METHODIST REVIVAL TO BEGIN SUNDAY, DEC. 4

Our Revival at the Methodist church begins next Sunday morning, December 4th, at 11 a. m. and we take this method of, not only inviting, but urging each of the pastors of the city, and all the members and friends of each church in Brady and the surrounding country to "Come over and help us." We love all Christian people and crave to be a blessing to all we meet. It is a well-known fact, not only in Brady, but wherever we have gone, that we do not fight people and churches, but we fight Sin and the Devil with all our might and main.

Our subject Sunday morning: "Pre-vailling Power," and Sunday night: "God's Great Thermometer."

Come on and join in the choir; be at home; go to work. The meeting is for all who will enter into it. We expect to run two weeks, if not longer.

Services every night the coming week except Friday night. Time 7:00 p. m. No morning services till the beginning of the second week.

S. C. DUNN, Pastor.

L. W. ST. CLAIR STUDIO IS LEASED BY DAVIS & GARTMAN EFFECTIVE 1ST

The photograph studio of L. W. St. Clair has been leased by the well known firm of Davis & Gartman, the lease including the entire equipment of the studio, and the business being turned over to the lessees on December 1st. Co-incident with taking over the studio, Davis & Gartman has moved their music store to the studio location, and will operate the two jointly.

D. M. Mason, originally of Mobile, Ala., but who has been engaged in the photographic business in Groesbeck recently, will have charge of the studio. Mr. Mason has a reputation of being one of the best home portrait photographers in the South, and his studies made in the home, together with this art portraits, speak volumes for the high character of his work. He is a student of the widely known Southern School of Photography at McMinnville. A number of years ago he was associated with Mr. Davis in the photography business in Louisiana, the two having known one another since boyhood.

The new studio owners will continue to do kodak finishing, portrait work, enlarging and picture framing, and solicit the patronage of both old and new friends of the St. Clair studio.

Mr. St. Clair has not definitely decided upon his future course, but states that he has leased the studio in order to be enabled to get out for a time, to brush up on the newest ideas in photography and to enjoy a rest from the routine of business. For the present, he will give attention to his well-equipped studio in Mason, where he has a large clientele awaiting his coming. However, the family will continue to call Brady home, and will continue their residence here.

BAZAAR.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual bazaar at the Popular Dry Goods Co. December 8th and 9th.

If you have any Straight Chairs or Rockers to sell, call on us. We pay the top prices.

DON'T DISLOCATE THE AMERICAN IDEA

The Brady Standard's Americanization Series

Too commonly our school gives us our opinions ready-made. We put too much faith in what we see in print. If public opinion, which is your opinion and mine, is to be at its best must be what we reach, not by absorbing the ideas of the man who talks the loudest, but by digesting what we hear and read. But we are not to disregard the experiences of the great men who gave years of thought and effort to the forming of our national ideals.

They chose a few great principles on which they built our nation. They wrote them into the two great basic documents of our civic life: the Declaration and the Constitution. They proclaimed, first, the principle of equality.

Equality means fraternity, brotherhood, fair dealing, exclusion of no one from public benefits because of race or poverty or lowly birth. It means rejection of inherited titles of nobility. It means avoidance of distinctions tending to put one man above another. Equality is an essential of the American Idea.

Another phase of the Idea is the inalienable right to life. In old-world times a monarch owned his subjects. "Off with his head" was warrant enough to put a king's enemy out of the way. The right to life has been invaded by others than kings. If the greed of profiteers and the ignorance of parents place undeveloped children in factories and mines the American Idea of the right of all to life is gone. Against this greed the public schools stand as the best proposal of the national purpose to give all the people a chance to live a rounded, intelligent, complete, American life.

The next conception of the national ideal is liberty. It has been from the first a watchword on our lips. We could persuade ourselves into as much stupidity about the meaning of liberty as we could about the other thing: equality. But if we use our common sense and knowledge of history we can reach a workable idea of liberty. Washington led the fighting for it but he had no doubt of its meaning when he said "We must distinguish between licentiousness and liberty, we must recognize the difference between oppression and necessary authority." The Fathers of the Republic proclaimed liberty of speech, liberty of thought, freedom from attending a state church, liberty to change the government by fair and orderly means: elections. They took no single idea and pushed it to an impossible extreme. They were practical men, the best minds the country afforded. They thought of liberty of the single man in connection with the benefit of all men. They always coupled liberty with another idea, the thought of union. Liberty may seem to be my personal benefit. If that is all it means it is a cheap and selfish notion. But as the Declaration told the world of our freedom from the rule of kings and nobles, the Constitution advertised our purpose to unite for a common, not a personal, welfare. So are these principles blended, liberty and union, now and forever one and inseparable. To assail our union, our government, our brotherhood, in the interest of personal liberty, license, unbounded freedom, is to break our national ideal all to pieces and to rush backward towards the barbarism that existed before man set aside his selfishness to form co-operative government, without which we should still be roaming in the woods and fighting daily for enough to eat.

(Editor's Note—The articles appearing in the above space from week to week are taken from "Americanization" by Elwood Griscom, Jr. This excellent volume, which is a collection of articles under the general theme of patriotism and good citizenship, is presented to the schools of Texas by the Bodies of Scottish Rite Masonry in Texas).

NEGRO YOUTH IS LYNCHED AT BALLINGER WED'DAY

Ballinger, Nov. 30.—Robert Mutore, 15 year old negro, charged with assault on a nine year old white girl, was taken from the officers and lynched at noon today.

The girl was attacked last night and seriously injured. The negro was arrested later and jailed here. A mob began forming this morning. The sheriff placed the negro in an automobile and attempted to escape but the mob overtook the officer, seized the negro and after tying him to a post three miles from town riddled his body with bullets.

ARKANSAS FARMER WILL STAY HOME HEREAFTER —HAS SEEN THE WORLD

Shawnee, Okla., Nov. 26.—"Mexico is desperation. "Texas is starvation. "Oklahoma is speculation. "The whole world is shot to hell under the Harding administration. "I'm moving back to Arkansas!" So read the sign painted in bold type on the side of a covered wagon which passed through Shawnee recently.

The farmer declared he has tried life in all of the states mentioned and "was sick of 'em all."

FIREBOYS BENEFIT AT LYRIC MONDAY NIGHT LAST OF YEAR'S SERIES

Next Monday night will be the last of the season's benefit performances at the Lyric theatre for the Brady fire boys. It will be the last opportunity the citizens will have, this year at least, of showing their appreciation of the fire boys, by giving them a rousing turnout at the show. Every seat should be taken; standing room should be at a premium. That's the spirit Brady citizens should put back of their support of this most invaluable institution. The presence of every citizen is desired—you, your family, your neighbors, your friends.

The picture to be presented is "Pagan Love." Reflecting in the fullest degree the artistry of its creator, Hugo Ballin, and with all the suspense of Achmed Abdullah's engrossing story, "The Honourable Gentleman"—from which it was freely adapted—preserved intact, this picture will please the eye just as thoroughly as it will please the mind.

Hugo Ballin, before his entrance into the Motino Picture industry, was one of the greatest painters that this, or any other country ever knew. He is a man whose works hang in the National Gallery in Washington, the State Capitol in Wisconsin and in many other prominent places.

Mr. Ballin's technical knowledge of picture making was gained in his association with the Goldwyn organization. For them he acted as Art director for approximately eighty pictures. He also directed many successful productions himself, among them "The Cinderella Man" and "Baby Mine."

"Pagan Love" is the first thing he has done as an independent producer—and it's good! It embodies within itself all that theatre-goers love best: Splendid acting, a succession of beautiful scenes, each one lovelier than the one that went before and a story that reaches to the heart.

"FLYING U" CATTLE SHIPPED TO FAMOUS RAISER

S. E. McKnight, owner of the famous "Flying U" herds of Whiteface Herefords, raised on his Lohn and Sonora ranches, was in Brady yesterday, having just finished loading out two carloads of his calves and yearlings at Menard for shipment to the nationally famous stock ranch of J. G. Imboden & Son at Decatur, Ill. The shipment included one carload of 36 feeder yearlings, and one carload of 50 feeder calves, all from the ranch at Sonora. The shipment attracted much attention from local cattlemen yesterday while laying over in the local freight yards.

J. G. Imboden & Sons are among the most famous breeders and raisers of cattle in the U. S., and recently at the Chicago International exposition added to their long string of medals by capturing the championship on two steers—both Texas-raised cattle. Their selection of Whiteface from the "Flying U" ranch, places their stamp of approval upon this herd, already famous throughout this section, and will serve to draw attention of northern breeders to the high class of stuff produced in Texas.

A "Sure-Enough" Rain to Report—Thanksgiving Day Observance.
Voca, Texas, Nov. 30.

Editor Brady Standard:

Last Wednesday this section was visited with a sure-enough good rain. It is hard to estimate it in dollars and cents. It may have been worth a million and it may have been worth more; at least it was valuable and we were all very thankful for it, because it was badly needed. Everybody was ready and waiting for a rain to start to breaking land.

Mr. Editor, you missed one of the best Thanksgiving dinners you ever had an opportunity to see, or at least I think so. It was beyond describing, and everyone that was present expressed themselves as having one of the finest dinners they ever saw. Everyone enjoyed the day to the fullest extent. In addition to the regular announced school program, Supt. W. M. Deans made a talk, which was hugely enjoyed by all present.

"A CITIZEN."
Editor's Note—The Standard editor would not be thought unappreciative of the kind invitation to eat Thanksgiving dinner and to spend the day with our good friends at Lost Creek. We do appreciate this kind thoughtfulness and regret our inability to be present at what we are sure was a most wonderful feast, as well as a most enjoyable entertainment.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

PEAR VALLEY PICKUPS.

Good Report on Church Activities—Box Supper Great Success.
Pear Valley, Texas, Nov. 28.

Editor Brady Standard:

Prayer meeting was led by Mr. Lester Thacker last Wednesday night. The subject was "Sin of Neglect." Everyone seemed to take an interest in the services. At the close of the meeting, the leader appointed Mr. Willie Spraggins to led next time. We are very glad to see the new converts taking the lead; and too, it was decided the Baptists and Methodists change their prayer meeting night back from Thursday night to Wednesday night, as the Christians do not use that time any more.

Thanksgiving services were held at the Baptist church Thursday morning by Brother Price from Rochelle. At the opening of the services the school children rendered a short program, after which Brother Price made an interesting talk. Then a number of people told many things which they were thankful for.

Everyone who attended the social given by the B. Y. P. U. and Epworth League at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Thursday night, reports a great time. They were entertained by many games, such as "bean-race," "guessing names of four pictures," "of cars," etc. The winner of each game, being given a prize caused a great deal of enthusiasm. Hot chocolate and cake were served.

Mr. Byran Zimmerman decided that he was so homesick he could not stay in Pear Valley any longer therefore, he put his foot in his hand and started across the mountain to his home, which is in the Dodge community. We were very uneasy about him for fear the wolves would get him but guess he escaped as he was seen at church Sunday night.

There was a box supper at the tabernacle Friday night, which proved to be very successful. The proceeds were $85.65, which is to be spent for fixtures for the inside of the new Methodist church. The price of boxes ranged from $1.00 to $5.00. One feature of interest was the boxes brought by the juniors. The limit being one dollar, they went like "hot-cakes." There were pies, hot coffee and sandwiches sold also. The auctioneer was Brother Wall.

Miss Thelma Parker's many friends were very glad to welcome her home on a visit from Brownwood, where she is attending Howard Payne college. She is greatly missed; nevertheless we are glad to know that she is trying to finish her education. We wish her all the success possible, but are longing for Christmas week, so she can be in our midst again.

We were also proud to see Mr. Willie Johnson, another Howard Payne student, spend part of his Thanksgiving vacation in Pear Valley.

Brother Wall, the Methodist pastor, filled his second appointment Saturday night, Sunday at 11:00 o'clock, and Sunday night. Several report his sermon Sunday night, the subject being "The Value of A Soul," one of the best they ever heard.

Mr. and Mrs. White were greatly missed Sunday afternoon from Sunday school and the league. They accompanied Brother and Sister Wall to Lohn, where the former preached.

Master Hardy Marshall has been very ill for the past week with a case of pneumonia, but we are indeed glad to report that he is improving and hope him a speedy recovery.

All the pupils and teachers were very proud to see Miss Sadie Parker back in school Monday morning. She states that there is no more ball playing for her as she suffered enough with her ankle last week to pay for all the joy one gets in helping win a game. Of course the girls of the team think they cannot give her up.

LEDBETTER NEWS.

Fife, Texas, Nov. 23.

Editor Brady Standard:

Two of our most efficient teachers, Misses Mayme Wade and Merle Farnsworth spent the week end at the latter's home, in Millersview. A most wonderful time was reported. They were accompanied home Sunday by Messrs. Douglas Farnsworth and Nelson Davenport. Although both the young gentlemen are members of the Millersview faculty, one of them occupying the position of superintendent, they both agreed that they would gladly surrender their positions and dignity there for a position in Ledbetter school; and in such a thriving community. We are glad to welcome such brilliant young gentlemen into our community.

RENEWED TESTIMONY.

No one in Brady who suffers back-ache, headaches, or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Brady man's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Brady resident can doubt.

W. F. Bodenhamer, says: "Some years ago my back began to ache and often I got right down with it. My feet and ankles became swollen and my kidneys did not act as they should. These troubles came on in spells and every time I would use Doan's Kidney Pills they would relieve me. I always have Doan's Kidney Pills in the house." (Statement given April 29, 1915.)

On May 16, 1919 Mr. Bodenhamer said: "I still can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly as I did when I gave my former statement. They are a splendid kidney remedy. Occasionally I take a few doses and I always get the same good benefit."

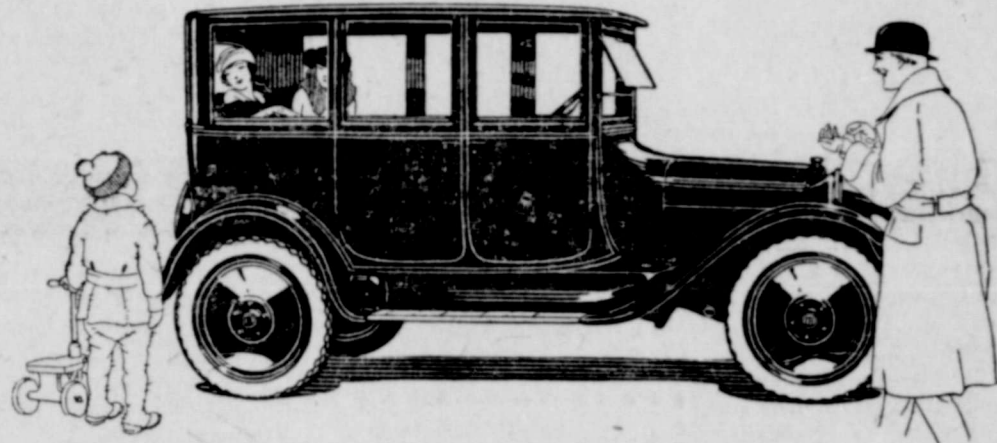

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bodenhamer had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

HONEST INJUN.

Which will you pay—a good roads tax or a bad roads tax? Your vote on the good roads bond election December 20th will be your answer.

THE STANDARD'S POSITION.

With the Good Roads Bond campaign warming up, The Standard believes it advisable to make its position on this question clearly understood. In the first place, The Standard is for good roads, which is to say, we are for the Good Roads bonds. Much space in The Standard will be devoted to the issue during the remaining days of the campaign. For this, we have no apology to make. The issue is the most vitally important matter that has come before the citizens of McCulloch county in many years. The Standard will endeavor to present the facts in the matter, avoiding mis-statements, exaggerations, futile promises and the like. As always, in questions affecting the local interests of our citizens, The Standard opens its columns for a free and frank discussion of the matter. The only restrictions placed upon such articles are: first, no personalities shall be indulged in; second, each article shall be limited to 300 words. For those desiring more space in which to set forth their views, our advertising columns are open at our regular rates.

The Standard reserves the right to make editorial comment upon any phase of the question which may be brought up, but in no case will we indulge in arguments with those who do not see the question from our viewpoint.

With lowered building costs, with the assurance of Federal aid, with the great need of employment for our citizens, and with the imperative need of good roads and highways, The Standard believes that now is the opportune time to build roads, and to the end that road building may be started in McCulloch county, we are dedicating our best efforts.

The Sheppard-Towner maternity bill which has passed the National Senate and is now up for consideration in the House would cost the Federal Government $6,200,000 to make it operative. That amount, coupled with the appropriations of the several states, will provide lucrative jobs for a lot of men and women who are hanging around the back door of the National capitol waiting for government handouts. The Sheppard-Towner bill is that kind of socialistic or paternalistic legislation which has grown to alarming proportions in Washington and helps to keep the annual expenses of the Federal government at more than four billion dollars a year.—Coleman Democrat-Voice.

A positive order was issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission on Monday requiring railroads to put the approximately 16 per cent decrease in hay and grain rates into effect on or before Dec. 27. The order follows up the decision given Oct. 20 by the commission which declared grain and hay rates from the Mississippi Valley to the Pacific coast unreasonably high, but which did not carry compulsory orders. The October decision instructed the railroads to make the reduction by Nov. 20, which was not done because the railroads opened negotiations with the commission suggesting that a ten per cent decrease in freight rates on all agricultural products be substituted for the larger decrease on grain products and hay alone. The commission, however, by the order issued Monday disregarded the compromise proposed by the railroads and make the larger decreases on hay and grain mandatory upon the roads.—Coleman Democrat-Voice.

Ships that pass at the opening session sometimes come back in the night.—Providence Tribune.

WHEN YOU ARE OLD.

What will you be doing in your old age? Will you be sitting on the front porch, stroking your white hair? Or will you be active, powerful and a leader? This latter you may doubt, for most of us have the false notion that old age means inactivity.

If you have an idea of retiring when you are 60, consider these great exploits of old men:

Titian executed his most famous painting when he was 98.

Von Moltke was in full uniform when he was 88.

Cornelius Vanderbilt did not become a great railroad king until he was 70. At 88 he was the most active railroad man of his day.

Socrates began studying music when he was 80.

Pasteur discovered his hydrophobia cure after he was 65.

Columbus, between 50 and 60 made his first voyage of discovery.

Voltaire, Newton, Spencer, Talleyrand and Thomas Jefferson—all were active in their intellectual prime long after they were 80.

When Galileo discovered the monthly and daily vibrations of the moon he was 73.

The Earl of Haldsbury, 99 years old, is today the leader of the conservative party in the British house of lords, and is supervising the writing of a twenty-volume encyclopedia of British law.

There are tens of thousands of instances of men who did their best work in old age. The world is full of such men today.

In our youth we grope rather blindly. Experience comes slowly. With age comes wisdom—real knowledge of life.

Youth is unusually too impulsive. Old age, remembering scalded fingers is conservative. The two working together, make the happy medium the ideal combination.

Nature can make your joints stiffen and your arteries hard, your hair white and your face lined with wrinkles. But your brain—your real self—can defy old age.

Train your brain. Learn to think straight, if you would make old age the most enjoyable and the most useful period of your life.—Graham Leader.

Mrs. Ed Campbell entertained delightfully on Tuesday afternoon with two tables of "Bridge," the occasion being the regular meeting of the Bridge club. Members present were Mesdames W. D. Crothers, G. V. Gansel, R. W. Turner, Bailey Jones, Sam McCollum, Jack Ragsdale; Miss Sarah Johanson. Mrs. Wiley Walker was a guest.
In the series of games Mrs. Turner received prize for high score.
The hostess served a salad course. Mrs. Crothers entertains for the club week after next.

Lawrence-Thompson.
The marriage of Miss Inez Lawrence and Mr. Vernon Thompson was quietly celebrated Tuesday night at 7:00 o'clock, the Rev. S. C. Dunn performing the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lawrence. The bride is one of Brady's charming young ladies, having lived here practically all her life, and being a favorite in a large circle of friends. The groom is originally of Sabinal, Texas, but farmed in McCulloch county the past year, and more recently has made his home in Brownwood. He is highly spoken of by all who know him.
Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will make their home in Brady for the present. All their friends join in extending congratulations and good wishes.

Kirklen-Gamble.
On last Saturday night at the home of Mrs. R. H. Slaughter, sister of the bride, Miss Lois Kirklen was united in marriage to Mr. Austin Gamble, the Rev. Marshall Bean performing the ceremony. Mrs. Gamble is a popular young lady and has a large circle of admirers in the Camp San Saba community, where she was raised. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kirklen, and for the past year has made her home in Brady with her parents. The groom is a splendid and likeable young man, and for the past year has been in the employ of the Broad Mercantile Co., where he has made himself popular with employes and patrons of the store alike.
Mr. and Mrs. Gamble are at home to their friends at the residence of her parents in South Brady. The Standard joins their friends in extending every good wish to the happy couple.

Former Bradyite to Marry.
Friends of Ernest Noble, Jr., former Brady boy, will be interested to learn of his approaching marriage to Miss Della Bishop, a charming and attractive young lady of Fort Worth. The Fort Worth Record last Sunday published a large portrait of Miss Bishop, together with the following account of a dinner given in her honor:
Miss Della Bishop, a bride-elect, was the honoree at a beautifully appointed dinner party, tendered her by Mrs. C. B. Caswell of 2117 Fairmount avenue at the latter's home a few evenings ago. The decorations of both the home and the table were in keeping with the excellent taste of the hostess, and of the nature of the affair. The guests, both of the city and out-of-town, enjoyed the function. Those from out of the city were Mesdames E. S. Noble Sr. of San Angelo and Mrs. William F. Leschner of St. Louis, a sister of the bride-to-be.

LOCAL BRIEFS.
Among other places, the section of country from Eldorado north was visited by a fine rain the past week, which was greatly appreciated. The downpour was sufficient to put out stock water, enable plowing, and made muddy traveling on the roads.

Writing from Big Springs, Mrs. Edd Miller sends in her remittance for some "more of that good old paper," adding, "No one knows how we have missed it. Been thinking we would reorder every day, but didn't. This is a beautiful place, and we like here fine—much better than the oil field."

W. H. Goodner, who has been employed in a garage at Mexia the past month or so, returned Tuesday and will remain here until after the holidays. Will says there is all sorts of business and activity at Mexia, but that living expenses are so terribly high that it costs practically everything a man makes to get by. He may return to Mexia after Christmas, but in the meantime is going to enjoy the simple life here at Brady.

A telegram received Wednesday from County Judge L. G. Mathews, who was in Austin where he appeared before the State Highway Commission in behalf of additional Federal and State aid for Highway 23 in Coleman county (from Coleman to Callahan line) stated that, with the co-operation of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce he had secured all that was asked of the commission. That means that Coleman county will receive $50,000 additional aid on Highway 23. Previously, $100,000 Federal aid had been allotted to this highway, making a total of $150,000.—Coleman Democrat-Voice.

To Prolong Flashlight Battery.
The life of a flashlight battery can be increased if it is treated in the following manner, which is suggested in Popular Science Monthly by Thos. W. Benson:
Before installing a new battery, take out the individual cells and give them a coat of sodium silicate, or water glass, as it is commonly called. The entire cell should be coated, with the exception of the brass cap on the carbon and the bottoms. After drying, the battery may be reassembled and put into service. This treatment prevents the drying out that always shortens the life of dry cells.

BROOKE SMITH & CO. BANK AT BROWNWOOD CLOSES— TO LIQUIDATE ITS BUSINESS

Much interest was manifested in Brady Tuesday when it became learned that the bank of Brooke Smith & Company at Brownwood had closed its doors. The closing followed the posting of a telegram from Brooke Smith, Sr., who was in Fort Worth on business, and which read as follows: "For the best interests of all concerned, we must suspend business at once." The bank was unincorporated, was capitalized at $300,000, and was one of the oldest financial institutions in Brownwood. Its president, Brooke Smith, is reputed as having done more for Brownwood than any other man, and his reputation for integrity, resourcefulness and extensive financial interests have occasioned a general feeling that the interests of depositors and creditors of the bank will be protected and taken care of.

Concerning the matter, the Brownwood Bulletin Wednesday published the following statement:

A meeting of the creditors of Brooke Smith & Company was called today for December 7th, when all the affairs of the banking institution will be laid on the table and action planned for the liquidation of the business, Brooke Smith Sr., president of the bank, announces in the following signed statement given to The Bulletin:

"Under existing conditions and for the best interests of every one interested it was clear that to suspend business was the only right thing to do. We wish to assure all of our patrons and creditors that they will receive fair and equitable treatment throughout. No one is preferred and nothing is or will be withheld. Our resources are far above our liabilities and if our property is not sacrificed there will be plenty for all. Everything will be subject to our obligations, first, last and all the time until all are fully paid. We ask the forbearance of our patrons and creditors through these trying days.

"A meeting of our creditors is called to meet in Brownwood on Wednesday, the 7th of December. It will require a week to get notices to our outofstate creditors and give them sufficient time to be present. At this meeting a full and clear exhibit will be made and then whatever mode of procedure shall be agreed upon should be followed.

"We wish to avoid every expense and particularly desire that there be no suits as they could produce nothing but delays and needless costs.

"BROOKE SMITH."
Mr. Smith said to The Bulletin that with conditions as they are it appears to be impossible to reopen the bank, but that the institution's assets are far greater than its liabilities and if given an opportunity liquidation will be effected without difficulty.

"Our greatest need just now is confidence and a fair opportunity to protect our customers' interests," the veteran banker said. Expressions from scores of customers today indicated that confidence without measure is being extended to the bank, and that the suspension of the institution has in no sense precipitated a panicky condition. Due to the fact that several large accounts, including state and county funds, are carried in the bank, the suspension may have the effect of temporarily slowing up some phases of public work, but assurance was given today that such effect would be but temporary. Meanwhile all other financial institutions of the city are declared to be in an absolutely sound condition and general business will be inconvenienced somewhat but not seriously interrupted.

Capitalization of Brooke Smith & Company was $300,000, its deposits $1,189,000, its loans, discounts and other resources $887,000 and its cash and due from other banks $602,000 when the July 1921 edition of Rand McNally bankers' directory was issued. Correspondents of the bank were the Mechanics & Metals National Bank of New York, the First National Bank of Fort Worth and the Liberty Central Trust Company of St. Louis.

EVENING THOUGHTS.

The sun is sinking behind the western hills, shedding a halo of glory upon a lone little hill that stands like a sentinel in the deep valley. The leaves upon the trees true to the laws of Autumn, are yellow as gold, and the last lingering rays of the sun falling upon them make a very beautiful scene indeed. Now comes the hazy twilight, and I start homeward. On the way I am met by my little boy, who is full of frolic, after a busy day at school, followed by his little dog, Bob. He has come to tell me that the papers have come, and he wants me to read "Uncle Wiggley" to him, and "The Cheerful Cherub." Hastily we drive the sheep to the fold, and their tinkling bells, make music, in the twilight calm. But hark! There is a sweeter strain reaching our ears—calm, sweet, soul-inspiring. It is the tone of a violin played by a blind man, who has been our guest for a week. He is playing "Rock of Ages," and then "Nearer My God to Thee."

I step into the room, the lamps are lit, and my wife, who has always been to me a companion indeed, approaches me, and puts her arms about my neck, and says, "We think we have many hardships in life, but in reality, we have had naught but blessings." True, indeed! What a wonderful blessing is sight—physical sight. To me the sunset was beautiful, but the blind man comprehended it not. To him all was darkness. Yet he feels beauty, and reflects it by means of his violin. He is always optimistic; what a lesson to us. If he can feel his way and smile, ought not we, who behold the beautiful things in nature, to be happy?

At a later hour, I hear some one reading. It is one of the girls reading the book entitled "Just David." She is reading the story to the blind man, who sits, and drinks in the beautiful words as they fall from the lips of the girl. David too, loved his violin. To him it was his only consolation, and the story appeals to the blind man. At 10 o'clock the book is put down and all retire. After a night of sweet dreams, we are awakened by the soft strains of the violin. The blind man has awakened and is again playing "Rock of Ages."

Ah, let us look for the beauty and sunshine of life.

Service for Sunday, December 4, 1921.

"Following Jesus" is the subject for next Sunday morning. This is a beautiful lesson that I would like so much for you to hear. "Instrumental music in Divine Worship" will be the subject for the evening hour. I am aware of the fact that many good people believe it is wrong to use instruments of music in connection with divine worship. I have given this subject much study and am sure I can bring to you a message next Sunday evening that will be helpful. I assure you that nothing will be said that would injure the feelings of those who do not believe in instrumental music in the church.

It was the Judgment Day, and throngs of people were crowding around the Pearly Gates trying to convince St. Peter that they were entitled to enter Heaven. To the first applicant St. Peter said: "What kind of a car do you own?" "A Packard," was the reply. "All right," said St. Peter, "you go over there with the Presbyterians."
 The next in line testified that he owned a Buick, and was told to stand over with the Congregationalists. Behind him was the owner of a Dodge who was ordered to stand with the Baptists.
 Finally a meek little individual came along. "What kind of a car do you own?"
 "A Ford," was the answer.
 "You just think you own a car. You go over there with the Christian Scientists."

J. M. McCall Presents MOUNTAIN REMNANTS BRIGADE WITH UNIQUE GAVEL

J. M. McCall has presented Mountain Remnants Fifth Brigade, U. C. V., with an unique gavel, the same being made of wood grown on Look-out Mountain. The gavel was secured by Mr. McCall during his attendance upon the National Confederate Reunion at Chattanooga, Tenn., when he, in company with his brother, J. D., of Louisiana, climbed this historic mountain. The gavel is now in possession of L. Ballou, adjutant for the local brigade.

Mr. McCall says he had a most enjoyable time meeting with comrades and fellow-veterans at the great reunion. Upon the return trip, he stopped at Grand Cheniere, La., his boyhood home, where he had a very pleasant visit with kin folks. Mr. McCall says the folks back there live like kings, an abundance of wild duck and game abounding in that section, and he enjoyed himself as never in the twenty years he had been in Texas. Mr. McCall was for many years commander of the Brownwood camp of veterans, but since coming to McCulloch to make his home with his son-in-law in the Placid community, he has joined with the local camp. He is looking eagerly forward to the reunion next year at Brownwood, at which time Mrs. Bryan, formerly chaperone of the El Paso camp, has promised to be present and make the presentation speech formally offering the gavel presented by Mr. McCall to the Mountain Remnants brigade.

"Don't You Wish."
Don't you wish you were a Laddie,
Just a kid back on the farm?
Where you had your pals and swimming holes,
And knew the fish-worm's charm?

There were bruises on the bare-foot heels,
And scratches on the feet!
But as you sit and ponder now,
Those days were mighty sweet.

Don't you wish you could spend a Xmas
While the snow-flakes fly?
And watch your sainted mother
As she made your pumpkin pie?

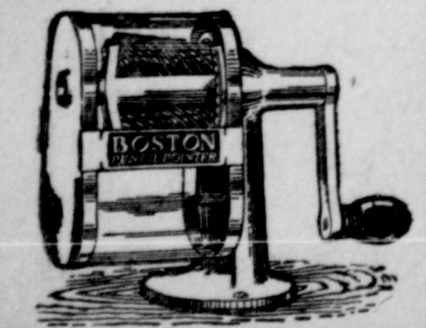

Don't you wish again for music
Like that kettle on the hearth?
As you sat and watched the pop-corn pop,
In that home that gave you birth?

Don't you wish you could hang your stocking
Close by that little bed,
And wake up and find full stockings—
Lying on a bright new sled?

Don't you wished you could just feel again,
That kiss upon your cheek;
As you trudged outside, to take a ride,
With a joy you couldn't speak?

Yes Xmas on the old farm place,
Was yours and mine and others.
Here's hoping that the "lads" today
Have such good Dads and Mothers.

McCULLOCH TEACHERS PUT ON EXCELLENT PROGRAM FOR COUNTY INSTITUTE

Brown county teachers who attended the Mid-Texas Teachers Institute which was held in Brownwood one entire week only a short time ago, and which was attended by something like 500 teachers, will be interested in knowing that the McCulloch county institute which was organized at the City Hall in Brownwood during the convention week, is now doing well and putting on some excellent programs, the next of which will be presented at the high school building at Lohn, December 17th. It will also be interesting to know that the opening song will be "Bill McDonald Had a Farm," this being the song that set the entire convention to convulsions of laughter, when it was presented and sung by Evangelist Matthews of Bryan, Texas, who was here at the time attending the Presbyterian Synod. The remainder of the program follows:
"School Athletics"—Erie D. Robertson.
Music—Miss Nella Mae Beakley.
"Methods of Recitation"—R. E. Lee.
"School Literary Society"—J. E. Lincoln.
"Round Table Discussion on Discipline"—conducted by J. D. Conner.

HIGH FOOT BALL TEAM WINS FROM CITY TEAM—BOY SCOUTS LOSE TO MENARD

Two interesting games of foot ball were witnessed the past week, the first being the Thanksgiving game between the Brady High eleven and a town team composed of former foot ball players. The high school boys cinched the game early by running up a score of 18, while the town team in the last quarter managed to make a touch-down, scoring 6. The high eleven had the advantage of concerted playing, swifter running and better knowledge of the fine points of the game. Many of the town team had been drafted for service the last minute, and had never played with the balance of the eleven. They were slower in action, frequently lost much ground on fumbles, and only by sheer weight did they make as good a showing as they did. One thing was noticeable, viz: that the town team played better as the game progressed, clearly showing that lack of practice counted heavily against them. The team was captained by Earl Cantwell, who played quarter back. Ben Rohner starred as center, and V. L. Sessions at left end battered the high line for successive gains.
Boy Scout Game.
Backed by a big bunch of Menard rooters, the Menard Boy Scouts accomplished what they came to Brady to do, viz: to take the game from the local boy scouts or "bust" in the attempt. The visitors made their score in the early part of the last quarter, when, by a series of criss-cross plays they got the ball on the two-yard line, and then bucked it over the goal line, and also kicked goal. The criss-cross play was Menard's strong point, and they played it for good gains. On the other hand, the Brady Boy Scouts, although considerably lighter than their opponents, several of whom might be classed as "huskies," bucked the line to good advantage, although their gains were comparatively small.
Following the game, both teams and the Menard visitors were tendered a luncheon by the mothers of the boy scouts in the hall over the Hub Dry Goods Co. Three tables, attractively decorated, were arranged, the mothers, themselves, doing the serving. The visitors were highly appreciative of this courtesy, and expressed themselves in very complimentary terms concerning the hospitality shown them.
