

for the benefit of deserving citizens of New Mexico who served during the late war in the army of the United States, have been passed through my efforts, together with a bill putting federal officers of New Mexico as well as Arizona, upon the same footing as those in the States. Besides these bills, which have actually passed at the present session, there is now upon the calendar of the house of representatives, with a favorable recommendation from the committee of coinage weights and measures, a bill introduced by me, and advocated by me before the committee to establish a United States assay office at Socorro, New Mexico, with every prospect of its passage before the close of the present session of congress. This will give long needed facilities to our important mining industries.

I refer to these measures in order to show the people of New Mexico that during the present congress I have been attentive to the interests confided to me. The people exhibited their appreciation of my record in the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth congresses, in which I secured appropriations for the federal building at Santa Fe and the Indian industrial school, as well as many other acts of legislation for New Mexico, by re-electing me to the present congress.

The right of the laboring classes to organize, for their own protection, I consider to be one of the inalienable rights of every citizen of the United States, and, in this connection, I desire to express my earnest condemnation of the effort of the republican party to identify a most useful and conservative labor organization in this territory, with crimes committed by lawless persons, seeking, in a misguided way, to redress wrongs, the existence of which is well known to all.

The Knights of Labor has ever been an organization devoted to the redress of grievances, by lawful means, and the effort of the republicans to bring that order into disrepute, in this territory, is in keeping with the record of that party as the enemy of labor.

There is and should be no conflict of interest between labor and capital, and any party which serves to engender antagonism between them is, in my judgement an enemy to both.

The rights of labor and of capital should be equally protected under the law and neither should be given preference over the other by legislation or otherwise, for the reason that the success of either interest depends upon the co-operation of the other.

I am not in favor of lawless methods of redressing grievances, as under our popular form of government constitutional methods afford a ready means for righting all wrongs from which the people suffer. The principles of home rule have been violated in the appointment of judges of our courts, while a partisan spirit has been bitterly displayed in the organization of juries and the abuse of judicial processes, leading me to fear that the republican ring methods of fifteen and twenty years ago are being renewed.

I congratulate the voters of New Mexico upon partial emancipation of silver, although the law recently passed is far short of what the democracy of the house insisted was due to the people of the country. The democratic party is committed to the great popular doctrine of free and unlimited coinage of silver, and it shall be my earnest effort if re-elected to the Fifty-second congress to make every possible exertion to secure the passage of such a bill, whereby the mines of New Mexico shall be stimulated to increased activity.

With a deep sense of appreciation of the honor conferred upon me by my re-nomination, I am,

Very respectfully yours,
ANTONIO JOSEPH.

The land grant barons framed the constitution so as to protect themselves. The miner and the cattle owner should vote against it for their own protection. The barons may be on the inside in the constitution framing part, but the people have the ballot with which to vote it down.

The power to levy an unlimited tax on every head of cattle is unnecessary and dangerous. The barons limited the tax on their land grants to one per cent. They didn't trust the legislature with power to levy an unlimited tax; cattle owners should follow their example. Vote against the constitution.

The constitution is so framed that a man cannot borrow any money on his homestead. No mechanic or material man can enforce a claim against it even for repairs. The owner can get no credit on the faith of a homestead property, and until he has ready cash he cannot even get his homestead repaired or improved, unless some mechanic is willing to trust solely to his promise to pay. The constitution will stand in the way of enterprise and improvement. Vote against it.

Territorial government is a temporary evil, but a state government under the present constitution will be a lasting one for ten years. No amendment can even be submitted to the vote of the people until it has first agreed to be a two-thirds vote of both houses of the legislature. Remember this.

You can never get a two-thirds majority in the legislature favoring an amendment which will in anywise diminish the power or advantages of the land grant barons after you have once voted to them the power which this constitution gives to them. Don't put the power in their hands. Make them give you the amendments first. Vote against the constitution.

The miners should vote against the constitution. It discriminates against them, and specially singles them out for a very unjust burden, namely: it provides that mining claims before patent "shall" be taxed "upon the gross output." The poor miner may struggle on for years in hard luck, hard work and hard diet. Every dollar that he can make goes into dead work and development, but no account is to be taken of this; he is one of the land grant barons. He must pay taxes on the "gross output," and every ton of ore he can dig out must pay something to relieve the Pereas, the Oteros, the Catrons and the Elkinses of their share of the cost of statehood.

The repeal of the Alien Act would be of great benefit. But a tax on the gross output of mines would drive out every mining enterprise, except those which yield rich profits from the grassroots. Claims of this kind are sometimes found after years of privation and hard work by the prospector.

If you believe there should be equality in taxation vote against the constitution.

A vote for the constitution is a vote to swell the power of the ring which has ruled New Mexico for twenty-five years.

Miners may be too poor to leave their diggings in the hills to meet the barons at Santa Fe, but they will meet them at the polls.

If Catron was not willing to trust the legislature with the right to tax his large tracts of unimproved lands at a higher rate than 1 per cent., then why should cattlemen trust the legislature with the right to levy an unlimited tax on every head of their cattle?

The barons limited the tax on their lands to one percent., and took care to secure a fighting chance even there; for they may be relieved of even that tax, as it may be "levied upon such property as the legislature may prescribe," and the barons generally have some influence in the legislature.

If the mining industry is driven out by a tax on the gross output, of what use will the repeal of the Alien Act be to the mining industry?

CONSTITUTION AND THE MINING INDUSTRY.

The Constitution provides:

"Mining claims before patent shall be taxed only upon the gross output in a manner to be prescribed by law."

The proposed Constitution provides that general property shall not be assessed at a rate exceeding 1 per centum on the assessed value thereof.

There is no limit or restriction upon the rate of taxation upon the struggling miners' output. After months or years of privation and struggle, as soon as he begins to get any return from his mine, he is at once met by the tax gatherers. The advocates of the Constitution pretend to be great friends of the miner. An inspection of the constitution shows that this is one of the few industries singled out for special taxation. An unpatented mine cannot be taxed because it belongs to the United States, but the Constitution proposes, immediately upon admission, to tax the first ton of ore taken out of it. It may be that the miner has spent all he could rake and scrape together or borrow, and has even gone hungry to do development work that was absolutely unremunerative, yet all this is not to be taken into consideration. He has no exemption from taxation for all this—no credits with the tax gatherer. He must commence to pay taxes on the first ton of ore he ships, "in a manner to be prescribed by law."

The land grant owner—the owner of general property—is protected against more than 1 per centum taxation. The miner has no protection. This is a singular way to encourage mining.

Miners, vote against the Constitution, and let us have another convention, in which the miners may have some friends.—Headlight.

The chairman of the republican legislative committee, Wingfield Cobean, register of the land office at Roswell, has been officially notified by both C. B. Eddy and T. C. Tillitson, candidates for the legislature, that they positively resign and will not make the race. This places the G. O. P. in Lincoln county in a predicament—their ticket as it now stands lacks five candidates. An element of the party propose at the coming session of Court to fill all vacancies. They will nominate a G. O. P. man for Sheriff, Supt. of Schools and another Commissioner, and hunt up two G. O. P. men for the legislature. How they propose to conciliate the element, who have acted heretofore and conducted affairs, we are not informed. The situation is becoming very interesting, and the whole slate is destined to be smashed in the house of the G. O. P. As the election approaches their situation is daily becoming more desperate. It is conceded by all hands that the democrats will elect by big majorities, every candidate on their ticket.

C. B. Eddy in company with Tom Tillitson, Dr. Lane and others observe the "hand writing on the wall," and refuse to be slaughtered. The time has not arrived for the republicans in Lincoln, Chaves and Eddy counties to dominate affairs. Discretion is the better part of valor and a large element of the G. O. P. in these counties are aware of the fact that the ring who are endeavoring to manipulate the affairs of the republican party, have no following outside of Dona Ana county politicians, who endeavored to intermeddle with the political affairs of these counties. The people are giving notice to Rynerson, Riley & Co. to keep hands off this fall. This coterie have created some following which will endeavor to run the machine, which fortunately, has met with opposition in the ranks of the G. O. P.

The Railroad talk of the week is encouraging. From private advices we learn that Receiver Davis, of the White Oaks R. R., is at present in New York formulating plans for the sale and the resumption of work upon the line. Morris R. Locke & Co. on Monday last were refused an extension of time in which to procure the necessary aid to resume work. The creditors are anxious to close up the affairs of the Company, which will be done by private sale. The Receiver is conducting the business at the present time in New York. El Paso parties predict a renewal of work at once—any day is liable to bring forth the particulars which will be given to our readers. Look out for definite news next week. The El Paso people, through its leading men, are taking an active interest, and representatives will be in White Oaks in a few weeks or days.

LINCOLN, N. M.

September 26th, '90.

EDITOR INTERPRETER:

Under the proposed constitution, tax on land is limited to one per centum, or one dollar on the hundred.

A state government will, of necessity, increase our present rate of taxation.

Our rate in Lincoln county, this year, is one dollar and seventy-six cents on the hundred dollars.

Why, under the proposed constitution, should a poor man be taxed one dollar and seventy-six cents on the hundred dollars, and the Maxwell Land Grant Company pay only one dollar on the hundred?

W. S. RYAN.

If the constitution should be voted down, the way will be clear to the passage of an Enabling Act by Congress, under which all the people can join in the election of a constitutional convention, for the preparation of a constitution by duly chosen and accredited representatives of all the interests of the Territory, and the admission of New Mexico assured during the first session of the next Congress.

If the result should by any mischance be otherwise, admission will thereby be indefinitely delayed, and the progress and development of the Territory, and all its interests, correspondingly embarrassed, for this constitution will never be ratified, at least in its present shape, by Congress. It has been, and will continue to be, if adopted, a bar to admission.

It therefore behooves every friend of New Mexico to work, actively and earnestly, from now till the polls close on Tuesday the 7th inst., for the pronounced defeat of that instrument.

The three months soldier editor of the White Oaks Leader, who never heard the crack of a rebel rifle, or saw a battle field outside of the recruiting camp in Illinois, is indignant because the Democratic Convention declined to use the American flag as a party emblem. Of course. Many of the gentlemen of that convention who protested against such use of that flag had borne it and fought for it in the blaze of battle. The Leader man never did.—Headlight.

VOTERS OF NEW MEXICO!

The new election law passed at the 29th session of the Legislature is now in force, and the election on the constitution, on Oct. 7th, will be held under that law. See that the tickets and all other regulations thereby established, conform to the requirements of that law. Especially see that every voter goes to the ballot box alone, unattended and uninterfered with by bummers and strikers in the interest of any clique, ring or party. Let a full, fair and free vote be polled. With that there will be an honest election and an honest expression of the public will. The Constitution will be overwhelmingly voted down and New Mexico forever freed from the rule of the land grant rings, the robbers of the treasury rings and all that gang of tricksters and cormorants that for a quarter of a century have ruled and robbed the people of this Territory.—Headlight.

The Grand rally of the republicans in honor of Mariano S. Otero, their nominee for Congress, which was extensively advertised, to be held Saturday evening, was the most complete failure of the season. A few democrats and republicans met—all told about 15 in the audience. The speakers, Col. Heman and Capt. E. McB. Timoney, held forth very much embarrassed and crestfallen at the desertion of their party friends. Had it not been for the democrats, there would have occurred a flat failure. Otero will need a microscope to find where his vote is on election day; and the constitution will go a glimmering. The advocates of the measure have utterly failed here in White Oaks. The people are not fooled by the Statehood cry to carry an obnoxious and worthless Constitution.

A Dangerous Joke to Print.

To the Editors of the Silver City Enterprise:

It is rumored here that my old jail acquaintance—Sheriff Whitehill, skipped his bonds, and is now in our Sierra Capital cording wood to meet the exigencies of another term of office.

Was the governor induced to offer a reward for the woody sheriff's arrest? If so, is the amount and heft equal in volume and specific gravity to that of the criminal? Respectfully,

M. CRONIN.

The republicans are mentioning the name of Gus Schinzing as a candidate on the re-constructed G. O. P. ticket. Gus is too good a man to be slaughtered; especially at this late date.

Bills have passed both Houses of Congress granting pensions of $2,000 a year to the widows of Gens. Fremont, McClellan and Crook.—Washington Correspondent.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, has been used by mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Deputy Sheriff Langston, of Lincoln county, was in the city Saturday on the trail of horse thieves who have been operating in the White Oaks country. The horses were stolen on the night of the 17th from Capt. Kempton, of White Oaks, and it is supposed that the thieves are Mexicans. Deputy Sheriff Langston has a clue to the whereabouts of the perpetrators and intends to follow them.—Albuquerque Democrat.

Dr. A. G. Lane, of San Pedro, formerly of White Oaks, is in town preparing to perform assessment work on some valuable mineral claims, in which he is interested, on Lone and Baxter mountains. The doctor is as energetic as ever and has unbounded faith in the future of White Oaks.

The United States District Court is now in session at Las Cruces, has appointed D. J. M. A. Jewett, of White Oaks, a United States Commissioner in 3d Judicial District. Thus, at last, the republicans of White Oaks are recognized.

S. S. Terrell, of Lincoln, passed through White Oaks a few days ago, returning from an extended wedding trip through California, Oregon, Washington, Utah and other states west. Sam is enthusiastic about Salt Lake City and predicts a great future for that city. Mrs. Terrell is at home in Texas at present. Sam is not decided as to where he will locate in the future, but will close up his affairs in Lincoln county as quickly as possible. He contemplates a removal in the near future.

The Academy is flourishing; the attendance is increasing, and the scholars are taking renewed interest in all the classes. These results are the direct result of the able management of the teacher, Miss Abby F. Hull. Our citizens cannot help but feel proud of the academy, and the general success of the scholars and teacher.

Our village school commenced on Wednesday with an attendance of 34 pupils, under the management of Miss Annie F. McGrew. The Steubenville (Ohio) Herald of the 19th ult. has the following local notice of our new teacher:

"Miss Annie F. McGrew, daughter of Anderson McGrew, of Smithfield, a resident of Jefferson county for many years and a highly respected citizen, will leave in a few days for White Oaks, New Mexico, where she has accepted the position as teacher of the White Oaks public school. Miss McGrew has a large number of friends who commend her many lady-like virtues, and beards of education and patrons of schools where she has taught speak highly of her capability and success in the school room."

White Oaks is ahead of any town in the territory for school facilities, all of which can be attributed to the public spirit of her citizens, who realize the great importance of good schools. We cannot close this article without a word of praise to Messrs. Ridgeway and Comry, the directors in this school district, for their untiring efforts and self sacrifice in behalf of the village school, and to the New West Education Commission, for their aid to the academy. They are doing a vast amount of good, not only in White Oaks but throughout the territory.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

J. W. Thompson, of Red Cloud, will, on or about the 15th of October, depart with his family for Salt Lake City. Mr. Thompson is an old railroad man, having followed the business of bridge building for years; was in the employ of one company 14 years. During his residence in Lincoln county, was among the foremost citizens; has a fine cattle ranch in company with Young & Taliaferro, who will continue the business. He leaves here two married daughters, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Taliaferro. The many friends regret the departure of the family. Mr. Thompson intends to engage in his former occupation.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

We, the Democratic party of the Territory of New Mexico, in convention assembled, reaffirm our allegiance to the time-honored principles of the National Democratic party as enunciated in the platform adopted at St. Louis in 1888.

We demand the free coinage of silver.

We arraign the National Republican party for squandering the surplus revenues in the treasury in order to furnish a pretext for increasing tariff taxation on the necessities of life—for depriving Democratic constituencies of their representatives in Congress and arbitrarily seating republican candidates who were not elected by the people—for adopting an arbitrary and unconstitutional system of rules in the House of Representatives and thereby suppressing the rights of the minority—and for attempting to pass the Lodge election bill to suppress free elections and subvert the rights of the states, in utter disregard of the Constitution of the United States—and practically for having awarded seats in the Senate of the United States to two Senators from the state of Montana, who were not lawfully elected thereto.

As heretofore, we reiterate, that the General Government has been and still is, heedless of the rights of New Mexico and its obligations under the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, in failing and refusing to pass such a law as will secure the prompt and speedy settlement of land titles in New Mexico.

We declare that the native population of New Mexico are entitled to the lands held by them or their predecessors under the laws of the Republic of Mexico, and that their rights thereto should be respected.

We endorse the course of Hon. Antonio Joseph, our delegate in Congress as a zealous and faithful public servant, at all times tireless in his efforts in behalf of the people of New Mexico, and heartily commend him for re-election.

We denounce the action of L. Bradford Prince Governor of New Mexico in requesting the quartering of United States troops in the county of San Miguel to overawe the people under the pretext of resistance to the civil authority when no process was in the hands of the officers of the law unreserved, as in keeping with the spirit of contempt for the civil authorities usually reserved by the Republican party.

We arraign the Republican party of New Mexico for reckless disregard of the will of the people and turning out of the last Legislature duly elected representatives in order to secure a majority sufficient to pass iniquitous measures over the executive veto.

We arraign them for passing a libel law contrary to the spirit of the age—in order to suppress free speech and a free press; for the passage of a change of venue law in the interests of a single corporation and thereby so increasing the cost and delay of litigation as to amount to a denial of justice; for passing a law changing the practice in taking appeals to the Supreme Court, applicable only to a limited number of cases in which Republican members of the Legislature were either parties or attorneys; for assuming the powers of the Territorial Executive in order to place in office incompetent and corrupt party favorites; for passing a law authorizing the competition of convict with honest labor; and for passing many other outrageous laws subversive of the rights of the people.

We condemn them for failing and refusing to enact such legislation as would secure to the Territory an efficient public school system, and for a manifestation of general hostility to public education, as shown by their defeat of the effort to establish such a system by the last Legislative Assembly, as well as their denunciation of the Perkins bill for the reason that such a system for the education of children of the masses would require the taxation of large land grants.

We condemn the Republican party of New Mexico for placing the management of the Penitentiary in the hands of a Board composed of perpetual incumbents of public office, which Board, in defiance of public opinion, has given employment almost wholly to relatives of the members thereof, and turned what was intended to be a reformatory institution into a house of debauchery.

We denounce the prostitution of the Courts by packing juries to secure wholesale indictments for crime against innocent persons as a means of intimidation for political purposes, and as a further means of rewarding a horde of party strikers who are kept in attendance on Courts as witnesses, term after term, while refusing the accused the speedy trial guaranteed by the law of the land.

We declare ourselves in favor of the unqualified repeal of the Act of Congress of 1884 restricting entries on the public lands, and thereby retarding the progress of the Territory; and of the repeal of the law prohibiting the investment of foreign capital in our mining industries.

We condemn the Republican party for passing such an act, authorizing the holding of a Constitutional Convention, as deprived the Democratic counties of the territory of any opportunity to secure a fair or equal representation in said Convention, and of attempting to foist upon the people a Constitution framed in the interest of that party alone, and discriminating in favor of the few as against the masses.

We declare that the Constitution so framed would, if adopted, deprive the people of the State of the right to elect the judges of the Supreme Court, while providing for the election of the judges of the District Courts by districts so constituted as to render such right valueless. We further declare that said constitution denies to the Executive the power usually conferred by such instruments, and makes him the mere puppet of the Legislature by subjecting him to suspension from office upon impeachment without trial. We further declare that said constitution so limits the power of taxation upon personal property as to enable all large property interests of individuals and corporations to escape the just burdens of the government, and inequitably and unjustly authorizes the same to be imposed upon particular articles and occupations.

We further declare that this proposed system of taxation will not produce, by property tax, sufficient revenue to support a State government and meet the public obligations, thereby rendering it absolutely necessary to impose a tax upon particular articles and occupations, thus making the masses pay for the benefits of the government received by the property of the few.

We further declare that said Constitution makes such an arbitrary and partial apportionment for the election of members of the Legislature as to virtually disfranchise opponents of the Republican party. We further declare that the action of pretended apportionment, on the 18th day of August, 1890, was taken without color of legal authority and without the presence of a quorum of said original Convention, and that the manifest object of change in the date of the submission of said instrument to the purpose of defeating a full and fair expression of the popular will thereon.

We therefore call upon all patriotic citizens of New Mexico to go to the polls on October 7th next, and vote against the proposed partisan Constitution, to the end that all advocates of Statehood for New Mexico may without regard to present or future party affiliation unite in an honest effort to secure from Congress an Enabling Act, for the submission of a fair and just Constitution.

ANNEXATION OF MEXICO.

The Democrat of Grand Rapids, Mich., says:

"I predict that ere this present generation has passed the republic of Mexico will be no more." It was by John P. Allen, who for the past ten years has been engaged in business in the City of Mexico, that this remarkable declaration was made in the rotunda of the Palmer house. In explanation he added: "I mean that by that time Mexico will be annexed to the United States. President Diaz will have no successor. I do not mean that annexation will come before the expiration of his present term, but before he finishes the next or at the latest, the succeeding term to the next. He is a most wonderful man, and much more American than Mexican. His ideas are American, and he is fashioning his government as nearly on the plane of this government as it is possible for him to do. He is fostering with sedulous care the relations between the two republics, and through the action of Secretary Windom in prohibiting the importation of silver-lead ore into this country from Mexico was a serious disappointment to President Diaz as well as cause for self congratulation by England; he believes that Windom's order will be before long set aside. Diaz, of course is not alone in advancing the idea of annexation; he has a powerful aid in advanced Mexicans who see that greater benefits are to be derived from a union than remaining alone.

Moreover, quite as potent a force as the enormous amount of American capital in Mexico. The amount is rapidly increasing, too, and exercises an influence in behalf of annexation, which, together with the desires of Diaz, will be, before the generation ends, impossible to resist. There is not much being said openly about annexation at present. The republic of Mexico is not yet ready for it, and an agitation sprung now would but defeat its own ends. But in the higher circles of Mexican politics one hears it mentioned with a constantly growing frequency, and before long it will become the theme of common talk."

The New York Ledger for October 4 is a mine of interesting fact and fiction regarding the South, both the New South and the Old. It leads off with a brilliant character sketch of Henry W. Grady journalist orator and patriot, written by Oliver Dyer, in which the effect on the New South of Grady's life-work is luminously explained. A crisp editorial on "The Marvelous Revival of Prosperity in the South" tells its own tale. The Old South is pictured in the opening installments of a Kentucky war story entitled "Reunited," the pen-product of a distinguished Southern officer. In "For Isobel," Maurice Thompson gives a vignette of ante-bellum life in Louisiana. James Parton tells the story of Caesar Rodney of Delaware. An illustrated ballad by Thomas Dunn English and a story by Mrs. Amelia E. Barr are published in the same number.

LEAD POISON CURED.

I am a painter by trade. Three years ago I had a bad case of Lead Poison, caused by using rubber paint. I was cured in a short time by S. S. S. The medicine drove the poison out through the pores of the skin. When I first commenced taking S. S. S., my system was so saturated with poison that my underclothes were colored by the paint being worked out by the medicine through the pores of my skin. I was cured entirely by S. S. S. I took nothing else, and had no return since.

Mr. LEE. "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

Mrs. LEE. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen, and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."

Mr. LEE. "What is that?"

Mrs. LEE. "Well, she gets all her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation; but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamma goes over to the Allens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

Mr. LEE. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."

Mrs. LEE. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 30 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $3.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."
