$300 REWARD

FOR ORE THIEVES!

The common experience of this camp shows that much is lost by the mine operators by the stealing of gold in specimens, if not in amalgam and bullion. Therefore the "Old Abe" Co. offers a standing reward of Three Hundred Dollars for the arrest and conviction, or for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of stealing any of the property of the Old Abe Co., even the smallest specimen of ore. The rule of this company is to mill all specimens. Therefore none of the ore from this mine can be honestly held as specimens. And as the receiver, with guilty knowledge, is as guilty in law as the thief, this offer applies to the holders of Old Abe specimens.

U. Ozanne is about to make a change in the stage route from White Oaks to the railroad. Instead of crossing the Malpais, he will go above it, by a much better road and lessening the distance by twelve miles. It is impossible to make a good road across the malpais, and those who often have to make the trip from here to the railroad will be glad to save a walk of a mile across the hot lava bed.

A DANGEROUS PERIOD.

As the season moves swiftly toward the lines that lie between winter and spring, it frequently happens that the human system, which has borne the strain of winter, shows signs of relaxation. A course of the great blood purifier and tonic S. S. S., will enable the most delicate to face the season's changes with impunity. It is a medicine that not only strengthens the weak and the delicate, but is an additional safeguard for those who consider themselves strong

"Lay on Macduff" cried on Macbeth,
 When he was nearly scared to death. A farmer named his hen Macduff, Because she didn't lay enough, And now fresh eggs come every day,

For he commands Macduff to lay. And though he's long had eggs enough,
 He still sings out "lay on Macduff."

The farmers who have hens that lay
 Fresh eggs, if they would make it pay,
 Should when they sell them straight-way go
 And buy of Young & Taliaferro,
 Dry Goods and Clothing, Boots and Shoes,
 At price others would refuse.
 But, prices or no price, goods must go
 This month at Young and Taliaferro.

COMMUNICATED.

The good people of White Oaks will please take notice that the children of the W. O. Cong. Sunday School have taken upon themselves the useful and pleasurable task of trying to earn the funds necessary to pay the freight upon their library, which is now en route. Please make the task as easy as possible by your patronage of their efforts as they may make them known to you. It is our duty to help the children, especially in so laudable and beneficial a matter as this.

Next Saturday, "Saratoga Chips" and home-made candies of different kinds will be placed for sale in the stores of Young & Taliaferro, Brown & Uebriek, L. W. Stewart and A. Ridgeway, by some of the older scholars and teachers.

Stewart of White Oaks.

There should be some arrangement made in White Oaks, by which a collection of ores from the mines in this vicinity may be exhibited at the Territorial Fair at Albuquerque. Special care will be taken to exhibit such collections, and each county in the Territory is requested to send one.

Just now, while the Old Abe and Lady Godiva mines are attracting so much attention, and while White Oaks is working for a railroad, is a good time to show the resources of Lincoln county, and this opportunity ought not to be neglected. In another column of this paper is the offer made by the managers of the Fair to those who wish to make such exhibits.

Mrs. Lloyd, from Three Rivers, and Miss May Goodin, were in town from Saturday till Monday, the guests of Mrs. J. O. Nabours.

PERFECTLY WELL.

Miss K. Finnigan writes: My mother and sister used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for neuralgia. They are both perfectly well now and never tired praising the Tonic.

SEVERAL CASES CURED.
Pittsburg, Pa., May, 1889.
The well-known Rev. Pastor A. J. Z., who will readily give his name on request, writes me: An orphan under my care suffered from epilepsy for four years, which had advanced very far, but three bottles of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic cured him entirely.
Another boy suffered from cramps to such a degree, that he became violent at times and endangered his own life. Treatment in several hospitals by competent physicians gave only temporary relief, but after using several bottles of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic he was cured entirely, and has been well and healthy ever since.

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.
This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1874, and is now prepared under his direction by the

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

$300 REWARD FOR ORE THIEVES!

The common experience of this camp shows that much is lost by the mine operators by the stealing of gold in specimens, if not in amalgam and bullion. Therefore the "Old Abe" Co. offers a standing reward of Three Hundred Dollars for the arrest and conviction, or for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of stealing any of the property of the Old Abe Co., even the smallest specimen of ore. The rule of this company is to mill all specimens. Therefore none of the ore from this mine can be honestly held as specimens. And as the receiver, with guilty knowledge, is as guilty in law as the thief, this offer applies to the holders of Old Abe specimens.

Mr. LEE. "Why, Addie, you couldn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."
Mrs. LEE. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen—and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."
Mr. LEE. "What is that?"
Mrs. LEE. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation, but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information." She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamma goes over to the Allens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"
Mr. LEE. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."
Mrs. LEE. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 30 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $3.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

MANY MEN FIND THAT

Storms, snows, drenching rains, and furious winds are a part of the regular routine of life. Two-thirds of the sickness through life is caused by colds; you cannot be too well protected in stormy weather to avoid them. A man having a "Fish Brand Slicker" may be exposed to a storm for twenty-four hours at a stretch, and still be protected from every drop of rain, besides being shielded from the biting winds. No matter what your occupation, if you are liable to be caught in a rain or snow storm, you should have on hand a "Fish Brand Slicker." It will surely save your health, and perhaps your life. Beware of worthless imitations, every garment stamped with the "Fish Brand" Trade Mark. Don't accept any inferior coat when you can have the "Fish Brand Slicker" delivered without extra cost. Particulars and illustrated catalogue free.

Mr. Lee: "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

Mrs. Lee: "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen, and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."

Mr. Lee: "What is that?"

Mrs. Lee: "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation, but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping, and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamma goes over to the Allens, she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

Mr. Lee: "Oh, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."

Mrs. Lee: "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, is East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size, which alone makes each copy worth 30 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $1.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."
