ADEQUATE OIL LEGISLATION IS BEING URGED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Oil Administrator Harold Ickes today said the supreme court decision invalidating the hot oil provision of NIRA "emphasizes the necessity for specific and adequate legislation for government control of the oil industry."

Indications were that federal officials were considering a move to have congress declare the industry a public utility and give the government complete control over production, refining and marketing.

Admitting the adverse ruling of the court on section 9-C of NIRA "is a serious setback," Ickes said, "While we intend to do the best we can with the means still available to us, the basic remedy rests with congress."

The decision of the court in my opinion emphasized the necessity for adequate legislation to effect a rational conservation program designed to prevent the waste of oil and gas resources and to prevent the demoralization of one of our largest basic industries."

DALLAS, Jan. 8.—Considered generally of paramount importance to the oil industry of the Southwest today following a ruling of the United States Supreme Court branding as unconstitutional NIRA legislation for regulation of the industry, were these two questions:

1.—Will the Texas railroad commission be able to clamp down on the flow of hot oil from East Texas fields as did the federal board set up under the NIRA, or will a flood of illegally produced crude and gasoline follow?

2.—Will the result of the decision enactment in a form proper under the constitution—provisions for federal regulation of the industry or will the states concerned work out a state compact for regulation?

There was diversity of opinion among informed sources on both questions.

Scouts Will Have Court of Honor On Next Friday Night

The Boy Scouts of Troop 9 are to have a court of honor Friday night of this week, since they have not had a court of honor in some time. Every Scout who is ready for advancement is urged to be present.

There were 28 members at the meeting last Friday night and the troop is expecting at least four more members to be there next time. Every scout who is ready to join two full troops, as the troop is divided into two tribes now.

The Stag patrol is furnishing the program this week and is planning to have an even better program than the one last Friday night, which was furnished by the Fox patrol.

If all the members in either tribe or in both tribes are present they are to go on a hike, so every member of Troop 9 has been urged to be present next Friday night, prepared to see some real Scout work carried out.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE PRESENT CITY COMMISSION OUTLINED AT END OF YEAR

A comparative statement of the accounts of the City of Ranger as of May 1, 1933, the date on which the present commission took office, and as of Dec. 31, 1934, has been worked out for the Ranger Times by Roy Jansson, city secretary, showing what has been accomplished by the commission, composed of Dr. Harry A. Logsdon, mayor, Walter Harwell, Judge W. S. Adamson, Colonel Brasher and E. H. Mills.

The report shows a net gain in cash on hand in the six major funds of the City of Ranger was raised from $12,833.22 to $29,243.97, an increase of $16,360.75, while at the same time worn out equipment was replaced by new equipment valued at $7,486.17 and the outstanding warrants were reduced from $17,131.09 to $11,872.98.

In addition, during this 20-month period, the city has met its payroll promptly and in cash, and has paid its current bills as they became due.

The city is now in a position to, and will, during the year 1935, meet its interest requirements and retire several thousand dollars of its bonds.

The statement of accounts for the two dates, when the commission took office and at the end of the calendar year 1934, show the following figures:

General	May 1, 1933	Dec. 31, 1934
Cash on hand and in bank	$12,833.22	$29,243.97
Outstanding warrants	$17,131.09	$11,872.98
Worn out equipment	$7,486.17	$0.00
Net gain		$16,360.75

From these figures it will be seen that the net gain in cash in all funds has been increased by $16,360.75.

Time warrants outstanding have been reduced from $17,131.09 to $11,872.98, a reduction of $5,258.11.

Class In General Science Visits at City Water Plant

The general science class of the Morton Valley High school, accompanied by their teacher, Nonnie A. Smith, visited the city water plant in Ranger and saw how raw water is taken from the lake, treated to purify it and is finally pumped through the mains of the city where it is distributed to the water customers.

W. C. Blackmond accompanied the class gave an interesting and instructive lecture on the process through which the water goes in making it fit for human consumption and free from contamination.

The members of the class, as well as the teacher, were very much impressed with the precautions taken to see that Ranger citizens get only pure water, and many questions were answered during the course of the tour of inspection of the waterworks plant.

The members of the class who made the trip were Edith Adams, Ruby Yarbrough, Golda Bargett, Mittie Williamson, Ethel Vane, G. W. Tankersley, W. T. Gooden, Buster Wheat, Charles Peoples, Clifford Nix, C. F. Eakins and Margie McCray.

Piggly Wiggly Has New Meat Counter

A new meat counter, which gives much more room and is much more attractive in appearance, has been installed by Piggly Wiggly.

The new counter, which contains electric refrigeration, is of the same type as the fish counter that was installed during the summer and has the same color of green predominating.

The new arrangements not only gives much more room to the meat department, but allows a better display, so that the customer can see the large variety of meats handled.

WAS GIVEN A SENTENCE IN TEXAS PRISON

McALESTER, Ok., Jan. 4.—Ernest Oglesby, whose criminal exploits were recorded in Texas as well as Oklahoma, died in the electric chair at state's prison here early today for the murder of Douglas Gates, Oklahoma City policeman on Dec. 3, 1933.

Oglesby went to his death alone when two other doomed men who also were to have died this morning received stays from the United States supreme court.

Last minute legal efforts to save Oglesby's life were fruitless, however, and pleas to Governor Murray by his mother, who came to the capital from her home in Baird, Texas, were in vain.

So far as anyone could recall the double intervention by justices of the United States supreme court to save the other two doomed men was the first action of its kind on record for Oklahoma.

Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes of the United States supreme court late yesterday afternoon stayed the execution of Bill Prescott, sentenced to die for the killing of Joe C. Bell, McAlester salesman, April 21, 1933, until Feb. 4, 1935.

Associate Justice Willis Vandevanter of the United States supreme court issued a stay for Jess Hollins, negro, convicted of attacking a white girl in Creek county Dec. 21, 1931.

The Oklahoma supreme court refused to stop the execution of Oglesby when it denied application for a writ of habeas corpus.

Ernest Oglesby first entered the Texas penitentiary June 23, 1927, to serve two years on conviction of theft in Stephens county. He was discharged in 1929 and a few months later was sentenced for burglary and theft in Eastland, Stephens, Callahan and Shackelford counties. He re-entered the prison in May, 1929. Released to Seury county on a bench warrant on July 6, 1929, he escaped while being taken to that county.

Acorns Are Used In Feeding Hogs

BURNET, Texas.—Acorns, formerly nothing but a waste product, are being used this year for feed.

The extreme high price of corn which sells for $2.40 per cwt. here, prompted S. E. Guthrie, farmer, to buy up acorns which he used for hog feed.

Guthrie purchased 3,100 pound of acorns at 60 cents per cwt. and reported that his hogs thrived on their new diet.

Other farmers took up the idea and now acorns are rapidly becoming a staple feed crop.

Wolves Are Common In Dallas County

Brighten up with ALL-BRAN!

You've had days when you've felt discouraged and low. Nothing seemed to go right. Frequently these dreary days can be traced to common constipation, due to lack of "bulk" in your meals.

This ailment may cause headaches and loss of energy. Correct it by eating a delicious cereal.

Laboratory research shows Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and food-iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN resists digestion better than the fiber in fruits and vegetables. It is gentle—and often more effective. Isn't this natural food better than taking patent medicines—often harmful?

Two tablespoons of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. With each meal, in chronic cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

abandoned by the town known now as Mercedes. A postoffice was established at Diaz in April, 1907, but a month later the name was changed to San Benito in honor of Ben Hicks, one of the owners of the original townsite.

Kilgore
The village of Danville, hidden deep in the pines of East Texas, was a trading post long before the Civil war. Wagon trains on their way west stopped for repairs and rest. A few settlers lingered to clear timber and build homes in the Sabine bottom lands.

When the railroad came in 1872, a new town was formed. It was named Kilgore in honor of Buck Kilgore, representative in Washington from the second congressional district.

It was Buck Kilgore who astonished the nation in 1877 by kicking down a door in a house chamber which had been locked to keep him out of a quorum then being formed.

Fifty-three years later the name again received national attention when the town became the center of the great East Texas oil field. Before the advent of oil Kilgore was a village of 800 inhabitants. Since the completion of the Bateman-Crim well it has grown to 15,000.

Big Spring
The town of Big Spring owes its existence and its name to a large spring which was important in early day history as it was the only watering place for Indians, scouts and pioneers between the Colorado and Pecos rivers.

Around the spring have been found many tons of buffalo bones, many Indian arrow heads, rocks used by the Indians in grinding their corn, Indian beads, and trinkets and implements used by Indians and early settlers.

The spring supplied an abundance of water to townspeople for many years, but when the municipal waterworks was established, the vein of water which furnished the spring was tapped and eventually it ceased to flow.

Even as in bridge, you can expect the real argument to come after the New Deal has been played out.

TRY THIS BETTER WAY OF STARTING YOUR CAR IN EXTREMELY COLD WEATHER

Automobile makers recommend this method of starting in cold weather, except for cars with automatic starters. Try it for a quick, easy start without danger of "flooding" by too much choking.

If your motor does not start instantly on Special Winter-Blend Conoco Bronze Gasoline, it needs mechanical service.

1. Leave ignition OFF. Pull choke out all the way. Push down your clutch pedal and keep it down.
2. Open hand-throttle control. Leaving ignition OFF, step on starter for several motor revolutions.
3. Push choke back in. Turn ignition on. Step on starter. Motor should fire instantly.
4. Warm up motor gradually. Use choke sparingly, only enough to get smooth firing.

4-H Clubs Made $20,240,000 For The Year of 1934

CHICAGO.—Achievements of rural boys and girls in 4-H clubs reached a new peak in 1934, announces G. L. Noble, managing director of the National Committee on boys and girls club work. Livestock, crops and handicraft of the approximately 920,000 club members in 1934 will total in value about $20,240,000 according to careful estimates. Prizes won in local, state and national exhibitions and contests provided by hundreds of individuals, business firms and civic, educational and agricultural groups reach nearly $1,000,000. These include over 35,000 educational trips and scholarships valued at $10 to $400. All of these have been effective and wholesome incentives.

The new year, with assured higher price levels for farm products, a drought of record severity past, less exactions on 4-H leaderships for crop control and relief, and a better complexion in the rural field promises greater 4-H gains. Club leaders and members throughout the nation for some months have been hotly contesting for the largest single prize ever to be awarded, a $5,000 completely furnished and landscaped community building, gift of Sears Roebuck to the county showing the most progress in 4-H work in 1934. Additional prizes of $3,000 will be awarded three other sectional winning counties in the contest.

Farm groups are receiving the active cooperation of civic, fraternal, church and other groups in the counties in preparing entries in the contest which is conducted by the National 4-H committee in cooperation with extension agents and the U. S. department of agriculture. A non-profit corporation is to be set up in the winning counties to administer the awards. The building presentation is to be a gala national 4-H event to take place early next summer.

Resident Engineer's Office Transferred

Wesley Hall, for the past year resident highway engineer at Eastland, has been transferred to the Brownwood office of the highway department and will there in the future.

Hall began work this week on the highway from Rising Star west, a section of road for which contract was recently awarded by the highway department. He will have charge of all highway work in Eastland county as in the past. The office was discontinued at Eastland, according to District Engineer, Leo Ehlinger, because Brownwood is near the construction project than Eastland, and more accessible for engineer and those in charge of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall moved to Eastland the first of 1934 when he assumed duties. Prior to that for more than a year Hall was at Coleman with the highway department and before being transferred to Eastland he was in the Brownwood resident engineer's office for nearly two years.

ON TEXAS FARMS

Because the work done by the farm demonstration agent in terracing proved valuable to farmers in Montgomery county, the county court has employed a terracing assistant for a period of 50 days and invested in a crawler type tractor and a grader to be used only in terracing.

In the drought emergency of 1934 D. G. Vick, Young county rancher, found cotton to be the cheapest and best feed he could raise for his 17,000 head of sheep.

As used by him the cotton was stripped and stored for winter feeding which he values at four cents per pound. In 1934 his plantings averaged 250 pounds per acre. No other lands planted in feed stuffs produced so much, Mr. Vick states.

Tanning has taken firm hold in Runnels county according to Elmo V. Cook, farm demonstration agent. More than 700 pounds of hide were tanned and cattle producers in the county still have 500 hides being held for tanning leather. The work was introduced by Mr. Cook with a home leather tanning school. This was so useful he plans to follow it with several additional schools.

Keeping records on her garden enables Annie Piwetz, Fort Bend county 4-H club girl, to report for 1934 that her seeds and plants cost $5.39; that her family consumed 568 pounds of fresh vegetables valued at $46.08; and that she canned 38 quarts of food from the garden which were valued at $7.

BRADY.—Twenty-one acres of sandy hillside land terraced two years ago produced seven bales of lint cotton for Ben Mayo of McCulloch county, while surrounding farms which were not terraced averaged about one bale to seven or eight acres, according to James D. Prewitt, farm demonstration agent. The candy land in the Voca community where the farm is located seldom averages more than 100 pounds of lint per acre, but since the demonstration of the increased yield on the Mayo farm 12 farmers of the community are terracing their land.

LaGRANGE.—During four years of 4-H club work, Clifton Galt of the Willow Springs community in Fayette county made a net profit of $172.09, according to W. H. DuPuy, farm demonstration agent. Young Galt started out in 1931 with one pig. In 1932 he raised two breeding hogs and 100 chickens, and in 1933 he increased his swine herd to 16 hogs and raised 420 chickens. He also grew five acres of corn.

His fourth year of work consisted of raising 797 fryers that he sold on the Houston market, raising 134 pullets for his flock, and keeping records on his flock of 229 hens. His swine herd consisted of 43 animals in 1934, and he produced 400 bushels of corn on 10 acres of land.

COMANCHE.—By the use of night lights, automatic water system, culling and other modern methods, A. H. Caraway of Comanche county made a profit of $238.37 for the year on his flock of 197 white leghorn hens, according to J. A. Barton, farm demonstration agent.

Mr. Caraway fed grain and mash continually and used lights close to the feed and water troughs each night from Sept. 1 to March 1. Hens were housed in a 16 by 14 feet house of the shed roof type and in a semi-monitor type which was 20 by 24 feet.

Moreover, we do not pretend to assert that this compilation covers all the sales of the stores listed. In fact, most cases do not and cannot include sale of bootleg liquor. The number of pints sold without prescriptions was determined by taking the total purchases of the store as reflected in common carrier records, and checking these against liquor sold under prescription.

Common carrier records were inadequate, and it is believed much liquor is transported from Louisiana and New Mexico of which there is no carriers' record.

The list by cities, accounting only for liquor purchased or received from a reporting agency and not including liquor from bootleg or unreported sources:

Abilene.—One druggist examined. In six months sold 1,693 pints with prescription, 507 pints without prescription.

Amarillo.—Two stores examined. "A" sold 847 legal (with prescription) pints and 59 other pints in five months. "B" sold 1,207 legal pints and 468 other pints in six months.

Austin.—Four stores examined. Their reported sales, all without prescription were: 42,828 pints in six months; 40,464 pints in six months; 20,824 pints in four months.

Dallas.—Three stores were examined, each covering six months; the first sold 26,597 pints, none of which was prescribed; the second reported 1,226 pints of legal whiskey and 390 pints of unprescribed whiskey; the third 498 pints of prescribed whiskey and 5,377 pints of other whiskey.

Fort Worth.—Two stores examined for six months. They totaled 310 pints of prescribed whiskey and 696 pints sold without prescription.

Houston.—Four stores were examined: The four sold a total of 412 pints of legal whiskey. Without prescription, the amounts were 10,553 in four months; 13,946 in four months; 13,946 in six months; and 1,093 pints in six months.

Kingsville.—One store, in six months, 2,480 pints of legal whiskey and 2,024 pints without prescription.

Lampasas.—One store, 242 pints with prescription, 2 without.

Marlin.—One store, 143 pints with prescription, 95 without.

Mineral Wells.—291 pints with prescription and 141 pints without in one store examined.

Research Shows Tire Treads Wear Lower In Winter

During the past few years careful research in the tire industry has shown that good tires show comparatively little wear during the colder months of late fall and winter. Heat, both atmospheric and that generated within the tire itself, is the thing that determines road wear to a large extent. Low temperatures tend to reduce the heat to a point where wear is minimized.

It was pointed out by Dick Murray, tire department of the local Montgomery Ward store that scientific testing has shown that if normal or 100 per cent service is given at 64 degrees Fahrenheit the service is reduced to from 60 per cent to 40 per cent of normal when the temperature is between 85 and 100 degrees, while at winter's low temperature mileage steadily improves until at 32 degrees, the freezing point, it is almost double normal.

Mr. Murray also claimed that the new first quality Riverside tires use a new kind of tread compound that reduces tread heat as much as 30 per cent regardless of weather conditions.

Members of the committee are: Dr. J. W. E. H. Beck, DeKalb, chairman.

Frank H. Rawlings, Fort Worth, vice chairman.

Wilbourne B. Collier, Eastland, secretary.

W. R. Poage, Waco, Will M. Martin, Hillsboro, Frank B. Tirrey of Waco is serving as attorney.

Clifford Doggett's Motion For a New Trial Overruled

Motion of Clifford Doggett for new trial in the murder case in which he was assessed the death penalty Nov. 23 in 88th district court was overruled in the same court at a hearing Friday.

Doggett was found guilty and given the death sentence on a charge of murder in connection with the death of L. F. Threet, Cisco rancher, on Threet's ranch, nine miles west of Cisco. He was tried in Baird district court previous to the Eastland trial and given 99 years.

Mary Lou Howell and Elmer Van Cleave await trial on the same charges as faced by Doggett.

J. Frank Sparks, attorney for Doggett, indicated Saturday he would endeavor to take the case to the court of criminal appeals at Austin.

HOUSTON.—For Titus Scott, 39-year-old Negro, jail is "home." He was recently locked up for the 55th time.

UNEMPLOYED PAY DUES INTO ORGANIZATION

By VERNON A. MCGEE AUSTIN Jan. 8.—Legislators United Press Staff Correspondent are not alone in considering destitution a problem. Unemployed masses of Texans feel that way too.

For a year or more the jobless of Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco and other cities have scraped together enough pennies to pay dues to one of several organizations of unemployed men.

These separate groups now propose to merge into one organization "in order to be more effective in securing relief and in an approach to state legislatures."

"The purpose of the present movement is to unify and further the original objects of mass action under the name 'Unemployed Workers Industrial Union,'" announced R. S. Mayhall, one of the organization leaders here.

"Mass action for what?" he was asked.

"For more adequate relief," Mayhall replied. He denied any "Russian or Communist" motives behind mass organization.

"While co-operating in movements to inspire mass action in the form of demonstrations, the Austin group contends that to effect permanent progress a philosophy that can be promulgated by the workers will be necessary if the American people are to be held in any great national movement," Mayhall said.

Accordingly, he and others are propounding "Exuviate" as a philosophy.

Webster's New International dictionary defines "exuviate" as a zoological term meaning "to shed an old covering; to molt. To cast as a shell or skin."

Mayhall was a little more explicit. "Exuviate philosophy comprehends the dissolution of parties, clans and sects, the overthrow of hierarchies, monarchies and monks; in fine disarmament."

"We contend that leaders in our political, fraternal, religious and labor bodies become the hirelings of capitalism, and that a mental revolution is necessary to free the people from a subsidized leadership."

It seems that Mayhall and his colleagues would like for Texas

Strong Defense Holland's Plan As Europe Arms

By H. C. BURMAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
THE HAGUE.—Surrounded by fast moving countries, Holland is preparing for non-aggressive defense.

Realizing that war in Europe is not an impossibility, the government intends to construct more airplanes and anti-aircraft guns while maintaining up-to-date efficiency in the army and navy both at home and in the Netherlands Indies.

Minister of Defense L. N. Deckers emphasized the necessity for strong modern defensive equipment in a recent passionate speech in the second chamber when defending his defense budget. He made it clear that Holland, while not needing big battleships, must have fast destroyers, first-class submarines and minelayers and a good air fleet. Holland's only policy, he declared, was to defend herself should she be attacked.

Holland's treacherous, shallow coasts and river mouths would make the building of big ships a waste of money, as the government is confident that the coast can be safeguarded with small, modern, defensive equipment. In the Netherlands Indies, however, it is felt that a number of light cruisers should form the backbone of the navy.

A further step in the modernization of the navy in the Indies will be the replacement of native sailors by Hollanders. Natives, it has been found in past experiences, cannot always be relied upon in all circumstances. During the recent debate on the defense budget Deckers bitterly attacked the social democratic party, accusing them of having undermined discipline in the army and navy for years until the government recently took the strictest measures.

The debate revealed that in the event of hostilities in Europe Holland would follow her policy of armed neutrality and would automatically join the country opposed to the country which would attack Holland. In such a case the government would assist as much as possible in guarding the civil population from the horrors of aerial warfare, but it would be up to the municipalities to take steps to protect their own townfolk.

While preparing defensive measures against possible aggression, it is emphasized that the government will continue to participate in all movements aiming at better international understanding and the reduction of armaments.

Emergency Legislation

The legislature will find itself during the first two weeks of its session, dealing again with emergency phases of relief.

The first question will be finding state provision to care for the "unemployables" to be dropped by federal relief rolls Feb. 1.

The diversion of the rest of the state bond issue, and some other means to provide state care for the disabled, the infirm and similar persons classified as unable to work will be sought.

On its face, the federal regulations seem extremely capricious and harsh. Those able to make a living will be failed by the federal government, if they happen to have failed to devise a way to make a living. Those unable to must shift for themselves. Able-bodied, strapping men in the prime of life will be able to march to relief headquarters and draw groceries. The invalids, extremely aged, women untrained for work, regardless of circumstances, will be turned away with the word "this food is only for the able-bodied."

Some communities show no evidence of doing anything to help themselves. They could strive to reduce local taxes and build local trade.

Lack of ambition is a disease. Some people have bad cases of it.

Roller Coaster Road Straightened

ODESSA, Tex.—Texas' famed "roller coaster" highway, whose dips and turns in following the natural contours of the sand dunes are so steep that they never fail to give motorists a thrill, will soon be a thing of the past.

Contract for rebuilding the stretch, which extends for seven miles in Ward county, has been let by the State Highway department. The roadway is to be turned into a level stretch of highway.

It will be made into a level stretch of highway, that is, if the elements permit. For the sand hills through which the road passes are constantly shifting with every change of the prevailing winds.

When the "roller coaster" road was built in 1917, the first road through that section, natives were skeptical. The first wind storm, they said, would bury the highway under feet of sand.

The engineer on the job replied that by building the highway to follow the natural contours of the dunes, the wind could be made to sweep it clean rather than cover it up.

The first sandstorm that came proved that the engineer was right. When the air cleared after several days, the highway was clean, and polished smooth as marble.

Now the highway commission is building a new road, straight and level, utterly disregarding the century old threat of the dunes that have buried Indian camps, fences and everything else that got in their way.

Will the dunes at last submit? Old timers shake their heads. The highway department, they say, will have to hire a crew of sand shovellers to keep the new roadway clear.

Appointees Will Be Named Soon

AUSTIN, Tex.—With the election of a Speaker accomplished, early announcement of Governor-elect Allred's long-delayed appointments is expected. Until they are made some of the departments will be unable to get down to satisfactory work routine. Recently Ranger circles have been disturbed by reports that the old force that dropped out when Mrs. Ferguson became Governor may go back. Some members of the old force have been visiting the capitol. Some may be again on the force; others will not.

Former Adjutant General (Ranger Bill) Sterling is now busy with oil wells in Bastrop county. Former Ranger Captain Frank Hamer, trailer of Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker, is "out" so far as Allred's ranger plans are concerned. Former Ranger Captain Tom Hickman of Fort Worth has a good berth with the state comptroller's department.

Ranger Captain D. E. Hamer, brother of Frank, may possibly remain at the head of the organization. He has done some valuable investigating for Allred. He doesn't seek "glory arrests" for himself or his rangers. To them his orders are to keep the outlaws on the jump.

"Keep them moving; don't let them settle down in a safe hide-out. If they are on the jump someone will get them. If we get them, fine. If we run them onto someone else, that's fine too. The main thing is to get them, no matter who gets the credit."

Ranger Joe Osoba, another of the modern rangers who has made quite a reputation, probably will go. Osoba is outspoken. His remarks about a member of the Attorney General's department seem to bar him from any chance of re-remain under Allred. That will be particularly true if Former Assistant Attorney General Richard Waters of Texarkana should be made adjutant general instead of insurance commissioner.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVEK BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they don't do it. They only move the bowels and a more movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your downward-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Your skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, seasoned when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of substitutes. Beware of cheap imitations. © 1935, M. C. V.

Insurance Company Records Reveal Annual Business

D. L. Jameson, who has been an agent for the Southwestern Life Insurance Company of Dallas for the past five years, feels, as do others in the largest insurance organization in Texas, that 1934 marked a definite return, as indicated by the increase in the amount of insurance in force during the year.

Owing to the splendid patronage he has received during the five years he has been an agent for the company, and to the cooperation of the company, Mr. Jameson has been able to attend each of the annual conventions of the company and has enjoyed certain privileges that he might not otherwise have been able to obtain.

Of all the indices of Texas business conditions, perhaps none offers more definite and specific proof of progress than the annual statement of a large life insurance company which for thirty-two years has done business in every nook and corner of Texas, but which writes no insurance outside of Texas. Such a company is the Southwestern Life of Dallas, the only one of the large Texas companies which does not go outside the State for business. It is by far the largest United States company operating in only one state. By reporting an increase of more than fifteen millions insurance in force during 1934, the first substantial gain since 1930, this Texas institution offers significant evidence of business improvement in Texas.

A record of the Company's size for the past five years writes the history of the depression. Up to the end of 1929, the Southwestern had made large gains annually for many years, having doubled in size during the previous six years. Early in 1930 losses and surrenders began to be felt, and the gain during that year was approximately one-third of that of 1929. On December 31, 1931 the Company had less insurance in force than it had at the beginning of the year. The next year, 1932, generally conceded to be the worst for nearly all lines of business, proved the most difficult for Texas policyholders. Notwithstanding the production of thirty-seven millions of new insurance by the Company's agents, the total volume in force fell off more than fourteen millions. Recovery commenced in 1933 when a gain of about one and a half millions was recorded. The gain of fifteen millions for 1934 has just been announced in the annual report to policyholders of President C. F. O'Donnell.

A comparison of the annual statements for 1929 and 1934 reveals some interesting changes in the Company's investment practice, due to the introduction by the New Deal of its government lending agencies. Prior to 1930 the Southwestern Life found a ready outlet for its reserves and surplus funds in the mortgage loan field, and 55 per cent of its assets were invested in loans on Texas farms and city property. At the end of 1934 only 36 per cent of its assets were in mortgages, while the bond item had increased from 8 per cent to 22 per cent.

The tendency toward increasing liquidity is revealed in the larger proportion of cash and United States Government bonds, now more than five millions, or approximately 12 per cent of all assets, as compared to 8 per cent at the end of 1929. While the normal income of a legal reserve life insurance company far exceeds its normal disbursements, the companies have been called upon in recent years to meet heavy withdrawals of policy reserves or "cash values." Many millions of dollars have been loaned to Texas citizens on the security of their policies, and doubtless many a business and family budget has been saved by these emergency funds.

President O'Donnell says that the demand for policy loans has been steadily decreasing, however, and the life companies are turning again to long-term investments. With gradual retirement of the Federal Government from the real estate loan business, the companies are anticipating an improved demand for first mortgages. Properly selected Texas mortgage loans have given a good account of themselves during the depression. The Southwestern Life's figures for 1934 reveal that interest collected on real estate loans during the year yielded a return of six per cent on a total investment of more than sixteen millions. Since organization in 1903, the Company has loaned approximately forty-six millions to Texas citizens on Texas real estate.

Elks Will Resume Wrestling Cards

The Ranger Elks club announces the re-opening of its wrestling arena, which will take place Monday night, Jan. 14, with one of the best cards of the season. This will be the first time the wrestling bouts have been held since Dec. 10.

In the first bout Mervin Barakman, 158-pounder, champion of Canada and the Northwest, will take on Tuffy McMullen of Breckenridge, 156-pounder, in a two-hour time limit bout for the best two out of three falls.

In the second event, which will be unusual because three men will be seen in the ring in action at once, will see Andy the Bear, 400 pounds of man, wrestling with Lew Kodrick and Dutch Aultman, in a one-hour match. The two wrestlers will try to get the great hulk of Andy's pinned to the floor, which is considered a two-man job.

Farm Census Is Being Taken Over The Entire Nation

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—An army of 25,000 census workers is now enumerating the nation's farms, farm population, crop production in 1934, and the number of livestock. Each enumerator has been allotted a specific territory to canvass and has been trained in "schools" held during December.

There are 100 inquiries on the farm schedule being used by the census enumerators. These inquiries relate to the tenure, age, and race of the farm operator; the acres in the farm; the classes of land, according to use in 1934; the farm value; number of farm dwellings occupied and unoccupied; farm population; the number of persons now living on farms who lived in non-farm residences five years ago; the number of family laborers and hired help; the acreage and the production of crops in 1934; the number of livestock on farms; and the production of milk, eggs, wool, and mohair in 1934.

The enumerators will finish their work during January and the farm schedules should be on their way to Washington by Feb. 1. In Washington, these farm schedules will be edited, coded, and tabulated and the results published.

Because of the effect of drought and economic conditions, this is perhaps the most important agricultural census ever taken. The work of enumeration, editing, and tabulation will be facilitated as much as possible so that these data may be available in planning and carrying out crop and livestock,

Meat-Curing Plants In South Cutting Loss from Spoilage

WASHINGTON. — Hog-killing time in the south need not be followed by wholesale reports of meat spoilage this year. Kenneth F. Warner, extension meat specialist for the U. S. department of agriculture reports a big increase in the last two years in the number of farmers who are taking advantage of cold storage facilities to aid in curing the home supply of meat.

Warner estimates that in Georgia alone last year more than 15,000,000 pounds of pork was cured with the help of artificial chilling. Within the last two years about 30 ice plants in Mississippi have gone into the business of curing meat for farmers, and all expect to continue this winter. Last winter was the third season for Louisiana, but approximately 4,000,000 pounds was cured under refrigeration. Farmers in other southern states, including the Carolinas, Florida and Alabama, are likewise taking advantage of improved refrigeration facilities to cut down their losses through spoilage of meat. There is a need for cold storage for curing meat in winter as far north as Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

There are two principal methods of chilling pork. One is to organize the farmers in a community or county and offer a volume of business large enough to make it worth while for the local ice manufacturer to provide storage facilities at a reasonable cost. In localities where this plan is successful the charge has been from 1 cent to 1.5 cents a pound for the curing period, which averages about 45 days.

Ice plants usually furnish the salt and sugar necessary in curing meat. Where there are no local facilities for cold storage farmers in many sections have built small insulated boxes where meat may be packed with ice for the curing period. Larger houses, with storage space enough for an entire community have proved successful in several counties in Georgia. Engineers of the department more than a year ago designed and made available to farmers plans for a home-made meat curing box. To date several thousand copies of these plans have been distributed by county agents and the state agricultural colleges to farmers, chiefly in the south.

The cost of curing meat by the two methods does not differ greatly. A large community meat-curing plant near Americus, Ga., last year cured approximately 45,000 pounds in four months at a cost of about a cent a pound. Another co-operatively owned and operated plant at Stillson, Ga., cured 50,000 pounds last year for a cent a pound, allowing 10 per cent for depreciation of equipment.

Because of the warm spells in mid-winter in the south spoilage of meat is so commonplace that it had come to be accepted as one of the risks which a farmer must take, says Warner. "With so many demonstrations of practical meat curing under refrigeration the time has now come when the farmers of the south need no longer assume this risk. Refrigeration costs something, of course, but meat is accepted as payment by many of the curing plants when the owner does not have the ready cash. The recent rise in the price of hogs and pork thus increases the amount of 'cold weather insurance' that can be purchased with a pork loin or ham."

Texas Turkey Crop Brought Millions

SAN ANTONIO — South and Central Texas contributed about $2,000,000 worth of turkeys to the carol markets during Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's day, according to a government survey.

The survey estimated that the South and Central sections shipped about 600 cars of turkeys. This was estimated to be about half the number shipped from the entire state.

During the latter part of the season prices rose to nearly 2 cents a pound for first class birds considerably higher than the opening market.

TACOMA, Wash. — The United States gained in citizens when William Krause, Chehalis fuel dealer, obtained his final papers. His application showed 19 children, all living. There was not room for their names on the regular form, so an extra sheet of paper was pasted on.

PETER'S GREAT CONFESSION

Luke 9:18-26; 1 Peter 2:5, 6

It was in the highlands of Capernaum, 25 miles north of the sources of the River Jordan, in the year 29 A. D., that Jesus retired from the crowd to pray. There in the quiet beauty of the up lands Jesus found solitude and peace in his prayers with the disciples near by.

His yearning for companionship is shown by his questions. He anticipated what his Father would acknowledge of him to three of his disciples within a week when he would be transfigured.

"Whom say the people that I am?" is the leading question to teach the greatest lesson to his disciples.

After they had answered Him as to the people's belief, He no doubt with great penetration that brought realization to the disciples present, asked the question, "But whom say ye that I am?"

Peter who was so outspoken and often wrong, was amazed as his "spiritual insight was opened and under the guidance of the Holy Spirit spoke quickly, "The Christ of God."

In that declaration he confessed the deity of Christ and his own acceptance of that belief so deeply grounded in his heart that even though he stumbled, fell and denied he could never get away from that experience.

After Jesus saw that their faith was grounded He taught them many things of His life, death and triumphant rising from the grave. Also He opened their minds to what a life lost in service for Him would be and warned them of gain and the beauty of His word taught unashamed.

"For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?"

Years later when Peter wrote his first epistle from Babylon to the persecuted Christians in Asia Minor, he declared Jesus was the chief corner stone of the spiritual house of those which unshakably build upon that foundation.

"Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, elect, precious; and he that believeth on him shall not be put to shame."

That same question is ringing down through the years with a greater force than radio, to the hearts of men. "But whom say ye that I am?" There is no answer to a question known more important from infants to wisest men than the one which answers Christ. Can every person who claims to be a Christian say with deep inward conviction that comes with the gracious experience of meeting Christ, say "Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God."

In the hurry of reaching and striving for higher and better things there is no lasting foundation but Christ. If Christians know Christ they know God, the Father, God, the Son, and God, the Holy Spirit, which will open the understanding of mind and heart to the great upbuilding truths contained in His word.

"For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it."

Such faith is not gained in a day or altogether in the rush of the world. Medical science today is treating soul sickness in a new way. Quiet and beautiful places are built where patients can recover among the hills and in solitude.

Christians can take time from time to time and retire to a quiet and a beautiful place even as Jesus did to pray and gain strength to meet the world as the Master would have them do.

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help."

My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth."

Golden Text: "And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God" (Matt. 16:16).

MINGUS

Mr. Robert Kroechemer, formerly of Mingus who for the past year has lived in Haskell, while in ill health for several years, was taken with pneumonia which only lasted ten days, and on Thursday, Jan. 3, passed away at the home of his brother, at the age of 63 years. His remains were shipped to Mingus where funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church by Rev. Anderson, pastor of Thurber and the remains were laid to rest by the side of his wife in Thurber cemetery. He is survived by two sons, Gus of Illinois and Richard of Haskell, two brothers and one sister of Haskell. Their many friends extend to the bereaved family their sincere sympathy.

Johnnie Meneghetti and family of west Texas are visiting relatives here.

Miss Delphena Auda is teaching this week, substitute for Prof. Lewis, who will.

The many friends of Ervin Wilson regret to learn of his sudden death on last Wednesday night, Jan. 2. Mr. Wilson has been reared in Palo Pinto county and has lived here practically all his life. A host of friends sympathize with the family.

Charlie Hamilton, mother and sister, Mrs. Oxford, visited in Mingus Friday night.

Mrs. Earl Brown of Thurber visited her mother, Mrs. Goble, this week.

Anderson Harmon and family, who for the past few months have been in Big Spring, have returned home.

Mrs. Leonard Sawyers and children of Gordon were Mingus visitors Tuesday.

Prof. Lewis is very ill this week. His many friends hope his speedy recovery.

Fred Brock of Strawn was a Mingus visitor Sunday.

Mrs. John Kemp of Gordon attended lodge here Monday night.

Miss Elsie Meneghetti is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Fannie Clark has returned from a visit in Cisco.

A fire of unknown origin swept the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges to the ground at an early morning hour Friday.

Blue Bonnet Temple No. 88, Pythian Sisters, held their regular meeting Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Ray of Breckenridge visited here Friday night.

Alex Louis and family spent the week-end in Fort Worth, and Mrs. Louis remained over at the bedside of her father, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reck of Breckenridge spent Sunday here visiting relatives.

COLONY

The Colony P. T. A. will have a regular meeting Jan. 11. We urge the parents of every pupil to be present. An interesting program has been planned by the pupils of the primary department.

Miss Ruth Ramey, county home demonstration agent, has her 4-H club work here well under way, with a large attendance and much interest shown. Officers were elected Tuesday of this week and plans made for the coming year. The officers elected were: president, Joyce Alderson; vice president, Loretta Thompson; secretary, Dorothy Davis; reporter, Frances Harrell; yell leader, Ovada Anderson; sponsor, Miss Audrey Carey.

Miss Audrey Carey will sponsor a play, "The Gate to Happiness." The characters for this play will be high school students. The play will be given in the high school auditorium in the near future. No admission charge will be made. Watch for further notice as to the date.

Our basket ball boys and girls have played several games recently—won some and lost some. A good sport is a good loser, so they work just a little harder.

The high school students are working hard on their mid-term final examinations this week and thinking what a pleasure it will be when they are over.

The home economics girls have finished their work in clothing. They have made some very nice garments. Miss Carey will equip the laboratory for foods and teach it next semester. She has a working group of girls so she expects to accomplish higher standards.

The painting job which is being done on the school plant is still under way. Just a little paint on a building which is badly in need of it sure makes a great difference in the general appearance.

LACASA

Several people from this community attended the singing convention in Breckenridge, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bradford of Mineral Wells visited relatives here this week.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Emma Stanley is dead. We extend our deepest sympathy to friends and loved ones.

Everyone enjoyed the singing at D. B. Ramey's Sunday afternoon. The young people enjoyed two parties the past week, one in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caraway, the other in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Caraway.

Everyone was glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bargesley back in Sunday school Sunday. They have been out due to the illness of their little daughter, Betty Ruth.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Caraway went to Breckenridge on business Tuesday.

Several in this community have been ill with colds the past few weeks.

Mrs. Fanny Stuard attended business in Abilene the first of the week.

Cactus Beetle Nip To Aid Waster

BROWNSVILLE — The Rio Grande's huge cactus beetle has lost the honor of helping to destroy Australia's 50,000,000-acre westland.

R. R. Taylor of the Australian Department of Agriculture spent nearly a year studying the mimorista flavidissima moth, the larvae of which attack and feed on cactus.

The mimorista, however, also enjoys a diet of tomatoes and beans, so Taylor was forced to seek elsewhere for a beetle. The scientist later reported he found an insect in Mexico he believed would do the work.

Taylor said the cactus was not a native of Australia, but was taken to the continent as food for some cochineal then used to make dye for military uniforms. The cochineal died, but the cactus had lived and overran the country.

Australia had little success in combatting the plant, until the cactoblastis insect was selected. Taylor said, however, that the cactoblastis feeds only on large patches of cactus and another beetle was needed to eat the smaller patches as well.

In this estimate of the number of people still unemployed, did President Roosevelt include General Johnson?

Income From Oil Increased In Texas By Commission

AUSTIN, Jan. 10.—To an income that before was barely half the farm income in Texas, the railroad commission has built the oil earnings in the state $111,000,000 a year higher.

The 1934-end figures show this has been brought about through alert fact-finding and correction of figures of the federal bureau of mines, into whose hands the administration of oil affairs for the nation is now recommended in a shift of power from direction under the secretary of interior.

For instance: last June, the statistical department of the railroad commission of the state found federal figures 60,000 barrels a day under what Texas was due in the production schedule; only last month, 65,500 barrels a day more.

Since June, 1932, which coincidentally is the date the commission's junior member, Colonel Ernest O. Thompson took office and at once an active interest in seeing that Texas gets its dues in the oil industry, the commission's insistence has built up Texas' daily oil quota from 700,000 barrels, a figure fixed at that time by the industry itself, up to 1,006,800; a third of a million dollars a day, $111,000,000 a year additional.

This gain made the 1934 production total 377,000,000 barrels. Oil is a dollar a barrel.

The farm income for the just-closed year, also increased over the previous twelve-months was only $450,000,000 for every branch of that basic industry.

"The past year," said Colonel Thompson, who shares the heavy burden of duties of the commission with Chairman Lon A. Smith and C. V. Terrell, "has been one of marked advancement in practical

At Arcadia Saturday and Sunday

A new star shines in the Hollywood skies . . . Josephine Hutchinson. For her first screen offering, she is starred with Dick Powell in "Happiness Ahead." First National's worthy successor to "20 Million Sweethearts." An all-star comedy cast appears in the film, which comes to the Arcadia Theatre Saturday and Sunday.

Arcadia Monday and Tuesday

Greta Garbo returns to the Arcadia screen Monday in "Painted Veil." George Brent plays the masculine role in this film.

'Dusting the Covers of Texas History' for The Texas Centennial Celebrations of 1936

Father Manuel Garza stood in the doorway of his small wooden house near Rosario, and saw coming from beyond the hill messengers from the Viceroy. He watched them anxiously as they came closer. Were they bringing permission to build a mission? Or had his plans been defeated? It was December 21, 1791—over a month since the men had left with his letters to the Viceroy.

The messengers bowed to Father Garza, and gave praises with him when he read of his permission to build a church. Already a site had been selected, and as soon as possible, a suitable place of worship and home for the Indians would be built. The juncture of the San Antonio River and the Guadalupe River had been selected as a tentative location as early as May, 1791.

the early autumn. Father Garza made another trip, this time along the coast. "Build a mission at the mouth of the Guadalupe River," the chief's said, "and the whole coast is yours." The encouragement received was all that Father Garza needed. He wrote letters a once to the Viceroy, and received his reply that last day of December.

A lack of sufficient, necessary supplies delayed the building of the church for more than a year. Beginnings had been made, however, and the Spanish mission was to be the home of the Karankawas, Orkokisacs, Tavakanas, Towshas and Comanches. Mission Nuestra Señora del Refugio—Our Lady of Refuge—was to be built, monument to one who believed in conversion of friends or foes, in spite of obstacles.

It was well that Marques de Rubi in 1767 made his recommendation that the Apache Indians be trusted no longer, and that the missions built for them be given up. Attempts to make good friends and good Christians out of the Apaches had ended in the massacre at Mission San Luis on the San Saba River. Still, the priests had persisted in their work, and would have been faithful to their task throughout many years to come, had not Marques de Rubi urged them to use their efforts elsewhere. The few ornaments and valuable records that were saved from the plunder of the Indians during the massacre were moved to Coahuila in 1722, and San Luis existed no more.

The Spanish had progressed rapidly in their new province, but in 1722, the frontier of actual occupation had receded as far south as Bexar and La Bahia. If it had been for those loyal men and women who followed Antonio Gil y Barbo back to their old homes in East Texas, it is entirely probable that Spanish ownership would have been weakened and practically broken. A settlement on the Trinity River, called Bucareli, was the home of the new settlers until

WATCH KIDNEYS SAME AS BOWELS

Wash Out Your 75,000 Feet of Kidney Tubes

Your bowels contain only 27 feet of intestine, yet the kidneys contain nearly 10 million tiny tubes or filters which would measure 75,000 feet if laid end to end. Therefore, it is just as important to watch the kidneys as the bowels. Kidneys are working all the time and are Nature's chief way of taking the acids and poisonous matter out of the blood.

Healthy persons pass 8 pints a day thru the bladder which contains nearly a pint of waste matter. If you pass less than this amount, your 75,000 feet of kidney tubes may be clogged with poisonous wastes. The danger signal may be the beginning of aching backache, leg pains, loss of job and vitality, getting up nights, hazy, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and distress.

Kidneys should be watched closely and need cleaning out the same as bowels. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, an old preparation, which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out your 75,000 feet of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs and so-called "kidney cures" which claim to do the job in 15 minutes. Your common sense will tell you that this is impossible. Symptoms of the nature here mentioned come and bring delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS, the old reliable relief that comes in "doan" or "doan-forming" drugs. It's not you or DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist.

Allred and Chevigny Not In 'Who's Who'

AUSTIN—Gov. Elegg James V. Allred and Football Coach Jack Chevigny, the state capital's most talked about young men, do not appear in the Austin list of youths "Who's Who."

The omissions are emphasized because young men closely associated in their work as aides have been listed. Major Paul Wakefield, responsible for effective Allred campaign publicity, is named. Freshman Coach William Nelson James of the University of Texas got the nod while the famous Chevigny was left on the bench.

"YANKEE" AN INSULT CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—The Civil war never ended, at least not Mrs. Hogan's. Mrs. Hogan, 70, a northerner, filed suit for divorce from her husband, a southerner, charging cruel and abusive treatment. She testified that her husband kept repeating to her how his "Dad" shot the "Yankees."

NAIL FILE LIFE SAVER HOUSTON.—The penchant of Roscoe Kuykendall, 24, negro, for keeping his fingernails neatly manicured saved him from serious injury. He entered a cafe just as someone fired a pistol. The bullet struck a nail file in his pocket. Kuykendall suffered merely a bruise and "burn" from the bullet.

Never mind the weather—baseball teams are getting ready for spring training.
