MASON, TEXAS, THURSDAY OCTOBER 19 1922.

ESTAB 1877

REPORTS INDICATE RAIN OF THIS WEEK WAS GENERAL

The rain which fell here the first of the week, was one that covered a great portion of the country and from various parties it is learned the precipitation was heavier in some sections of the county than in others. The rain was general over Mason county and extended north as far as Fort Worth, so we learn from parties recently returning from that city where they shipped cattle. Fredonia and Pontotoc got a good rain, as did Katemey and Ranch Branch.

Junction and Menard received good rains and reports are that sections south and east of here also came in for a share. While the fall was not heavy, it is believed that much benefit will be derived by the stockmen, as it will green up the grass considerably.

The News is informed that northwest of Mason a number of creeks ran water as a result of the showers.

SYNOPSIS—PROPHET'S PARADISE

Howard Anderson, an adventure-some young American, has been touring the world and finds himself somewhat bored while in a suburb of Constantinople. Hassard, a clever Turkish crook, has made his acquaintance, learned of his wealth and seeks some way to separate him from some of his money. Meanwhile, Hassard has learned of the presence of the wealthy John Talbot and his daughter, Mary, Americans. Talbot has a hobby, archeology, and is studying Byzantine ruins. Hassard has his daughter kidnapped and held for ransom.

On this same day Hassard learns that Anderson is going to leave. Hassard tries to detain him and finally when Anderson says that Hassard has been very kind and shown him everything in Turkey worth seeing except the Sultan's Harem, Hassard has a brilliant idea—he tells Anderson that he has not seen "The Prophet's Paradise," or a slave market. Anderson laughs and declares women are no longer sold, but Hassard assures him they are, secretly, and tells him he must disguise himself or else he would be killed if his identity at this sale were discovered.

Anderson at the sale sees the beautiful Mary Talbot. She has been told that if she fails to play this part for Hassard he will kill her father. To prevent her sale to a lecherous old Turk, Anderson buys her. They try to drug him, but he discovers the frame up and after a big fight he escapes with Mary.

Meanwhile her father and his men who have found traces of the girl, go to her rescue. Mary is just explaining to Anderson as he leads her out of the garden, and says, "My name is—" when someone knocks Anderson senseless from behind. It is one of Talbot's employes who mistake Anderson in his disguise for one of the kidnapers. In fear Talbot rushes Mary out of the country. Anderson recovers and comes back to America, madly in love with the unknown girl.

Later he meets her in a traffic jam on Fifth Avenue, climbs into her car, claims her as his own—says, "Let's go ask your father." "No," says Mary, "let's go tell him!"

The Dallas Democrat is strongly advocating the removal of the State University from Austin and suggests it should be located between Dallas and Fort Worth. A claim is that now it is out of the students, rather than as it should be, what Austin citizenship can do for the student body.

The Junction High School football team won in a contest from Mason Hi last Thursday on the local gridiron, but they have some husky and overgrown boys on their team. It is said one of the big boys only tipped the scales at 238 pounds.

Mr. Ernest Lemburg states he believed last Saturday was one of the best, if not the best day, his firm has enjoyed in the history of the firm.

Soon to Be Bride of Kaiser

An exclusive and most recent picture of the widow Princess Schoenich-Carloth, who is soon to marry the former Kaiser, engagement which has been confirmed. The Princess will take the three children, shown here, with her to Doorn, Holland, where Wilhelm is living and where the ceremony will be performed, inasmuch as the former monarch cannot go into Germany to get his new bride. The Princess went to Paris recently for some of her wedding clothes.

F. C. BEYER LOSES LITTLE TOE IN INJURY AT GIN LAST WEEK

One day last week F. C. Beyer suffered a painful injury while at work in the gin at the Mason Ice & Power Co. Mr. Beyer was at work at the gin stands and in some unknown manner an iron shaft fell, striking him on the foot. The injury necessitated his going to a physician immediately and he was taken to the local sanitarium where Dr. Baze amputated the little toe which had been severely mashed.

Mr. Beyer is now taking an unexpected vacation as a result of the accident, but he says the injury was very painful for several days and the fact that he has to use crutches now, makes it impossible for him to get much enjoyment from his lay-off.

PARENT-TEACHERS ELECT OFFICERS

Last Monday afternoon the local Parent-Teachers' Association held their regular monthly meeting at the new school building, with something like forty members present. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Mrs. C. S. Veider, president; Mrs. J. S. King, vice-president; Miss Grace Phillips, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. A. E. Grosse, librarian.

MOTHER OF H. S. WOOD DIED AT PLACID LAST THURSDAY

Early last Friday morning Mrs. S. V. Wood died at her home near Placid, following an illness of several weeks. It is stated her death was attributed to Bright's disease. She was about 70 years of age.

Mrs. Wood was well known in Mason County, and Mr. Wood, who at one time was County Judge here will have the sympathy of a great many Mason County friends in his bereavement.

Deceased was the mother of H. S. Wood of this city, who was with her much of the time during her recent illness and at her death.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon and interment was made at Placid.

Will Move to San Antonio

John Wartenbach informs the News that he expects to leave with his family for San Antonio in the very near future with the probability of making that city his home. It is announced Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pryor have rented the Wartenbach home.

Ben Hey came down Sunday from Junction for a few days' visit here with his family.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING NOW OCCUPIED BY HIGH SCHOOL

On Monday of this week the students of the local high school initiated the recently completed new High School Building, all necessary changes such as moving desks, furniture, etc., having been attended to on Friday afternoon and Saturday before, that the new building might be ready for the first of the week. The Primary and Grammar grades now have the remodeled old building to themselves.

It is stated the high school is now under an entirely different system since moving to the new building. Instead of having recess and noon periods classes are carried right on throughout the day from nine o'clock in the morning to three o'clock in the afternoon, with a four minute intermission between periods and thirty minutes at noon. This arrangement seems to be quite satisfactory and pupils as well as instructors state they prefer it to the old system, as the same amount of time is devoted to classes and they are enabled to get out of school each day from thirty minutes to an hour earlier.

WE ARE GRATEFUL

Subscription payments have been coming in right along this fall and a noticeable number of new readers are being added to our list, all of which is greatly appreciated. The fact that our people have been through some hard years recently has been felt by the News as much as by any business firm and the writer believes the past two years' subscription payments were lighter than for any other period during the last ten years; consequently, many of our readers are now making subscription settlements for back time and at the same time are setting their expiration figures some ahead.

The News is sustained by, probably more different customers than any two firms of the county, yet the amount that comes annually from each customer is very small and the fact that many failed to come in with their annual contributions, the combined sum made us considerable short of funds at times, but Oh, boy! It makes a fellow feel good when it does come after a couple years' waiting.

W. R. Capps was here Tuesday marketing his twenty-second bale of cotton. He expects to make about seven or eight more bales.

HEALTH OFFICER OF MASON ISSUES WARNING TO CLEAN UP

Dr. C. L. McCollum, County Health Officer of Mason County, is urging all property owners to clean up around their premises. Dr. McCollum says complaints have been received in a number of instances. He stated a few days ago his intention is to exercise full authority in the remedy of his official position in seeing that conditions in this locality improve.

"At this season of the year, flies and mosquitoes are bad, due to the fact they are eager to get inside where it's warm, and if filth and unsanitary conditions exist much sickness will be the result," he declared.

That there are a few unsightly places in our town is a regrettable fact, and a request from our county health officer urging owners to clean up is asking but little and no more than should be expected.

Naturally, it is an unpleasant position to be thrown in when conditions are allowed to get so bad that the health officer has to get personal in an effort to keep conditions sanitary. It is unpleasant on the part of the official but it would be more embarrassing on the part of the individual who has to be approached. It is easier to clean up without being asked than to be placed in a position where it is forced upon you.

Rid your premises of rubbish and tell your neighbors to do likewise. Dr. McCollum says things are going to be cleaned up and if property owners do not do it willingly, then he'll feel compelled to exercise his authority and force somebody.

The people of Junction certainly are enthusiastic backers of their High School football team. We are of the opinion almost all of the town came down last week with the team. It is a splendid spirit and Mason should try backing her team and notice if it does not instill enthusiasm in the players.

It is stated by some few local parties who profess to know, that Junction had an ineligible player on their team last Thursday. The player referred to is Grady Kendrick, who played quarterback and who it is said graduated at the Junction High School last term. We do not know, and hope the report is not true, for Junction has always been rated by Mason as a town for clean sports and if the above should prove true it would have a tendency to cause our respect for them to banish. We'll give them the benefit of the doubt until the thing is proven otherwise.

JUNCTION HI DEFEATED MASON HIGH IN GAME HERE SATURDAY

The football game on the local gridiron last Saturday between the Mason High School team and the Junction High School team resulted in a score of 10 to 0 in favor of the visitors. It was the hardest fought game that has ever been played on the grounds here, and was marked with clean sportsmanship.

Local fans feel confident had the entire first string of players been in the lineup the visitors would have been easily defeated. Zesch, one of the back field was not eligible because he did not make his grades. McDougall was out of the game with a game leg, and to make conditions still worse, in the first of the second quarter, King Charles Smith, quarterback, was put out of the game by injuries to a rib. The team put up a splendid fight considering that there were three second string men in the line up.

It was the most enthusiastic game ever played here and hundreds of people from Junction were on the side line supporting their team.

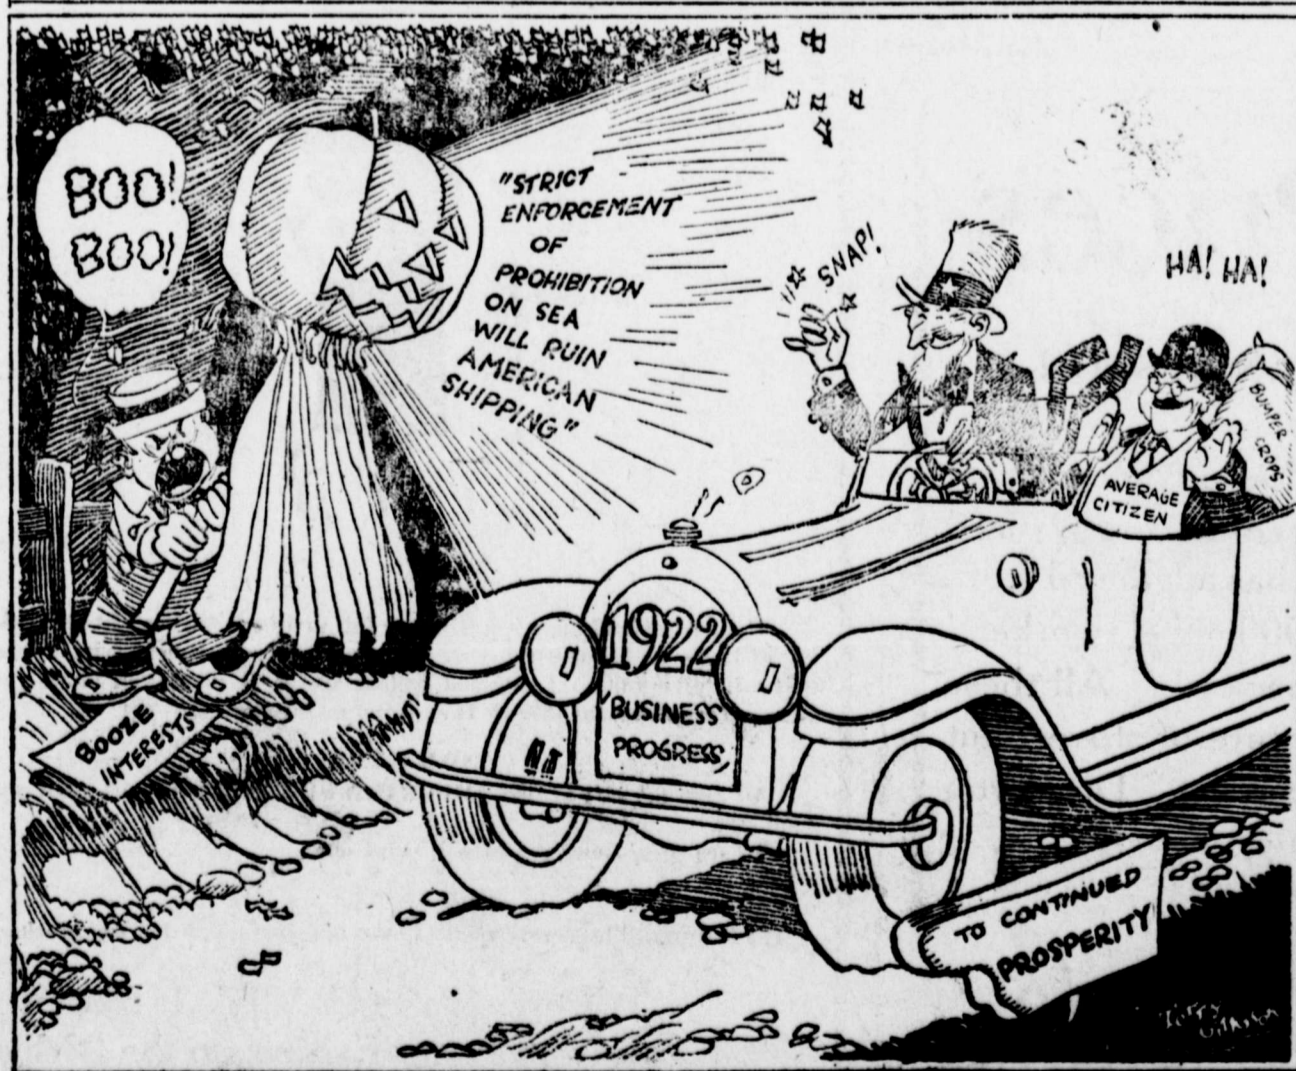

The Mason Band furnished some splendid music before the game which brought forth every bit of pep in the players and spectators.

It is believed that the Junction aggregation is the hardest that the locals will meet this season and it is believed that Mason will win the next game from them which will be played on the Junction grounds.

The game started Saturday with Mason kicking off and Junction returned the ball to their 45 yd line, 1st down, made 7 off left tackle; Mason ball, 1st

CAFETERIA AT STATE U. UNDER MANAGEMENT ECO. DEPT'T.

Austin, Texas, Oct. 19.—Many students of the University of Texas are taking advantage of the low rate of charges made by the University cafeteria this year under the supervision of the home economics department. Approximately 1,500 meals each day have been served at an average cost of about eighteen cents per meal, or $3.74 per week. This low rate is made possible through the fact that no attempt is being made to profit, outside of expenses, overhead cost, and a small percentage for the sinking fund to cover depreciation of equipment.

During the session of 1921-22, student opinion against the old cafeteria management led to a faculty investigation, resulting in turning over the entire business of the cafeteria to the home economics department. Under the direction of the faculty of that department, the entire building has been remodelled, the tables redone, and new equipment added. A special feature of the new service has been the installation of a separate dining room to be used for luncheon and dinners given by campus organizations. Members of the football squad are being served their meals at a special table which is under the supervision of Miss Joe Waters, nutrition specialist. Approximately 40 football players are taking their meals at the cafeteria at a cost of $23 a month.

SALARY INCREASES SOUGHT IN BUDGET

Miss Blanton Makes Recommendation to State Board of Control.

Austin, Tex.—The state board of control has been requested by Miss Annie Webb Blanton, state superintendent of public instruction, that the state department of education's budget be included in the educational appropriation bill, declaring that the state department of education is a part of the educational system of the state and should be placed on the same basis as regards educational requirements and remuneration as the state colleges. Miss Blanton, who has appeared before the board in support of the budget of her department, contends that the employees of the department of education are required to have the special educational training which is required in the state educational institutions of higher learning, asserting that it recognized that general progress in the state depends to a considerable extent upon wise and progressive leadership in the state department of education, which is to a greater extent, she says, placed in its administrative powers over all of the educational agencies of the state.

The board of control has not yet indicated what action will be taken on the request.

Material increases in salaries of the state superintendent and employees of the department of education and the creation of some new positions are urged by Miss Blanton. She recommends the superintendent's salary be raised to $5,000 per annum, an increase of $1,000. The salaries of $4,000, $3,800 and $3,600 are asked, respectively, for the first, second and third assistant state superintendents, and $4,000 for the chief supervisor of high schools, and $3,000 for each of the high school supervisors.

TURKS AGREE TO ARMISTICE TERMS

All Powers Concerned Have Affixed Signatures to Armistice Pact.

Mundania.—The armistice convention was signed Wednesday and the representatives of all the powers concerned affixed their signatures to the revised protocol which General Harrington had presented for acceptance to Ismet Pasha and which the nationalist delegate forwarded to the Angora government for its decision.

General Harrington had informed Ismet Pasha that the convention embodied Great Britain's last word and that the other powers gave their unqualified support to the terms.

Despite the promise of the Kemalist troops that they would not advance in view of the armistice arrangements, Turkish nationalist patrols are reported to have appeared in the vicinity of the village of Riva, on the coast of the Black Sea.

Additional details regarding the Mundania armistice agreement became known after the conference disbanded. The terms provide that seven allied battalions are to remain between the Turks and the Greeks in Thrace for forty-five days to prevent any disorders during the transition period.

The British agreed not to fortify the Dardanelles.

The Constantinople-Chatalja line will be held by the allies pending the peace conference, and Gallipoli Peninsula will be kept under a mixed allied commission until the peace conference decides upon its permanent future status.

Lieutenant General Sir Charles Harrington, the British commander-in-chief at Constantinople, will press the allied powers for an early convening of the peace conference, which he believes will be the most important council of world powers since Versailles. It is expected that the deliberations will require from two to three months at least, as the questions for decision are of the widest importance, including the vital interests of all of Europe, and will likely involve many matters entirely outside the Near East.

The allied authorities here will oppose the selection of Smyrna or Constantinople for the meeting of the conference. Major General Sir Frederic B. Matrice, discussing this subject, today said:

"It is imperative that a neutral city be chosen. Smyrna and Constantinople are impossible on account of the atmosphere of hostility, intrigue and racial and religious animosities, which would surround the delegates. Smyrna with its background of fire, famine and fury, its air poisoned with undigested hatreds and the populace still delirious from the victories of the army is wholly unsuited to attract the dove of peace. Constantinople under the occupation of allied armies, is no neutral ground. Even Italy is inappropriate because Italy is a party to the negotiations and is technically one of the adversaries of Turkey."

Coal Production Breaks Record.

Washington.—Coal production started off last week at a record breaking rate, according to reports compiled this week for the car service division of the American Railway association. Bituminous mines on Monday produced 40,596 carloads, the largest amount mined in any one day since December, 1926, and 14,101 cars more than were mined on Saturday, last week. The total tonnage for the day as indicated by the carloads would amount to more than 2,200,000 and would result in a weekly production of well over 13,000,000 tons if maintained.

Texas Rail Earnings.

Austin, Tex.—Not revenue from operation of Texas railroads for seven months ending July 31, 1922, as compared with the same period of the previous year was $15,881,373, a decrease of $1,058,805, or 6.25 per cent, according to a statement issued Friday by the railroad commission. The total operating revenue was $103,648,246, a decrease of $22,152,868, or 17.61 per cent; total operating expenses, $87,766,873, a decrease of $21,094,063, or 19.38 per cent.

State Warrants Called.

Austin, Tex.—State Treasurer C. V. Terrell Friday made a call for payment of 416 warrants issued on the general revenue fund prior to September 1, up to and including No. 64,841, there being now available $68,237 for such payment. Terrell said he probably would issue another call within 10 days.

Richard Lloyd Jones tells About Ants, Elephants and Us.

ZOOLOGISTS, who, in simpler language, are the bug-ologists, after microscopically observing the habits and conduct of ants for years, bring us the interesting information that these busy little workers in the humbler world are by their own voluntary action the most moral of all living creatures. The ant, they tell us, is so intelligent that we are justified in trying to describe its existence by a kind of allegorical comparison with human life. Busy as are these minute little creatures, their females are scrupulously clean. Several times each day they better their appearance with combs and brushes. The males are the only ones that are allowed to eat all they want. All others, by their established law, must abstain from over eating and drinking. Soldier ants protect both the young and those who care for the young. The mother ant is treated with all the deference of an empress. The ants limit their sleep to just that which is their need of rest and they destroy the drone and all those who would attempt to over-indulge in leisure or luxury. They have architects and engineers. They build houses and bridges to conform with definite plans. They have their agriculture and horticulture and have been observed to domesticate as many as 584 different kinds of creatures. Wonderful is the story of the ant. Some of our scientists who are better zoologists than sociologists quote the old Hebrew saying of thousands of years ago, "Go to the ant, thou sluggard, consider her way," and suggest that there is much in the ant the man might well try to emulate. Other scientists tell us to consider the elephant.

The Hindoo tells us that he gets good work from that giant creature only so long as he is good to it. Should he abuse or offend it, he would lose the elephant's willingness to work and he might lose his life by incurring the elephant's ire. To appease the elephant, the Hindoo always feeds it before he himself partakes of food. That gentleness and generosity do much to gain good work, is the moral lesson the scientist hands to us as the result of these observations. But who wants to be either an elephant or an ant? Who would want to emulate their ways, interesting and perhaps intellectual as they appear to be? The elephant has none of the generosity for which the scientific observer pleads. The elephant says, "Feed me first or I am likely to get mad and kick the daylight out of you." There is nothing in that sort of a spirit worth emulating. The ant is good to its own but it wars on every other creature that it cannot subdue and use. There is nothing so very big and magnanimous about that. What is more, outside of the grotesque trick elephants in the circus ring, no scientist has ever called upon us to see or hear an animal symphony, nor have they shown us an animal-made picture or gracefully formed statue. Has any one ever yet seen an elephant pause in rapture before a gorgeous sunset? What eye at the microscope has ever seen an ant lay down its work upon its hill to hark to the song of the lark? Whatever are man's imperfections he is not only the research student, the truth seeker, but what is finer, he is the great appreciator. To be able to appreciate the wonders of the world—that in itself is living the higher life.

Poem by UNCLE JOHN

The Senatorial candidates have struck their smartest gait, an' hawk their wares on busted crates, all up an' down the State. Contendin' voices rant an' roar, to warn us THE of danger. . . . N body's honest any more CONFLICT. . . . The Golden Rule's a sinner! I reckon if we don't elect a rabid politician, we needn't ever much expect to better our condition. . . . And so—each candidate declaims in hate against the other, without a-callin' any names—that he's the Devil's brother. I reckon that it's nip and tuck between contendin' forces—but I would sooner pass the buck, than hear their crime-discourses. Why can't we have two honest men, to run against each other—who'd serve the people now an' then, an' treat 'em as a brother? It seems to me, that politics has got so awful rotten, that we'd be in a better fix with all of it forgotten!

TRADE-MARK ON FRESH EGGS

New Jersey Organization Making Use of Small Sticker on Produce Sold by Members.

A small trade-mark sticker is now put on all eggs sold by members of the North Haledon Leghorn club in Passaic county, N. J. This organization was formed as a result of a meeting of poultrymen of the community with the agricultural extension agent to discuss the development of the poultry industry in that section. Each member pays two cents per bird owned, 8,000 birds being pledged at the first meeting of the club. All members use the trade-mark and guarantee eggs sold under it.

DOULTRY NOTES

Water is almost as important as feed in egg production. A large red comb indicates health and egg production. Males in pens reduce the total egg yield for the year. Early maturing pullets usually make good egg producers. Medium weight hens of any variety are usually most profitable. Ninety eggs pay cost. The 150-egg hen is worth six 100-egg hens. Half blue ointment and half lard or tallow makes a good louse killer. The price of feed does not always disclose its real value in making eggs.

HONEY PHILOSOPHY For 1922

LAST week the New York police arrested a man and rushed him off to Bellevue Hospital to have his sanity locked into because he broke a whiskey bottle on Broadway, stood before the mirror in a shop window, proceeded to undress himself and started to shave—naked as the day he was born. They hustled him into a taxicab and in five minutes the crowd had vanished into the moving city throng. In the great city of Calcutta, a native made a sudden dash for a suit of clothes, put them on, and stood in front of a window to rub some hair tonic on his face wooing a beard, they'd hustle him into a "ghurry," the Indian form of taxicab, and have his bean looked into. Geography is a strange study. East is east and west is west, and as you see the thing so it is—that is, so we insist it is, but is it?

PECULIAR CASE HAD IN JUSTICE THORNE'S COURT THIS WEEK

A case in Justice of the Peace Thorne's Court, this week is one that will be watched with interest by quite a few local people. A man by the name of Herb Simon who travels in a small hack, driving three head of donkeys, and who picks cotton for a living, is the party who is the main figure in the case. Jack Ache, of the London community also comes in for a portion of notoriety in that he is the complaining party.

Ache claims he bought the hack and donkeys from Simon last Sunday afternoon for $30 and it was understood at the time that Simon would deliver them to Ache on Monday morning at the Adams home near London, but on Monday morning, Mr. Simon failed to show up at Adams' and Mr. Ache struck out in search of him and found him down the Mason-Junction road a short distance above Streeter and upon catching up with him asked for his team and hack, but Simon stated he had decided not to sell, whereupon Ache demanded either money back or the outfit. Simon's refusal to give Ache either caused the latter to come to Mason and swear out complaint with Justice Thorne, who issued a warrant for Simon's arrest. Simon was brought here and given an examining trial and placed under bond to await the action of the grand jury and at present Sheriff Leslie has custody and charge of the disputed property. It seems from reports that a poker game comes in somewhere, and it remains to be seen what the final outcome will be.

Mrs. Wes Smith returned home Tuesday from San Antonio. It is said she left her son, C. C., able to be out of the hospital and getting along nicely since his recent operation, but he will remain in San Antonio for a week longer before returning home.

TO THE VOTERS OF ROAD DISTRICT NO. 2:

On the 4th day of November your district will vote on an issue of road bonds, amounting to $9,000. The order for the election was recently passed by the Commissioners' court acting upon a legal petition presented to the court by the requisite number of qualified property tax-paying voters of the district and the reason the petition was presented to the court, and the reason the election has been ordered, is because the district is short that amount of money to meet its share of the expenses of building the road.

It has come to our attention that certain reports have been and are being circulated to the effect that the original district has been changed, and that it is not necessary for the district to vote the bonds for the reason that the Commissioners' court of the county will provide this additional money anyway and the road built to completion just the same. In answer to these reports we wish to state that the road district has not been changed, but remains exactly as originally created. We wish also to state that unless the district votes this additional bond issue, the road will not be completed, but will only be built as far as the money will last. This is the contract that our court made with the contractor, with the knowledge and concurrence of the Federal and State engineers.

We shall regret very much if this issue is defeated, for it will necessitate our acceptance of an incomplete road. It will also necessitate our crippling the district to provide for money to pay for the removal of fences, etc.

If this issue is authorized, the bonds that are issued will be serial, so as that one $300 bond will be retired each year. It will require a tax levy of about 10 cents on the $100 valuation of taxable property to provide the interest and sinking fund for the first year, and will grow smaller each year, so as that an average tax levy of five cents on the $100 taxable property will care for the issue.

If your district will provide this additional money the road will be completed from Mason to the county line in accordance with approved plans and under the present contract, and will be the best and highest type of road construction found anywhere in West Texas. If you do not vote the additional money to complete the road, part of it will have to be of inferior type, and we will have to accept it in that condition. And even if you do vote the issue, you will be putting up only a little more than one-third of the money it will take to build the road. The rest we have procured from the State and Federal governments, and has been allotted to your district by the State and Federal authorities.

We wish it understood that we are not taking sides in this election but are merely undertaking to state the exact facts, so as that the voters themselves may be correctly informed.

CLOSE CO-OPERATION NEEDED IN PREDATORY ANIMAL WORK

"Where there is close co-operation between the Federal and State Governments, predatory animal and rodent extermination work is very much more effective," stated Dr. A. K. Fisher, of the Biological Survey, in representing the United States Department of Agriculture at the Seventh Annual Convention of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association of Texas, at San Angelo, Texas, this summer. There should be better co-operation, particularly in the matter of appropriations, so that the largest amount of money available from both Federal and State sources may be obtained, he pointed out.

"Although rodent work is not so spectacular as destroying wolves, mountain lions, or coyotes," Doctor Fisher declared, "Stockmen are beginning to realize that the damage on their ranges from these little animals is very considerable, and in some cases more than equals that of the predatory animals. The Biological Survey considers that these two branches of work should go hand in hand and that States usually should appropriate about the same amount for each activity."

"The department believes that if the prairie dog alone were exterminated over its entire range, which is economically possible, 4,000,000 more cattle and 4,000,000 more sheep could be raised on that area, due to the increase in the supply of forage."

"Records of the Biological Survey show that in Texas its hunters, cooperating with the State agencies, have killed about 20,000 predatory animals, aggregating a saving of over $2,700,000. Of the total of 17,800 wolves and coyotes captured, more than half had records as killers. Close co-operation of the States with the Bureau of Biological Survey will relieve stockmen of much worry and pecuniary loss thru more adequate protection given to their flocks and herds."

Nervous Break-Down

MRS. ANNIE LANGE, of R. F. D. 1, Burlington, Tex., writes as follows regarding her experience with Cardui: "Some time ago I had a nervous break-down of some kind. . . I was very weak and so nervous. I had fainting spells and suffered a great deal, but more from the weak, trembly, no-account feeling than anything else. I knew I needed a tonic, and needed it badly. I began the use of Cardui to see if I couldn't get some strength, as I knew of other cases that had been helped by its use. I soon saw a great improvement, so I kept it up. I used seven bottles of Cardui, and can say the money was well spent, for I grew well and strong. Am now able to do all my housework and a great deal of work besides."

If you are weak, run-down, nervous and suffer from the ailments peculiar to women, it is very likely that Cardui will help you, in the way it helped Mrs. Lange and has helped thousands of others, during the past 40 years. Ask for, and insist on, Cardui.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
