VOCA VOICES.

Floyd Somerville, Jim Casson and John Rolls Return from Overseas.
Voca, Texas, Nov. 1.
Editor Brady Standard:

Here I come after an absence of several weeks. It is still raining every few days, but we had several days of sunny weather last week. Voca people "made hay while the sun shone" or rather they picked cotton while the sun shone.

Our school has been postponed on account of the late cotton crop.

Jim Simpson has recently purchased the place he is living on from his father-in-law, Mr. Shafer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Behrens are the proud parents of a fine girl which arrived at their home October 22d.

John Deans Jr., had an attack of heart trouble last week and seemed to be in a critical condition for a little while. He seems to have fully recovered at this writing.

Ed Spiller is still in a sanitarium at Temple. He underwent an operation for appendicitis several weeks ago. He is doing nicely and expects to be home soon.

Miss Marion Brindley came down from Eden Monday of this week to begin her music class but learned upon her arrival here that school had been postponed. She is still in the community visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mayo and daughter, Miss Minnie are preparing to leave this week for Pontotoc where they will make their home. Mr. Mayo has been pastor of the Baptist church for sixteen years and has been proprietor of a small store. Leo Curtsinger will take charge of the store. We are all very sorry to lose these good people but hope they will decide to come back to Voca sometime to live.

Floyd Somerville is at home again. He has just arrived from overseas.

Frank Davis came in this week from Eastland for a short visit with his mother.

Misses Velma and Sallie Corbell from Eden visited their sister, Mrs. Oscar Fleming a few days this week. Miss Sallie is a trained nurse and makes her home in Dallas and Miss Velma is to be one of the faculty in the Montgomery school this year.

Oscar McLerran came in from Eastland last week.

Since beginning this correspondence I have learned that Ed Spiller came home from Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Simpson entertained the young people with a party Tuesday night. Quite a large crowd was present and all seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

Miss Lora Miller left this week for Effe to begin her school work. Her school begins Monday, November 3d. She was one of the 1919 graduates in the Montgomery school and we sincerely wish her success in her work.

The pecan crop is unusually heavy this year and many are busy gathering pecans while it is too wet to pick cotton.

CORN CREEK NEWS.

Rochelle, Texas, Nov. 3.
Editor Brady Standard:
After a few weeks' absence, I will try to let the world know that Corn Creek still exists.

Misses Bertha Spencer and Sallie Ellison were guests of Misses Myrtle and Nina Hurd last Sunday.

F. W. Hurd, wife and daughter, Miss Billie Louise, of Rochelle were guests of home folks last Sunday.

Several of our progressive farmers have large bunches of Mexicans to pick their cotton. Among them are S. L. Hurd; Mr. I. T. Watkins is doing a great work by bringing in Mexicans into this locality. Mr. Watkins is weighing for Mr. Hurd's pickers while Geo. Lockwood is interpreter. If the weather stays pretty a few weeks the farmers will get the most of their cotton picked.

Miss Alma Hurd was called to nurse a case of typhoid fever. Miss Mollie Green is the victim.

Misses Myrtle and Nina Hurd and brother, Freeman, Homer and George Lockwood were guests at the Spencer home last Sunday night. They reported a very pleasant time.

Mr. Jim Spencer and S. L. Hurd transacted business in Brady last Monday.

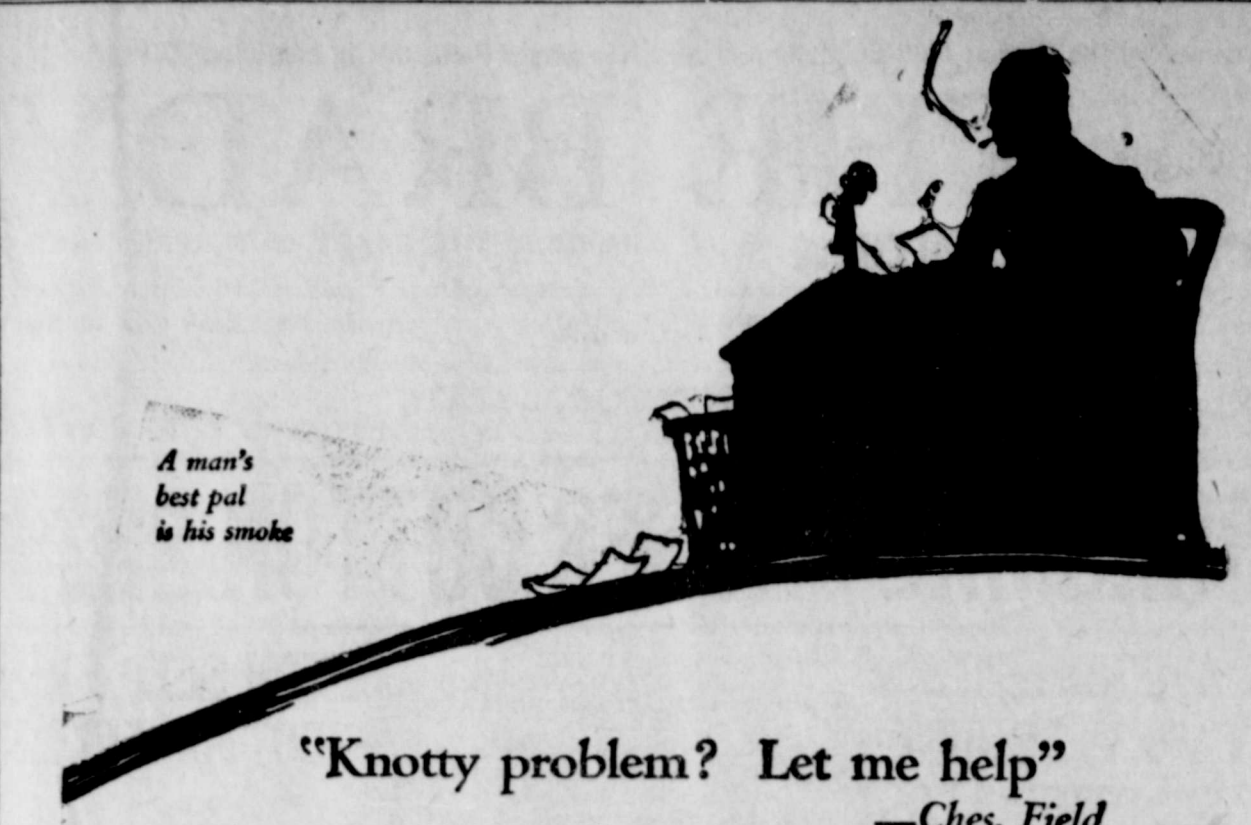

Well, as news is scarce, I must close.

"HELP" is right! A smooth, mellow smoke is just the thing, when you're up against a tough one. And Chesterfield is that smoke.

An expert and exclusive blend is responsible—finest, silkiest Turkish tobaccos from Xanthi, Cavalla, Smyrna and Samsoun, and the best varieties of Domestic leaf—put together by the manufacturer's private formula that brings out every last bit of flavor. No other process, no other blend, can successfully imitate Chesterfield's smoothness and full-bodied flavor.

No argument here! Chesterfields satisfy as no other cigarette has ever satisfied before.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children.

Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Redon, Ga. phoned to J. M. You will find nothing better for coughs and colds in children or for yourself. It eases the cough loose, expectation easy and soon frees the system from the cold.

Constipation.

Most laxatives and cathartics afford only temporary relief and should be used only for that purpose. When you want permanent relief take Chamberlain's Tablets and be careful to observe the directions with each package. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

You Do More Work.

You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is not a patent medicine. It is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.

The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC when a member of their family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 60c per bottle.

I Owe My Life to PE-RU-NA

Mr. McKinley's letter brings cheer to all who may be sufferers as he was. Read it:

"I can honestly say that I owe my life to Peruna. After some of the best doctors in the country gave me up and told me I could not live another month, Peruna saved me. Travelling from town to town, throughout the country and having to go into all kinds of badly heated stores and buildings, sometimes standing up for hours at a time while plying my trade as auctioneer, it is only natural that I had colds frequently, so when this would occur I paid little attention to it, until last December when I contracted a severe case, which, through neglect on my part, settled on my lungs. When almost too late, I began doctoring, but, without avail, until I heard of Peruna. It cured me, so I cannot praise it too highly."

$75,000,000 TO BE RAISED IN SOUTH

BAPTISTS ANNOUNCE PURPOSES TO WHICH VAST SUM THEY SEEK WILL BE GIVEN.

STRENGTHEN CHURCH WORK

Special Effort of Denomination Along General Lines Will Be Enlarged And Made Stronger As Result Of This Campaign.

Every general interest fostered by Southern Baptists will be strengthened, and enlarged through the success of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign which is now well under way, and which will reach its climax in the final drive to secure this sum in cash and subscriptions during the eight days of November 30 to December 7. A period of five years will be provided for the final payment of these subscriptions but for the campaign to succeed, the sum of $75,000,000 must be subscribed within the eight days. Many have expressed the belief that the subscriptions will run to $100,000,000.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention the $75,000,000 to be raised was apportioned among the general interests fostered by the Convention, as follows: Foreign missions, $20,000,000; home missions, $12,000,000; christian education, $20,000,000; state missions, $11,000,000; ministerial relief, $2,500,000; orphanages, $4,700,000; and hospitals, $4,125,000.

J. H. Anderson, Wealthy Knoxville Merchant, Who is Chairman of the Campaign in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign.

The apportionment of this sum among the several states within the territory of the Convention has been announced as follows: Alabama, $4,000,000; Arkansas, $3,200,000; District of Columbia, $200,000; Florida, $1,000,000; Georgia, $7,500,000; Southern Illinois, $1,200,000; Kentucky, $6,500,000; Louisiana, $3,325,000; Maryland, $750,000; Mississippi, $3,360,000; Missouri, $2,925,000; New Mexico, $260,000; North Carolina, $6,000,000; Oklahoma, $2,250,000; South Carolina, $5,500,000; Tennessee, $4,660,000; Texas, $16,000,000; and Virginia, $7,000,000.

Here is what this big sum of money will help Southern Baptists do for the Master, as set forth by the Campaign Commission:

"It will equip more adequately and multiply manifold the 1,099 missionary workers of the Foreign Mission Board, and the more than 2,000 Home and State Board Missionaries.

"It will enlarge and raise to a better efficiency the 132 Baptist schools in the South.

"It will go far towards meeting the expanding needs of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and the Women's Missionary Training School in Louisville, Ky., the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Women's Training School in Fort Worth, the Baptist Bible School in New Orleans, La., a Theological Seminary for the Negroes, and will provide a first-class college for boys and girls of the mountain region.

"It will increase greatly our hospital service to the sick, open wider our arms to the orphans and provide a strong support for our aged ministers of the gospel.

"It will put Southern Baptists in position to assume a considerable share in the reconstruction of war-torn Europe and embrace many of the marvelous opportunities for service which thrust themselves upon us from all parts of the world, at home and abroad."

While $20,000,000 of this sum will go to foreign missions and thus be expended in carrying the gospel and its blessings to other lands, the remaining $65,000,000 will be expended at home in building up home missionary, educational and benevolent institutions and projects, of which there are a number in every state within the boundaries of the convention.

HONEST INJUN.

There is a world of difference between arbitrate and arbitrary.

THE RED CROSS.

It is a peculiar appeal which the Red Cross is making to the people of the United States during this annual roll call; an appeal that can hardly be expressed in words, since it varies as human nature varies. It is this fact which on the first day of the campaign netted about one thousand names and one thousand dollars of this city's quota.

It is not necessary to explain the purposes of the Red Cross to American citizens. They know what it did during the war—know that it went with their boys to the front lines in France and Belgium and Russia and everywhere else that American soldiers went; it went with their sailor boys into every port in the wide world—and wherever it went it gave service. Parents and wives and sweethearts and brothers and sisters of these American soldiers and sailors know the Red Cross for what it is. They do not need anyone to explain it to them.

So, if the Red Cross had no explanation of its peace-time program to offer—if it merely asked the people to give their money and their support—it would be entitled to and would receive what it asked. But the Red Cross has a peace-time program of work, and it is a program second in importance only to its war-time program. It has a program of work for all the future of its existence, and that program may be outlined in the simple phrase, "Service to humanity." It is to finance this program that the present roll call campaign is being made; a campaign for millions of dollars and the pledge of support of millions of men and women and children who love the Red Cross for what it has done for them, and desire it to continue its work on a bigger, grander scale than ever before.

"A dollar and a name." Who can deny the Red Cross this?—Brownwood Bulletin.

RETURN OF THE RAILROADS.

The daily press intimates that government control of the railroads is soon to pass into history, and that the railroads will be returned to private ownership, the Texas railroads being first of all to be relinquished. If this action will in any way improve the railway service, then speed the day!

If the Frisco morning passenger train were to come in on time some fine morning, no doubt the event would be the sensation of the day. Running all the way from a couple to eleven hours behind the schedule, the service rendered patrons along its line has been a fright. Maintenance of roadbed seems to have been a forgotten factor in government operation to judge from the wrecks had recently. True, the unprecedented wet spell has contributed greatly to the unsafeness of the already decrepit roadbed.

But in addition to this, the trains appear to be operated with total disregard to the comfort and accommodation of passengers. The limit probably was the laying out of Tuesday morning's passenger train behind a wreck six miles out of Fort Worth for about eleven hours. The train that should have reached Brady at 8:50 a. m., instead arrived here at about 8:00 p. m. Passengers state that knowledge of the wreck was had before the train left Fort Worth. Instead of advising the passengers, or, upon finding the wreck so serious as to involve a delay of ten or eleven hours, returning the train to Fort Worth, the passengers were held there. When they arrived in Brady 21 hours after starting from Fort Worth, some had been able only to secure a cup of coffee, the train not having stopped enroute long enough to enable them to satisfy their hunger.

"Service" evidently has been stricken from the category of the Frisco railway, and "the public be damned" re-instated.

A STORY OF SUCCESS.

Something like five years ago a thrifty, energetic and progressive farmer located in McCulloch, buying a farm in the south part of the county. He at once proceeded to set out fruit trees, vines and otherwise improve his place, the original cost of which was something less than $5,000. Recently he has had numerous opportunities to sell, the most recent offer being at a profit of $7,000 over his original investment. That's 140% profit in 5 years' time!

Is McCulloch county land a good investment? The above paragraph is the answer. At that, this citizen has not yet decided to sell. He knows he has a good thing. He knows he has an abundant living at home, and an assured profit or steady income each year. He is enjoying the fruits of his industry—and he is entitled to his enjoyment.

Come to McCulloch—and do thou likewise!

Life

Where humanity weaves "Git you bum" Light and welcome A subtle transformation Where home fires burn, Looking into the future In glory's fires. The instrument.

By W. Alexander Imlay

Weaving eternal figure eights through the streets of a great city in the southwest a Saturday evening crowd shifted in a human phantasmagora under brilliant arc lights. It was early winter. In the fashionable district well clad men wore new overcoats and silken mufflers. In the lower end of the city men pulled thin summer coats tightly about their necks.

Women beating their way along the thoroughfares felt the chilling wind on sleazy silk clad ankles. Children of the slums hopped swiftly along, homeward bound from errands seeking the warmth of tenements, for their chilled bare feet.

A gutter rat stood in the doorway of a cheap restaurant. The odor of frying onions and steak tantalized his nostrils. It was for the warm air that came through the open door that he tarried.

"Git, you bum," he heard. A second later the toe of a tall man's boot had forced him into the street.

"No one wants a down and outer," the sniffling thing moaned as he slunk away.

Women of the street passed him with a leer. A "down and outer" was the last thing on earth they sought. What they wanted was money for food and warm quarters. The "rat" could supply neither.

A swinging light in the street ahead drew his attention. Upon coming close to it he spelled out "W-E-L-C-O-M-E."

"Ha! Ha!" he laughed cynically, but he entered.

Next morning the "rat" was no longer a rat. He had been fed and clothed. He had been bathed and given a bed. Hope burned high in his heart.

Through the offices of his new friends he was given work. It is useless to follow him for, of course, as in all articles of this kind, the "rat" made good.

Beaten and cuffed; scorned and unwanted he had at last come to his own.

Five years later we find the "rat" without a semblance of the thing of the gutter which had been clinging about him.

In a pleasant room, with a flower in the window, we find him reading the daily paper. A woman speaking in soft tones is lulling a child to rest.

Outside the wind howls. A cow hails in the stable at the rear of the lot on which the cozy home is built.

The one time down and outer is moving up. He has a wife and child. He owns a home. He has a cow.

"We must make some steps to issue our child the surroundings of Christianity," the wife tells the one time thing of the gutter, after the child is sound asleep in its crib.

"Well, what shall we do about it?" he replies.

The woman places her cheek next to his and whispers. The honest citizen is at peace. He nods his head in acquiescence. Sunday comes with bright sparkling morning light. The honest citizen and his wife dress in their best and start for church.

It is a church of brick and stone. Glazed windows break early morning light into thousands of prismatic crystals.

The minister takes his text—"Even as you do unto others." His sonorous voice rings out in full periods. The one time child of the slums is entranced.

LOCAL BRIEFS

J. W. Hibdon and family the first of the week occupied the jail building. Mr. Hibdon having been appointed jailer by Sheriff Wall. Ed Baker and family, who have been living at the jail, have moved to the former Rice homestead.

E. Coffee, who returned to Grand old McCulloch county with his family a couple weeks ago, is now again a permanent citizen, having Tuesday moved his household effects here from Graham. Mr. Coffee is another one of our former citizens who smiles miles of smiles when you ask if he is glad he is back.

W. W. Treadwell was here from Menard Wednesday, smiling his usual friendly greeting to his many McCulloch county friends. For a long number of years Mr. Treadwell has served the Menard Cattle Raisers' association as cattle inspector and is recognized as one of the most careful and efficient men in this service. Everyone admires Mr. Treadwell and is always glad to see him.

O. C. Summers came in Wednesday from Brownwood and spent a day greeting former acquaintances and friends. Mr. Summers has been located at Enloe, near Paris, Texas, the past year, but states he has quit the gin business and will engage in some other pursuit. He expects to locate at Brownwood—which is as near back home as he could get in one year's time.

L. D. Jobe arrived the past week from Brownwood and has occupied the J. W. Hibdon place. Mr. Jobe is head of the firm of L. D. Jobe & Co., and in addition to having drilled extensively in the Brownwood oil field, has drilled all but one of the Tucker shallow wells at Lohn. He is very enthusiastic over the Day well oil strike, and forecasts a renewal of the oil excitement in McCulloch county, with extensive drilling all over the territory in the vicinity of the Day well, where he is certain the same oil sands may be found, and in many places at even a more shallow depth.

Jim Mays, former proprietor of the Brady hotel, and who has been located at Taylor the past year, came back home Wednesday, and says if he can find a suitable location, he is back to stay and will have his family join him here within the next week or so. Jim has been working in the coal mines at Taylor, and while, he says, the miners there were not union men, they were nevertheless in sympathy with the striking miners and that work and production had gradually fallen off until work at mining no longer paid living wages. Mr. Mays says no place looks better to him than Brady, and nothing will please him better than to again call Brady home.

Epworth League Party.
The members of the Epworth League enjoyed a Halloween party at the Methodist parsonage, spending the evening in various forms of amusement, and in endeavoring to discover the identity of those who came masked. About forty of the members participated.

Hallowe'en Serenaders.
Miss Norma Wegner was hostess on Hallowe'en night to the following: Misses Lillian Huey, Marie Huey, Le-may Jordan, Mary Campbell, Myrtle Baker, Eula Mae Evans, Imogene Anderson, Vada Hibdon, Jaunita Taylor, Vivian Pence, Zola Spiller, Ruby Coal-son, Eba Carlson, Beatrice Myers, Eva Myers, Mabel Anderson, Rose Williams, Gertrude Woods.

After an enjoyable time spent in serenading, the party enjoyed refreshments served by Mrs. H. H. Sessions at her home, the porch of which was gaily decorated with jack-o'-lanterns for the occasion.

Five Hundred Club.
Mrs. G. C. Kirk entertained last Friday afternoon for the Five Hundred club, with four tables of "500." Club members present were Mesdames Wiley W. Walker, F. R. Wulff, C. T. White, G. R. White, J. S. Anderson, J. G. McCallif, C. D. Allen, J. S. Wall, Dick Winters, Ed Campbell; Miss Lucille Benham. Guests were Mesdames W. R. Davidson, H. B. Ogden, Bailey Jones, Burl T. Wiley, Frank Wilhelm. Club prize was awarded Mrs. Wulff, and guest prize, Mrs. Jones.

Bridge Club.
A very enjoyable afternoon was spent by members and guests of the Bridge club at the home of Mrs. W. D. Crothers last Tuesday. "Bridges" was played at three tables, Mrs. Herbert L. Wood winning club prize and Mrs. Geo. F. King, guest prize.

Miss Florence Smith Entertains.
Miss Florence Smith was hostess to a number of friends on last Friday night with a most enjoyable Hallowe'en party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Bates. The rooms were appropriately decorated with jack-o'-lanterns, cats and bats, and various Hallowe'en games served to pass the evening very pleasantly. Included among the guests were Misses Carmen Anderson, Edna Fabrenthold, Eulalia Gavit, Gertrude Trigg, Mabel Strickland, Marjorie McCall, Hilma Jordan, Cora Snider, Olive Dillard, Elizabeth Calvert, Odessa Moore; Messrs. Robert McGrew, Ralph Plummer, Glenn Ricks, John Simpson, Sidney Mears, Lylal Baze, Arthur Awalt.

Fourth Grade Hallowe'en Party.
One of the most enjoyable of the Hallowe'en celebrations was had by the pupils of the fourth grade of the Brady school, under the chaperonage of their teacher, Miss Pauline Devenport. The party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Meers, and all the guests came masked, some as witches, some as cats, and some as ghosts. A while was spent mingling on the lawn in efforts to discover "who was who."

The interior of the Meers' home, with its Hallowe'en decoration, was as spooky looking as the white-robed ghosts who entered silently. Everywhere could be seen the fiery eyes of the black cat or eerie-looking witches riding away on broom sticks.

The guests were led, one at a time, into a darkened room where they were met by a huge white horse, with blood red eyes and nostrils, and conducted the witch's tent where a real gypsy told their fortune. They were then invited into a room and told to help themselves to hanging apples and apples floating on the surface in tubs of water, but they must use only their teeth.

Each of the guests was then given a spoon and told to fish his doom, which was written on a slip of paper, out of the witch's boiling pot. Many of these horrible dooms caused the guests to grow cold and turn pale with terror.

A number of old Hallowe'en games were then played, causing much merriment and laughter; after which the guests were invited into the dining room, where they were met by the fiery glares of the jack-o'-lanterns, making hideous faces from the walls, and there served with delicious refreshments. The spooks then departed as they had much work planned for the night.

Those present were: Louise Cox, Sheridan Newman, Lillian Galloway, John Adkins, Alberta Batterton, Bessie Roddie, Kathleen Meers, Willie D. Evans, Evelyn Bennett, Harold Pence, Valton Butler, Weldon Meers, Mary Hallett, Mabel Parker Elizabeth Bailou, Lois Stowe, Bessie Butler, Aguil-la Cunningham, Essie Harriston, Hazel Owens, Amelia Steelhammer, Russ Holland, Vera Wooten and Alvin Carlson.

Mrs. J. F. Schaeg returned Tuesday from Fort Worth, where she had been spending several weeks as a guest of her daughter, Mrs. McCord Harrison, and family.

Ulrich Carroll has returned to Brady and is temporarily employed with the Rohde bakery. Since disposing of his interests at Gorman, Ulrich visited several weeks with his sister, Mrs. Will Lyle, at San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Ballou left Wednesday night for Fort Worth, where they will be guests of their daughter, Mrs. Jess Merwin, and family. Mr. Ballou expects to return within a few days, but Mrs. Ballou will, most likely, remain several weeks.

Mrs. Jack Tait and son, Jack, Jr., returned Wednesday morning from Toronto, Ohio, where they have been the past two months. Mrs. Tait was called to Ohio by news of the illness of her mother, whose death occurred before Mrs. Tait could reach her bedside. The return was delayed by the illness of an older sister, who, however, was well on the road to recovery when Mrs. Tait left for Brady.

U. S. ASSISTS IN RIDDING TEXAS OF WILD ANIMALS

Fort Worth, Nov. 4.—Uncle Sam is going to rid Texas of its wild animal menace.

The stoutest hunters of the land are trailing the game to their hiding places. Paid by the federal government, these keen shots and tireless plainsmen have gone out on the lonely ranches and will remain all winter, carrying on this campaign of extermination.

This wild animal eradication is being directed by C. R. Landon, who is employed expressly for it by the Department of Agriculture. His immediate superior is in Washington and he is co-operating with the Texas Live-stock Sanitary Commission located in this city.

The fight on the wild animal menace has been reduced to a science by Landon. For the actual killing of the predatory animals, he has employed professional huntsmen, who establish their camps at exposed ranches and remain there with their traps and their rifles until wolves or mountain lions are driven away or slain. The cattle country has been divided into districts and a hunter assigned to each, in the same manner as the forest ranger in the mountains.

In days gone by the cowmen of West Texas figured they had solved the predatory animal problem with the traps, poison and "wolf-proof fences." They invested large sums in each of these solutions. But the wild animals were wary. They went under the fence; he refused to eat the poisoned food and he escaped from the steel traps. Bounties next were offered. But they too proved futile, for they were too small for men to risk their lives and time for. So Uncle Sam has stepped in assigning men from the Bureau of Biological Survey, Department of Agriculture, to Texas and New Mexico.

The rifle in the hands of the experienced hunter has been pronounced the only wild animal exterminator and the patrol or ranger system the only assurance of success in this work.

Losses to Texas cattlemen at the hands of these wild animals have amounted to a tremendous figure. For instance, a lobo or gray wolf will destroy $1,000 worth of stock in a year, according to figures prepared by the United States government. A panther, by the same authority, does $500 worth of damage, while a bobcat will inflict $50 loss in twelve months. A coyote will do $50 damage also. However, some Texas stockmen declare this table of losses per animal is far too conservative.

Thirty-five hunters are now on Landon's staff. Their results are attested by the following: Mountain lions killed last year, 6; lobo wolves, 51; timber wolves, 610; coyotes, 6102; bob-cats, 1,113.

Besides these the hunters captured many red wolves, stock killing dogs, ring-tails, skunks and badgers.

The expense of the hunters is apportioned among the stockmen, the state and federal agencies. But much of the expense money is returned in the shape of valuable skins and hides. Each skin taken by the hunter is sold and the proceeds used in paying his salary and living expenses. The lobo wolf is the chief enemy to the Texas stockman now because of his size and because of his tendency to travel in packs. Frequently though, these big wolves hunt alone.

As an evidence of the ferocity of these animals, Director Landon has been informed that one stockman near Ozona lost 250 calves recently at the hands of the lobos.

RED CROSS.

To Combat Influenza. The Red Cross has already made preparations for hearty co-operation with Health Officials in meeting the return of the Influenza epidemic which medical authorities prophesy. It is such emergency service, as well as the all-year-round help which the Red Cross gives, that makes it an organization worthy of the support of all the American people, and this support should be evidenced by responding to the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 24 to 11th.

Every community visited by the epidemic last year found help in the Red Cross. Every community will find assistance ready when the need arises this year.

From one city in the Southwestern division comes this expression of gratitude for Red Cross aid last fall when the influenza was at its worst: "Notwithstanding the magnificent and world-embracing achievements of the Red Cross in the recent as well as in the remote past, none of its achievements have wrought the intense feeling of personal attainment to the organization among the people of this city, as has been awakened by the historic deeds of the past October."

WULFF TO SELL ESSEX AND HUDSON CARS ALSO

Announcement is made by F. R. Wulff that he has added the Essex and Hudson cars to his general lines of automobile equipment. It is not necessary to go into detail regarding the Hudson, which in its four years of perfecting the same model, has become so well known and popular. The Essex is manufactured by the same people, and have their reputation behind it. It is a lighter car, and is intended for those who wish a smaller car of the same class as the Hudson.

The first Essex will be seen in Brady within a week or so, and will, no doubt, win the same approval that it has met everywhere it has appeared.

Mr. Wulff has added these two lines in order to help him fill his orders for cars. He has made arrangement with Dodge Brothers to ship him at least a carload of five Dodge motor cars each month, and hopes soon to have two carloads per month coming in. By these extraordinary means, he hopes eventually to overtake the steadily increasing list of prospective car owners, whose orders he has already booked.

A Popular Call.

A clergyman in a midland town, just before the service, was called to the vestibule to meet a couple who wanted to be married. He explained that there wasn't time for the ceremony.

"But," said he, "if you will be seated, I will give you an opportunity at the end of the service to come forward."

The couple agreed, and at the proper moment the clergyman said, "Will those who wish to be united in the holy bond of matrimony please come forward?"

Thereupon thirteen women and one man proceeded to the altar.

TO KEEP CLEAR OF "WAR CHESTS"

RED CROSS RULES THAT DRIVE IS EXCLUSIVELY FOR MEMBERSHIPS.

CHAPTERS RECEIVE NOTICE

Objection Is Made to the Use of Red Cross Name in Such Connection, Is Announcement.

The Red Cross will not become a party to local or community "war chests," according to an announcement issued recently by Alfred Fairbank, Manager of the Southwestern Division of the Red Cross. The decision follows a recent ruling of the Central Committee of the American Red Cross and is based upon the fact that the forthcoming Red Cross drive, November 2 to 11, is to be a campaign for individual, not wholesale, memberships.

Chapter chairmen of the Red Cross Chapters throughout Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas have been sent the following notification by Manager Fairbank:

"The Central Committee of the American Red Cross has announced that Red Cross Chapters should not become parties to any local war chests or community war chests inasmuch as its Third Roll Call is primarily a call for Red Cross membership.

"As the Red Cross does not plan a wide general campaign for funds this year, the objection to the use of the Red Cross name in connection with such movements is more strongly emphasized than ever. Not only the success of the coming campaign but the future of the Red Cross will be largely dependent upon a full individual membership enrollment.

"Through a direct membership campaign it is possible for the Red Cross to gain the loyal and enthusiastic support of thousands of individuals to whom it must look for its future service. Only insofar as each member feels that the achievements of the Red Cross are made possible through this individual support will it be possible to carry on as comprehensive and far-reaching a program as that upon which the organization now is entering. The acquisition of every loyal member of the Red Cross forms a bulwark of strength far surpassing any possible good that could be gained through general money donations.

"It would, therefore, be detrimental to the spirit and policy of the Red Cross to seek wholesale memberships through war or community chests. The use of the Red Cross name in connection with such movements would tend only to confusion of the public mind and would lessen greatly the force of the individual call to membership."

FIGHTING MEN RESPONDING

SERVICE MEN AID RED CROSS NOVEMBER CAMPAIGN.

Soldiers, Sailors and Marines Are Answering the Calls for Volunteer Workers.

Soldiers, sailors and marines, many of whom saw active service overseas, are responding in appreciable numbers to the call of the Red Cross for volunteer workers in the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11.

These service men, who felt the kindly care of the Red Cross from the day they answered the call to arms, are eager to express their gratitude to "the Greatest Mother" by becoming members of the American Red Cross. The Red Cross fed them when they were hungry, made them laugh when they were tired and worn out, cared for their wounds and their diseases, and helped them readjust themselves to civilian life. Is it any wonder they want to show the American people that they have faith in the Red Cross, that they want to see it perpetuated to carry on through its peace program the business of helping America to be healthier and happier?

The boys are backing the Red Cross in its Third Roll Call because they have seen it at work and recognize in it an organization for all Americans.

HERO THANKS RED CROSS

Cardinal Mercier Conveys Gratitude of Belgian People for Part Played by Americans.

According to telegraphic advices received by Alfred Fairbank, Manager of the Southwestern Division of the Red Cross at St. Louis, Cardinal Mercier, distinguished Belgian prelate, expressed the gratitude of that nation toward the American Red Cross for the part the organization played in alleviating the suffering of the Belgian people during the war, in a recent informal visit to Red Cross headquarters at Washington.

"I express to you my deep gratitude," Cardinal Mercier said. "I express it to you personally and also in the name of my people, not only to you here, but also to those who are far away. I thank you also for the great work of the Red Cross. I know your membership has grown from 400,000 to, I think it is, 12,000,000 or 20,000,000. This is a splendid progress in a splendid movement."

The Most Welcome Tire That Ever Came to Market

Men Who Appreciate Superlative Values Prefer The Brunswick

In every great tire factory, the chief question is: "How much can we give for the money?" And the product depends on the policy adopted.

Every man who has become acquainted with Brunswick Tires knows that Brunswick standards are again evident. This famous concern—noted as a leader in every line it entered since 1845—has once more proved that its policy is right.

A perfect tire is simply a matter of knowledge and standards and skill. No secrets nor patents prevent making an ideal tire.

But standards come first. For in tire making there is vast room for skimping, for subtle economies, for hidden shortcomings. Makers without the highest standards don't build high-grade tires.

The Brunswick organization of tire makers includes a brilliant staff of technical experts. Not a man among them has spent less than 20 years in handling rubber.

Each is a master of his craft. And the new ideas they bring to the attention of Brunswick directors receive sincere consideration.

Every proved betterment is adopted unanimously.

The Brunswick Tire is a combination of acknowledged features—plus Brunswick standards of manufacture.

The result is a super-tire, the like of which you have never known before. The kind of a tire you will gladly join in welcoming.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires.

RED CROSS DRIVE GAINS MOMENTUM

ACTIVITIES OF EACH DAY OF NOVEMBER CAMPAIGN OUTLINED.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO AID

Also Women's Clubs, Municipal Employees, Labor Organizations and Business Men.

That added momentum is being given by the Third Red Cross Roll Call by the approach of the opening day of the campaign, November 2, is indicated by hundreds of preliminary reports reaching Southwestern Division headquarters in St. Louis from Red Cross Chapters in the five States—Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Arkansas and Oklahoma—composing the division. The drive closes November 11.

An outline, giving in detail the Red Cross activities that will characterize each day of the 10-day campaign, recently has been made public. The opening day as designated "Red Cross Sunday" and will be the occasion for sermons on the Red Cross that will be preached in churches throughout the United States. Special programs are to be held at morning or evening services.

On Monday, November 3, the Governor's proclamation in each State will be made public, mass meetings will begin and the first check of the progress of the campaign will be made at a workers' dinner in the evening.

"Municipal Employees Day" has been set for Tuesday, November 4. On this day a proclamation from the Mayor of each city and town will be arranged for, while on the principal municipal building the Red Cross flag will be raised to be displayed throughout the remainder of the campaign.

Department store speeches will be made by "four-minute men" to be followed by lunch hour enrollment.

Wednesday, November 5, is to be "Women's Day," on which special tribute is to be paid to the work which women are doing in the Red Cross. Meetings of women's clubs, special exercises in Red Cross workrooms and Chapters will characterize the day, which also will mark the peak of the house-to-house canvass that is to be an additional feature of the campaign.

Homage to the support which the laboring man is giving to the Red Cross will be paid Thursday, November 6, which is "Employees' Day." Noon meetings will be held at factories and large industrial plants.

The school children of each city, town and county will be the central figures on Friday, November 7, when special exercises in the schools will be held. The following day is special feature day for business and fraternal clubs. On the second Sunday of the campaign, November 9, patriotic sermons will be preached. November 10 is "Button Day," when all not wearing Red Cross buttons, will be solicited, while on Tuesday, November 11, the first anniversary of the Armistice, final reports will be made, and the campaign will close.

SOLDIERS TO DIRECT DRIVE

SAILORS, TOO, IN SOME CASES WILL RUN CAMPAIGN.

Willingness of Returned Fighters to Direct Red Cross Roll Call Encouraging.

Returned soldiers and sailors in a large number of Red Cross Chapters of the Southwestern Division of the Red Cross—Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Arkansas and Oklahoma—have accepted the directorship of the Third Red Cross Roll Call, Nov. 2 to 11, according to a recent announcement.

That this willingness not only to become members of the organization but to engage actively in the campaign to perpetuate the American Red Cross for future work indicates the high regard in which service men hold the Red Cross, is the belief of Alfred Fairbank, Division Manager.

"The fact that the young men who have served their country so courageously, and who have seen the Red Cross at work, are willing to assist so actively in its continuance should appeal to every man, woman and child in the country.

TEACHERS WILL CANVASS

Dallas, Texas, Instructors Volunteer As Red Cross Roll Call Workers.

School teachers of Dallas, Texas, have volunteered their services as canvassers for the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11. They already have perfected an organization and plan to make a house-to-house canvass on the second Sunday of Roll Call week in an effort to swell the total of Red Cross memberships for 1920.

"As we each intend to canvass in our own district," one teacher writes to Red Cross headquarters, "we expect to accomplish much by this unified action. Many teachers have mentioned that they had been unable to give as much time to war work as they wished and therefore desired now to aid the cause in furthering its peace program."

BAPTISTS PLAN RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAM

BODY CHARGED WITH DUTY OF OUTLINING HOW 75 MILLION CAMPAIGN CAN PROMOTE THAT TASK REACHES FIELD—DR. LOVE OUTLINES THE NEED AND ISSUES CALL

To make a general survey of the economic, social and religious conditions in Europe with a view to recommending to the Baptists of the South where and how they can aid most effectively in the reconstruction of that continent through the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, a commission, composed of Dr. J. F. Love, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board at Richmond, Va.; Dr. Z. T. Cody, editor Baptist Courier, Greenville, S. C., and Rev. Everett Gill, missionary at Rome, Italy, who is returning after a leave of absence in this country, and who will serve as guide and interpreter to the other members, is now in England for a conference with the Baptists of Great Britain and will go from there for an inspection of France and Belgium.

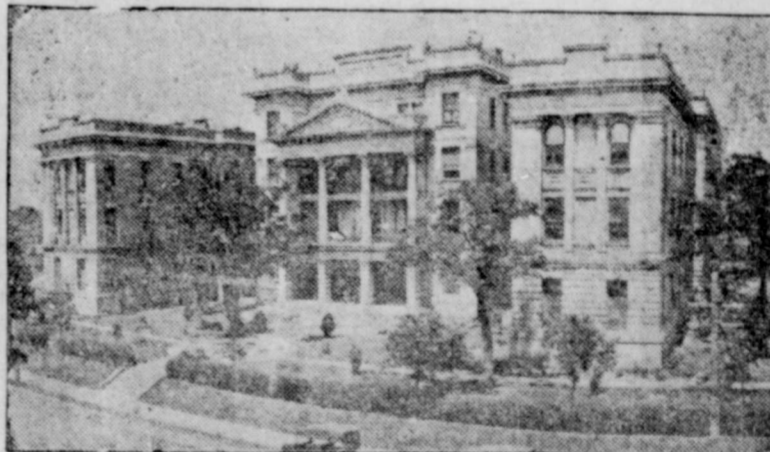

Another brief conference will be held with the Baptists of Switzerland, after which a trip will be made through Italy and a survey of the new republic of Czechoslovakia conducted. From Prague, capital of Bohemia, the commission will go into such parts of Russia as are open, and the foreign trip will be concluded with an inspection of Palestine, where the missionary work formerly done in Syria, Persia and Galilee by the Illinois Baptist Association has been turned over to the Foreign Mission Board.

There are approximately 4,250 Baptist churches in Europe today, with 3,600 pastors and missionaries and 566,800 church members, it is announced by the headquarters of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, and a considerable sum from this campaign will go toward succoring needy families of Baptists and others in the war-torn regions as well as in the propagation of the gospel and the establishment of Christian institutions there, it is announced.

Before sailing on the Adriatic on his European mission, Dr. Love made the following statement outlining the purpose of the commission: "When the call came to help save, promote and secure democracy in Europe there came a louder call to help save, promote and secure evangelical Christianity in Europe. That which alone will now preserve and perfect the democracy for which brave men have died on the battlefield of Europe is the Christianity of the New Testament. Southern Baptists can not longer profess New Testament Christianity and decline a challenge like that which is now presented to them to bear witness to their faith among the peoples of Europe. Our people never before faced such a challenge and such a responsibility.

"Of course we can not go to the men and women of Europe who have been stripped of earthly fortune and reduced to direct necessity with a message of Christian love and brotherhood if we decline in our abundance to carry some substantial pledge of our love and compassion. Mothers will not be able to stay the crying of their little ones to hear us preach if we decline to practice the gospel of compassion and feed these little ones and build fires at which they can during the coming winter warm their frosted toes. Southern Baptists are under the most solemn obligation to help relieve the want and suffering of Europe. But if there were no reconstruction work in Europe, Southern Baptists have motives numerous enough and strong enough to compel them to make a complete success of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign. I would therefore, as my parting word to my brothers and sisters of the South, implore them to give themselves to this campaign and carry it to a triumphant conclusion during Victory Week, November 30-December 7."

$4,800,000 TO BE RAISED FOR HOSPITALS

A modern hospital illustrative of the type of buildings Southern Baptists are employing in the relief of human suffering.

In their work of relieving human physical suffering Southern Baptists at present own and control fourteen hospitals and there are under course of construction and about ready to be opened at least two more, with considerable progress made toward the erection of others. All of these institutions are liberally patronized and are self-supporting but all of them need to be enlarged in order to meet the rapidly-growing demands upon them. The demand for charity work is especially urgent and in order to enable them to thus render a needed service to those who are least able to help themselves as well as to provide larger facilities for the regular work the hospitals are doing the sum of $4,800,000 has been apportioned to them from the proceeds to be raised in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign.

This work of relieving the physical afflictions of men, women and children and thus putting them on the road to better health and larger efficiency and usefulness was begun within the bounds of the Southern Baptist convention in 1890 when the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium was opened in St. Louis. From a very small beginning in a residence with less than a dozen beds, this institution has grown into a modern institution with more than 300 beds.

Other Baptist hospitals in the South include Baptist Hospital, Muskogee, Okla.; Baptist Hospital, Miami, Okla.; Baptist Hospital, Cushing, Okla.; Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.; Georgia Baptist Hospital, Atlanta; Oklahoma Baptist State Hospital, Oklahoma City; Baptist Hospital, Columbia, S. C.; Texas Baptist Memorial Sanitarium, Dallas; Baptist Hospital, Houston, Tex.; Baptist Hospital, Alexandria, La.; Baptist Hospital, Jackson, Miss.; St. Louis Baptist Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., and the Kansas City Baptist Hospital at Kansas City, Mo.

Much Property Reverts to Crown. Few people realize the large amount of property which passes every year to the crown of England owing to the owners dying without heirs or next-of-kin, and without having made a will. In most of these cases the deceased is an illegitimate person with no children.

As a rule the crown does not appropriate the whole of the property, but makes what is called a compassionate allowance to the relatives of the deceased, although they may not be his relatives according to law, and in some cases to friends and servants who have performed services for him which entitle them to consideration.

The amount of the allowance is determined by the treasury, or, in the case of the estates of persons dying within the duchy of Lancaster, by the chancellor of the duchy.

The money does not pass to the king himself, but to the nation, and thus goes to relieve poverty.

DO SOMETHING WORTH WHILE

Much Benefit Will Come From Determination to Make Each Day Record of Accomplishment.

The one who starts out in the morning with a determination to do something during the day that will amount to something, that will be distinctive, that will have individuality, that will give him satisfaction at night, is a great deal more likely not to waste his day in frivolous, unproductive work than the one who starts out with no plan.

Begin every day, therefore, with a program and determine that, let what will come, you will carry it out as closely as possible. Follow it up persistently, day after day, and you will be surprised at the result.

Make up your mind at the very outset of the day that you will accomplish something that will amount to something; that you will not allow callers to fritter away your time, and that you will not permit the little annoyances of your business to spoil your day's work. Make up your mind that you will be larger than the trifles which cripple and cramp mediocre lives, and that you will rise above petty annoyances and interruptions and carry out your plans in a large and commanding way.

Make every day of your life count for something; make it tell in the grand results, not merely as an added day, but as an added day with something worthy achieved.

Why Twelve Is Standard Unit.

The numeral 12 was chosen as a standard unit because it contains so many smaller factors; this is the reason why it is still retained as a base in spite of the efforts to replace it by the metric system. All primitive nations found fractions very difficult, and even the Egyptians, who were most proficient in fractions, used methods that were very long and cumbersome. It was a great advantage, therefore, to have a standard unit which could be divided into parts without giving common fractions, and 12 was such a number, as 1-2, 1-3, 1-4 and 1-6 of 12 were all whole numbers.—Science Monthly.

Test of Honesty.

Money never made a man honest. Higher salary rarely secures the services of better men for the public. That has been shown, time and again, when the salary of a position was raised for the purpose of attracting business talent to it. The result usually has been that some hack politician has accepted the higher pay with thanks or else that the sort of business man who was attracted to place-holding by the money offered soon developed into an inferior grade of politician. Honesty and dishonesty have no necessary relation to a man's financial or social condition.—Buffalo Express.
