

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sept. 16, 1953
Barzberg, Germany.

Dear Ed:
Just got the Beacon today and was very happy to get it. Its the August 20 edition. It's almost a month old but its still good news from home.

I will get to come home for Christmas this year. I get 36 days leave and I'll fly home. The States will really look good after being over for awhile.

I've just got off maneuvers, which was exercise Monte Carlo. I guess the only reason they called it that is because it would take all of the money at Monte Carlo to support it. All the members of the NATO nations was in on it. It proved to be very successful. The 26th Regiment got a letter of commendation from our Dio C. G. I hope that he liked it.

I'm a message center chief now. I type off messages that come thru. I really like the job. I am in a new company now, which I have been for about three months. Tell every one hello.

Sincerely,

September 10, 1953.

Dear Mr. Hays:

When you receive this letter we hope to be on our way to the States after a "tour of four years in Germany. Three years were spent in Nurnberg, and one in Wurzburg.

It has really been wonderful to receive the Lockney Beacon, although they often arrived in groups of two, three or four. I always read all the pages — after finding a familiar name among all the stranger ones. After a time, even the strange names became familiar and it was always a paper with news of home folks.

Our stay in Germany has been very interesting. We made a number of German friends. One of the highlights was attending the first performance of the Passion Play at Oberammergan in 1950. Last year, I spent two days in Vienna, Austria, with a group from the 16th Infantry Mivro Club, then two days in Paris this year.

Our adoption of two little girls, who are sisters, has made our stay in Germany well worthwhile and has meant more than all the traveling could have meant. Our good fortune in that respect has more than compensated for our failure to visit all the other European countries.

Again, thank you very much for sending the Beacon to give us a "bit from home." It is my plan to thank you in person when we visit relatives and friends at Lockney and Plainview.

Yours very truly,
Lurla Witte Davis.

P. S. We go to Fort Hood, Texas for the new assignment.

STRING BEAN SOUP
You can make a delicious cream soup out of leftover string beans. Press beans through a sieve, allowing two cups of thin white sauce for every half cup of puree. Prepare the white sauce in a double broiler, add the puree and let it simmer on the top burner of your range. Just before serving, season with grated onion, a dash of thyme or sage, and sprinkle with paprika for eye-appeal.

To make aluminum burners on your gas range gleam like polished silver, try the versatile new foam rubber "scrubber," which has a layer of fine emery on one side of the self-cleaning square. It's also good for restoring scorched aluminum or copper pots and for removing stubborn stains in the oven or broiler of your gas range.

Only at certain seasons is the hair of the ermine white.

"COMMANDMENTS"
We want to study this week about commandments. We do not have refer to the Ten Commandments, but to the commands of God as a whole in reference to all men, and the commands of the New Testament in reference to man since the cross of Christ. We study the Old Testament and one of the things that is impressed upon our minds after even a brief study is the fact that God demanded obedience to His commands. Over and over again we have examples given to us of obedience and reward, disobedience and punishment. Beginning with Adam and Eve while they were still sinless; God gave them a command — not to eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. They did not obey God's command and they were cast from the Garden of Eden and physical death came upon all men. This is our first case of disobedience. We could continue on through the Old Testament and see that God demanded obedience.

Remember the story of Abraham and Isaac; how God told Abraham to offer up Isaac as a sacrifice? It was not until Abraham had made ready the altar and was ready to do what God had commanded that the Angel stayed the hand of Abraham and the Lord said through the Angel, "Now I know."

In Leviticus 16 we have the case of Nadab and Abihu. It is stated in regard to them that they "offered strange fire before the Lord, which He commanded them not." Nadab and Abihu were destroyed by fire because they had not respected the commandments of God as they should have. They only used a fire which had not been commanded by the Lord.

These examples are just a few of many. If you want to read of other cases just open your Bible and read almost any where in the Old Testament. Paul tells us that these things were written for our learning and for our example. Jesus said in regard to obedience to His commands that if we do what he commands then are "ye my disciples, indeed." Paul stated that Jesus became "the author of eternal salvation to all them that OBEY Him." In view of all these things how can one continue to believe that it doesn't make any difference what you do just as long as you believe? We realize that salvation is by faith but not a dead faith, i. e., a faith that does not work. Will you not study and learn what you must do to be saved?

LOTS OF PEOPLE recognized this mystery farm published in Handley Shop & Pump Co. advertisement last week. It is the Carl Daniel farm, two miles north and three miles east of South Plains. Vernon Daniel, his son, "Red" and son-in-law, C. L. Vincent have the place leased and have farmed it the past two years. They have 1700 acres under lease on the place a part of that from Carl Daniels' son-in-law, L. N. Johnson. The 1700 acres are irrigated by eight irrigation wells. It is very level and all waters well with the exception of 10 or 12 acres.

They have more than 1200 acres of cotton on the place this year, the crop is good and they are hoping for an average of a bale per acre. They will use Mexican Nationals in harvesting the crop. The remainder of the land is in feed and the feed crop is "fair." Mr. Vincent said, The Vincents live on the farm while Vernon Daniel and his family live here.

The place is known as the old Walter Long place although Carl Daniels has owned it for about 15 years. Mr. and Mrs. Daniels now live in Sedalia, Mo.

L. J. Griffith won two tickets to the Plains Theatre or Seale Drive-In for being the first person to correctly identify the place. Many others also identified the farm correctly.

Watch for another mystery farm in next week's advertisement of Handley Shop & Pump Co.

Basketball Training Starts This Week

Coach Dempsey Alexander and thirty-five girls started basketball workouts last week. Approximately twenty of these girls are freshmen and the remainder are sophomores and juniors. There are only two returning seniors, Rosemary McDonald and Pat Poteet. He has two starters from last years team, Nell Cunyus and Pat Poteet. Both these girls played guard. Others who saw action were Margaret Holt and Rosemary McDonald.

The girls work out from nine to ten every morning on the sidewalk in front of the school house. The sound of balls hitting against the concrete started several of the classes the first morning. It sounded like someone was really taking a beating. They will have a new gym soon.

Good luck girls!

Second Fire Drill Successful

Yes, there's none of these Lockney High students that are going to stay in the building and burn, technically speaking.

The second fire drill that we had improved very much over the first one. It seems that is the first fire drill, the entire upstairs thought it was only time to change classes instead of getting out of the building, but we "live and learn." — Last Friday when the bell rang three times, all of the students and faculty got out of the building in one minute and ten seconds. It seems that this is a fairly good record to put down at the first of school. Next time though lets all try to be as quiet as possible and get out of the building in less than a minute and fifteen seconds.

New Seniors

Three new seniors have joined the Lockney High family. The first one is Richard Ellison from Plainview. Richard weighs 172 lbs., has brown hair, blue eyes and is 6' 1" tall. His ideal girl is 120 lb. brunette with blue eyes. Richard's favorite sport is basketball and his favorite food is catfish. When asked how he liked L. H. S. he said, "I like it fine."

Bobby Johnson is another addition to our senior class from Jonesboro, Texas. He weighs 163 lbs., 6' tall, has brown hair and eyes. Bobby's favorite dish is apple pie and the sport he enjoys most is football. Bobby has no ideal girl, in fact, he said, "I don't even like girls." Here's wishing Bobby a pleasant senior year in L. H. S.

Jerry Holt is not a newcomer to L. H. S. because she attended here as a Sophomore. Jerry completed her junior credits at Plainview High School last summer and is going to graduate here with the senior class of '54. We welcome these three students to the student body of L. H. S., and hope they will like it as much as we do.

CANDID CAMERA

Our Candid Camera turns this week to Mr. Weldon Snodgrass, another member of our faculty.

Mr. Snodgrass, who hails from Wynnboro, Texas, was born on June 30, 1929. He is six feet tall and has black hair and brown eyes. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from North Texas State and has attended East Texas State.

Mr. Snodgrass favors Betty Hutton and Rita Hayworth in the Hollywood bracket. He likes nearly all foods and his favorite colors are red, white, and blue. He likes popular and hillbilly music. He hasn't dreamed up an ideal girl yet. Maybe he just likes all girls or doesn't like any. (He has five sisters; could this be the answer?) His ambition is to be a medical doctor. Mr. Snodgrass attends the Baptist Church.

On the subject of how he likes Lockney High he said, "I like L. H. S. better each day. Both the faculty and the students are easy to work among."

Thank you, Mr. Weldon Snodgrass.

Band News

The Longhorn Band presented a good show Friday night at the half time. They marched on the field in band formation and upon the signal of the drum major, Barbara Carthel, they formed a house and played "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." After returning to band formation, the band formed a box and played "Turkey in the Straw" while the majorettes and drum major did a square in the center. They then formed a baggy and played "She'll Be Coming Around the Mountain." After that "Ring the Banjo" was played while the band went into the formation of a banjo. The band then formed a jug and played "Little Brown Jug" and then filed off the field.

The members of the Longhorn Band were pleasantly surprised last Thursday when David Jameson, last year's solo cornet player, paid them a visit. He played a few marches with them and also played in the stands Friday night. They were very happy to have him.

David is attending a communications school in Pueblo, Colo. Mr. Elmer Stimson was called to Grant, Oklahoma Friday afternoon where his father had suffered a heart attack. We are glad to report that the elder Mr. Stimson was some better at the time of this writing. Barbara Carthel did a fine job of directing the Floydada-Lockney ball game in Mr. Stimson's absence.

Ruby Wilson Is Bride Of Glenn McLeod

The wedding of Miss Ruby Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilson, Lockney, and Glenn McLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLeod of Denver, Colorado, was solemnized Sunday afternoon, September 27 at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist Church here.

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. R. E. Wiley, pastor, before an arch of white wrought-iron entwined with white lace vine and fern flanked with tall baskets of large white mums and branched candelabra bearing white tapers. Satin bows and aisle ribbon marked the pews.

A prelude of wedding music was played by Miss Bobbye Lu Casey who also accompanied Barbara Hays as she sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." Donice Casey sang as a benediction "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. The traditional wedding marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn were used.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of French lace over ivory satin. The satin bodice designed with a sweetheart neckline filled in with folds of appliqued net, was overlaid with lace. A lace peplum with scalloped edges converged in deep points at the front and back, was over the satin skirt which swept into a train in the back. Her veil of silk illusion was joined to a lace cap framed with a tiara of rolled net outlined with seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was of white sweetheart roses atop a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride carried out the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue and a lucky sixpence in her shoe.

Jonell Wilson attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Shirley Clark of Hart, Mary Richards and Nina Vernon, both of Lockney. The attendants wore pastel ballerina length gowns of net over taffeta designed with fitted bodices featuring off-the-shoulder necklines. They carried arm bouquets of bronze colored mums.

Donnie McGowan of Lockney was best man. Ushers were Don Hollums, McBurnett Davis and Duane Visage, all of Lockney.

Carl Dwayne Wilson, brother of the bride, and Donice Casey were candlelighters.

Mrs. Wilson, mother of the bride, was dressed in a grey suit with pink accessories. Mrs. McLeod, mother of the groom, wore a navy dress with black accessories. They wore corsages of pink carnations.

The bride is a 1953 graduate of Lockney High School and is attending Lippert's Business School. The bridegroom has enlisted in the U. S. Air Force where he will complete his senior year of high school together with his cadet training at Lackland Air Base at San Antonio.

Reception

At a reception held in the church parlor following the ceremony the refreshment table was laid with an embroidered cut-work cloth centered with a bridal bouquet. The crystal punch bowl rested on a reflector surrounded with fern and snapdragons. The wedding cake was three-tiered and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Serving the cake and fruit punch were Shirley Clark, Mary Richards, Jonell Wilson and Nina Jo Vernon. Bobbye Lu Casey secured names for the bride's book and Barbara Hays played piano music.

For a short wedding trip the bride chose a navy blue fitted suit complimented with a white hat trimmed in red and other accessories in red.

Minute Editorials

Hear me, O Lord; for Thy loving kindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies. — Psalms 69:16.

We appreciate the Lubbock Avalanche more each day as a good, sound daily newspaper. And we're not saying that because The Avalanche picked up an editorial from The Beacon recently and re-ran it on the first page of the second section. The editorial wasn't especially noteworthy as far as we could see, and we suppose the "country editor" columnist was a little shy on material that week. That happens to all of us.

But getting back to the original subject, The Avalanche has earned our respect in a number of ways. It reaches here with the latest news of any daily, due we suppose to its geographical location in relation to this country. It also gives good coverage, both general news and sports, and appears to be interested in Lockney and Floyd county.

The editorial policy of The Avalanche is a sound, sensible one without radicalism. It has a policy, also, of publishing that which is decent and leaving off that which isn't. We especially appreciate The Avalanche's refusal to publish the recent Kinsey report. This report, apparently lewd and vulgar in its content and making its appeal through morbid curiosity and lust, could not be of any benefit to the human race and could do incalculable harm. Yet many newspapers bought the condensed form of the report and ran it in their columns. It's a poor way to create reader interest.

The best answer we have read to the Kinsey report was a short article by Dr. William S. Kroger in Parade Magazine, in its issue of Sept. 27. This little magazine came out in the Fort Worth Star Telegram. Dr. Kroger is a medical doctor who specializes in women's diseases and he pretty well convinces us that this man Kinsey doesn't know much. Of course, we were easy to convince.

But getting back to The Avalanche — another thing we like about that newspaper is its complete lack of highly illustrated beer and liquor ads. Of course, The Avalanche can't claim much credit on that score, we don't suppose, since it is located in a dry territory and probably doesn't have much opportunity to run liquor ads. But we like it anyway. Not long ago, in another daily which we receive, the bottom half of the page was covered with comics and sitting on top of the comics was a very attractive advertisement telling the public of the merits of some brand of whiskey. We couldn't help but think that this page would certainly be read by every kiddie who had access to the paper and wonder how many of them would be influenced by the ad. We know that the liquor industry believes in educating them young in the merits of consuming alcohol and we wondered if the newspaper was co-operating in the education. It seems to us that we have enough alcoholics, drunken drivers and so on in this country now without trying to teach the coming generation to do the same. Ours is one newspaper who would support a bill to ban beer and liquor advertising from all advertising mediums — newspapers, radio, TV, magazine, or what have you.

No charge for this, Mr. Guy.

ADVERTISING

ADVERTISING has wielded a powerful influence in this country. The following piece of terse verse, entitled "The Bacon," is reprinted from the Weaverly Press (with apologies to Longfellow):
Tell me not in mournful numbers
Advertising is a dream,
For the businessman who slumbers
Has no chance to skim the cream.
Life is real! Life is earnest!
Competition's something fierce!
If for dividends thou yearnest,
Learn to parry, thrust and pierce.
In the business field of battle
Molly-coddles have no place,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle—
Be a live one in the race.
Lives of great men all remind us
We must bring the bacon home,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints of another's dome.
Let us then be up and doing,
Otherwise we may be done;
Still achieving, still pursuing—
Advertise and get the mon!

TEACHERS DESERVING

Everyone seems to agree that most Texas teachers deserve a raise in pay, but just how much and where it would come from is the big point of contention which has kept legislators and teacher groups from reaching an agreement.

Like everyone else, we agree that many teachers need a raise. If we keep salary standards high in our schools, our educational standards also should improve. Also like everyone else, we're not sure just where the money should come from. But the percentage plan proposed by some — whereby local districts pay 20 per cent of the cost of raises — would not be equal.

If it takes another state tax to finance proper teacher pay raises, many Texans wouldn't mind paying a little more to insure the future of our educational system, but just how many, we don't know. Enough straws finally will break the back of a camel — Lubbock Avalanche.

RECENT DROUGHT

Current jokes seldom appear in this column because they're usually made the rounds before we hear them. And few things are more stale than a twice-told joke. With the knowledge that most Tulsians have already heard this one and with sincere apologies we are repeating what we consider to be the best of the dry weather jokes, so numerous last summer.

It is said that it became so dry in West Texas during the recent drought that the Baptists resorted to sprinkling and the Methodists just used a damp cloth. — Town Topics in Tulsa Herald.

SILENCE IS GOLDEN

The following little ditty we hesitated a long time before making up our minds to print. Sometimes, when news is very scarce — everybody has their minds on worms, and weather — we have a hard time filling up space in our little paper — and it may be that some of you think that "space" would look better than what we have to say. Hmmmmmmmm?

A tourist spending the night in a small Vermont town joined several men sitting on the porch of the general store. They were a taciturn bunch and, after several vain attempts to start a conversation, he finally asked, "Is there a law against talking in this town?"

"No law against it," answered one of the men, "but there's an understanding no one's to speak unless he's sure he can improve on silence." — Quitaque Post.

LITTLE HARRY

Little Harry Truman sized the opportunity Monday up at Detroit to do a little popping off in his small way at a Labor Day Celebration. He tried to rouse the boys and girls to a fighting mad attitude by "pitching" that old political battle cry of the working man against big industry and capital. The working man learned long ago that if it was not for capital and industry he would not have a job. And industry has also learned that if it was not for labor they would have no one to operate their factories, so the two get along the best they can, with a skirmish here and there over wages, etc. Little Harry has always practiced cheap politics, but that method has long passed. — Listening Post in Petersburg Journal.

POOR MR. FIKES

They are calling him "Weepy" Fikes these days. When Coach Jay Fikes of the Littlefield Wildcats appeared at the Lions Club yesterday as guest speaker, every Lion in the club whipped out a big old red bandana handkerchief and began to weep copious tears at the sad, sad story Coach had to tell. Fikes is again fielding midgets, with a line averaging 39 and three-eighths pounds this fall. If we can just keep from getting skunked throughout the season the coach will be overjoyed, considering what he has to put on the field... according to Fikes, that is. — The County Wide News.

The state apportionment for 1915-16 has been set at six dollars per capita for public schools of Texas. There is an additional one dollar paid for each 3 scholastics, making the total for this year the same as last, seven dollars. "The state board of education knows that $6 per capita is inadequate to meet the needs of the schools," says State Superintendent Dougherty, "but the amount designated is the very best the revenue of the state will warrant."

The Greatest Gasoline Development in 31 Years

Restores "new car" power!
Increases spark-plug life up to 150%!
Gives you extra gas mileage, too!

Today it is possible to put new power in your car—just by driving into a Conoco station and filling up with new Conoco Super Gasoline.

For Conoco Super with TCP is a new kind of motor fuel—truly the greatest advance in gasoline since the introduction of tetraethyl lead in 1922. New Conoco Super can actually increase the power of the average car as much as 15%. That's because TCP overcomes the greatest cause of power loss affecting most cars on the road today. Conoco Super with TCP is brought to you by special arrangement with Shell Oil Company. TCP is Shell's trademark for the remarkable additive originally developed for aviation fuel.

Combustion deposits drastically reduce power

When you drive your car, deposits constantly build up on spark plugs and in the combustion chambers. These deposits can "cheat" you of power in two ways. First, they short-circuit spark plugs—causing them to mis-fire. Second, deposits in the combustion chambers cause fuel to ignite before it should. This is called pre-ignition or "wild ping." The combined effect of mis-firing and pre-ignition is loss of power and wasted gas.

See what Conoco Super with TCP can do for your car—
Start the "TWO-TANK TEST" today!

1. When your gasoline tank is one-quarter full or less, fill it with Conoco Super with TCP. Now, there will still be some ordinary gasoline mixed in with your Conoco Super, so . . .
2. Make sure your next tankful is Conoco Super, too. So rapidly does Conoco Super work that with this second tankful, chances are you'll feel as if your engine has had a tune-up. You'll feel a boost in power. Try it today. We're sure you'll stay with Conoco Super.

CROSS SECTION OF TYPICAL SPARK PLUG

Combustion deposits form here, causing mis-firing and loss of power. TCP neutralizes these deposits, giving top power and performance.

How Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP works

Now Conoco Super with TCP—a cresyl compound—dramatically overcomes loss of power and fuel caused by combustion deposits. TCP actually neutralizes harmful deposits on spark plugs and in combustion chambers. With new Conoco Super your plugs spark as they should. Your fuel ignites as it should. You get and keep "new car" performance.

TCP helps your car—whether new or old

Whether your car is old or new, you can enjoy the benefits of TCP. If you have a new car, with a high-compression engine, it will keep on delivering its built-in power as long as you use Conoco Super yard line. Try for point failed. Score: 6-0. On the kick-off Jimmy Scott missed the ball and went back to his own goal line to pick it up. He brought it back out to the 8. The Longhorns made 1, lost 2 and on the attempted kick Gordon Joiner, Whirlwind guard, broke through to block the kick and cover it behind the goal line for the score. The point was kicked and the score was 13-0.

Jimmy Williams took the kick-off and behind some very good blocking broke into the open but was tackled from behind on his own 49 yard line. The Longhorns made a first down on the Floydada 40 with the aid of a 5-yard penalty against the Whirlwinds. Quisenberry made 8 and an attempted pass was intercepted by Barber and returned to the Lockney 27. Williams again returned the kick-off to the Lockney 42, the Longhorns were penalized 5, made 3 1/2, were penalized 5, made 8 and 2 and then kicked to the Floydada 25. On an attempted reverse Longhorn end Mickey Jones broke through and dropped the ball carrier for a 12 yard loss. A pass was completed for 19 yards and then the Whirlwinds made a first down on their own 38. An attempted pass was no good as Allan Ray Pinner rushed in to almost trap the passer and then the Winds made a first down on their own 49. They made nothing, 1 and Pinner came in fast on an end sweep to drop the ball carrier for no gain. The Winds kick was fumbled and finally recovered by the Longhorn back on the Lockney 4 yard line. The Longhorns started a drive from here making successive first downs on the 17 and 31 yard lines. The Winds were penalized 5 and Quisenberry drove for another first down on the 42. THE FINE CAR at half the fine car price

Duplicating America's costliest cars, feature after feature, Ford is worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it!

A FEW MINUTES on the telephone calling the dealers who sell America's finest cars will reveal there are at least eleven models among four makes with price tags over $4,000!

Now the interesting thing is that in feature after feature the Ford car duplicates each of these fine cars, and for less than half the fine car price!

Look under the hood of the most expensive cars and what do you find? A V-8 Engine! Well, the Ford car has a V-8, too. In fact, it has had a V-8 since 1932, and since that time Ford has built more V-8's - by millions - than all other manufacturers combined. And there's no other builder in Ford's price range that's seen fit to offer one yet!

But the engine, as fine as it is, is only one of many things that make a fine car fine.

Automatic shifting, for example. All the fine cars offer it in one form or another because it's one of the things that make a fine car fine. But if you've never driven a Ford with Fordomatic you've missed one of the finer things of life. This amazing transmission not only does away with clutching and shifting forever - it gives you exactly the amount of power you want, when you want it - automatically.

Fine car power steering, too. The big, heavy costly cars offer it for the same reason they offer power brakes. It's a man-sized job for a 120 pound woman to handle a car weighing two tons or more without it - especially when parking. Our "Master-Guide" has two distinct benefits.

First, it gives a hydraulic power assist right down at the wheels and just enough to take out the work. You don't relinquish one particle of control - rather your control is more complete and far easier.

Second, being hydraulic, "Master-Guide" power steering absorbs those fatiguing steering wheel tremors caused by ruts and roads in bad repair. And you don't pay a fine car price for "Master-Guide."

But there is another fine car feature - the Ford ride. Books have been written on the subject of riding quality in an automobile, but the payoff comes on the pavement - or lack of it! Many people associate a comfortable ride with excess weight, but it's not weight alone that makes for comfort. If it were, those big five-ton trucks which you see every day would be the most comfortable vehicles on the road.

Without being technical we can tell you that what's been done with the suspension and springing system gives the Ford a softer ride, a smoother ride than many cars which tip the scales at better than an added half ton.

What about room? Here's an interesting point. If you've felt that only a costly car offered enough room, you just ought to sit down in a Ford even if you're out-size and six feet four! The so-called big car is bigger on the outside, but unless you buy a limousine with those little jump seats, it's not one passenger bigger inside.

Visibility is another fine car Ford feature. We say Ford cars offer "full-circle" visibility because they all have huge, curved one-piece windshields and a huge rear window to match . . . plus side windows that mean every passenger gets room with a view!

How beautiful is a Ford? A great English poet, John Keats, once wrote "Beauty is Truth, Truth Beauty" - well, he could have been writing about our car for its beauty comes from honest, clean lines in every dimension. In fact, we think most people agree - even our competitors

-that the appearance of a Ford Car leaves very little to be desired. It is "at home" wherever it goes and it goes everywhere.

But what about Ford quality? Does it too match the fine car? Is the sheet metal of the body panels as thick? Is the finish as good? How about the trim and things like that? Well, as far as we can determine, the sheet metal is identical in thickness in practically all instances. As to finish - we believe Ford's baked-on enamel has no equal in any car. Ford upholstery fabrics and trim are less costly, but they're less delicate, too, and if anything, more durable.

How then is it possible to give you this fine car at half the fine car price?

Part of the answer lies in Ford manufacturing skills and knowledge as evidenced by the V-8 engine. Part of it comes from the ever increasing numbers of cars Ford produces and the economies they make possible. And, part of it comes from Ford's willingness to give greater values than might be expected in cars selling in Ford's price range. And that's the Ford idea.

Farm Income Down 17% In Six Months

Austin. — Texas farmers' cash income from farm commodities was 17 per cent lower in the January-July period this year than in the first seven months of 1952, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Total farm cash income was $766,911,000, a decrease of $156,000,000 from the January-July amount of last year, according to reports gathered by the Bureau in cooperation with the federal Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Drought conditions, particularly in West Texas, insects and worms, and scant rainfall—all these have been major causes of declining crops and livestock, the Bureau said.

Three leading Texas crops which showed considerable decrease during the first part of the year were grain sorghum, down 47 per cent; wheat 31 per cent, and cotton, 26 per cent. Other crops and commodities which showed considerable losses in income were: wool, down 36 per cent; mohair, 33 per cent; peanuts, 17 per cent; and corn, 15 per cent.

Three farm commodities showed rises in income: oats, up 48 per cent; flaxseed, 24 per cent; and eggs, 18 per cent.

A 28 per cent drop in cattle income was attributed largely to drought conditions. The only cash increase for livestock in the January-July 1952-53 comparison was from sheep and lambs, which improved by 53 per cent. Calves were down 14 per cent and hogs down 8 per cent.

B Team Loses To Floydada

The Longhorn B team lost a ball game to the Floydada B team Tuesday night, 28-6. The game was somewhat of a repetition of the A game last week in that the Floydada boys scored three quick touchdowns in the first few minutes of play and then the Longhorns settled down and played the Whirlwinds on even terms for the remainder of the game.

The Whirlwinds, making good uses of passes, scored three touchdowns in the first quarter. The Longhorns score came in the third quarter after the local lads had threatened twice. Charles Vaughn, quarterback, threw a jump pass to Doyle Crouch for six yards and the score. Try for point failed. The Whirlwinds scored again in the fourth quarter.

Line-up for the Longhorns included Vaughn, quarterback; Paul Ray Williams and Bucky Duvall, halfbacks; Doyle McAda, fullback; Doyle Crouch and Bennie Ballard, ends; Roland Watson and J. W. Dippery, guards; Jerry Workman, center; Larry McCormick and Don Hollums, tackles.

Some of the regulars on the B team were out due to illness.
