STAMFORD TO PLANT GRAPES ALONG ALLEYS

Stamford, Jan. 28.—Stamford has on a tree planting campaign which to date has netted something over 1,000 trees and shrubs. The planting of grapes along the alleys is being encouraged. The plan of City Manager Homer D. Wade, and the manager of the Chamber of Commerce, J. Willis Stovall, is to turn the alleys into places of beauty.

As a result of the recent clean up campaign, Stamford is perhaps the cleanest little city in Texas. Each alley as well as front yard has been completely rejuvenated.

MRS. SUSIE LONG PASSES AWAY AT FIVE SUNDAY AT ADVANCED AGE OF 88 YRS.

Mrs. Susie Long passed away last Sunday at the home of her son, A. M. Long, in the Fife community, where she had made her home for a number of years. "Grandma" Long, as she was known to old and young, had reached the advanced age of 88 years. On December 20th she underwent an operation at the local sanitarium for the removal of her left leg, the limb being amputated above the knee, following a period of several weeks of intense suffering from gangrene. The operation was resorted to as the only means of saving her life. Despite her advanced age, Grandma Long stood the ordeal splendidly, and recovered to the extent that she was enabled to be carried back to the home of her son at Fife.

The aged lady is survived by her son, A. M. Long, of Fife, and by John Eagin of Oklahoma, a son by a former marriage.

Funeral services were held Monday, a large number of relatives, friends, and old-time acquaintances attending to pay last tribute to this remarkable old lady, whose memory will ever be hallowed by those who knew her.

MCCULLOCH CO. BRANCH TEXAS FARM BUREAU IN PROCESS ORGANIZATION

INTENSIVE MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN TO BE WAGED THIS WEEK—OVER 50% OF FARMERS IN COUNTY TO BE ENROLLED— TO ELECT COUNTY OFFICERS SAT.

An intensive campaign is being waged this week among the farmers of McCulloch county by several teams of men representing the Texas Farm Bureau, the object of the campaign being to organize the McCulloch county branch of the State Farm Bureau. A membership roll which will include more than 50% of the farmers, both tenants and landlords, of McCulloch county must be obtained before the organization can be completed. It is expected to complete the work this week in time for the holding of a County convention at 2:00 o'clock on next Saturday afternoon, at the court house in Brady, at which time the members will elect officers and set the work of the local organization in motion.

At the meeting in the court house, Llano, had already effected its organization, and is looking to McCulloch county to join in the move.

The farmers and farm owners present signified their entire approval of the new organization and its plans, by signing up to act as leaders of the move in their respective communities.

The active campaign for membership was begun Monday upon arrival here of six men to head the membership drives. They were R. W. Cochran of Killeen, S. J. Enochs of Georgetown, J. Y. Bolin of Temple, W. T. Broiles of Lorena, J. M. Keith of Temple and J. D. Foster of China Springs. These men are not professional solicitors; on the contrary, they are representative farmers in their home communities, where the Farm Bureau organization has already been effected, and where the farmers have already been made to realize the benefits of co-operative marketing. Bell county, Williamson county and many other counties in the East Central portion of the state have been organized for some time now. Recently Bell county farmers undertook to send a shipment of low grade cotton direct to Germany. The cotton graded No. 4, and the first bale in Bremen netted the consignors around 11c per pound. The success of this first attempt has so greatly encouraged the farmers of Bell county that it is small wonder they want to see the farmers of the entire state organized.

County Agent Black is co-operating with these men in their membership work, and it is expected to visit every community in the county during the week. By Saturday they expect to have the work of securing the required membership fully effected. The county convention will then be called Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, in the court house at Brady, and the organization completed by the election of officers, etc.

MCCULLOCH COUNTY GINNING NEARLY 30,000 BALES ON JANUARY 16

McCulloch county gins had turned out 29,657 bales of the 1920-21 cotton crop on January 16th, according to figures secured by Arthur Wood, local cotton census reporter for the State Department of Agriculture. Compared with this, McCulloch county gins on January 16, 1920 had turned out 18,837 bales of the 1919-20 crop. In other words, 10,820 more bales have so far been ginned in McCulloch county of the past year's cotton crop than were ginned in the county of the 1919 cotton crop.

CRUDE OIL PRICE IS FURTHER CUT HALF DOLLAR BBL

Dallas, Jan. 31.—Effective today a further reduction of 50 cents per barrel for crude oil was announced by the Magnolia Petroleum Company. The new prices for Headton, Oklahoma, crude, are: $1.25 per barrel; Corsicana, Texas, heavy, $1; light, $2.

DISCONNECTED STOVEPIPE FILLS ROOM WITH SMOKE CAUSES ALARM OF FIRE

Sunday morning about 11:00 o'clock an alarm was turned in to the fire department calling them to the S. J. Howard residence in the south part of town. Investigation, however, revealed the cause of the alarm to have been a disconnected stovepipe, which allowed the room to become filled with smoke, which members of the family took to be from a fire.

"HUMORESQUE"

6 Reel Special Attraction

"Humoresque" is one of the year's big productions. It was made for Cosmopolitan production by Frank Borzage from a story of New York's Ghetto, written by Fannie Hurst. Alma Ruben is the featured member of the cast, but so interesting is the characterization, so carefully outlined is each individual character, so genuine is the background against which the story has been set, that the spectator is not conscious that the picture has a star. In other words, "Humoresque" is not built around any one personality. The characters are woven into the story. The story of "Humoresque" involves the combined emotions represented in the streets of New York's Ghetto and the daily life of a few of its inhabitants. This is the greatest, the best, the most appealing photoplay presented to the public. It will appeal in every country in the world, endorsed by all the best critics to be one of the best pictures ever thrown upon a screen. It is a picture you can't afford to miss, as it is very seldom that we have the opportunity to witness such an appealing, up-to-date and real-life photoplay. There will be two shows given on this night to handle the crowd, so come early and get good seats. Do not miss seeing one of the best, if not the best pictures ever shown. First show starts at 7:15 p. m.

Wednesday, February 2 EILEEN PERCY —In— BEWARE OF THE BRIDE 5-REEL DRAMA A rip-roaring screen farce, picturing the merriest marital mix-up since Eve was a newly-wed. One continuous shriek of laughter. Don't fail to see the beautiful star, Eileen Percy in "Beware of the Bride," a farce-comedy of lightning speed and packed with hilarious mirth from start to finish. A masked ball, mistaken identity, marital mix-ups, jealous rage, frantic pursuit, etc., etc. They're all in it. It isn't often you get to see a real, rip-roaring screen farce. Therefore, don't miss this one, the comedy of a thousand laughs, starring Eileen Percy. Also— "RUTH OF THE ROCKIES" 2-Reel Serial	Thursday, February 3 WANDA HAWLEY —In— MISS HOBBS 5-REEL DRAMA She wanted to be extreme. She went in for crystal baths—they called her a freak—all but one; he loved her and discovered her—other self. "Marriage is slavery! men are beasts," she said; but one of the beasts fell sick—heart-sick and she pitied him. She tripped into his trap and fell in love. "I'll bet a dinner for three that I kiss Miss Hobbs in one month," he wrote in his diary. She, the unsusceptible, read his words and hardened her heart. Did he win his bet? See Miss Hobbs and find out. Also— FOX NEWS 1-Reel Current Events	Friday, February 4. THOMAS MEIGHAN and MARTHA MANSFIELD —In— CIVILIAN CLOTHES 5-REEL DRAMA A story of a girl who married a Captain's uniform then had to live with a suit of cheap civies; but the same man, a fighter was under both coats when he saw he had wedded a snob. He had been reported killed in France so the snobbist romantic wife who had fallen in love with his officers uniform thought herself a hero's widow. But he got by the fort man and here he was—Citizen Sam McGinnis in a brand new suit of joyous hand-me-downs, returned to claim his bride. What did he find? What did he do? You'll laugh and think and—attaboy Sam! Also— FARM YARD FOLLIES 2-Reel Sunshine Comedy	Saturday, February 5 DOROTHY GISH —In— LITTLE MISS REBELLION 5-REEL COMEDY-DRAMA This is the story of a little Grand Duchess in some European principality who is weighted down by the responsibilities of her royal state, but who meets a real American doughboy and finds the whole course of her life changed for the better, of course. Talk about situations, this comedy bristles with them. You must see Miss Gish's session with a bumpy mule, the battle in the den of Bolsheviks, a baseball game with American soldiers, the lost foundry, the raid on the pawn shops and the unique finish. These are only a few of the entertaining scenes that make "Little Miss Rebellion" one of the most charming comedies. Don't fail to see it. Also Starting of— "BRIDE 13," 2-Reel Serial	Monday, February 7 CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG —In— TRILBY 5-REEL DRAMA A superb presentation of an unequalled story, a literary classic unfolded on the screen. Sacrificed on the altar of a man's ambition her colossal success marred by the shadow of evil. Wherever she went they followed her—and searched her soul with a pitiless scrutiny. Kings waited in her train; the world worshipped at her feet; the exquisite love story—the bewitching beauty of the star, the haunting pathos of "Trilby;" the evil influence of a powerful mind matched against a soul of divine purity, unique in the history of the screen. Also— FOX NEWS 1 Reel Current Events	Tuesday, February 8 EDGAR LEWIS presents LAHOMA 7-REEL WESTERN DRAMA A stirring drama, full of the color gallop of romance of the last frontier. "Lahoma" is a story of the early days in the territory now known as Oklahoma. Every man in those days was a maker of history. The country now comprising Oklahoma was, in 1880, at the time the story opens, known as No Man's Land. It was set aside as Indian country and white settlers were forbidden to settle on it. A stirring drama that recreates the soul of the roaring days of horse stealing pioneers in Oklahoma; pioneer days, frontier life, is "Lahoma." Also— "GATORS" 1-Reel Natural Color Scenic

OPEN LETTER No. 8.

To the McCulloch County Citizens:

In the opinion of The Standard editor, there is no work, now being undertaken in McCulloch county, of greater importance to the citizenship at large than the efforts to secure for McCulloch county the services of a Community Nurse.

Do you want a Community Nurse? Surely you do, and surely you will make it possible to secure one, especially when you realize that if the McCulloch County Red Cross chapter builds its membership up to full strength, it will be possible to secure this nurse.

With the dollar memberships, the McCulloch County Red Cross chapter can pay the salary of a Community Nurse, whose work will be for everybody, and whose services will be without charge to anyone.

unities and individuals. Above all, it must be remembered that the money thus spent, is spent among us and for our individual benefit.

Do you want a Community Nurse? Could any person have the heart to say "No" merely to save himself a dollar? The McCulloch County Red Cross membership at present is fearfully, disgracefully low, compared to what it should be.

In behalf of the Red Cross, THE BRADY STANDARD.

There come times when one wonders what punishment is adequate to repay some criminals for their misdeeds—and when one reads of the aged man who had passed his allotted three score years and ten, being set upon and beaten almost to death by a couple of burly ruffians, the act is enough to make one's blood boil.

COTTON AT THE BOTTOM.

Nothing could better illustrate the rock-bottom character of prevailing cotton prices than that the market should rise, even slightly, in the face of a ginning report showing an excess of 1,700,000 bales over last year.

It is true, of course, that with a much greater supply in sight and a cautious resumption of business in the domestic mills, and with the export market disorganized, no extraordinary improvement in the price need be looked for.

Truly the wicked flee when no man pursueth. A defaulting bank president surrendered to Fort Worth officials a few days ago, and had to convince them that he was guilty before they would arrest him.

WHY WICKED, THEN?

A news dispatch from Plainview says a big exhibition automobile was stolen out of a show window in that town on Saturday night and the fact was not discovered until the following Saturday morning.

A bandit was convicted in Dallas Tuesday and given sentence of twenty-five years in the penitentiary. Investigation developed the fact that he had been previously convicted on a similar charge and given a similar sentence, but was pardoned by a kind-hearted governor after serving four years.

A man down at Houston labored all his life and saved all he made. He denied himself the comforts of home and family, and died a recluse worth a million dollars. For seven years the courts have been disturbed by rival claims of world-be heirs, and the case is not yet settled.

A West Dallas widow says the reason she broke her last engagement was because her fiance owned a pack of hounds and said he needed some body to make dog biscuits.

The very first thing some people do when dull times come is to stop the county paper. That is where they make a fatal mistake—the very next issue might have brought them relief.

T. J. Beasley, who represents San Saba and McCulloch counties in the state legislature, was taken care of nicely by the Speaker of the House in announcing committee appointments for the legislature season now on.

Robbery is so common now in Texas that it is being used for a confidence game. A few nights ago a forlorn wayfarer who found himself broke and friendless in the city of Dallas, and troubled about something to eat and a place to sleep.

A local wholesaler, commenting upon recent utterances in The Bulletin with reference to the difference between the price the producer receives and the price the consumer pays, remarks that a considerable portion of the difference is absorbed by high freight rates.

Seymour, Ind.—"Some time ago I had a sick spell, something like indigestion," writes Mrs. Clara Peacock, of Route 6, this place. "I would get very sick at the stomach, and spit or vomit, especially in the mornings."

"Then I began the use of Theodor's Black-Draught, after I had tried other medicines. The Black-Draught relieved me more than anything that I took, and I got all right."

"I haven't found anything better than Black-Draught when suffering from trouble caused by constipation. It is easy and sure. Can be taken in small doses or large as the case calls for."

BILL REDUCES U. S. ARMY TO 150,000 MEN

Washington, Jan. 28.—Provision has been made in the annual army appropriation bill for an army of only 150,000, at the suggestion of President-elect Harding, Representative Anthony of Kansas, chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee, which drafted the measure, said last night in announcing that the bill was ready to be reported.

The proposed army of 150,000 which compares with the present army of about 213,000 men, and with the army of 175,000 men fixed in a resolution recently adopted by the House and Senate, was suggested by Harding as a proper maximum, Chairman Anthony said, at the recent conference which he held with the President-elect at Marion.

Last Night's Dreams
 —What They Mean

SHROUDS.

A PERSON unfamiliar with dream lore might wake up after dreaming of a shroud with a feeling that he had seen an evil omen and be, consequently, depressed in spirits. He would be quite wrong. A shroud may not be altogether a pleasant thing to see in one's dreams, but it is accounted by nearly all the soothsayers to be a favorable omen to dream of that gruesome object. For one thing such a dream signifies that you are to inherit some money. It is true, though, say the wise ones, that seeing a shroud in a dream is a warning to the dreamer to take better care of his health or he will have a fit of illness which will interfere with his business. But it is merely a tendency to illness which is predicted and not illness itself. If you are careful of your health your business will prosper and your fortune increase.

If you dream that you see a shroud removed from a dead person you might wake up with a fright at the ghastly sight. But really there would be no evil omen in the dream which would call for any worrying. The worst that it could mean would be that you are going to have some little strife and contention with a person with whom you least expected to have trouble. But the difficulty will be of short duration; you will get the best of the argument and all will be smooth sailing again. In looking over many hundreds, or rather thousands, of dream interpretations which have been handed down from generation to generation it is found that the saying "Dreams go by contraries" does not apply so frequently as is generally supposed. But the dream of a shroud is one of the cases where it does. So cheer up if you have this disagreeable dream. Think of the coming legacy and the flourishing of your business.

Just Folks
 By EDGAR A. GUEST

WHEN NELLIE'S ON THE JOB.
 The bright spots in my life are when the servant quits the place. Although that grim disturbance brings a frown on Nellie's face; The week between the old girl's reign and entry of the new Is one that's filled with happiness and comfort through and through. The charm of living's back again—a charm that servants rob—I like the home, I like the meals, when Nellie's on the job.

There's something in a servant's ways, however fine they be, That has a cold and distant touch and frets the soul of me. The old home never looks so well, as in that week or two That we are servantless and Nell has all the work to do. There is a sense of comfort then that makes my pulses throb And home is as it ought to be when Nellie's on the job.

Think not that I'd deny her help or grudge the servant's pay, When one departs we try to get another right away. I state the simple fact that no such joys I've known As in those few brief days at home when we've been left alone. There is a gentleness that seems to soothe this selfish elf And oh, I like to eat those meals that Nellie gets herself!

You cannot buy the gentle touch that mother gives the place, No servant girl can do the work with just the proper grace. And though you hired the queen of cooks to fashion your croquettes Her meals would not compare with those your loving comrade gets. MOON ROCKET WILL BE TRIED NEXT SUMMER

Worcester, Mass., Jan. 28.—The first trials of the rocket which it is hoped will reach the moon will be held early this summer, it is announced by Prof. Robert Goddard of Clark University, the inventor. Dr. Goddard is at present making his first working model. Dr. Goddard declared that he was more convinced than ever of the possibility of creating a rocket that will reach the moon, designed in such manner that it will strike off a flash. The Smithsonian Institution is financing the experiment to the extent of $5,000. Dr. Goddard is thus practically forced to finance himself.

The propelling force of the rocket would be smokeless powder. The gasses would be ejected from the rocket with great rapidity and with each explosion the rocket would go higher. There would be about 300 discharges and the speed would average 800 feet per second. When the rocket has reached the desired altitude a parachute would open up and let the rocket down without breaking. He calculated with an additional charge he could cause an explosion on the face of the moon that would be visible through a telescope. This rocket would travel at the rate of 6,000 to 7,000 feet a second.

GREAT DREADNOUGHT IS RAISED FROM SEA—ITALIANS RECOVER SHIP

London, January 28.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Milan wires that a unique naval engineering achievement was effected yesterday at Taranto Harbor in connection with the salvage of the Italian dreadnought Leonardo da Vinci, which was sunk there in August 1916, as the result of a treacherous plot and the exploding of infernal machines which caused the ship to completely capsize, leak upward, with her smokestacks smashed and her turrets remaining embedded in mud. Two hundred of her crew were drowned.

Naval engineers have been busy during these last two years with a recovery scheme based on pumping air into the hull and slowly dislodging water, compartment after compartment, until after the coal and ammunition had been extracted, the ship, although capsized was floated again. In this overturned condition, bottom upward, the battleship was towed to dry-dock, where her turrets were removed and her decks rendered watertight. The dreadnought still overturned, was retowed into the harbor, and preparations were made for righting her. Thousands of people congregated at Taranto to watch this interesting event, and the Navy Minister and many Admirals and engineers also attended.

Operations began yesterday, certain compartments being filled with water until the hull slowly began to rotate, assuming an inclined position. At this stage, by pumping water into more compartments and also dislodging it from others by compressed air rotation accelerated itself, the deck appearing by degrees, until finally the dreadnought fully righted herself as if automatically. The whole operation was followed with the utmost enthusiasm and amid tremendous cheers.

MRS. E. E. SPILLER ADVISES OF DEATH OF AUNT IN COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY

E. E. Spiller last week received advice from Mrs. Spiller of the death of her aunt, Miss Eliza Todd, which occurred on January 21st, at Columbia, Kentucky. Deceased had reached the advanced age of 81 years. For the past year she had been in feeble health and her strength gradually declined and a stroke of paralysis hastened the end. Miss Todd made her home with her brother, A. G. Todd, and wife, at Columbia, where Mrs. Spiller had been attending her since last July. Mrs. Walter Fleeson, nee Margaret Todd, of Fort Worth, was called to the bedside of her aunt a couple weeks ago, arriving in time to see her before death closed her eyes.

FLOYD SANSON TELLS OF RABBIT DRIVE AT MERCURY—TACTICS SUCCESSFUL

The Standard is in receipt of the following communication from Floyd Sanson of Mercury, telling of the successful rabbit drive staged last week in that community, and outlining the tactics employed:

Mr. Sanson writes: Perhaps it would be of interest to you and The Standard readers to know about the rabbit drive which the men of this community staged this week.

On Tuesday of last week, thirty-five men of this community met and formed in line three-quarters of a mile long. The line began at the east side of T. L. Sanson's place and extended west. When all was in readiness, everyone marched due north to the river. There the men moved three-quarters of a mile farther east and marched in a southern direction.

We found that the best tactics was to keep the lines as straight as possible except for three or four men on each end who walk ahead a short distance to get the rabbits—that attempt to go around.

Nothing but jack rabbits were killed as we were short of ammunition. The day's drive netted 788 jack rabbits. The week before, we had our first drive and killed 821. We will stage another drive next week.

This community would like to see other communities fall in line and also stage drives. We believe the quickest and most economical method of getting rid of the rabbit pest is for everyone to get a gun and go after them.

Sincerely,
 T. FLOYD SANSON.

FAMOUS WOLF OF LEGENDARY FEROCITY, NINE YEARS SCOURGE OF RANCHES, FINALLY KILLED

Washington, Jan. 29.—After exacting $25,000 tribute in livestock during the nine years he cunningly eluded scores of hunters, the "Custer Wolf," known as the master criminal of the animal world, has at last been killed.

The death of the cruellest, the most sagacious, the most successful animal outlaw the range country has ever known, was announced with a sigh of relief by the Department of Agriculture. H. P. Williams, the department's best hunter and deadliest shot, sent a bullet crashing through the animal's brain after trailing it seven months through the country adjacent to Custer, N. D.

Nine Years Scourge.
 For nine years the Custer Wolf struck terror to the hearts of ranchers in that section. Many credited the story that it was not merely a wolf, but a monstrosity of nature, half wolf and half mountain lion, possessing the refinement of animal ferocity. Here tonight—tomorrow night he devastated a range fifty miles away. He loped through every kind of danger and passed them all. He sniffed at the subtlest poison and passed it by. The most adroitly concealed trap was as clear to him as a mirror in the sun.

"Mere money loss was not the whole of the horrible toll he took. When he killed for food he took only the choicest animals, but sometimes he killed in atrocious ways for the mere sake of killing. Often he wounded ed cattle, breaking their legs, biting off their tails, mutilating them in unspeakable ways."

 Revenge for Mate.
 Four years ago the Custer Wolf's mate was killed and it is popularly believed he devoted himself to revenge for her death. He never took another mate, but later allied himself with two coyotes. Of this incident the department says:
 "He attached to himself the coyotes, not as equals, but as slaves. He never permitted them to come near him, and they could feed from his kills only after he himself had finished. They traveled far out on his flanks, giving him warning of ambush or approaching danger, and adding to the atmosphere of mystery that surrounded him. In public opinion he had all the qualities of the wolf of the old world legends."
 Celebrate Killing.
 The Custer Wolf died making a supreme effort to cheat death once more. This from Williams' report to the department:
 "He stepped into a trap and ran with it 150 yards when the hook caught on a tree, but that did not seem to stop him. He broke the swivel of the trap and ran with it on his front foot. I shot at him and got him. He weighed 98 pounds and measured just six feet from tip to tip. His teeth would have been good for fifteen years longer. He broke some of them off on the trap, but aside from that they were in good condition."
 The slaying of the master criminal was marked by a celebration in the vicinity of Custer almost as enthusiastic as that of Armistice Day.

FARM BUREAU HEADS SAY LESS COTTON 1921— FARMS SELF-SUSTAINING

Fort Worth, Jan. 22.—Cotton acreage in some counties of Texas will be reduced 50 per cent during 1921, according to a statement from the cotton division of the Texas Farm Bureau.

"The Texas and Southern farmer," the statement said, "would be far from using intelligent business judgment in the planting of another average acreage in cotton this year. Authentic figures indicate we will have left on hand at the end of the fiscal year, July 1, from 11,000,000 to 13,000,000 bales of world stocks, or practically an average American crop."

"Every farm should be made self-sustaining by producing a sufficient amount of food and feed crops for both man and beast. Our people should plant the best seed of every kind and add fertility to the soil, thereby increasing the quantity and quality of production per acre with the same labor cost, making their cotton a surplus or profit crop."

"A letter received from Thomas B. King, manager of the Cotton Acreage Reduction campaign of all states east of the Mississippi, said that the work is moving fine and that all the people and especially large landowners are preparing for a reduction of next year's cotton acreage."

RUFFIANS BEAT AGED MAN—IS BADLY HURT

Saturday night Sheriff Wall received a telephone call from Mercury parties telling him of a nattack made upon J. H. Matlock, an aged man, who had been conducting a little store and making his home on the Brownwood road, in Brown county, and just across the McCulloch-Brown county bridge over the Colorado river. No particulars were given at the time, the only information being that he was attacked by two men who drove up in a car. Sheriff Wall was asked to be on the lookout for the parties.

Concerning the attack, the Brownwood Bulletin gave the following account:

J. H. Matlock, more than 70 years old, was set upon at his little store on the bank of the Colorado river near Winchell, last Saturday night, by the unknown ruffians and almost beaten to death. The condition of the old man was so precarious that friends brought him to a Brownwood sanitarium for treatment. Reports today indicated that while he was doing fairly well he was still feeling the effect of the severe drubbing.

Mr. Matlock keeps a small stock of goods on the bank of the Colorado. Having no family he eats and sleeps in the store, his living apartment occupying the rear, which he cut off into a room some time ago. The store is not open more than half the time as the old man cultivates a small area of land and also hunts and fishes to some extent. In telling about the brutal attack made upon him by parties whom he had never seen before Saturday night, he said he closed the store and retired to his room at the rear of the store where he was sitting by the fire reading a newspaper, when he heard someone knock at the front door. Thinking it was some of the neighbors, he called to the person knocking to come around to the back. In a moment or so two strange men came around and at his invitation entered the room. They told Matlock that they wanted to buy something to eat. He informed them that he had nothing except some crackers. One of the men ordered him to get the crackers as that was better than nothing. He went back into the store to get the crackers, followed by the men and when nearly at the cracker box they struck him from behind and knocked him down. Then they proceeded to whip or beat him almost into insensibility, finally leaving him and going away without touching anything in the store. Mr. Matlock says he has no idea who the men were as to the best of his knowledge he never saw them before and cannot imagine why they should want to mistreat him. He says he has had no trouble, not even as much as a cross word with anybody nor has he an enemy anywhere so far as he knows. After recovering from the attack sufficiently to barely walk, he made his way to the house of a neighbor Saturday night and was brought to Brownwood Sunday.

MRS. MORGAN LOOKS TEN YEARS YOUNGER

Says She Is In Fine Health Since Tanlac Rid Her of Rheumatism.

"My friends all tell me I am looking ten years younger and I feel it, too; for since taking Tanlac I am once more enjoying just splendid health," said Mrs. Addie Morgan of Fairfield, Mo., while visiting her daughter at 2624 Spruce Street, Kansas City, Mo.

"At the time I started taking Tanlac I was on the verge of a complete breakdown and was suffering just about all the time. I had rheumatism all over my body and my shoulders, arms, legs and ankles pained me dreadfully. My arms hurt so bad I could not get either hand to my head and my shoulders and back pained me every time I moved. My legs hurt all the way down to the ankles and my joints were so stiff and sore I could hardly walk. My kidneys were badly disordered and bothered me constantly, day and night. Then, too, I suffered awfully with indigestion and had about lost my appetite. Nothing I ate seemed to agree with me but would sour on my stomach, causing gas and bloating. I became very nervous, my complexion turned yellow and I was rapidly growing worse.

"But a few weeks ago I started taking Tanlac and right then a change for the better took place in my condition. The rheumatism began leaving me and in a short time I was able to walk without being in pain and could use my arms freely. I continued to improve until now I hardly know what it is to have an ache or pain of any kind. My digestion is perfect and I have a fine appetite and enjoy everything I eat. My kidneys and nerves are also in splendid conditions and my complexion has cleared up. I have been built up wonderfully and can now do my housework with the greatest ease. I don't hesitate to recommend Tanlac, for it has been a god-send to me."

Tanlac is sold in Brady by Trigg Drug Co., in Mercury by J. T. Matlock, in Rochelle by C. W. Carr, and leading druggists everywhere.

BROWNWOOD MEN LEARN WHAT IT COSTS TO WEAR BIG DIAMONDS—AND CASH

Coy McIntosh and Claude Mitchell have returned from a trip to Breckenridge and other points in the oil fields, and relate the details of a hold-up in which they were robbed of their money and McIntosh lost two large diamonds valued at about $8,000.

The hold-up occurred just south of Breckenridge. McIntosh and Mitchell were driving a car into Breckenridge, and met another car stopped in the center of the road. When the Brownwood men undertook to drive past the car they met three men armed with pistols, and promptly complied with the request to "put 'em up." After the robbers had secured the cash and diamonds, they got into their car and drove away with the admonition "Wait here until we get back." About $165 in cash was secured in addition to the diamonds.—Brownwood Bulletin.

BRADY EUROPEAN RELIEF FUND TOTALS NEARLY $400

Brady's fund for the relief of the starving people of Europe so far totals close to $400, and this figure will very likely be greatly exceeded by additional donations made by the charitable citizens of Brady and McCulloch county.

A feature of the collection of funds for the European Relief fund, was the giving of two benefit performances at the Lyric theatre Sunday, the first at 3:00 p. m. and the second at 8:30 p. m. A fairly good attendance was had at both shows, but the donations hardly came up to expectation. The picture shown, Clara Kimbell Young in "The Soul of Rafael," was a splendid production and was universally enjoyed. A total of $159.14 was realized from the two performances.

Individual Donations. Individual donations have since added greatly to the fund, one prominent Brady man, well-known for his many acts of charity, giving $100 to the fund, while others donated in smaller amounts. These donations, together with the benefit show receipts, make a total of $371.14.

Sunday School Class Donation. As a splendid example to the citizens of McCulloch county, young and old, comes the contribution of $10 to the European Relief fund on the part of the 3rd Class of the Junior department of the Presbyterian Sunday school. These little folks, inspired by the suggestion, "A Ten Spot Saves a Tot," saved their pennies until they had accumulated the required $10, which was then forwarded to the European Relief fund. The children are now saving towards another $10 fund, which they hope soon to complete. Their noble example is indeed one to encourage other Sunday school classes, and puts to shame many a grown-up.

Adding this $10 to the sum mentioned above, makes the European Relief fund to date in Brady $381.14.

PROPOSED DUTY BENEFITS WOOL—HIGHER PRICE

Washington, Jan. 28.—Boston wool buyers have taken 1,000,000 pounds of Texas wool during the last week, according to letters from Boston to Representative Claude Hudspeth, which is pointed to as one of the beneficial results of the emergency tariff legislation pending in the Senate. According to letters today received by Mr. Hudspeth, similar to those heretofore received, Boston merchants have canceled many of their orders for foreign importations, fearing that the emergency bill would become a law. In addition to this, Mr. Hudspeth said today, the market has advanced about 20 percent, or 1c a pound.

The mohair industry will be brought before the Ways and Means Committee Monday by R. E. Taylor of Carlsbad, N. M., president of the National Mohair Association, who reached here today and will give testimony supplementing letters he has already addressed to members of the committee. According to Mr. Taylor, the industry is in straits similar to that of the wool industry, and is asking a protection that would enable the domestic producer to hold an advantage against the foreign commodity.

Wool Inquiry Doubtful.

There appears to be little opportunity for passage of the Hudspeth resolution asking an inquiry of the wool adjustment made by a board of the War Department, under which it is claimed that producers in the San Angelo district were defrauded out of about one-half million dollars, on shrinkage, owing to the legislative congestion which always results at the close of a session. If no action is taken by this Congress, Mr. Hudspeth will offer the resolution at the special session. Texas producers who complain about the Government's agents and the decision of the claims board of the War Department, which the Secretary of War has sustained, have requested the hearings be held in Texas, and point out in their letters that they do not possess the funds upon which to come to Washington for a hearing. It was stated in letters received from Texas by Mr. Hudspeth today that the producers already have expended a large sum in an endeavor to have their claims allowed.
