Fire Threatens Business District

A big blaze in a pile of used lumber at the rear of Oliver Jewery Wednesday morning threatened several business buildings for a few minutes but quick work by the Lockney Volunteer Fire Department prevented the blaze from spreading. Two trucks answered the call and used water from their truck tanks to hold the blaze in check until the hose could be connected with the hydrant.

Apparently papers had blown under the pile of lumber from a near-by incinerator to start the fire. It was blazing fiercely when noticed by Bud Still, local truckman. Hershel Sweepston at Parker Furniture used a garden hose from his hydrant to help check the blaze until the fire truck arrived.

One of the trucks had just returned from the Melvin Griffith place just south of Lockney where fire was threatening a barn filled with feed. The fire was extinguished without damage. Fire Chief Lowell Bilbrey reported.

PAT WOODBURN HERE

Pat Woodburn of Van, Texas spent Sunday in Lockney visiting his mother, Mrs. E. L. Woodburn and attending homecoming at the First Baptist Church. Mrs. Woodburn accompanied her son to Van Monday for a visit.

SPRING "CLEAN-UP WEEK" TO BEGIN MONDAY, MARCH 22ND

School Trustee Election Called

The Board of Trustees of the Lockney Independent School District has issued an order for a trustee election to be held on Saturday, April 3. Two trustees are to be elected, the terms of Connie O'Brien and Alvin Wilson expiring this year.

Frank Dodson was appointed judge of the election with Mrs. E. L. Woodburn and Mrs. Frank Jameson clerks.

A nominating committee, appointed by the board and composed of J. E. Belt, Raymond Rucker and Leon Wofford, this week submitted the names of Connie O'Brien and Oscar Goldson from the Allen community and Alvin Wilson and Clark Harris from the Pleasant Valley community to appear on the ballot. Other nominations may be made if there are those who wish to do so, school officials said.

Accept Building

The board, meeting Thursday night of last week, accepted conditionally the new Junior High School building with the understanding that certain corrections would be made by the contractor. These include minor repairs of plaster, stone on the exterior of the building, repairing the street, and other repairs. The board voted to pay the contractor $20,000.00 leaving a balance due him of $6,327.74 which will be paid when the corrections are made. The board also voted to make some additions to the new building including some shelving, flooring and extra lights.

The board also took out $160,000 insurance on the building. Other actions included appointing L. D. Hawkins as acting principal of the Junior High School.

The superintendent's office will be moved to the new building, next to the south entrance by Monday, Supt. W. C. Irons said. The telephone number in this office will be 2104.

Those wishing to contact students in the 6th, 7th or 8th grades should call the principal's office which number is 2236. Mr. Irons said. These grades occupied the new building Monday.

G. C. Tubbs In Judge's Race

G. C. Tubbs of Floydada this week announced that he would be a candidate for the office of County Judge. Mr. Tubbs has served the county in this capacity several years ago and is well known over Floyd County. His statement follows:

"Having decided to offer myself as a candidate for County Judge of Floyd County, I do so on my record as a citizen of the county for forty-two years, and my past experience in the office, which I feel will enable me to better serve you if elected."

"I solicit your support, and assure you it will be greatly appreciated in the coming Democratic Primary. G. C. Tubbs."

Local FFA Chapter Gets "Partner For Life" Certificate

The Lockney FFA chapter has received a "Partner For Life" certificate from Boys Ranch, near Amarillo, after they donated $21.50 toward the building of a vocational school building at the Ranch. At the same time they also voted to take $10 from their treasury and add to the individual member's donation.

Last week the chapter received from Boys Ranch a certificate making them a "partner for life."

The FFA chapter is sponsoring a magazine sale in order to raise money to buy a new pickup for the chapter. The boys are selling subscriptions to The Farm Quarterly, a tri-monthly magazine which covers all farm problems. The subscription rate is $3 for three years.

The annual Spring "Clean-Up Week" in Lockney will begin Monday, March 22, according to plans made Tuesday evening by a committee headed by Mayor J. E. Cox. The committee, made up of representatives of various local civic clubs and organizations, set the date to coincide with the beginning of Spring and asked the co-operation of all local citizens in getting the town as clean as possible prior to the start of "fly season."

Every resident or business person is requested to clean all cans, trash, old lumber or tree limbs from their premises, pile them at the edge of the alley and the city will furnish trucks to haul it off. The clean-up should be completed by Friday night so that city trucks can complete the hauling Saturday, Mayor Cox said.

An inspection committee will make the rounds in the city to check on cleanliness immediately following the clean-up period, it was decided. The committee hopes that plans for a "most improved block" contest can be worked out but were indefinite about it Tuesday night.

Elderly or ill people who are unable to clean their own premises will be furnished with help, the committee decided. Those who need help in the cleaning job should call The Beacon office or any member of the committee.

Business houses or organizations are to be responsible for the area around their buildings as are residents. Any resident who wants to burn a large pile of trash should notify the Fire Department before setting the fire. Chief Lowell Bilbrey said, and if possible the Fire Department will have a man on hand to help control the fire.

The City Council will probably put an irrigation rate on city water, starting about March 20, Mayor Cox said, in order that those wishing to start irrigation of yards or gardens may have the cheaper rate.

Members of the planning committee meeting Tuesday night were Revis Harris, J. C. Kemp, Marvin Cox, Edgar R. Hays, Lowell Bilbrey, Milton Ashton and Mayor Cox.

Floydada Plans More Stands At Football Field

Floydada — The board of trustees of the Floydada Independent School District has signed a contract with Southern Bleacher Construction Company of Lubbock for additional stands to be constructed at Western Field, with May 1 set for possible completion date.

The new stands, which will be of concrete and steel, are to be constructed on the east side of the field, taking place of the low bleachers located there now.

The contract calls for a 1,200 seating capacity, the stand to be 130 feet long and 15 rows high. A new press box is to be located at the center of the top row.

The addition will assure seats for both local fans and guests. It is thought likely that reserved seats will be offered on the west stadium to visiting fans.

A two-fold purpose will be made of the new stands. The enclosure beneath will be used for the storage of the school's

Frances Copeland On Tech Honor Roll

Miss Frances Copeland, a freshman student at Texas Technological College, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Copeland of Lockney, was recently named on the "Dean's list" or honor roll at Texas Tech for the fall semester. The list includes those students who are in the upper five per cent of Tech's 5,418 students and they each made at least a 2.47 grade-point average.

Also on the honor roll are the following Floydada students: J. D. Helms, R. Duane Lemons and Hubert Ring.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Johnson of Albuquerque, New Mexico were week end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson the past week.

Certified planting seed may cost more originally but their purity, higher germination and ability to produce greater yields make them cheaper in the long run.

houses during the summer vacation period.

THE PHOTOGRAPHER SLIPPED — He was supposed to take pictures only in Floyd County but that county line was hard to see from the air and he slipped a quarter of a mile or so over in Briscoe County to get this one. This is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dickerson, located 13 miles north and a mile and a half east of Lockney.

Wiley Nance Jr. was the first person to correctly identify the farm. He called Thursday morning. Others who identified the farm were Lloyd Readhimer, Mrs. Blaine Holt, Mrs. Jack Frizzell, Tom Word and Mrs. Hubert Frizzell.

The farm has been in the family since it was broke out of sod early in the century. Mr. Dickerson said. It now belongs to Mr. Dickerson's father, Elbert Dickerson of Silverton and previously was owned by his grandfather, G. C. Holt, who broke it out.

The younger Mr. Dickerson has lived on the farm all his life, having been born there. He and his wife have three children, Debra Mae, age 4, Clinton Dale, age 2 and Rhonda Lee, age 5 months. Mrs. Dickerson's name is Carrie Dell. They attend the Baptist Church at Silverton and he is a member of the Briscoe County Farm Bureau.

The farm contains 320 acres and they have one irrigation well. Mr. Dickerson has been going strong on cotton but will turn to grain sorghums with his crop and above his cotton quota, he said. He also has a small herd of Hereford cattle.

Watch for another mystery farm picture in the First National Bank advertisement next week.

Although early planted corn is tender and may be knocked down by early frosts, it will not necessarily be damaged. The growing point of corn remains below the ground until the plant is about six inches high. At Tech, we have had corn knocked down twice in the same spring and we still had excellent stands. Don't be afraid to plant early.

REMINDERS: (1) The potato is tender to frost. Hold plantings until after April 1. (2) Be sure to leave the surface of the garden rough this time of year to reduce blow damage. If necessary, cultivate after irrigation. (3) Be sure to watch soil moisture in the top inch of the soil very closely until seedling is well out of the ground. Dry soil for just one day may reduce stands.

Hints On High Plains Gardening

(The following article is the third of a series of garden hints for home gardeners on the Plains of Texas, serviced in the interest of better home gardens.)

By Dr. George Elle Professor of Horticulture, Texas Tech

It is time to sow seed of crops to be transplanted. This early planting time is to allow about eight weeks for transplants to develop before shifting them to the garden. Enough tomato, pepper, and early cabbage plants for the average home garden may easily be grown on one window sill with a south exposure. The important thing is to plant now.

A flower pot with good drainage makes a good container. Crowding 100 seeds per pot is permissible. When seedlings are about 1.5 inches high, they should be carefully removed from the "seedling pot" and placed about two inches apart in a "growing pot" or box.

Empty cottage cheese containers or "Dixie Cups" make excellent individual containers. Tomato plugs of the standard flat with two inches of fertile soil with high organic matter are ideal, but too high fertility of soil contributes toward a spindly plant. CAUTION: Water once per day until plants are about four inches high, have a stem about the diameter of a lead pencil, and have good distribution of large vigorous dark green leaves.

Well-grown cabbage transplants should be six to seven inches tall. Pepper plants should be six to eight inches high before transplanting.

Do not be afraid an eight-inch transplant cannot survive the rigors of our climate. Tying to a small stake when planting can overcome wind damage. Any well-grown plant with a good root system, even though carrying fruit, will recover readily from transplanting if given average treatment. At Texas Tech, we never set plants smaller than eight inches high. The average plant carries flowers. Losses have never exceeded seven out of 100 plants during the first month after transplanting.

Don't be discouraged by heavy losses from disease of tomato plants. Ways to avoid such losses will be explained later.

March 1 is considered the best average date for planting hardy crops. These may be planted any time during March or as late as April 15. However, the longer planting is postponed, the poorer the yield and the lower the quality.

Get your seed now and be ready to plant sweet corn between March 15 and April 1. Early planting gives sweet corn a chance to mature before the corn-ear worm population is built up. Late yields are almost certain to be heavily damaged.

Senior Pantomime Is Great Success

The Senior Class presented a pantomime Monday night, March 8th, that proved to be a great success. The program was divided into a western and popular portion. Jim Reeves (Billy McAda) was the master of ceremonies for the western part and Guy Lombardo (Eddie Foster) was the master of ceremonies on the popular part.

Many western and popular stars were on the program. This has been presented by the senior class. The money made on this program will go toward the fund for the senior trip.

All seniors that took part in the pantomime went to Eddie Foster's for refreshments after the program.

FHA Girls Entertain Spur Girls With Salad Supper

Friday night the Lockney F. H. A. girls entertained the Spur Chapter at the Legion Hall with a salad supper. Miss Kathryn Norris and Miss Joan Brown had charge of the games. About twenty of the Lockney girls kept the Spur girls in their homes overnight. Mrs. Wanda Bearden, the former Wanda Rhine, and Mrs. Marcy spent the night with Mrs. Luther Rhine. The High School principal, Mr. Weldon Skinner and son, David, stayed with Supt. W. C. Irons. We thank Mrs. Buck Kellison and others for helping make this a wonderful fun night.

A "Hubcap" is a girl that goes around with a "big wheel."

Freshman Assembly

On Friday, February 26, the freshmen had the assembly program. First on the program was "The Rosy Rita Rendezvous Cooking School." Rosy Rita was played by Rita Griffith. She made a smug muggin pudding which was a cure for everything. Her judges were: Mrs. Co. Washer — Jackie Boyd, Mrs. Brodenbride — Carolyn Cunningham and Mrs. Overlog — Sandra Landrum.

Next was the Womanless Wedding which was interrupted by six chorus girls who danced across the stage. They were: David Frizzell, Dan Rowell, Paul Williams, Gene Handley, Morris Meriwether and C. F. Barber.

When the wedding finally proceeded the members of the wedding party were found to be: Jay Kemp, pianist; Lonell Hays, preacher; Donice Casey, bride; Brannon Darnell, mother of the bride; L. Ray Crouch, usher, and last, but definitely not least, Roland Watson as the bride.

Third on the program was the hilarious Quiz Show, "Struck Dumb." The first contestants were Mr. and Mrs. Swickinswiff from Polecat Valley, Arkansas. These newliveds were played by LaJuan Henderson and Marvin Wells. The next contestant was Mrs. Longbottom and her lovely children. Mrs. Longbottom was Lynn Jolly and her "lovely" children were played by Jean Fitzgerald, Mary Ford, Patsy Vanek, Donice Casey, Gene Handley and Roland Watson. She was looking for a husband. The mistress of ceremonies was that very talented Rita Griffith. Floy Baxter introduced the contestants.

Following the Quiz Show was that blood-chilling mystery, "Badge 116." It starred Gene Handley as Thursday, Morris Meriwether as Chief, Dan Rowell as the gangster and David Frizzell as Thursday's girl friend, Jane. The story was false, only the faces were changed to protect the guilty.

Kitty Ford's Talent Show was next: Frances Halle, Frances Lemons, Barbara Savage, Emma Lee Wright, Katie Rucker and Jay Kemp.

Weatherman Jerry Mickey, aided by his mysterious instruments predicted wind and sandstorms for this area.

The late movie was "The Saga of Little Nell," starring Billie Coleman as Pa, Nelda Widener as Ma, and Jean Fitzgerald, LaJuan Henderson, Mary Ford, and Sandra Landrum as the children. Shirley Warren was little Nell. Joyce Golden gave a very impressive performance as Handkerchief Hank, the villain. Patsy Vanek was Jack Dashaway, the hero. As usual, the film broke in the most interesting part.

Jerry Workman was master of ceremonies. He gave all of the commercials and advertised everything from soggy cereal to aid in stretching your use of adjectives.

The whole program portrayed a day of broadcasting in a typical television station.

Miss Barnhart: "How many sentences do you have, Bobby?"

Bobby Johnson: "Four."

Miss Barnhart: "Well, you'd better put it in second gear, then."

Bobby Johnson: "It's hung in reverse."

What It Was, Was Teachers

by Mary Neil Love
 (The following is a theme written in English III)

I started down this long hall in what they call the school house when a bell rang. Then all of a sudden a bunch of kids started shouting, pushing, talking and hollering. I had to follow the crowd because I couldn't move except when they moved. Then someone shoved a book in my hand. We came to a door and over this door it had a number. After we got through they began to separate and sit down in these things that look like chairs, but have one big arm piece. So I sat down too, to see what was going to happen. These kids were talking rather loudly when I looked up and saw this woman standing up and saying, "Get quiet." I don't know why she was saying that because nobody heard her. A bell rang and she sat down.

In about five or ten minutes a bald-headed man came in and said something to this woman. He looked around and said "Who did it?" I didn't know what he was talking about; so I raised my hand to find out. Then he came over and yanked me up and dragged me down to a little room that was cut in three different sections. This man set me down and said, "Why did you do it?" And before I could say a word he said, "All right, then we'll call a faculty meeting and see what we can do about it." I just sat there because I was so scared I couldn't move.

At about 12:30 all these men and women went into a room with lots of long desks in it. I couldn't hear what they were saying, but after a while this bald-headed man came out and said to me, "I guess you can go now. We got the wrong one." But to this day I don't know why he dragged me down to this little room. And I still don't know for sure what these men and women were representing, but I do think they were teachers because I heard that they acted something like this.

Susie Wofford: "I'm used to these Southern gentlemen; you know, the kind that ask for your hand before they hold it."

by Big Willy

Well, it seems as though six-weeks test didn't hold everybody in. Ruth Jones and Jonell Wilson, who was that sailor boy that came to see you over the week end? Well, boys you can go back to your old positions because Nell and Jimmy made-up. The race is still on between Arlene and Barbara Jo over Dee Nix. (I wonder who will win?) Larry, we saw you carrying Joan over to the band hall everyday last week in that Ford of yours. Darla and Marion were seen together at the Drive-In Tuesday night. Charlie Huffman and Betty Jo Holmes must have had a hard time with that Algebra problem Wednesday in third period study hall. Gail Kellison, who is your ex-boy friend from East Texas? Don, I don't believe you got the wrong number when you were trying to phone Jerry Holmes. Clydella and Roy were at the Plains Thursday night. Barbara Carthel had a date with Warren Mathis Sunday night. Janice Mathis had a date with James Stair Sunday night. Wilbur, did you spend all that prize money Sunday on Frankie Dean? Jerry Workman was seen all dressed up in a pretty checked bow-tie at the Grand Theatre with Katie Ray Rucker. "Go Man Go." Richard and Rosemary were seen in Plainview Saturday. Well our little boys went to Lighthouse Falls Sunday: Fred, Don, Jerry H. Jerry W. and Buck. Gail Brown had a date with Wesley Saturday. Scott which one was it, Mary Nell Love or Patsy Vanek sitting in the show with you Sunday night? Sue, who was that boy from New Mexico you were with Saturday night. Nancy Holland and Bobby Johnson seem to be getting along quite well. Bennie Ballard I want you to quit cutting eyes at that new Freshman.

See ya next week.

Rosie: "Kisses are the language of love."
 Richard: "Well, say something then."

WAX FOR HANDBAGS

Does your handbag color rub off on your pants or clothing? A light going-over with a damp cloth, and then a few treatments with a liquid wax, applied carefully, will remedy the situation.

CONTINUOUS REVELATION

In years gone by, many movements away from the Bible were started by those claiming direct revelation from God. Men became dissatisfied with the word of God, and set out to teach things not found therein. As a matter of convenience, they pretended to speak by direct revelation. Those who retained respect for the Bible considered such pretensions antagonistic to Christ and the apostles. In fact every claim to special revelation is an insult to the inspired writers of the Bible.

Jesus said to the apostles: "When he the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth." (Jno. 16:13.) This statement being true, any teaching today that did not come from the apostles is no part of the truth. This verse condemns every doctrine that had its origin this side of the apostolic age.

Some contend that the apostles did not teach all that the Spirit revealed to them, hence those things need to be revealed again. Such a theory makes the apostles guilty of resisting the Holy Spirit. Christ said to them, "The Holy Spirit . . . shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said unto you." (Jno. 14:26.) Did they refuse to teach what the Spirit revealed? Jesus said, "Teach them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." (Matt. 28:20.) I contend that the apostles were true to the Lord's charge, and that they gave us the truth in its entirety.

The Bible condemns any person or church that presumes to teach more than the apostles taught. Paul said, "Though we or an angel from heaven preach any other gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." (Gal. 1:8.) If an angel from heaven cannot add to what the apostles taught, certainly no man can do so, hence all claims to continuous revelation are void.

What John said concerning the last book of the New Testament is true of it all. Hear him. "If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book. And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life and out of the Holy City." (Rev. 22:18-19.) If this verse can be relied upon all those who claim special revelation will be lost in the day of judgment.

Jude said, "Content earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered unto the saints." (Jude 2 R. V.) Since it was given "once for all," no person or church is now receiving it on the installment plan.

Services Sunday: Bible Study, 9:45 a. m. Preaching, 10:45 a. m. Song Drill 7:00 p. m. Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Everybody is welcome.

Two Colored Men Caught With Liquor

Two colored men, Buddy Coleman and Murray Jones, have been charged with possession of liquor for purpose of sale in county court at Floydada after Deputy Sheriff Walter Hollums ran one down on foot last Saturday and confiscated 6 1/2 cases of beer and 13 pints of wine. The foot race came off in the "flats" of Floydada. The colored boys were attempting to bury the intoxicants on a lakeside when the alert deputy spotted them. Not being able to get to them in his car, Deputy Hollums took out after them on foot. They split up and he kept after "the slow one," which was Jones, catching him in a short time. Hollums and Deputy Ray Hardin picked up the other one Monday. They pleaded not guilty and bond was set at $1,000.

A Mexican, Macedonio Carrillo, was arrested last week end and charged with driving while intoxicated after his car and one driven by a man by the name of Smith were involved in a collision. Neither man was seriously hurt but both required hospitalization. Carrillo was tried in county court Monday where he was fined $100 and costs, given three days in jail and his drivers license suspended for six months.

BRINGING THE GOVERNMENT BACK HOME

He directs all governmental officials and employers — including those of the armed services — to co-operate fully with all Congressional committees, but; He thinks Congressional committees and their members — including the redoubtable Joe — should conduct their hearings and themselves in a decorous, courteous manner and not use their power to insult, or deride, individual witnesses, especially those like General Zwickler whose records plainly prove their loyalty to this country.

Ford rides on a Ball-Joint cushion

...and it handles with ball-bearing ease

IT'S THE GREATEST chassis advance in 20 years. And only the '54 Ford in its field has it! It pays off with the smoothest ride you've ever experienced in a low-priced car... easier handling... fewer service worries... and many, many other advantages. And besides this revolutionary advance, Ford offers two brand new deep-block power plants: the 130-h.p. Y-block V-8 and the 115-h.p. I-block Six. You'll also find a new stronger frame... a beautiful new Astra-Dial control panel... new styling inside and out... plus all the other fine-car features that have already established Ford as America's "worth more" car! CONVENTIONAL KINGPIN SUSPENSION depends on hinge-like joints for movement of front wheels up and down or right and left. This system also requires lubrication of 8 points of wear at each front wheel. Doesn't permit maximum up-and-down wheel travel and is not sealed against dirt and water. NEW FORD BALL-JOINT FRONT SUSPENSION replaces "hinges" for pivoting and up-and-down wheel movement with sealed ball joints. This eliminates 12 points of wear... helps keep front wheels in line longer... You get a smoother, more level ride. Your Ford keeps that new car "feel" longer.

Library Notes
 By Mrs. Roy Hollar
 Story hour was quite successful. D'Ann Witkoski and Naomi Allen told the stories and supervised games. Mrs. C. W. Denison sponsored the meeting for the 1929 Study Club and Mrs. Lon Miller visited. We had three out-of-town visitors, Katherine Pitts of Waco and Vickie Lynn Fair and Sheila May Fair of Lubbock. Refreshments were served to a good group.
 One of the departing group called her mother to arrange for a ride home. She opened the conversation by saying, "How are you getting along with the baby?"
 Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Collins have presented the library with a set of "Lee's Lieutenants" by Douglas Southall Freeman to be marked in memory of Pfc. George T. (Buster) Smailey. Buster Smailey lived in Floydada, went to school here and died defending his country in Germany in 1944. He was a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Collins.
 Frances Eulaine Tubbs, grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Tubbs has presented a copy of "A Man Called Peter" by Catherine Marshall in memory of her father, Lt. Richard I. Tubbs.
 Pratt's "This Flowering World" was presented this week in memory of Mrs. C. C. Butt of Kerrville, Texas by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hollar.
 Remember Sacajewa? Wasn't it a thrilling name? If you recall the name with pleasure and a little interest we suggest for your reading pleasure "Of Courage Undaunted" by James Daugherty. The book is one of those that is ageless in its appeal. It is worth a good deal just to see the page on which Thomas Jefferson's tribute to Meriwether Lewis is printed. The story can but give a refreshing view of the days when men argued over our manifest destiny.
 The American Heritage Group held its first meeting the night of the snow. In spite of bad weather nine people came and the discussion was invigorating. Next meeting Monday, March 15 at 7:30 p. m.
 A prize gift of printed stationery came to the library recently. Mrs. Hollis Bond gave us printed notices to be used in announcing memorial gifts to the families of the person honored.
 Best sellers on the table at the moment of writing are: "The Silver Chalice," "Cress Delahanty," "Beyond This Place"; "The Robe" and a new book in our collection, "Lord Vanity" by Samuel Shellabarger.
 Mr. J. M. Willson, Sr. has given the library the latest issue of

On Thursday evening, March 4 Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Parks entertained at a birthday supper in home of Mr. and Mrs. John K. West where they visited Dale, who is required to stay in bed for the next few weeks. Those who were present were J. Frank, his brother Eddie, Diane Edmonds, Johnny Calahan, Dwight Teeple, Patricia Thornton and Barbara Sue Milton.

Those who attended a tea at the home of Mrs. W. H. McClung's mother in Floydada Thursday afternoon at 3 were the hostess, Mrs. R. G. Dunlap and Mrs. Kenneth Bean, Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. J. K. West. The Stanley parties were held on the hour all day on Thursday. The snow and bad visibility kept some people at home.

Mr. and Mrs. George West entertained at a birthday dinner Sunday for their daughter, Mrs. E. T. Evans of Amarillo who with her husband and three children had spent the week end here. Other guests were her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Lee Smith and three children of Sterley who also were guests over the week end. The birthday dinner was served at noon.

J. B. Thames announces the honor roll for the past six weeks in his room. Wanda Haggard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Haggard is the only "A" pupil in the 8th grade. On the "B" honor roll, Violet Haggard and Kathryn Huneycutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Galloway are in the 7th. Eugene Beedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy is on the "B" honor roll. Eddie Parks, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Parks is in the 5th grade and made a "B" average.

Mrs. John Smitherman was hostess at an electric roaster demonstration, workshop style, on Thursday from 10:30 until 2:30 in the REA kitchen in Floydada. Guests were separated in pairs and each couple helped prepare the delicious repast, under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Morekel, Mrs. Cricket B. Taylor, from Clovis, N. M., home economist at the REA kitchen there was present as was her daughter, Mrs. Norma Carlisle from Norfolk, Va. Guests were Mrs. L. T. Wood, Bill Beedy, Otho

He directs all governmental... es Jimmie Teeple of Portales, N. M., Julia Baker, Catherine Billings, and Messrs. John Nay and Melvin Henry. All were guests of Mrs. J. B. Smitherman and after the luncheon hour they assembled in the projection room to view interesting slides and films on nutrition and different methods of electric cooking.

Mrs. Bryant Higginbotham and Mrs. Harry Hartman served lunch last Friday at noon to most of the parents of the children who attend South Plains school. Everyone enjoyed a delicious lunch and visiting with neighbors. After lunch the men and boys played baseball and the ladies held a P-TA call meeting. The new coffee maker is a fine investment for community use and if you haven't bought your vanilla, do so, and help pay for the coffee maker. The luncheon room is to have a new paint job and new curtains are to be selected and made for it. The auditorium is resplendent in new paint.

The whole community was shocked to hear of the tragedy that has befallen the Francis and Reed families. We offer sympathy especially to the family of Peggy Hand Francis, for she grew up in our vicinity and attended school with our children. Her brother and sister, Ray and Kay Taylor are in school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Wilson and children were hosts at a surprise birthday dinner on Sunday to his mother, Mrs. Ollie Wilson, who celebrated her 70th birthday. It was a happy surprise to open the door as she came home from church Sunday to find all her children gathered at the Wilson home with packages piled high and a big birthday cake. All the children were home except Ralph, who lives in California. Present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wilson and Wilbur Troy, from Plainview; Mrs. Jack Crawford, from Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Buster Wilson and boys from Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Armstrong from Clovis, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Johnny, Sue and Gary and the honoree, Mrs. Ollie Wilson.

"LIFE-SAVING" PROGRAM

By JIM COMPTON

One of the major projects of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District for 1954 is concerned with the preservation of human life.

This year the District will sponsor a drive designed to promote a movement on the part of the property owners to fill or cap as prescribed by law, all the old abandoned holes which potentially are killers in their own right.

Manager Tom McFarland says that a recent survey throughout the Plains are revealed an average of about three uncovered open holes per section of land. He says, also, that a number of partially covered holes were discovered in the survey. McFarland says it is the specific duty of each property owner to fill or properly cap such holes — it is the moral obligation of each citizen to call to the attention of the land owner or the Water District every open hole known to exist in the Plains. "What if your child were to fall into one of these holes?" he said. "The child would have little chance to survive."

The District's project theme is "A Little Life Is Worth More than a Little Time."

Educational programs, sponsored by the District and conducted throughout the area by McFarland, will be designed to

"I'LL BE SEEING YOU" — Democrat C. T. Johnson of Austin has opened an intensive state-wide campaign for Lieutenant Governor. He hopped into the driver's seat to set out on a tour to personally see people throughout Texas. Johnson's main pledge is a 100-per-month pension for all eligible citizens at age 65. At 43, he is a successful home builder in town and country, is married, has one daughter, lives in Austin and is a World War II veteran.

Ready At Allmon

Petersburg. — The project to re-charge the underground water stratas with rain fall caught in lakes, and located on the Allmon farm just east of Petersburg, is complete with the exception of a minor item or two, but it is ready should it rain and the lake catches water.

This Re-Charge Project is sponsored by the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District, and Marvin Shurbet has been superintendent of construction. The purpose of the project is to determine if the underground water sands can be re-charged by draining lake water into them.

A well was drilled in the lake to a depth of 400 feet, 150 feet of casing was put into the well with no perforation. The casing was stopped at the water sands. This casing extends above the surface for five feet. This portion is perforated. Around this above surface casing is a concrete floor about five feet square and 12 inches thick, and on this concrete floor is a wire pen of half wire about five feet high and four feet across, around this pen will be placed cotton burrs or cinders to act as a filter. As this filter fills up with trash, mud, etc., it can be moved and new filter put in.

A pit was dug in the lake about five or six feet, maybe more, below the bottom of the lake, and in this pit the well was drilled. Leading from the lake will be water furrows to drain every drop of the water to the pit. A concrete pipe has been laid through the pit dam which was constructed to hold water out of the pit, and where it enters the pit a meter will be installed to check number of gallons of water going into the well and how many hours it takes to drain the lake. After a rain the water in the lake will be allowed to settle for 24 hours before turning it into the pit then the gate will be opened.

George W. Busby, Chief of the Safety Department's Motor Vehicle Inspection Division, announced that inspections are now being conducted at the rate of 150,000 weekly and that no stations are experiencing a capacity business.

"In the six weeks remaining before the inspection deadline," Busby said, "the licensed stations will be fully capable of taking care of every vehicle in the State remaining to be checked without undue waiting or inconvenience unless too many folks put off having their autos inspected until the last minute."

Some wag said that the reason there are more twins born nowadays is that children are afraid to come into this world alone.

Fresh or corned beef is excellent in casserole dishes with a sauce, and served with cooked potatoes, mararoni, spaghetti, rice or noodles. Also, sliced ground cooked brisket mixed with vegetables adds flavor to a casserole and is a new taste sensation. Even for hash, fresh or corned brisket have no peer.

enlighten the public on the importance of this life saving program.

The filling and capping of the old abandoned wells will not only save the lives of children, but will reduce water pollution and livestock accidents, McFarland said.

McFarland referred to Rule 5 of the High Plains Rules and Regulations which concerns the covering or filling of old wells. This rule applies to all property owners in the 19 High Plains counties actively participating in the District activities. The rule says in effect, that "Immediately upon completion of a replacement well, the old well shall be filled and abandoned; properly equipped in such a manner that it cannot produce more than 100,000 gallons of water a day; or without exception, closed to comply with Article 1721 of the Penal Code passed by the 51st Legislature. Violation of such offense is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $500."

The manager said the District Board of Directors hopes it does not become necessary to press charges against anyone simply because they won't eradicate a death trap. It will only take a few minutes to fill it, he said.

McFarland mentioned public response to an appeal last year to get rid of old ice-boxes and refrigerators, after several children across the country had died of suffocation when they crawled in them to play and the door slammed shut. "People went to work and got rid of many of the old ice boxes," he said. "They can do as much for the old abandoned wells. It might save the life of a child."

SECOND FLOOR LAUNDRY

With modern automatic appliances — such as the clothes dryer — and waterproof wall and floor surfacing, the laundry can be located anywhere in the house to suit the homemaker's convenience. It may even be a part of the second floor bathroom.

Results of a four-year test conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the King Ranch show that cows receiving a phosphorus supplement produced a larger calf crop and heavier calves at weaning age.

Grain producers should give attention, even before planting, to the storage problem. Storage space is now at a premium and little relief is in sight. More on-the-farm storage will be a necessity if present indications develop.

"Political economy" are two words that should be divorced on the grounds of incompatibility.

Well Known Here

Victims of a light plane crash in Briscoe County Monday afternoon were well known in Lockney and this area and some had relatives here. The crash resulted in the death of Mr. and Mrs. J. Irvin Francis and Mrs. J. W. Reid Jr., and injury to Mr. Reid and two children, Danny Francis, 18 months old and Nancy Reid, 3 years old.

The plane with the four adults and two small children was taking off from a pasture on the L. W. Francis farm in South Briscoe County, about four miles north of the Floyd County line, when the accident happened. John Francis and L. W. Francis were watching when the plane took off. They said the plane hit by strong winds, failed to gain sufficient altitude and rammed through some telephone wires along the road. It went on across the road and struck power lines and tumbled nose downward to the ground where it burst into flames immediately.

J. W. Reid Jr., who was piloting the plane, crawled from the wreckage and pulled the two children out. He attempted to reach his wife but was driven off by the flames. John Francis, standing near the house, raced to the plane and pulled Mrs. Francis out but she suffered severe burns and passed away early Tuesday in the Plainview hospital. J. Irvin Francis and Mrs. Reid both died in the wreckage.

Mrs. Francis is a former South Plains girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ursel "Booger" Taylor, who lived at South Plains for a number of years. Her maiden name was Peggy Hand. She attended school at Floydada. Other survivors include her son, Danny, two half-sisters, Glenda Kay and Rita and a half brother, Ray Taylor, all of Silverton. She was a cousin to Albert King of Lone Star. Services for her and her husband were pending late Tuesday.

Reid is a grandson of J. H. Fowler of Lockney and nephew of Luther Fowler. The Fowlers were in Silverton Monday night along with numbers of other relatives and friends.

Services for Mrs. Reid were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at cemetary. Mrs. Reid is survived by her husband, three children, Nancy, 3, Jimmy, 8, and J. W. Reid III, 7; her parents of Wilmont, Kansas and two sisters.

Mr. Francis is survived by his son, Danny, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Francis, four brothers, John, Holly and Charles of Silverton, and Alvie, stationed with the armed forces in Korea; three sisters, Mrs. Margaret Frizzell, Happy; Mrs. Ruth West and Lena Mays, both of Silverton.

The plane was a single-engine Cessna, and was sold about a ing Service at Plainview. "Nig" Reid is a former Lockney school teacher.

Bob Davis of Lockney went with James Miller to the factory and flew the plane back to Plainview, when it was purchased, reports say.

Mr. and Mrs. Voy Dillahunty moved to Plainview February 1 and Mr. Dillahunty is employed with the city.

spent last week end at Midland and Andrews. In Midland they visited Mrs. Myers' daughter, Mrs. Jay McPherson. Mr. McPherson and girls Jimmy spent Saturday night with Phillip Daniel and on Sunday Mrs. Myers and Jimmy were guests for dinner in the Methodist parsonage in Andrews where Rev. Daniel is pastor. Mrs. Daniel returned to Lockney Sunday evening with Mrs. Myers. Monday she went to Quitaque to visit her son, Wesley and family who have recently moved to Quitaque where he pastors the First Methodist Church.
