

"TECH" BOARD IN CLOSED SESSION IN FORT WORTH

Representatives of the various towns visited during the tour of the Texas Technological Locating Board through West Texas are requested to refrain from seeking personal interviews with the members of the board when the executive meeting of the board is held at the Texas Hotel here Wednesday.

After a brief conference Secretary W. E. Nabours announced that the board wished to hold their deliberations without interference by representatives seeking personal interviews on behalf of the various towns considered as sites for the projected Texas Tech College.

The official statement given out Monday morning says:

"Members of the board will meet in executive session at the Texas Hotel in Fort Worth Wednesday morning for a conference and deliberations among themselves. No personal interviews from representatives of applicant towns are desired."

Members of the board will arrive here Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. over the Fort Worth and Denver railroad. They will be met by representatives of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce. Entertainment for them while in the city is being arranged.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

RICHLAND SPRINGS FAIR IS PRONOUNCED SUCCESS BRADY VISITORS REPORT

Brady visitors at the Richland Springs Fair report the event a most successful one and are generous in their praise of the excellent fashion in which the Richland Springs folks put the event over. The fair opening with a parade in which over half a hundred old-time cowboys, none under sixty years of age, rode. It is estimated that 8,000 people were on the grounds the first day, and the attendance kept up throughout the three days. All exhibits excelled former displays and the poultry show was declared the largest ever had in San Saba county. The San Saba peacan exhibit, already famous, attracted special attention.

Music for the fair was furnished by the Gatesville State band, and baseball games between Brady and Winters furnished the afternoon attractions the first two days. On account of the number of counter-attractions, the game scheduled for the third day was cancelled.

The fair association has a beautiful shady 75-acre tract, of pecan and elm timber, as their fair grounds, and a large building, originally used as a Farmers Union warehouse, makes an admirable exhibit hall. Although it was organized only last year, the fair paid all expenses the first year, and with the splendid success attained in this year's venture should have made a profit, which will be used in enlarging and extending its accommodations and activities.

W. M. BRYSON BACK FROM PLAINVIEW--WHEAT CROP IS BAD, COTTON LOOKS GOOD

W. M. Bryson returned last Friday from Plainview, where he had been spending the past month looking after his farm interests there. He reports the wheat yield as having been very poor, ranging from one to twenty bushels to the acre, and with an average of about four bushels to the acre over Hale county. He reported cotton looking fine, and making a remarkable growth, although in some spots it was bad. From beyond Big Springs to Tahoka on the return trip, he found crops fine, almost without exception.

Mr. Bryson reported a rather exceptional observation. Returning, he kept track of the number of wagons, buggies, or other horse, or mule or burro propelled vehicles he met, and he states that in the entire 342-mile trip, he met with but 14, and of this number, 8 were driven by Mexicans.

DONT FORGET BIG BAND MINSTREL THURSDAY NIGHT

The big band minstrel is scheduled for Thursday night at 8:15 o'clock, and the scene will be laid in the Dutton City Park. Don't forget the big show—it's going to be a real one, with lots of music, fun and entertainment. Advance sale of seats has already assured the complete success of the show, and if you haven't purchased tickets yet, don't lose any time in looking up one of the band boys and securing same. Tickets are selling at $1.00, and the show is big time stuff such as any metropolitan showgoer pays from $2.00 to $5.00 to get a look-in on.

The band boys have been rehearsing every night for the past week or ten days, and have the showdown in fine shape. Not only will there be a lot of novelty numbers, but all the latest and greatest hits of the day will be on the program. Then you will want to hear that famous song, "Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Sheen," as sung by Harold Deaton; see and hear the "Ukelele Quartette," and all the fun-makers.

And, last but not least, don't forget Brady and McCulloch county citizens owe something to the band boys, who have ever been ready with their music whenever called upon. Everybody feels that way about it—and that's why the big show is going over so BIG.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FRIDAY AT M E TABERNACLE

Acting upon the proclamation of president Calvin Coolidge, setting aside next Friday as a day of mourning upon the occasion of the burial of President Warren Harding, Mayor E. L. Jones has asked all Brady business men and citizens to meet at the Methodist church at 3:00 p. m. for an hour of memorial service for the nation's departed chief executive.

The following is the program of the Memorial service, with Mayor E. L. Jones presiding:

- President's Proclamation read by Mayor.
- Song, "Nearer My God to Thee."
- Invocation, Rev. S. H. Jones.
- Song, "Lead Kindly Light."
- "Harding as Chief Executive," Evans J. Adkins.
- "Harding the Christian," Rev. C. L. Browning.
- Song, "America."
- Benediction, Rev. Buren Sparks.

HARRY J. LEWIS SHOWS ARE EXHIBITING HERE THIS WEEK UNDER AUSPICES BAND BOYS

That there is something new under the sun is evidenced by the Harry J. Lewis shows, which are exhibiting here this week under auspices of the Brady band. The unusual feature of the shows is that they are all clean, moral and refined; they have the hearty approval and endorsement of the various city officials; in fact, they bring with them a long list of endorsements from various county fairs where they have exhibited.

The Wild Animal show features trained lions, wrestling bears, performing leopards, pumas and jaguars in the hands of both men and women trainers; also educated goats who give an astonishing performance.

Other features include Plantation singers and dancers, and a Wild West show in which local rough riders are offered from $10 to $50 to ride outlaws successfully.

Mr. Lewis is giving the band boys 12 1-2 per cent of gross receipts, with a guarantee of $150 or better for the week's business. Needless to say, the band boys are interested in helping make the show go over big, and with the high class of performances, are unhesitatingly recommending the shows to their friends. Show opens each night at 8:00 o'clock, except Thursday night, when the show will not open until after the close of the Musical Revue by the band boys.

PROCLAIM FRIDAY DAY OF MOURNING

"By the President of the United States of America, proclamation:

"To the people of the United States.

"In the inscrutable wisdom of divine Providence Warren Gamaliel Harding, 29th president of the United States has been taken from us. The nation has lost a wise and enlightened statesman and the American people a true friend and counsellor, whose whole public life was inspired with the desire to promote the best interests of the United States and the welfare of all its citizens. His private life was marked by gentleness and brotherly sympathy and by the charm of his personality, he made friends of all who came in contact with him.

"It is meet that the deep grief which fills the heart of the American people should find fitting expression.

"Now, therefore, I Calvin Coolidge, president of the United States of America do appoint Friday next, August 10, the day on which the body of the dead president will be laid in its last earthly resting place, as a day of mourning and prayer throughout the United States. I earnestly recommend the people to assemble on that day in their respective places of divine worship there to bow down in submission to the will of Almighty God and to pay out of full hearts the homage and love and reverence to the memory of the great and good president, whose death has so sorely smitten the nation.

"In witness, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington, the fourth day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and of the independence of the United States one hundred and forty eighth.

"CALVIN COOLIDGE,

By the President,

"CHARLES E. HUGHES,
Secretary of State.

BRADY BALL CLUB ISSUES STATE-WIDE CHALLENGE

With a record of 55 games played, 38 won and 17 lost, the Brady Ball club lays claim to the championship of West Texas, and issues a challenge to any amateur, semi-pro or Class D ball team in West Texas for honors in this class. The local club also offers to play any team in the above classification in East Texas for the championship of Texas. The local club has so far met all comers, including the fastest and strongest teams in West Texas, and has played and won more hard-fought games, with tight scores, than any team this year.

The locals are going good, and if any team arises to challenge their claims, they will be given proper attention just as soon as the local team can get to them.

Brady 1, Mason 0.

Brady shut out Mason yesterday on Mason grounds, by a score of 1 to 0, with Koch pitching for Brady and Green on the mound for Mason. Brady plays at Mason again this afternoon, at Pontotoc Wednesday, and then returns to Brady Thursday and Friday to play Mason here.

Games are now being arranged with DeLeon Ranger, Thurber and Breckenridge. It is also hoped to schedule a series of games with the Cache Indians of Lawton, Okla., on the home grounds about the middle of this month.

W. C. WEGNER CLOSES OUT LOCAL INTERESTS AND EXPECTS TO REMOVE TO AUSTIN

W. C. Wegner is closing out his local interests and with his family will remove from the city to a new location. Mr. Wegner has several propositions under consideration, and while he has not fully decided, may, very likely, locate in Austin. Needless to say, the many friends of the family regret their contemplated removal, but trust good fortune may accompany them wherever they may locate.

Mr. Wegner has sold his residence property to Jack Keyser who expects to take possession within the next couple weeks. The property includes a half block of land with house composed of six rooms and bath, and is located on North Bridge street. The purchase price was $2,500.

Mr. Wegner has also disposed of the Model market, selling the same to Jordan Bros., who took possession of the same Monday morning. The Behrens market, recently purchased by Jordan Bros., has been consolidated with the Model market, and will be operated in the latter's location on North Bridge street.

TOURIST PARK MAKES RECORD START AUGUST 1

The Brady Tourist park got off to a flying start this month, and, just out of curiosity, Park-keeper J. R. Kennedy kept a record of all cars and people stopping over in the park in the 24-hour period running from noon August 1st to noon August 2nd. His record shows 183 visitors registered and 45 cars. During the month of July, 494 cars stopped in the park, and 519 persons registered. As can readily be seen, only a little better than one person to the car registered, many visitors registering only one name for a whole party.

On crowded days, it sometimes happens that tourists find the camp so full that some drive on, which has impelled the park-keeper to request that action be taken towards securing additional grounds for the park.

During the past few days, the park register has been left at the Water & Light plant office, where tourists are requested to stop and register of their own accord. This has resulted in quite a number adding a word of commendation for the park, the park-keeper or the citizenship. Here are some of the expressions taken from the register:

"Best equipped park in Central Texas."—Rufus Scarborough and family, Brownwood, Texas.

"You folks have a tourist park for any to be proud of.—M. Hunter Jones and family, Big Springs, Texas.

"A splendid, well-equipped park for the comfort of tourists."—Roy H. Morris wife and three boys, Brownwood, Texas.

"This park is the best I have been in."—Major G. H. Goosey and family, San Antonio, Texas.

"Caretaker a fine, accommodating gentleman."—Harriet Louise Goosey, San Antonio, Texas.

"It is nice to meet a care-taker who will go out of his way to accommodate. Brady Camp Ground has that care-taker."—Ardahl Goosey, San Antonio, Texas.

"We appreciate the hospitality of your people and appreciate your camp."—Hicks E. Thompson and party of fourteen, Dallas, Texas.

"A splendid park and congenial people."—Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Watson, Lamesa, Texas.

"A fine, hospitable place."—W. R. Denton and a family, West, Texas.

BRADY'S BEST ADVERTISING

Bob Baldrige is editor of the Clifton Record. He gets out a cracker-jack weekly, is rated as a live-wire, and is generally acknowledged as a whole-souled, genial and most likable sort of a man. But Bob has proven himself about the stingiest editor we know. When we met him last at the Texas Press association meeting, he requested that we send him The Brady Standard, and promised a return of the courtesy. But to date, not a single paper has he favored us with. But if Bob is stingy with his paper, he is, at least, (We'll say this much good for him) liberal with his boosting qualities. Through the kindness of L. Karcher of Eden, pastor of the Lutheran church, we are in receipt of the following clipping from the Clifton Record, which speaks most flatteringly of Brady Tourist park, and which, in itself, is enough to convince anyone that the park is one of Brady's best advertisements. Incidentally we are going to say a good word for Rev. Karcher, who pleads guilty to being fond of Brady and Brady people, and who, for this reason, sent us this clipping as an item which would interest all Brady folks.

Here is Editor Baldrige's comment:

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Torrence and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brandes returned Saturday from a fishing trip to the Llano River, at Seven Hundred Springs. They report a very enjoyable trip, with plenty of fish to eat. They report noticing every town they passed through having a Tourist Camping Ground or Park, and catering in every way to the comfort and pleasure of the tourist. The Tourist Parks in most places have tables and are provided with electric lights and free wood. They especially mentioned the Tourist Park at Brady. Here everything is being done to make the tourist feel at home. The Park contains only four acres and is less than two months since it opened to tourists. It is provided with free electric lights, wood and water, also free air for automobiles. Tables were provided in convenient places. There was also a nice camp house for use in bad weather. This park had a Park Keeper who was paid out of the city funds to look after the

"HERE'S TO YOU, DAD"

We happened in a home the other night and over the parlor door saw the legend worked in letters of red, "What is home without a mother?" Across the room was another brief, "God bless our home."

Now, what's the matter with "God bless our dad?" He gets up early, lights the fire, boils an egg, grabs his dinner-pail and wipes off the dew dawn with his boots while many a mother is sleeping. He makes the weekly hand-out for the butcher, the grocer, the milkman and baker, and his little pile is badly worn before he has been home an hour. He stands off the bailiff and keeps the rent paid up.

If there is a noise during the night, dad is kicked in the back and made to go down stairs to find the burglar and kill him. Mother darns the socks, but dad bought the socks in the first place and the needles and yarn afterward. Mother does up the fruit; well, dad bought it all, and jars and sugar cost like the mischief.

Dad buys chickens for the Sunday dinner, carves them himself and draws the neck and the ruins after every one else is served. "What is home with mother?" Yes, that is all right; but what is home without a father? Ten chances to one it is a boarding house, father is under a slab and the landlady is a widow. Dad, here's to you! You've got your faults—you may have lots of 'em—but you're all right, and we will miss you when you're gone.—Scottish Rite Bulletin.

THE NATION'S SORROW

The unexpected death of President Harding at San Francisco Thursday night is perhaps the saddest incident to happen to the American people since the foundation of the government.

The death of Lincoln came upon the nation at the heat of civil strife and sectional bitterness. The murder of Garfield found the country disturbed over the death of a leader who was little known to the masses of the people. The tragic incident of the martyrdom of McKinley, while keenly felt and indignantly resented, was modified by the party prejudice existing against him on account of his connection with certain tariff legislation and his close affiliation with Mark Hanna and other reactionaries of that day.

But in the case of President Harding the loss is general. No president, perhaps, since the days of Washington, was as widely admired and as universally loved.

He was elected to office as the standard bearer of the Republican party, but in his two and a half years in the nation's service he seemed to step beyond mere party lines, and by his rugged honesty, his intense sympathy, and his constant effort for the general betterment of the nation at large, he simply planted his value upon the hearthstones of the American people, who honor nothing so highly as the honest convictions and the proven sincerity of a capable man.

The president is dead. The machinery of the nation goes on without a pause. The ship of state sails ahead true to its course, yet, somehow out of the shadow of an illustrious death an impression is left, that is sweet and profound, of a life and example that will win the highest emulation.—Brownwood News.

dropped in the box without sufficient postage. This shows what other towns are doing toward the tourist.

There are twenty-five mountains in Colorado higher than Pike's Peak—Dye ever hear of 'em? You most likely did not—they have never been advertised, few people know they exist, while tens of thousands spend millions of dollars every year in vacation trips to Pike's Peak. This is another instance of the power of advertising. Many is the time merchants who prided themselves on the fact that they were old and well established in the community have had young Pike's Peak merchants to absolutely relegate them to poor second-raters, through steady and consistent advertising. If you are not a regular advertiser, think of Pike's Peak.—Clarendon News.

The Richardson Echo, published almost within the shadow of the big Dallas department stores, carries a nice line of advertising from the home-town merchants, and in its last issue reports the business of the merchants "picking up." Speaking on the question, Editor Harben says: "Our merchants must remember that the way to bring the customer to the store is to extend the invitation. It is not enough that you have been here for so many years, the fact that all know you are in business and sell this and that, does not mean the trade, who may know you ever so well, and yet will not come unless they are invited. Goldsmith was in Dallas 49 years but never stopped advertising a day and ended a successful business life. "Sanger" is a household word in every Dallas county home, yet this firm spends more than $100,000.00 per year to keep their name, and what they sell, and their offerings before the people in the form of an invitation."

Mrs. S. P. Allen, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Danielson, at Melvin, yesterday reported having found a turkey gobbler setting on a nest of three eggs. As proof Mrs. Allen offered several snap shots, showing his majesty giving motherly (or rather, fatherly) attention to the nest. In order to make his efforts worth while, Mrs. Allen provided the old bird with a full setting, and states that so far he has been very faithful to his self-imposed task. Mrs. Allen has been assured by neighbors that this is not the first instance where a gobbler has undertaken to hatch a setting of eggs, and that they usually not only do a good job of hatching, but take good care of the baby turks.

"UNVEILING OF KU KLUX KLAN" SUBJECT OF ADDRESS

"The Unveiling of the Ku Klux Klan" was the subject of two addresses delivered here last Saturday by W. C. Witcher prominent lawyer of Fort Worth, and author of a book of the same title. Mr. Witcher spoke at 5:00 o'clock in the evening, and again at 8:00 o'clock at night. The afternoon address was delivered on the court house lawn, in order to accommodate the attending crowds, and in the district court room at night. At both gatherings the speaker was accorded close attention and a most courteous hearing. That his audience was largely sympathetic was evidenced by frequent bursts of applause during the course of his addresses.

Characterizing the Ku Klux Klan as the most dangerous institution in America today, the speaker undertook to show how it was undermining the courts, the government, and the very law which it professed to uphold and honor. Incidentally, he offered proof of his assertions in documentary evidence from the Klan charter, and from letters written over the seal of various klans and as well from klansmen themselves.

At the outset of his address, Mr. Witcher gave denial to any and all rumors that he had been thrown out of the church, had been disbarred from the practice of his profession, that he had ever made application for or been refused membership in the Klan, that he was a member of the K. C. or that he was a paid lecturer for either the K. C. or Jewish organizations. He stated that he was giving his time and means to fight what he considered the most insidious attempt to destroy the foundations of our government that had ever been undertaken.

Mr. Witcher stated that in the articles incorporating the Ku Klux Klan, it was stated that it was a benevolent organization, of military character, and was operated without profit. He stated that this was belied by the fact that Imperial Wizard Simmons drew down $1.50 out of every initiation, while E. Y. Clarke, who had been in charge of the propaganda department, drew down the balance and proportioned it among the King Kleagles and other officers according to their rank and importance. He showed that in the several years Clarke had been in charge of this work, he had accumulated a cool half million dollars out of the initiation fees.

The speaker stated that the organization was cleverly planned so as to make appeal to various classes of men. He described this by picturing a bull fight, in which the animal is thrust out into the arena, snorting and pawing—not particularly vicious, but merely restive and feeling its power. Then the matador steps forth and waves a red flag, infuriating the animal, which closes its eyes and charges. The matador steps deftly aside, and as the bull passes, jabs it in the side with his sword. The bull wheels and charges again, and the same thing takes place. Knowing the general antipathy of the Protestant

AERMOTOR

The Windmill That Has Made Good

Any windmill which does not have the gears running in oil is only half oiled; cogs which are filled with oil run smoothly and quietly and last indefinitely. We are having the best of success with the Auto Oiled Aermotor; ask your neighbor. They cost no more than the ordinary windmill.

We want to supply your cylinders, piping, rods and anything necessary for a windmill outfit. Come in and let us figure with you.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Jennings were numbered among the Fredonia visitors in Brady Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Wulff and son, Fred, left Sunday for a vacation trip and visit on the Galveston beach.

Messrs. W. O. Westernman and O. E. Green were visitors in Brady Saturday from the Voca-Fredonia section.

Miss Jennie Bannister left Monday for her home in Santa Anna, for a vacation visit. She will return to Brady about September 1st.

A. C. Wilhelm came up from Galveston yesterday to join Mrs. Wilhelm and children in their visit here and to accompany them upon their return to Galveston.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Winstead, Sr., accompanied by Mrs. B. L. Hughes and daughter, Virginia, are enjoying a visit with relatives and friends in Mangum, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sewell and three children of Medina, and Mrs. Al Nance and three children of Kerrville returned Sunday to their homes. While here, they were guests of their sister and sister-in-law, Mrs. W. M. Bauhof.

E. A. Burrows returned Monday from Lueders, to which place he had carried Mrs. Burrows and daughter, Mary Ed, and where they will be guests for several weeks of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Herrick, and family.

Mrs. Campbell Gavitt and Mrs. Victor Wolf and son and daughter, Miss Morene, were here this week, guest Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Cheek and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. White. They were from Brady and old friends of those they visited.—Eldorado Success.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Clark and sons of Abilene came in Sunday for a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Joe Johnson. From here they will be accompanied by Mrs. Johnson and boys and Mrs. Crist to Corpus Christi for a two week's stay.

Making It Easier.

In their cross-country honey-moon trip in the flivver, Jack and Betty were relieved to find that Hickville boasted a hotel. It wasn't such a much of a hotel, though, and in the room assigned to them they found the screens rusty and full of holes.

During the middle of the night Betty awoke to hear her husband moving restlessly about the place.

"What in the world are you doing?" she demanded.

"Taking out these screens so the blamed bugs can fly through without making so much fuss trying to find the holes," answered Jack.—American Legion Weekly.

Answers, London: Mrs. B. A.—Do you go out much?

Mrs. M. A.—No; very little. You see, we pay such high rent for this house, we have to stay in to get the value for our money.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mayhew are the proud and happy parents of a dainty little Miss, whose arrival was announced yesterday morning, August 6th. The congratulations of all their many friends are extended.

A prominent farmer and citizen of Lohn yesterday advised The Standard editor he could safely prophesy a rain by Tuesday midnight. So here is the prediction and our good wishes with it—but don't forget the country has long since gone dry.

S. J. Striegler and Francis Keller left Monday morning for Dallas and other points on a marketing trip, and on which they will buy a complete stock of Fall and Winter goods for the Popular Dry Goods Co. Messrs. Gus Shropshire and Bob Rose accompanied them on the trip.

Bailey Jones and Edwin Broad went to Fort Worth Sunday morning to accompany Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Broad upon their return home from a week's stay in Fort Worth with their sister, Mrs. Rufus Adams. Mrs. Adams has been quite seriously ill at a sanitarium there, having suffered a severe nervous break-down. Hopes are now entertained of her complete recovery, following a period of several weeks' rest and quiet.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bauhof and daughter, Nance, have just returned from their marketing trip, and Mrs. Bauhof makes announcement in this issue of early arrivals in millinery, ready-to-wear, hose and novelties, and which are being placed on display in her attractive new store on the east side of the square. Mrs. Bauhof was fortunate in being numbered among the early buyers and secured first choice of all the newest and latest in feminine wearing apparel for the new season. Her many friends and patrons will find her offerings for the new season most attractive, both as to style and quality and the prices will be found surprisingly reasonable.

Julius Levy and daughter, Miss Estelle, left Monday night for Dallas, where they will spend a week or two visiting, and where Mr. Levy will incidentally arrange for a program of feature pictures for the Lyric theatre during the Fall and Winter. Mr. Levy has already been assured of some of the greatest films now being shown, and which include big-time stuff just now being released in Dallas and other Southern cities. The initial feature at the Lyric, following the re-opening about September 1st will be "Rich Men's Wives." The antithesis of this picture, "Poor Men's Wives," will follow within a couple weeks. Lon Cheney in "Shadows," "Thorns and Orange Blossoms," "Broadway Rose," "Prisoner of Zenda," "All the Brothers Were Valiant," "In Ninety and Nine," "Heart of Maryland," "The Man Next Door," "Masters of Men," "Daughters of the Rich," and "St. Elmo," are among some of the great pictures of the day already released to Mr. Levy. Announcement of the dates of their showing will be made in The Standard during the coming months.

ROBS CALOMEL OF NAUSEA & DANGER

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected Tablet Called "Calotabs."

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity,—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water,—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large, family package; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.)

masses against the Catholics, the organizers of the Klan have played upon this prejudice to foster and build the organization. They waved the red flag of the Papacy, and the people stampeded. As they pass, Simmons deftly extracted $10 initiation fee: As the people wheel and charge again, he extracts another $6.50 for hoods, masks and paraphernalia. If the red flag of the Papacy won't arouse passion and prejudice, then Simmons uses the white flag of White Supremacy, or the yellow flag of business advantage through klannishness and the boycott, said the speaker.

So far as the actual workings of the organization were concerned, he declared it a huge joke—a tragedy and a comedy combined. He wanted to know how Klansmen came to call themselves 100 per cent Americans, and just what a 10 per cent, or a 50 per cent or a 75 per cent American might constitute. He stated that we are either American or un-American, and that true American citizens supported and upheld the American government above all others, long before the Klan was organized—and would continue to do so without feeling the necessity of joining an organization which flaunted a claim of 100 per cent Americanism. He read statements from the Baptist conference in Florida, from a Methodist bishop in Dallas, quoted President Harding and other national leaders all of whom condemned the Klan in no uncertain terms. He showed how the Klan transgressed the laws of the land by sending through the mails, over their official stamp and seal, letters containing threats such as subjected the sender to a fine of $10,000 and imprisonment for a long term of years; he spoke of the tarrings and featherings, the deportations and other crimes, for most of which the Klan denied responsibility, but which they had never attempted to help solve or to offer a clue leading to arrest and conviction of the guilty parties. He stated that the Klan first undertook to control the sheriffs and city police departments, following which they felt free to proceed with their work without fear of hindrance. He stated that never had there been a Klan visitation at the conclusion of a successful revival meeting, but what the evangelist had fore-knowledge of their coming, and that their commendation of the preacher and his work was in stereotyped form, and was made simply because for a donation of ten or fifteen dollars, the Klan could secure hundreds of dollars worth of advertising, and incidentally the endorsement and approval of the minister and people they had duped.

The speaker called attention to the Klansmen's oath which sealed his lips against all Klan secrets, excepting murder, treason and malicious rape, and which he said effectively prevented justice in the courts of the land. He also called attention to the instructions given Klansmen, in which they were advised that they could with a clear conscience deny being a member of the Klan if they were questioned when on jury service; that they were not members of the Klan but a citizen of the Invisible Empire.

Mr. Witcher disclaimed any enmity or hard feelings towards any individual member of the Klan, but stated his whole fight was directed against the Klan because it was an un-American, and a most dangerous institution, and that even before our boys had returned from France where they had chased Kaiser Wilhelm off his throne, a new despot had arisen right here in America in the person of Imperial Wizard Simmons, and whose powers were more absolute and autocratic than Wilhelm had ever dared to assume. The speaker urged all citizens to drop their business and join hands in stamping out the Klan, which, he asserted, would destroy all business of non-members if its progress and power were not curbed.
