The Conflict

By Ora Lee Woods

Some say that good and bad Are really miles apart, But such wisdom becomes foolishness If I can read my heart. Hell must lie so close to Paradise That almost any day

The singling angles can look out And see the imps at play. The battle rages yet closer still And no boundary lines are fixed, For even within my own weak will The wild and tame are mixed.

Uncle Charlie is very concerned about world problems...

We're very concerned about Uncle Charlie!

You see, being concerned is about as far as Uncle Charlie ever goes. He worries about 1785 ... he gripes about that , but actually getting out and doing some inthose problems...well...that never occurs to him. So, the problems remain...some get worse...new ones arise...and good old Uncle Charlie always has plenty to voice concern

At Lone Star Gas, we believe in concern plus action. And we put that belief to work in the communities we serve, and for our more than one million customers. There are over 6000 of us at Lone Star Gas, and we like to think there wn't an "Uncle Charlie" among us!

OUR HERITAGE - OUR HOPE

(An editorial from the Munsingwear, Inc. corporate, Cross Plains Church newsletter-Diane S. Gifford)

June 14 the American Flag will celebrate its 192nd birthday. When Old Glory first flew back in 1777, perhaps even the men who hoisted her could not imagine Gospel Mission in Cross Plains the vast and wonderful nation that would evolve from Tuesday night, May 20, it was the hope that she symbolized to them.

Although now days some men attempt to defame her in restless surges of condemnation, the American The Eastland County Wom- is still the emblem of the greatest soverign nation on an's Bowling Association held earth. She is the hope of the oppressed people of the its 8th Annual City Bowling world, and she has flown through peace and war, strife and prosperity offering her refuge. No matter how tattered or torn she may become, she still commands

> Her red stripes symbolize the blood spilled in the birth and defense of this nation . . . Her white stripes signify the burning tears shed by Americans who lost their sons . . . Her blue field is indicative of God's heaven under which she flys . . . Her stars clustered together 1224 unify 50 States as one, for God and country.

Underneath this Flag some of the world's greatest men have been reared, patriots who have put their country before their lives to preserve our freedom. In them 684 we find a special uality. Tough as nails andunparalleled in brayery, they still thrill to the sight of their Flag for they know humility. One such man is Colonel John Glen. In a speech before Congress February 26, 1962, the astronaut said. "I still get a hard-to-define feeling inside when the Flag goes by, and I know that you do, too. Let us hope none of us ever loses that feeling.

Woodrow Wilson said, "The things that the Flag stands for were created by the experience of a great people. Everything that it stands for was written by their lives.

It is unfortunate that patriotism has become oldfashioned. Patriotism built the form of government under which this country has grown and prospered. It is interesting to note that we find those who clamor to destroy it offer no better alternatives. No person, no system can be without fault. Men attempt to achieve perfection by striving for it with an orderly and intelligent plan. They realize that the basic plan may contain fau-Its and need change, but that the good qualities outweigh the weaknesses. It is widely recognized toat in our society today there are changes and reforms needed. Fortunately, the domeratic system which reflects the opinions of men gains nothing. It is the thinking be altered. The States must belong to the people, not the people to the State.

Our patriots throughout the years have fought to preserve our system, they have upheld our country and our Flag with the knowledge that although the system may not be perfect, it provides us with the opportunity to affect change as needed.

It takes courage to be loyal - to be an old-fashionthey can talk to their gover- ed patriot. Ask yourself if you are up to the task, if you nor, they can be much more are as brave as those who have gone before you. If you are, prove it by displaying the American Flag in a prominent place. And, on June 14, salute the Flag with your heart and your prayers . . . she is still Our Heritage and Our Hope.

-The public is invited to Flag Day Ceremonies in Eastland on Saturday, June 14 at the Post Office.
