DEATH CLAIMS GRAND OLD CITIZEN, W. R. PENCE

Four weeks ago hundreds of friends of W. R. Pence—young and old—gathered in happy celebration of his 80th birthday anniversary, partook of his lavish hospitality, and joined in congratulations and wishes for many, many returns for the glad occasion. Yesterday, hundreds of friends of this same beloved citizen, gathered in silence and in deep sorrow to pay a last tribute to his memory. There were tears at the thought of forever parting with this grand old man, but through the tears was borne the joy of knowing that his had been a life well spent; that the world had been better for his having been in it, and that he had gone to his eternal reward.

For the past decade it had been Mr. Pence's custom to gather about him his friends upon the occasion of the passing of another birthday anniversary, and on September 15th the occasion was marked by the largest gathering yet had, as well as being one of the most enjoyable. Mr. Pence entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion, and all his friends remarked upon his wonderful energy, and the fact that he was more active, looked and acted younger than in years. Despite the inroads of age, Mr. Pence's indomitable will kept him youthful, his mind bright and active, and enabled him to fully enjoy the fruits of a ripe old age. Only last Saturday he was in town greeting his friends in his usual jovial fashion and speculating upon the number of birthday anniversaries that might still be his pleasure to witness and to invite his friends to join in observing. Sunday he suffered a recurrence of an affection of the prostatic gland, similar to the attack had some two years ago, and which nearly cost his life at that time. His condition was at once recognized as serious, but on Tuesday his improved condition enabled his being brought to the local sanitarium for treatment. For a while he appeared to improve, but shortly before midnight he suffered a sinking spell, and falling into a peaceful sleep, he passed away at 3:00 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning at 10:00 o'clock at the Brady Methodist church, the Rev. W. L. Wall of Rochelle, assisted by the Rev. I. T. Morris, being in charge of the services. Rev. Wall spoke with great feeling of the life, the noble character and the high ideals of the deceased, and paid glowing tribute to his memory. Rev. Morris spoke briefly of his intimate acquaintance with Mr. Pence extending over a period of 31 years. The large church house was filled with mourning and sympathizing relatives and friends, and many and beautiful were the floral offerings that silently paid tribute to the esteem in which the departed was held. Following the impressive services, the concourse of friends was given opportunity for a last look at their departed friend, his countenance peaceful and serene in the sleep that knows no awakening in this world. Then the long funeral cortege slowly wended its way to the Brady cemetery, where the body was committed to the earth with a short service by Rev. Wall.

W. R. Pence was born in Pennsylvania in 1842. He served with the Union army during the War Between the States, and only last year it was his privilege to attend a reunion of his comrades in Pennsylvania, of whom, however, he found but a very few still present to greet him. For a time he located in California, and in 1881 came to Texas, locating at his late place of residence, 8 miles north of Brady in 1882. His service in upbuilding the community, in establishing church and school houses, and in wresting the country from a wilderness and from the outlaws then infesting it, made him one of the most prominent, respected and beloved men in the county. For many years he had been a faithful member of the Methodist church, and his life was that of a devout Christian.

Surviving are his widow and five sons: DeRoy, Burt, Winfield and Omer, of Brady, and Charlie of Lordsburg, N. M., and two daughters: Mrs. Crew of Rochelle and Mrs. Kid Jeffers of Brady. All the children were present at the funeral except Charlie, who could not reach here in time. To the family is extended the deep sympathy of all their host of friends.

COMPLETE LEASING AND SPUD IN NEXT FEW DAYS

O. L. Billingsley, contractor of the four new wells to be drilled in the vicinity of the Stapleton gas well tract, 14 miles north of town, yesterday reported work progressing nicely on the leasing, practically all of which was completed yesterday. As a result, Well No. 1 is to be spudded in within the next few days. Several prominent geologists have visited the gas well on the W. Z. Stapleton farm, and express it as their opinion that prospects for development of a shallow oil field there are second to none.

RAPID ORGANIZATION OF COMMUNITIES ASSURES SUCCESS OF EXHIBIT

EVERY COMMUNITY VISITED COMPLETES ORGANIZATION AND GETS EXHIBIT PLANS UNDER WAY WITH GROWING ENTHUSIASM—OTHERS WANT IN LINE.

The success of the coming great McCulloch County Co-Operative Exhibit could, perhaps, be foretold in no surer fashion than the unanimity and enthusiasm which has marked every real effort so far made towards community organization. There is not the slightest doubt but what the fair is going over big. The demand for the fair is emphasized by the manner in which the school communities get together once they understand the plan of operation and get their organization effected. There enthusiasm mounts, and the citizens roll up their sleeves and go in to win. Not only that, but other communities have reported themselves anxious to get in the harness and put on a real show, and have sent out an S. O. S. to the Brady Central committee to send them organizers so that they can get their Exhibit work under way. Just as rapidly as the local committees can arrange meeting dates, all these calls are being met, and the work of organizing communities is merrily going forward.

If anything was needed to spur the Brady Central committee on to greater efforts, Voca supplied that necessary live spark in the rousing meeting held there last Friday night. The Voca folks warmed right up to the proposition, and following inspiring talks by Geo. Ehlinger, Jas. T. Mann, Edd Broad and A. S. Johnston, superintendent of Montgomery school, the organization went over with a bang, and the citizenship promised to make all other communities get up on their toes to beat them in the exhibit. The Brady band was on hand and interspersed the speaking with musical numbers, and the good ladies of Voca made it a perfect night by serving steaming coffee and cake. Here is the organization at Voca—look it over; it looks like a winner:

J. E. Spiller, General Chairman. Exhibit—G. C. Perry. Booth Arrangement—M. M. Shafer. Program—Prof. A. S. Johnston. Finance—Dr. O. C. Jackson. Farm Products—E. B. Elliot. Poultry—Mrs. J. E. Spiller. Cattle—Geo. Darley. Textile, Culinary, Etc.—Miss Emma Ledy. Vegetables, Fruits, Etc.—Mart Williams.

Fairview Off Like a Bullet. The Fairview community has long had a hankering to take some prize money in a county exhibit, and has been ready to go ever since the big fair was first talked. So it was a comparatively easy matter to get the community organized Saturday night and set to work. The Brady committee composed of Messrs. Geo. E. Ehlinger and M. S. Sellers, and Miss Bess Winters, Home Demonstration agent, made brief talks, following which the Fairview folks selected their committees and set out in earnest on the trail of the capital prize. Here are the committees named:

Mrs. Kirby Huffman, Chairman in Chief. H. J. Huffman, Chairman Exhibit Committee. Sam Baird, Chairman Finance Committee. Kirby Huffman, Arrangement of Booth. Sub-Committees—Hogs—A. R. Carlson.

SPECIAL REQUEST—'TENTION PLEASE

Every school community in the county is urgently requested to advise at once just what part they will be able to take on the night entertainment programs. Readings, sketches, musical numbers, solos, comic sketches and dialogues are all wanted. Each community should offer three or four numbers, in the order of their preference, so that a selection can be made, and a well-balanced program arranged. Local program committees and the school teachers are urged to take this matter up at once.

THE BRADY PROGRAM COMMITTEE MUST HAVE THIS INFORMATION NOT LATER THAN NEXT TUESDAY MORNING, in order that the complete program may be made up and published in the week-end papers. By having several numbers from each community from which to select, a most interesting and entertaining program can be assured. It is also well to give the approximate time required for each number, so that the program will not become too lengthy.

Please act at once on this matter, and advise immediately. H. F. SCHWENKER, Chairman Program Committee, McCulloch County Exhibit.

duly organized and now the whole community is working like beavers to show that a frisky, frolicky, fun-loving community can put on a show, no matter whether it is culinary, live stock, farm products or chickens. Here is the way they organized out Fife way:

Jas. Finlay, General Chairman. Finance—Mrs. L. M. Farmer, Mrs. R. K. Finlay, Jr., E. K. Finlay. Farm Products—A. M. Long, J. M. Doyle, H. D. Bradley. Livestock—C. M. Coonrod, L. M. Farmer, Doc Wyres. Poultry—Mrs. E. L. Guyton, Tom Bradley. Fruits, Culinary, Etc.—Mrs. L. Bradley, Mrs. J. M. Doyle. Textiles, Fine Arts, Etc.—Mrs. E. B. Baldrige, Miss Ethel Mitchell. Arrangements—Mrs. R. L. Pearce, Miss Fay Alexander. Program—Mrs. E. B. Baldrige, Miss Knola King, Prof. J. M. Young. Lost Creek a Blue Ribboner. A good many of the Lost Creek folks attended the Voca meeting and got properly imbued with the Exhibit spirit there. But Lost Creek folks just naturally raise the stuff that makes for prize-winning, and so a team of horses could hardly keep them out of a big affair like the County Exhibit. The organization of the Lost Creek community was effected in fine shape Tuesday night and everything is going fine down that way. Watch Lost Creek on that prize-winning exhibit—she is sure to make some community hustle mighty hard to beat her. Here is the Lost Creek organization:

W. W. Henderson, General Chairman. Textiles, Etc.—Mrs. M. J. Green. Fruits, Culinary, Etc.—Mrs. D. H. Henderson. Livestock—Ernest Henderson. Program—D. H. Henderson. Booth Arrangement—Mrs. R. R. Evans, D. H. Henderson. Field Crops and Garden Stuff—Eddie Green, Alonzo Holloway. Finance—Bob Evans, J. W. Underwood, Walter Millsap, Jim Schooley. Kodak Committee—Miss Ellen Henderson, Elmer Holloway. You Can Count on Waldrip.

Waldrip won the capital prize two years ago in the Exhibit, and you can count on Waldrip getting in and going stronger than ever this year. The Standard has not learned the names of the leaders in the exhibit work out Waldrip way, but has it on good authority that the Waldrip folks are going good and will be coming in strong. It would be a record worth achieving to win first prize twice in succession, and that is just exactly what Waldrip is proposing to do.

Calf Creek Has the Spirit. Tom Alexander was in from Calf Creek community Wednesday and reported that all that was needed to start Calf Creek on her Exhibit way was a Brady delegation to visit them and show them how to get a running start. Arrangements has been made to supply a live-wire delegation to go to Calf Creek and talk exhibit to them in the next day or so, and then watch Calf Creek's smoke.

Melvin Organized. Melvin has been organized and put to work, and hopes to be first in everything there is to be first in. Melvin is going to bring her band and put on a number of "airs," musically speaking and otherwise. Melvin live-wires will touch off things in great shape at the Exhibit. Mercury Wants In. Mercury has promised to stage a big get-together meeting Saturday

MOTOR ROUTE TO BE ESTABLISHED OUT OF MERCURY

W. J. Day, accompanied by Gene Fikes, was here from Placid community Tuesday giving his usual optimistic report on his neighborhood. The best piece of news he had to offer, however, was that it was now assured that a motor route would be established out of Mercury, and which would serve Placid, Cowboy, Deep Creek and Milburn communities. Mr. Day further said that the new route would be placed in operation November 7th, according to information given out by A. C. Wright, postmaster at Mercury.

The route will operate from Mercury to Placid, thence to Cow Boy, down Deep Creek to Milburn; from Milburn up the Beakley lane to the Mercury-Winchell road, thence back to Mercury. The total distance traversed will be 29 miles. Postoffice officials have declared there is not a better mail route in the county.

Needless to say, all the citizens living along and served by the route, are elated over the prospects for improved mail service, and are anxious to see the route established.

night if it is opportune to send a delegation out to them, and a committee from Brady will answer their call. The Mercury community has a variety of land surrounding it, and can show to wonderful advantage everything ranging from field products to orchard and culinary products, not to mention fine stock and fowls. Mercury and all the other communities will be given a helping hand and started on their Exhibit way.

East Sweden is raring to go, and has the stuff that makes an Exhibit. Watch East Sweden come up strong. A delegation will visit Lohn tonight and start them on their way. It's going to be a great day—two of them—Tuesday and Wednesday, October 24 and 25th. Don't miss it. Watch next week's papers for programs and complete details.

Editor Brady Standard:
 Here I come again after so long a time. Everybody is most through picking cotton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Simpson are the proud parents of a fine baby girl who arrived Friday. They named the little Miss, Christine.

Bro. Chandler filled his regular appointment here Saturday night, Sunday morning and Sunday night.

The Montgomery school began on Monday, Oct. 2, with about 65 enrolled. The teachers are Prof. Johnston and wife, Mrs. Eula Harkey and Miss Lillie Westerman. Both teachers and pupils are starting out to make a success.

Miss Jewel Schooley of Gorman is visiting her grandmother and is attending school.

Miss Ethel Baze spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Burns.

Mr. Bill Pinson made a business trip to Mason Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Shannon have been visiting relatives and friends of this community for the past week.

Miss Veda Butler spent Sunday with Miss Louise Brown.

Miss Jewel Schooley and Miss Lois Lemons spent Sunday with Miss Carrie Lang.

Mr. Ben Mayo left last week for Temple, where he will have an operation. He was accompanied by his wife and will return home in about two weeks.

The pound supper at Mr. and Mrs. Martin Leddy's Wednesday night was enjoyed by all who attended. It was given in honor of Miss Lois Williams as she was going to leave Thursday for Broadmoor where she will teach school.

The Brady band entertained the Voca people with fine music Friday night, after which the Voca people served cake and coffee. As news is scarce, will ring off. "ABROE."

ROCHELLE RUMBLINGS.

Remiscenses of the Early Days—Methodist Church is Enlarged. Rochelle, Texas, Oct. 9.

Editor Brady Standard:

What has become of all the correspondents? I see only "Rosebud" and our wonderful "O. I. C. U. R. Right" from Oregon, in last week's issue and I certainly hope he keeps coming, as his old remiscenses of San Saba and McCulloch counties are very interesting to me, as I am sure we were at that time living in McCulloch county and knew some of the people he spoke of and also something about the privations and inconveniences here at that time; and when we had to go to town for supplies we had no trouble trying to crank a Ford on a cold morning, only had to throw a chain harness on old Beck and Jude and start out for a 15 or 20-mile drive to Brady, Richland Springs or Milburn, and would make it all okay, returning in the evening something between sunset and 10:00 o'clock at night; but even then we were as happy as a bug in a rug, especially so when some dear old-timey, cornfield preacher, like old Bro. Smith, or as he was more familiarly known (Cotton Wood Pond Smith) and old Bro. Land and Bro. McGaugh, father of one of the leading lawyers of Brownwood, Van McGaugh; yes, and another, one ahead of those, old Bro. Vest; also old Bro. Lambright. Now those old pioneer preachers blazed out the way for the Gospel to be preached to every creature in McCulloch county, and it sure is a wonderful work, begun by those, to be carried on to the end of time by other ministers, who will never know nor realize the hardships of that day and time. But now I am too fast and can't close this topic till I tell you about the first camp meeting held in the county by a little Baptist preacher who dropped in here, by the name of Evans. He was a good preacher and had no help and the choir was led by old Sister Cates, usually, and the rest of us would help the best we could. Not many families were here at that time and I believe I can recall all the names: Bob Selman, Theodore Evans, the man that kept the postoffice for years in a 2-room picket house, but some of the present generation will be sure to ask what kind of a house that was; but I'll leave them to guess; Bob Cates, Johnsons, Billie Ware, Billie Floyd and Fritz Savage were batching not far away, Willoughbys in this immediate district. Then in the Roundmountain community, there were Stark, Cottles, Criswells, Gamblins, Lyons and Waddells, all of whom attended this meeting held under a brush arbor built right near the Walker well, now owned by Robert Selman and about three miles from the present town of Rochelle, and with most of us, it was the first sermon we had heard since our arrival in the county, not even Sunday school for our children and compared with the present environments ours would seem very meager and slow; but not having so much rigging to put on, got off earlier and we could get there on time, even though we had to trot over in a two-horse wagon. All took dinner and supper—spread it all together and after night service we trotted home, fed and watered the hogs, milked the cows and were soon in slumber land, to dream of the pleasant association of neighbors and friends we seldom ever met, for our neighbors were few and far between; but in fear of taking up too much time and space, I'll close this subject and try to tell some present-day news.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Storms are rejoicing over the arrival in their home of a little Miss Betina Joice, who is not only the first child, but also the first grand-child on both sides, which would naturally make this a most wonderful young lady.

Mr. and Mrs. Abernathy are the proud possessors of a new son in their home, since the 1st; mother and son doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith made quite a lengthy visit to their son, Troy and family at Lordsburg, New Mexico a short time since. He spent about one week, while she did some better and spent 2 weeks and returned wonderfully improved in health and strength, bringing with her the oldest grand-daughter, Pauline, to get the advantage of our good school this term, and we feel like she made no mistake in this, for our school is second to none in the county.

The Methodist people have extended the west wing of their church several feet, which makes considerable more room and seating capacity for the constantly increasing congregation. Bro. Wall, the pastor, has done a great years work at this place, and is loved by the other congregations as well as his own and all wish for his return from conference for another even better year than the past.

Mr. Ed Neal of this place left a short time back to take up the duty as teacher in the Lometa school, and his many friends wish for him abundant success.

J. P. Waddell had the misfortune to have a good work mule bitten one night last week by either a rattler or pole cat, on the nose, which caused considerable swelling of the mouth and lower face; but at present the animal seems all right and out of danger.

Mr. C. A. Woodford who left some time back for his summer vacation, returned last week to take up his duty as depot agent again, leaving Mr. Pendergras in charge during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sanson and little daughter, Leona, Mrs. T. E. Price and twin sons, Dan and Don, also Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rodgers, from the Brook ranch spent Sunday afternoon in the Waddill home. On last day of September and in the evening, Mr. Bill Lord and Miss Stella Cole were quietly married, the ceremony being performed by Bro. Wall at the Methodist parsonage. Mr. George Sallee and Miss Lerah Phillips were married the same day, Sept. 30, at 8:00 p. m. at the M. E. parsonage, with only a few friends and relatives to witness the happy event. Bro. Wall spoke the words that made them husband and wife. The best wishes of this entire community go out to both those deserving young couples.

Our school organized a Glee club today and Mrs. Moseley, the music teacher, has 18 pupils in her class for the present; there will be more later on, when all the pupils are in. "AMOS KEETER."

With the passing of summer and the approach of indoor days and longer evenings, music again comes into its own. And as fancy leads one to hear in imagination, perhaps, the enlivening of glumly silent spaces with the sweet notes of a song or the gaiety of sprightly dance music, the longing for music grows. For life without music and home without music seem not the right life, not the right sort of home, at all.

All Make Good Cotton Crops—Lewis Cooper Called as Baptist Pastor.

Brady, Texas, Oct. 10.

Editor Brady Standard:

Well as it has been some time since I have written to The Standard, I will send in a little bit of news. Everybody has their cotton almost out. Mrs. C. W. Walker from Desdemona is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Bridge, for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and family were here from Hext to church Sunday.

HONEST INJUN.

We must be as courteous to a man as we are to a picture which we are willing to give the advantage of a good light.—Behavior.

AS OTHERS SEES US.

Everyone knows and has felt the extreme satisfaction that results from commendation and compliments that come from our neighbors—all the more appreciated when we know them to be sincere. Consequently, we give herewith a few expressions of a complimentary nature upon Brady and Brady citizens, which have emanated both from old-time citizens and from visitors in our midst. We give them to our readers for just what they may be worth:

First in the list is the old Brady citizen returned among us after a year's absence. Here is the manner in which he gave expression to his pleasure at being back here once more: "That certainly is a wonderful improvement they have made in the court house square—it is beautiful, and a credit to the town and country." "Do you notice any difference in the town?" he was asked. "I should say I do," he replied, "It is just an old town come out of the ruts."

Then there was the visitor here last week representing the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Here is what he said: "My, what wonderful things you folks have been doing since I was here eleven months ago. Your court house plaza, your tourist park ground, your start on a 'White Way,'—you didn't have a single one of these things then. And, along with compliments, I know Brady citizens will appreciate friendly criticism, for that is what it takes to continue the good work of improvement. Do you know there is scarcely a town of 1,000 or 1,500 population but what has made a start towards street paving? Don't forget this in your plans for city building."

And the third man to give expression to his impression of the Brady spirit of building and improvement was an ex-resident, who merely quoted what the citizens in his new home had said about Brady after a brief visit here. Here it is: "Brady is the liveliest town between Cross Plains and

As before stated we all like to hear nice things said about ourselves, and the complimentary things said about Brady are not only good advertising for the town and its citizens, but should, in a measure, repay us for our past efforts and encourage us to renewed and greater efforts.

NEIGHBORLY COMMENT.

That neighboring towns are keeping a watchful eye on Brady and her activities, and that the spirit of friendly admiration draws from them favorable comment is evidenced by a bold heading in a last week issue of the Brownwood Bulletin, and which reads: "Brady Merchants Will Assist in Boosting Chamber of Commerce. Profit-Sharing Coupons is Plan Adopted to Create Enthusiasm and Boost Town. The following from The Brady Standard shows that the county seat of McCulloch county is full of real live wires." Thereupon follows a reprint of The Standard's article announcing the Merchants' Co-Operative Profit-Sharing campaign inaugurated under the auspices of the Brady Chamber of Commerce.

There is nothing that better advertises a town or a people than the spirit of "up and at 'em." Let's all get the spirit, and each, in our own humble way, contribute to the things that make for a bigger, better, more prosperous and more attractive community.

MCCULLOCH COUNTY RATING BOARD WILL RESUME MEETINGS TUESDAY, NEXT WEEK

The McCulloch County Rating Board, which held no meetings in August or September, because of the hot weather, will resume its sessions next Tuesday, October 17th, at which time a large attendance of members from all over the county is expected, according to announcement made. The board will carefully check all names, and see to it that proper credit is given for whatever has been paid during the "Pay Up" drive of the preceding two weeks.

BRADY'S DUST PROBLEM SOLVED BY RE-INSTALLATION OF STREET SPRINKLER SERVICE

Brady's experience the past several weeks with the dust nuisance has been solved in the one practical way, viz: the re-establishment of street sprinkler service. The relief from the discomforts of dusty streets is at once apparent, and the experience had is sufficient for an ordinary lifetime, so it is more than likely that the street sprinkler has returned as a permanent institution. The re-establishment of the sprinkler was unanimously favored at last week's meeting of the Brady luncheon club, who not only vouchsafed its resumption, but who have also inaugurated a move to secure either a regulation army street sprinkler, or else a truck chassis from the U. S. government. It is believed that this can be accomplished with comparatively little expense.

Empire-Baltic CREAM SEPARATOR

If you haven't a good cream separator, that should be your first investment; you are losing money every day that you do without one. A good cream separator begins to earn money for you the day you get it, and continues to do so every day in the year. It will get as much butter fat from the milk of four cows as hand skimming will from six.

A good cream separator will not only make more money for you but is a great comfort as well and is clean and sanitary. Instead of having pails, pans and crocks of milk setting around exposed to dust, flies and germs, you have only the cream to care for, and the skim milk can be used or fed to calves and pigs while it is still sweet and warm.

When you buy a separator you will want the best, and you will find the EMPIRE-BALTIC the one that will give you the best all around satisfaction. It has every good feature that other separators have and, besides, some very valuable improvements that make it simpler, easier to turn, easier to clean, more lasting, and more efficient. Don't buy a cheap one. Come in and let me show you the Empire-Baltic, the machine that gets the cream of the business. Also all the cream out of the milk.

BRADY HIGH SCHOOL DEPARTMENT.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE.

Ruskin says, in "The Ethics of the Dust": Cooking means Circe, Colypso, Helen, Rebekah and of the Queen of Sheba. It is an art that calls for much knowledge and skill and is worthy of one's best efforts. It is not enough to follow directions in a recipe but one must infuse into cooking one's own thought and ingenuity. It means English thoroughness, French art, and Arabian hospitality.

The Domestic Science and Art course is one of the greatest courses in a high school. Many present-day scientists are finding a life work in food study. "Tell me what you eat, and I will tell you what you are," was spoken many years ago.

Life is real, life is earnest; And to eat is not its goal. But the food, we take while eating, Makes the mind, body and soul.

No longer does an individual chose his food and consume it furtively, as his fore-fathers did, but he dines in a family or larger group with a degree of leisure, comfort and refinement. Gradually we have built up conventional but not arbitrary rules, for serving and partaking of foods.

Our course is to be as practical as it can be. We have already learned that a cooking course calls for a knowledge of bookkeeping; a knowledge of buying, of values. It requires much thinking and planning as well as it lends responsibilities, which we are called to withstand in our life.

An educated girl has been defined as one who can sew, cook, mend, be gentle, dress neatly, keep a secret, to aid idleness, respect old age, be self reliant, be above gossiping, control her temper, to read good books, care for sick, be a lady under all circumstances and acts.

Our class, the I. P. T. A.'s, tho' small in number, not only get our regular lessons, but are given a chance on Friday to do real service for the other students. It's not a paying job; we are not out for that—we're out for boosting this course.

We plan out our menu, work out the schedule of work, figure out the proportions and make our own orders. We're responsible for all that, we do it and not only that, at the end of each week we check up our expenses and at the end of each month pay our bills.

Last Friday we served sandwiches, hot chocolate, ice tea and for specials served potato chips, macaroons and fruit salad. We served in all about sixty people. Our labor is not calculated and our prices are set and we will continue to have these Friday lunches if the students still see fit to come to our door at 12 o'clock at noon, Fridays.

We make nothing ourselves; we only charge prices which will pay our expenses. Last Friday was our biggest day and shall expect a much larger force this Friday.

We, of course, serve only part of your lunch. You may get sandwiches, drinks and specials. Students who have given their services on these days, receive our greatest appreciation.

On Friday, October 13, we serve sandwiches, date nut, pimento and cheese, chicken sandwich, drinks, hot chocolate, ice tea; specials, baked apples, potato salad, cheese straws.

The lessons each Friday are arranged in such a way that different groups will make each thing, and this is done over and over till it has become a part of us. The old saying, "I am a part of all I've met," fits. We met with many difficulties, criticisms, and get pretty tired before the period is over, but we're right on our job.

You strike a thorn or rose, keep a-go-in! If it hails or if it snows, keep a-go-in! 'Tain't no use to set an' whine, when the fish ain't on your line; bait your hook and keep on tryin'—keep a-go-in'.

We intend to keep a-go-in', but we need outside encouragement. Enrollment or enrollment in this course, in the years to come will make the course what it should be. Our class at present consists of only six. We feel big to be one in that class. Can't you see, or can you, what we get from a D. S. course? These things we've mentioned are only half told. We leave the rest for you to find out.

Just a word in regard to the Sewing class, the more popular of the two. The Sewing class consists of twenty-six girls. They are creating a home-like atmosphere in their room by making curtains for the windows. Anyone can work better in a tidy and clean room.

We are planning to serve the following before the school is out: Faculty members, School Board, Ministers of the town, Foot Ball Boys, D. A. Girls and the Basket Ball Girls.

We can live without poetry, music and art;

We may live without conscience, live without heart;

We may live without friends;

We may live without books.

But a civilized man cannot live without cooks.

Responsible for this: VIVIAN SMITH, President OMA WILLOUGHBY, Sec.-Treas. EBBA CARLSON, Editress. LILLIAN HOLLAND. INA MAE BRALEY. HATTIE WILENSKY.

SECOND FOOT BALL GAME SATURDAY LOCAL GROUNDS —SANTA ANNA VS. BRADY

Santa Anna High School team is scheduled to meet the Brady High school eleven on the local gridiron tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, and the locals are tuning themselves up for a winning fight at that time. Inasmuch as the Santa Anna bunch was defeated 50 to 0 by Coleman last week, the locals believe they can administer like punishment to the visitors. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

Brownwood Wins Handily. The Brownwood High school team last Saturday won handily from the locals, despite the game fight made by Brady. The visitors plainly showed the value of having a team of seasoned players, and in addition their spirit was running Ace-high, which, in itself, made them formidable opponents. Throughout the game they kept the play on Brady territory, and showed up to advantage both on line bucks and end runs. A safety was scored by the visitors two minutes after the play started, and was followed by touchdowns in each of the first three quarters. On the second touchdown, they failed to kick goal, which robbed them of one point, and made the final score stand 22 to 0.

The interest in athletics among the Brownwood students was evidenced by the crowd of about fifty Brownwood boys and girls who came for the game and who intermittently gave cheers, yells and songs for the Brownwood aggregation. To the credit of the Brady students be it said that they matched the visitors yell for yell, and song for song and cheer for cheer; in fact, they set a pace that kept the visitors out of breath to follow. The visitors, however, had the advantage in that their lead in score gave them opportunity to stage a parade and dance on the grounds between the halves, which show was repeated on the Brady square at the conclusion of the game and in celebration of their victory.

The locals are far from discouraged by the results of the two opening games, inasmuch as they now know their weak points and will strive in future games to stop up all these gaps. The fact that Arthur Awalt was out of the game in the first quarter because of a wrenched shoulder, and was permanently forced out soon after trying to go back in the third quarter, coupled with the retirement from the game of Rob Roy Wright with a sprained back, counted heavily against the local line-up.

The boys are deserving of praise for the splendid fight they made when all odds were against them, and the citizenship owes it to them to continue to give them every support and encouragement.

NO REASON FOR IT. When Brady Citizens Shows a Way. There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Brady citizen says: B. Strickland, says: "About the only indication of kidney complaint I endured was getting down with my back. This came on often and I suffered badly with it I found Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me of this trouble. I always keep them on hand and use them if needed."

AFTER FOUR YEARS Mr. Strickland said: "The recommendation I gave in 1915 holds good for I think Doan's Kidney Pills are just the thing for kidney trouble. ST. CLAIR'S STUDIO HAS MASTER ARTIST IN PHOTO REPRODUCING, ENLARGING

St. Clair's Studio this week announces the securing of the services of A. L. Pena, a master artist in photography, enlargings and reproductions. Mr. Pena is originally of Old Mexico, but has been located in San Antonio for some time past, where his work gained instant recognition for the wonderful artistic touch that characterized all his productions. It was while located in San Antonio that Mr. St. Clair first became acquainted with Mr. Pena and instantly recognized the distinctiveness of his work, and for the past several months he has been endeavoring to induce the artist to come to Brady. Upon Mr. St. Clair's return Wednesday from San Antonio, he induced Mr. Pena to accompany him here, with the result that Brady citizens now have an opportunity to secure photographs of rare merit and originality. Not only is Mr. Pena wonderful in bringing out the high-lights and the most artistic of posing in his photographs, but he is equally adept in any style of enlargements, work in pastel, oil, india ink or water colors. Samples of his work displayed by Mr. St. Clair bring instant recognition, and warrant Mr. Pena's reputation as a great artist.

His mountings with hand-made deckle edge and other distinctive touches, are in themselves unique. With the near approach of the holiday season, Mr. Pena's work is certain to be in great demand, and those desiring photographic work for Christmas or the holidays should make an appointment at the earliest possible moment with this master artist.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS-CHILD TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to taste. 50c per bottle.

Mrs. I. G. Abney and Mrs. Maggie Gray went to Dallas Sunday night where they spent several days buying more new goods for the Abney store, returning Wednesday morning. Although they were very busy with their extensive shopping almost every minute of their stay in Dallas, they found time to make a hurried visit to the State Fair, and enjoyed their brief visit to the fullest extent.

Tim Landrum says it's no use talking, he and his folks just simply can't get along without The Standard, so he orders it to follow him in his move from the East Sweden community to Pear Valley, where he is going to farm the coming year. It's surely nice to be appreciated—and to know that you are appreciated.

There's no getting around the fact that Voca is "some potato" when it comes to growing potatoes. Friend A. H. McLerran has presented The Standard editor with a sure-enough sweet potato as proof of the fact. The big tuber weighs 4½ pounds, and if it tastes as good as it looks, it ought to make a full meal for the Standard editor and editress and all the Standard fledglings—which is saying a lot for the potato that Mr. McLerran grew.

The City's new light posts arrived last week and were promptly placed atop the concrete turning posts. The posts are of steel, painted black, and offer a striking contrast to the white base. The light fixtures are somewhat slow of delivery, but it is hoped to have shipment made of them about the same time as that of the county light fixtures. The "White Way" on Brady's square is certain to be one of the most striking in West Texas, when both city and county lights are turned on.

Word comes from the Rev. S. C. Dunn of splendid success being met with in the revival which he is conducting at Stephenville. Rev. Dunn was called to Stephenville in an emergency a week ago last Wednesday, the revivalist originally opening the meeting having been taken ill. Rev. Dunn expects to close the meeting next Sunday. The Rev. I. T. Morris will occupy the pulpit at the local Methodist church next Sunday morning and evening, at the request of Rev. Dunn.

L. J. Abernathy was in from the Nine community yesterday and reported cotton about all out his way. He was feeling mighty good over the fact that he has nine acres of wheat up to a pretty stand. The wheat was planted immediately following rain had on two successive days about three weeks ago. He had broke the nine acres with a tractor plow to a depth of seven inches, and the first rain wet down about three inches, while the second rain gave a splendid season. Forty-eight hours after he sowed his wheat, it was up—the quickest he has ever seen wheat sprout. His only regret is that he did not have at least 50 acres broke and ready for planting.

A. L. Quicksall returned Wednesday from Denton, where he had been in attendance upon the annual State convention of the I. O. O. F. Encampment, as delegate from Brady Encampment No. 161. The big convention was held on Monday and Tuesday, and Lee says the Denton folks just simply put the big affair over in great style, offering them a program of entertainment that could not be duplicated. The big new auditorium at C. I. A. was turned over to the visitors for their session, and the C. I. A. students lent every assistance in the making of the meeting a big success. As a result, all the visitors came away with a very favorable impression of Denton, both the city and the citizens. Brownwood secured the State Encampment for the coming year.
