

Hints On High Plains Gardening

The following is the final in a series of garden hints to home gardeners on the Plains. The series, written by Dr. George Elle, professor horticulture, Texas Tech, is in the interest of better home gardens.

Successive plantings at short intervals is the key to a continuous supply of fresh ingredients for summer salads and fresh vegetables for the table.

A small plot of radishes planted now will mature in less than a month and will be ready soon after the early-planted crop is used up. A few planted every two weeks until late July will supply fresh radishes throughout the summer months. This is worthwhile and takes only a few minutes and a very few seeds.

Garden cress, a member of the mustard green family, is little known in this area, although it is a valuable asset to summer salads. It seldom is found on the market, but occasionally a near relative, water cress, is available.

The home gardener can have this "something different" on the menu of that special dinner or party by planting cress about three weeks ahead of the event. The crop is at its best shortly after reaching maturity.

Sweet corn also may be planted at two week intervals until about July 1. The crop planted around April 1 should be ready about June 1, but it will produce ears for the table only over the short period of one week. By making new plantings, the corn season will be extended to after Sept. 1.

Later plantings of corn are more subject to corn ear worm than those made earlier in the season. More and more seedsmen are stocking a solution of

Contracts Let For Floydada Projects

Floydada. — Contracts totaling $181,033.49 were let here Friday for expansion of water and sewer systems here.

Mayor Jess Patterson said that city officials who opened bids awarded contracts to the Sherman Iron and Metal Works, Oklahoma City, for installation of five miles of water mains, four miles of sewerage and other miscellaneous installations.

Contract for a steel overhead storage tank of 200,000 gallons capacity went to the Pittsburg Iron Works of Des Moines. The Iowa firm's bid of $38,250 was lowest of two received on the tank.

Ten firms bid in the water and sewerage project. The Oklahoma City firm's bid was $142,783.49.

BANANA SHORTCAKE

Here's a snowy version of banana shortcake: split a pound cake into two layers. Place whipped cream and sliced bananas between layers and on the top. Sprinkle generously with chipped chocolate and chopped nuts, then cover with whipped cream. Chill in your refrigerator until serving time.

DUST MOP FITS LIKE MITTEN

If you haven't tried the new dust mop that fits like a mitten, you're missing a real time-saver. Its effectiveness is measured by its cleanliness, so wash it often. In fact, why not try using both hands, with two mitts!

After-dark applications of chlordane or DDT to nests of wasps gives good control at minimum risk.

have been pleasantly surprised with excellent yields and quality from August 1 plantings of cucumbers and snap beans.

DDT, one per cent in mineral oil, which should be applied to the silk immediately after it begins to dry. Several drops are applied to the silk of each ear, letting the solution run down the silk and penetrate around the tip to kill the worm larva.

Second plantings of the crops seeded in March and April other than radishes, onions and some of the greens group) should not be made during the hot months, but may be made later. Some crops require cool weather to do their best. Second plantings of cool-season vegetables may be made in late July.

Leafy crops will do better if plantings are not made until the middle of August. This results in maturity in September and October when the nights are cool and the quality of the vegetables will be highest.

At Texas Tech, however, we

Control Of Lice On Hogs Makes Profits

College Station. — Hog prices are favorable and profits can be stretched further if producers will control the lice on their animals.

This parasite constantly irritates the hog, slows its rate of gain and, in turn, raises the producer's feed bill, explains E. M. Regenbrecht, extension swine husbandman. Lice also are a common spreader of Swine Pox.

Hog lice too often are taken for granted, but they can be easily controlled with DDT, chlordane, toxaphene or methoxychlor sprays at 0.5 percent concentration or with 0.06 percent lindane or gamma BHC. The latter two insecticides give best results, Regenbrecht adds.

Sows with suckling pigs should not be sprayed with any of these insecticides, the specialist cautions.

STORAGE SPACE HELPS

A U-shaped kitchen floor plan can do more than save the homemaker steps during meal preparation. It can also reveal a lot of valuable wall space which was inaccessible for use when the range or refrigerator was badly situated.

One use to which this re-discovered wall space may be put is storage, always seriously needed in the modern kitchen. It's well to plan cabinets carefully at the time kitchen remodeling is undertaken, so that there may be a maximum of easily cleaned tile wallcovering, with the storage units cleverly installed in it.

A wise way to equip closets is to give them sliding, rather than conventional, doors, and to build shelves at varying levels to accommodate long ironing boards and other tall appliances.

A rigid sanitation program is a must against flies. The use of insecticides alone will not do the job, but if used in combination with sanitation, flies can be whipped.

Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Norris

The Lockney Garden Club met Friday in the home of Mrs. Alex Norris. Mrs. T. J. Hart of Plainview gave a lecture and demonstration on dried arrangements.

Present for the meeting were Meses. Tom Rankin, Arthur Barker Sr., Henry Ford, W. J. Griffith, Theo Griffith, L. M. Honea, T. B. Mitchell, R. C. Mitchell, E. M. Quebe, Frank Roberson, R. W. Smith and two guests, Mrs. Hart and Mrs. George Beedy.

The club will meet again on Friday of this week in the home of Mrs. R. W. Smith. The meeting will begin at 4 o'clock.

TO WED IN JULY

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Richards of 1004 Wayland Street, Plainview, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lauanna, to Pvt. Cecil Boedeker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Boedeker of Lockney.

The wedding date is set for sometime the early part of July when Pvt. Boedeker completes his basic training with the Army at Fort Bliss in El Paso.

The bride-elect is a 1954 graduate of Plainview High School. The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of Lockney High School and was engaged in farming with his father until he entered the Army.

Barker-O'Daniel Wedding Solemnized In Church Ceremony

In an impressive ceremony in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church in Tulla Saturday, June 12, Algene O'Daniel, daughter of Mrs. Dewey Seay, and Barry Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Barker of Lockney, were united in marriage. Rev. Neil Record read the double ring ceremony at seven o'clock.

Mrs. Jim Karnes, organist, played tradition nuptial selections and accompanied Helen McCasland who sang "Because" and "Through the Years."

In the choir loft were three large fan shaped arrangements of snap dragons and gladiolas flanked by pink candelabra and candles. On each side of the altar were three small pink pillars joined by pink satin rope. The pews were marked by miniature pink maline fans.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Harlan Vander Zee, cousin of the bride, wore ice blue tulle over satin. The decollete neckline was edged with a single row of lace. The dropped waistline was outlined with a miniature lace peplum. Two lace panels extended down the bouffant skirt. Her headpiece featured a bandeau of pink roses and she carried a pink maline fan with blush roses attached to the base of the fan.

MRS. BARRY BARKER

Arthur P. Barker Jr., brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Howard Smith, Marvin Sams, G. B. Johnston and Bill Birdwell, all of Lockney.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Ross O'Daniel, was gowned in bride's blue polyester tulle and imported lace. The gown was fashioned with a portrait neckline edged with rows of dainty French lace, and the lace bodice frosted over satin, fastened down the back with self covered buttons. Lace sleeves tapered to petal points over her hands. The very bouffant skirt composed of layers of tulle over satin was defined with lace sprays, and swept into a brief train. The veil of imported ice blue illusion was caught onto a satin hat frosted with matching lace, and cascaded in misty tiers to her waistline.

Mrs. Seay, mother of the bride, wore sky blue silk slanting with matching accessories. Mrs. Barker, mother of the groom, was attired in navy blue with matching accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, the wedding party was feted at a reception in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. R. T. O'Daniel. The house party included Mrs. L. Dean Butler, Mrs. Ross O'Daniel, Mary Beth Newby, Mrs. Bobby Brown, Wilma O'Daniel, Betsy Musick, Esther Cobb, all of Tulla; Therol Motley, Hollis, Oklahoma; Mrs. Jack Ardis, Dallas; Janetta McNamers, Vernon; Mrs. Jack Jordan, Floydala; Mrs. J. M. McCasland, Dallas; Mrs. Art Barker, J., and Kathryn Norris of Lockney.

For the wedding trip to Colorado, the bride traveled in a toast linen coach seat over a white linen sheath. Her accessories were toast and white. Her corsage was two gardenias.

After June 20, the couple will be at home in Lockney.

The bride is a graduate of Tulla High School and North Texas State where she was a member of Zeta Pi Gamma Sorority. She taught Homemaking in Lockney High School a year and a half before joining the Tulla faculty.

The groom attended Lockney High School and West Texas State College. He is associated with Lockney Auto Company here.

C. W. Crawford spent several days last week in Hollis, Oklahoma at the bedside of his father who is ill.

Frizzell Home Is Scene Of Shower

The home of Mrs. Jack Frizzell in the Lone Star community was the scene for a recent bridal shower honoring Miss Glenda Ann Readhimer, bride-elect of R. L. Rhoten of Littlefield.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Frizzell, Miss Readhimer, Mrs. L. M. Readhimer, Mrs. Roy Rhoten, mother of the groom-to-be, and his sister, Mrs. Jerry Foot of Borger. Miss Readhimer was presented a beautiful corsage of blue carnations, her chosen color. Others in the receiving line wore white carnations, gifts from the hostesses.

Punch and cookies were served from the dining table which was laid with a white linen handworked cloth, imported from Korea and belonging to Mrs. Walter Griffith. Completing the table decorations was a miniature bride on an altar surrounded by blue carnations. A round the punch bowl was a double ruffle of blue net holding tiny white rose buds. Mrs. Clyde Farish and Mrs. Howard Mosley served during the calling hours.

Mrs. Lowell Jarrett registered approximately eighty guests who called or sent gifts from Lone Star, Amarillo, Plainview, Borger, Littlefield and Alpine, Texas.

Hostesses for the occasion were Meses. W. T. Rankin, Harold Griffith, Bob Merrill, Ruby Merrick, Lowell Jarrett, A. O. Foster, H. E. Frizzell, Earl Kellison, Herman King, Reed Lawson, Howard Mosley, Clyde Farish, G. C. Applewhite, and Jack Frizzell.

A LITTLE STORY ABOUT WILLIE AND NILLIE

Willie and Nillie were identical twins. They looked alike, dressed alike, talked alike, and nearly always agreed on everything. In most respects they even agreed on the Bible. They agreed, for instance, that baptism by immersion is Scriptural and therefore safe. Together they had read: "Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ were baptized into His death? We were buried therefore with Him through baptism into death..." (Rom. 6:3, 4.) They likewise read that Philip and the Ethiopian "came to a certain water", "went down both into the water," "and he baptized him" and "came up out of the water" (Acts 8.) They were fully convinced that every case of baptism in the Bible was immersion.

Doctor Hoodwinker was to baptize them; but first he had a long talk with them. While he admitted that immersion was Scriptural he said that sprinkling would do just as well. "It is true" he said, "that no passages definitely teach sprinkling. There is no record of sprinkling being done in New Testament times. But lets be broadminded. Think of tradition! Besides it is so modest, so fashionable, so convenient; besides, we only have a small baptismal font."

Nillie wanted to be broadminded, so he was sprinkled. But Willie was obstinate. He wanted to be safe, so he was immersed.

Finally, on the same day Willie and Nillie died. Together they stood in the twilight leading to the throne of judgment, and could see the expanse of eternity beyond. Even now as they walked to the throne you couldn't tell them apart—except one was so nervous. One was so uncertain—visibly agitated. IT WASNT WILLIE.

—Selected.

Men are constantly preaching today that baptism is not essential — that it has nothing to do with a person's salvation. If this is true it makes no difference how a person is baptized. If this is true it makes no difference whether anybody is baptized or not. But if baptism is essential, as the following verses show: (Mk. 16:15, 16; Acts 2:38; Rom. 6:3; Gal. 3:26, 27; 1 Pet. 3:21) man must submit to the action in the Lord's appointed way.

Story Hour for the usual nine to ten o'clock was highly successful. Mrs. Orton Miller told stories to a large group of children and C. W. Denison was in charge of the program for the 1929 Study Club which is entering its second year of sponsorship of this splendid children's activity.

Mrs. P. A. Denison brought candies for the children. New comers to the story hour were Linda McCullough of Midland; Neil and Judy Wright of Lubbock; Velda Pollen and her guest Charlotte Sue Head of Midwest, Okla; Nancy Ginn, Linda Wilson, Dan Price, Gay and Tommy Lyles and Susan Hotchkiss of Lampassas.

CLOSE TO TOWN — This mystery farm wasn't far from Lockney. It is the farm belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wofford and farmed by Ray Sissney, located three miles north and a half a mile west of Lockney. It appeared in the First National Bank advertisement in last week's Beacon. First person to correctly identify the farm was Barbara Carthel. Others who correctly identified it were Mary Jones, Franklin Spruiell, Mrs. Raymond Barr, Mrs. Kenneth Wofford, Omer Eurlson and Priscilla Carthel. The farm contains 160 acres, 80 acres of which the Woffords heired from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Belt and the other 80 acres they bought. They have owned the place about 2 years. It was formerly known as the John Belt farm and contained a half section of land which was given the late Mrs. Belt by her father, J. M. Carthel, pioneer farmer of this area. The farm has one irrigation well and cotton, feed and alfalfa are the principal crops.

Mrs. Wofford's given name is Retha. The couple have two girls and one boy, they being Jean, James Ray and Jann. Mr. and Mrs. Sissney weren't living on the place when the picture was made but they are living in the house and farming it this year. They also have three children, Melvin, Fern and Lynn. Watch for another Floyd County mystery farm in the First National Bank advertisement next week.

been a number of very fine additions and we look forward already to the fall and the calls for assigned reading. A wise man has said that if one would know history one should read biography. We hope our biography collection will have an ever increasing amount of use.

Our special thanks go to Mr. Guffee and Mrs. Virgil Shaw for their unstinted help in cutting a stencil and mimeographing our supply of overdue postal notices. A passing borrower helped to run the cards off the machine.

While Eggs Are Low Priced, Save Them By Freezing

College Station. — With eggs lower in price now, housewives can save money by freezing them. Frozen eggs will keep in good condition from 9 to 12 months. Eggs are broken out of the shell for freezing.

Yolk and white may be frozen separately, or whole eggs can be stirred to make a uniform mixture. Foods and nutrition specialists of the Texas Agriculture Extension Service say freeze eggs in quantities to be used at one time.

Stir whole eggs with a fork enough to make a uniform mixture. Do not beat. Strain through a sieve. To one cup of whole eggs add 1/2 tablespoon of ONE of these—sugar, corn syrup, or 1/2 teaspoon of salt according to the kind of recipe in which the eggs will be used.

Yolks frozen alone should be stirred with a fork and strained through a sieve. Add to a cup of egg yolks ONE of these—1 tablespoon corn syrup, 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Strain egg whites through a sieve, and freeze without stirring or adding anything.

The trays used for freezing ice cubes make convenient containers for freezing in small amounts. The trays should be lined with cellophane. Frozen eggs may then be forced from the dividers and stored in the freezer.

Thaw at room temperature, in cold running water or in refrigerator. Mix contents of package thoroughly before using. Use thawed eggs within 24 hours. Do not refreeze.

For further information on freezing foods, ask your county extension agent for bulletin B-175 — Frozen Foods, or write to the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Drinking Youth Is Problem—Stevenson

Austin. — Consumption of alcoholic beverages by juveniles was described today by Coke R. Stevenson, Jr., Texas Liquor Control Board administrator, as "our No. 1 Problem."

"We are doing all we can, with the cooperation of other law enforcement agencies and the industry to stop sales to minors," Stevenson said, "but enforcement is not the complete answer to the problem."

"Some parents do not always know where their children are or what they are doing," the administrator said, adding:

"It is easy for a boy or girl, left alone for an evening, to fall into bad companionship. You and I know what the result can be — and sometimes is."

"We must use education along with enforcement if we expect to achieve the results we seek. This education is the business of the home, the church and the school."

"A boy or girl can ruin his whole life by one drunken act; or he can end that life prematurely in a thousand different ways if he behaves hazardously while under the influence of alcohol."

"Herein lies a responsibility that is ours, as adults. If we fail to discharge that responsibility, then we, as parents, are guilty when tragedy occurs."

One particular difficulty arises, Stevenson said, from the fact that armed forces personnel 18 years old may purchase alcoholic beverages on military posts.

Three of the top women volunteers of the United States Savings Bonds Program gather at the White House beside a beautiful "flower savings bond" to call attention to the 13th anniversary of the Bond Program. Pictured with the First Lady, Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Honorary Chairman of the National Women's Advisory Committee of the Treasury's Savings Bonds Division, are Mrs. George M. Humphrey, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury and member of the committee, and Mrs. Oscar A. Ahlgren, President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and chairman of the committee. Through the National Women's Advisory Committee, the three women leaders are urging American women to purchase Savings Bonds regularly, and to retain maturing Series E bonds for additional interest. The flower savings bond was a gift of the Allied Florist Association to the National Women's Advisory Committee.

LOSES INDEX FINGER

Robert Wayne Moody, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moody, lost his index finger on the left hand in an accident at his home in the Providence community late Tuesday. He was doing fine Wednesday.

Farmer Views His Economic Value

College Station. — How economically sound is the averaged Texas farmer? What plans does he have for old age and how many have definite plans for retirement?

Answers to these and other questions were sought recently in Wharton county in a survey designed to check the economic security of the state's farmers. Wharton was selected because of its variety of physical, economic and social conditions and is described as a representative Texas county.

Principal crops grown are cotton, rice, corn, grain sorghums, hay and alfalfa. Truck crops, livestock and poultry contribute substantially to farm income. Dairying is a growing enterprise.

The net worth of 257 farm operators interviewed ranged from "debts greater than assets" to well over $30,000. Fifty-six percent had a net worth of less than $10,000. And 42 percent fell in the less-than-$5,000 class. Seventeen percent were worth less than $1,000 and, in this group, one in three indicated debts greater than assets.

The study, initiated by Texas A. and M. College cooperating with the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture, is reported by William G. Atkins and Joe R. Motheral, assistant professor of the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology and U. S. D. A. labor economist, respectively.

Education was directly associated with net worth, the survey revealed, as was race and nationality background.

Insurance is not widely used by Wharton county farmers as protection against death or disability. Nearly one-third of all farmers had little or no insurance. The majority of the larger policy holders were found in the 35 to 44 year old group. Those 55 and over carried the least insurance.

Relatively few farmers in Wharton county had even discussed economic security with their wives and other family members. Too, families in the weakest financial positions had given least consideration to their economic future. More than half said they had made no real progress toward saving for old age. Those having accumulated assets believed their farms would be their chief source of income in later years.

Only 12 percent had made positive plans for retirement, 10 percent had given retirement a little thought and the remaining 78 percent had given little or no thought to retirement. About three-fifths of all farmers indicated they did not plan to retire.

Only one operator in five had discussed with his children, even casually, the possibility of their participating in some plan to provide for the parents in old age. One farmer in nine desired to live with his children upon retirement and three out of four wanted to stay on a farm.

A combination of financial interests in farm land, livestock or farm improvements, plus one or more types of nonfarm holdings, was the most common saving or investment. Sixty percent of the farmers checked reported this combination and the proportion increased with net worth.

More than half the farmers interviewed in Wharton county had some income in 1951 from nonfarm sources. Off-the-farm work, oil and gas royalties or rentals and nonfarm investments were the prime sources of additional income.

Eighty-three percent of the operators expressed general approval of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance, 10 percent disapproved the program and the rest took no position on the question.

Cash savings among regular hired workers were rare. Thirteen percent had no assets while the main type property owned by the others was an automobile or truck.

Forty-seven percent had a life or burial insurance policy, the survey indicated. Of the 10 percent attempting to save, most averaged no more than $5 or $10 a month.

This and other information on the survey is given in bulletin 774, The Farmer Looks at His Economic Security, which is available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaven E. Marr and children of Dallas are spending a few days here this week visiting relatives and making preparation to move to Jackson, Mississippi.

Farm Bureau Has Regular Meeting

The executive board of the Floyd County Farm Bureau met in regular session Thursday night of last week at Floydada with 20 directors and alternates present.

The group heard a resolution read and discussed on the work of the American Cotton Council. The resolution was to the effect that the Farm Bureau commend the Council for its work, feeling that the work done by them in the line of research and promoting the sale of cotton goods was an asset to the cotton growers.

Lois Turner, Doodle Milton and R. L. Smith were appointed as a committee to work with the Queen Contest and to decide upon some compensation for the contestants.

Lois Turner gave a report on the progress of the Floyd County Fair and urged support of the fair by individuals as well as the organization. In the absence of Jack McIntosh and Bill Rodgers, W. R. Puckett, service officer, gave a short report on the area meeting on May 28th when Jack Lynn informed the district on what the 1949 Agricultural Act was, and some amendments and compromises recommended by Farm Bureau. He reminded the directors to read the June issue of Nation's Agriculture and the Texas Agriculture for full information on these issues, as well as Farm Bureau achievements.

He also reminded the board to urge attendance at the Sixth Annual Texas Farm Bureau Institute to be held August 1-5 at the Memorial Student Center, A. & M. College, College Station. The Farm Bureau has a 6-day school of instruction each year for the purpose of teaching and instructing on Farm Bureau policies. The schedule of classes with their instructors can be had at the local Farm Bureau office. Reservations have been made for 6 people and tuition paid. Any member is invited to take advantage of this instruction in farm problems.

Shivers Opens His Campaign At Lufkin

Governor Allan Shivers announced today that he will open his 1954 campaign with an old-fashioned political rally at Lufkin, his birthplace, on Monday evening, June 21st.

The Governor's opening address will be carried over a state-wide radio broadcast from 8:30 to 9 p. m. Thirty-seven stations of the Texas State Network and the Texas Quality Network will carry the address. These include KCB, 1590, Lubbock and KFDA, 1440, Amarillo.

With the formal opening of his campaign, the Governor will begin a series of trips throughout the state during which he will review the accomplishments of his administration and outline future improvements which are a part of his plans for a greater Texas.

High temperature and low humidity are two of the greatest enemies of good quality eggs. Eggs should be stored in a cool, humid, but well ventilated place and marketed often.

BEWARE!

Watch out for the fast talking salesman. Every year about this time, out-of-town painters, roofing salesman, asbestos and insulated siding salesman make their appearance in this territory. They have taken advantage of the public, especially on the insulated siding material, by charging from fifty to one hundred percent more than you could purchase it locally, by using fast talk and making the people believe they are giving you something for nothing. Their aim in coming this far is to make dollars and make them fast, with guarantees that are not worth the paper they are written on. You see them once and one time only. INFERIOR ROOF PAINTING is another item they thrive on, using the very cheapest grades of paint and mineral oil as a thinner.

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God. — Romans 8:28.

REACTIONS TO THE SUPREME COURT'S segregation ruling vary considerably from the State Education's Agency statement that there will be no change in Texas schools until the legislature leads the way to Governor Shivers statement, "Let's get on with the job." Locally people don't seem to be taking much stock in the question one way or another probably because of the very few negroes in this area. But in some parts of Texas it will be a problem, especially those places where negroes are in the majority. Trouble will come unless patience and tact are used to a great degree.

TRIBUTE TO A DOG
This eloquent tribute to a dog was made during the trial of a man who had shot a neighbor's foxhound. The case was tried in a Missouri court in September, 1870. Senator Vest asked $200 damages, but after two minutes' deliberation the jury awarded $500. The full speech follows:
"Gentlemen of the Jury: The best friend a man has in this world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter that he has reared with loving care may prove ungrateful. Those who are nearest and dearest to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name, may become traitors to their fault. The money that a man has he may lose. It flies away from him, perhaps when he needs it most. A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill-considered action. The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles its cloud upon our heads. The one absolutely unselfish friend that man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is his dog.

"Gentlemen of the Jury: a man's dog stands by him in prosperity and in poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground, where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer; he will lick the wounds and sores that come to encounter with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert, he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens. If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him to guard against danger, to fight against his enemies, and when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in its embrace and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by his graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even to death."

—Editor's Notebook in Plainview Herald.

IT'LL TAKE TIME

The oldsters worry more about the coming of non-segregation than do the school boys and girls, and the young men who spent some time in the armed forces. The outcome of non-segregation in the schools of Floyd County may not be exactly as the Supreme Court envisioned it, nor exactly as the opponents of the new law forecast. In some parts of the state the problem will be compounded by lack of funds to meet the additional burden of providing school facilities under the same roof for so many children at one time. The situation will not adjust itself all at one time. — The Floyd County Hesperian.

COMMENCEMENT SPEECH

Our thanks to Bob Work for the "Complete Commencement Speech," condensed to a very few words. "There are nine requisites for contented living. Health enough to make work a pleasure; wealth enough to support your needs; strength to battle with difficulties and overcome them; grace enough to confess your sins and forsake them; patience enough to toil until some good is accomplished; charity enough to see some good in your neighbor; love enough to move you to be useful and helpful to others; faith enough to make real things of God; hope enough to remove all anxious fears concerning the future."
—The Crosbyton Review.

Health Department Urges Fly Control

Austin. — The Texas State Department of Health urges strict attention to sanitation as a fly control measure. The main sanitation problems responsible for fly production are neglected phases of community clean up, like garbage storage, disposal, animal shelters and insensate disposal of decaying industrial wastes.

Now is a good time to clean up the insanitary conditions around your town and home. Every time you destroy a breeding place, you stop whole colonies of flies before they can start. Insecticide spraying is effective only after a complete clean-up job and only if sanitary conditions are maintained throughout the year.

Proper garbage storage is one of the most important factors in good sanitation. Garbage should be stored in water tight, galvanized metal containers with a tight lid. Dispose of all cans, bottles and other rubbish. Proper disposal of garbage collected is equally important in the prevention of fly breeding areas.

Another measure in proper fly control is proper screening of homes. Each householder should check the screens on his house for holes that will allow flies to enter. Repairing of screens will help to protect food from contamination by fly borne disease organisms.

The importance of fly control can be realized when it is known that flies carry and spread such diseases as typhoid fever, the dysenteries, infant diarrhea and other diseases. Fly control is an individual and community duty. It is the job of every person and every locality and the results will benefit everyone.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

IN THE OLD DAYS, DISTRIBUTION OF "COUNTRY FRESH" TRUCK-FARM PRODUCE WAS LIMITED TO NEARBY COMMUNITIES AND THE LOCAL GROWING SEASON. TODAY THE BOUNTY OF THE SOIL IS SHARED MORE WIDELY AND THE MARKETING OF PERISHABLE PRODUCE STABILIZED, BECAUSE OF PACKAGING INNOVATIONS, MODERNIZED TRANSPORTATION AND OTHER DEVELOPMENTS.

FROZEN FOOD PACKAGES, FOR EXAMPLE, APPROXIMATED 5 PER CENT OF ALL RETAIL FOOD SALES LAST YEAR. A LARGE PART OF THE FUNDS THAT BUILT THIS HUGE NEW INDUSTRY CAME FROM THE SAVINGS OF THE VERY PEOPLE BENEFITING FROM THIS IMPORTANT CHANGE IN THE LIVING HABITS OF OUR DEMOCRACY.

Higher Returns For Farmers Expected

College Station. — Acreage crop allotments are not likely to materially reduce overall labor needs on Texas farms prior to harvesting.

If moisture permits planting of substitute crops, very little productive land is expected to remain idle, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

Heavy plantings of grain sorghums, hay, silage and similar crops handled almost entirely by machinery may promote a labor cutback during the harvest season. Cotton is a heavy labor consumer since about 75 percent of the crop is hand picked or snapped, but the 1,750,000 acre deduction below last year also will lower this year's labor needs.

Wage rates are not expected to drop materially even with a larger supply.

Widespread affects of drought in western areas and a slackening industrial employment also contribute to plentiful labor.

With proper planning, this situation should result in higher returns to farmers for dollars expended, Bates adds.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davis returned home Friday from a weeks visit in Van Nuys, California with Mr. Davis' brother, Wayne Davis. They made the trip by plane.

NO TRICK TO OMELETS

We're all pretty choosy about omelets. However, here's a new touch most people like: Chop a bunch of stemmed water cross fine and stir in a little sour cream. Fold mixture in the omelet and serve quickly. Stewed tomatoes or a tossed salad goes well as an accompaniment.

WARNING! No sales made to outside dealers! We want our retail customers to get full advantage of savings made possible by below-market prices.

We're offering used cars in our stocks at rock-bottom wholesale prices to retail customers. Each year at this time we accumulate a huge stock of trade-ins on new Chevrolets... many are low-mileage, one-owner trade-ins we have regularly serviced ourselves! In past years, we have disposed of this excess inventory by selling to outside dealers in wholesale lots. This year, we offer our customers this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity of cashing in on these really tremendous savings... savings in some cases that amount to hundreds of dollars per car!

Included are some sensational values in wr. ten-warranty OK Used Cars. Come in and buy with confidence that you're being quoted the lowest of wholesale prices! It's not a sale unless the price is under the market.

PERSPECTIVE

What do you see, Sonny? A plane, streaking across the sky? A pony, galloping into the sunset? A sailboat, gliding across the lake? If I were to look into those glasses, I might see other things. For you are viewing the world with the eyes of youth . . . while mine is the sight of age.

I, too, can marvel at the speed of a plane, the grace of a pony, the beauty of a sailboat. But in all of them, I sense a force much greater than that of the man who pilots the plane, saddles the pony, or rigs the sail.

You are learning about that force when you go to Church each Sunday, and understanding it will be one of the greatest assets in your life. It will teach you to keep things in their proper perspective so that, when you get to be my age, though your sight may be dimmer you will see so much . . . so very much . . . more.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Free Prizes And Varied Program Marks Drive-In's 2nd Anniversary

Marking its second anniversary, the Seale Drive-In here will present a varied program and offer numerous prizes to its patrons this week end. The theatre was opened to the public two years ago on June 19.

Feature picture for the two night celebration will be "Racing Blood" starring Bill Williams, Jean Porter and Jimmy Boyd.

Free favors of 2-foot long balloons and lollipops for the kiddies will be given and a 4-foot high Bobo the Clown plastic balloon will be given each night to the family having the largest number present.

Another feature of the program will be the personal appearance on Saturday night of "The Lucky T" string band who will present an hour's program preceding the show and also play during the intermission. On Friday night a local string band will render a program.

The Seale Drive-In has a playground on the grass just in front of the big screen and they have several pieces of play-ground equipment which children who are not interested in the show may play on. The box office opens at 7 p. m.

The feature picture for the two nights is a story that every member of the family will appreciate, "The Horse in the Hat" starring J. B. Seale, manager said. It is the story of a boy and the horse he trained in secret to win the big championship race.

Mrs. Lee Johnston left by plane from Amarillo Tuesday to return to her home in Savannah, Georgia. She spent a week here visiting her sister, Mrs. D. L. Handley and Mr. Handley who accompanied her to Amarillo.

Enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gaskin and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dock Durham, all of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goetz and Carl Henry, Odessa, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Handley and family, Lockney. The Durham and Goetz families were here Saturday and Sunday.

Ninety-two relatives gathered for the event this year.

Summer Home Ec Program Progresses

On Thursday morning, June 17, 3rd 50 students of Lockney Home-making Department began work in their summer homemaking program under the direction of the Homemaking teacher, Mrs. W. C. Irons.

The schedule is two-fold in purpose. One division includes class meetings in the Homemaking department where a course in crafts is taught. The class is diverted into two groups. One group works with aluminum while the other works with leather.

Thirty-nine aluminum trays have been made and etched. This is done by painting the tray, fluting the edges, etching with acid then cleaning and polishing the finished trays.

In the leather work, the articles were first tooled, then laced, and finished with leather finish to close the pores of the leather. Among the articles already made in this division are 24 ladies billfolds, six men's billfolds, key ring cases, comb cases and belts.

The other part of the program includes home projects. Each girl has chosen a project to carry on in the home in connection with her own family during the summer. This is an out-growth of her homemaking course in high school the past semester. A record of work is kept by each girl. The homemaker teacher also supervises this part of the program through home visits, conferences, group meetings, by telephone, or any other method that is advisable.

An all-day outing will be enjoyed at Roaring Springs Friday, June 18th by students, teacher and a number of mothers.

During the last week in August the group will meet together for evaluation and another picnic. Each girl will receive one-half credit in Home-making for the summer work. According to the Vacation Home-making program of Texas students are allowed to take two such courses during high school, but only students of the Home-making Department are eligible.

NEW SECOND NATIONAL BANK BUILDING TO BE HOUSTON'S LARGEST SKYSCRAPER

Rain And Hail Ruin More Crops

Rain and hail, falling in the north part of Floyd County last Friday night took another swipe at crops, wiping some out completely and damaging others.

The storm swept through Floyd County west to east, covering a strip ranging from 5 to 7 miles wide, hitting the Providence and Sterley communities and going just south of Lone Star.

Cotton, replanted in some instances for the third time, was completely destroyed on some farms. Ted Boedeker of the Providence community, reported that his crops in his home community and also in the Prairie View Community, west of Providence, was destroyed. The strip where damage was either partial or complete just north of Lone Star ranged from the Paul Cooper farm, 3 miles north to Lone Star, 10 miles north.

Wheat fields were damaged in varying amounts ranging from 25% to 100%. Considerable wheat was lost in the storm, made worse because a storm the previous week had swept a similar strip north of Lone Star from west to east.

Where cotton wasn't destroyed altogether, farmers were uncertain as to how much damage it sustained and how much they would leave. Some expected to leave all the crop, poor stand or not, while others planned to replant with feed.

Rains ranging from an inch to four and five inches coupled with high winds, did further damage to crops. Some areas received two hails the same evening, the second one completing what the first hadn't done. The first hail came about 9:30 and the second about 11:15.

The storm was heavier in some parts than others. Kenneth Wolford, east and south of Lone Star, lost all his crops and around Sterley the storm was unusually severe.

Farmers are trying to save cotton stands where possible due to the acreage allotment program. Some expect to leave a light stand on that account, reports say.

Lightning Damage Although very little if any rain fell in that vicinity, at least one farm in the Irick community suffered damage from lightning. That was the Jack Dollar place where lightning destroyed appliances and damaged houses for both Jack and Leonard Dollar on Sunday night. At the Leonard Dollar home, the bolt ruined a refrigerator, radio, telephone and damaged a gas stove which had electric lights on it. A refrigerator and pressure pump was damaged at the Jack Dollar home. The bolt struck a power pole near the two houses, splitting the cross arm.

QUITMAN VISITORS

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Irons over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jackson of Quitman, Texas. Monday morning the Irons accompanied the Jacksons to Albuquerque, New Mexico.
