4-H club boys and girls—94 of them—of Wharton county went to the woods in January and brought back 147 native shrubs which they used with 32 other shrubs to beautify the Wharton county fair grounds. A landscape plan was used to guide the planting.

Home grown grain, plenty of skim milk and green feed helped Orville Laabs, 15, Cameron county 4-H club poultry demonstrator, to keep his feed cost down to 53 cents per hen for 10 1/2 months.

An average gain of 542 pounds for the 27 4-H club calves being fed in Menard county sets a record for the 209 day feeding period reports Frank Newsum, agricultural agent, who thinks his boys are smart to have defied the drought so successfully. The ration, changed from time to time, was largely corn, barley, oats, sweet feed and cotton seed cake.

In Goliad county nine boys are cooperating in a demonstration in which 23 pigs have been put on feed in a splendid location with access to plenty of green pasture. They will have self-feeders, constructed the A. & M. way, and shelled corn combined with protein supplement will be the ration. Local bankers have set up a revolving fund to help the boys finance the venture and the Goliad rotary club has underwritten it for them.

4-H club girls in Gregg county have taken up yard improvement work with enthusiasm. Each club has a demonstrator who will beautify her whole yard while all other girls are cooperators and have as their goal cleaning their yards of all rubbish, starting a cutting bed to grow shrubs for later planting around the house, and making a flower bed of annuals.

CANYON—From a garden 90 by 100 feet, Mrs. Gordon Cummings, farm food supply demonstrator for the West Side Home Demonstration club in Randall county, produced more than enough vegetables and fruits to fill a food budget for her family of two in 1934, according to Miss Sadie Kate Bass, home demonstration agent. In a new concrete lined cellar costing $15 and containing 125 feet of shelves, a gas light and a water faucet, she has stored 886 containers valued at $184.65. In addition to 150 quarts of canned meats, she has 200 pounds of cured meats. The total cost of the pantry including the money spent on the cellar, was $30.

BROWNSVILLE — Progress from a bare yard to an almost complete planting in a year and a half has been made by Mrs. J. H. Roach, yard improvement demonstrator of the La Feria Home demonstration club in Cameron county, according to Miss Dorothy Porter, home demonstration agent. In 1933 Mrs. Roach began her work, but in September that year a hurricane practically destroyed the work done before that date. She set to work at once to repair the damage, however, and now her planting includes a well sodded lawn, trees arranged to frame her house and provide a background, a foundation planting of permanent plants entirely around the house, and three screen plantings to hide unsightly views. She maintains a cutting bed in which she has successfully rooted many of her plants.

LOCKHART—A total of $44.75 has been received by Mrs. Jimmie Galloway of Caldwell county during the past year from the sale of 29 hooked mats, according to Miss Leta Bennett, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Galloway makes her mats from old hose and underwear and consequently her only expense is for dye. Her mats have been standardized by the home industries specialist of the Extension Service. She also sold one hooked rug and two hooked purses during the year for $10, making her total income $54.75 from this source.

OLTON—From a carload of 14 calves fed in a dry lot and one individual calf fed on a nurse cow, Merrill Briggance, Lamb county 4-H club boy, made a profit of $370.20 last year, according to the report of D. A. Adam, county agricultural agent. The nurse-fed calf won two first places and grand championships in stock shows in the county and sold for 9 1/2 cents a pound. The carload of calves won second place in the 4-H club division of a stock show at Fort Worth and third place in the open class, which brought $75 in prize money. The carload of calves had an initial weight of 5985 pounds, with a gain of 9515 pounds reported during the feeding period. The purchase price was $509.65 and the feeding cost was $509.40. The calves were sold for $1,313.25, and counting the $75 prize money this left a profit of $370.20.

FORT STOCKTON—An average of five tons of begari per acre was harvested in 1934 by A. Niemann of Pecos county from 45 acres planted to begari in July on land where cotton had been plowed under following a hail storm which destroyed the crop, according to L. E. Bailey, county agricultural agent. The cost of production was $11 per acre and the price received per ton was $17, which left Mr. Niemann a net profit of $74 per acre. For the entire 45 acres his profit amounted to $3,330.

FORT WORTH—From a one-acre demonstration plot planted to cantaloupes, G. B. Howard, Tarrant county 4-H club boy, made a net profit of $70.95 in 1934, according to M. C. Counts, county agricultural agent. Young Howard broke the land deep in February and then disked and bedded it in five foot rows.

In March he applied three loads of barnyard fertilizer in the furrows in addition to commercial fertilizer and then covered with a turning plow. Later he ran over the beds with a small disk which planted his hills about three feet apart so that the young melons would be shaded by the vines and so that the moisture would not evaporate from the soil. Hoeing and plowing to keep down the weeds was the only cultivation given. His expenses were small because he did the work himself. He began to harvest his crop on June 15. His were the first cantaloupes in the county to ripen due to his use of fertilizer.

By EL MERLE

We all seem drowsy and look as though we didn't particularly care what happened to us, as indeed we don't. The reason for this inertia is that malady known as "spring fever."

If we observe closely we will see that many people seem to remain in this state all their lives, never seeming to wake up to the fact that there is something bigger and better for them if they would only become alert enough to grasp it.

Now is the time for us to shake off this apathetic state, lift ourselves from this torpor.

and become aware of the fact that no one is going to hand us the world on a silver platter, the better off we will be.

So let's begin now to rid ourselves of any sort of sluggish feeling, for after all this may be the beginning of something detrimental to our entire future.

The poet wrote the following letter to Mr. Barron:
 "My Dear Wallace E. Barron, Desdemona, Texas:
 "It was fine of you to let me see your answer to that bit of mine, and I want you to know that I enjoyed it. Thank you so very much.
 "With every good wish, I am, sincerely yours,
 "EDGAR A. GUEST."

The Desdemona agent's poem received by Guest was:

How can a poet's heart be so hard? Still I've been reading from a hard Who warns all men with wives that bake To boast and brag not on her cake.

Eat them in silence, hold your trap, For if you brag you're one big sap; 'Cause wife will hearken what you say And feed you that same cake each day.

I cannot for the life of me, With this dear poet quite agree; For boasting! bragging, that's my line, And wifery surely feeds me fine.

I boost her cake, I boost her pie, I booster her meat roasts to the sky; And when she's serving biscuits hot, I tell her she's the one big shot.

Yet, all the while one thing's impressed Upon her that I like the best 'Upon her that she may feel free To eat, and that she may feel free To service each meal—variety.

Disagrees With Poet, Gets Letter After Sending Writing

W. E. Barron, Desdemona depot agent, didn't agree exactly with Edgar A. Guest, nationally known syndicated poet, on his recently published "On the Danger of Praise."

So he sent him a letter and original poem.

Police Do Good Work In Catching Accused Negroes

Members of the Ranger police department recently did a good bit of work and returned some stolen property to its rightful custodian. A salesman was in the negro section of the city with his car, making deliveries on the product he sells and when he loaned in the door of the coach to secure merchandise from the back of the seat a negro woman grabbed his purse and ran. He notified Chief of Police Jim Ingram of the loss, which amounted to about $50 in cash, besides some personal papers. Chief Ingram put Patrolman Johnny Boyd on the case. After making many inquiries and getting as much information as possible he returned to the "flats" located the woman and her husband, handcuffed the husband and found the negro woman under a bed, hiding. The negroes, who gave her name as Dorothy Matlock, wife of Henry Matlock, transients, confessed to the robbery and showed Boyd where he could locate the money, which was hidden in several places. The pocketbook and papers were also found and returned to the owner. The two negroes, who confessed to Boyd that they had robbed man of "about $17," were turned over to county officers and taken to the county jail at Eastland.

Clean Out Kidney Poisons

Wash Out Your 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes
If kidneys don't pass 3 pints a day and get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters may become clogged with poisonous waste and the danger of acid poisoning is greatly increased. Stomach passages are difficult, which often smart and burn like scalding water and cause discomfort. This acid condition, brought about by poor kidney functions is a danger signal and may be the beginning of sagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic joints and dizziness. Most people watch their bowels which contain only 27 feet of intestines but neglect the kidneys which contain 15 miles of tiny tubes and filters. If these tubes or filters become clogged with poisons, it may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't run any risk. Make sure your kidneys empty 3 pints a day. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S (F.L.L.S., an old prescription, which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

Several brothers and sisters survive.

Demonstration Is Made of the Three Grade Gasolines

D. I. Holly, Humble Oil & Refining Co. station supervisor, was in Ranger today to present J. O. Balzer in a demonstration, at the Humble Station corner of East

Main and Oak streets, of the effect on a motor of plain gasoline and the effect of Ethyl gasoline. Using the three grades of gasoline as sold by the Humble Service Stations he proved to his hearers that the knock that is so frequent and that is usually called spark or carbon knock or tappet click is practically every time nothing more than "fuel knock," that is, the explosion of raw gasoline in the combustion chambers driving the piston down sharply and unevenly. The motor used by Mr. Balzer is a specially constructed engine with only one cylinder and with a water jacket cooling system which allows the knock to be easily heard. The carburetor is so constructed that gasoline from one visible supply could be turned off and gasoline from another supply be used without stopping the motor. After warming up the engine a heavy knock could easily be heard using the third grade gasoline but when the Ethyl gasoline was turned into the carburetor the knock vanished and the speed of the motor picked up. The Ethyl in gasoline gives it an even-burning quality that pushes the pistons down instead of knocking them down, the effect being, as illustrated by Mr. Balzer, the same as smokeless as against black powder in a gun. An illustration every man can understand.

Unlimited Advantages To Be Had In Crosley Shelvador Refrigerators

Nothing appeals to every member of the household and particularly the women, as good food well cared for and well prepared. In order to preserve the food in the proper manner modern inventions have come in for their share of just mention. How? Through electric refrigeration. Ranger Furniture Exchange this week offers to the public one of the most beautiful boxes yet to be viewed. The modern charm of this distinctly different refrigerator makes a fitting picture for any kitchen. Gleaming snow-white and jet black with glistening chromium hardware, the new Crosley refrigerator is exactly what every housewife wants. When you buy a Crosley you have added advantages and conveniences through the shelves in the door, providing ample storage space for eggs, butter, bacon and other small articles to be found just at your finger tips. Another feature to be considered are the flat bar shelves, instead of being rounded the bars of the shelves are flat so that dishes can be slipped in or out easily. Shelves are removable and there is generous space between the shelves to permit ample room for the arrangement and ready accessibility of all food items. The Shelvador has proven to be a time-saver of effort and in current, and all in all everything you could desire in an electric box. See these boxes during your next visit to this popular furniture company. Earleen Martin, who has been ill, is fast improving. Dr. and Mrs. Green were recent visitors in Ahilene.

Letters From Our Readers

Ranger Daily Times, Ranger, Texas. Gentlemen: Will you please be good enough to print the following statement in the form of a communication for the benefit of your many readers who are desiring appointment as notaries public?

NEW WINDOW CONTROL GIVES WIDER SEATS

In the Hudson and Terraplane sedans for 1935 the window regulator for the rear-quarter window has been placed above the glass instead of below it. As a result, the regulator is out of the way and does not tend to reduce the width of the rear seat as happens when the regulator is placed below the glass.

The Commercial Department of College Growing

The commercial department of the Ranger Junior college has grown until it is now one of the outstanding of any junior college in the state. The offerings have been broadened, and it is now possible for any boy or girl in this vicinity to receive a complete business education, if they have the desire and determination to succeed in this type of work.

It is the desire of Mr. Jarvis, who is head of this department, to make of it one of the best to be found in the state. The improvement in the department is clearly shown by the increased interest on the part of the students in this type of work, and in this department. More students are realizing the necessity of a business education if they would succeed in the commercial world.

Mr. Jarvis states that beginning with this semester a course in office practice is being offered. This course has grown in favor among the students the past six weeks, and they expect to receive much good from the course. For the student to receive credit on this course it is necessary that he or she do actual work in an office.

Mr. Jarvis asks that if the business men of Ranger have office work to please call him at his office and he will send a student to that office to work. These students will be trained in shorthand, typing and general office work. These students will be used in the high school and college offices, but since there are several taking this work it will be necessary for some of the students to do their hours of actual office work in some other office. In case sufficient calls are not received from the business men in regard to this work, the department head will call offices a little later in the year in an effort to give these students the opportunity to do actual office work. Any consideration given on the part of the business men in regard to this work will be business law, 12 for accounting, and 15 have enrolled this semester appreciated.

It is not the intention of the college to put students in the office to take the place of regular employees, but this method is being used to acquaint the students with the office as it is operated and managed today.

During the present year 30 students have enrolled for typing course, 25 for shorthand, five for the course in office practice. These above figures do not represent repeaters the second semester, but actually represent the different pupils in the above courses.

At present the following courses are offered in the commercial department of the college: Typing, stenography, office practice and management, accounting, business law and salesmanship.

"Saving Time By Serving Prepared Vegetables"

I have often been asked: "Why do some perfectly intelligent, modern minded women still hesitate to give their families ready prepared vegetables?" The answer is: "They did, yet perhaps they don't." But for years their hesitation was quite noticeable. They served prepared soups, pickles, jellies and jams, even cakes and pies and cookies. Yet they spent hours in their kitchens scraping, peeling and washing vegetables!

men left who do this, let me whisper in your ear: The reason you do so is because you do not yet know enough about canned foods to put your complete trust in their wholesomeness. Here and now, then, I am going to tell you a few pertinent facts about canned vegetables—the inside story, as it were. The modern canned vegetable supplies all the nutritive value, all the minerals—calcium, iron, phosphorus—and the highly prized vitamins that you get when you buy the raw vegetable in the market and cook it yourself in your own kitchen. Practically all good grades of vegetables are now canned right where they grow, so that none of the nutritive value is lost during shipment to the cannery. Within a very few hours after the vegetable is picked, every bit of its priceless food value is sealed safely into the can.

All vegetables packed by the canners are expressly grown for the purpose—grown from selected seed, it may surprise you to know.

Many farm vegetables are not satisfactory for canning.

Let me settle another point, too. It is perfectly safe to keep food in an opened can, provided you put it in a refrigerator and give it the same care you would give any cooked food. There is absolutely nothing about the can that is harmful to health.

Letting the can stand open to aerate the vegetables, or rinsing them in cold water before cooking, takes just so much from their flavor and food value. If you do either of these things now I urge you to stop!

It is perfectly safe to store unopened canned foods on your pantry shelves for any length of time, provided you keep them in a moderate temperature, away from steam-pipes and radiators.

The next time you serve canned peas heat them quickly in their own juice until it is practically cooked away. This same method makes an amazing improvement in the flavor of all canned vegetables.

If you use vegetables cold—say, for salad—chill them well before serving.

Save every precious drop of juice. It makes wonderful sauces and soups and is particularly rich in nutritive value—one of the bargains you dream about.

'BOGGING DOWN' OF NEW DEAL REACTS SLIGHTLY AGAINST MAN IN WHITE HOUSE

Franklin D. Roosevelt is completing his second year in the White House, a year lacking in the spectacular achievements of his first 12 months in office. In this article Rodney Dutcher, NEA Washington correspondent, frankly discusses the progress and failures of the administration.

(Copyright, 1935, NEA Service) By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Franklin D. Roosevelt's second year in office has been neither as spectacular nor as brilliant as his first.

Nor does its end find him on as high a pedestal of personal popularity as he occupied 12 months ago. There has been a letdown of morale in Washington which apparently is reflected to some degree over the country, despite the encouraging effect of the supreme court gold decision. Even the president has lost a bit of his gaiety.

The New Deal just hasn't been going places. On the anniversary of his inauguration, Roosevelt could point to the most remarkable achievement record in American history. Much has happened since, but the pace has slowed.

Economic improvement since last March has been inconsequential. Except for a billion-dollar increase in farm income—largely caused by a calamitous drought—the nation has done little better than hold its own.

Washington still asks: "What are we going to do with the 10,000,000 unemployed?" Relief rolls are larger than ever, with more than 20,000,000 persons.

Unemployment remains the government's most vital problem and relief its most vital function.

Reaction Is Here. Roosevelt thinks he has the answers, but the psychological effect of his $4,000,000,000 work relief and social insurance programs was discounted by long anticipation and has been largely spent since they became enacted in Congress.

It began to appear in the second year that the New Deal had been over-ballyhooded by many of its enthusiasts. Roosevelt himself was not guiltless and, thought he still has popularity and prestige to spare, he is suffering from a reaction.

Perhaps the lesson of his second twelvemonth is that recovery and reform cannot come overnight. The New Deal now appears in the light of a long-time effort, after an initial spectacular and far-reaching reorientation of national policy.

Meanwhile, there is much confusion here about the next step, even among high officials.

Best Bets Uncashed. Much time since last March has been spent in repairing mistakes, reorganizing, taking stock of the recovery program and waiting for pronouncements of vital importance from the supreme court. In such circumstances, Roosevelt was bound to lose something of his glamorous reputation for aggressive, fearless leadership.

But the failure of the administration to collect on its admitted chief bets for the year was much more responsible for the recent increase of dissatisfaction and doubt. Those bets were:

1. That a vast outlay of federal funds would give business a big push.

2. That private business would put most of the unemployed back to work.

It didn't happen. Federal funds and federal credit merely kept the economic structure from sagging.

Thus Roosevelt's hope for a 1935-36 balanced budget gave way to an anticipated 1935-36 gross deficit of $4,528,000,000.

One Flop, Then Another. The second Roosevelt year started with a great exhortation to industry to cut hours 10 per cent and boost wages 10 per cent. That was almost as enormous a flop as the subsequent federal housing program, which was to be the great administration effort of the fall and winter and which Administrator James Moffett promised would reemploy 5,000,000 men.

Last spring began the administration's so-called "swing to the right," which meant giving a relatively free rein to bankers, industrialists, and business men to bring about recovery with no more than co-operation from the government.

An example of this policy was appointment of Clay Williams, a cigarette manufacturer whose firm makes enormous profits, but who fought bitterly to preserve low wages, to be chairman of the National Industrial Recovery board.

Labor Gains Little. Donald Richberg and Raymond

Moley became White House ambassadors to industry. But bankers and industrialists thus far have largely disappointed the administration and there is ample evidence that Roosevelt is not tying his wagon to their star.

Labor bulked large in the year's history, but gained little by its attempted demonstration of economic power. The big textile strike of September achieved a large walkout and a face-saving settlement.

The administration's lack of sympathy for the low grade. A. F. of L. leadership was demonstrated in the automobile code revision Labor Relations board enter into automobile disputes.

All the president's labor boards have had trouble, due to defiance by big industries. A. F. of L. incapacity to strengthen the labor position or F. D.'s failure to back them up.

As against evidence that the administration has "turned right," some significant developments came in the other direction.

Swings From "Right" Among them were: Roosevelt's order cutting hours in the cotton garment industry from 40 to 36, with proportionate wage increase—a very important precedent.

Reorganization of NRA, new emphasis on code enforcement, and Roosevelt's decision to make NRA a permanent body, with power to impose codes.

A federal report on the automobile industry, revealing hellish conditions of employment.

Federal law for railroad retirement pensions affecting 1,000,000 employees, along with bills for general old age and unemployment pensions.

Also, introduction for bills providing close federal control of banking and credit policies and for dissolution of holding companies, federal control of telegraph, telephone and radio—with an investigation of American Telephone & Telegraph, world's largest corporation.

Appointment of Marriner S. Eccles, liberal, as Federal Reserve board governor.

Departure of Lew Douglas as budget director and continued disregard of banker-business demand for balanced budget and relief cut.

Decision to give all employables jobs—of some kind.

Current Roosevelt troubles are of varying importance. Millions of wage and salary earners are restless in the face of mounting prices and living costs. If their earnings are no higher than a year ago, they're worse off. The A. F. of L. says the average weekly wage increased 6.7 per cent last year while the price of food rose 11.3 per cent and that of clothing and house furnishings 13.3 per cent.

Industrial profits increased 50 per cent or more while real wages were declining about 2 per cent.

Snags in Congress, especially the Senate, are fretting Roosevelt. They are important chiefly as they represent a change in popular enthusiasm.

The work relief bill has aroused fears in many quarters. Confusion has been caused by Roosevelt's failure to take advice from NLRB, National Labor Relations Board, Federal Aviation commission, social security experts, and others.

The fire on Jim Farley, Roosevelt's political boss, gives bitter. Small scandals crop up and Senate munitions revelations indicate the White House and its personnel have not kept free of contact with lobbyists for battleship builders.

The treasury had no trouble selling its bonds and the trend of interest rates was downward. This was an answer to critics who had warned that further deficits and unbalanced budgets would impair national credit and boost interest rates on government obligations.

The fall elections gave Roosevelt the greatest mid-term party victory any president ever had and left him with unprecedented Democratic majorities in Congress.

Weakness of Republicans and the strong showing of "radical" candidates everywhere they ran indicated this wasn't entirely a personal victory. But nearly all the winners had endorsed the New Deal.

Disbelief of Alleged McBee Murder Voiced By Man Who Claims Attended Dance When Highway Worker Present

Expression of disbelief that H. L. McBee, Rising Star highway worker whose skeleton was found recently suspended from a post oak tree, had been murdered was voiced Saturday by a person claiming to have attended a dance at Rising Star at which it has been said he was wounded.

The man, a resident of a West Texas town, originally had been called as a witness before the grand jury during its investigation, but did not appear, would not reveal his identity.

He was en route Saturday from Baird to his home. His conversation was along the following lines: "You know, he said, people around Eastland county would not let anything like that happen. Especially at a dance."

"It's claimed he was stabbed seven times during that evening. No crowd would stand for that."

Asked his opinion why M. E. Tyler, once charged in the McBee case, was arrested and then released, he said the two had been together previous to the disappearance.

The information imparted was in confidence with restriction of divulging his identity.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Henry are indicted with murder in connection with the case. Trial for the pair has not been set.

Proponents of the Work Relief Plan Threaten March

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—A mobilization in Washington of work relief supporters "that will make the bonus army look like a boy scout parade" was threatened today by Paul Bettlers, director of the U. S. Conference of Mayors.

Bettlers threw the support of his organization behind the work relief bill as the battle over the measure was carried to the country by both sides.

Administration leaders made no effort to bring the bill out from committee again until they could judge better the nation's reaction on the issue. The relief battle brought the administration to such a crisis that congress was brought to a virtual standstill. Leaders feared the revolt might spread to other legislation.

MASONS HAVE GOOD PROGRAM FRIDAY NIGHT

In the neighborhood of 150 men and women heard Rev. E. S. James, pastor of the First Baptist church, Cisco, eulogize George Washington as the first Mason of the land. He said Washington was a man of decision, action, purpose and determination. Rev. James is a forceful speaker and the message was loudly applauded at its conclusion.

Quartet numbers by Floyd Killingsworth, Jack Galloway, Gaston Dixon and Arthur Deffelbach were outstanding.

Miss Sammy Ruth Matthews in two readings, Mrs. D. T. Wier in a vocal solo and Mrs. Lee Galley in a special number, all received special encore.

A number of outstanding Masons were in attendance and several were called upon for brief remarks.

The purpose of the meeting as announced by Dr. A. K. Wier in his welcome address was to acquaint the Masons with the Grand Lodge program for the year and the revival of attendance among Masons in the state. It was also announced that later in the summer Ranger lodge was planning a chicken barbecue, place and time to be announced later.

Invocation was pronounced by Rev. J. M. Bond of the First Methodist church, and the benediction by Rev. James of Cisco. Rev. H. H. Stephens introduced the speaker.

Dog Turns Thief And Steals a Rug

Ranger can claim the dubious honor of having a rug-stealing dog. Saturday Mrs. F. D. Hicks put a small throw rug out on her porch to air. Later she missed it, and thinking it had been stolen, notified the police.

The rug was found two blocks away, near the Church of Christ, where "Texas," a large dog, well known over a large part of Ranger, had taken it.

The dog had gone onto the porch, had taken the rug in its mouth and had started off with it when neighbors saw him and took the rug from him. It was returned to Mrs. Hicks late Saturday afternoon.

Made Financier By Papa Mellon

Tradition that children of the Mellon dynasty should be given fortunes to test their ability to handle large sums was followed by Andrew W. Mellon with his daughter, Ailsa Mellon Bruce, shown here in a picture from a Savely Horine portrait. Mellon's tax suit revealed he gave her and her brother $1,200,000 to buy an interest in a Mellon holding company.

Sir John Simon Plans Big Mission To Promote Peace

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Sir John Simon, foreign minister, is laying plans for a diplomatic mission which may prove one of the most important since the World war and which might conceivably turn Europe toward peace or war, it was learned today.

Unless some unforeseen event changes the present aspect of the negotiations, centering around Nazi Germany for consolidation of European peace on the basis of French-British proposals, Simon is expected to visit Berlin, Moscow and Warsaw.

County commissioners have accepted the sole depository bid of Commercial State Bank of Ranger as keeper of county, school and trust funds. The Ranger bank's offer of $100 and interest payment of one-fifth of 1 per cent on school deposits for selection was accepted.

Farm News of Interest to the Farmers of This Section

ON TEXAS FARMS

Report comes from Jones county that at the training school held for the pantry demonstrators of the county home demonstration clubs 75 people learned how to make and lay tile for garden sub-irrigation. These citizens will in turn teach their neighbors in their own communities to make tile so that gardens may prosper and fruit trees flourish come rain or no.

In Dickens county every home demonstration club member is a "cooperator" in the yard improvement work being undertaken by these club women. Goals for co-operators are very definite—each one is to "remove all rubbish, repair fences, lay a flagstone walk, learn to recognize and locate for transplanting five native shrubs and report to the demonstrator." Demonstrators, by the way, undertake the complete landscaping of their premises.

Navarro county is going in for more fruit too, with a definite goal of ten home orchards in every community in the county. S. M. Hudgins, a Navarro county orchardist of long experience, recommends to the beginners to have and follow a schedule of regular pruning, spraying and cultivation if they want success.

QUITMAN—From a demonstration plot in which he planted alternately a row of corn and a row of peas this year, J. J. Westmoreland of the Clover Hill community in Wood county cut 7½ tons of pea-vine hay, the estimated value of which is $150, he told James W. McCown, farm demonstration agent. Due to the drought, his corn was almost a complete failure, but the fall rains came in time to help the crop of peas. Now in spite of the drought, Mr. Westmoreland has feed for his livestock.

BROWNSVILLE—A net profit of $2.42 per hen was made on his flock of 178 white leghorn hens during 1934 by Clarence Thieme, 18, 4-H club member in Cameron county, according to H. L. Alsmeyer, farm demonstration agent. During the 12 months the hens averaged 170 eggs each which is almost double the state average of 96 eggs per hen.

Young Thieme started his demonstration in November, 1933, with 192 white leghorn hens and 13 roosters. At that time he was feeding shorts, yellow dent corn and milk, and he continued feeding this ration until the first of March. He then started feeding shorts and laying mash, half and half. He also fed the mash moisture with milk. He had a abundance of green feed for his flock in the winter as well as in the summer. The flock has a citrus orchard for shade in the summer, and in the winter this orchard is planted to oats for green feed. Clarence's records show a net profit of $431.70.

BEAUMONT—Native grasses were made to pay a dividend on uncultivated areas on the farm of Charles Tubre of Jefferson county, according to the report of J. F. Combs, farm demonstration agent. Mr. Tubre had some idle land that was producing an excellent growth of Vasey grass, so he purchased a new mower and a baling machine and saved 2500 bales of hay off this acreage. The hay not only supplied him with his home needs but the surplus paid for his machinery and left an extra profit.

WEATHERFORD—As part of her yard improvement work for 1934, Mrs. A. E. Scherer of the New Hope Home Demonstration club in Parker county put out 63 foundation plantings around her house and 100 shrubs in screen plantings, of which three-fourths were native, according to Miss Janie Parks, home demonstration agent. The dirt had been washing away for many years, so the yard was larger. In addition, Mrs. Scherer under-pinned the house, moved the smoke house back, sodded the yard, and built a cobble-stone walk.

was filled in and a retaining wall was built across the front and side of the yard. The side and front fences were moved to make

One Man Terracer Improves Farms

PENNINGTON, Texas—Farmers of the Friendship community just six miles from here believe M. V. "Bug" Hill is the best neighbor in Texas.

Hill is the champion "terracer" in these parts. Through a one-man terracing program, he has raised the value of deserted farm land $5 an acre and more.

"Bug" has been so interested in his neighbors' welfare that he has not spared time or expense to aid them. And his friends appreciate what he has done.

When he goes to the state capital to try to raise relief funds to help with the work, his neighbors turn up 15 to 20 at a time to do his farm work. Hill also makes many trips to Texas A. & M. college to obtain information.

County Agent C. E. Bowles who aided Hill in his work said "Bug" was responsible for salvage and terracing of 6,000 acres in Houston county.

Hill became convinced many years ago that terracing would prevent the tremendous wastage of fertile land through soil erosion.

"Neighbor" Hill has studied terracing from a scientific point of view. His wide experience has made him an expert and authority on land reclamation.

Bowles said that great gullies on the hillsides have been filled and now thousands of acres formerly abandoned are drained properly and produce good crops—all because of Hill's zeal for his neighbor's welfare.

Relief Head Gets Praise From U. S. Senator Sheppard

H. E. Driscoll, county relief administrator, has received a letter from Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas, complimenting him on the splendid showing made in his report of the work done and the accomplishments of the Eastland county relief administration.

The letter, which Mr. Driscoll prizes very highly, reads as follows:

"Dear Sir:
"I was very much pleased to see your report on conditions in Eastland County, which was sent to me by Hon. H. L. Davis, and I am glad to know how nicely everything is working.
"Congratulations you on your fine record as administrator of Eastland county, I am, with cordial good wishes,
"Yours very sincerely,
(Signed) "Morris Sheppard."

City to Plant 20 Sycamore Trees

EASTLAND, Texas, Feb. 26.—Twenty sycamore trees will be planted by the city on the lot and ground adjoining the hall, Walter Gray, city manager, announced Tuesday.

The trees, that have arrived, will be set out soon. Several Chinese elm trees will be taken out of the plot in front of the adjoining lot.

Also in the beautification program, is a scheduled planting of a grapevine over the location of the dismantled standpipe.

County Valuations Drop Reviewed by County Official

Decline of Eastland county valuations from the peak year of 1921 of 57 million dollars to the present of 24 million and one-half was reviewed in a brief financial history Monday by Clyde L. Garrett, county judge, in an address before the Rotary club.

The county judge stated communication property and equipment remained now as in 1921, valued at approximately $3,500,000. Oil valuations from the peak year to last year declined to $8,500,000.

Pioneering of the county in road bond voting was recited by Judge Garrett. He stated Eastland county was one of the first in West Texas to take the steps.

Interest paid by tax payers in 1933 on indebtedness was $183,000, he said.

In a date-history of the county, Judge Garrett said Eastland county was created by an act of the seventh legislature in 1858. It was organized in 1873; the county site selected in 1874 at Merriman, and in 1875 moved to Eastland. In 1881 an attempt was made to move the capitol to Cisco.

Albert Taylor and Sam Gamble were program chairmen.

Carl Springer was appointed as a committeeman to work on the Eastland club's plans of sending a delegate to the international convention in Mexico City this summer.

President H. M. Collie acknowledged presentation of a gavel to the club from two high school students, Donald Russell and Gilbert Clark.

G. A. Payne of Breckenridge was a visitor.

This country will be safe against revolution, so long as we stay mad at so many different things.

Eight Million Acres Of Land Terraced

DALLAS—Nearly eight million acres of land in Texas has been terraced to prevent soil erosion, according to a report issued by the Texas A. & M. College.

Last year 18,399 farms were terraced compared with 15,465 the year before. Land in Texas now having received soil erosion attention totals approximately 7,700,000 acres, the report says.

It was estimated that last year 774,343 acres were terraced in Texas. This work was carried on in 196 counties and compares with 604,386 acres in 173 counties terraced in 1933.

A record of terracing, exceeding even the peak year of 1931 when 1,031,888 acres were terraced, is anticipated this year.

There remains about 19,000,000 more acres of land in the state which needs to be terraced, the survey said.

Talk Spoiled Plan Of School Boys To Sell Questions

HOUSTON, Texas—Too much talk spoiled the scheme of four high school students to pick up spending money through sale of examination questions.

They obtained the questions from a teacher's notebook and began taking orders at $1 a copy. "We weren't going to release any of the copies until late in the day before examination time," one of the four explained.

"If we had started selling them early, the kids who bought them could sell them on their own hook."

Houston Will Be On Mexican Line Of Air Traffic

HOUSTON, Texas—Air travel enthusiasts believe this city will be on a 21-hour passenger service between New York and Mexico City before the end of 1935.

Plans for establishing the service are being made and call for operation before the end of the year.

The new service would link Houston directly with Mexico and Central and South America for the first time.

Three air lines, two of which already have adjusted schedules to give the city 11-hour service from New York City, were expected to cooperate in the plan.

They are Eastern Airlines, operating between New York City and New Orleans, and Pan American Airways, flying the Brownsville, Mexico City, Central and South American route.

Weddell-Williams, under the plan, would extend its service to Brownsville to make the connection.

Cisco Youth Is Suicide Victim

CISCO, Texas, Feb. 26.—Argie Martin, 22, formerly enrolled in a CCC camp, shot and killed himself at his home here last night.

Justice Joe Wilson, who returned a coroner's verdict of suicide, said he had apparently killed himself because of domestic trouble.

Some people always spoil things by trying to be different. A woman in Alabama is 106 years old and she didn't celebrate her birthday by taking her first plane ride and she can't read fine print without glasses.

Federal Control Of Water Carriers Is Being Urged

HOUSTON, Texas—Government regulation of water carriers similar to that of railroads is advocated by Edgar F. Luckenbach, head of the Luckenbach Steamship Co.

Regulation is needed to "discourage improper competitive practices," he said.

In a minority report as a member of the steamship affairs committee of the Maritime Association of the Port of New York, Luckenbach said the majority of the committeemen were affiliated with organizations which operate lines in connection with large industrial interests.

"It is very obvious that a committee, the majority of which had affiliations as outlined," he said, "would not be favorable to any legislation that would restrict large industrial interests, either as to their carryings or rates they might be able to obtain."

"I believe that there should be certificates of public convenience and necessity. Industrial carriers do not want this, but I who am dependent exclusively on transportation certainly believe it is a wise thing. It has worked with the railroads, why should it not with equal fairness work with water traffic?"

TRY A WANT AD

Treat Constipation THE WAY THAT DOCTORS DO

Doctors and hospitals have always used liquid laxatives. So would you, if you knew how well they do their work—how much better you feel. A liquid laxative can always be taken in the right amount. You can gradually reduce the dose. Reduced dosage is the secret of real and safe relief from constipation.

Ask your doctor about this. Ask your druggist how popular liquid laxatives have become. The right liquid laxative gives the right kind of help, and the right amount of help. When the dose is repeated, instead of more each time, you take less. Until the bowels are moving regularly without any help.

Once you have experienced this comfort, you will never return to any form of help that does not encourage variation from the "fixed dose"—too often an overdose for sensitive persons, or young people! The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

It contains senna and cascara, and these are natural laxatives that form no habit—even in children. Its action is gentle, but sure. It will relieve a condition of biliousness or sluggishness without upset. It's the ideal family laxative because it's a doctor's prescription, and safe.

Try Syrup Pepsin. Give regulated doses until Nature restores regularity. Those who have made the "liquid test" know why a doctor favors a liquid laxative.

Drilling Slow on Watkins RISING STAR—No developments of any importance have been reported from Watkins No. 1 three miles east of town and being put down by Charles Fox and associates. About 12 feet of hole has been made since resuming drilling some three weeks ago. The gas flow is still running at around 1,000,000 feet, but little or no oil is in evidence. The line is very hard and drilling necessarily slow. As indicated by the log of the Lee well a quarter of a mile west, there should be about 12 more feet of the lime, it is stated.

Tubing Set on Turpeneing RISING STAR—Tubing is to be set soon in the Turpeneing well on the Lee Poteet place, near the Lone Star gasoline plant and it is conservatively estimated as good for from 50 to 100 barrels, or more when tubing is set and it is ready to be produced.

The well was drilled in several days ago and given a good heavy charge of acid which seems to have gotten splendid results as shown by a swab which has been used for the past few days. The well is said to be on the extreme east edge of the structure and that better production is expected west of the well. Veteran oil men, who have been out to inspect the well feel sure that the area will come in for some nice play as a result of the Poteet well.

Make Location for Deep Test GRAHAM—Location was made for a well on the J. G. Elliott farm and rotary tools will be moved in by the Gay Hammond Oil company of Fort Worth for a 3,000-foot lime test. The rig is being moved from the K. M. A. field.

Stovall 16 Producing Fifty Barrels GRAHAM—According to reports from the E. C. Stovall No. 16, production has settled to approximately 50 barrels after the well had been shot with 150 quarts of nitroglycerin and treated with 3000 gallons of acid. The well is in the South Bend pool about 11 miles southwest of Graham and was drilled in at 4225 feet recently.

Application to Shoot Ralph Herring et al No. 1 J. M. Mitchell, H. Jacobs survey, Eastland county. Slight show of oil before application made. Intent to form formation between 361 and 371 with five quarts.

They Add Value And Have Pleasure Beautifying Homes

COLLEGE STATION. — Texas women and girls, engaged in yard improvement work under extension guidance in 1934, carried through the drouth alive 169,918 new shrubs in screen, border and foundation plantings placed according to landscaping plans. They also carried 25,666 trees through the "dry spell" and as part of improving the premises had 6,230 sanitary toilets built.

To carry on their landscaping they made 7,072 cutting beds in which 100,219 cuttings were living at the time the report was made. In addition to all this 6,681 old lawns were improved and 2,522 new lawns were sowed. The reported cost of the women's yard work was $7,993.50. No estimate on what the girls spent was available. The estimated added value to the improved farmsteads because of this landscaping was, according to Miss Onah Jacks, extension landscape specialist, at least $198,542.14 on the basis of the score card used in extension yard improvement work.

Typical of the attitude of these women and girls toward their work in beautifying farm homes is the story of Mrs. J. M. Mixon from San Augustine county. "I am going to have a spring bouquet in my own back yard," said Mrs. Mixon.

I can go to the woods and get as many as I want. Right now I am planting a screen that will be a perfect bouquet in the spring, besides serving the useful purpose of hiding my wash place and potato hill. This screen is made against a background of winter myrtle and yucca. On the other side of my house I have planted a screen of privet against a background of sumac to give a note of color in the fall. The screen when grown, will hide my smoke house."

Mosquitoes Killed By Recent Blizzard

PORT ARTHUR, Texas.—The recent blizzard which killed almost 20,000 cattle along the Gulf Coast with a loss of approximately $250,000, proved just as disastrous to the mosquito crop. Health officials said the pests will not be as worrisome as they were last summer.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS AS OF JAN. 1

This map represents business conditions in every state of the Union as shown in March, 1935, issue of "Nation's Business," official publication of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

January saw a lull in wholesale and retail trade but manufacture and industry showed more than seasonal activity. Snow cover was widespread in areas where moisture was lacking.

Contra-seasonal gains included particularly iron, steel, automobiles, farm implements, electrical equipment, glass, rubber goods, most textiles, furniture and shoes. Electric power continued its steady rise. Coal output equaled 1931. Lumber output lessened but shipments increased. Carloadings dropped slightly and bank clearings were larger. The Dun & Bradstreet Weekly Food Index in January was at its highest since November, 1930. Failures continue fewer than a year ago.

Gross railway earnings gained 5 per cent over 1933 but net earnings fell 3 per cent although 40 per cent above 1932. Retail trade in 1934 gained 15 to 20 per cent over 1933 in value. Stocks ebbed in strength and activity; bonds were active and slightly higher. Leading cereal prices were the lowest for three months. Cattle and hog prices in late January were nearly double a year ago.

The Map The February map shows a little more cheerfulness, especially in industrial sections. The Barometer With its rise in January, the barometer passed the June, 1934, and July, 1933, high points and slightly exceeds the July, 1931, average.

1:45 p. m. Devotional, Mrs. T. J. Sparkman, Cisco. Special Music, Miss Roberta Kinnaird, Eastland. Power Through Prayer, Mrs. W. M. Joslyn, Albany. Prayer Will Promote Missions, Mrs. E. J. Poe, Cisco.

Post Commander Is Appreciative of Help at Meeting

G. E. (Bob) Robinson, commander of the Carl Barnes post of the American Legion, was very profuse today in his expressions of appreciation for the splendid cooperation he and the members of the post received from the people of Ranger in helping to make the convention the success it was. "Tell all the people," he said today, "that the post is very grateful for the splendid cooperation on the part of the citizens of Ranger and for the part they had in making the short stay of the veterans so pleasant. Especially do we want to thank the Ranger Times, Tickville Band, the police and fire departments, Fire Chief G. A. Murphy, the city commission, the members of the Ladies Auxiliary, Rev. G. W. Thomas of the First Baptist church and everyone else who had a part in helping to make the convention a success."

Mrs. L. S. Daniel of Abilene, district committeewoman, in speaking of the dance held Saturday night, said it was one of the best she had ever attended in the 14 years she has been engaged in this part of the work. The committees appointed from the member of the local post, put the job over in splendid style; the post commander said, and he wants them to know of his personal appreciation for the wonderful work they did.

ORDER DRAWN FOR A FEDERAL TENDER BOARD

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.— Oil administrator Harold Ickes said today he had prepared an executive order for submission to President Roosevelt re-establishing the federal tender board in East Texas. He already has sent inspectors to the field and ordered reports on illegal producers. "The inspectors are working under authority of the new Connolly oil bill which made violators liable under the law as soon as it was signed by President Roosevelt last Friday night."

ATTEMPT MADE TO GET RELIEF BILL ON FLOOR

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.— A movement to force the administration work relief bill back onto the senate floor developed today among independent republicans. It was learned several of the so-called progressive bloc had agreed on an effort to make the administration release the bill from committee, where it was returned when the senate overrode the White House and added the prevailing wage agreement.

The senate was in session for only one hour today, adjourning soon after 1 p. m. With the future of the work relief bill in doubt other parts of the program had come to an almost complete stop.

PRaise GIVEN LEGISLATORS FROM DISTRICT

Praise for Legislators George Davison, Jr., and Cecil Lotief was sounded Saturday by C. W. Hoffman of Eastland, former president of the West Texas Gas & Oil association and director now, who has recently returned from a visit to Austin.

Visitors from Eastland county to Austin have found out Lotief and Davison are opposed to any further increase on the gross production tax, Mr. Hoffman said. "Eastland county people who have visited at Austin since the legislature has been in session returned home praising the work done by our legislators Cecil Lotief and George Davison, Jr., from Eastland county," Mr. Hoffman commented.

"Both men are working long hours each day in order to keep up with the affairs of our state which so vitally affects their own constituents, as well as continual keeping in mind the well-being of the entire state.

"Mr. Lotief, who so ably filled his first term of office and was re-elected for his second term by a large majority is a member of some of the most important committees that we have in the State of Texas. He is a member of the revenue and taxation committee, a member of the oil and gas committee, which industry pays better than 65 per cent of all the revenue received by the State of Texas, and on numerous other committees.

"Visitors from Eastland county were also very well pleased to know that Mr. Lotief and Mr. Davison are very much opposed to any further increase on the gross production tax which was considered by the revenue and taxation committee last Thursday night. Mr. Lotief making an argument before the entire committee that any increase in the way of gross production tax levied upon the oil industry would only mean an additional tax burden on the small independent producer and royalty owners of his two counties Eastland and Callahan which are struggling under an already overtaxed condition.

"Figures showing the gross production tax and ad valorem taxes at the present time makes each independent producer in his counties pay in these taxes over 6 per cent of their gross sales which is not equalled by any business or industry in the State of Texas. Any further increase would only tend to exterminate the little producer and be hard on the laboring class of people which both Mr. Lotief and Mr. Davison are trying so hard to protect. It would also stagnate business houses who are already operating under unfavorable conditions. Mr. Lotief also has introduced a number of bills in the house in which he is working. One of the bills was recently passed by the House with a three-fourths majority and now goes to the Senate for its approval.

"George Davison, Jr., who is working equally hard is also on a number of important committees and has a number of bills which he has personally introduced. Among them is a bill to reduce the license on automobiles which has been reported favorably to the House by the committee. This bill will effect more people than any other one piece of legislation which is now in effect in the state. He also has a bill

Make HAPPINESS a Habit

Wouldn't you like to step up the amount of enjoyment you get from life? The knack of keeping fit is largely a matter of regular habits. Your happiness may be hampered by common constipation due to insufficient "bulk" in your meals.

Did you know that your grocer has a natural cereal food which corrects this condition? Kellogg's All-Bran, eaten regularly, supplies generous "bulk." Also vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" in All-Bran is gentle and safe for normal individuals. More effective than the "bulk" in leafy vegetables, as it does not break down within the body.

Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Isn't this cereal food much better than taking patent medicines? Serve it as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in cooking. Get Kellogg's All-Bran at your grocer's. It contains much more "bulk" than most cereals. Products made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Keep on the Sunny Side of Life on which he is working at the present which will revise our present truck regulations. Besides these he also has numerous other bills to be introduced which will greatly aid the people of this district.

"Visitors cannot help but be impressed with Mr. Davison's work in the legislature considering that he is serving his first term in the House of Representatives. Mr. Davison is working and is getting results which would credit to a second or third term legislator.

"Eastland and Callahan counties can point with pride to the work being done by their representatives and can rest assured that these gentlemen are working for the best interests of their counties as well as for the entire State of Texas. Both of them are always glad to see anyone from their districts and are desirous of getting the people's wishes on any and all legislation which is being considered at this time or which is to be considered in the future.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVEK BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sick and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral waters, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just stagnates in the bowels, gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Your skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

To take these good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain Sulfadiazine, gentile vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't look for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of substitutes. Read drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.
