Band Is Organized

Sudan's Municipal Band is a reality! Within the next few days, the air will be filled with the moaning notes of a beginner learning his scale on his trombone, with the squeaking first attempts on a clarinet, and an occasional puff from the big bass horn. But within a few weeks, these seemingly incoherent sounds will be organized and the result will be real band music, of the Sudan Special variety.

With the first official meeting of the band Tuesday night, definite arrangements were made for carrying on the city musical organization. L. T. Hunt was chosen president of the body, Clint Dyer is secretary, and Mr. John Dean was elected from the "outside" business men as business manager. At present Conrad R. Lam, recently of the Famous Cowboy Band, is engaged as director.

The officers of the band are anxious to enlist a number of other musicians or prospective musicians. Practically all of the present Personnel of the band is composed of beginners, and those who have had the desire to play a band instrument now have the opportunity. Anyone interested should see Mr. Hunt at Hunt's Barber Shop.

Following is the instrumentation of the band, as it now stands. Others are being added constantly.

Director, Conrad R. Lam.

Cornet, Darlan Hutto, Eston

McGee, Leon Gill, Forrest

Weimhold, Finley.

Suicide.

Invention is the most interesting ramification of the human intellect and sometimes the most startling. There is hardly anything that has not received the attention and midnight oil of inventors. In London an old inventor, George Stevens, is found dead—killed by his latest apparatus, a machine for committing suicide painlessly and scientifically. It worked all right. But did you ever hear of a stranger inventive quest?

Automobile Etiquette.

Authorities on etiquette agree that when a man and woman are riding together in a carriage or automobile the woman should be seated on the right. If the vehicle is not so placed that the woman, in stepping in, can easily move over to the right side, good form permits her to take her seat and allow the man to step across to his seat. Some authorities regard it as extreme for a man to walk to the left side of the car to enter. In case there is no door in attendance the man can close the door as he steps into the car.

Quite Short.

Employer — "Your grandmother's funeral service seems to have been pretty brief." Office Boy — "Yes, sir; the game was forfeited in the first inning."

Surprise Birthday Dinner

Mrs. G. C. West, relatives and friends surprised Mr. West with a birthday dinner. August the 3rd carstbegan arriving at eleven o'clock, with full baskets, and the tables were spread with delicious eats.

Mr. West was out on a rabbit hunt and did not return until 12 o'clock.

Seeing so many cars at his house he became alarmed, thinking something serious had happened until he entered the dining room, then he thought of his birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. P. West, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Holbert, Mr. and Mrs. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Smith, J. W. Shockley, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Morris and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roan, and daughter, Miss Lelia B.
