BRADY MASONIC LODGE NO. 628 BASKET PICNIC THURSDAY

COOLING RAINS WEDNESDAY BRING TEMPORARY RELIEF FROM HEATED EARTH

The extremely humid atmosphere was temporarily relieved Wednesday afternoon by a shower which fell in Brady about 2:30 o'clock. As a matter of fact there were two showers, the first preceding a heavy cloud which came up from the east. While of short duration, the rain spattered down sharply, and all the while the sun shone brightly from the western skies. A short while later a second shower fell, coming out of a cloud in the southwest. The total precipitation in Brady was one-fifth of an inch.

Southwest of here a heavy rain is reported, two inches of rain falling in the Hext community and a good rain being had at Peg Leg, while Menard had about four-tenths of an inch.

The continued great humidity gives rise to hopes that a good general rain may yet be had, which would come most opportunely for all growing crops.

DRILLING ON THAD O. DAY WELL NO. 2 RESUMED THURS. BY LITTLEMAN

AFTER SEVERAL MONTHS' SHUT-DOWN, WELL IS TO BE COMPLETED—ALL PREPARATIONS COMPLETED YESTERDAY—WELL NO. 3 THRU 200 FT. BLACK LIME.

After a shut-down of several months, Thad O. Day well No. 2 is to be drilled to completion. Bob Littleman, who has the contract for completing the well, completed all rigging up yesterday and began operations. The hole stands at 670 ft., and should reach the 860 ft. sand, in which well No. 1 was brought in, within the next week or so. Littleman is one of the best drillers in this section, and has had considerable experience in this county, having drilled in the Lohn neighborhood the past year.

Thad O. Day well No. 3 continues drilling in Ranger black lime at 1257 ft., and has already penetrated 200 feet of black lime. Oil men pronounce the prospects looking extra good, and feel confident that something will develop in the drilling before many more days.

Jeff Meers, president of the Texas-Meers Oil Co. reports that company just resuming operations on the Har-groves tract in Concho county, following a week's shut-down due to the worst break they have yet experienced with their machinery. The drilling will begin today, with 775 ft. of 13-inch hole already made.

The Casa Oil Co., Inc., has resumed drilling.

The Howell-Hyde well is again in operation, repairs for the machinery having been received Wednesday.

ANNUAL PICNIC AND BARBECUE AT FIVE TUESDAY, JULY 20TH

Pass the good news around! Five citizens are preparing to hold their annual picnic and barbecue on Tuesday, July 20th, and upon that occasion Five citizens are going to put the big pot in the little one. Take the committee's word for it—the committee is composed of R. K. Finlay, Thos. Mitchell and Sidney McKeand—and they are all live ones and will assure all comers of plenty to eat and a good time every minute of their stay.

Five folks are going to have a good time, but they are not selfish and want their neighbors and friends to come out and enjoy the occasion with them.

Here is the program of amusement and entertainment they have mapped out for the big day: Goat Roping, Tournament Races, Horse Races, Cigar and Slicker Races, Baseball, Aeroplane Flights—and to top it all off—Free Barbecue, Bread and Pickles, and an assurance of plenty of water and shade.

Candidates for governor and congress have been invited to present their platforms and local candidates also will be privileged to address the voters or handshake them if they prefer. Five folks don't want you to forget the date, and they want your presence.

PEAR VALLEY ENTERTAINS WITH BASKET PICNIC ON THURSDAY, JULY 15TH.

J. H. Smith was in from the Pear Valley community Wednesday passing around among Brady citizens and visitors the good news that Pear Valley would entertain on next Thursday, July 15th, with an old-fashioned basket picnic, to which everyone in McCulloch and neighboring territory is extended a hearty invitation. Everyone is invited to bring well-filled baskets, and a royal time is assured all. The Pear Valley folks have a reputation for hospitality that is hard to surpass and, needless to say, this reputation will be fully maintained next Thursday.

MASONIC FRATERNITY TO STAGE BIG BASKET PICNIC NEXT WEEK

INVITATIONS BEING EXTENDED MEMBERS OF MASONIC LODGES IN THIS AND ADJOINING COUNTIES—BRADY MASONIC LODGE NO. 628 HOSTS UPON OCCASION.

Brady Masonic Lodge No. 628 will on Thursday of next week (July 15th) be host to members of the Masonic fraternity and their families, from McCulloch and adjoining counties at a big basket picnic to be held on the Edd Bryson ranch, seven miles east of Brady on Brady creek. Members of the local order will bring baskets filled to overflowing upon that occasion, while all others will be invited to bring themselves, their families and their best appetites. Men prominent in Masonic circles will be present to address the assembly, the order has almost certain assurance of having one of the best bands ever in this section to furnish music, and there will be left nothing undone towards making the occasion a huge success.

The matter of staging a big picnic was first discussed at a special meeting held about two weeks ago, and again at the last regular meeting, at which time the date and place for holding the picnic were decided upon. At a meeting of the lodge held Wednesday night, E. A. Baze, recently installed as Worshipful Master of the lodge, made appointment of the various committees in whose hands arrangements for the big event have been entrusted. The holding of the picnic at the Edd Bryson ranch was decided upon by reason of the excellent shade and abundance of water to be had there, as well as the accessibility of the grounds to all having automobiles. Harold Deaton, who is in charge of the transportation committee, will appoint assistants and will see that conveyance is provided for all members of the Masonic fraternity and their families both to and from the picnic grounds.

It was decided that no concessions would be sold. The usual refreshments stands will be operated under the jurisdiction of the lodge itself, with W. I. Myers in direct charge of the various stands.

Personal invitations are to be sent out to every member of any Masonic lodge in McCulloch county, while members of lodges in adjoining counties will be extended an invitation to the picnic through the secretary of their respective lodge.

WALDRIP ECHOES.

Had Great Picnic and Dinner—Prayer Meeting Saturday.

Waldrip, Texas, July 3.

Editor Brady Standard:

The farmers are all just about up with their work. But the crops are all needing rain.

The picnic Saturday was great. Had plenty of dinner and everyone seemed to enjoy it very much.

Albert Briscoe and Marion Holland went to Brady Monday morning on business.

J. O. Chaffin and wife went to Brady Tuesday to visit relatives.

There will be prayer meeting here every Saturday night. Everyone is invited to come and bring some one with you.

S. H. Briscoe was seriously ill Sunday afternoon and until yesterday, but is better today.

Miss Floyce King of Brady was here Saturday at the picnic and stayed until Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Hughes and their little daughter, Virginia, visited their relatives here last week.

Excuse this short letter, but if Waldrip had been a little larger my letter might have been longer.

"LITTLE SISTER."

See our representative and place your order for one of the "Free" sewing machines. We recommend them. O. D. MANN & SONS.

You Do More Work.

You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is not a patent medicine, it is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.

The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC when a member of their family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 60c per bottle.

CALF CREEK NEWS.

Two Marriages Reported—Rabbits Doing Much Damage.

Brady, Texas, July 5.

Editor Brady Standard:

As I was absent last week will try and write a few lines this week.

The farmers are still real busy with their farm work, but are complaining about the rabbits being so bad—eating up the cotton and are just cleaning up the gardens. I think they will have to quit their farms and begin to kill the rabbits.

Miss Cordelia Carnes from Eden is spending a few weeks with friends and relatives.

Grandpa and Grandma Walker have gone to Eden to spend a few weeks with their son and daughter, Mrs. Carnes and Frank Walker.

The stork visited our community last week and brought Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bradshaw a girl.

Mr. Emmett Tell and Mrs. George Attaway stole a march on their friends Saturday night by being quietly married at Bro. Wren's. Also Mr. Clyde Tucker married Mrs. C. Tucker's step-sister. I didn't learn her name, as she just came from Blanket a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Whipple of Brady spent the day at the E. L. Bridge home Sunday.

The Calf Creek ball team and the Kitchen ditch team played at Calf Creek Sunday afternoon. The first inning was sixteen to nothing in favor of Calf Creek, and they played again, being eight to four in favor of Calf Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Attaway returned last week from their visit in Arkansas and Oklahoma. Mrs. Attaway brought a fine pig home with her.

As my letter is getting rather long I will close and give space for a better writer, and I hope I will have a good rain to report next week, as we are needing one real bad.

"DAISY."

WONDER WORDS.

Wonder, Ore., July 3.

Editor Brady Standard:

This is the glorious Fourth in this part of the immortal vineyard on account of tomorrow being Sunday; and as the Dutchman said, "In some countries the fort' mit shuly gooms on der fift tay mit Shuly."

I heard one Dutchman say that 'Y' is the fourth of July. He explained it thus: J is the first; U is the second; L is the third, and Y is the fourth of July." According to that then Y is not only the fourth of July but it is also the last of July as well. We are having some reasonably warm days now, but the nights are still cold enough for a person to sleep under two quilts. And the mornings are refreshing, tho' not cold enough to require fire in the front room. Some of our boosters have printed on their envelopes the words, "It's the climate!" I think the summers are fine, and a great many people seem to think the winters are too, but I don't! They chill me to the bone.

One of my neighbors a few years ago sent off (of course) and got a pair of thoroughbred registered big-bone Poland China pigs for himself, and a pair for his brother. The pigs cost them exactly one dollar a pound. It was John H. Robinson and Richard Robinson. John took good care of his and exhibited them at the fairs and captured all the first prizes.

Of late years grain got so high (4s to 6c a pound) that Richard Robinson did not feed his as he should and they now look like genuine "Razor-backs"—noses as long as your arm and back-bones like a cross-cut saw. A man came to me to buy pigs. He told me he could get the thoroughbreds of Robinson (real cheap), but they were stunted in their growth and he did not want them. He also said that my cross-bred stock was better than the thoroughbred. I told him that I had raised the largest hogs of any I had ever seen, and that was the object to be desired; size! I did not take any of mine to the fairs, because they would not have been admitted on account of not being registered thoroughbreds. I would not take a large hog to a fair no way, unless I had a bona-fide guarantee of at least $100, as it does a fat hog no good to be bruised up by jamming him about. I tell folks if they want to see some of the best hogs they ever did see, to just stop at my place and look at them and it will not cost them a red cent! I am not getting anything for my ideas about hog raising nor do I want anything, except to be of use to others. And those who will remember the points I set forth and profit by my experience will be well paid for their trouble. In another article I will send a clipping from the Morning Oregonian, that an acquaintance sent to me, which I hope will cause you all to say,

"O. I. C. U. R. RIGHT."

FIFE FINDINGS.

Picnic and Barbecue Date Set for Tuesday, July 20th.

Fife, Texas, July 6.

Editor Brady Standard:

Crops in this community never looked better than now. Parts of the community had rain Monday night, but d'd not need it, except for late corn.

Most everybody here attended the picnic at Waldrip Saturday and all report a most enjoyable time, except Jim Doyle and E. B. Baldrige, who were both sick the next day from indigestion.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Tedder are visiting at Kemper this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bradley visited Mrs. Bradley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Chastain at Millersview Sunday.

A. H. Duderstadt is busy this week hauling out machinery for the new gin he is erecting here. From the way the cotton crop looks, he will be kept busy this fall too.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ranne visited relatives at Prairie View Sunday.

Dick Moseley of Rochelle was here Friday to oversee the cattle dipping. So far no ticks have appeared here since last August and Mr. Moseley assures us that we will soon be thru dipping.

H. D. Bradley shipped a car of steers to Fort Worth Sunday.

Mr. Irvin Crider of Hebron is visiting friends here this week.

The monthly meeting of the Farmers' Co-operative Council here has been postponed until Wednesday night, July 14th.

The Sunday school folks have discarded the old organ and bought a piano for use of the school and other meetings at the tabernacle. Come out and hear it next Sunday.

Several of our citizens attended the Cummins-Blackburn examining trial at Brady Monday.

The committee has decided to pull off our picnic and barbecue on Tuesday, July 20th. We will have some classy goat roping, to be overseen and managed by H. D. Bradley and Dock Wyres; tournament, cigar and slicker races, managed by Roy Wyres, W. W. Cooker and H. D. Martin; slow mule race and fast horse race, managed by Tom Bradley, Dock Wyres and Donald Finlay; also base ball, aeroplane flights and other amusements all day. Everybody is invited to take the day off. Hear the long-winded candidates and enjoy themselves thoroughly on the old picnic grounds, one mile east of town.

We want to commend The Standard for its mention of the proposition to be voted on the primary ticket, July 24, politically called the "Home Owning Amendment." This amendment, if submitted and carried, gives the politicians a right to amend that section of the Texas constitution containing the present Homestead law and is, from all appearances the first step towards destroying it. Let's everybody vote against the submission of it and kill it before it gets any further.

The Casa oil well, 1 mile southwest of here is at work again, after a long shut down.

"E. Z."

"I Wouldn't Go Camping Without Rat-Snap." Says Ray White.

"Wife and I spent our vacation camping last summer, smell of cooking brought rats. We went to town, got some RAT-SNAP, broke up cakes, put it outside—big fellows." Farmers, storekeepers, housewives, should use RAT-SNAP. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by O. D. Mann & Sons and Trigg Drug Store.

ROCHELLE RUMBLINGS.

Thanks for the Invitation—It's a Long Way When You Walk.

Rochelle, Texas, July 4.

Editor Brady Standard:

We have been having some very warm weather. Some days almost suffocating and good prospects for rain. Have had some thunder and lightning and we are in hopes we will get rain immediately. Had some rain week ago but are in need of it again to keep the crops moving along nicely. Cotton chopping is still the order of the day, but I see in some fields there is still lots of chopping and labor scarce and high. Corn is fine and roasting ears plentiful and I certainly hope the rest of the correspondents have come across with that mess of roasting ears for the editor and some day in the near future, or at least the first time I get off to Brady, he is sure of one mess (or as the Lost Creek correspondent says, there are plenty here for him, if he has the time to come for them) and of course he has the time, as I don't suppose editors have very much to do anyway, and just as well spend a part of his leisure time coming over after them.

Gardens are needing rain, and also the sweet potato slips just transplanted. It would be fine on them, and give them a good start.

Mr. Tom Jeffries and family of Deep Creek community, together with some of his relatives, who arrived at his home last week hied it off to the Brook ranch for a visit with R. H. Rodgers and family and to catch a few of the finny tribe.

Mr. Joe Dunsmore and family of Copperas Cove are visiting in the home of the ladies' brother, Mr. G. W. Anderson, for a few days this week.

Misses Ada and Ida Young, after teaching a very successful term of school at Calf Creek returned to their home near Rochelle last week.

Mr. Tyson and family of Mullen are visiting in the home of his wife's mother, Mrs. Nannie Selman, this week.

Mrs. Leila Hardin and children, Louise, Horace and Vernon, of Fort Worth, are here for a couple months visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Waddell, of this place.

I notice in The Standard of July 2nd, a couple of weddings reported, but that doesn't compete with Rochelle at all—for Cupid has certainly been doing some good work here—only three marriages here last week. On Monday the 28th, Mr. Johnny Selman and Miss Myrtle Burk went to Brady and was there united in marriage by Bro. Cowan, the M. E. pastor of that place. Tuesday, the 29th, Mr. Joe Gainer went to Eden for his bride, Miss Nova Caves and had the knot tied by Bro. Wall, the Methodist pastor there. Then on Wednesday the 30th, Mr. Jack Simpson and Miss Lillian Gainer decided while the ball was rolling they would keep it going, so they also went to Bro. Cowan and he finished up the Rochelle marriages for that week. Now if any community can beat this let them be heard from. Mr. Simpson and bride left the same day for Dallas, where Jack has a paying position and has a home, previously prepared for his bride. All these young people were reared close around Rochelle except Mrs. Gainer, who was reared at or near Eden, and the best wishes of this entire community go out to them for their health, happiness, and all the best there is in life.

Mr. Jim Price and wife and little daughter, Winnie and son, J. T., took a trip to Crosbyton last week to visit their son, Guy and family, and were joined at Sweetwater by their daughter, Mrs. Willie Hamilton and two children, Lucille and W. A., all spending a very pleasant week together, Winnie going back to Dallas with her sister for a visit.

Mrs. Wallace Price and two daughters, Kathryn and Nell have just returned from Dallas, where they spent a couple or three weeks visiting her brother and sisters, who live there.

Mrs. Boyd and daughters, Misses Minnie and Elsie, have just returned from Kosciusko, Miss., where they spent quite a while with Mr. Boyd's sister, the sister joining her from Jackson. They report a fine trip and an all-around good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Neal entertained quite a crowd of their friends on the 4th at the dam, near the Lower ranch. Dinner consisted of roast beef, roast goat, and all sorts of nick nacks. In fact everything to eat that would make any barbecue a success. After dinner all who wished to put in the time swimming or trying to learn to swim, did so, and all went away loud in their praise to Mr. and Mrs. Neal for the day's enjoyment.

Mr. Newman, our blacksmith, has a child quite sick at present with diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn Cottle are entertaining their first girl in their home.

As news is scarce, will close for this time.

"AMOS KEETER."

In every home where there is a baby there should also be a bottle of McGEE'S BABY ELIXIR. It may be needed at any time to correct sour stomach, wind colic, diarrhoea or summer complaint. A New Boy Arrives at Charley Schooley's Home.

Voca, Texas, July 6.

Editor Brady Standard:

We haven't had much rain the last week or two, only light showers, but we are doing very well without it. Think we will have plenty by the time we need it.

Too much rain on cotton just now would not be good for it, as it is growing too fast now.

I was over in Mason county Saturday and I see they have some very fine crops over there, but the boll weevil is surely putting in good time there. Some of the farmers are running their cultivators. They are catching great quantities of the punctured squares and destroying them, which will surely do good if they will keep it up.

A little boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Schooley's Sunday to make his home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wood, Mrs. A. C. Baze, two sons and daughter, Wayne, Lyle and Wilma, all of Brady were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Henderson's Monday.

MONSTER PIKE A "PIRATE"

English Villagers Feasted on Fish Which Had Been Cutting Anglers' Lines for Years.

A pirate was caught and killed recently in the little old English village of Beeston St. Lawrence, Norfolkshire, and his remains were cut up and shared between the old age pensioners, who voted him very tasty, an exchange reports. The good people of Beeston St. Lawrence are not cannibals, and for the benefit of those not acquainted with the legendary lore of that part of England it must be explained that this pirate was a monster pike which terrorized the waters of the lake in Beeston for upward of thirty years.

The pike, which had the reputation of being the most artful fish in the world, earned the name of "the pirate" because of his predatory raids on fishermen's lines whenever they hooked anything. Anglers came from miles around to try and catch the freebooter, but the fish was too clever for the most expert piscator.

According to stories told over mugs of ale at the village inn the "pirate" was hooked only once, and in a vicious rage he broke the line and escaped. Yet the honor of catching him goes to a young ex-soldier who had been pike fishing only four times in his life.

The night of the capture they held a guessing contest in the village as to the actual weight of the "pirate," the prize being the fish itself. He weighed 26 pounds 1 ounce, measured five feet and had a girth of two feet.

JUST PULLED UP IN TIME

Timpkins' Abrupt Change of Subject Hardly to Be Wondered at Under the Circumstances.

The shaded lights, music in the distance, sweet perfumes from the costly flowers about them—everything was just right for a proposal, and Timpkins decided to chance his luck. She was pretty, which was good, and also, he believed, an heiress, which was better.

"Are you not afraid that some one will marry you for your money?" he asked gently.

"Oh, dear, no!" smiled the girl. "Such an idea never entered my head!"

"Ah, Miss Liscombe," he sighed, "in your sweet innocence you do not dream how coldly, cruelly mercenary some men are!"

"Perhaps I don't," replied the girl calmly. "I would not for a moment have such a terrible fate befall you!" he said passionately. "You are too good, too beautiful. The man who wins you should love you for yourself alone."

"He'll have to," the girl remarked. "It's my cousin Jennie who has the money—not I. You seem to have got me mixed. I haven't a penny myself." "Oh—er—stammered the young man—"what pleasant weather we are having, aren't we?"

Gone Lower.

Several of our Hooster school buildings are named after noted Americans of a generation or more ago. Recently at a community meeting at one of these buildings the speaker spoke of the spirit of the man, whose name the building bore, hovering over the school. The children seemed much impressed then but it took the next day to show how deeply some had been moved.

The principal sent two youngsters to the basement to see to the furnace in the absence of the janitor. They came rushing up a few minutes later saying that they had heard a "terrible noise" down there. The principal laughed at them but another boy arose in their defense. "I bet I know what it is," he said. "I bet it's that man's spirit around here again. Only this time instead of being on the roof it's down in the cellar."—Indianapolis News.

Changed His Mind.

He was well up in the sixties and always got a lot of pleasure out of walking. He would always say: "You city people don't get out enough and walk."

In his short stay in the city he stepped into his son's downtown magazine shop and said: "I just walked down from Thirty-fourth street." With pride he added: "That's not bad for a young fellow like me! And, by the way, your wife gave me this note and said for me to stop and get these things. Where is this store?"

"That's the department store just a square up the street—this street," replied his son.

"A department store! Where is that errand boy you have around here? I'm too tired to walk up there," replied the old man.

Slow to Learn.

"This newly made millionaire is an uncouth fellow."

"So he is. Yet he frequents the most fashionable restaurants."

"That's why I think it strange that he is so backward in acquiring a polish. The mere contemplation of a faultless head waiter ought to give him some ideas of deportment."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Light in the Window.

The transport had entered New York harbor. On board was one lone colored soldier among the homeward bound. As the ship passed the statue of liberty there was absolute silence, when suddenly the dusky doughboy broke the quiet by remarking: "Put your light down, honey, I see home."—The American Legion Weekly.

ONE DOLLAR RAISE IN THEIR PENSIONS HANDED VETERANS

Austin, Tex., July 5.—A decrease of $14 pensioners from the list of Confederate veterans drawing quarterly allotments from the Texas pension fund was shown for June, 1920, as compared with the same month a year ago in the monthly statement of M. L. Wiginton, state comptroller. There are now 15,786 pensioners on the rolls, each of whom receives $23 per quarter. The allotment for the present quarter will be $24, the statement said.

The comptroller says the balance on hand in the state treasury to the credit of the Confederate pension fund at the beginning of the fiscal year ending August 31, 1919, was $505,071. Receipt during the current year were $1,365,799 and disbursements $1,484,918. At the close of the last quarter, on May 31, 1920, there was a balance of $753,043 with warrants outstanding to the amount of $362,661.

The increase in the current quarter's allotment of $1 was granted "so that those who enjoy this meager benefit may receive every dollar available," the statement said.

Continuing, the comptroller says the pension fund is equally distributed between all beneficiaries and can be drawn upon only for payment of quarterly pension warrants and mortuary warrants issued after the death of a pensioner. Not a dollar of the fund, he declares, is expended for clerical hire, postage or other expense.

HONEST INJUN.

When they begin making presidential timber out of newspaper editors, it's a sure sign that the country still has a chance for salvation.

DAWN OF A NEW ERA.

The completion of Brady's new light plant marks the dawn of a new era. The long wait—the interminable darkness, the candle-light period has been passed, and today Brady stands in the full light of a better day and a brighter night.

What child is there but what instinctively shuns darkness. And many a grownup retains the childhood fears and avoids the gloom of nightfall. Where is the plant that flourishes in the dark—do not they lift up their heads to the light and the glory of the skies? Almost invariably it is the slimy, slinky, poisonous species of animal and vegetable life that inhabit the dark recesses.

Brady has passed through her Valley of the Shadow of Darkness—and has emerged into the light—and Brady citizens should not be content now to lag behind other progressive communities in the matter of having well lighted streets and buildings.

Does it not stand to reason that the citizen who lives on a well-lighted street will take increasingly great pride in his home surroundings? He will keep his house and yard in neater and more attractive shape; he will see the need of permanent walks, and will want the streets and thoroughfares kept in good condition. Where there is light, there people gather, and the assemblage of citizens is always the occasion for the exchange of ideas and the promulgation of plans to aid and abet the prosperity and growth of a community.

Brady has the lights—let Brady citizens make the most of the opportunity.

THANK YOU, DEAR PEOPLE.

The Standard is being issued late this week because of the shutting down of the light plant, incident to the changing from the old direct current to the new alternating current, and which deprived us of power on Monday and Tuesday. The Tuesday paper was issued 24 hours behind schedule, and the Friday paper will also be somewhat behind time.

The most gratifying experience the editor has had in the midst of all this delay and upsetting of plans, has been the innumerable inquiries directed at him, "What's the matter with The Standard? We haven't got our paper yet." Do the folks read the Tuesday Standard? Do they miss it? The foregoing tells for itself.

The twice-a-week Standard fills a real need. It carries the news to the folks while it is news—and nowadays, folks want NEWS.

THE PAPER TRUST.

The question has often been debated as to whether the paper trust was responsible for the enormous increase in print or other papers, or if it was due to the abnormal conditions beyond the control of the trust. Without question, the increased cost of blank papers of all kinds is due to the abnormal conditions now prevailing in all markets. Nevertheless, there cannot be a shadow of doubt but what the paper trust is taking advantage of the situation to make a nest egg for itself while the stealing is good.

Quite recently the editors of Kansas, Arkansas and Missouri held a convention, during which a representative of the International Paper Co. appeared before the convention and urged the publishers to pool their orders for print paper so as to enable them to order stock in carload lots direct from the mills, thereby eliminating the middleman. By this method, he stated, there was no reason why the publishers should not receive their paper at a price of from 6c to 7c.

A certain well-known Panhandle publisher was in attendance upon the convention and his enthusiasm over the prospect of getting news print at 6c or 7c, inspired him to throw discretion to the winds, and forthwith he telegraphed an order to the paper mills for one carload of print paper to be shipped him immediately, not having delayed to inquire for quotations on such shipment. In due time the paper was received and billed to him at 16c per pound. Now a matter of $7,000 or $8,000 tied up in news print is enough to sink most any small craft that has been launched upon the journalistic sea, and the aforesaid editor is now begging various supply houses to help him get rid of at least a part of the white elephant he has upon his hands. But, after all, it was like taking candy from a baby for the trust to deal our Panhandle friend such a solar plexus as to make him cough up $7,000 instead of the $2,500 to $3,000 he anticipated.

OUR BLESSINGS.

People, remember it. There were no "hot" winds during June, 1920.—San Saba News.

We never think of our blessings, because too much of our time is given over to worrying about our complaints. Now the absence of those customary "hot" winds is surely something to be thankful for—and we are. Likewise Sun-of-a-Gun of the San Saba News is due a vote of thanks of reminding us of what we should be grateful for.

APPRECIATION

Most everyone will, sooner or later (and mostly sooner) tumble to flattery, especially when they have cause to believe the kind words have a ring of sincerity. The newspaper man is no exception. Just read this: "You really don't appreciate The Standard as you should, until you get away from home and miss a few copies."

Now isn't that a pretty compliment—and a warning too to "home folks" that they should duly appreciate the home paper?

Now, we'll be frank and admit that we enjoyed, and enjoy, receiving such letters. On the other hand, is it not a fact that the gratitude of the home folks strayed away into lands afar is also due those faithful and loyal local supporters of a newspaper who make its continued publication a possibility? For, were it not for the support given a newspaper by its home people, the folks who move way would never be enabled to read the home news. It is local support that gives a newspaper life, virility and prestige. The money received on subscription from far-off readers does not much more than pay for the cost of the paper, ink and postage required in its manufacture and distribution.

So, Gentle Reader, if you are "home folks," don't think your appreciation and support is not needed and desired by The Standard. Maybe some day you, too, will stray afar and feel like writer quoted above, that you never appreciated the paper as you should, until it got beyond your reach.

They are organizing "rabbit" clubs in the northwest part of the county. Out at Rochelle they have organized and are offering the sum of $25.00 for the one who kills the most rabbits in a given time. Many farmers from all parts of the county say the rabbits are literally eating the gardens and lots of the field crops. S. G. says dip 'em.—San Saba News.

Cave-Gainer.

Joe Gainer and Miss Nova Cave were quietly married at her father's residence at nine o'clock Tuesday evening. Rev. W. L. Wall performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. L. T. Cave and is one of Eden's charming young ladies and is a quiet, unassuming, modest young lady who looked beautiful in an artistically beaded blue georgette dress.

Mr. Gainer is an industrious, energetic young man of the Rochelle community and has his home ready for his bride on his farm. He is an over-seas boy. The Echo joins their many friends in congratulations and good wishes.—Eden Echo.

Dance.

A delightful program dance was enjoyed on last Friday night by members of the younger set, who availed themselves of piano music to furnish an enjoyable series of dance numbers. Punch was enjoyed throughout the evening, and added to the pleasure of the occasion. Included among the number attending were: Misses Lula and Jim Gay, Alice Samuel, Lucille and Margaret Barnes of Coleman, Adelia Hendrickson, Plahn, Carmen Anderson, Cleone Deaver, Frances Samuel, Eulalia Gavit, Eunice Schaeg, Willard Hodge, Katherine Ballou, Arvie Wegner, Flora Mae Spiller, Mary Spiller of Menard, Ruth Haney of Menard, Emma Ford of Brownwood; Messrs and Mesdames N. A. Collier, T. Gray; Mrs. Gibbon Roberts; Messrs. Family Picnic.

An enjoyable picnic and outing in celebration of the National Independence day, was held by members of the White family, and relatives and guests at the Country club on last Monday, some 35 or 40 being in attendance upon the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. John Wall supplied the calf, which was barbecued in most delicious and appetizing manner under the skillful direction of Ab Oldham. Mr. J. H. White superintended the cooking of the beans and the making of the coffee, arts in which he acknowledges no superior, but failed to make his usual batch of honest-to-goodness corn bread on account of the size of the crowd present. The dinner table was spread on the club pavilion, and included the choicest of good things to eat, and which, in addition to the barbecued beef, had been brought by various of the attendants. The afternoon was spent in boating, conversation and various forms of enjoyment, the cool, shady pecan grove furnishing the most delightful of lounging places.

Out-of-town guests included Mr.

and Mrs. Tom Baker and family of Girvin, Texas, Misses Ruth Calvert of Brownwood, Mildred White of Mason, Mary McKnight of Sanatorium, Miss Jimmie Winters of Stephenville; Mr. Emmett Winters of Stephenville.

July 4th Barbecue at Neal Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Neal entertained a number of their friends with a barbecue on the Glorious Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal are well known as ideal entertainers and an invitation from them is always acceptable. By eleven o'clock a number of folks had assembled at the ranch house, when someone suggested a swim before dinner. The Neal ranch boasts of one of the finest swimming pools in the county, being a large reservoir on Brady creek, back water held by a cement dam. The pool is equipped with spring board and plenty of swings, where the participants furnish graceful—and otherwise dives for the amusement of the spectators. After an hour's play in the water, which is for "all sizes," being from two to fifteen ft. in depth, dinner was spread. And such a dinner—consisting of beef and a goat, done a turn, pickles, onions, tomatoes, pies and 'nothering, and proved the most interesting feature of the day, especially to Dr. Matlock and Cashier Boyd.

After dinner, everyone who had a bathing suit, or could beg, borrow or steal one, enjoyed a swim, entertaining those who came to look on by performing numerous stunts and fancy dives. Some of the more venturesome ones dived from a bluff on the opposite side.

Everybody pronounced it one of the most enjoyable days ever. Among the guests present were Mrs. Henry Hardin of Fort Worth, L. V. Chandler of Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCarty of Mercury, and almost the entire bunch of young folks; also Messrs. and Mesdames Jno. Sellman, Willard Sellman, J. S. Neal, Chas. and Lewis Bratton, L. A. Doran, J. R. Boyd, Manuel Short, Dr. Matlock, and others.

Miss Lowry and Miss Evers entertained the guests with several piano and vocal selections. Then Miss Knox entertained them with several readings.

Other sorts of amusements were enjoyed; games and contests were had. The prizes were awarded to Hilma Jordan and Maurice Jones. The hooby to Bernice Knox and Bill Vaughn.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the following: Misses Kathleen Renfro, Margaret McClure, Eulalia Gavit, Mildred Irvine, Blanche Awalt, Hilma Jordan, Eunice Schaeg, Ruhama Snider, Estelle Jones, Nola Meers, Lucille Barnes of Coleman, Lula Gay, Lillian Holland, Jim Gay, Tris Gay, Margaurite Barnes of Coleman, Edith Reed, Arvie Wegner, Gertrude Trigg, Marjorie McCall, Cathrine Ballou, Knola King, Irene Lowry of Lubbock, Christine Evers of McGregor, Bernice and Maggie Knox of Junction; Messrs. ## SAWDUST PROVEN GOOD COW FEED—USE IS ECONOMICAL

Madison, Wis., July 3.—Cows fed on sawdust produce more beef and an increased quantity of milk, according to experiments conducted jointly by the Agricultural Department of the University of Wisconsin and the Forestry Bureau. The feeding was done by Prof. Frank B. Morrison. The experiments have not been completed as yet, but the initial trials show sawdust to be a great and nutritive source of cow feed.

"We took white pine sawdust and put it through a treatment that converts the starch in the sawdust into sugar," said O. W. Butler. Then in co-operation with the Agricultural Department of the University of Wisconsin, a feeding experiment was conducted. Five dairy cows were given the sawdust in rations of 25 and 75 per cent of their present feed.

"Last year the price of grain was high and there was a shortage of feed. If sawdust can be utilized for commercial cow feed as now seems feasible, it will prove a great boon to the cattle raisers."

Butler expressed the sawdust from all woods except yellow pine, which has too much resin in it to be used for cow feed.

The sawdust is treated with sulphuric acid, which sets up a fermentation and converts the starch into sugar. Several minor processes follow and the sawdust when ready for feeding looks like bran.

COLORED BASE BALL TEAM STAGES ANOTHER SERIES OF GOOD GAMES

The local colored base ball team is covering itself with glory and commendation by their excellent ball playing. Tuesday afternoon, they put up one of the best exhibitions ever seen here, defeating the crack Coleman colored team in a last minute rally that gave the game to them by a score of 10 to 3. Ruben Peterson caught the game and a colored boy called "Stump" held down the mound, and let the Colemanites run in three scores on him in the first inning. After that both sides settled down to a hard-fought game, neither scoring until the last half of the seventh inning, when the Bradyites took a slugging spurt that landed the ball all over the outfield, and netted all the way from singles and two-baggers to Frank Jones' three-base hit, when that slugger lost the ball in a pile of brush.

The game was remarkable for the swiftness and surety with which base runners were nabbed, and base stealing soon became a lost art.

In the second game played Wednesday afternoon, the Coleman fraternity again lost by a score of 10 to 3.

JACK'S MOTHER

By ROSE HOLMES.

Of course, Jack is the dearest fellow in the world, but he often refers to his mother's efficiency. Jack's mother is efficient. I'll admit it. I would also call her stingy—economical.

Since the slogan "Get Behind Hoover" has become popular it seems to me that Jack has referred more frequently to the efficiency of his mother; has several times intimated that saving a little on living expenses would be a laudable ambition for me. This idea was put in words that I understood, when he said:

"My dear, I think $45 too much for you to spend on a hat this season."

So I didn't spend it. I got a perfectly-good-enough best hat for $35, and in order to make it last longer I got one that was all right for every-day for $20.

But that isn't what I started to tell you about. You see, we go over to Jack's mother's for dinner on her birthday, and this year was to be no exception.

I knew she would show us her preserves and pickles and cans of things; and her last winter's suit that she had made as good as new with the addition of new collar and cuffs.

And I happened to think that my sweater was dirty, and that I would want to wear it under my coat if we motored over; and also happened to think that the fact that it was dirty would not escape efficiency's eye.

Well, cleaning is expensive, and didn't Jack want me to economize? Hadn't I paid the most reliable cleaning establishment in Boston $1.75 plus expressage, for cleaning that same sweater not long ago?—a perfectly exorbitant price; why, the sweater only cost $12.50 in the first place. No, it wasn't one of those expensive hand-knit ones, but it was a very pretty sweater. Yes, that soft rose one you have seen me wear.

They say "a penny saved is a penny earned," so I decided that I couldn't earn $1.75 any easier than to wash that sweater myself, with about five cents' worth of soap.

Did you ever try to wash anything? We've always sent the washing out, so haven't any tubs or wringers or things, but there was a bathtub. I believe one of the helps to efficiency is being able to utilize the things.

It takes a lot of energy to get up a suds in a bathtub, if you are not on the inside.

Do you know how much a sweater weighs when it's wet?

I soaped and rubbed and squeezed that garment for the better part of an hour; then, if it never became clean, I wouldn't have given it another souse.

After I squeezed the water out of it the best I could and hung it over the radiator to dry, I went down town to try on a perfectly lovely set of furs that were in Brown & Co.'s window.

There I met Molly Whitman and Tottie Franch and took them to the Sally-Aly Tea Room for something to eat; then I took them to the Strand to see Julian Eltinge in "Countess Charming." I wanted to see if I couldn't tell that he isn't a woman even if I didn't know it.

I dropped around to the office for Jack and we came home together.

We were hardly in the house before he gave me the opening I wanted, by saying:

"Well, what have you been doing today, Hon?"

"Oh, I've got the biggest kind of a surprise for you, Jack; I've been getting behind the conservation board! I saved $1.75 this morning!"

"Pretty good for one morning. Can you keep up that pace for a year?"

Throwing my things on a chair as I passed, I seized the sweater from the radiator and held it up.

"See!" I exclaimed.

"What is it?" he inquired stupidly.

"Can't you see? It's my sweater! I washed it myself and saved $1.75!"

"Um—m—m. Isn't it a little large?"

"Large? No; it never was! It fits all right!" said I, proceeding to invest myself.

My arms were not long enough for the sleeves—by about a foot; but being busy wrinkling up the sleeves, I hadn't observed that Jack was having a fit or something; then I looked down at myself. It was right then that I was thankful that I hadn't used wool soap (the kind mamma used, you know), for whatever else happened to that sweater, I would not want to have deprived it of the amount it "shrunk."

It was originally a fashionable length; it now escaped the floor by about nine inches. The pockets, which were normally placed, could now be observed as little sacks hanging near the bottom. And the belt! That was also normally placed, but now, if tied, would greatly interfere with locomotion.

I didn't care anything about the old sweater anyway; but there was Jack in fits of laughter; and it was so humiliating to have fallen when one is striving to compete with an economical mother-in-law.

Well, I just stripped the old thing off and threw it in his face and started for the bedroom. Yes, I was crying, but hadn't my head half covered up with a pillow before Jack came, saying:

"There—there—Honey! She did try to economize—did try to save her old man $1.75! There—there—she can get her a new sweater—" and he tucked three yellow-backs in my hand.

RELATING TO TAXATION BY SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 17.
Proposing an amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by exempting independent and common school districts from the limitation of a total tax of one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation for any one year, and making an appropriation therefor.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VII, of the Constitution be so amended as hereafter to read as follows: (Creating a new Section 3.)

Section 3. One-fourth of the revenue derived from the State occupation taxes and a poll tax of one ($1.00) dollar on every inhabitant of this state, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free schools; and in addition thereto, there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem state tax of such an amount not to exceed thirty-five cents on the one hundred ($100.00) dollars valuation, as with the available school fund arising from all other sources, will be sufficient to maintain and support the public schools of this State for a period of not less than six months in each year, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to set aside a sufficient amount out of said tax to provide free text books for the use of children attending the public free schools of this State; provided, however, that should the limit of taxation herein named be insufficient the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the state and the legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts by general or special law without the local notice required in other cases of special legislation; and all such school districts, whether created by general or special law may embrace parts of two or more counties. And the legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts and for the management and control of the public school or schools of such districts, whether such districts are composed of territory wholly within a county or in parts of two or more counties. And the legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within all school districts heretofore formed or hereafter formed, for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection and equipment of school buildings therein; provided, that a majority of the qualified property tax-paying voters of the district voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax not to exceed in any one year one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, but the limitation upon the amount of school district tax herein authorized shall not apply to incorporated cities or towns constituting separate and independent school districts, nor to independent or common school districts created by general or special law.

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1920, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For the Amendment to Section 3 of Article
VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing that the limita-

THOS. L. BLANTON AD-DRESSES VOTERS IN BE-HALF OF HIS CANDIDACY

Thomas L. Blanton, in behalf of candidacy for re-election to congress, addressed the voters of Brady at the court house last Thursday night, the address here being one of three made that day by Mr. Blanton. In fact, during his week's tour he has averaged three speeches a day. Mr.
Blanton recounted his activities in congress, and stated that he relied upon his record of achievements and of saving to the people to re-elect him representative of this district.
The following is a brief synopsis of his address:

"I gladly report my stewardship to my constituents. I come with a clear conscience knowing that I have left no stone unturned in doing everything within my power in their behalf.

"In my platform I pledged the following: Untrammelled service and constant attention to business; condemnation of the prevalent inactivity and absence of congressmen from Washington; strict public economy and a clean-up of useless, wasteful departments; merit rather than the spoils system; national prohibition;
national woman suffrage; rural farm credits; real help rather than the usual camouflage for the farmer, bringing him and the spinner closer together so as to eliminate the gambler and middleman; a strong Merchant Marine to insure prompt transportation of all farm and industrial products; tariff for revenue only;
restricted immigration; a fair, square deal alike for labor and capital; an uncompromising fight against all pork barrel, garden seed and other graft; maximum government assistance for education, for the eradication of tuberculosis and other menacing diseases, boll weevil, tick, black-leg, and hog cholera; and a real partnership between all the people and the Federal government instead of between special interests and the Federal government.

"I have faithfully kept every campaign pledge. My record in Congress shows favorable results on every promise. No other member has been in more constant attendance on the House floor or given more active and pains-taking attention than I have to all public business. I have participated in every debate of importance during my membership. Of the Texas delegation of 18 members, I was the only Congressman who made a speech for National prohibition.

"Through exhaustive personal investigations made at my own expense, I have succeeded in having several thousand useless employees discharged, and several departments cleaned up. The graft best known to the public is the Rivers and Harbors appropriation and the Public Buildings appropriation. Since I have been in Congress only one small Rivers and Harbors appropriation and no Public Buildings appropriation has been made. By investigating and filing minority reports against un-meritorious private claims, I have saved over $100,000,000. By making points of order against improper appropriations, which were sustained by the Chair, I have saved about $200,- 000,000, proof of which is shown in the excerpts from the Records sent you, entitled "Let the Record Speak."

"In refusing to obey orders and wear a yoke, in forcing members to stay in Washington and attend to business by recording their absence, in opposing and defeating their private bills involving millions, in trying to reduce mileage to actual expenses, in denouncing the giving to each member every session a cedar chest, a pine chest and an oak chest, in blocking all efforts to raise members' salary from $7,500 to $10,000, in denouncing frequent and expensive junketing trips, in fighting garden seed and other graft, in making points of order against appropriations for special interests, very naturally made some enemies, but I survived their side-jabs and undercuts, and I now enjoy the respect and personal friendship of every member worth while in the House of Representatives."

THE NEXT PRESIDENT

James Middleton Cox was three times governor of Ohio—an honor enjoyed by only one other Ohioian, Rutherford B. Hayes.

Born on a farm, educated in the public schools, a printer's devil, a school teacher, a newspaper reporter, a private secretary to a congressman, owner, manager and proprietor of two newspapers, member of congress for three years and three times governor of his state is his record to date.

Business success paralleled his political achievements and through his own efforts Cox has amassed a fortune. Mr. Cox became the leader of the Democratic party in Ohio in 1912, when was nominated for governor. As one who had brought radical changes in the state constitution, he took the field in its behalf. His first term as governor was devoted chiefly to forwarding the enactment of laws to put the new state constitution into effect.

But Ohio evidently was not prepared to assimilate all the new laws for Cox was defeated for re-election. But his party renominated him in 1916 and he was re-called for a third term in 1918, being the only Democrat to win in Ohio.

Legislation for which Governor Cox is best known includes a model workmen's compensation law and a child labor law which have been extensively copied by other states. Educators of the country say the Ohio school code, enacted under Governor Cox's direction, will live as a monument to his achievements.

Mr. Cox was born in Butler county, Ohio. He attended district school and held his first position as a teacher of the school in which he took his first lessons. He spent evenings and holidays in a printing office. In a few years he received his first assignment on the editorial staff of the Cincinnati Inquirer.

After 10 years with the Inquirer, he went to Washington as a private secretary to Congressman Paul Sore of Ohio. At the close of this service, he purchased the Dayton Daily News, borrowing most of the money to pay for it. Later he purchased the Springfield Daily News. He was first elected to Congress in 1908.

He recently purchased the farm near Jacksonburg upon which he was born and is making it into a modern farm home where he expects to live on retirement from public office. He is married and has four children.

PICNIC DATES.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The charred remnants of the building formerly occupied by the Ross Slaughter restaurant, and which was destroyed by fire Wednesday morning, are being torn down and the lot cleared of debris. M. Simon of Memphis, Texas, is owner of the lot on which the restaurant building was located.

Our thanks to R. L. Wash for the nicest mess of roasting ears that have come our way this season. Bob has a dandy roasting ear patch, and thought there might be some "hoss" about the editor, so he took a chance on our being pleased with his thoughtfulness and brought the corn in just to give us a chance to say something nice about him when he dies. Well, we're hoping that chance will be a long time off, and rather than have to wait until we're old and toothless we'll have our say right here. We hope Bob Wash lives forever and has good luck with his roasting ear patch and all other patches as long as he cares to plant them. Anyone who would attempt to feed an editor in these days of H. C. L. deserves that much, anyway.

PLAN BIG PAPER MILL FOR DALLAS—TO MAKE PRODUCT AND PULP FROM LINTERS

A plant to manufacture pulp and paper from cotton linters, costing approximately $800,000, is being promoted by G. A. Beeman of Comanche and J. Y. Webb of Dallas. Options on three sites have been obtained by G. A. Beeman & Co., promoting the paper mill plant. The projected mill will be not over five miles from Dallas.

Present plans of the promoting company are the organization of a $1,000,000 corporation to build and operate the plant, which will be known as the Trinity Paper Mills. Mr. Webb said. It is expected to have the plant turning out pulp within six months and to be making paper within ten or twelve months. The initial capacity will be twenty tons of paper a day.

Second-cut linters will be used by the mill and made into book paper, high-grade writing paper, tissue paper and blotting paper. Mr. Webb and others interested in the plant have a report made by Dr. Otto Kress of the Federal Government Forest Laboratory at Madison, Wis., showing that linters make good book paper, writing paper, tissue paper and blotting paper. A chemical engineer with twenty-five years' experience in paper mills is interested in the proposed plant in Dallas, ac-ording to the promoters.

Plants manufacturing paper from hull fiber, a lower grade of paper-making material than second-cut lint, already are in operation in the United States. Proctor & Gamble have a fifty-ton pulp mill at Atlanta, Ga., manufacturing paper from hull fiber, and are erecting a similar plant at Memphis.

Second-cut linters can be purchased more cheaply than wood pulp and the paper can be made more cheaply, according to figures compiled by Mr. Webb. To make one ton of wood pulp paper requires two cords of wood selling at $36 a ton, while to make a ton of lint paper requires 2,500 pounds of second-cut lint, selling at 2c a pound. It also is claimed the cost of handling the linters is less than of handling wood.

Attention was called to the possibilities of using linters for paper-making following the war. Before America entered the war approximately sixty pounds of lint per ton was removed by cottonseed oil mills. The Federal Government asked the mills to remove all the lint possible to be used for gun cotton and the oil mills removed from 145 to 200 pounds of lint per ton. Promoters of the paper mills here declare the cotton oil interests are anxious to continue removing a high proportion of lint if they can sell it, as a higher grade of oil, meal and cake is made.—Dallas News.
