

THE EVENING NEWS.

4TH QUARTER
NO 53

Amarillo, Texas, July 17, 1900.

25c PER MONTH

Mrs. Al Henson is off on a visit to Hereford, a guest of Mrs. Troy Womble, for a week's rest.

O. W. Lee, the rope walker, is back again; and promises to be at the Canyon City reunion, to help out all he can.

Al Henson has quit the railroad and is back among his friends in Amarillo, and offers his services. See his card.

W. S. Boone, manager of the English Photo Co., passed through the city today en route to Canyon City, to make his "popular priced" photos—10 for 40 cents.

I offer my services to Amarilloans as rough carpenter and house painter. Prices more reasonable and work just as good as many who charge much more.
AL HENSON.

Yesterday evening we visited the Rock Island bridge on North Fork and found the pile driver was nearing the west bank, and by the time this paper reaches you the iron bands of the road will have tied Greer county to the outside world; and by Sunday the first train will reach Granite.—Mangum Sun.

The Pecos road will run a train from Canyon City to Amarillo each night during the reunion and back to Canyon City every morning for the very low rate of 35 cents for the round trip. They will also run a train to and from the reunion grounds for the low rate of 25 cents round trip. Save your nickles little people and enjoy a pleasant ride when you come to the reunion. The reunion promises to be a grand affair. The people of Canyon City are determined to show the old veterans that we will do all we promised to entertain them. The citizens have spared neither time, money nor labor to make it a gathering long to be remembered.—Canyon Stayer.

Agent Guy says only regular trains will be run and that at 55 cents round trip.

Chicago, Ill., July 14, 1900.

J. L. Caldwell, Amarillo, Texas.
Dear Sir—We are now domiciled in comfortable rooms on La Salle avenue, two blocks from Lincoln park and the lake. We have had cool breezes ever since our arrival, as refreshing as the Panhandle breezes. Please send me EVENING NEWS to following address, and oblige

A CONVENTION PRAYER.

The prayer offered by Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow, of Cincinnati, at the opening of the silver republican convention, Kansas City, Mo., July 4:

Our Father who art in heaven. May thy spirit of truth preside over this convention. If we have any claim upon thy favor or any right to call the Father may it be because we have not knowingly trampled upon the rights of any of thy children.

Hallowed be thy name. May the reverent heart find thy presence everywhere and seek to work in harmony with the mighty forces that make for righteousness and peace.

Thy kingdom come. May we speed its coming by making the acts of our legislatures accord with the eternal laws of that moral government which is supreme above the nations.

Thy will be done on earth as in heaven. May we prove the sincerity of our faith by practicing in senate chambers the lofty precepts which we profess in the sanctuary.

Give us this day our daily bread. We do not ask for the bread of others. Give us the bread that is ours by right of useful labor. May the claims of justice be satisfied in the laws of the land that all may have bread, that the starving millions may be fed, not by the hand of charity, but by the labor that wears no chains and owns no master.

Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Save us from that egotism which magnifies the faults of others while blinded to our own. Grant us, in the name of eternal justice, grant us only that measure of liberty which we accord to the weakest of our neighbors.

Lead us not into temptation. Grant us the moral courage to turn our back upon the alluring visions of the kingdoms of this world and their glory, remembering that righteousness alone exalteth a nation.

Deliver us from evil. Now, when the chains are being forged and the golden padlocks are being fashioned for our lips; now, when men are forgetting the faith of the fathers and putting their trust in the might of armies and the majesty of fleets; now, ere the choice goes by forever, deliver us from the greed that takes refuge in the sanction of law, save us from the thrice accursed murder that kills in the name of the Prince of Peace.

On this day of freedom's birth we consecrate our hearts anew to the liberty which our fathers purchased with so great a price. Before the sacred altar of our fathers' God we pledge renewed devotion to the principles which have made the flag we love an emblem of hope to the oppressed of all the world. On that solemn day which comes to men and nations, when the seeds of our sowing shall have borne fruit in national character and the destiny shall be revealed which our hands are shaping, forbid that we shall then have to point for justification to thrones and altars founded upon the bodies and souls of our fel-lowmen; standing before the tribunal of history may we be able to point with confidence to the fact that we have followed the golden rule of justice.

May we never covet the gold that drips with the tears of bondsmen. May we never feel strong enough to do wrong. May we do justly and love mercy and walk humbly with our God, and to Him shall be the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.

Carter Temple is out again, but quite feeble yet.

W. A. Campbell, living 16 miles west, says rain there is greatly needed.

Oliver Lee, the rope walker, is back again, and says he will be at the Canyon reunion.

Mr. Rempers has got the foundation placed for his new residence—in the vicinity of photographer Sherman.

A dozen or more couples from town had a delightful moonlight picnic Friday night on the East Amarillo creek.

Somebody's school account book left at this office. On back is written "School Book Commission." Call and get it.

Geo. C. wolfrath, thinks he will probably fall back to Lubbock, when Mr. ware comes up—about thirty days hence.

Mr. McAlister is moving the big old store across from the steam laundry to a lot in front of J. H. Wills' residence for Mrs. Blackshear's boarding house.

The case of Geo. Hayden vs J. M. Wise is in court, for the settlement of disputed claim to four sections of land settled on by Hayden in the Frying Pan pasture.

A seven-year old child of Mr. A. F. Johnson has been sick a week of what the physician pronounces typhoid fever. Dr. Pierson says such fevers are usually caused by filthy water or milk from cows drinking filthy water.

Dick Stratton, the County Treasurer of Moore, and Capt. Harry Ingerton are in the city, Maj. Jack says the Capt. is here looking up a military opportunity for that boy of his recently arrived, but as for Mr. Stratton's business Col. George Denton will have to be interviewed.

Sheriff Hughes has returned from sheriffs' convention at El Paso. Says all passed off well—so far as he recollects—a little worse for wear, it is true, but all right. Says the hospitality of El Paso was so excessive it was hardly possible to grow over it in a day. So call again.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Amarillo Commercial Club was held at its rooms on Saturday evening, and the following directors were elected for the ensuing year: W. S. Maddrey, H. H. Wallace, R. w. C. Lowery, w. L. Evans, w. B. Plemons, w. J. Clarke, A. B. Spencer, J. D. Hamlin, w. Boyce. At a meeting of the directors, w. Boyce was elected President and R. w. C. Lowery 2d Vice Pres; J. D. Hamlin, Secty.

JULY 17, 1900.

Washington, D. C., July 18, 1900: Fair and warmer tonight and tomorrow. Temperature at Amarillo at 7 o'clock this morning 56; at 2 p. m. 78.

Bud Benson and family, from Henrietta, have moved to the city. He is doing the courtesies at Rickman's.

South Dakota now has full Direct Legislation. It was adopted in November, 1898, as a constitutional amendment by a vote of more than two to one.

The press dispatches from Shanghai say there is now but little doubt that all foreigners in Peking have been killed. Desperate fighting between the China government troops, aiding the foreigners, and the Boxers is reported, with the Boxers victorious and exceedingly cruel.

A hundred thousand soldiers wanted—to subjugate the Filipinos—so say the dispatches this morning.

Three hundred thousand will be our quota to suppress China. That is only asking the men who vote for McKinley and support his policy to step up like men and take a gun. The editor hereof, with the help of Judge Plemons, and numerous others, are ready to enroll them. Well, they must respond—or be drafted. If any soldiers are forced out of Texas they must be McKinley men, of course, who endorse his policy. That's logical. Let them be either men or monkeys.

The war in the Philippines is by no means over. It is now thought that 100,000 troops will be needed to conquer the Island. Never has there been a more unholy war than this with the innocent Filipinos, and surely the God of battles will ultimately be with them. The headlines in the daily papers this morning read this way: "A Cry from the Philippines—'More Soldiers,' is the Demand Coming from Every Department in Luzon. Lawton's Judgment Vindicated—Events Have Proven that a Force of One Hundred Thousand Troops Will Be Needed to Establish American Sovereignty in the Islands—The Filipino Leaders Should Be Banished—American Generals Favor the Establishment of a St. Helena for the Leaders to Deprive the Rebellion of their Financial and Moral Support—Others Favor Behanding the Leaders."

Ex-Confederates.

POSSIBLY the old heroes of "the war of secession", residing in the panhandle, will never have a better opportunity of meeting together again this side of the grave, than at CANYON CITY, JULY 24-28th, 1900.

The editor hereof expects to be there, with his blanket, wagon sheet, bacon, corn bread, canteen, haversack—no gun—but a real confederate flag—and Peale & Brittain say they will keep that canteen full of stuff that will turn as black as it used to do—but then, we don't need it now, you all know, any more. It is to be hoped that the Plains will be well represented, and, too, not by the men only but by their wives also.

We want our names to "go on the rolls" while yet on the stage of action, in order that our children and their children and their children's children in their day and generation may see them in our own hand writing. Besides we want a word in the history that is yet to be of us. We may regret, but are not ashamed, and want our reasons on record for our more than Spartan strife and sacrifices.

The editor hereof will have a record book on the ground and wants, with every name, a short biography, which should be written before hand and ready to be handed in when name is given.

Yes, let us all try and be at Canyon and enroll. There are many good reasons for doing so, not worth while to mention here

Josh Billings had a friend that always let out his secrets—spilling the fat in the fire. He afterwards called him "My friend Damphool," and prayed to be delivered from him. Prof. Hamlin has gone to Colorado Springs for a rest—possibly for a rest from a friend.

Mr. w. W. Meeks, of Hereford, is in the city. Meeks used to live in Amarillo, and has many friends here. He has quit the railroad business; and with a brother will soon open up a store in Hereford. He says Hereford will boom if the Choctaw treats it right by making some terms to use the P. V. from Amarillo, but if it leaves Hereford to the left, Hereford will be left.

Our Charley Cartwright is attending the Moody Theological College in Chicago, has his family with him, and will remain until November. The Evening News likes that boy, and would have him to get at the feet of it's economic Gamaliel, Louis F. Post, of the Public, to be taught practical as well as theoretical religion. You see Mr. Post, Charlie, often, and come back in love with us, and with him—with the world and with yourself. That's right.

Dispatches from the Transvaal say that Lord Roberts is distributing seed to the impoverished Boer farmers. This will doubtless be cited as an instance of magnanimity on the part of a victor. It is a very queer sort of magnanimity that robs a people of independence and then offers them seed corn. But then it is so much easier and pleasanter to be "magnanimous" and "generous" and "benevolent" than to be plainly and simply just.—Post's Chicago Public.
