

MAN BLAMES SLAIN WIFE WITH TORTURE

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Experienced police officers inured to crime in its most shocking form, confessed bafflement today in their efforts to clear up the case of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hurd and their adopted daughter.

A hodge-podge of spiritualism, barbaric cruelty and a near homicide confused their attempts to learn why Hurd, 77-year-old retired railroad watchman, shot and fatally wounded his wife, Nelly, 67.

Crazed with pain from burns on his feet, knife wounds on his legs and arms he said were caused by whippings with wire lashes. Hurd said he was driven to shoot his wife with the gun she had used to intimidate him. She died today from four bullet wounds in the same hospital where Hurd, weak and ill, was questioned by officers.

"We've had trouble ever since we were married 12 years ago. Then she got the idea spirits had told her I was having relations with this other woman and I had given the woman $15,000 of a hidden fortune," he said.

Woman Advocates New Legislation To Aid Mere Man

Who said that women were not in official political offices. Get that out of your system, because there is a woman representative that placed a bill before the house (and it will pass) that no man would have dared to do. It simply does away with the alimony and all that stuff that women have used in many instances for breach of promise, etc. Even that woman legislator, had plenty of nerve, but being a femini she wasn't afraid of the proverbial dish pans, skillet and rolling pins. Mere man would have had all these and more had he presented such a bill.

Ward Week Going Over Better Than Expected This Year

Carl Jansing, manager of the Ranger store of Montgomery Ward today called attention to the fact that Saturday was the last day of Ward Week, which is being celebrated over the country with a gigantic sale. This will be the last opportunity for the Ward customers to get these low prices on ward merchandise.

The middle of the week, the manager said, large shipments of new merchandise were received for the last few days of the sale, and those will be offered on Friday and Saturday.

This is one of the most successful Ward Weeks ever conducted by the local store, he said Thursday, and every line of merchandise in stock has contributed toward the success of the sale, with furniture sales being exceptionally good. The sale has met with a wonderful response from all over this section of the state.

COMMITTEE ON CLEANUP HELD MEET TUESDAY

Members of the executive committee of the cleanup campaign met in the office of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night, with Dr. W. C. Palmer, director-general of the campaign, presiding, and reports of the various committees were received. The reports indicated that much good work is being done during the campaign. C. Smith, chairman of the cleanup committee, stated that merchants in the business section had been contacted and they were cleaning up and a good deal of improvement was already being noted. R. A. Steele, of the Boy Scout committee, stated that the scouts were competing for the prize for the largest pile of trash and had been gathering trash for some time. G. A. Murphy, co-chairman, stated that he was now having the street sweeper overhauled and that his men would begin either Wednesday or Thursday night sweeping the alleys of the business section. Johnny Boyd, chairman of the street committee, reported that the co-operation of the city commis-

Applications For Emergency Crop, Feed Loans Are Being Received

Field Supervisor Murrah Nolte of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office at Dallas, states that applications for emergency crop loans and feed loans are now being received by the Eastland County Loan Committee, with offices located at Eastland. In accordance with the Act of Congress authorizing the loans, and regulations issued by Governor W. I. Myers of the Farm Credit Administration, loans will be made only to farmers who are unable to obtain elsewhere seed, fertilizers, supplies, feed or the necessary credit to purchase such items. Loans will not be made to applicants who can obtain credit in the amount needed from any other source, including the production credit association. Any farmer who has the necessary security should apply to the production credit association first. If the association is unable to make him a loan in the amount the farmer will receive a statement to that effect and will be considered eligible to apply for a loan from the emergency fund. The regulations provide that the largest loan to one farmer this year is $500 and the minimum $10, but no loan may be made in an amount greater than is actually needed to cover the cash cost of purchasing seed, fertilizers, supplies, feed, etc. Loans will be made for the purpose of growing and harvesting crops, for summer fallowing, for purchasing feed for livestock; but not for the purpose of purchasing livestock or machinery, or for the payment of debts or taxes. Loans will be made only to applicants who are cooperating with the Production Control Program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. As in the past, the security for an emergency crop or feed loan will consist of a first lien on the crop financed or on the livestock to be fed. A tenant must also give a first lien by getting the landowner to waive his claim in favor of the crop lien; but the landowner is in no way obligated for repayment of his tenant's loan. Checks in payment of approved loans will be issued by the Regional Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office at Dallas, Texas; and not by the field supervisor of the loan committee.

Accidental Death Is Verdict In The Stevenson Death

Justice of the Peace J. N. McFatter of Ranger has rendered a verdict of death by gunshot wound accidentally inflicted, in the death of Henry Stevenson, 22, who was fatally shot at his farm home south of Ranger Wednesday morning. According to the justice of the peace he made an investigation of the shooting and found nothing that indicated it was not accidental, and his verdict was made according to his findings at the scene of the accident. Mrs. Stevenson testified at the inquest that her husband was trying to remove a shell from the gun when it accidentally exploded and the bullet struck him in the abdomen, Judge McFatter said, and the testimony of neighbors bore out this evidence.

ANTI-TRUST LAW INVALID COURT RULES

AUSTIN, April 3.—Texas anti-trust law was held invalid by the Third Court of Civil Appeals here today when it affirmed dismissal of the $17,500,000 penalty suits brought by Attorney General James V. Allred against 14 oil companies. Exemption of agricultural and livestock products from terms of the law so long as they remained in possession of the producers, was held to make the law discriminatory and violative of the federal constitution. The court today said that if the action of the trial court in dismissing the suit was correct it was not material if the action was based on an improper ground. Without passing upon the effect of the national industrial recovery act on state laws, the court today relied on the decision of the United States supreme court which held an Illinois anti-trust law invalid, because it had the exact exemptions that are in the Texas law.

Activities of the H. Demonstration Clubs of County

"Be sure you have accurate measurements and follow carefully the directions on the chart, thus getting a correct pattern and avoiding problems in fitting," advised Mrs. Calvin Swan, wardrobe co-operator of the Bass Lake Home Demonstration club. The well fitted foundation pattern is similar to a tailor made dress and should be comfortable to the wearer in every way and for every purpose. Foundation Pattern Time Saver "I make my clothes in a much shorter time now that I have a foundation pattern," says Mrs. D. M. Jacobs, Class II wardrobe demonstrator for the North Star Home Demonstration club. "A foundation pattern is an individually fitted pattern and garments made by it fit and I do not have to take extra time pinning and basting the garments for one or more fittings. I had to make before I got my foundation pattern. The pattern saves material as well as time because I do not have to allow seams for changing in fitting. All women should have a foundation pattern and use the pattern for all garments."

Superintendent of Eastland schools P. B. Bittle attended funeral services for Col. C. C. Todd, his sister's husband, Wednesday morning in Bryan. Col. Todd, veteran of three wars and former commandant of the Texas A. & M. College Cadet Corps, died Monday night from a heart attack suffered earlier in the day. He served as an officer in the Spanish-American War, the Philippine Insurrection, and the World War. Colonel Todd was a licensed attorney and represented the group of girls who in 1933 sought to register at Texas A. & M. He was president of the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce. As a Rotarian, he is remembered by many of Eastland county who became acquainted at a district convention in Mineral Wells in recent years.

Receive Forms to Complete Sign-up

Cotton producers were advised Wednesday by the Eastland County Cotton Committee that necessary forms for completion of the cotton sign-up have been received at the county agent's office. Cotton growers were requested to meet their respective committee on dates specified by the committee and make application for contracts. The district sign-up, it was indicated, will not end until April 9. The following schedule was given for benefit of cotton producers to sign-up: Saturday: Cisco, Chamber of Commerce; Rising Star, Higginbotham Brothers. Monday: Carbon, Carbon Trading Company; Gorman, Judge Smith's office. Tuesday: Ranger, Chamber of Commerce; Eastland, County Agent's office. Either C. Metz Heald, county agent, or O. W. Ewing, cotton assistant, will be at the sign-up sites to answer questions and check contracts for errors before signers leave. Between 1100 and 1200 contracts are expected to be signed. Last year there were about 475.

Ciscoans Vote For Berry While Tyler Beats Wren at R. S.

In Tuesday's municipal election at Cisco, involving principally the issue of present and past administrations, Mayor J. T. Berry was returned to office for his third term, defeating by more than three to one J. M. Williamson, who served as mayor for a 16-year period ending in 1931. Berry got 694 votes to Williamson's 192. Two present commissioners also were re-elected by large majorities. G. A. Bile and W. J. Foxworth got 610 and 611 votes, respectively, to 256 for L. F. Mendelhall and 281 for W. W. Wallace.

BEAZOS DATA HEAD BELIEVES CHANCE FOR MANGUM DAM

Encouragement of possibility of allocation of a damsite near Mangum conditional upon approval of the Brazos watershed project in congress was given T. H. Landon, county engineer, and H. C. Davis, Eastland chamber secretary, by John Norris at Temple Friday. Occasion for the contact came when they attended a banquet welcoming Brazos River lobbyists from Washington. Norris, chairman of the state board of water engineers, stated that preliminary data shown him indicated the Eastland forces' project had good prospects and that representatives would be sent to Eastland in the future to make inspection. Norris appeared in congress recently in the interest of the project. He has been supervising compilation of the engineering data for the Brazos River $50,000,000 development since 1925.

DRIVE TO STOP SWINDLING IN STOCK STARTS

WASHINGTON, April 3.—A nation-wide drive to rid the country of stock swindlers who reap an annual harvest of billions from investors' pocketbooks was prepared today by the securities and exchange commissions. Department of justice tactics which have driven gangsters and kidnappers to cover, are being adopted. The drive is expected to be the most intensive ever made against "blue sky" promoters, who have continued lawless activities to rob the public despite the stringent new securities laws. Regional centers are being established to direct activities in the field. The new officers will cooperate closely with authorities in 17 states having blue sky laws.

OAK GROVE

There is some sickness in this community at this writing. Oscar Petree is dangerously sick with pneumonia and his father, A. D. Petree, has the flu. Deere, Petree, Jr., and his daughter, Ruby Nell of Lamesa, Texas, were here to visit their relatives a few days last week. Fred Milford and J. E. Cannaday are regular attendants at the Long Branch Bible school where the great truths of the Holy Book are being magnified. Henry Riee has just recently completed a new storm cellar, where he expects to entertain his friends when the stormy winds that beat too hard. Our farmers are getting their spring work well in hand. The planting of corn and early maize is about completed and fairly good stands are being reported but we need rain. Hitler wants man-for-man, gun-for-gun parity with other powers. It'll probably turn out one of these eye-for-an-eye affairs.

The name of the play which was a three-act comedy was "Here Comes Charlie" and those who were present enjoyed it thoroughly. The object of the play was to raise money for the caps and gowns and other graduation expenses. Quite a nice sum was raised. The scene of all three acts was the living room of Larry Elliott's home near St. Louis. Each one of the players acted his or her part splendidly and reflected credit on their director, Mr. Mullins. The cast of characters was as follows: Nora Malone, the cook, Dorothy Dishman; Officer Tim McGill; Nora's sweetheart, T. C. # 'Gold Diggers' and Sequoia at Arcadia

Local Theatre Has Line of Most Outstanding Films of The Year

Happy days are here again according to H. E. Garner, as he announced his program for the coming week at the local playhouse. Three of the greatest box office attractions to be released this year are due for the Arcadia screen starting Saturday and running through Tuesday. During these four days Will Rogers will be seen in his newest laugh riot, "Life Begins at Forty," which comes Saturday and Sunday, and "The Gold Diggers of 1935," the big Warner Bros. musical will come for a special midnight showing Saturday night at 11:15. The real outstanding attraction of the week, however, will be here Monday and Tuesday, when the theatre gets the much-discussed "Sequoia."

"The bill Monday and Tuesday is the most perfect program I have ever offered the patrons of the theatre," the management stated in discussing "Sequoia."

In addition to the feature a most unusual short subject, "Star Night at Coconut Grove," featuring Big Crosby and Ted Fiorito's famous band will be shown together with a new Walt Disney cartoon, "The Tortoise and Hare," and a Paramount News.

Rogers Pulls New Gags In New Film at Arcadia Saturday

As usual Will Rogers puts plenty of fun and wise cracks in his newest picture, "Life Begins at Forty," which comes to the Arcadia Theatre Saturday and Sunday. Below are three of the gags he pulls in the picture which had them rolling in the aisles when it played its world premier in New York recently:

"If them quintuplets up yonder were born in this country, two of 'em would have to be plowed under."

"This morning I ate nine biscuits and seven sausages for breakfast. If I'd been worth a million dollars I couldn't have held another bite."

"When I started out to write an misspelled a few words, people said I was just plain ignorant. Soon as I got to misspelling all of 'em, they discovered I was a humorist and said I was quaint."

Picture-lovers who find Will Rogers' brand of humor irresistible—and this includes the entire screen public—are delighted with the news that his latest picture, "Life Begins at Forty," coming next Saturday and Sunday to the Arcadia Theatre, is crammed with fun.

Fun Crams Rogers' New Film Comedy

Advance reports label this Fox Film, suggested by the Walter B. Pirkin book hit, a bang-up laugh riot. Critics say it easily eclipses previous Rogers' favorites, "Judge Priest," "Dad Harum," and "The County Chairman."

Rogers portrays a double-fisted, tender-hearted country editor who proves that the years after forty are the best and goes in quest of the fountain of youth. He launches a series of situations that smash the funny bone to smithereens.

"Life Begins at 40," relates the romance of a young school teacher and a youth "railroaded" to prison. The shrewd editor brings to light facts that clears the boy and stirs up a hornet's nest of fun in the process.

Among the high spots in the picture are Will's efforts at hog-calling, and his pistol duel which he wins through wisecracking.

America's ace humorist uncorks a brand new vintage of laughs, from reliable accounts.

The direction of this Sol M. Wurtzel production is by George Marshall. Lamar Trotti, who collaborated on the story of "Judge Priest," wrote the screen play.

The supporting cast includes Rochelle Hudson and Richard Cromwell in the romantic leads, George Barbier, Jane Darwell, Slim Summerville, Sterling Holloway, Thomas Beck, Roger Imhof, Charles Sellon, John Bradford and Ruth Gillette.

Money Shortage Balks Romance

Money may make the mare go round, but the lack of it short-circuits romance. That second idea motivates "310 Raise," the Fox Film picture due today at the Arcadia theatre.

In the featured parts, Edward Everett Horton plays the timid bookkeeper too scared to ask for a raise.

He humorously controls the destiny of a village through his newspaper, in his latest Fox Film picture, "Life Begins at Forty," which will come next Saturday to the Arcadia Theatre.

Rogers' Flying Record

Will Rogers has flown close to 200,000 miles by plane, but has never yet touched the controls of a ship.

He humorously controls the destiny of a village through his newspaper, in his latest Fox Film picture, "Life Begins at Forty," which will come next Saturday to the Arcadia Theatre.

Edward Everett Horton and Karen Morley have the featured roles in "310 Raise," the current Fox Film success at the Arcadia theatre. They are supported by Alan Dinehart, Glen Boles, Rosina Lawrence, Berton Churchill, Ray Walker, Frank Melton and William Benedict.

Mirth and Match Making

Special Purpose Of Life Insurance

By C. F. O'Donnell, President, Southwestern Life Insurance Co.

Since 1928 one hundred billion dollars of life insurance has lapsed or otherwise terminated in the United States. This is the amount of life insurance that was not continued until death or until the maturity of the "endowment policies." The large figure can be compared with the amount of life insurance which is now in force in the United States which amounts to ninety-eight billion dollars. The comparison suggests the possibility that people might use more care in buying life insurance.

Life insurance companies have a selfish purpose in trying to reduce the high lapsed of life insurance. It is also true that a reduction in the lapses of life insurance would be beneficial for the insurance buying public.

Life insurance companies have found out that insurance which is bought for specific purposes stays in force better than life insurance which is bought without a specific purpose in mind. For that reason the life insurance business has developed plans for special purpose life insurance. Special purpose life insurance may be designed for three principal purposes:

1. To provide an income to a family during the period which is necessary for the rehabilitation of the family following the removal from the family circle of the principal income producer.

2. To provide a monthly life income for a designated person. This designated person may be the widow of the insurance buyer, or

FIRE CHIEF URGES CARE IN BURNING OF TRASH

Householders are urged by Fire Chief G. A. Murphy today to use great care in burning papers and trash in their yards, because of the high winds common at this time of the year.

The chief said that he sympathized with everyone's desire to keep his yard and premises neat and clean but at the same time pointed out that first, if not carefully watched, may blow around and the burning fragments communicate the fire to nearby property or buildings.

"The best method, if it is absolutely necessary to burn material out of doors, is to make the fire in a wire basket or some other container that will keep the blaze from being scattered by spring breezes," he said.

"We should also be careful that the fire is not made in or near dead grass, leaves and brush left over from last summer. These materials dry out quickly in this season of warm weather and the brisk winds. When dry they will burn briskly, allowing fire to travel very fast."

Chief Murphy also emphasized the desirability of having a grown-up watch the fire until it is entirely out. If this isn't done, it may get away, or little children may play around the bonfire. There have been numerous instances of kiddies being burned when they did this, for they often make a game of seeing who can come closest, or take turns in jumping over the flames.

Little girls are in particular danger around the leaping flames of bonfires, because of the flimsy material of their dresses, and because their dresses flap around freely, and are more apt to take fire than the close-fitting clothes the little boys wear. On the other hand, the boys are more bold in approaching the flames. It is a good policy to keep all the children back from the fire.

While speaking about the spring breezes, Chief Murphy also touched on kite flying. He said that the boys should be cautioned against flying kites with anything but string, as a metal wire used to send the kite up may come in contact with live wires, and communicate the current to the boy on the ground. He also warned against youngsters climbing poles to get kites off electric wires. "Boys should be taught to regard all electric wires as live wires. If they do, they will leave them alone, and will not be in danger of electrocution or bad burns," concluded the chief.

Adult Classes Are Holding Interest Of Many Students

Many are now taking advantage of the courses being offered in the federal adult school, it was reported Saturday by Mrs. Louis Pitcock, and all are enthusiastic about their work.

All teachers are also enthusiastic over their work. The classes have students ranging from 16 years to 70 years of age and all seem to be most grateful for the opportunity to learn.

One man, 45 years of age, who walks eight and a half miles to school, has missed only three nights. He has recently found employment for which he gives the school credit. This man says, "One of the greatest opportunities ever presented to men and women of America is being offered today—a chance to learn."

For those whose early chances were limited or whose educational careers were interrupted by faulty judgments or by events beyond their control, the classes in the federal adult school are a golden opportunity, those in charge say.

A great interest is being shown in the choral groups. Classes are held each Monday night at the Odd Fellows hall from 7 to 10 o'clock. The advanced group meets each Wednesday night at the same hour in the Bundick home, Hunt street. The group which meets Friday night at Bullock is growing rapidly. Last Friday night there were 50 in attendance. Everyone is eligible to enter these classes.

Pickering Manager Visits In Ranger; Says Business Good

S. W. Deal, vice president and general manager of the Pickering Lumber Sales company, visited the Ranger office of the company Monday.

While in Ranger Mr. Deal reported that business conditions are greatly improved over all sections of the country and the outlook is brighter than it has been for several years.

He stated that the loan company his yards have been operating is going over big, and that the yards now have loans to make to home owners and said that the company is looking forward to having one of the best business years for some time back.

Charlie Lay Will Promote Wrestling For the Elks Lodge

Announcement was made at the Elks Arena last evening that beginning next Monday night Chas. Lay, formerly connected with the Elks promotion card in Ranger, would have charge of the wrestling matches in Ranger each Monday evening for the Elks.

Lay is a good wrestler himself and has just recently toured the North and East where he was able to meet some of the best.

In the bouts last night at the Arena Eddie O'Shea and Dutch Tennant went the entire 45 minutes to a draw. It was a good match—so many of the fans say that O'Shea always gives a good show.

The final between Tiger Billy McEwin and Count Von Bromberg was one of the best matches seen in the local arena in some time.

Tiger Bill, as he is known, was plenty tough with his opponent and won the best two out of three.

Lay, in a brief announcement from the arena promised the fans a dandy match for next Monday night.

Ranger May Select Pageant Princess

A letter has been received by the Chamber of Commerce from the Mineral Wells Chamber of Commerce, stating that a big centennial pageant will be staged in Mineral Wells Friday night, April 19, and Ranger has been urged to select a princess at the coronation of Queen Texas.

A number of towns in this section of the state are being asked to select ladies to represent them as princesses in the ceremony.

A safe, prompt delivery service for your convenience! Phone 452.

"And a swell job of pressing, too! All my clothes come back with that 'finished' appearance and feel when RANGER DRY CLEANERS does the work. I've become so used to their superior cleaning and pressing now, that I refuse to use any other methods."

There's just one thing we'd like to say to you about your clothes, and that is, "We guarantee satisfaction."

Brighten up with ALL-BRAN!

You've had days when you've felt discouraged and low. Nothing seemed to go right. Frequently these dreary days can be traced to common constipation, due to lack of "bulk" in your meals.

This ailment may cause headaches and loss of energy. Correct it by eating a delicious cereal.

Laboratory research shows Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and food-iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN resists digestion better than the fiber in fruits and vegetables. It is gentle—and often more effective. Isn't this natural food better than taking patent medicines—after breakfast?

Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. With each meal, in chronic cases, if not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Brighten days with ALL-BRAN! Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Evil of Big Business Lies in Exploitation

President Roosevelt's remarks on public utility holding companies bring into sharp relief the growing disposition to distinguish between big business and high finance.

A generation ago the average citizen kept a wary eye on big business. The gigantic new industrial combinations frightened him. He had an uneasy feeling that they were growing so big and so powerful that his liberties were in danger of being trampled under foot.

Today he looks in another direction. He is used to big business, now. He has discovered that the worst sweatshop conditions, for instance, are often to be found in the small industry; he recalls that it is frequently the big industrialist who pioneers in high wage scales.

But high finance is something else again. There is a now-you-see-it-now-you-don't quality about it that leaves the ordinary man dazed. Furthermore, the events of recent years have demonstrated that altogether too many of these busy financiers are not "men of vision" or "makers of America" so much as clever and not too scrupulous self-seekers.

The president expresses the average re-action pretty clearly:

"It is time to make an effort to reverse that process of the concentration of power which has made most American citizens . . . helplessly dependent for their daily bread upon the favor of a very few, who by such devices as holding companies, have taken for themselves unwarranted economic power."

That says it. It draws the line between industrial leadership which seeks to produce and the kind of financial leadership which seeks to exploit. The former helps to enrich the whole country; the latter is distinctly anti-social.

For a large industrial corporation, after all, is interested in just one thing—production of usable goods. That is its only reason for existence; that is the only way it can make money for its stockholders. Its goal, in other words, is the goal of the country as a whole.

To attack the holding company system is not to attack big business. It is to attack a thing which is a parasite on big business—and on all the rest of us as well.

To attack the holding company system is not to attack big business. It is to attack a thin which is a parasite on big business—and on all the rest of us as well.

We Can Avoid War By Complete Isolation

Whatever else it may be doing, the current European war scare is at least providing a field day for American internationalists.

The burden of their cry right now is that if and when Europe goes to war it will be utterly impossible for the United States to stay out of it.

Looking back at what happened in 1914 and immediately thereafter, it is not hard to understand why people should feel that way. And yet it is equally hard to see why the program we followed during the last war has to be duplicated in the next one.

We weren't able to keep out of the last war—granted. But is there any overwhelming reason why, profiting by the lessons we learned then, we cannot keep out of the next one?

If we hope to do so, there are two courses open to us.

The first one is to follow the lead of the internationalists, work with the League of Nations right up to the hilt, negotiate and confer with European statesmen whenever the European pot starts boiling, and take in every way possible an active, energetic course to keep war from starting.

Considering what the American electorate has done to the League of Nations proponents at various times, it is hard to picture any American government following that course.

The other possibility is to buttress our isolation in every imaginable way. And the most important way would seem to be to get a new concept of neutrality.

We started out to be neutral in the last war. But what happened? We loaned money and sold supplies to all comers; the only persons who could get at us to borrow and buy were the allies; as an inevitable result, we soon became in fact, although not avowedly, a silent partner in the allied cause. We were their banker and their production manager.

Once that had happened, it was only a question of time before we should get into the war in bloody earnest.

Neutrality of that kind is no neutrality at all. If we follow the same course in the next war, we may expect the same result.

But we can devise a new kind of neutrality. We can refuse to sell or to lend to any warring nations. That would be hard policy to follow, of course. But it would enable us to steer clear of trouble.

We might as well make up our mind to it. If we prefer isolation to taking a hand in the internationalists' game, the isolation must be complete. Complete isolation is expensive, but that may be the price we have to pay for remaining at peace.

Labor Clears Economic Sky

Washington observers now believe that the threatened wave of strikes in major industries will not materialize this spring, after all.

A few weeks ago the outlook was dark. Leaders of organized labor were on the outs with the administration. Serious trouble threatened in soft coal, automobile, steel, rubber tire, and textile trades; and no one needs to mediate very long to realize what a succession of strikes in these basic industries would do to the recovery program.

Now, however, the sky is brighter. Concessions have been made by both sides. President Roosevelt's dream of an industry-labor truce seems closer to realization, with labor leaders mollified by assurance of administration support for at least part of labor's legislative program.

It is to be hoped that this new optimism is justified. Widespread labor trouble is always costly to everyone concerned. It would be especially costly just now.

It is the responsibility of labor, industry, and government to find a peaceful solution for current difficulties.

Back to the Middle Ages

An enterprising British real estate firm, marketing a new residential subdivision in Middlesex, has equipped its new estates with built-in dugouts, guaranteed gasproof and bombproof, and is making quite a point of the matter in its advertising.

It would be hard to find a grimmer bit of testimony to the insecurity of life in the face of modern warfare. Centuries ago, people built their houses without windows so that each home could stand a siege. Today we have advanced immeasurably from the disordered conditions which made such architecture necessary.

But if we have to equip our homes with bombproof dugouts, where is the gain? We have simply gone back to conditions of the middle ages.

Weekly Sunday School Lesson THE HEAVENLY FATHER

Text: John, 14:8-24 The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for April 7 BY WM. E. GILROY, D. D., Editor of Advance

With this lesson we begin a new quarter, the first dealing with great Christian teachings and purposes, with a concluding temperance lesson on "Liberty Under Law."

The first of these great teachings concerns the Heavenly Father. This is basic in the teaching of Jesus and in the conception of Christianity.

If we examine carefully all that Jesus did and taught, we shall find that primarily what He brought to the world was not a command, but a gospel. The first He said, "If God so loved us, we ought also to love one another."

How do we know that there is a Heavenly Father who loves us? This was the question that was troubling Philip when he came to Jesus and said, "Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us."

Jesus did not answer him in vague or philosophical terms. He said that the evidence of God's love and goodness were in the love and goodness that we find in human life, especially in His own life given over so completely to doing the Father's will that men might behold in Him the reality of God.

It is a wonderful saying of Jesus, worthy of much pondering and of taking deeply into our lives. "If a man love Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

To realize that is the fullness of faith and the greatest richness of life.

It is important to grasp this. Jesus never made religion a thing apart from life, or the revelation of it something apart from human character and conduct. God is not remote from man, but He is in man, and it is in the goodness in human life, finding its culmination in Jesus—the one supremely good—that we find the evidence of God.

We believe in the sun because it gives us light. So beholding the light that is in Jesus, we believe in the Sun of Righteousness and Love and Truth. There is a glory of God that permeates the world, and we cannot see how Jesus lived for His fellow men, loved them, and died for them, without believing that there is a Father of Love, of whose love this is the manifestation.

So Jesus said to Philip, "He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father." Jesus goes on in this simple effective sermon to Philip and the disciples to emphasize such such faith in God and such vision of Him means.

They are linked with a belief in God's essential provision for His children and with the conception of prayer in which the relation of God is so close and clear, that the disciple asks in the name of Jesus for what he needs for his spiritual life and sustenance. Life becomes above all things a keeping of the commandments of Jesus in love, because in so doing one dwells in the love of God.

But this life of the Christian in faith in a Heavenly Father is not one-sided. The Father gives to His children through the Holy Spirit the sense of communion and guidance. Jesus taught clearly the reality of the Divine Spirit that abides in man and that enriches his life through love.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon for Giles Hamilton Smithers, 72, with interment in the Evergreen cemetery, Ranger, immediately following the services.

The decedent had been a resident of Olden for a number of years. He was born in Texas on Dec. 26, 1862, and had been a farmer most of his life. He died at his home in Olden Sunday night, March 31.

Burial was conducted by Killingsworth, Cox & Co., of Ranger.

Rangers Outmoded In Modern Times, Research Man Says

AUSTIN.—Texas rangers, once famous the country over, are fast becoming a lamented tradition, says Paul E. Fidler, of the staff of the University of Texas Bureau of Municipal Research.

"There was a time," he wrote in "Texas Municipalities," "when one could boast with pride and conviction that one ranger was sufficient to quell one riot, but our sister states must wonder whether such a reputation is merited when notorious criminals can roam the vast areas of the state, robbing, killing and kidnapping as they go for months on end without being apprehended."

Fidler doesn't blame the rangers individually. It's the change of times. Ranger methods are no longer suited to fighting modern crime.

"Texas is trying to fight modern criminals with obsolete and outmoded police methods," he said. A central bureau to fight crime is his suggested solution. The legislature has proposed this in several bills. Fidler finds them all faulty.

ADVICE TO WOMEN

ALL women at some period of their lives need a strengthening tonic like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The young woman who suffers from monthly pains, the expectant mother who has nausea and other disagreeable symptoms, or the middle-aged woman who experiences "heat flashes" should try this "Prescription." Mrs. I. W. Wylie of 92 Red River St., Austin, Texas, said: "A relative was in such a terrible condition she couldn't do a thing. She lost many pounds in weight and suffered from feminine weakness. Finally she used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and gained weight and had no further trouble."

While no announcement concerning the nature of the full hour show was made at this time, owing to the fact that all details have not as yet been completed, the news that Lennie Hayton has been signed to assemble a special orchestra for the program, leads those in radio circles to expect a high-class popular program in direct contrast with Lucky Strike's previous success, the classical opera series. As far as known at this writing, Hayton is the only one thus far signed on the program.

LOOK AHEAD WHEN YOU BUY A CAR

HENRY FORD said thirty years ago that he wasn't just selling cars—he was furnishing transportation. If you bought a Ford, Mr. Ford recognized his responsibility to furnish service for it, to keep it running satisfactorily until it wore out.

And that is Ford policy today just as it was in 1905. Buy a Ford car, whether new or used, and you are entitled to the benefits and economies of Ford Service.

That is why thousands of well-equipped Ford Service Stations dot the world. You can get the help of trained mechanics, and genuine Ford parts, in almost every village and town.

And more than that—you can get the help of the Ford factory when it comes to major repair work. Ford has done something different to save your time and money. Ford Service has an Engine Exchange Plan by which in a few hours you can have an engine installed which has been reconditioned at the factory. And you save at least one-third the cost of an ordinary engine overhaul. You can get the same Exchange Service on smaller units such as carburetor, distributor, generator, fuel pump.

In many communities, Ford dealers are adding Neighborhood Service Stations in order to bring Ford Service closer to you. They are also installing the scientific new Ford Laboratory Test Set, which tells in a minute what is wrong with any engine or electrical system.

All this is to give you more satisfaction in the use of your Ford car, at less cost. We believe it will cost you far less if you own a Ford and use Ford Service.

"Mattress schools" took the center of the home demonstration stage during the last months of the old year and the first three of the new, rural women having firmly made up their minds to have King Cotton take his part in this live-at-home business.

From Cherokee county we learn that 40 people representing 27 communities attended one of the three mattress schools held in the county. These representatives and all other such have an obligation to go back home and teach the women of their own community what they have learned about making nice, soft, comfortable mattresses out of home-grown cotton.

Falo Pinto county reported four schools where 60 women learned mattress technique from helping to make three new mattresses and renovate two old ones.

Renovating evidently allows for a certain amount of originality—one Gray county woman reports that her husband put their mattress through the feed mill and that, coupled with a new ticking, has made them practically a new bed.

From Rusk and Trinity counties in East Texas and Presidio county in the far western end of the state; from Carson county in the Panhandle to Hardin county on the Gulf coast the reports are rolling in, about these mattress schools. More than 1,500 home-made cotton mattresses were reported by home demonstration club women in 1934. The market for bed ticking will probably ride an upward curve in 1935.

WAXAHACHIE—Knowing that a spacious lawn makes a more attractive setting for a house than a small, crowded one, Mrs. O. P. Claunch, yard improvement demonstrator for the Maypearl Home Demonstration club in Ellis county, has moved her fence back to add 21 feet to one side of her yard and nine feet to another, according to Miss Irma Ross, home demonstration agent. The yard has sufficient space at one side of the lawn for a rose garden and space at the back for a planting which will form a background for the house and lawn and serve as a screen to hide the poultry quarters. Mrs. Claunch has started a rose garden of 13 rooted roses and planted 85 shrubs and small native trees in screen plantings.

AUSTIN—"I am so pleased with the convenience of my new wardrobe that I would not sell it for $30, although it cost only $3.20 plus the labor," Mrs. E. C. Nauert of the Richland Home Demonstration club in Travis county told Miss Thelma Casey, home demonstration agent. "The closet is 81 inches high, 48 inches wide and 26 inches deep, and is portable. On one side are shelves for storing folded garments and on the other is a rod for hanging dresses and coats. The closet was built by my husband from refrigerator boxes and a few pieces of lumber for the frame. The outside is varnished a light oak and the inside is painted cream," Mrs. Nauert added.

THIS CHANGE Helps Children

Intestinal irritation in many growing girls and boys can be traced to one mistake. Are you making this mistake with your children? The "liquid test" will tell.

"What is this 'liquid test' they talk about?" ask mothers. Just this: a simple way of finding out if any boy or girl with irregular or insufficient bowel movements is in need of relief, or is getting the wrong treatment. Doctors urge a liquid laxative for children. The child who has been convalescing in a hospital will often come out with bowels working like a well-regulated watch. Hospitals give children a liquid laxative of suitable ingredients, suitable strength, and in suitable amount. The Proper Treatment Give that sluggish child a liquid laxative containing senna (a natural laxative). California Syrup of Figs has the right amount for children's use, and this rich, fruity syrup does not upset them. Just give any headachy, bilious child a little of this gentle laxative when constipated, and a little less if dose is repeated until the bowels seem to be moving regularly and thoroughly without need of help. How to Begin Stop all use of mineral drugs, whether they are salts, pills, tablets, or "candy" form. Even once a month is too often to give any child a cathartic strong enough for adults. It is not wise to give laxatives of adult strength to a child, just because you give them less frequently or in less amounts. So, get a bottle of California Syrup of Figs from your druggist, and start tonight, if your child is constipated, giving a good, cleansing dose. Repeat if necessary, giving a little less each time. That's the secret of this treatment—gradually reduced dosage. When you change to California Syrup of Figs instead of harsh medicines, you'll risk no more violence to your child's appetite, digestion, and general physical condition. You'll have a safer and more satisfactory result, too. THE "LIQUID TEST" This is the way to relieve occasional sluggishness, or constipation in a child of any age. First: select a liquid laxative of the proper strength for children. Second: give the dose suited to the child's age, and condition. Third: reduce the dose, if repeated, until the bowels are moving without any help at all. An ideal laxative for this purpose is California Syrup of Figs which every druggist keeps in stock. Be certain that it is the genuine product, with "California" blown in the bottle.

It is going up fast now and when finished will be one of the most conveniently built gyms in the county."

Eastland will send samples of water each month to the state department of health for bacterial tests, Walter Gray, city secretary, announced Saturday. The tests will be additional to the twice-a-week tests of a private laboratory in Dallas, the city secretary said, who pointed out the precaution Eastland is taking to safeguard the purity of the water supply.

Arrangements for the state tests, which will be free to the city, was made last week with a visiting state health inspector who advised them inspected the city disposal plant and lakes.

SIX CARLOADS POTATOES TO GO FOR RELIEF

H. E. Driscoll, Eastland County relief administrator, announced Saturday that six cars of Irish potatoes, containing 216,000 pounds, had been received and would be distributed over six counties in this section of the state.

The distribution by counties will be to relief offices as follows: Stephens county, 18,000 pounds. Palo Pinto County, 30,000 pounds. Erath County, 24,000 pounds. Comanche County, 18,000 pounds. Brown County, 26,000 pounds. Eastland County, 100,000 pounds.

It was reported at the same time that another shipment was on the way to this section and would arrive within a few days, and that out of this shipment Eastland county relief offices would receive 114,000 pounds of the potatoes. Relief officers over the county will be notified when their potatoes have arrived in Eastland so that they can go for them. Mr. Driscoll said in his report Saturday.

Sea Captain Saves Chief of Engineers A Major Operation

PORT ARTHUR, Texas.—An emergency major operation performed by a captain at sea saved the life of a chief engineer, it was learned here.

The operation was performed by Capt. George Anderson of the Texas company tanker "Solitaire" while the ship was 150 miles off the Halifax coast.

The chief engineer, Olaf Erkelind, was in poor health when the tanker cleared Port Arthur several weeks before but he was taken on board as he believed his condition would improve in a short while.

When the ship was off the Halifax coast, Erkelind's condition became worse and Captain Anderson believed he would die unless an operation was performed.

Accordingly he consulted his medical books, prepared his surgical instruments and made an abdominal incision. Novacaine, the only anesthetic available, was used to partially deaden the pain.

As soon as the ship reached port, Erkelind and his condition was reported much improved as a result of the operation.

Bass was ambushed and killed by Texas rangers in 1878 after one of his pals had tipped off the officers where the raid was to be staged. The rangers transported their horses over the stretch from Austin to Round Rock on a special railroad train, lay in wait and then shot it out with the outlaw.

Bass managed to escape for a time, but all of his gang was eventually rounded up in the brush near Round Rock and slain.

The new cast iron marker will be paid for by the cemetery association, as soon as sufficient funds have been raised.
