A LOST RIVER.

According to the Los Angeles Herald the Southern Pacific railroad company has lost a river, and in consequence has a bridge whose occupation is gone. The Whitewater river has flowed from the Sierra Madre mountains across the sands of the region just this side of Seven Palms as long as any one can remember. The station of Whitewater was located where the railway crosses the river and was supplied with water from its current. During the last heavy rains the Whitewater rose in its might and devastated the whole country round about, washing out the bridge and the roadbed, and playing the mischief generally. Soon the rains and the river stopped simultaneously, and the river has not been found since. It appeared to become ashamed of itself for doing so much harm, and has apparently slunk away in disgust and sorrow. It is entirely gone. At no point does it cross the railroad, as it would have to do were it still in existence in some new course. The railroad company in order to secure water for its station at Whitewater, has been obliged to build a pipe line way up to the mountains at considerable expense. All last summer, during the hottest, driest weather, the river ran placidly along—in fact, it has never failed until after its "jag" of this winter. Now it forms one of the mysteries of that mysterious region, the Colorado river desert, and perhaps is flowing by the Pegleg mine, and possibly rippling beside the treasure-laden Spanish galleon which lies somewhere in that region buried in sand.

The other day a farmer came into Wetmore, Kas., with seven twigs of different lengths in his pockets to buy shoes for the family. The measures ranged all the way from three to fourteen inches.

The Force Bill Next Year.

It is not surprising that the Massachusetts Republicans should use their platform to attempt to make the Force bill an issue in 1892. To the Massachusetts Republican, anything that will distract attention from the tariff issue is "good politics," and in applying this rule they denounce the coinage of silver in the same breath in which they demand the Force bill. The Republican party might be glad enough to let the Force bill alone, but if this is true, it is equally true that at least seven Republicans in every ten would have been glad had the McKinley bill lowered the average rate of tariff taxes on manufactured goods 10 per cent. instead of raising it 10 per cent. But the majority does not rule in the Republican party and it never did. The party was created for New England, by New England, and New England has always dominated it completely. If the capitalists of New England determine that the Force bill must be a Republican issue in 1892 it will be.

An Illinois man who is journeying through the west and who has stopped over in Albuquerque to see what New Mexico can do in the way of a fair, said yesterday that it was a pity that 100,000 people in the east could not know of and see the grand exhibit of fruits and grains in Exposition Hall. "It is worth coming from Illinois to see it," he enthusiastically exclaimed, and he is right. There are states in the Union that can make more elaborate displays and more extensive, but no state can show finer fruits or grains and few such mammoth vegetables or deliciously-flavored grapes, peaches and piums.—Alb. Dem.

The faith which The World has felt from the first in the determination and capacity of Chicago to conquer all difficulties incident to the World's Fair undertaking is justified by the present condition of things.

Pestilent persons have made trouble from time to time, but they have been suppressed. Petty jealousies have vexed the management, but the causes of that trouble have been eliminated. Mean-while the wiser heads have been carrying forward the real work, and their success is now most gratifying.

The voluntary subscriptions have been so far paid up as to entitle the management to the $5,000,000 of city bonds authorized to be issued when $3,000,000 of subscriptions should be paid in. That sum total is nearly reached and will be completed within a day or two.

The representatives of the Fair who have returned from Europe bring back most reassuring tidings enthusiastic interest there, and in Chicago itself the building and other preparations are going forward with gratifying rapidity.

The success of the Fair is assured, and Chicago has nobly done her part towards making it so. The rest of the country has been less alert. It is time for every State and community and every enterprise to wake up and set about helping to make the Fair a crown of glory to American push and energy, a fit monument of our advance in civilization.—N. Y. W.

An Englishman speaking on the difference between his countrymen and Americans says you must come to this continent to find the go-ahead man of the age. Englishmen hate to move out of the rut their grandfathers traveled in and the strange there has an uphill task to make many friends. On the other hand Americans readily adopt any course that leads direct to the aim in view—commensurate with safety and good judgment—and is ever willing to extend the hand of friendship to those who show by their conduct that they are not afraid of soiling their hands by the work that God has ordained for man.

The Albuquerque Citizen of the 15th says: "The New Mexico territorial fair which opened here yesterday is the best exhibition of the resources and products of this country that has ever been held in the southwest. The exhibit of fruits, grain and vegetables is perfectly magnificent.

Of course, there are many districts which can put on exhibition greater quantities of fruit and a greater variety, but when it comes to the matter of quality the fruits of New Mexico, and especially of the Rio Grande valley, are not surpassed by those produced in any other part of the country. The almost perpetual sunshine which prevails here gives a flavor to the fruit raised in this section such as is not met with anywhere else, and since it is quality, rather than size or quantity that constitutes the real test of merit, quality is the feature to be desired, and that is what is claimed for the fruits of New Mexico.

This is the first fair ever held in New Mexico that might properly be called territorial in its character. All former fairs have been made up largely of the products of Bernalillo county. But this is the fair of the whole territory, to all intents and purposes, nearly all the agricultural and horticultural counties are represented by displays gathered and exhibited by commissioners appointed by the counties for the purpose, and they give the visitor an opportunity to examine the best products of every portion of the territory.

The mineral exhibit is equally complete and comprehensive, and constitutes the best display of the mineral resources of New Mexico that has ever been made. In this regard, however, it is not confined to this territory but includes exhibits from all the finest producing districts in Arizona.

A person coming from any part of the country east of the Missouri river, would find in the fruits, vegetables and minerals now on exhibition here, a new revelation in regard to the advantages and resources of the southwestern country, and one of the most valuable immigration agencies that it would be possible for us to secure would be to get up such an exhibit as this and send it around to fairs in the older states. There is no other way in which we can so thoroughly convince a man of the producing power of New Mexico as to show him the products themselves."

If the Republican State ticket in Pennsylvania is to receive crushing defeat in the coming election it will be because it is felt by the best men of the party, represented by the Public Ledger, of Philadelphia, that it is necessary to give a death-blow to the "spoils" system and to shake off the clutch of such men as Senator Quay. It is felt that this is the best time for the party to treat itself to such a "shake" as this.—Portland Transcript.

There was important news from the Dardanelles on Monday, 14th. A squadron of thirteen British men-of-war landed troops and guns upon the island of Mitylene, taking possession in the Queen's name of a spot of considerable strategic importance. This is regarded as a prompt response to the threatening attitude of Russia which has carried its point of opening the passage to the Black sea for its men-of-war. Great excitement and decided uneasiness are reported in diplomatic and financial circles at all the European capitals. The general feeling is that a Russian attempt to occupy Constantinople will precipitate a war in which all Europe will be engaged.—Portland Transcript.

From New Mexican, 18th.

The Albuquerque Railroad Convention.

The convention of citizens of Colorado and New Mexico, in session at Albuquerque for the purpose of bringing about an important improvement of railway facilities in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas, concluded its first meeting last night. A permanent organization was effected with Hon. T. M. Patterson, of Denver, as president, and Mr. Solon E. Rose, of Albuquerque, as secretary. Resolutions were adopted setting forth that the undeveloped resources of Colorado, New Mexico and Texas, and the necessity of reaching tide water, require the construction of additional routes of railway throughout these states and territory.

A general committee on promotion was appointed as follows: Juan B. Hart, El Paso; T. W. Herman, White Oaks; H. B. Fergusson, Albuquerque; William Burns, Sierra county; R. Y. Anderson, San Pedro; E. L. Bartlett, Santa Fe; J. S. Sniffin, Socorro; A. M. Berger, Los Lunas; T. M. Patterson, Denver.

A committee to gather statistics showing the traffic along the route of the projected lines was named as follows: J. A. Smith, El Paso; H. R. Whiting, Alb.; W. S. Burk, Alb.; L. Huning, Los Lunas; A. G. Lane, San Pedro; W. C. Rogers, Cerrillos; B. M. Thomas, Santa Fe; E. V. Claves, Socorro; J. Carrera, White Oaks; T. M. Patterson, Denver.

This committee was directed to report to meeting of the committee on promotion to be held at Albuquerque November 20th.

To-day, according to telegraphic advices to the New Mexican, the general committee met at the San Felipe hotel and organized by the election of Hon. T. M. Patterson, of Denver, president, Hon. H. B. Fergusson, of Albuquerque, vice president and Gen. E. L. Bartlett, of Santa Fe, secretary. The committee also named working committee at various points interested in the new roads.

The dispatch also says:

"Hon. T. M. Patterson has a telegram from Denver saying there is no truth in reported traffic agreement between the D. & R. G. and A., T & S. F. roads."

A preacher recently said that a newspaper that told the truth, and the whole truth, couldn't be a pecuniary success, and he was eminently correct. The minister who will at all times and under any circumstances tell the whole truth about his members, alive or dead, might not occupy the pulpit more than one Sunday, and in some cases might find it convenient to leave town. The press and the pulpit go hand in hand with the whitewash brush and pleasant words, magnifying little virtues into big ones. The pulpit, the press and the gravestone are the great saint making triumvirate.—Ex.

No exhibit of Lincoln county products was made at the territorial fair. Cause—expense of transportation.

Mr. Rogers, of this place, intends to soon return to his home in Texas.

So many years have passed over our head and we have seen so great a variety of absurdities committed by our fellow-creatures, that we are seldom surprised at any sort of vagary, and we were neither astonished nor shocked when, on opening the Leader, last week, we read an article with the caption, "An Uncalled-for Insult," over the signature "X." No person whose head is set squarely on her shoulders can so mistake the meaning of the first sentence of an item in the Interpreter of the week before, in relation to Mrs. Amy A. Parker, of Roswell. There was no slur expressed or implied on the business in which Mrs. Parker was engaged—that of selling watermelons. We have always held that women have the same right as men to choose the occupation by which they earn their bread, whether at selling watermelons, making bread, driving stage, practising law, or teaching high decorative art and the making of crazy patchwork. The question is, or should be, is the work done honestly and well and "does it pay?" As for the gentility of selling watermelons as compared with that of "selling a loaf of bread," we really know nothing. "Genteel" is a word not found in our vocabulary; we leave its use to dudes and prigs of the "prunes and prisms" order.

"X" takes the lady who informed us that Mrs. Parker had applied to the W. R. C. for assistance, severely to task for her lack of "charity." If the Corps could not help Mrs. P., it is hard to see what objection there could be to making her needs known to others, especially as she did not hesitate to tell the story of her destitution. We know little of the rules and regulations of the W. R. C., but it is evident that so long as "X" is stationed at her post on the watch-tower, no member will be allowed to stray beyond the bounds set for her without hearing of it, all for the sake of sweet "charity." It does seem a little strange, however, to the uninitiated, that a soldier's widow so reliable, so worthy in every way as "X" represents Mrs. Parker to be, should not, in the desperate straits in which she finds herself, meet with some consideration from an organization which is generally supposed to exist purposely to meet such cases. It would seem that a little of the other kind of "charity" which does not "suffer long" might serve as well.

"Flippant" and "coarse"—well, now that we know "X"'s opinion of us we can only deplore the innate depravity and hardness of heart which prevents us from feeling properly crushed.

"Even editors have been known to fall victims to the blight of insanity." "X" is married to an editor; she may have good grounds for that opinion.

A newspaper article is public property and is subject to criticism; but such criticism comes with a better grace from the patrons of a paper than from one who is not even a subscriber. Let those who pay for the paper do the fault-finding. We do not consider ourself a subject for missionary work or advice; and from the efforts of professional reformers who believe themselves born to set everybody else right, we beg to be delivered.

The El Paso Convention.

From the El Paso Times, of the 22d, we learn that the railroad convention organized on the afternoon of the 21st, with Oliver S. Houghton, of Las Vegas, temporary chairman, Committees were appointed, and the report of the committee on permanent organization recommended that Hon. T. M. Patterson, of Denver, be selected as chairman, that Jefferson Reynolds of Las Vegas, J. Y. Hewitt of White Oaks, T. C. Ford of Trinidad, E. B. Bronson of El Paso and Anthony Joseph, at large, be elected vice-presidents and T. W. Heman of White Oaks, secretary. The report was adopted with a hurrah.

The chair appointed a committee on basis of representation, consisting of J. S. Hart, El Paso; P. C. Ford, Trinidad; Jefferson Reynolds Las Vegas and J. Y. Hewitt, White Oaks.

While the committee on representation was out, W. S. McCutcheon, chairman of the local committee on entertainment, stated that on Thursday night the delegates would be entertained by the great and only McGinty Club, and that visiting delegates would be called for at the Grand Central hotel at 7:30 and escorted to Mesa Garden. He said that on Thursday evening the delegates would enjoy a free excursion to the historic city of Chihuahua, Mexico, tendered them by the Mexican Central railroad and that the delegates could take their wives and daughters with them; that the Pullman Company had refused to make any reductions and therefore delegates would have to pay four dollars for round trip berths. The party would leave Thursday evening and arrive in Chihuahua for breakfast Friday morning, and returning leave there Friday night and arrive in El Paso Saturday morning at 7 o'clock.

The committee on basis of representation submitted its report, recommending that the cities represented in the convention be allowed the following number of votes: Denver 30 votes, Pueblo 20 votes, Trinidad 10 votes, Las Vegas 10 votes, White Oaks 5 votes, El Paso 10 votes.

Committees were selected on resolutions; on statistics and information; and on ways and means, after which the convention adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock on the morning of Sept. 22d.

The house of James Madden, in the Park, took fire one day last week, and much of the furniture and nearly all the clothing of himself and wife were burned before the fire was extinguished. The loss is a severe one to the old couple.

The Democratic Central Committee met at Albuquerque on Thursday, of fair week. It was resolved that New Mexico ought to be admitted to the Union, and Delegate Joseph, who was present, was instructed to introduce an enabling act, looking toward the accomplishment of this purpose.

INFANCY TO OLD AGE.

Nothing is more remarkable than the fact that a medicine which is powerful enough to cure the most horrible form of blood poisoning can be given with impunity to a little child that ailing; and yet this is the record of Swift's Specific. It is a germ destroyer, a purifier, a great remedial agent; it is powerful and yet harmless; it is a medicine that contains no mineral poisons; all its results are beneficent; it is compounded from nature's own laboratory, and works on nature's lines to cure disease; it restores, revives and reinvigorates the system; it may be used as tonic by the most delicate woman; it may be given to build up the constitution of a little child, or it may employed to restore to health the unhappy victim of blood poisoning. In each case it will work wonderful results.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

CAM LIFE.

HERE'S THE "SLICKER."

The one thing you'll always find in every cowboy's outfit when he goes on the spring round-up is a "Fish Brand" Pommel Slicker. They make the only perfect saddle coat, and come either black or yellow. They protect the whole front of the rider's body, being made to fit round the outside of the saddle entire. When used as a walking coat, the extension pieces neatly overlap each other, making a regular overcoat with a double storm-proof front. When riding, the saddle is dry as a bone, from pommel to cantle, and the rider is entirely protected in every part of his body. These "Slickers," being of extra width, make fine blankets for camp. Beware of worthless imitations, every garment stamped with "Fish Brand" Trade Mark. Don't accept any inferior coat when you can have the "Fish Brand Slicker" delivered without extra cost. Particulars and illustrated catalogue free.

$300 REWARD

FOR ORE THIEVES!

The common experience of this camp shows that much is lost by the mine operators by the stealing of gold in specimens, if not in amalgam and bullion. Therefore the "Old Abe" Co. offers a standing reward of Three Hundred Dollars for the arrest and conviction, or for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of stealing any of the property of the Old Abe Co., even the smallest specimen of ore. The rule of this company is to mill all specimens. Therefore none of the ore from this mine can be honestly held as specimens. And as the receiver, with guilty knowledge, is as guilty in law as the thief, this offer applies to the holders of Old Abe specimens.

WINFIELD S. COBEAN, Register.

Mr. LEE. "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

Mrs. LEE. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen, and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."

Mr. LEE. "What is that?" Mrs. LEE. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation; but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She sent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamie goes over to the Allens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

Mr. LEE. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."

Mrs. LEE. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 50 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."
