THE HEART OF TEXAS BRADY WANTS TEXAS "TECH"

BRADY CITIZENS TAKE BREAKFAST WITH COLEMAN

Some thirty-seven business men of Brady, headed by Secretary Wm. D. Cargill of the Brady Chamber of Commerce, and Chairman Sam W. Hughes of the Brady Luncheon club, and including twenty-three members of the Brady Municipal band, drove to Coleman Wednesday morning for 7 o'clock breakfast with the Coleman Breakfast club. Incidentally, the Brady band gave an impromptu concert on the Coleman streets.

The breakfast was presided over by Cecil Gray, vice-president and acting chairman of the Breakfast club. W. C. Woodward made the welcoming address with response by Mr. Hughes for Brady. The Rev. T. S. Armstrong, pastor of the Coleman Methodist church, and the Rev. Buren Sparks, pastor of the local Baptist church, responded to toasts.

All the addresses emphasized the friendly feeling existing between the towns of Coleman and Brady, and the importance and necessity of greater co-operative effort between the citizenships. Rev. Sparks stated that a town was judged largely by its evidences of civic pride and progress, such as good roads, hotels and churches—and that Brady was putting forth her best efforts along these lines. Mr. Gray, carrying the thought a point further, stated that when good highways connected the two towns, then Brady and Coleman would not be 55 miles apart, but rather about 90 minutes apart.

Following the splendid breakfast, which was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by the Bradyites after their long drive, the visitors were driven out over some of Coleman's splendid highways, now nearing completion or under construction, and deserved praise was given Coleman for her enterprise along these lines. Coleman's immense water supply proposition, and for which $160,000 bonds were voted a year or two ago, is another remarkable enterprise. A visit to the site of the big reservoir being built on Indian creek, a few miles out of Coleman, showed an immense dam being erected, the greatest height of which will be 60 ft., and which backs water for a distance of two and a half miles and will provide a lake covering 250 acres, with an average depth of 19 feet. The water will be piped over a small mountain and pumped into town. This immense project is expected to cost $200,000, and will solve Coleman's water problem for all time to come.

While Brady folks found much to admire about Coleman and her citizens, the Coleman folks were equally frank to express their admiration of Brady's wonderful band, the enterprise that put over the construction of a $100,000 hotel, the manner in which the Brady Chamber of Commerce was financed and placed upon a firm footing, thereby enabling it to carry out a wonderful program of development and improvement.

The Brady delegation returned very much elated over the cordial reception and the hospitality accorded them, and brought assurance of a return visit by the Coleman citizens at an early date.

SETTLEMENT MADE ON PART OF EAST SIDE FIRE LOSS BY INSURANCE COMPANIES

Vernon Davis, representing the Southwestern Adjustment company, was in Brady this week making adjustments on part of the fire loss on the East Side, and which was covered by insurance carried in companies represented by him. In the settlement, Dr. B. L. Craddock, who carried $500 insurance on each of two wooden structures, received payment in full. E. B. Newman received $800 damage on his fountain, on which he carried $2,000 insurance, and full value on his stock of goods. Mr. Newman had previously made settlement with another adjustment company on his loss of furniture and fixtures.

It is learned that Dr. Craddock plans to replace his buildings with two modern store buildings at the earliest possible moment. Dr. Craddock, who is now located in Fort Worth, has sent plans and specifications and has requested local building contractors to submit bids on two buildings, with brick and plate glass fronts, concrete floors, and of modern design throughout. Early announcement of the letting of the contract is anticipated.

M. E. Carnival a Success.

The ladies of the Methodist church held a most successful and enjoyable carnival on the court yard square Thursday evening of last week. The attendance was large, the square being lined with autos, and the various novelty tents receiving a most gratifying patronage. Dr. Jack Ragsdale, playing the clarinet, and accompanied by four young ladies on ukeleles, acted as bally-hoos for the various tent attractions. Ice cream and cake were sold. The financial returns proved most gratifying.

Preceding the carnival, the band boys gave a most enjoyable concert.

PRESIDENT HARDING

PRES. HARDING IS DEAD—END COMES VERY SUDDENLY

San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 2.—President Harding died at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Harding and the two nurses, Miss Ruth Powderly and Miss Sue Dausser, were in the room at the time. Mrs. Harding was reading to the President when utterly without warning a slight shudder passed through his frame, he collapsed, and all recognized that the end had come. A stroke of apoplexy was the cause of his death.

President Harding's death was announced in these words:

"The President died instantaneously and without warning and while conversing with members of the family at 7:30 p. m. Death was apparently due to some brain involvement, probably an apoplexy."

"During the day he had been free from discomfort and there was every justification for anticipating a prompt recovery."

BRADY BALL TEAM STILL GOING GOOD—WIN GAMES AND LOSE BY ONE SCORE

The Brady ball team continues to play a class of ball that makes it a winning attraction wherever it goes. In Tuesday's game at Breckenridge, the locals won by a score of 7 to 6. Roy Bensley of Mercury was in the box for the locals, and won the game in spite of being hit quite freely. Shell is credited with a home run and a triple in this game, and the entire team appeared to have their batting eye in good working order.

Brady is playing Winters a series of three games at the Richland Springs fair, the contest proving one of a big features of the occasion. In Wednesday's game, the locals won by a score of 6 to 5, and yesterday they lost a hard-contested game 5 to 4. Needless to say, there will be some game on tap for this afternoon, and Brady is most certain to win.

"THE MEDINA LAKE," ONE OF TEXAS BEAUTY SPOTS, DESCRIBED IN MAGAZINE

One of the beauty spots along the Medina river in Southwest Texas is Medina Lake, known throughout the state as a fisherman's retreat and a great irrigation project. Mr. W. L. Dubose, owner of the The Devine News, Devine, Texas, has written the story of Medina Lake and it appears in The Brady Standard's Magazine section today.

When you read Mr. Dubose's story you will want to drop all work at once, grab your rod and reel and start for this lake. Nature is still primitive, to a great extent, along the Medina Valley, and invites recreation in cool, hidden recesses and verdant splendor.

J. M. Jennings, City Sexton, is also agent for tombstones, solicits your patronage, and will make you right prices.

DR. GRANVILLE HEADS C. OF C.-S. W. HUGHES, V. P.

Quite a large attendance of business men and citizens, together with a number of citizens from over the county, marked the annual meeting of the Brady Chamber of Commerce at the Tourist park last night, and at which election of officers was scheduled. Dr. J. B. Granville was unanimously chosen president of the Chamber of Commerce, S. W. Hughes was the unanimous choice for vice-president, H. R. Hodges was re-elected treasurer. In selecting officers for the Brady Luncheon club, J. B. Smith was chosen chairman and Bailey Jones, song leader.

The Chamber of Commerce meeting followed one of the peppiest gatherings of the Brady Luncheon club held this year. A splendid luncheon was prepared, "Nuf Sed" Kirk, with the advice and able assistance of H. N. Cook, preparing the fried chicken in such appetizing manner as to warrant a life-time position as Luncheon club chef.

Among the addresses at the meeting were those of Chas. C. Allen, representing M. H. Merrill & Co., industrial engineers of Boston, Mass., and who presented the technical side of the cotton mill proposition; and Chas. Clark, representing the Texas State Water Board. Mr. Clark, in company with B. Simpson and Wiley Walker, had just completed a preliminary observation trip over the Lohn and Pear Valley sections, and along the Colorado river above and below Stacy and where they found some sites admirably suited for damming. Mr. Clark was quite carried away with the possibilities for irrigating this section of the county, and his report is expected to be instrumental in the securing of a complete survey of the local irrigation and reclamation project.

Boy's Essay On Editors.

"I don't know how newspapers came to be in the world, and I don't think God does, for he ain't got nothing to say about them in the Bible. I think the editor is the missing link we read of, and stayed in the bushes after the flood and then came out and wrote the thing up, and has been here ever since. If the editor makes mistakes folks say he ought to be hung; but if a doctor makes a mistake, he buries them and people dasent say nothing because doctors can read and write Latin. When an editor makes mistakes there is lawsuits and swearing and a big fuss, but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers, and perfect silence. A doctor can use a word a yard long without anyone else knowing what it means, but if the editor uses one he has to spell it. If a doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit, but if the editor should go he gets a charge of buckshot. Any college can make a doctor to order, but an editor has to be born."—Ex.

A TALK WITH A BRADY MAN.
Mr. Bodenhamer of Brady Tells of His Experience.

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with a Brady man:
"Some years ago my back began to ache and often I got right down with it," says Mr. Bodenhamer. "My feet and ankles became swollen and my kidneys did not act as they should. These troubles came on in spells and every time I used Doan's Kidney Pills they relieved me. I always have Doan's Kidney Pills in the house."
FOUR YEARS LATER, Mr. Bodenhamer said: "I still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly as when I first endorsed them."

FIFE FINDINGS

Masonic Officers Installed—Cotton Promises Bountiful Yield.
Fife, Texas, July 31, 1923.
Editor Brady Standard:
Work on the new school building is progressing nicely.
Most of us are busy heading maize this week. The yield is generally fine except in the hail district.
Cotton is looking fine and where it was not killed outright by the hail promises a bountiful yield. Work on the new gin is being rushed in order to be ready when the cotton is.
Mr. Archie Doyle and family of Luling visited with his brother, J. M. Doyle here last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bradley are the proud possessors of a new baby, born July 23. Yes, it's a boy, and weighs 8 1-2 pounds.
Mr. J. J. Patton and family of Higgins visited with Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Martin here the past week.
J. H. Lively of Mullin visited his son, B. J. here this week.
Mrs. L. M. Farmer is suffering from a slight attack of appendicitis this week. We hope to be able to report her improving by next week.
Lit Jolly and Virgil Carroll of Lohn were visitors here Monday.
Bro. Rambo of Brownwood filled his regular appointment here Saturday night and Sunday. He will commence a 10 day protracted meeting here next Friday night.
Joe Baldrige came in last week from Trinidad, Colo., where he has been employed for some time.
The following officers were duly installed in the Masonic Lodge here Saturday night: E. W. Wall, W. M. L. C. Barton, S. W.; E. W. Bray, J. W.; L. M. Farmer, Secy.; W. F. The Selfish Rooster.

In a country district not a hundred miles from Richmond, Virginia, there is a man who several years ago gave his youngest son a sled for Christmas.
Much to the youngster's disappointment no snow fell that Winter and the sled was reluctantly put away. The next year was equally discouraging, but the third saw colder weather and one January day a few flakes began falling. Hearing a commotion in the yard, the father went to investigate and found the youth chasing a rooster.
"What's all this for?" he demanded sternly.
"It's snowing," explained the boy, "and can't you see that darned old rooster is eating it up as fast as it comes down?"—American Legion Weekly.

Bill—It was 3 o'clock, and gee whiz, my wife was certainly sore at me. She wouldn't talk to me and hasn't spoken to me since.
Voice from other end of room—How would you like to trade her for one who would talk to you when you get in at 3 o'clock in the morning?"

Revenge.

A woman entered a theatre recently and happened to take a seat in front of a newly married couple. She was scarcely seated before they began to make remarks about her last year's hat with more or less giggling on the bride's part, and there is no telling what might come next if the woman had not put a stop to it by a bit of clever strategy.
She turned her head and noticed that the bride was considerably older than the bridegroom, and in smooth tones said, "Madam, will

BRADY, TEXAS, Aug. 3, 1923.

HONEST INJUN.

"It's human nature to buy the known thing and let the unknown go by."

THE PARSON'S COMPLIMENT.

Parson John Power, whose heart is attuned with the spirit of the "Heart of Texas," but whose trenchant (mark the word) pen is wielded with shillalah effect in behalf of Brownwood, compliments The Standard editor very generously on the "Tech" special recently issued, which he terms "a valiant attempt in a hopeless cause." Now "The Parson" recently celebrated another birthday, and while we would not presume to say that he is in his er—ah—dotage, yet we would confide to our readers that he dotes on Brownwood to an alarming extent. This is plainly to be seen in his statement that "while he will not retract one word that he said in praise of Brady water, (he) will now maintain that Brownwood water is just as good." Now, what do you think of that, all of you manufacturers of breakfast foods, cough syrups and colic remedies, who have so consistently advertised the slogan, "Demand the genuine. Accept no substitutes." And now comes "The Parson" with something "just as good."

The "The Parson" raises a hint of suspicion as to the contents of the thermos jugs which were presented members of the Locating Board. No doubt but what he would like to sniff at the corks of the thermos jugs, and, perhaps, to sample their contents just in order to qualify as a witness in the case. But Brady has suspicions of her own, and should the matter come up before a court of competent jurisdiction, we have confidence that even the members of the "Tech" Locating Board would affirm that there is

THE STANDARD'S "TECH" COLLEGE SPECIAL

"O wad the giftie some power gie us To see oursel's as ithers see us." To The Standard editor has fallen the good fortune to have Bobby Burns wish come true, at least insofar as The Standard's recent Texas "Tech" souvenir edition is concerned. Herewith are reprinted a few newspaper comments on the edition, and also a few letters, proving that Brady is enjoying the limelight of favorable publicity and is commanding the notice and attention of the outside world.

THIS FROM EDITOR GASTON

The Brady Standard on Tuesday issued a splendid special edition, with lots of engravings and printed on book paper, in honor of the Tech locating committee. Brady may not secure the institution, but if so it will not be the fault of the Standard and its enterprising editor.—Granbury News.

"TECH" SOUVENIR

The Brady Standard made its issue of Tuesday of last week a pictorial special edition of 12 pages. It was devoted to Brady's interest in the location of the Texas Technological School. It was a work of art and printed on a substantial grade of book paper. We understand that a copy was given to each member of the locating board as a souvenir of their visit to "the heart of Texas."—Eden Echo.

A VERY CREDITABLE EDITION

The Bulletin congratulates The Brady Standard, its editor and the business concerns of Brady on the most excellent edition which the Standard issued on the occasion of the visit of the Tech locating committee to that town Tuesday. It was a twelve page paper profusely illustrated, printed on book paper, and carrying a hearty invitation from the business and professional men to locate the college in the McCulloch county capital. The paper was a distinct credit to Brady.—Brownwood Bulletin.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM OUR CONTEMPORARY

"The Sentinel takes off her hat to her contemporary, The Brady Standard, for the splendid special edition gotten out Tuesday in honor of the visit of the 'Tech' Locating Board to Brady. This edition of 12 pages, gotten out on nice enameled book paper, profusely illustrated with good pictures of Brady's leading public buildings, beautiful homes, fine cattle, farm scenes and interesting reading matter regarding Brady, cannot help but have a good and lasting impression on the Board and will be a great help in landing the school here. "The edition was splendidly gotten up, well printed and not only reflects credit upon Editor Schwenker and his capable force, but is a credit to the town."

OTHERS NOTICE BRADY'S PROGRESS

As the West Texas Tech locating committee was entering McCulloch county, Editor Schwenker of the Brady Standard greeted them with a big special souvenir edition. The paper shows a lot of good sound enterprise on the part of the energetic editor, as well as the loyalty of the Brady merchants. Brady, by the way, is up and coming. During the past year the court house square has been practically rebuilt, a new $100,000 hotel put under construction, a complete new high school plant built and ready for occupancy and lots of other substantial improvements. Schwenker and the Standard are strong believers in the McCulloch county capital and have each contributed in many ways for its continued growth.—Stephenville Tribune

OUT OF "ALSO RAN" CLASS

BRADY IS ONE of the thirty-seven Texas towns now bidding for location of Texas great Technological School, and, whether she gets it or not, it will never be proper to refer to Brady as one of the towns that "also ran." Brady, her newspapers, her citizens, are entirely out of the also-ran class. Even though the town should lose this one more chance to add to its greatness, there is no power on earth can take away from her that one glorious heritage which but few towns can lay claim to—that is her enterprise and unanimity of spirit. Especially, the latter. They are with one accord in one place and armed with a faith that knows no denial. Nothing is impossible to a people who stand shoulder to shoulder like those of Brady. Some how or other, we like to think of the "heart of Texas" being the home of Texas "Tech."—Milford News.

A CROWNING ACHIEVEMENT

If the city of Brady, situated "in the heart of Texas" does not secure the new Technological College it will not be the fault of Editor Schwenker of The Brady Standard. Schwenker is one of the most consistent hometown boosters in Texas today, and his 12-page special edition last week, devoted exclusively to the task of giving to the "Tech" locating board just the information they most desired, was his crowning achievement as a town booster. No handsomer newspaper has ever come out of West Texas (beg pardon, Central Texas) and no more logical reasoning could be compiled than was presented through the mass of data so interestingly placed before the Board by The Standard. Congratulations are due Schwenker for his intelligently directed effort on this occasion.—Rockdale Reporter.

A COMMENDABLE EDITION

The Brady Standard Tuesday of last week issued a 12-page souvenir edition welcoming the members of the Texas Technological Locating Board to Brady and McCulloch County. The issue was printed on fine book paper and besides a large panel cut of the members of the locating board was profusely illustrated with pictures of Brady and McCulloch County. The edition also carried a nice line of local advertisements welcoming the distinguished visitors. Each ad carried at the top a panel stating, "The Heart of Texas (Brady) Wants Texas 'Tech'", and at the bottom was another panel with the inscription, "Where the North, South (Brady) East and West Begins." In the top panel the word "Brady" was encircled by a heart and in the bottom panel occupied the center of an outline map of the State of Texas with a small heart underneath. It was indeed a commendable edition and if Brady does not land Texas "Tech" it will not be the fault of Editor Schwenker of The Standard and the loyal citizenship of that progressive little city.—Kerrville Mountain Sun.

AND THIS FROM "THE PARSON"

The Parson joins in complimenting Harry Schwenker on the special edition of The Standard gotten out for the benefit of the location board of the new college. It was a valiant attempt in a hopeless cause. And the Parson also compliments Doc Sellers on the fine spirit of appreciation shown for his competitor in his notice of that same special edition. "Behold how good and pleasant a thing it is, brethren, to dwell in unity."

But the Brady people need not have been so diligent in dining into the ears of the Parson the praises of the Brady water. The Parson some years ago made a remark in this column that "there was good water to drink—at Brady." But things have been altered since then. And the Parson, while he will not retract one word that he said in praise of Brady water, will now maintain that Brownwood water is just as good.

But that presentation of a thermos bottle of Brady water to each of the members of the board as they left the town has a very suspicious appearance to the Parson. If the college should by any strange chance go to Brady, the Parson thinks that there is ground for an investigation. Every one who would affirm that it was that presentation should be put on the stand and compelled to swear that it really was water—unadulterated. While he found twenty to tell him that it was given to the gentlemen to support them till they could get out of Brownwood, he could find only one who would affirm that it was water—and water only. That one was Grover Kirk. "Nuf sed."

—"The Parson," in Brownwood Bulletin.

"I was delighted to note on the front page that the Locating Board for Texas 'Tech' school had been to see Brady and that Brady had shown itself in splendid form. It made me homesick to read of the good things of Brady and the county. I certainly hope the Board will locate the school at Brady, for to my mind there's no better place for it.

AND THIS FROM AN ADVERTISER

"Mr. Schwenker,
"c/o Brady Standard,
"Brady, Texas.

"Dear Sir:
"Want to congratulate you on your 'Tech' number. It certainly shows a great enterprise on your part and also on the part of the business houses in your city that have co-operated with you as nicely as they have done.

"It is something out of usual to receive a weekly paper printed on book and especially with a mechanical make-up in such good shape as this issue of yours.

"If the members of the Technological College Locating Board did not decide on Brady, the fault was not yours.

"The writer was for 20 years a resident of Texas, at Dallas, and still feels that he is a Texan and admires anything that possesses the Texas spirit.

"We are mighty glad to have you co-operate with us in running the ad, as we are satisfied that it is bound to bring us good results.

"Yours very truly,

SIXTEEN STORIES

That Touch the Heart and Tickle

the Ribs

By William Allen White

Will be Published Weekly in The Brady Standard, Beginning Next Week. Each Story is Complete in Three Columns. They're Snappy

WHEN William Allen White has something to say the whole of America and a considerable portion of the remainder of the world sit up and listen. His name alone sells newspapers. You may not agree with all his views concerning politics, morals and economics, but you are bound to agree that he is a wonderful writer; and when he turns from reporting and editorials to stories, those inimitable tales of his, it makes no difference who you are or what your tastes, he will charm you.

Bill Allen White put the small town on the map and keeps one young city, Emporia, Kansas—not so very long ago it was a small town—in the headlines. His stories are of real people—home folks—and every man or woman who lives in a small town—as most Americans do—or has lived in one, will recognize himself or his neighbors in the characters who live and breathe in the witchery of Mr. White's pen.

It was this writer who discovered Main Street. Sinclair Lewis saw one side of the thoroughfare and a few of the backyards, and his observations made a book that has sold by the thousands. But William Allen White sees both sides of Main Street, and knows all the roads and lanes leading off it, and he writes about them in these stories. He is the one American author who can write the most delightful human-interest stories, and then turn right around and exercise the vision of a statesman in powerful articles on political, governmental and economic subjects. He reported the Peace Conference, which resulted in the Treaty of Versailles, for more than fifty American newspapers; his daily reports on the Armament Limitations Conference at Washington were read by millions; his articles from national political conventions have caused him to be styled "the greatest reporter in the world."

But although he has this reportorial and editorial ability, and is known the world over as one of the keenest observers of political events, it was stories of small-town life, such as this series, that made his name a household word in America and have made his books sell by the hundreds of thousands. Titles of a few of these books which are in constant demand at every public library in the country are: "Stratagems and Spoils," "In Our Town," "A Certain Rich Man," "The Old Order Changeth," "God's Puppets," "In the Heart of a Fool," "The Martial Adventures of Henry and Me" and "The Court of Boyville."

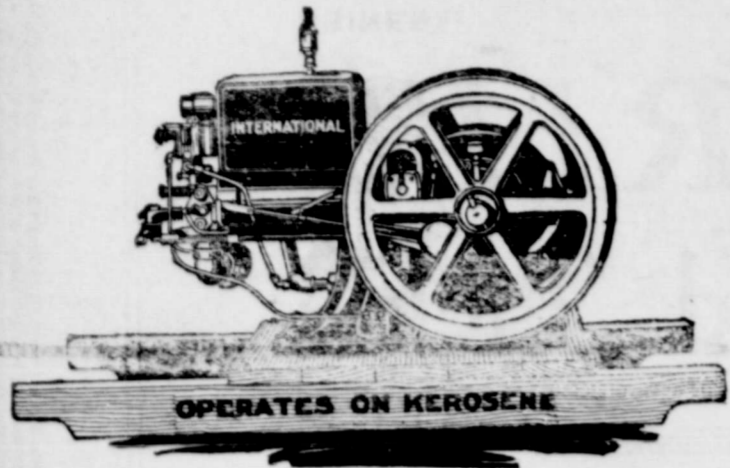

The greatest magazines in the United States vie with each other to obtain articles and stories from his pen, and when they get them, advertise them to the limit. Stories by him are to be seen regularly in Saturday Evening Post, Collier's and other national publications. Everyone is familiar with his recent action in withdrawing his contributions from a prominent periodical because he disagreed with its policy on a certain public issue; also his controversy with his life-long friend, the governor of Kansas, is a part of current history.

White's characters seem to have an actual existence—maybe they are taken from life. His boys and girls are the kind that are good for a reminiscent laugh a minute. His stories of a small-town newspaper office are veritable gems. And remember—newspaper readers want small-town stuff. And consider for a moment how the public, at this time, is demanding the small-town motif in its literature and plays. The big successes of recent years, such as "Main Street," "The Brimming Cup," "Seventeen," "Penrod" and, on the stage, "Lightnin'" (three years on Broadway), "The First Year" (two years on Broadway), and a dramatization of "Seventeen," all had this as their principal element. And furthermore, neither Booth Tarkington, Sinclair Lewis nor any one of the other authors who are meeting this public demand is equal to William Allen White in the production of small-town stuff. Not one of them has his understanding, sympathy and insight into small-town life in America.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee King and daughters, Mildred and Marie, accompanied by his sister, Miss K'Nola King, returned Tuesday from a trip out to the Pacific coast and up into Canada, taking two months on the journey. Besides seeing a good part of California and Washington state, they visited several of the great national parks, including Yellowstone, Glacier and Yosemite, the entire trip proving most enjoyable.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Brown are enjoying a visit from their son the Rev. C. L. Jr. The young man is a student of the University of Texas, where he expects to receive a degree, and has been spending his summer vacation working in the interest of the new Methodist college at Abilene. Sunday night he occupied the pulpit at the local Methodist church, and by his eloquent and interesting appeal, gave proof of his qualifications as a minister of the gospel.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Armstrong and daughters, Misses Frances and Lucy, accompanied by Mrs. Armstrong's brothers, Vernon, Harry and Oren Bauer, returned Monday from a several days visit to San Antonio and Austin, making the trip in their cars and enjoyed camping and fishing enroute. At San Antonio they visited Mr. Armstrong's cousin, Mrs. Geo. Bingham and family, and at Austin they went sight-seeing over the State capitol. They report a most enjoyable trip.

Gas Shropshire is back in Brady and announces that he will buy cotton here the coming season. Associated with him will be A. P. Boyett, formerly of Brownwood. The firm will do business as Boyett & Shropshire, and will have offices over the Broad Mercantile Co. store. Mr. Boyett, who is an experienced cotton classifier and buyer, will look after the street work, while Mr. Shropshire will take care of the office and detail work. Both are enterprising and energetic young men, and are certain to meet with success in their endeavors.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Benham expect to leave tonight for Dallas, St. Louis, Chicago and New York on their annual marketing trip, and on which they will inspect all the markets and personally select their extensive lines of Fall and Winter goods for which their exclusive ladies' store is always famous. Mr. and Mrs. Benham are anticipating a most enjoyable stay at market, having assurance of a boat ride on the Mississippi river, the steamer having a seating capacity of 2,500. This ride is to be given next Tuesday with the compliments of Ely-Walker Dry Goods Co. to their buyers. A trip to Niagara Falls, and an inspection of this greatest of natural wonders from both the U. S. and Canadian sides, together with a trip on the "Maid of the Mist," which skirts the whirlpool rapids just below the Falls, is another anticipated pleasure—and certainly one that will prove a cooling and invigorating experience.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Harry Wulff returned Wednesday from Torreon, Mexico, where he had been the past three months spending a vacation, and incidentally combining a business mission with a visit to his father and friends at Torreon. Mr. Wulff talks interestingly of his stay in Mexico and of conditions there. He says Torreon is now experiencing its third year of drouth, which naturally has a very depressing effect upon all business, but that one crop will suffice to make it come back. While Old Mexico has many attractions, and offers great opportunities, nevertheless Mr. Wulff is highly pleased to be back in the U. S. A.—and Texas.

As an example of patience, industry and wonderful instinct which nature has instilled into all living creatures, we want to commend the bird nest on exhibition at The Standard office. The nest, apparently that of a wren or a wild canary, was blown out of a tree, when the branch to which it was attached was broken off during the recent storm. It is a deep, cozy and secure pocket, woven of horse hair and ordinary strings intertwined securely, and shaped so as to form a deep pocket somewhat larger than the opening, thus affording additional security to the fledglings within. Any student of nature would find much to marvel at in the wonderful fashion in which this mass of strings and hair was matted together.

Every now and then The Standard editor is privileged to see some interesting old relic or family keepsake, but nothing more so than the ancient Bible now in possession of Mrs. Aug. F. Behrens, and which was diligently read and studied by her grandmother, and in turn taught by the latter to her grandchildren. The Bible, which is printed in the German language, shows to have been issued in May, 1794. It contains several books of the Prophets which are not included in the revised versions, and also contains a complete list of church holidays and other interesting biblical information. The volume is 4 1/2 inches wide by 7 1/4 inches long, allowing but for two columns, and as a result the book is quite bulky, being 3 1/2 inches in thickness. The leaves are well-thumbed, and the pages are marked, showing the diligent study the scriptures have received.

Unfair Discrimination.

Ladies' Home Journal: "Oh, no!" soliloquized Johnny bitterly; "there ain't no favorites in this family. Oh, no! If I bite my finger nails I get a rap over the knuckles, but if the baby eats his whole foot they think it's cute."

DO YOU WONDER?

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.

Oswatimie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast, formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while; and then some year or so ago I had a bad sick spell. . . .

"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything; had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up. I lay for three months, not able to do anything.

"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day there came to me a Ladies' Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui. . . .

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months.

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman.

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I assure there is no better tonic made in America than Cardui."
