HONEST INJUN.

Some folks have asked if this last was another "Million Dollar Rain." Well, it may not settle any debts—but it has settled millions of dust germs—so guess we'll have to plead guilty to another "Million Dollar Rain."

SANITARY CONDITIONS

The need of a more strict observance of the sanitary ordinances of the city of Brady has long been apparent to observant citizens. Without interest on the part of the citizenship in general being awakened, but little can be accomplished in this direction by the city officers no matter how good their intentions or how zealous their efforts. To make a move for a "Clean Up" in Brady a success, every citizen must be made aware of the need and importance of such a move.

The appeals being sent out to communities and citizens by the state health officers, for strict sanitary measures in order to avoid a recurrence of the influenza epidemic this fall and winter, should receive the attention of even the most indifferent of our citizens. To bring on such another epidemic of influenza as was had last year, merely through carelessness in sanitation, is criminal and no citizen should permit such a stigma to rest upon his town, his property or himself.

Brady's streets need cleaning up; Brady's alleys are a disgrace; Brady's sewerage system needs attention!

What are you going to do? Wait until the influenza robs your home of your children, your folks, your friends?

Or will you use that ounce of precaution necessary to render your premises immaculate—and then impress upon your neighbors and friends the importance of following your example.

Public sentiment is a wonderful force. Only public sentiment can get under the skin of some folks—and your voice is needed on the side of civic righteousness and cleanliness.

WHO'S WHO—IN HOGS.

Brady says that they ship all their hogs to Menard for city training. The imports on this kind of animals into Menard has fallen off considerably since the saloons went out and while we are on the subject we wish to state that we have noted that neither Sellers or Schwenker have been over here since—Menard Messenger.

While it has been many years since our heart (and stomach) has been strong enough to rough it with our friends over in Menard, memory does not call to mind our seeing any Brady-ite act unnecessarily piggish or hog-gish while "over there." However, we do have a very vivid recollection that there usually was a bunch of Menard's "prominent" citizens always on hand ready to "hog" the whole bar every time a Brady man looked like he might desire to "set 'em up."

DR. C. W. GODDARD, STATE HEALTH OFFICER, SOUNDS NOTE OF WARNING!

On the 21st day of last September, the first case of influenza in Texas was reported to the State Health Department. This first case was followed in rapid succession by others from different parts of the State.

No equinoctial storm ever recorded, reached such a fury or exacted a toll in loss of life comparable to this pandemic which made its appearance in our State last fall.

It is a well-known fact among medical men, that one of the special characteristics of influenza is that it recurs in cycles, and with each return records a heavy mortality. In each cyclic outbreak in the past the disease has reappeared in the fall and winter for from one to three years following the initial outbreak.

The great epidemic of 1889 was followed by outbreaks in the fall and winter for three years following, and with an increasing mortality rate each year. The same history is recorded of epidemics of influenza in Europe, and in fact, as far back as we have been able to gather statistics, each initial outbreak of influenza has been followed by recurrences in the next two or three years following. Since it is well known that history repeats itself, we may reasonably expect a recurrence of this dreadful disease this fall and winter, with a high mortality, especially from pneumonia.

I cannot predict with certainty that we will have another epidemic of influenza this fall and winter, but I can with certainty say that if we do not, the history of epidemics of influenza in the past, will not hold good for the future.

In the light of past knowledge and experience, it would be nothing short of criminal to take no steps to protect the public against a possible recurrence of last season's devastation. Based on incomplete statistics from rural and urban reports, it is estimated that there were approximately 450,000 deaths from influenza in the United States and approximately 25,000 in Texas, from the recent epidemic. The epidemic last year which swept over the country with hurricane-like rapidity, found the country depleted of its doctors and nurses, many communities having neither. At this time most of them have been released from the army and have come back to us rich in experience and trained in public health work.

The excessively heavy rains this year have caused an unusually heavy growth of vegetation which is apparent not only in the small villages and towns, but even in places in our largest cities; while pools of stagnant water, and litters of garbage are to be seen in far too many places.

I am now calling upon you to begin an active campaign in anticipation of a possible recurrence of influenza, and as a matter of civic pride and health protection in general.

In every village, town and city, Health Boards should be organized, or rejuvenated, where they already exist, and "CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGNS" put on, and every possible means taken to be prepared for any emergency.

Local Health Officers should at once call a meeting of their local health boards if they have one, or a meeting for the purpose of organizing one if they do not already have one, and then enlist the aid of the Commercial Clubs, Civic Clubs, Boards of Trade, Social Welfare Workers, Parent-Teachers Associations and all other organizations interested in civic advancement and the betterment of health conditions in their communities.

I am calling upon the newspapers of the State to join me in this note of warning and trust that every paper in the State will not only copy this article, but add such comment as they feel will be helpful in promoting this defensive work in the interest of humanity.

If these preventive measures are not taken, then from past experiences with influenza, you may reasonably expect your community to suffer the penalty of YOUR NEGLIGENCE.

C. W. GODDARD, M. D.,
State Health Officer.

Here is a Practical Outfit

This Case 15-27 H. P. Oil Tractor pulls three plows in hard plowing—four plows under favorable conditions. It has 25 per cent. reserve power. It burns kerosene successfully and economically. All gears are cut steel enclosed and run in oil. The one-piece main frame insures permanent alignment of all gears, shafts and bearings.

It is also adaptable for all kinds of belt work. It easily handles a Case 20x48 thrasher equipped with wind stacker and feeder. Its pulley is properly placed for convenient "lining-up" to a driven machine.

We recommend the 3-bottom automatic lift Grand Detour plow for use with the 15-27 tractor. This makes an ideal combination for the average size farm. It is neither too large nor too small. It can plow from 9 to 14 acres in ten hours.

The plow is light, but owing to its simple construction it is strong and durable.

We will be glad to explain this rig in detail. Write or call us today. Investigate before you buy.

O. D. Mann & Sons

NOTICE: We want the public to know that our plows are NOT the Case plows made by the J. I. Case Plow Works.

Why Fish Do Not Travel Far.

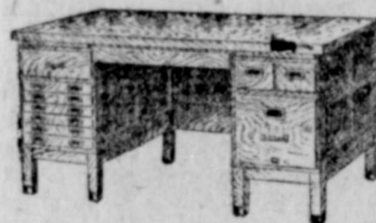

Animals of both land and sea are confined within rather narrow limits of pressure. In his book on the North sea fisheries, Neal Green shows that the North sea fishes are isolated in their own little world, for they cannot migrate to the Atlantic depths, and, with a few such exceptions as the eel, deep sea fishes cannot enter shallow waters. Foraging for food is the fish's occupation. The North sea fishes will not descend into the ocean because there is no food to attract, their eyes are not adapted to the darkness, and the pressure of the water is greater than ordinary fish can endure. In the depths there are no seasonal changes, no currents. Everything is uniform, stagnant, black, and the only fishes that can see are those specially endowed with enormous eyes to perceive the phosphorescent glow of others of their kind. If they could rise to the conditions of the North sea, these deep sea dwellers would be helpless, if not destroyed by the release from external pressure.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will then be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

PHONOGRAPH RECORDS FOR CHILDREN IN THE HOME.

By THERESA WILD.

What joy music brings to the heart of the little child! How rapidly he responds to its influence! Sometimes it soothes him to sleep; often it excites him to action; again it seems to tell him stories, or to paint pictures.

Among the first songs which little people enjoy are the Mother Goose classics; "Hickety Diddle, Diddle," "Little Bo-Peep," and "Little Jack Horner," all on Victor record 17,004. The children will generally recognize the words of these songs at once, but if not, play the record again.

Let the children sing with the record. They should be encouraged to sing with light, floating tones.

Slumber songs make an especial appeal to children, and "The Land of Nod," (V) 18,074, and the "Slumber Song" (V) 17,513, are great favorites. Hear the record before you play it for the children so that you will know the story. Ask them to listen for certain definite things about which the songs will tell.

Children also delight in imitative songs and for this reason love to hear and to sing and imitate "Old Chanticleer" (V) 17,596, "The Cuckoo Clock" (V) 17,596, or Columbia A2,132, and "The Blacksmith" and "The Little Shoemaker," both on (V) 17,937. Show how the blacksmith hammers or his anvil and the shoemaker on his last.

The following tiny nature songs deal with child interests and will easily be learned: "Tracks in the Snow" (V) 18,074, "The Bluebird," "Tiddley Winks and Tiddley Wee," "Six Little Puppies," "Mr. Duck and Mr. Turkey," "Little Birdie" and "The Bunny," all on (V) 17,776, "Violets" and "Sweet Pea Ladies," both on (V) 17,625.

Another means of artistic self-expression for the little child is rhythm through bodily activity, such as Marching, skipping and singing games. Show the child how to march or skip, or to play the games to the music. Then let him try.

"Happy Days March" (V) 16,001, "The Toy Parade" (C) A2,111, "American Eagle March" (Edison) 50,410, and "Military Escort March" (V) 17,368 are excellent. The body should be carried easily erect; the step should be short and light. Let the youngsters play they are soldiers or people marching in any one of a dozen kinds of processions. Then again, they may imagine they are a band playing horns or drums. Appealing to the child's imagination whenever possible is a great aid in the interpretation of music.

On record (V) 18,253 are three excellent bits of music for skipping. Much grace of movement can be acquired through this simple exercise. If the child plays that he is skipping to grandma's or to a little playmate's house, it will add to the interest in the performance. On this same record are two other short compositions—one for imitating high-stepping horses, lifting the knee high at a right angle, and the other, horses or reindeer running—a quick, light run with short steps.

After these various movements have been learned and executed to the proper music, let the children play them without direction. This will help them to discriminate between different kinds of music.

To play singing games a number of children are required. Directions for playing those on record (V) 17,568, "How Do You Do, My Partner, Let Us Chase the Squirrel," "The Muffin Man," "Did You Ever See a Lassie" and "Soldier Boy" may be found in "A Graded List of Victor Records for Home and School" procurable from any Victor dealer.

RED CROSS COLUMN.

Children of McCulloch county are being notified through McCulloch County chapter of the Red Cross that their activities in Junior Red Cross work will hereafter be outlined in a new publication, "The Junior Red Cross News," that will be published for their special benefit. The first number will make its appearance in September.

A different slogan will characterize each issue. The first is "Go Forth and Serve." The issue will emphasize France and the life of French children. Included in the contents are the following stories:

"The American Red Cross and the French Children," an account of the work of the Children's Bureau conducted in France. "Boy Scouts in France." "Economic Difficulties in France and How They Are Being Met." Also several letters written to the Junior Red Cross by French children.

School boys and girls of those chapters where manual training and domestic science facilities are provided also are being asked to send in to Southwestern Division headquarters in St. Louis refugee garments and furniture sufficient to fill the quotas allotted last Spring. These articles will be sent to France and other war devastated countries to help alleviate in part the desolation caused by the war.

The girls will furnish pinafores, dresses, petticoats, chemises, under-vests and layettes. The boys will construct tables and chairs for the reconstruction homes abroad. The Division's quota is 2400 chairs and 800 tables.

Austin-Green.

Mr. W. T. Austin and Miss Hettie Green were married at Brady last week. Several of Miss Hettie's friends went with her to Brady. She is an excellent girl and has many friends here. The groom is an industrious farmer of McCulloch county and is well liked. Mr. and Mrs. Austin will make their home in Alabama. Their many friends join the Echo in congratulations.—Eden Echo.

Bumgardner-Reeves.

Mr. Autrey Bumgardner and Miss Minnie Reeves were married Sunday at the home of the bride near Menard. They are expected to arrive in Brady this afternoon and will make their home here, occupying the Mrs. M. E. Carroll home on the north side, which has been furnished and outfitted by the groom in readiness for the homecoming of his bride.

The marriage is not altogether a surprise, as Mr. Bumgardner has been diligently at work the past several weeks on his plans for the glad event, and in its happy consummation all his friends rejoice with him. The bride is a most charming and attractive young lady, the daughter of one of Menard's prominent ranchmen. Her acquaintance with Mr. Bumgardner dates back several years. Mr. Bumgardner is the son of Mrs. M. A. Bumgardner of this city, and is a most capable young man, and a valued employe of the Walker-Smith Co. He returned a few months ago from overseas, where he served with distinction in some of the greatest battles of the war. He is held in highest esteem by the citizens of Brady, who feel that he is most worthy of the splendid young lady he has chosen for his life's helpmate.

The best wishes of all their friends are extended Mr. and Mrs. Bumgardner with the hope that their pathway through life may be strewn with happiness and sunshine.

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before."

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not had to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape.

Do not say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use.

Thedford's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.

HOSPITAL NURSE PRAISES TANLAC

Gains Eleven Pounds and Is Feeling Fine Since Taking Tanlac.

"Tanlac did so much for me that I feel it my duty to tell others about this medicine," said C. M. Rhamey, a professional nurse living at the Hotel George, on Sixth street, San Francisco, California, recently. Mr. Rhamey has been nursing patients in the hospitals for the past eight years.

"Last February," he continued, "owing to an accident in which my leg was broken, I was confined to my bed for several weeks. I lost my appetite and could hardly eat anything to nourish me, consequently I lost weight. I took several different kinds of tonics, hoping they would help build me up but they did me no good."

"One morning I read a statement by a lady in Los Angeles, who said she had gotten such wonderful benefits from taking Tanlac that I decided to try it myself. By the time I had finished half of my first bottle my appetite returned and I felt hungry for the first time in weeks. From then on I started right in to pick up and my appetite got better and better and I slept better at nights. I have already gained eleven pounds and am feeling just fine; even my doctor has remarked how much better I am looking. I would never allow my name to be used in connection with a medicine before, but I have had such excellent results from using Tanlac that I take great pleasure in recommending it to anyone needing a medicine to build up the system."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

LOCAL BRIEFS

G. A. Krueger is assisting at the O. D. Mann & Sons store as salesman.

Oscar Lang is again at the barber trade, having taken charge of one of the chairs at the Polk barber shop, where he is assisting E. E. Polk and Gordon Deavers in caring for the patrons of the shop.

M. Kahn has been spending the past few days here interesting McCulloch county lease holders in a special McCulloch county edition of the Harry Hines Oil Digest.

Another of Brady's boys found a welcome awaiting him upon his homecoming—Eric Swenson, who has just returned from nineteen months' overseas service. Eric is the son of Prof. and Mrs. G. S. Swenson, living east of town, and is a splendid young man. He served through the war in Ambulance Co. No. 7, of the 3rd Division.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. House came down from Fort Worth Monday morning, and are guests of friends, while Mr. House is attending to matters in district court. While they think they are permanently located in Fort Worth, they still have a warm spot in their hearts for Brady and Brady folks, and are enjoying their visit back here accordingly.

Fritz Jordan of Brady and Felix Jordan of Katemcy were business visitors in Mason last Monday. The former says that everything is lovely in Brady and that he is still manager of the Brady Lumber Co. The Katemcy merchant and postmaster informed us that the Katemcy gin is being repaired and overhauled preparatory for the ginning season. He stated that the gin would not be ready for operation before about October 1st.—Mason News.

The Santa Fe train arriving from the west this morning brought to Brady the biggest crowd of folks that this train has unloaded here in many a day. It looked like the population from the west end of the county was moving to Brady. The visitors were parties called as witnesses or else friends interested in the Danielson-Malmstrom case in district court. On account of the terrific rain and the resultant muddy roads, all who intended coming to Brady were obliged to come by rail from Melvin, although many found it all but impossible to even get to Melvin from their homes over the muddy roads.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Lankford came over from Santa Anna last Saturday and are spending several days here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stobaugh. Their visit here, however, is an enforced one, as they expected to leave yesterday in their car on a three months' outing and trip which would take them through Colorado and out to California and the Pacific coast. Miss Della Burton planned to accompany them on the trip. The rain caused a temporary postponement of the start, and the present muddy roads will delay the plans still further. Nevertheless the party expects soon to be on their way, spending about month on the trip each way, and her month visiting in Colorado California. When J. Q. returns, he is going to locate for good in L.

Calloway arrived here Saturday morning from Dalhart for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calloway. He has been making home at Dalhart, since receiving his discharge from service, but may decide to locate here. At least he expects to spend several months here looking over the country seeking something that will strike his fancy. This is the second of the elder Mr. Calloway's boys who saw service over in France. David went overseas as a member of the Engineers corps in the 36th Division. Later he was transferred to the First Army corps on detached service, but returned to the U. S. again with the 36th. He saw 60 days service on the St. Mihiel and Argonne fronts, and says that was sufficient experience in fighting to do him the balance of his natural life.

T. C. Allen, known the world over as "Tinker" Allen, arrived here from Brownsville last Friday and spent a few days in our midst greeting old-time friends while attending to business matters. While here, he was a guest of his brother, T. L. Allen. Friend Allen has been gone from Brady just about six years, and in all that time has not gotten a day older in looks; in fact, he intimated that he had discovered the secret of eternal youth and expected to never grow old. T. C. was very much interested in the progress made in Brady since his removal to the coast country, and was delighted to learn of McCulloch county's present great prosperity. He reported himself and family very well pleased with their location at Brownsville, and he has absorbed just enough of Old Mexico to be enabled to transact business with the Mexicans, who constitute a large percent of the population of the Brownsville country. The jewelry business is his main forte, and watch repairing his specialty, and his ability in this line has secured for him the place of official watch inspector for the Brownsville railway. All his many Brady friends were glad to see Mr. Allen once more, and his return home was accompanied by best wishes for himself and family.

SPENDS $105.00 TO RECOVER ONE DOLLAR—FUN IS EXPENSIVE

Clayton Tennison had an unusual experience last Friday afternoon when he swallowed a silver dollar while playing catch with his mouth in a joking manner.

Mr. Clifton is manager of the Clifton garage, and one of the boys in his employ sold some gasoline which amounted to $1.25, and when Mr. Tennison walked up he was advised of the sale and in turn invited the young man holding the money to pitch at his mouth. He succeeded in catching two dimes and missed the next which was a nickel—and being advised by the twirler that the next shot was a dollar, it is thought that the mouth was opened to such great proportions that even as large a piece of metal as the dollar passed down into his throat quickly, and striking in such manner that he gave an involuntary and conclusive gulp, taking the dollar down without any thought or effort.

Probably with some degree of fright, Mr. Tennison hurriedly jumped into his car and accompanied by Dr. Griffin, drove to Waco where he had the legal tender removed by a specialist with the aid of instruments, after the location was made with the aid of an X-ray. The X-ray charges were $5.00 and the specialist made a charge of ONLY $100, making a total of $105.00, besides the other expenses incurred by the trip.

Mr. Tennison's many friends are glad the accident to him has been completely overcome, with the exception of the $105, and being good natured we are sure he will not let that worry him.—Clifton Record.
