he would attempt to burglarize the store of Welch & Titsworth. Fearing such a condition, Mr. Titsworth asked L. F. Avent, Territorial policeman, to stand guard with him in the store.

About 11:30 last night the deceased entered the store by side window. Rusher was ordered to throw up his hands. This he failed to do, and the shooting began. Buckshot, as well as pistol balls were soon flying thick and fast. Ten buckshot took effect on Rusher's body, and he fell near the front of the store, and his body was found, lying face downward, a 32-calibre pistol grasped in his right hand, all six of the chambers empty. When examined by the jury, five finger rings and four pocket knives, all bearing Welch & Titsworth's mark, were taken from his pockets.

The jury returned a verdict as above stated, and deceased was buried during the day. The county has been rid of a desper-

Lincoln County Court.

Judge E. A. Mann and District Clerk D. J. Leahy, came in yesterday and went to Lincoln. Thursday morning court was called and the commissioners appointed to select a list of 300 names for the next Lincoln county jury. The commissioners named were R. Michaelis, Jose Romero and J. M. Penfield. These commissioners will meet and select the required number of names, which will be forwarded to the District Clerk, and a regular venire, at the proper time, be drawn from a wheel. It was necessary to hold this special term in order to formerly put the new jury law in operation.

Baby Born Every Five Minutes.

A recent press dispatch from New York City says: Births in this city at the rate of one every five minutes are recorded by the health department for the past week, during which period 2,011 were reported. It was announced at the department that the birth rate of New York has risen to about 31 per 1,000, and is higher than any other city in the United States.

Five or six years ago, when there was so much talk about race suicide, the birth rate here was only 26 per 1,000. Last year the rate was 30 per 1,000. The prospect is now that in 1906 it will be 32.

Long in Building.

At Troyes, in France, last month, was solemnly dedicated a church which has taken sixteen centuries to build, for it was begun in the third century and was completed but recently. This is St. Urban's church, built by order of Pope Urbanus IV., on the site of the house in which he was born.

Only the foundations were laid during Pope Urbanus' lifetime and though the building has long been consecrated, the last remaining stones were laid this year. The church is a gem of Gothic architecture.

Proved Beyond a Doubt.

Middlesex, N. Y., July 3.—(Special)—That Rheumatism can be cured has been proved beyond a doubt by Mrs. Betsey A. Clawson, well known here. That Mrs. Clawson had Rheumatism and had it bad, all her acquaintances know. They also know she is now cured. Dodd's Kidney Pills did it. Mrs. Clawson tells the story of her cure as follows:

"I was an invalid for most five years caused by Inflammatory Rheumatism, helpless two-thirds of the time. The first year I could not do as much as a baby could do, then I rallied a little bit and then a relapse. Then a year ago the gout set in my hands and feet. I suffered untold agony and in August, 1903, when my husband died I could not ride to the grave.

"I only took two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and in two weeks I could wait on myself and saw my own wood. I dug my own potatoes and gathered my own garden last fall. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me."

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid in the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills put the kidneys in shape to take all the uric acid out of the blood.

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in ¾-pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Defiance Starch is free from all injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 oz." Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

WHERE GAME IS PLENTY.

Newfoundland Declared a Paradise for the Sportsman.

L. F. Brown, the veteran angler and camper, writes in The Country Calendar:

"Brook trout and brown trout are not appreciated in Newfoundland, being far more common than are the perch and sunfish of the states. Catching them will soon surfeit the angler who casts his flies from the shore of almost any lake. Such catches are counted by the dozen—one lot of seventy-two dozen being brought aboard the train at Harbor Grace. One dozen ten-inch trout usually sell for 10 cents.

"There are 687 named lakes on the island, and 30,000 known ones, without names. The island has about 4,000 miles of seacoast, including that of bays like Bonavista, Notre Dame, Fortune, St. Mary's Bonne, St. George, Placentia and Bay of Islands. From one to six streams of clear green water empty into each of these bays. Every stream that reaches salt water is a salmon stream. Back from all that coast are other and easily reached streams that have not even a tradition of a fishnet, rod or hook and lakes never mapped where one may camp and add to the fare wild geese and ducks, willow grouse, whose plumage turns white in winter; ptarmigan, plover and curlew. These camping places bring a unique sense of remoteness and solitude. Only one who has actually seen the wall of darkness around a camp fire in the Newfoundland jungles and over the tundras can understand the tinge of fear that sometimes becomes almost appalling in the vast solitudes."

The Lost Decoy.

H. E. Buermyer, the president of the National Amateur Skating Association, was describing a banquet that he had once attended in New York.

"I found this banquet interesting," he said, "and I was one of the last to leave. In the cloakroom, as I was putting on my hat and coat, I couldn't help noticing the woebegone look on the attendant's face. The poor fellow appeared worried and sad, and every little while he sighed and muttered to himself.

"You seem disconsolate, friend," I said.

"I am disconsolate, sir," said the attendant.

"What is the trouble?" said I. "Haven't the guests tipped you well to-night?"

"The attendant answered in an excited voice:

"It's not only, sir, that they haven't tipped me, but they've taken the quarter that I put in the tray for a decoy."—Buffalo Enquirer.

Half Rose, Half Thorn.

A rose once grew within a garden fair, And lived upon the sunshine and the dew; And Cupid, one day passing, saw it there, And, seeing, thought the lovely rose to woo.

His yearning heart went out unto the rose Each summer night, and with each early morn But found, alas, as many a poor heart knows, That love is half a rose and half a thorn.

A blight fell on the beauteous rose one day, And pale it grew, the fairest rose of years;

And soon, alas! it faded quite away, And Cupid, lo! was left alone in tears. It was the old, old story anew—

That lives, we know, with every night and morn That with each joy there is sadness, too, For love is half a rose and half a thorn.

Oh, love, how sweet thou art!— And yet, each night and morn We learn to know, yes, every heart, That love is half a rose and half a thorn.

Myo Bowman's Discovery.

Myo Bowman, the noted baby model, is now 6 years old, and is living on a farm up in New Hampshire. Not long ago he visited Boston with his mother and at noontime they sought for a nice restaurant, but most of them seemed to be patronized solely by men.

Little Myo 'spied one across the street, and tugged at his mother, exclaiming: "There, mamma, there's a safe place. See, it has the word safe by the window," and he spelled it out, "c-a-f-e, safe."

THE MONTHLY TRIAL

HEADACHE, DIZZINESS, BEARING-DOWN PAINS.

A Woman Tells How She Has Become Well and Strong after Years of Misery Due to Irregular Functions.

The fact that one woman is bright-eyed, rosy-cheeked, strong and cheerful, while another is pale, weak and depressed, is due more often than otherwise to the regularity in the one case and the irregularity in the other of the functions that are peculiar to the sex. When these are disturbed everything goes wrong; pain and discomfort are felt all over the body; the sensations are often terrifying.

"For four years," said Mrs. Davis recently, "I suffered indescribable misery from sick headache every month, accompanied by fainting spells, shortness of breath and severe pain in my left side. There were also bearing-down pains, at times so acute that I could not stand up, and my head was full of ringing sounds. It seemed as if everything was going to hit me in the eyes. I was compelled to lie down with closed eyes for hours to get a little relief. When I attempted to rise everything would whirl around and it would grow so dark that I could scarcely see any object."

"Couldn't your doctor help you?"

"Five doctors in all treated me, but I got no lasting benefit. Besides I used a lot of advertised remedies. The only medicine, however, that had the desired effect was Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they are truly a godsend to women. I did not have much faith in them when I began to take them. I found myself, however, so much better after using two boxes that I began to believe in them. They checked right away the decline into which I was going. My troubles kept lessening and finally disappeared altogether."

"How long did it take for a cure?"

"After I had used several boxes my health was all right. I had taken on flesh and was strong and hearty. I feel today in spirits more like a girl of sixteen than a woman of my years."

Mrs. C. H. Davis' address is Carmel, Maine, R. F. D., No. 2. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are confidently offered to women for the cure of anæmia, chlorosis, painful and irregular periods, and all forms of weakness. They are sold by every druggist.

FOR THE BABY DAUGHTER.

Simple Means for Future Pleasure and Satisfaction.

A mother, noted for her original ideas, showed me how she was planning for her little girl's pleasure and satisfaction in the years to come.

"I remember," she said, "how I used to question my mother as to what I did, how I looked, what she did when she was a little girl. How disappointed I used to feel when the reply came: 'Why child, I don't remember; it was so long ago.' So, when my baby came, I determined to be able to gratify her curiosity along these lines."

Then she showed me a book, filled with many examples of her own gowns labeled, "Mama's graduating dress," "Mama's first silk dress," "Mama's wedding gown," etc.

But the most interesting book or set of books, was the baby's own autobiography, illustrated with amateur photographs. It was written as if the baby told the story, giving her impressions of this world and her surroundings. It contained photographs of her Christmas trees, of her first birthday cake, etc. "What work," I exclaimed. But the little mother said: "What pleasure for my baby."

Then another idea of this wise mother's is the starting of a chest for this wee maiden. In it are all the valentines, Easter cards, and gifts of all descriptions that are keepable. She has told all her relatives to give the baby things that she will appreciate in later years, not to spend money on toys, so this year-and-a-half old baby has handkerchiefs, embroidered towels, doilies, wash cloths, spoons, forks, etc. Each valentine, Easter, even May day, brings a contribution to this young maiden's chest. When old enough to have her own room she is to use anything from her chest that pleases her fancy.—Exchange.

MADE HER PROTEST STRONG.

Wanted It Understood She Was a Good Church Member.

She was a member of a North Side church, and she was trying to impress the fact upon the mind of the friend who rode out with her on a late elevated train the other night.

"I'm as good a church member as any one, and I don't care who knows it," she said in the course of her talk.

"Well, it's nothing to be ashamed of," said the friend. "I was also once a church member, and I never was ashamed to own up to it."

"Ashamed! Who says I am ashamed?" shouted the first woman, until every one in the car turned to look. "Ashamed? Well, now, I rather guess not. I'm a good church member, and who dares say I am ashamed of it? The person who told you I am ashamed of it is a liar. There!"

"Why, no one told me you were ashamed of it," said the friend.

"Well, then, why are you saying it?"

"I didn't say it."

"You did!"

"Well, then, I suppose I did."

"Well, I'm not ashamed, I'll give you to understand that, and you put it in your last summer's bonnet that I am not."

And then as the train stopped she added, "Goodby, dear, I get off here."

Northampton's Mayor Not Bald.

Some time ago a boy came to Mayor Theobald Connor of Northampton, Mass., with a note. When the boy saw Mr. Connor he put the message back into his pocket, saying "It's another Mr. Connor the note is for."

"Let me see the name on the envelope," said Mr. Connor, curiously. "That is my name. The note is for me."

"But I was told," replied the boy, "to give it to the bald Mr. Connor."

"Oh, you got turned around a little; that's all," said the mayor reaching for the note, which was addressed "M. Theobald Connor." But it took considerable argument to convince the boy he was the right man

THE RECIPROCITY CONFERENCE.

The reciprocity conference at Chicago the 17th inst. resulted in the formation of the American Reciprocal Tariff League.

A committee of fifteen was also constituted to push the campaign of organization and education.

The object of course is, to force congress to act in the matter of the reformation of the schedules of the Dingley Tariff, promised before every election, with the actual results we all know.

The special significance of the meeting is, that it was a republican affair, and that its members were all protectionists.

Its menace to the "Stand Pat- ters" appears in the prominence in its deliberations of men like Governor Cummins and Senator Cullom.

These men have never been famous for dangerous excursions into unexplored political territory.

They stand where they do today, because they know that the demand for tariff reform by the republicans of the middle west and northwest has become so strong and insistent, that it cannot be denied.

The Dingley schedules were mostly designedly made prohibitive. Revenue was not desired. The object sought was purely and solely the advancement of private interests at public expense.

The great American trusts are the conspicuous result. While the schedules stand the trusts will continue to defy the law with impunity.

We append extracts from the fiery speech of Governor Cummins, which make interesting reading.

Governor Cummins spoke in part as follows:

"Reciprocity has been damned with faint praise and false friends long enough. The time has come to unmask, so that the people may know who stand for and against this doctrine. The friends of reciprocity have passed through years of depression and discouragement, simply because it has been coddled in conventions and crucified in congress.

"It has been eulogized in the abstract and condemned in the concrete. And the hour has arrived in which it is fair to ask those who are hostile to the policy to avow it; and I am gratified beyond measure that in the course of this struggle there appears to be some sign now that those who fight it will come out in the open.

"The gravity of the situation is manifest, and it is acknowledged, I believe, upon all hands that we must meet it in one of two ways—retaliation or reciprocity. The 'stand-patters' have raised the banner of the former, and we march to the music of the latter. Many people think that this question is confined to treaties with particular powers, but it is not so, for it can be accomplished through general tariffs as well as through special arrangements.

"Indeed it can be truthfully said that with us, if attained in the near future, it must be attained through the general law by a revision of our schedules, for it has been made clear to the dullest mind that no trade or treaty, however advantageous to the people of this country, can command two-thirds of the United States senate.

"Our present schedules are, in the main, intended to be prohibitive, if American products are sold at a fair and reasonable profit. It is only when through combination or unusual demand, the home manufacturer lifts the price into the region of robbery that his foreign competitor can enter at all. There is no conflict, and can be none between protection and reciprocity. If we abandon the selfish interest of a particular product or class of producers and ascend to the higher standpoint from which we may view the common welfare.

"The demand we make is not new. The men who today are exponents of the 'stand pat' theory of government are not protectionists; they are exclusionists. They have no title to the leadership of the party of protection, and they are using the policy for a purpose that would be indignantly repudiated by its most distinguished champions, were they now in the land of the living."

Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken.

For the autumn season now at hand the most valuable paper to you will be the New York Thrice-a-Week World, because it offers you more at the price than any other paper published anywhere in the world.

The Thrice-a-Week World comes to you every other day, except Sunday, with all the news, fully, accurately and promptly told.

The Thrice-a-Week World is fair in its political reports. You can get the truth from its columns, whether you are Republican or Democrat, and that is what you want.

The Thrice-a-Week World always has a serial story running, and it is always a first-class story by a first-class author.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Capitan News together one year for $1.75.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

J. H. CANNING,
Treasurer & Ex-Officio Collector.

J. H. Skinner was over Tuesday night, loading some hogs which he took to his Bonito ranch.

Kansas stock salt 60 cts per cwt, at Welch & Titsworth.

A. L. Sheely and J. L. Bryan returned Saturday from Roswell, where they had gone the previous week to deliver cattle.

Father Migeon, parish priest at Tularosa, formerly located in this county, came up yesterday, and went to Lincoln in the afternoon.

Meadow Gold butter at Welch & Titsworth.

The NEWS force has been quite busy getting out the tax list this week, consequently there has been little time devoted to the paper.

Robert and Wm. S. Bourne passed through Monday en route home from Roswell. They had made a trip to the valley to take a look at conditions there.

Dr. Presley, specialist eye, ear, nose, and throat; Roswell, N. M.

Mrs. J. G. Riggle and children and Mrs. Jno. A. Haley and children went out to Angus Sunday to attend the Baptist camp-meeting. They expect to remain during the meeting.

E. B. Welch, El Paso, member of the firm of Welch & Titsworth, Capitan, and T. H. Rogers, also an El Paso business man, came up on Monday's train and returned yesterday.

Pride of Denver flour at Welch & Titsworth.

Phil Blanchard was up Wednesday morning, looking for Robert Rusher, who left jail, without hobbles or bell, and without any instructions to the sheriff about forwarding his mail.

For a first-class shave, hair-cut and shampoo, drop in to rear of printing office.

Miss Ella Mundell brought to this office this week some fruit that was grown on the Mundell ranch east of town, without irrigation. Among the lot was a peach—an odd kind of fruit for Lincoln this season, the peaches in all the orchards east of the White Mountains killed by frost.

Dr. T. E. Presley, practice limited to the eye, ear, nose and throat; Roswell, N. M.

T. J. Kyle, who has a ranch about three miles west of Capitan, informs the NEWS that a very destructive hail storm fell at his place Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Kyle had a few acres sowed in corn and cane, as well as a nice garden, all of which was badly damaged, if not totally ruined.

Left the Beef.

The people of Coalora and surrounding neighborhood were considerably disturbed Tuesday evening about dusk, by the reports of twenty to twenty-five shots, fired in rapid succession. The mystery was explained a short time later when L. F. Avent, of the Territorial Mounted Police, came in, having in charge a hack and team, a rifle and a bottle of whiskey, that being all that remained around the carcass of a V V cow.

The policeman had located the cow, tied, during the afternoon, sent word for assistance and remained on guard to see who came to dispose of the animal. Patiently waiting, at last, about sun-down, he was rewarded by seeing a hack, containing three men, driven in the direction of the cow. He approached nearer, saw the beef knocked in the head and the skinning process begun. In the meantime, a fourth man had joined the butchers.

Afraid of being seen and that the would-be beef-eaters would become alarmed and flee, the officer decided to begin the battle at once and not await the arrival of reinforcements.

He jumped up from his hiding place, threw down on them and ordered them to hoist their hands. This command was obeyed by one, who had been cut off from his gun, but the other three responded with rifles, after taking refuge in the weeds and underbrush. However, the policeman worked his 30-30 in such a scientific manner that, if they didn't, "like the Arab," fold their tents, they "silently stole away." This was a pretty risky affair for the policeman, yet Avent's muzzle is just the color to indicate that when once started he was enlisted for the war.

Two parties, Abran Miller and Severo Perez, were arrested, the other two escaping, and brought before Justice Haley and waived examination. The bond of each was fixed at $500 each, in default of which they were taken to jail.

Wanted.—Hides, sheep pelts goat skins, etc. Highest market price paid by Welch & Titsworth.

Subpoenas are in the hands of the sheriff for the witnesses in the Leslie cases, which were sent to Otero county on a change of venue. They are cited to appear at Alamogordo September 15th. This is known to our readers as the celebrated case of larceny, and defendants were severally and jointly indicted by the last Lincoln county grand jury for slaughtering cattle.

BIG FOREST RESERVES

COVERING MILLIONS OF ACRES.

Include Nearly Half the Timber Area of Colorado—Will Be Guarded by One Hundred and Fifty Men.

The old adage that "it never rains but it pours" seems to be particularly pertinent in regard to the creation of new forest reserves in Colorado. Some years ago six were proclaimed, embracing more than three million acres. These were established in rapid succession, to the dismay of many who regarded the forests as free plunder for timber and lumber and as open pasture for illimitable herds.

Much opposition arose, particularly on account of the inclusion of lands better adapted to farming and pasture than forest purposes. A halt was called and many eliminations made. At the beginning of the present year these six reserves contained 2,903,460 acres. During the long interim the department had experts carefully examining the various watersheds of the state, getting ready for the reclamation of more reserves when conditions became favorable.

Since the forest machinery of the government was turned over to the Department of Agriculture last December the President, up to the 3d of June, had proclaimed the consolidation of the Plum Creek and South Platte reserves with the Pike's Peak reserve, and added to it 134,627 acres, and also created the Medicine Bow, Gunnison, Leadville and San Juan reserves, embracing, respectively, 1,155,209, 901,270, 1,219,947 and 1,437,406 acres, making a grand total on the 3d day of this month of 8,252,619 acres in forest reserves in the state.

On June 18th the Associated Press dispatches announced the establishment of the Parke Range reserve of 757,000 acres, also saying it was the fourth reserve created during the week previous, which doubtless referred to the Montezuma, Wet Mountain and Cochetopah proposed reserves, which embrace in all more than 2,000,000 acres, making more than 16,300 square miles and nearly one-half of the timber area of the state.

Over this vast area the government will have entire supervision and care, involving at least twelve supervisors and a dozen forest rangers apiece, making a force of more than 150 men to guard against fires and thieves,

Things Happen.

From the home of the famous "Key-nel Keyartah of Cartersville," away down South, comes an enthusiastic letter about Postum:

"I was in very delicate health, suffering from indigestion and a nervous trouble so severe that I could hardly sleep. The doctor ordered me to discontinue the use of the old kind of coffee, which was like poison to me, producing such extreme disturbance that I could not control myself. But such was my love for it that I could not get my own consent to give it up for some time, and continued to suffer, till my father one day brought home a package of Postum Food Coffee.

"I had the new food drink carefully prepared according to directions, and gave it a fair trial. It proved to have a rich flavor and made a healthy, wholesome and delightful drink. To my taste the addition of cream greatly improves it.

"My health began to improve as soon as the drug effect of the old coffee was removed and the Postum Coffee had time to make its influence felt. My nervous troubles were speedily relieved and the sleep which the old coffee drove from my pillow always came to soothe and strengthen me after I had drunk Postum—in a very short time I began to sleep better than I had for years before. I have now used Postum Coffee for several years and like it better and find it more beneficial than when I first began. It is an unspeakable joy to be relieved of the old distress and sickness." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

KNEW ONLY ONE BAR.

Convivial Irishman's Misunderstanding Quite Natural.

A Cincinnati man was describing the dinner in London that admitted Joseph H. Choate to the society of the Old Benchers of the Inner Temple.

"Mr. Choate was in his best mood," he said. "With epigrams, witticisms, and anecdotes he kept the table in a continuous roar.

"Perhaps he made his most telling impression with a story about an impoverished young Irish gentleman, the Honorable Denis Bellew.

"He said that Mr. Bellew, driven forth by poverty from his father's estate, went to London to seek his fortune.

"He had been a gay, convivial blade, and in the little home village he was missed. There was not a poacher nor a roisterer within ten miles that hadn't a soft spot for Denis in his heart.

Word one day passed about that up at the castle news had been received of Denis. The village at once became excited, and a deputation of a half dozen or so was soon on its way to see the old lord.

"My lord," said the spokesman, "is it true ye've gotten news o' yer son Denis?"

"Aye, true enough. News at last, boys," said his lordship.

"Faith, then, an' phwat might the bhoys be doin' up in London?" was the next question.

"He has been called to the bar," the lord answered proudly.

"The deputation looked at one another, for the phrase was new to them. Finally, in a loud whisper, one said:

"O! don't know what thot manes; but from what O! remember of the bhoys, he didn't want no callin'."—Pittsburg Gazette.

The Age of Pretense.

Pretense is one of the fashions of the time. Pretense is becoming so perfected and so general that if a person should put off all pretense he would run the risk of being charged with affectation.

Next to having, the best thing nowadays is seeming to have. There is really some foundation in reason for this kind of pretense, since it has become the fashion of the world to measure a man's success in life by the dollars he has made.

Here is a cable message which tells of a new phrase of pretense:

"Paris—The existence of a new and curious business in Paris has just transpired. This is the hiring out of wedding presents to brides, so that they may impress their friends and their acquaintances with the number and value of their gifts. Jewelry, lace, furs, etc., are lent out for a consideration, and after they have served their purpose and been duly chronicled in the newspapers they are returned to the owners. It appears that a well-known Paris jeweler does a large business of this nature."—Washington Star.

Queer Proofs of Love.

Mme. Myriam Harry, the Parisian novelist who has traveled about the world a good deal, tells what evidences of affection are prized by men and women in different countries. In Jerusalem she once met a young Arab woman who had not a tooth left in her head. Mme. Harry's native servant said: "Lucky woman; her husband knocked all her teeth out. He does love her." In Cochin China Mme. Harry was told that there a husband was not believed to love his wife properly until he had made a present to her of a coffin. In Galicia, among the sect of masochists, a man values his wife's affection by the degrees of suffering which she causes him to endure. Mme. Harry there once heard a betrothed youth say to his affianced bride: "If you really loved me you would consent to bind me and flog me with this whip." At Stockholm one of Mme. Harry's friends is now suing her husband for divorce on the ground that "he does not love her soulfully."

IN STRICT CONFIDENCE.

Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help.

She Has Guided Thousands to Health.—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Fred Seydel.

It is a great satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to another telling her the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only, a woman full of sympathy for her sick sisters, and above all, a woman who has had more experience in treating female ills than any living person.

Over one hundred thousand cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pinkham every year, some personally, others by mail, and this has been going on for twenty years, day after day. Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman of such experience, especially when it is absolutely free.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, in order that other sick women may be benefited as they have been.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Over a year ago I wrote you a letter asking advice, as I had female ills and could not carry a child to maturity. I received your kind letter of instructions and followed your advice. I am not only a well woman in consequence, but have a beautiful baby girl. I wish every suffering woman in the land would write you for advice, as you have done so much for me."

Just as surely as Mrs. Seydel was cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills.

No other medicine in all the world has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore no prudent woman will accept any substitute which a druggist may offer.

If you are sick, write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helpful.

I took Doan's Kidney Pills and experienced quick and lasting relief. Doan's Kidney Pills will prove a blessing to all sufferers from kidney disorders who will give them a fair trial."

IN THE LINE GASTRONOMICAL.

Hot Ice Cream a New Dainty for the Fair Sex.

"Have you heard of the new hot ice cream?" asked the woman who seems to know of all the new things almost before they come into existence.

"It sounds piquant," said her companion, dryly.

"Well, it is, and something more. It is served in one of the tea-and-chatter rooms, where you go after a shopping tour to pile all bundles on a couch and sit in a bow window and tell your companion all the things that you always thought that you would never tell to any one. There are iron lanterns, instead of electric globes, and the maids wear linen frocks and don't slam things down before you."

"And the hot ice cream?" "I'm coming to that. It is really a frozen pudding. It is made of vanilla ice cream with boiled rice and ginger mixed with it and all frozen together. It hails from the Chinese quarter of San Francisco, and it tastes good and doesn't give one indigestion, as the cold-all-the-way-through ice cream is apt to."

"Do you know what it sounds like to me? The Frenchman's description of the Irishman's whisky punch. He said it was called 'punch,' but it ought to have been called a 'contradiction,' because he put in whisky to make it strong and water to make it weak, lemon to make it sour and sugar to make it sweet, and then he said, 'Here's to you!' and drank it himself!" —Montreal Herald.

His Dream.

What might be termed "a mean trick" was played on a Kansas City young man at the race track the other day. One night he had a dream in which he saw himself wearing a red carnation and playing the races. In the dream he was winning big rolls of money. Yesterday morning he told one of his friends about the dream and said he intended to wear a red carnation and play the races. In the meantime his friend told half a dozen of the young man's acquaintances about the dream, and they all wore red carnations to Elm Ridge. Before the first race one of the conspirators met the young man who had had the dream.

"Say, Joe," he said, "I had a dream last night that if I wore a red carnation out here to-day I'd win. Now I'm not superstitious—"

The young man swallowed the bait. "You did?" he said in amazement. "Well, Tom, we'll clean these book-makers up."

As they started for the betting ring five other carnations came in sight.

"Say, Joe," yelled their wearers in chorus, "I had a dream—"

But the young man had fled into the crowd.—Kansas City Times.

Blaine and His Hostess' Gale.

About twenty-seven years ago the late James G. Blaine was invited to dine in a certain city in eastern Maine where he happened to be on business. His host had recently married a second wife, more noted for beauty and wealth than for intelligence. It was near the middle of March, and a storm was coming on, which, the husband remarked, would probably be the equinoctial gale.

"What do you mean by that? Is it the same as the line gale?" she asked.

The husband replied in the affirmative, and in reply to further questions told her it was usual to expect a storm twice a year, when the sun crossed the equinox.

"That day at dinner," said Mr. Blaine, "I remarked upon the severity of the storm and my hostess, with an engaging smile, replied: 'Yes, Mr. Blaine, isn't it singular that we always have such a fearful storm whenever the sun crosses the Penobscot?' Before I could frame a reply my host in a tone of mild surprise exclaimed: 'You don't mean the Penobscot, dear,' and she at once said: 'Oh, no. How stupid of me! I meant the Andros-coggin.'" —Boston Herald.

Profits of the Packers.

There has been a great deal of disappointment because the Garfield report shows that the profits of the packing industry only amount to about two per cent of the volume of business transacted. There is no doubt, however, that the report is correct.

The census reports compiled by the government in 1900, before the agitation regarding the "beef trust" began, throw considerable light on this question. It appears from the census that the packing industry is conducted on a smaller margin of gross profit than any other industry in America. The gross margin of profit of 871 flour and grist mills in Illinois, in the census year, was nearly seven per cent on the volume of business. The gross margin of fifty-one wholesale slaughtering and meat packing establishments in Illinois was only about one-third as large, or a little more than two per cent on the volume of business.

The millers have not been accused of being in a "trust," and combinations would seem impossible in a business where there are several thousand mills in the United States competing actively for the flour trade, but it appears that the gross profits of the millers are larger than the gross profits of the packers. It may turn out that the agitation regarding the packing industry will show the same result as the devil found in shearing the pig: "All squeal and no wool." —American Homestead.

Drum Is Drummed Out.

M. Maurice Berteaux, the minister of war, intends to suppress drums in the French army. The decision meets the support of such eminent military authorities as General Faure-Bibuet, former military governor of Paris, who says drummers are useless in battle, since they carry only revolvers, whereas buglers are armed with rifles, which they can use in a fray. He adds that the drum, in modern armies, is an anachronism and should be abolished. In spite of the sentimental pang its disappearance may cause, it is interesting to recall how much the late General Boulanger's popularity arose from his re-establishing the use of the drum, which a preceding minister of war had abolished.

Heroine to Be Educated.

An Asheville, North Carolina, dispatch says that for saving the lives of a score of passengers and preventing a wreck by flagging a train with her red petticoat, Nannie Gibson, eleven years old, a bare-footed mountain girl, has received a reward from the Southern railway, and it is just what Nannie had said that she wanted most, an education.

She has received a letter from the company, agreeing to give her a college education and to see that she is well provided for.

Nannie lives in a little mountain hut with her father and mother in the Black mountains. A big slide occurred on the mountain while she was at home alone. She ran down the railroad track, waving her red petticoat. A heavy train was stopped by her ten feet from where the mountain had caved in. Below was an abyss several thousand feet deep.

Dog's Prayer Saved Him.

Astray water spaniel which Patrolman Bert Webb of Colorado City was about to shoot at the city pound, upon being ordered to say his prayers by the officer, sat up on its hind legs, folded its forelegs and dropped its head. The dog has evidently been taught the trick by a former master, and it saved the animal's life. Officer Webb took the dog under his care and secured its license.

There are few graduates from the school of experience.

Those Who Have Tried It will use no other. Defiance Cold Water Starch has no equal in Quantity or Quality—16 oz. for 10 cents. Other brands contain only 12 oz.

A fellow may be crooked and still tell a lie with a straight face.
