Field Superintendent Dave Kinsky reports the tools now being hauled to the Smith & Jergins deep test on Survey 42, and he anticipates the spudding in of this well the first of the coming week. Waymire & Hays have the contract for drilling the well.

J. E. McGinley, president of the Douglas Oil Co., reports the Douglas well on Survey 1134 as having completed the setting of 10-inch casing to the 1500 ft. depth on Wednesday at midnight, and drilling is again in progress.

Latest report had yesterday from the Shultz well in Concho county, was that they had cleaned out the well to within 40 feet of the bottom of the casing. The casing is down to the 2615 ft. level, and the bottom of the hole is at 3127 feet.

The Prairie Oil & Gas Co. on Survey 89 has been drilling steadily all this week and is now down about 2350 feet. The Prairie's shallow test is also making good headway, and is down about 425 feet in red bed.

The Star Oil Co. of Corsicana is still waiting on a sub before starting drilling on Survey 49.

Smith & Jergins shallow test is at 420 ft.

The Lohn Oil & Gas Co. of Alvarado expects to resume drilling on Survey 1164 Friday, having been delayed by a broken stem. This is the first stem broken by L. D. Jobe & Co., who are drilling the well, out of seven wells drilled in McCulloch county.

O. E. Lancaster and Mr. and Mrs. C. Dilworth came in Wednesday from Ada, Okla., enroute to the northwest part of the county, where they will visit the Lancaster well drilling on Survey 1218 (Taylor tract).

Among the prominent oil men here this week were Jon A. Udden, geologist for the Sinclair Gulf Oil Co., E. H. Gerkie, scout for the Gulf Refining Co., and L. C. Hartzell, representing J. G. Gillespie, one of the big producers.

"AMERICAN LEGION" NAME CHOSEN BY EX-SOLDIERS ORGANIZATION

WORLD WAR VETERANS IN CONVENTION AT ST. LOUIS —"FOR GOD AND COUNTRY" AND 100 PER CENT AMERICANISM.

To S. P. Boon, district chairman of the World's War Veteran association of the 17th Congressional district, and who last week attended the National convention at St. Louis as a delegate from the district organization, The Standard is indebted for the following comprehensive account of the meeting in St. Louis, together with the creed and aims of the American Legion, as the association of War Veterans will be known to future generations.

"AMERICAN LEGION" is the name selected by ex-soldiers organization at St. Louis National Convention.

"Post" designated for local organizations, said posts to be named by local body, but cannot be named after any living person.

Henry D. Lindsley elected Temporary Chairman after Theo. Roosevelt, Jr. said he could not serve. Col. Lindsley is 47 years old and was formerly the Mayor of Dallas, Texas. When the war started he attended the officers training camp at Leon Springs, Texas, and went from there to Plattsburg, N. Y. for further training. He was then ordered to France. While overseas he was attached to the staff of Maj.-Gen. John Harboard, director of the Service of Supplies, and handled the war insurance of the men abroad. He is now director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, and came to the convention as a delegate from Pershing Post No. 1, Washington, D. C.

Sgt. Sullivan, who was unanimously elected vice-Chairman was formerly the United States district attorney in Seattle, and at present is a practicing attorney. He is a member of the General Council of the American Bar Association of his State.

Col. Eric Fisher Wood, who acted as Temporary Secretary for the Caucus was elected Temporary Secretary of the organization by acclamation. Seaman Tupper of New Mexico was elected 2nd Vice-Chairman and Mariner Philip C. Calhoun of Connecticut 3rd Vice-Chairman. And Rev. Thomas Houston Wiles of the United States Army was elected Chaplain of the American Legion by acclamation.

Chairman Lindsley appointed G. S. Wheat of the New York Herald, U. J. Bell of the Louisville Courier-Journal and L. R. Collier, Collier's Weekly as the publicity committee. Over a thousand delegates representing every State in the Union were at the St. Louis convention, and at times they showed too much enthusiasm. It was the earnest desire of the different state delegations to make the National Organization everything they thought it ought to be. Yells and songs marked opening of Caucus. A War Camp Community Service song-leader tried to get all the delegations to unite on one song, without success; but Miss Marion Lucille Holliday from Minnesota succeeded in getting a harmonious and swelling chorus on "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here."

The committee on the name recommended the organization be known as the "American Legion of World War Veterans," but an amendment to make the name the "American Legion" was carried and the report adopted.

Chicago lost next convention on question of mayor's loyalty, and Minneapolis was selected. The time set for the next National Convention of the American Legion is November 10th, 11th and 12th, 1919, at which time it is expected there will be a thoroughly representative delegation of the whole country. The organization will be made permanent at that convention.

Want only, all-Americans; a resolution not included in the original draft of the Resolutions Committee was adopted demanding the deportation of all convicted during the War under the espionage act at the expiration of their sentences.

A dramatic tinge was given to the meeting by the appeal of M. L. Sosin of Louisville, Ky. who hobbled to the front of the stage on crutches. "I am a Pole by Birth," he said. "At the age of 37 years I left my family to enter the service of the United States, my country. I want to say that if any of my countrymen refused service to the United States I want them deported along with the rest of the slackers."

The caucus also refused to admit to membership the Soldiers and Sailors' Council of the State of Washington when it was pointed out that the Council had I.W.W. members.

Two resolutions with reference to prohibition were tabled by committee, and were not allowed to come before the caucus.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch was constitution set forth the administration of the organization and provide that a national convention shall be held yearly with delegates from at least twenty-five states and territories to provide a quorum.

Article six holds that no post shall be named after any living man.

A resolution was passed urging that the United States Army uniform be given the same standing as the national emblem. It urges all state and other organizations to lend aid in putting a stop to discharged soldiers using the uniform to further peddling and vending. Also to prohibit the use of the uniform by merchants and others for advertising purposes.

The resolution of Maj. Dick Foster, Kansas City, demanding that congress investigate the actions of the War Department in dealing with conscientious objectors during the war, was passed unanimously.

Last, but not least. The entertainment furnished the delegates by the people of St. Louis was grand. Thursday evening the big event being the reception at the Missouri Athletic Association; Friday evening the auto ride and reception at the Sunset Hill Country club, and Saturday evening a theater party at the Orpheum, all of which was free to the delegates.

Wild Mustard A Pest.

The wild mustard that has come to McCulloch County in the oats from the north is a serious pest if allowed to be harvested with the oats. The writer has seen it ruin good farms because of farmers' neglect to destroy it before it went to seed. It produces thousands of seeds to each plant, and will prove to be very hard to destroy if once it gets a start. I appeal to every loyal citizen to do his utmost to destroy every mustard plant on his farm and to encourage your neighbor to do the same. The seed will be ripe in a few days.

Do not leave the seed in the field where it is cut. Burn it. Yours for service, B. D. BLACK, County Agent.

DID J'EVER—RAIN AGAIN SURE ENOUGH

The Standard editor is qualifying as an expert rain reporter. Practice makes perfect, and we've had to get out twice a week to keep up with the practice we are getting.

The latest (providing it doesn't come another before we print this) arrived between 7:00 and 8:00 o'clock Wednesday night, and was a first-class exhibition of a hard downpour. In the course of an hour's time one and three-twentieths of an inch of rain fell. Blackburn street was quite badly washed by the torrent of water, but, although some hail fell with the rain, no damage of serious nature is reported.

According to the report furnished by the West Texas Telephone Co. big rains were had at Brownwood, Bangs, Coleman, Rochelle, Mason, Katemey, Fife and Waldrup. Considerable hail fell at Coleman. Lohn reports no rain, although all the surrounding country had a fall rain.

Light rains fell east of here at Richland Springs, San Saba, Lometa, Lampasas and Goldthwaite; also west at Menard, Eden, Paint Rock, Ballinger and San Angelo. Mercury also reports but a light rain.

N. B. P. S. and Special Notice!—Before the above got cold, there came 'nother rain—but we refuse to tabulate the downpour further—until next week.

Make our office your headquarters. Every possible courtesy extended. McCulloch County Oil-Lease Exchange.

Injured by Wild Horse.

Ed Walker was quite badly bruised and perhaps seriously injured Wednesday shortly after dinner, while at work on the Walker ranch in the Waldrup community. Ed was riding a wild horse, and the animal ran him into a tree, knocking him out of the saddle. His injuries are quite painful, and while it is hardly thought he is injured internally, yet it is very likely that some ribs were broken. His friends hope he will have a speedy recovery.

Marshal Haig Praises Work of Methodist Church in War

Sir Douglas Haig sends his congratulations to the Methodist Episcopal Church, as follows:

"I send my best wishes to the Methodist Episcopal Churches for the success of their campaign for workers and funds for after-war reconstruction at home and abroad. During these four and one-half years of war the Church has played a great part spiritually and materially and now stands in need of universal encouragement to enable her to continue her work for humanity and to enable her to assist in solving the many grave problems that lie ahead of us."

ROCHELLE RUMBLINGS.

Rain Fine.—Garden Truck Plentiful. Rochelle Wins from Corn Creek. Rochelle, Texas, May 11.

Editor Brady Standard:
Well, the long needed rain came last week, but did not come one day too soon as crops, especially small grain, were sure suffering but the showers all week, which showed up on Sunday morning with a good rain of about three hours duration insures one of the finest small grain crops McCulloch county has ever boasted of and which will be very thankfully received by all the farmers and was never worse needed in the history of the county.

Gardens are very promising and most everyone is having plenty of snap beans at present, and Mr. Tom Jeffries, a farmer and truck grower in Deep Creek settlement has beans, beets and lettuce ready for the market and was over Friday and Saturday trading with the good people of Rochelle.

Miss Alta Ranne, who formerly had charge of our telephone office with the West Texas Telephone Company, has been at work with the company at Richland Springs, until right recently, and came over to spend a while with old friends at Rochelle, and on last Friday night there was a social given in her honor at the home of C. A. Woodward, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Nannie Selman returns today after spending a couple weeks with her two daughters, Mrs. Tyson and Mrs. Henderson of Mullen, Texas.

Willie Selman and wife, after spending several days here with his brother, who had been sick several days left on last Saturday for his home at Ozona but will return again in a few days and remain indefinitely.

Mrs. Lesley Rogers and sister, Miss Annie, came over to Rochelle through the mud on last Monday.

Rochelle had a very busy day again last Saturday as it was dipping day, and also our boys crossed bats with Corn Creek nine, result, 24 to 4 in favor of Rochelle.

Mesdames Paschal Waddell and Orville Cottle were in Rochelle last Saturday afternoon trading.

A letter to his mother from Vernon Waddell written April 19, said he was still in the land of the living and doing fine, but was very busy putting in windows in the mess halls all over the 80th and from what he could find out they, the 80th Division, would start home about the last of May, and he adds, "This is what we hear and a fellow just can't keep from paying attention to this kind of news when he hears it."

The 42nd or Rainbow division is expected in just any day now, having been on their way home for quite a while.

We are at present without an assistant postmistress as Miss Maud Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Waddell one night last week.

Robbie Rogers visited in the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Rogers from Saturday till Monday morning. She was called to the bedside of her sick mother, Mrs. Billie Roberts, of Brady one day last week. We hope it won't be the case long, as we wish for Mrs. Roberts a speedy recovery, and an early return to Rochelle for Miss Maud.

Mrs. Lowell Smith of Placid spent a few days last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Anderson and other relatives and friends at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Paschal Waddell and babies of Placid, visited his parents,

He has just recently returned from overseas, having served in France over a period of seven months. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Cowan, former citizens of Broadmoor, and is a young lady of many charms and attractions, and one who will prove an admirable help-mate.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will make their home on the McKnight ranch near Pear Valley. In their journey through life, they have the best wishes of all their friends, and in which The Standard joins.

Club Dance Tuesday Night.

The Brady club entertained at the K. P. hall last Tuesday night with one of the most enjoyable of the season's dances. The hall was attractively decorated for the occasion with streamers of ever-green, and banners in patriotic colors, while the shaded globes cast their softened light over the guests as they attuned their steps to the wonderful music of the Glen Garden orchestra. So enjoyable did the dance prove that it was continued long after the midnight hour. Refreshments of sandwiches were served during the evening, and added to the evening's pleasure.

TALENTED YOUNG BRADY GIRL RECEIVES HIGH PRAISE FROM SCULPTOR

Miss Waldine Tauch, talented young sculptress, and whose early ambitions were fostered and aided by the Ladies Tuesday club of Brady, who were directly responsible for her becoming the protegee of the famous sculptor, Pompeo Coppini, is highly praised for her work by this famous artist. The following article is an extract of an article printed in the San Antonio Express on Wednesday, May 7th.

"Pompeo Coppini, one of the world's greatest sculptors, passed through San Antonio yesterday en route to Cuba from his home in Chicago. Prior to moving to the Windy City two years ago Mr. Coppini and his family had made San Antonio their home for many years.

"At Havana, Cuba, on May 15, Mr. Coppini will compete with all the great sculptors of the world for the award of the immense statue of General Gomez, which is to be erected in that city at the expense of the Cuban government. General Gomez, it will be remembered, was the liberator of Cuba.

"Mr. Coppini is now making a bronze statue of the son of Gus Noyes of Melvin, Texas. Pictures of the piece have been published and won only favorable comment. Mr. Noyes' was killed on their ranch in Southwest Texas when the horse he was riding fell. The statue shows young Noyes standing beside his steed.

"A high tribute was paid by Mr. Coppini to his pupil, Miss Waldine Tauch, a San Antonio girl who is winning international fame through her works. Her instruction under Mr. Coppini started some time before the sculptor removed to Chicago, and she went to that city with him to continue her studies.

"She is one of the most talented sculptors Texas ever turned out," Mr. Coppini said proudly in speaking of Miss Tauch. "When she first started under me, I had hopes of making of her as good a sculptor as myself, but she has gone far past that point. Her work is simply wonderful, and all Texas may well be proud of her.

"She has been awarded a sculpture by the State of Michigan in competition with several New York sculptors, and her Indiana piece has been accepted with nothing but praise," he continued.

"The statue of George Washington in the City of Mexico was made by Mr. Coppini. When the anti-American riots started there several years ago, this was one of the first objects of the wrath of the anti-Americans. The statue, which is of bronze, was torn from its pedestal and dragged through the streets of the city. However, it was so perfect of construction that when recovered it was found that it had not been damaged in the least by rough usage, and was returned to its original pedestal unscratched.

"Practically every piece of statuary in Southwest Texas, especially that in and around the University of Texas and the State Capitol buildings was made by Mr. Coppini, and he is recognized as one of the world's greatest sculptors."

Newt McShan Building Barn for Big Feed Crop.
Brady, Texas, May 13.
Editor Brady Standard:
Guess we had better give the good news this week. It began raining last Tuesday night and kept coming at different times all week. The last coming on Sunday afternoon. All told we had two inches of rain. It was certainly fine on the grain and cotton just coming up. So everybody is all smiles now.

WONDER WORDS.
A Natural History Lesson—Proof That Spring Has "Come."
Wonder, Ore., May 1.
Editor Brady Standard:
In the language of the high school girl "Spring has 'come' at last!" And while we do not have wild flowers in so great profusion as you do in Texas, yet we have many strange varieties scattered about here and there. Here are some of the kinds we have: blue-bonnets, violets, Spring beauties, lamb tongues, bird-bills, cat-ears, lark-spurs, skunk-lillies, azalias, rhododendrons, flowering-currants, wild roses, wild pansies, the perfume of which is very fragrant; and likewise the lady-slipper. These of course, are only a few of the kinds. Yes, and I will mention one other—the Flor-de-Lis. Yes and yet another and another. The Tiger-lily and the Oregon lily—a remarkably beautiful one and fragrant flower. But for number, Texas has a million wild flowers to Oregon's one.

And there is another evidence that "Spring has 'come.'"
The grouse in the top of the tall pine or fire tree much secluded from view, is hooting away at intervals similar to the "who-who" of the owl with his deep bass voice, but not quite so sonorous. The pheasant in the dense thicket is drumming with his wings upon the trunk of a fallen tree or log and the noise he makes sounds like distant thunder. The mountain quail calling to his mate with voice like a parrot says as plain as can be "Quit now!" and the little frog with a voice like a prairie dog is saying: "Quit-it-at-it." And the wild ducks that have been inhabiting a certain tree with a hole about 60 feet from the ground for the last twenty years are back again. It is a question how they manage to get their young out of the hollow tree and down to the water in the creek. Some think they carry them one at a time in their beak like a cat carries her kittens in her mouth, while others imagine they carry them in the feathers under their wings. And still others think they carry them on their back like an old opossum carries her young ones.
There are many curious things in natural history. I was told by a Mr. Alexander, who, by the way, used to work cattle on the range in San Saba county, for Mr. Dofflemeyer many years ago that he once saw a floating swans nest on a lake in Menard county. The swan had constructed a raft of dry sticks and reeds and built its nest on the floating raft.
Pardon me for writing a letter on natural history, but I like to tell of curious things and I know it will be interesting to many of your readers.
And the gray-digger is a little squirrel similar to the prairie dog, which burrows in the ground and hibernates during the winter months, but when the weather is mild in the spring he, like ground-hog, comes forth. He also has "come."
And I presume pretty soon the rattle-snakes will be crawling around, and birds nests will be in evidence. Yes, and I saw a traveling swarm of bees today, and I know by that that spring has "come."
And the apple blossoms falling white upon the ground like snow is proof that spring is "come."

FIFE FINDINGS.

Dip 456 Head of Stock—Cooper Well Resumes Drilling.
Fife, Texas, May 12.
Editor Brady Standard:
And still it rains. The boys in France have nothing on us now, for the past week we have had rain every day and very little sunshine. The sun is shining today and with a few days good weather the crops will be in fine shape.
Oats, wheat and barley are the best we ever saw, with no evidence of rust, so far.
Well, we dipped and we dipped Wednesday of last week. It rained all morning, but that didn't stop anybody. 456 head of cattle and horses went through the vat, only about 1 per cent of which was declared infested by the fever tick. Everybody here is anxious to clean up the tick as quickly as possible and forget it.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Taylor came in from the coast country last week to make their home here for the rest of the year.
H. D. Martin, Thos. Mitchell and E. B. Baldrige were Brady visitors Tuesday.
The Cooper well started up again Tuesday after a month's waiting on stems.

You Do More Work,

You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.
GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.
GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is not a patent medicine, it is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.
The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC when a member of their family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 60c per bottle.

CORP. WALTER E. LARREMORE TELLS HOW IT FEELS TO EXPERIENCE WAR'S HORRORS

Writing home folks, Walter E. Larremore tells how it feels to be gradually brought nearer and nearer to the battle line, and then, finally, to go "over the top" in the face of a murderous fire of high explosive shells and machine gun bullets:

"I left home September 19, 1917, and went to Camp Travis and stayed there about one month. During the time we drilled very hard but they let us go to San Antonio nearly every Saturday afternoon, also Sunday. We had a good time there but we didn't realize what a good time we were having until we left there and arrived in France. We left Camp Travis October 19 and went to Camp Bowie, Ft. Worth, and left Camp Bowie the 8th of July. We landed in Camp Mills and stayed there four days and boarded one of the big German liners that was taken from the Germans at the beginning of actual hostilities. After a voyage of fourteen days we landed in one of the French ports, France, known as Brest, France. The voyage was uneventful. We marched out two miles to a rest camp. We had to carry our provisions on our backs two miles much to contend with. From there we took our first ride on a French train. How different from our comfortable trains is surprising. After a trip of three days on those uncomfortable trains we arrived at Bar-sur-Aube, in the central part of France and remained there a very short time. We left for our training area and our first billets were very different from our rooms at home. We occupied barns and just anywhere we got the rain would drip in on us.

"Here we began one of the most strenuous periods of intensive training that I had ever seen. After I had been there a few weeks we moved to another place named Urau: here we could hear the big guns in the thickest fight, and we knew that in a very few days that we would be in a real war. We did not drill here hard for fear that aeroplanes might bomb us. One bright morning we rolled our packs and moved up towards the front in a down-pouring rain. We marched all the afternoon and slept that night in tents. All the time we could hear the roar of the big gun's growling. We finally arrived on the famous Hindenburg line. Here was sight of real war. On our side a few dead soldiers was evidence enough of the terrible fighting that had been going on here.

"I felt the horrors of war now as I gazed at destruction caused by the large shells of both sides in this great conflict. The enemy had been driven a few kilometers from here, after remaining there all night.

"We moved up. The 72nd Brigade of our division went 'over the top.' We saw the wounded coming back from the front that night and we moved into the seaport and released the 9th Infantry and a regiment of Marines. We slept in holes that night that we dug with our small shovels—a very uncomfortable place. We were awakened the next morning by shells that were bursting so close to be uncomfortable, but no one of us was injured. That afternoon we moved up again with orders to go 'over the top.' But from some unknown cause we were withdrawn that afternoon. It was a very exciting time.

"We stayed on a hill and watched the boys 'go over the top' and we were shelled here very heavy and one of the boys was killed by a high explosive shell. The next afternoon we went 'over the top.' Near Yesury, France, we were greeted by murderous fire of high explosive shells and machine gun bullets after we had reached our objective. We remained all night and another one of our boys was killed. We were very fortunate in the way of casualties. Some of the other companies lost heavily. We were returned on the 19th after spending 10 days in the trenches with very little food and water. But it was great sport and I am not at all disappointed of my trip over here. After a long hike that took 12 days to make we arrived in the little village called Metisey, France.

OSCAR THORNBLOOM TELLS HOW THE BOYS THE NOW PASSING TIME IN FRANCE

C. G. Thornbloom has two boys over in France with the Army of Occupation. The following is a letter from one of these boys, Oscar, and is interesting since it tells how the boys find amusement and what they are doing. In fact, Oscar seems quite well contented:

"Camp Etat, France, April 17. "Dear Father: "I will write you a few lines in answer to your letter of March 13th. I was very glad to hear from you and that you all were in fairly good health. We are having very nice weather over here now; the fruit trees are budding and everything is getting pretty and green; summer starts over here the 1st of April.

"I am getting a good deal of my mail now. I have received several letters from you all here lately. And I also received a letter from brother Arthur, and one from Eugene Schultz the other day. I guess you all are receiving all my letters all right. Have you received my postal of myself and five of the other boys? I am sending you another one of them today. There are lots of soldiers here at Le Manes now—3 or 4 divisions. I am in the 16th Guard Division. It is composed of Transportation companies. This is a good camp here; we have our ball games and other games for amusements. We also have a big Y.M.C.A. The name of it is The Texas Hut. We have movies every night and some nights good funny stage plays. I've been working, fixing up my tent today, leveling up, ditching, straightening up our bunks, etc. We have got it fixed up good enough for anybody to live in now.

"I took a trip to Tours the other day and sure had a good time. Tours is a very nice town to have your fun—if you've got the francs. But we have a very good time here at Le-Maus. It is only about 1-2 miles from our camp. There is a carnival there and what a person can't see isn't in France. You know all kinds of stuff. We ride the street cars here for 1 big sue—1 big copper penny. They have women conductors on the street cars. They also work around the trains and almost anywhere a man can work.

There are all kinds of people over here. I listened to an Algerian band the other day. They sure played funny music. I don't know when our turn is coming to start for the States. Soldiers are passing through here nearly every day going to the States. I do not think it will be very many more months.

"Well, I haven't very much more to write so I will close. With love to all.

"From your loving son, "OSCAR."

The River of Life

Say what you will of whatever part of the human anatomy you please, the river of life is the BLOOD. It is either the swift running stream of health or the germ-laden channel of disease, one or the other.

RICH-TONE, The Famous TONIC, is unlike any other known remedy. It works differently, it reaches in and through and down till it penetrates to the seat of the disease and springs at the very throat of the cause of it.

It's the only remedy that does this. And doing this it gets results and effects cures that no other can.

Mr. Wimsatt says: "I bought two bottles of Rich-Tone for my mother. She thinks it is the finest tonic. She has used many other kinds, but nothing has helped her like Rich-Tone."

This famous tonic is for sale at our drug store at only $1.00 per bottle.

Last Wednesday morning at 12:20 o'clock the death angel visited our little community and called away the sweet spirit of Mrs. Smith, wife of J. T. Smith.

Mrs. Smith was 63 years of age and had been in bad health for something like a year, although being able to be up part of the time. However, last Tuesday she was taken suddenly ill and all that doctors and loved ones could do was of no avail; she lingered only a week when God called her home to rest, where sickness and suffering come no more.

Mrs. Smith was a faithful Christian, having been a member of the Methodist church since her girlhood and to know her was to love her. While her sufferings were great, she bore them uncomplainingly.

She leaves behind to mourn her loss a heart-broken husband and three sons, R. A. and Charley, of Bayside, Texas, and Dee Smith of Gatesville, who came to her bedside just after she had passed away. Her body was laid to rest Thursday morning in the Lohn cemetery, Rev. J. W. Cowan of Brady conducting the funeral service. To those left behind we would say "Weep not" as those who have no hope our blessed Savior said "In My Father's house are many mansions. I go to prepare a place for you and if I go away I will come again and receive you to Myself that where I am you may be also."

The court also contracted the purchase of three new tractors and road graders, one each for Commissioners J. M. Carroll, W. M. Bryson and R. L. Burns. The new outfits have a smaller but more powerful engine than the old engines heretofore used, and are of the Twin City four-cylinder type.

Two of the county's old engines, heretofore used by Commissioners Carroll and Bryson, were turned in as part payment on the new purchase.

The engines and graders have proven of invaluable aid to the commissioners in keeping the roads of the various precincts in good shape, and are both economical and efficient. Commissioner Burns is highly pleased over getting his outfit, especially as his precinct has heretofore been unable to purchase one on account of insufficient funds. Commissioner McBride will continue to use the outfit now belonging to his precinct.

ATTENTION.

It is desired and requested that meetings be held in every precinct in the County on Sunday afternoon, May 18th, at the churches and school houses for the purpose of discussing the proposed amendments to the Constitution which are to be voted on on May 24th. It is desired especially to get the people interested in the two amendments, one for prohibition and the other for woman suffrage. These are two very important amendments that stand for good and clean government. We have the victory won if we will only go to the polls and vote. The liquor element and some of the political bosses are fighting both amendments and are having literature distributed. Everyone who favors good clean government should take an active interest in supporting the amendments. We all know the evil of the whiskey traffic, and everyone who wants honest, clean government ought to see the importance of woman suffrage. It was fully demonstrated in the late primary election that the women of Texas can and will vote intelligently. Let everyone that possibly can assist in having a successful meeting on Sunday afternoon. If there is no regular speaker present to make a talk let the citizens discuss the matter.

Anybody who will talk common sense can make a good speech on either amendment.

Another reason why the woman suffrage amendment should be passed is that it restricts the ballot to citizens. Do not neglect to take any interest. We have been fighting these principles for many years and let us not fail now for want of taking an interest in the election.

F. M. NEWMAN,
County Chairman.

VALUABLE ADVICE.

Brady Citizens Should Profit By The Following Statement.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used by this Brady resident.

Their merit was shown—the story told.

Now comes further evidence.

The testimony is confirmed.

The remedy was tested—the results lasted.

Could Brady residents demand stronger proof?

It's Brady testimony. It can be investigated.

Mrs. B. P. Brown says: "My back ached a great deal, especially when I was on my feet or after over-exertion. My kidneys didn't act right at all. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, bought at the Central Drug Co., soon cured me of these troubles."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER

Mrs. Brown said: "I haven't had any return of kidney complaint since using Doan's Kidney Pills. I recommend this medicine very highly."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills,—the same that Mrs. Brown had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.
