BOYS RIDE TRAIN ROOFS 24 DAYS

TWO YOUTHS ARRIVE AT CHICAGO FROM BUTTE, MONT., AFTER REMARKABLE TRIP.

TAKEN TO JUVENILE COURT

Assert Lurching Was Fierce at First—Coach Tops Give View of "Swell Guys" Inside—Prisoners Are 16 and 15 Years.

Chicago.—Two boys from Butte, Mont., who traveled the entire 1,500 miles to Chicago by clinging to the tops of passenger trains as they rushed along at 60 miles an hour, were taken before the juvenile court and told a remarkable story of long "hike" which lasted 24 days. The boys are Elmer Johnson, 16 years old, and Emmet Burke, 15 years old. They were taken up by Detectives Maher and Abbey.

"Yes, we rode the 'tops,'" said Johnson, who declares that he would now rather ride on the outside of a train than on the inside. "We left Butte on July 20 and was all the time coming. Emmet wanted to come, so one night we packed up some lunch-eon and went down to the yards.

"A Northern Pacific train was just about to leave. We tackled the blind baggage, as that is the only car you can climb to the top on. It has a big wheel on the side. I gave Emmet a boost and then climbed up myself. We lay down on the vestibule top until it pulled out. At first we were scared and hung on for dear life. The lurching on top is something fierce and we almost got pitched off going round curves.

"From the blind baggage we would sometimes crawl back to the Pullmans on the rear. There are always lots of pipes on the tops of a Pullman a fellow can hold to. We could peek in through the ventilators and see the swell 'guys' sitting in there smoking and chewing the rag. Every once in a while a waiter would come in with a tray full of 'booze' and then they would all take a drink and laugh.

"Toward the end we got so we would crawl back to the Pullmans when the train started and look in at the people," continued the recounter. "Sometimes we would get over the dining car, and, gee! that grub would smell good.

"Coming down from Denver there was lots of slick-looking folks. In one of the cars there was a young-looking lady. She was awful thin and pale. There was a young 'guy' with her. I guess it was her husband. When we stopped at a water tank I heard him say: 'Wait till I get you home, Bess, and you will get better when you see your ma and pa. You'll get strong again and we can go to shows and have good times again.'

"The lady says, 'Do you think so, Jim? Sometimes I think that I will never be well again.' The young 'guy' got up saying he was going back to get a drink of water. He looked like he was crying to me. Soon after that the 'connie' saw us at the next stop and made us get down. He said he would 'knock our 'blocks' off if he caught us on top again.

"We stayed in that town 'bumming' grub until the next night, when we got one of the Burlington fast trains. Maybe we didn't go some. We had to hold on tight on that train for fair. Sometimes the train men would see us just as the train was pulling out, but too late to get at us.

"We could only ride at nights, because the trainmen could see on the top in the daylight. We would have to be careful, even at night, when we would reach a big station. When we saw the lights of a town ahead we would crawl over on the dark side and crouch down so they could not see us.

"We rode the Northern Pacific to Billings and then took the Burlington to Alliance. From Alliance we went to Bridgeport and from there into Denver. From Denver we took the Union Pacific and worked into Kansas City. At that city we struck the Chicago & Alton and came into Chicago."

BOY BECOMES CALLIOPE.

Swallows Tin Whistle and Learns to Play Tunes.

Des Moines, Ia.—Lars Larson, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Johan Larson, living near here, is achieving fame as a human calliope.

The lad, who is of an imitative turn of mind, swallowed a small whistle a few days ago, after seeing a calliope that a traveling circus brought here. He said he could become a whistler of note if he had lungs as strong as the steam chest of the calliope, and so, when he obtained the whistle, which was made of tin, he promptly swallowed it.

Much to his satisfaction the whistle became fixed crosswise in his throat, and now the youngster can make music that can be heard half a mile away. He is gradually learning to play tunes on the whistle, and his practice, in which he insists in indulging at night, is keeping his father and mother and all the neighbors wide awake.

"The boy is in no danger," says a surgeon who has examined him, "and possibly he will soon be able to draw a big salary from a museum as the only living calliope. As he has an ear for music, there is no reason why he should not play tunes on the whistle by breathing in the proper manner."

Live Wire Disrobes a Woman.

Atlanta, Ga.—Alleging that she was completely disrobed by a live wire, Mrs. Maude S. Orr has sued the Georgia Railway and Electric company for $10,000 damages. Mrs. Orr was shopping on Whitehall street when the broken end of a guy wire, which had been charged in some way touched her belt. The shock tore off the belt and most of Mrs. Orr's clothing. In addition to this humiliation, Mrs. Orr alleges that the shock caused her serious physical injury.

GIFT NOT ALL A GIFT.

Generosity That Was Purely the Result of Accident.

A missionary bishop told this story about F. Marion Crawford, the famous novelist:

"Mr. Crawford went to school," he said, "in Concord, and one day he was taken to call at a Concord clergyman's.

"The clergyman had a missionary box on his drawing room table, and, time hanging heavily on the boy's hands, he amused himself with trying whether a silver dollar—it was all the money he had in the world, and he had converted it into that gigantic coin for safety—would go into the slit in the box's top.

"It was a close fit, but unfortunately it did go, and the coin slipped out of the embryo author's fingers. There was a terrible crash of silver falling among the coppers—and then the boy, as the novelists say, 'knew no more.'

"When he came to himself he found the clergyman and his family in raptures over his generosity."

Sure to Have One.

Lincoln Steffens, in an address on municipal politics, said in Chicago of a certain city:

"That city is as notorious for its rottenness as the town of Pebbles is notorious for another characteristic.

"Here is an incident that will give you an idea of the reputation of Pebbles.

"On a train one day a man rushed into a car, held up his hand for attention, and shouted excitedly:

"Anybody here, who belongs to Pebbles?"

"Aye; I do," said a small, dry old fellow calmly.

"Then," said the other, 'lend us yer corkscrew.'"

Born, Not Worn.

Little Margaret's grandmother had written for a photograph of her namesake, the "baby." For material reasons it was advisable that the little girl should appear as well dressed as possible, and a cousin's new open-work dress was borrowed for the occasion. On being arrayed for the picture Margaret rushed to her father, crying:

"Oh, father, just look! These ain't worn holes; they is born holes."—Harper's.

FEET OUT.

She Had Curious Habits.

When a person has to keep the feet out from under cover during the coldest nights in winter because of the heat and prickly sensation, it is time that coffee, which causes the trouble, be left off.

There is no end to the nervous conditions that coffee will produce. It shows in one way in one person and in another way in another. In this case the lady lived in S. Dak. She says:

"I have had to lie awake half the night with my feet and limbs out of the bed on the coldest nights, and felt afraid to sleep for fear of catching cold. I had been troubled for years with twitching and jerking of the lower limbs, and for most of the time I have been unable to go to church or to lectures because of that awful feeling that I must keep on the move.

"When it was brought to my attention that coffee caused so many nervous diseases, I concluded to drop coffee and take Postum Food Coffee to see if my trouble was caused by coffee drinking.

"I only drank one cup of coffee for breakfast but that was enough to do the business for me. When I quit it my troubles disappeared in an almost miraculous way. Now I have no more of the jerking and twitching and can sleep with any amount of bedding over me and sleep all night, in sound, peaceful rest.

"Postum Food Coffee is absolutely worth its weight in gold to me." "There's a Reason." Read the little health classic, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

VIOLET SHADE WELL LIKED.

Has Attained Much Popularity for Bedroom Furnishing.

A charming wall paper displayed in a store window shows an arbor design of light purple shades upon a cream ground, says the Chicago News. Purple tones are so fashionable now that they are, and very rightly, used considerably for furnishing. They are particularly clean and pretty for a bedroom; that is, if the violet or lavender shades are selected. For a sunny exposure violet gives a cool effect.

Most women select blue or pink for their bedrooms, but if violet is becoming it is every bit as effective, and if the solid tone is not used the dainty floral designs in papering are not sufficiently pronounced to conflict seriously with a dislike for the color.

In a spare room violet is very pretty. One room facing north and east is furnished with old mahogany, although the two little beds are of brass. The matting is violet and white, with two or three woven rugs of the same coloring.

The paper shows clusters of violets on a cream-colored ground, and the colonial fireplace and deep-embossed windows are of snowy white paint. The white flowered muslin curtains have plaited ruffles. Can any one imagine a cozier apartment for a welcome guest?

DISH OF MEXICAN ORIGIN.

"Chili Colorow" for Those Fond of Highly Seasoned Viands.

A dish that cannot fail to delight the palate of those who love highly seasoned viands, and yet, strangely enough, will not induce an increase of the body's internal heat, is recommended by Harry Leighton, whose talents as an amateur cook are quite on a par with his ability as an actor. This is a Mexican concoction, called "Chili colorow," and those who care for such dainties will find it a most delectable mixture. To make it, Mr. Leighton takes a quart of boiled tomatoes and one onion that has already been chopped fine. To these he adds three tablespoonfuls of granulated sugar, one tablespoonful of the prepared ground Spanish pepper—a condiment that may be purchased at any first-class grocery store—and a little salt. The mixture is then permitted to stew rather slowly for some 20 or 30 minutes, when, if it seems too dry, a little water is added.—The Bohemian.

Fruit Dumpling.

Sift one pint of flour, one-half teaspoonful of salt, and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder; rub in one heaping tablespoonful of butter and mix into a stiff dough with three-fourths of a cupful of milk. Toss the dough onto a well-floured board, knead it slightly and roll out one-third of an inch thick. Cut into rounds with a large cutter. Put half of a pared peach in the center of each, draw the dough up over the peach and roll carefully in the hand until the folds have disappeared and it is smooth and round like a ball. Butter the perforated pan in a steamer, arrange the dumplings on it so that they will not touch, cover tightly and steam 20 minutes. Serve with fruit sauce. Rub one-fourth of a cupful of butter to a cream, add gradually one cupful of powdered sugar and beat until light and frothy, then beat in gradually one cupful of sliced peaches. Set in a cool place till hard. Serve the same as hard sauce.

Egg Sauce.

Heap two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan. When it bubbles, put in (all at once) two tablespoonfuls of flour, and stir from the sides toward the center of the pan until the ingredients are well mixed. Have ready heated a cupful of milk; add to this the "roux" gradually, and beat to a smooth cream. Season with pepper, salt, and beat into the thickened milk the yolks of two raw eggs and a little minced parsley. The white and yolk of a hard-boiled egg chopped fine may also be added.

The extraordinary popularity of fine white goods this summer makes the choice of Starch a matter of great importance. Defiance Starch, being free from all injurious chemicals, is the only one which is safe to use on fine fabrics. Its great strength as a stiffener makes half the usual quantity of Starch necessary, with the result of perfect finish, equal to that when the goods were new.

Pointed Conversation.

"Jack, I am going away."
"Going away, Madge?"
"Yes, going away. But before I go I have something to say to you."
"Something to say to me, little wife?"
"Yes, something to say to you. Don't send me any poker stories in lieu of the weekly remittance. That'll be about all."

A Theory.

"Why do men swear?" asked one woman.

"It's due to the vanity of the sex," answered Miss Cayenne. "They want to be noticed even when they can't think of anything of real importance to say."

Physicians Recommend Castoria

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First—The indisputable evidence that it is harmless: Second—That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food: Third—It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. B. Halstead Scott, of Chicago, Ills., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria often for infants during my practice, and find it very satisfactory."
Dr. William Belmont, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "Your Castoria stands first in its class. In my thirty years of practice I can say I never have found anything that so filled the place."
Dr. J. H. Taft, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria and found it an excellent remedy in my household and private practice for many years. The formula is excellent."
Dr. R. J. Hamlen, of Detroit, Mich., says: "I prescribe your Castoria extensively, as I have never found anything to equal it for children's troubles. I am aware that there are imitations in the field, but I always see that my patients get Fletcher's."
Dr. Wm. J. McCrann, of Omaha, Neb., says: "As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine, and aside from my own family experience I have in my years of practice found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."
Dr. J. R. Clausen, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "The name that your Castoria has made for itself in the tens of thousands of homes blessed by the presence of children, scarcely needs to be supplemented by the endorsement of the medical profession, but I, for one, most heartily endorse it and believe it an excellent remedy."
Dr. R. M. Ward, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Physicians generally do not prescribe proprietary preparations, but in the case of Castoria my experience, like that of many other physicians, has taught me to make an exception. I prescribe your Castoria in my practice because I have found it to be a thoroughly reliable remedy for children's complaints. Any physician who has raised a family, as I have, will join me in heartiest recommendation of Castoria."

GOVERNOR CURRY VISITS LINCOLN

In accordance with the pre-announced coming of Governor Geo. Curry to Lincoln, a crowd from various portions of the county at the county seat Thursday to meet him. He was to come by way of Roswell, and a number of his old time friends went to Picacho to meet him. He was delayed, however, and did not reach Lincoln until Friday noon.

The disappointment of the populace Thursday night over the non-arrival of the governor was keen, and when next morning it was announced that he had reached Picacho and would at once proceed to Lincoln, the enthusiasm knew no bounds: buggies, carriages, wagons and horses were requisitioned, and the crowd went enmasse down the river to meet the governor of New Mexico, whom Lincoln county claims as her own. About five miles below Lincoln the governor and his party were encountered, and from there back to town it was a triumphal procession.

Along the route he was cheered from every farm house, and when reaching the outskirts of the town, Mrs. Juanita Baca, an aged lady and an old friend of the governor, stopped the procession, hugged the governor and presented him with a beautiful bouquet, after which the line of march was again taken up. Arriving at the court house, at which point a large sign was suspended across the street, on which was emblazoned "Welcome Curry," a large number of little girls, all decked in white, were marshaled on the court house steps under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Gumm and Miss Ruth Tompkins, the teachers in the Lincoln school, and while these little girls were singing a patriotic song, many old friends of the governor gathered around him and gave him a hearty clasp of the hand.

At 7:30 in the evening the court house was packed, rooms and hall, and some hanging to the railing of the steps, each and all anxious to see the governor and to hear what message he had to convey. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers, bunting and pictures, among the latter being one of the governor and President Roosevelt. The arrival of the governor was the signal for cheers, and they were given, long and loud. Attorney H. B. Hamilton presided, and in a few, well-chosen words introduced Governor Curry, and when he arose to address his old friends the applause was deafening.

The governor began by touchingly referring to his long residence in Lincoln county, which began twenty-seven years ago, of the many dear friends with whom he had lived so long and known so intimately, many of whom, during his eight years' absence, had passed to the great beyond.

He touched slightly his service in the Philippines, telling of the many trials that, at first, confronted American authority in that far-away archipelago, the hostility of the natives and the difficulty to secure their confidence; but that now this condition did not exist; that peace reigns and contentment, in a large measure, prevails. The most important feature of his address was his reference to statehood. He announced that the President now stood ready to aid New Mexico in her fight for statehood, and that by a united effort on the part of the people, he believed that congress would this winter pass an enabling act; and the matter was presented in such a manner that the immense audience was convinced of its plausibility, and the sentiment was cheered to the echo.

Responses were made on behalf of the people by J. B. Blea, Geo. B. Barber, Jno. A. Haley and Martin Chavez. The hall was then cleared of all impedimenta, except humanity, and the big ball of the season began, lasting into the wee sma' hours.

Next morning the governor came through Capitan, took lunch with friends here and left in the afternoon for Carrizozo where he will be given another strenuous reception on Lincoln county soil.

It was Lincoln county's day, and well did its inhabitants enjoy it; and if the smile that wreathed the governor's countenance, and the hearty clasp of hand extended were reliable indications, he too enjoyed the occasion.

Rev. Fred Velasco and family came in the past week from Douglas, Arizona, and will make their home near Lincoln. Mrs. Velasco is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Stewart, old residents of Lincoln, and Mr. Velasco is a minister of the Methodist Episcopal faith.

WELCH & TITSWORTH.

Mr. S. T. Gray returned Thursday from a short visit with her daughter in Carrizozo.

WANTED—Spring chickens and fresh eggs.—Welch & Titsworth.

Hon. A. H. Hudspeth was over from White Oaks this week, looking after legal business, and greeting old friends.

We have just received a nice line of boys' suits.—CAPITAN MERCANTILE COMPANY.

Quite a large number of people from this section, all old-time friends of Governor Curry, went Lincoln Thursday, to assist in welcoming him.

FOR SALE—1500 head of shearing goats, from four years old down.—Address 9-6-8t HENRY STUTZ, Lincoln.

A special train of material for the pipe line pulled in today (Friday). This will keep the freighters busy for some time hauling it to points along the route.

Bucks for Sale—Registered Angora Bucks from the famous J. C. Hightower flock sired by Hoerle buck imported from South Africa. Address—Stuart & Stephenson, Alto, N. M. 9-6tf

The badges printed for Governor Curry's reception at Lincoln were greatly admired. The design was the tri-color with gold lettering. They were furnished from this office.

More rain has fallen during the past week than at any time since August. The seasons undoubtedly are changing. New Mexico may some time be included in the rainbelt, and dry farming in this territory be numbered with the has beens.

W. C. McDonald came in on Thursday's train to arrange for another shipment of fat cattle. He was just a little too late to join the Capitan crowd who went to Lincoln that morning to meet Governor Curry.

Harry Patton, who had his arm broken last week, is able to be up and around, carrying his arm in a plaster cast. He seems to be getting along exceptionally well, notwithstanding the serious nature of his injury.

The Daughters of Rebekah will give a mask ball at the Capitan school house on Thursday evening, Nov. 28. The entertainment will be a good one—the Rebekas are leaving nothing undone to make it so.

Quite a large number of people from the surrounding country visited Capitan Thursday for the purpose of meeting Gov. Curry, who was supposed to here on that day, but were disappointed, as the governor was delayed by inclement weather while en route from Roswell, and did not arrive here until two days after schedule time.

The clerical force at the Capitan Mercantile company was increased this week by a new assistant, a Mr. Newman of El Paso. He was accompanied here by his better half, and they have gone to housekeeping in one of G. A. Montgomery's cottages. Mrs. Newman is a member of the order of Rebekah, and will be quite an acquisition to the local order.

Owing to causes over which this office has no control, the report of the proceedings of the county commissioners appears in this issue—three weeks late in reaching the readers of the NEWS. The taxpayers of this county, every one of whom is a reader of the NEWS, anxiously look forward to seeing the report of the commissioners' proceedings in the issue following the meeting, and are naturally disappointed if they do not see it. They commissioners want the interested taxpayers to read an account of how they have been managing the county's business, and they want them to read it as soon as possible after each meeting. A little "hustle" and an eight-cent registration fee would go a long way towards remedying the grievance.

Masquerade Ball.

A masquerade ball will be held at the Capitan schoolhouse on the evening of Nov. 28, under the auspices of the Rebekah Lodge. Each lady is requested to bring a basket filled with good things to eat, sufficient for two. A committee will take charge of the baskets, and dispose of them at the popular price of fifty cents each. The dancers must remain masked until 10:30, when they may disclose their identity. A tip-top evening's pleasure is assured.

DIET FOR INVALID

DISHES THAT ARE BOTH NOURISHING AND TEMPTING.

Hot Weather Is Period Most Trying Both for Invalid and Nurse—Cold Broth Sometimes Better Than Hot.

The chronic invalid or convalescent is particularly an object of pity in mid-summer. The appetite is less captious in cold weather than in hot, and unfortunately for the housewife is less inclined to put forth special effort at the very time when the invalid is most exacting. As the convalescence or comfort of the ailing member of the household depends so much upon the diet, the effort to supply food at once nourishing and appetizing must be sustained. Daintiness is extremely important in serving food for an invalid. Thin, undecorated china and glassware, a liberal use of the inexpensive paper doyleys, and garnishings of fresh parsley, cress and slivers of lemon will help along the good work of tickling the jaded appetite.

Bread, the staff of life, is always a problem in serving the invalid. When toast palls, try pulled bread for a change. This can be made in connection with your regular baking day, kept in a dry place and heated as needed.

Pulled Bread.—Bake ordinary yeast bread in the shape of long, narrow French loaves. When cool, but not entirely cold, cut lengthwise through the center, then with two forks scoop or pull the bread out of the crust and, still using the two forks, pull it apart in strips six or seven inches long and an inch, or an inch and a half in width and thickness. Line a large baking pan with brown paper and arrange the strips of bread on this, rough and crinkled edges uppermost. Set in the oven with the door partly open until it dries out thoroughly, then close the door until the bread turns a golden brown. Warm each time before serving. This is much like Zweibeck, but its odd shape appeals to the invalid.

If broths must be served as nourishment, try them ice cold instead of hot. The nutritive qualities are there just the same and, if properly seasoned, iced broths are just as good for the patient as the hot ones, and infinitely more tasty. Herewith are recipes for chicken and clam broth. Serve either in a dainty cup, topped off by a spoonful of whipped cream:

Clam Broth.—Buy a dozen small clams in the shell, arrange them in a pan or tray and pour boiling water over them. As fast as they open turn clam and liquor into an enameled stew pan. Add as much water as you have clam liquor. Stew gently for 10 minutes and skim off the scum that rises. Season with a little butter and pepper. Use salt according to taste, but sparingly, as the clam liquor is apt to give a salty taste to the dish. Strain through a very fine sieve and set away to chill.

Chicken Broth.—Cut the fowl into quarters. Lay in salted water one hour. Remove and place in three quarts of water, bringing it very slowly to a boil. Boil gently until liquor has diminished one-third. Remove chicken. Season the liquor, bring to a boil and strain. Stir a cupful of hot milk slowly into two beaten eggs, then add the mixture to the broth, stirring slowly. Half of this quantity is sufficient to serve an invalid two or three times a day.

Cheese Sticks.

On a day when pies have been made, take a piece of pastry dough, roll it out very thin and cut into strips as long and wide as a finger; spread on each strip grated cheese sprinkled with salt and pepper. Lay on another strip, pinch together, brush with yolk of egg, and bake in a slow oven. If no pie crust is at hand, it can be easily made of a half-cupful of flour, a tablespoonful of butter and a little icewater.

DOES YOUR BACK ACHE?

Profit by the Experience of One Who Has Found Relief.

James R. Keeler, retired farmer, of Fenner St., Cazenovia, N. Y., says: "About fifteen years ago I suffered with my back and kidneys. I doctored and used many remedies without getting relief. Beginning with Doan's Kidney Pills, I found relief from the first box, and two boxes restored me to good, sound condition. My wife and many of my friends have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results and I can earnestly recommend them."

APPEAL THAT WAS HEEDED.

Judge Must Also Have Been Follower of the Gentle Art.

John Quincy Adams, of Massachusetts, third of that name, who died about ten years ago, was very fond of fishing, and not especially fond of his legal profession.

One day, the story runs, a case in which he was counsel was down for trial in a Massachusetts court. Mr. Adams did not make his appearance, but sent a letter to the judge. That worthy gentleman read it, and then postponed the case with the announcement:

"Mr. Adams is detained on important business."

It was afterward learned by a colleague of Adams that the letter read as follows:

"Dear Judge: For the sake of old Isaak Walton, please continue my case till Friday. The smelts are biting, and I can't leave."

CHILDREN TORTURED.

Girl Had Running Sores from Eczema—Boy Tortured by Poison Oak—Both Cured by Cuticura.

"Last year, after having my little girl treated by a very prominent physician for an obstinate case of eczema, I resorted to the Cuticura Remedies, and was so well pleased with the almost instantaneous relief afforded that we discarded the physician's prescription and relied entirely on the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills. When we commenced with the Cuticura Remedies her feet and limbs were covered with running sores. In about six weeks we had her completely well, and there has been no recurrence of the trouble.

"In July of this year a little boy in our family poisoned his hands and arms with poison oak, and in twenty-four hours his hands and arms were a mass of torturing sores. We used only the Cuticura Remedies, and in about three weeks his hands and arms healed up. Mrs. Lizzie Vincent Thomas, Fairmont, Walden's Ridge Tenn., Oct. 13, 1905."

The Framingham (Man.) national bank has just received for redemption a note on the old Framingham bank, which was the predecessor of the present national bank. Starch, like everything else, is being constantly improved, the patent Starches put on the market 25 years ago are very different and inferior to those of the present day. In the latest discovery—Defiance Starch—all injurious chemicals are omitted, while the addition of another ingredient, invented by us, gives to the Starch a strength and smoothness never approached by other brands.

It is not those who read simply, but those who think, who become enlightened.—Secker.

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right Starch were used. In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trouble can be entirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes.

Time to Fly.

The trust magnate leaped up from the banquet table and made a dive for his 100-mile-an-hour automobile.

"Hold on!" cried the astonished toastmaster. "Won't you wait for us to serve the dessert?"

"No," replied the nervous magnate; "I just saw a suspicious face loom up at the window. The next thing served will be a process."

And telling his chauffeur to put on full speed the wealthy fugitive headed for the next state.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. A Base Insinuation.

"I hear the Neweds have had a dreadful quarrel and that the bride is talking of going home to her mother. What's the matter?"

"I believe one evening she got the supper from her cooking school recipes, and when the boys in the neighborhood lost their ball in a hole under the fence, Mr. Newed gave them one of her biscuits to finish the game."

Lots of people manage to keep the truth pretty busy with its struggles to rise.

which give you such exquisite suffering, every month, are caused, as you know, by female trouble.

STRIKE BREAKERS RICH

TWO MEN WHO HAVE MADE FORTUNE AT GAME.

"Jim" Farley Has Country Home and Wall Street Would Honor His Check for $100,000—Bowen Also Rolls in Wealth.

New York.—Strikebreaker "Jim" Farley has made his fortune and is paving the settled way for a life of ease. He is a horse lover and spends most of his time at his breeding farm at Plattsburg, N. Y., and makes occasional trips to Kentucky in search of fine stock. Farley is still a strikebreaker, but he has shifted the personally hazardous part of the business to the hands of trusted lieutenants. He is a sort of broad strategy ally by himself, is Farley, and he will probably be breaking strikes until he dies. Farley is rich enough to maintain a suite of rooms at the Hotel Astor, on upper Broadway, in addition to his country home at Plattsburg, N. Y. His check is good in Wall street any day in the week for $100,000. August Belmont is quoted as saying that Farley is a born soldier and capable of masterfully handling an army of 150,000 in the field of action.

JAMES FARLEY.

(Strike-Breaker Who Has Made a Fortune in the Business.)

Harry H. Bowen, strikebreaker, has made his thousands by fighting all over the country for corporations against unions. He served the Beef Trust in Chicago; his recent campaign against the warring longshoremen on the docks of New York netted him a tidy fortune. Bowen faced shots in the famous collar and cuff strike at Troy.

Like Farley, he has a beautiful country home. It is on the Jersey Highlands, and his city apartments on Central Park West are as luxuriously fitted out as those of a multi-millionaire. He owns tenement houses in New York and Brooklyn.

Farley and Bowen hold special insurance policies on their lives for $100,000 each.

Strike breaking has become to chiefs of corporations a recognized business and they are in constant touch with men like Farley and Bowen. Railroads, street car companies, machine works and institutions employing large bodies of workmen keep strike-breaker bosses on the pay-roll even in time of peace. The instant the suggestion of a strike is made the strike breaker boss is notified and sends his secret agents among the dissatisfied workmen. Then he begins to enlist men capable of working at this particular trade and holds them in readiness for a call. They are under pay while waiting orders.

The handling of strikes is not planned in the offices of the corporation. Farley and Bowen each have offices in big buildings on upper Broadway.

The profits of Farley and Bowen come mainly from the increased wage paid per man furnished to break the strike. For instance, when the subway tie-up began twenty months ago, the motorman's pay was $3.25 a day, and the guards and train hands got from $1.75 to $2.25 a day. While breaking the strike Farley received $5 a day for each man he furnished, in addition to $1,000 a day for personally supervising and commanding the strikebreaking force. He pays his men $2.50 a day. In less than twenty-four hours after the strike had been declared Farley had 500 men at work at an average pay of $5 a day.

A Wall street man whose insight into the workings of big railroads and car lines is unquestioned says Farley made $130,000 clear profit breaking the subway strike.

Farley got into the strike-breaking business in a peculiar way. He ran a small hotel at Plattsburg and while ill with typhoid fever he wandered off in a delirium and got rid of all his money. When he recovered he found himself in Brooklyn, broke, while the B. R. T. strike was on. He got a job as a motorman and that suggested his present occupation. He has since broken strikes in Chicago, Cincinnati, San Francisco, Waterbury and many other cities.

GIRL RIDES WITH DEAD LOVER.

Discovers Corpse, Gets in Buggy with Body and Drives Aimlessly.

Detroit, Mich.—Crazed at finding her fiance, George Ott, sitting dead in his buggy, a quarter of a mile from the depot where he was to have met her, Miss Rose Hogan was found driving aimlessly in the buggy beside the corpse a short distance from the Ott home at Indian Town. She is threatened with a complete nervous collapse.

Miss Hogan had gone to visit her sweetheart's parents. Ott had written that he would meet her at the depot with a carriage and drive her to his parents' home—several miles out. When she alighted at the station there was no carriage in sight, and, after waiting a few minutes, the girl started to walk in the direction of the Ott farm, hoping to meet him on the way.

Some distance down the road she found the carriage motionless, the horse quietly standing and the young man sitting back in the seat with the lines in his hands. She called to him, and receiving no answer, came close to the buggy. Then she discovered that he was dead and that blood had streamed down his face from a bullet wound in his head.

The girl climbed into the buggy beside the dead man, took the lines and started to drive to the Ott home with the lifeless form. On the way the situation temporarily unbalanced her mind and when found by a farmer near her journey's end she was nearly out of her mind.

Pigs' Tails as Barometers.

Milton, Del.—The secret of "Uncle Billy" Waring's ability to forecast the weather has leaked out. Recently he has been able with an exactitude not equaled by the best barometers to tell his neighbors 24 and sometimes 36 hours ahead what weather to expect. His predictions have been of great benefit to farmers. Now it is learned that he gets his tips from his two pigs. In dry weather the tails of the pigs have one curl, in wet weather two curls, and just before a rain their tails hang limp.

No Real Change.

Controller Metz of New York said the other day of a bill that he disliked:

"I object to this bill because it would accomplish nothing. It would make no real change. It would be like the case of the actor and the canal boat captain.

"There was once upon a time an actor who, after an enforced idleness of two months, was lucky enough to secure an engagement in a town twenty-five miles away.

"The case was a hurry-up one. The actor had to reach the distant town that night. If he failed to arrive, then his part would be assigned to some one else.

"Well, the man patched his worn boots with patent thread, pinned up his few belongings in a newspaper and set out in the early morning on foot along the tow-path. He had only a few coppers, hence the train was an impossibility.

"But after the poor fellow had covered some six or seven miles his boots gave out, blisters rose on his feet, fatigue overcame him and in despair he threw himself on the grass beneath a tree.

"As he lay there in a bitter mood, a canal boat hove in sight. It drew near slowly and an idea seized the actor.

"'Captain!' he shouted, rising hurriedly. 'Captain, pull up, for the love of heaven!'

"'Well, wot d'ye want?' said the captain, as he stopped the boat.

"'Captain,' said the actor, 'I have to get to Quag tonight to play second heavy in 'The Evil That Men Do.' I am footsore and weary and can walk no further. If you will assist me I will work my passage.'

"The captain gave the actor a kindly nod.

"'Right y'are,' he said. 'Lead the boss.'

It was Gracie's first funeral. "Uncle," she whispered hoarsely, "what's that funny thing done up in that funny looking package?" Uncle explained that it was her aunt.
