Dodgers in the Lockney League are setting quite as their namesakes in the league. The local boys lost a game as yet and leading the league with five no losses.

Yankees are in second having lost only one game that to the Dodgers. Other are trailing in this order: Giants, Indians and Cardinals. The only change in standings from last week the Yankees took undisputed place where they were last week with the Red Sox and the Indians moved out the cellar leaving that position to the Cardinals.

Another game played Thursday was the Indians and Cardinals with the Indians winning one 14 to 6. The Indians won 8 in the fifth to cinch the game.

Saturday evening the Red Sox defeated the Giants 16 to 5 in a game originally scheduled for Thursday.

Tuesday afternoon the Dodgers maintained their hot streak by defeating the Red Sox 7 to 5 in a close game most of way, however, and the Red Sox never quit fighting. Naylor Mangold pitched for the Red Sox while Rolling pitched for the Dodgers.

In the other game Tuesday the Giants edged the Indians 18 to 13 in a game in which the score changed several times. In the Indians jumped into a lead in the fifth but the Giants came back to score in the bottom of the sixth. It was a long game and almost caught the

4-H Judging Team Wins Third At State

The Floyd County 4-H Club field crop judging team won third place in the state field crop judging contest held at A&M College on June 9th, Bill Rodgers, county agent, said Wednesday. The team was composed of Norman Brints and David Mount, both of Floydada. They are members of the County-Wide 4-H Club. Rodgers coached the boys and accompanied them to A&M. The team won first place in the district contest held at Lubbock in May. The boys gave a demonstration on field crops, were required to judge samples of grain and to identify certain field seeds.

Misses Jo Readhimer, Janie Rhodes, and Carolyn Belt plan to leave sometime this week end for the Long Scraggy Mountain Ranch for Girls at Buffalo Creek, Colorado. They plan to spend the next four weeks there. Aside from the usual activities of summer camp, they will attend the rodeo at Denver on July 4. Parents of the girls are Mr. and Mrs. L. M. BOARD ELECTS 3 TEACHERS, SETS SCHOOL DATES FOR 1955-56

The board of trustees of the Lockney Independent School District in a meeting last week, elected three teachers, set dates for the school opening, closing and holidays in the coming term, and attended to other routine matters in a long session which ended well after midnight.

Teachers elected to fill vacancies in the faculty were Mrs. J. D. Copeland, who will teach in the grade school, Mrs. Elsie Peckham, a school nurse, and Edward Babitzke, who will teach science in high school. Mrs. Copeland has been teaching in various positions in the local school system. Last term she filled a vacancy in high school by teaching science the last six weeks. She has a degree from Arkansas University and is now doing further study at Texas Tech.

Mrs. Peckham lives at Plainview and is a graduate nurse. She has a daughter 11. Babitzke is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Pylant having married the former Lena Sue Pylant. He has lived here at various times in the past. He has a B. S. degree from West Texas State College and will receive his masters degree in August. He has also been elected to drive a school bus.

The same lunchroom workers who were employed last year were elected to serve the coming term. They are Mrs. Olive Myers, Mrs. Imo Lee Rigby, Mrs. Bessie Smith, Mrs. Rosalee Cooley, Miss Emma Stalbird, Mrs. Della Willmon, Mrs. Bertha Cunyus, Mrs. Mary Wilson and Mrs. Annie Cunningham.

The trustees of the Providence school district met with the local board at the beginning of the meeting to discuss transportation matters concerning

Lone Star Singers To Meet Sunday

The Lone Star Community Singers will meet Sunday, June 19 at 2 p. m. at the Lone Star school, it was announced this week by J. L. Lovvern, president. All who love good singing are invited to attend.

Meeting Starts At West Side Church Friday Evening

A meeting will begin at the West Side Church of Christ in Lockney Friday evening of this week. It was announced Tuesday. Frank Duckworth of Fort Worth will do the preaching. He has held several previous meetings here.

The two boards discussed Route 5 of the local school systems bus route which is the one that goes into the Providence school district. Supt. W. C. Irons reported on receipts and disbursements for the bus, showing a deficit of $486.34 over the past three years of operation. Since the bus line is operated on a partnership basis between the two districts, the Providence board agreed to pay half the deficit in the operating expenses.

The two boards also agreed to purchase a new 48-passenger school bus on a partnership basis with both boards voting unanimously to buy the bus. The order has already been placed. Mr. Irons said Tuesday.

Board Reverses Itself
At the close of the transportation discussion the Providence board retired and the local board resumed local business. Upon the recommendation of Supt. Irons, the board voted 4-2 to employ 34 classroom teachers for the coming year which is one in excess of the number earned by average daily attendance the past year. However after further discussion a vote to rescind the action carried 3-2 with one member abstaining. The matter was left unsettled.

The board voted to pool classroom teacher units of this system with those of Floyd County in order to secure an additional supervisory unit for the Lockney schools.

Also carried was a motion to purchase 10 folding tables and 60 folding chairs for the grade school lunchroom. The school has (Continued on back page)

Mary Myers Returns From Girls State

Miss Mary Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Myers, returned Wednesday from a 10-day stay at Girls State in Austin. Mary was selected to attend the state-wide meeting and was sponsored by the Lockney American Legion Auxiliary. Her alternate was Carolyn Campbell.

Girls State is sponsored each year by the Texas Legion auxiliary and is designed to teach a select group of girls the functions of the government by allowing them to participate in a model state organization.

The faculty at high school suggested the names of several junior girls and the local auxiliary then selected the one to attend. This is one of the high honors that can come to a junior girl.

Final Meeting Of United Chest Fund Committee

Charlie Andrews of Aiken, president of the Floyd County United Chest, has called a final meeting of that committee for Monday, June 20, at 8 p. m. to meet in the county court room at Floydada.

All directors and officers of the organization as well as all others who might be interested are urged to attend the meeting. Any business pertaining to closing the year's affairs will be attended to at the meeting which will end the year 1954-1955.

The meeting will also be to elect new officers and adopt plans for the coming year. Mr. Andrews said.

Pep Squad Girls Plan Meeting

All girls who plan to be in the Lockney High School Pep Squad next year are urged to contact either La Juan Henderson or Kay Golden Friday afternoon or Saturday morning. A list of the members is being made, and it is important that it be complete.

An important meeting is being planned in the near future. Each girl will be contacted when the date has been set.

Meeting Starts At West Side Church Friday Evening

A meeting will begin at the West Side Church of Christ in Lockney Friday evening of this week. It was announced Tuesday. Frank Duckworth of Fort Worth will do the preaching. He has held several previous meetings here.

Brewer To Be Awarded Honor Farmer Degree

MacLee Brewer, vocational agriculture instructor in Lockney High School, will be awarded an honorary Lone Star Farmer degree at the annual meeting of the Texas Association of Future Farmers of America in Houston July 20-22.

Also four members of the Lockney High School Future Farmer chapter will be awarded the Lone Star Farmer degree. They are Bobby Brown, James Morris, Dee Nix and Royce Carthel. The award to the instructor as well as to the boys is an unusual honor and one that must be earned.

The honorary Lone Star Farmer degree is awarded to vocational agriculture instructors and other adults active in the program. Only about 20 men in the state are selected each year for the honor.

The boys, Mr. Brewer and probably several other members of the Lockney Chapter will attend the state meeting.

Homemakers In Summer Project

Some 45 girls of Lockney High School are busy this summer studying home making and will thereby earn an additional one-half unit. Mrs. W. C. Irons, homemaking adviser, is in charge of the classes.

Homemaking is on a ten-month schedule and for that reason the girls who were enrolled in homemaking the past school year are attending classes from 9 to 12 on alternate days. Included in the summer program is craft classes and redecorating the kitchen of the department.

The program actually began last week but due to several Bible Schools being in progress the girls were not required to attend classes during that week so that they would be free to assist in the Bible School if they desired. This was optional but those who helped received credit toward their summer work.

Each girl will carry a project in her home working with the co-operation of her family. Mrs. Irons, homemaking adviser, will visit in each girls home during the summer and give her what assistance is needed.

Urgent Meeting Of Legion Mon. Night

An urgent meeting of the membership of Lockney American Legion Post No. 141, will be held in the Baker Hotel lobby next Monday evening, according to announcement Wednesday by Post Commander Wayne Bybee. The meeting will begin at 8 p. m.

Among the matters to be discussed is whether the post wants to build their building back on its old location or sell and build in another location. The building was recently destroyed by fire.

Also the nomination of officers for the coming year will be made. All members are urged to be present, Bybee said.

First Loads Of Wheat Received

The first load of wheat from the 1955 crop arrived at Patterston Grain Co. here Wednesday afternoon. The grain came from the W. E. and Lindsay Lackey farm in the Cedar Hill community.

The wheat tested 61 pounds and moisture content was 12 percent. Manager Gilbert Bean said. The wheat was making better than 15 bushels per acre on irrigated land. It was the Early Wichita variety.

The Muncy elevator also received a load of wheat Wednesday afternoon, this one coming from the Raymond Rucker farm in the Pleasant Valley community. The wheat tested better than 60 pounds and moisture content was 11.99%, Bob Muncy reported. The field was making better than 30 bushels, he said.

Elevator men were not expecting any wheat here for another week since all wheat in the area is irrigated.

The wheat crop in this section is the poorest in history, elevator men say. There is absolutely no dry land wheat and the acreage on irrigated wheat is small. Recent hail storms have been cutting into that also.

Hill Ferguson was reported to have moved a combine to his place near Irick Tuesday to cut some wheat there but a hail storm Tuesday afternoon wiped out the crop.

Floydada Leads Softball League

The Floydada Softball team is leading the Lockney Softball League with three wins to no losses while the Lone Star Golden Spread is holding second place with two wins and a single loss.

Four teams are bunched at the .500 line these being South Plains, Fire Department, Silverton and Gulf Service. Lone Star Co-op is next and Hammond & Company occupy the cellar.

The Thursday night games were rained out but the two teams managed to make up one game that was rained out last week and the week was rather busy.

On last Friday night the Golden Spread defeated the Fire Department 9 to 7. The Fire Boys were leading 7 to 5 going into the seventh inning but the Golden Spread scored four runs there and sewed up the ball game. Donald Farish was the winning pitcher and Archie Bybee the loser.

Also on Friday night Gulf Service defeated Hammond & Co. 7 to 6. It was another case of coming from behind with the Gulf boys scoring three in the seventh to win the game. Wofford and Vaughn pitched for the Gulf Service and Davis went all the way for Hammond.

On Monday night Floydada and the Fire Department played a game postponed from last week with Floydada winning 11 to 4. Murray pitched for Floydada and C. Robinson and Archie Bybee pitched for Fire Department.

On Tuesday night the Floydada team won again this time defeating Silverton 11 to 5. Bishop was the pitcher for Floydada with Travis pitching for Silverton. Also on Tuesday night the Fire Department got back into the win column defeating the Lone Star Co-op 12 to 1. Archie Bybee was the winning pitcher and Dickson the loser.

Standings of the league are:

HAIL WIPES OUT 20 SECTIONS OF CROPS IN WESTERN FLOYD

A terrific hail storm, accompanied by high winds and some rain, wiped out an estimated 20 sections of crops in western Floyd County Tuesday afternoon. The storm, lasting some 20 minutes, occurred between four and five o'clock. Damage to most farms was 100%, it was reported.

The hail storm began at the Hale-Floyd county line about the old Frank McClure place, south and west of the Irick schoolhouse and traveled in a northeasterly direction. The Wayne McClure and Jack Dollar places were the first to suffer 100% loss of all crops. Traveling northeast the storm also practically wiped out crops on the farms of Melvin Potts, Dale Lacey, Bill Hodel, Oliver Holmes, Jake Jones, Judson Jones, the J. R. Belt place south of his home, Jack Billington, Henry Schacht, Baylor Byars, Mrs. Bernard Harris, Buck Kellison, W. E. Kirkpatrick, Don Bennett, the old Wallace Allen place, now belonging to J. C. Thomas Sr. of Plainview, Tommy Duvall, the Hall Ferguson place near Irick, Charlie Gloyna, E. T. Pigg, Moody Bros. on the Schacht place, and probably others south of Highway 70.

The storm then crossed the highway and railroad hitting the farms of Verner Hodel, Jimmy Hodel, L. R. Collis, Vernon Daniels, E. L. Burleson, Emmitt Tierce, Joe Cunyus, Doyle Harrison, Ernest Tannahill. It slackened up about the Tannahill place.

Rains accompanying the storm were not heavy ranging from a quarter to an inch in some places. The area damaged was believed to be about two miles wide in most places and probably ten miles long.

Despite the lateness of the season many farmers are planning to replant cotton, reports here Wednesday said. Rains were light in most areas and farmers should be able to get back into the fields in two to three days.

High winds did some damage. Hay in the win rows was scattered on the Tom Weeks place at Aiken and some rain fell there. On the Don Bennett place south of Aiken the high winds blew a garage door off, blew down a small outbuilding and moved other things around.

Jack Billington reported 140 acres of cotton a total loss and about 60 acres that was damaged 75%. Feed on the Billington farm was beat down but may come out, Jack said.

Seale Drive-In Celebrates Third Anniversary June 19

The Seale Drive-In Theatre, located 2½ miles west of Lockney on the Plainview Highway, will celebrate its third anniversary on Sunday and Monday, June 19 and 20.

In observance of the occasion the theatre will show the West Texas premiere of the film, "The Far Horizons," a story of the famed Lewis & Clark Expedition to the western part of the United States.

The theatre will also present gifts to each car and have additional gifts for the kiddies both Sunday and Monday.

An added attraction at the playground will be two "Texas Broncos," which are horses mounted on springs giving any child up to 80 pounds in weight a thrilling ride.

The film to be shown is an adventure story, revealing the many problems and trials which beset the expedition sent out by the president of the United States to explore the western country. Hostile Indian tribes, as well as friendly Indians are contacted by the explorers and their adventures are many.

Fred MacMurray, Charlton Heston and Donna Reed are the stars of the show and it is in technicolor.

Mr. and Mrs. Yates Key and their daughter, Ramona, visited here Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Griffith. Mrs. Key is the former June Gutherie.

Verner Hodel lost his cotton 100% and had damage to his wheat amounting to 30-40 percent. He had previously suffered a 38% damage to his wheat crop.

E. L. Burleson lost at least half of his cotton and Doc Britton, on the Dow Colson place, lost 80 acres of cotton. Oscar Golden's crop on the Tierce place was damaged at least 50%, he said. Doyle Harrison lost a part of his crop completely and the remainder was damaged, he said.

Judson Jones said Wednesday morning that he "didn't have a stalk of anything left" on his farm south of the highway. Also damaged 100% were crops on the Buck Kellison and Bernard Harris farms in addition to others in the vicinity. Bill Hodel lost 40 acres of wheat in this area.

Some hail fell in the Providence community but little damage was reported. R. M. Harden of that area reported a half inch of rain and scattering hail.

Hits Lone Star
Apparently a different storm cloud also hit the Lone Star area and wiped out crops in a small area there. Tom Moore and Earl Kellison both suffered considerable damage to their crops and both will probably have to replant, Tom said Wednesday. Both had good stands of cotton.

Hail also hit the Sterley area Tuesday afternoon with damage to cotton crops on the farms of Hilburn Casey, Horton Howell, Ivey Thomas, Mason Davis, Huey Davidson, and possibly others in the area. Damage was estimated from a fourth to half but most farmers were planning to leave it.

Some hail was reported as far south as the Owen Cross place, near Sandhill.

The rain in Lockney amounted to only a quarter inch and no hail to speak of fell here.

Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen thine heart; wait, I say, on the Lord.—Psalm 27:14.

INSECT CONTROL is becoming more and more important to cotton farmers of the plains. Time was when insects were hardly known in this area but that time is past. Elsewhere in this issue is an article which tells specific examples of increased profits from early control of insects. Some years ago several farmers north of Lockney lost almost an entire crop of cotton because of insects and they suffered the loss before they knew what had happened. A close watch on the new crop and immediate treatment when insects appear seems to be a good policy for cotton growers.

WE'VE NEVER SEEN so much interest in ball games as there is manifested at this time in this community. With eight teams in the softball league and six teams in the little league, it is practically an impossibility to see all the games and tell who are the stars of the various teams. The Beacon feels that it is doing well to bring you the results of the games each week and the standings of the leagues. At any rate the younger generation, and some of the older ones, are being furnished with a good summer program of recreation, in fact, one of the best we know of in this vicinity.

ARE ANY of our local organizations doing anything about entering a candidate in the Floyd County Queen Contest? It is time entries were made with the deadline July 1. We know that the Lockney area has some of the most attractive and talented girls in the county. Let's get some of them in this contest.

THE RE-CHARGE PROGRAM of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 is important to the welfare of this area. If an effective and satisfactory way could be found to recharge the water-bearing sands in the underground with water which collects in lakes in this area, not only would the water level be aided but more of the land which lies in these lakes could be utilized for farming purposes. Of course the underground water level is the big purpose in the re-charge project. This is one especially worthwhile work of the district committee.

THE FLOYD COUNTY FAIR catalogue is in process of being printed. It is a larger book than the one last year and foretells a bigger, more interesting fair. The fair committee, made up of people from all parts of the county, are to be congratulated upon their efforts and work on behalf of the fair this year. They've done the work and they deserve the credit.

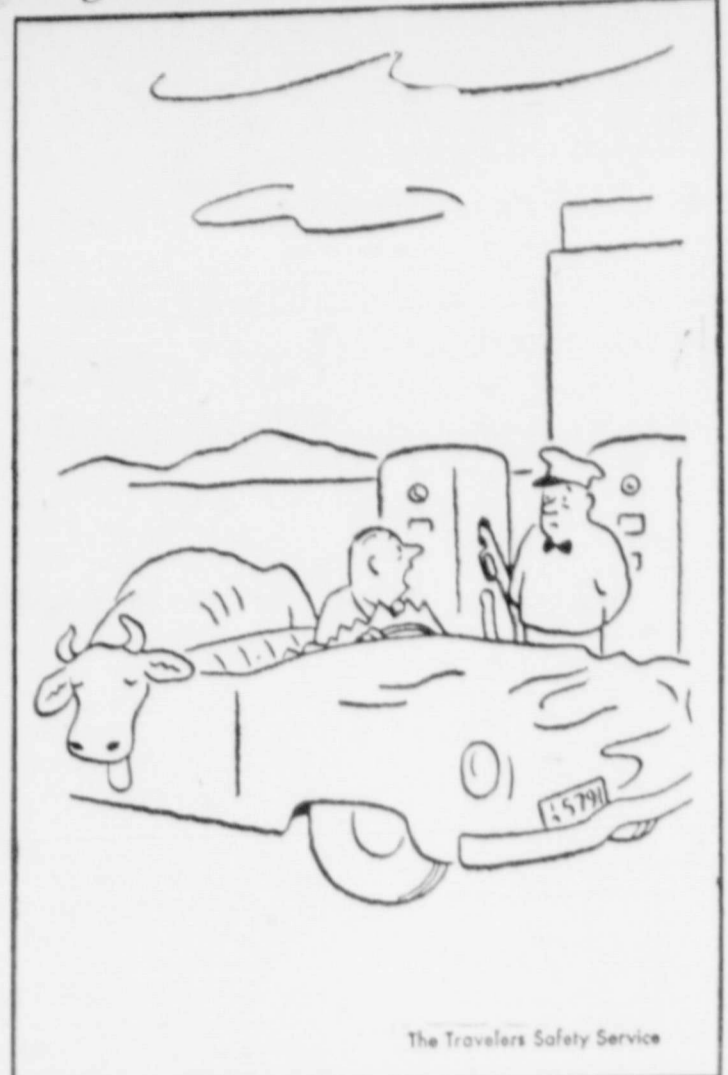

RUMORS CONTINUE of additional residential and business building for Lockney. This comes as no surprise because we believe that building of both types is behind schedule in this city. We know that lack of housing as well as lack of business buildings has cramped the growing pace of the city and held it back when it would have grown faster. We have one of the most progressive, prosperous areas on the plains and people, as well as business institutions, want to come to a place like that. If there's any way any of us can help to accelerate the building of homes or business buildings we should do it because after all we will be simply buttering our own bread by doing so.

WHAT! NO TUNNELS?

Not so kind to The Plains was James W. Martin, who writes for the Texas Parade. This is the high class publication of Texas Highway Association, ably edited by Ike Ashburn, that great Texan of a big corpus and a big heart, who's devoted sincerely to the development of Texas highways. . . . Martin wrote about a subject on which he exposes to view of the ill-formed degree of ignorance that is refreshing. . . . If it were less amusing it might be irritating to those of us who see trains climbing to the Plains through two tunnels. . . . Martin said: "It's too bad that Texas, which claims to have about everything any other State has, and more, must offer an abandoned shaft in the Hill Country as its only claim to a railroad tunnel". . . . Fie on you, Brother Martin, fie on you, Sir, whatever "fie on you" means. . . . That 910-foot "hole in a hill" in rocky Gillespie County, Texas, 14 miles south of Fredericksburg, which you write about, never could compare with the tunnels to the High Plains on the Fort Worth & Denver railroad. There are two of them, Sir, in rapid succession of that important ascension. — Editor's Notebook in Plainview Herald.

SECRET OF SUCCESS
What is the secret of getting

The type of cooperation necessary to get things done is that which crucifies rugged individualism. Whether or not we admit it, most of us are rugged individuals. We are unwilling to surrender one iota of our autonomy.

Why do many club projects fail? It is because the club as a unit is unable to succeed? It's because only a part of the club got behind the wheel. The others, for some reason, counted for little or nothing. Some refused to push because the project was not their idea. They suffer to see the project of the other person succeed. Some refuse to push because they had their own project which the majority refused to sponsor. And others were just too indifferent to care whether or not any project was a success.

For the same reasons, we see community projects fail. People with common interests will not stick together for the benefit of the group. — Tulsa Herald.

IT WAS A GOOD PLAN—FOR SOMEBODY

Little Rock, Ark. — D. L. Stone nearly had himself promoted right out of the filling station business. He signed an agreement with an advertising agency under which it would sell $14 worth of services and supplies on a coupon book plan for $3.50.

Stone figured 75 to 100 of the books would be sold and he'd gain some customers while providing the services. Instead, about 2,000 books were sold and his station was so swamped with the coupon-clippers that he had to close down.

He reopened later and is trying to work his way out by having the coupon holders collect their services on an appointment basis. — Star Telegram.

We got along with this...

until we did something about it OURSELVES!

We were still using lanterns on the farm 20 years after our relatives in town were enjoying electricity. Just a couple of country miles kept us from the modern comforts and the time-saving, work-saving benefits of electric power.

We might still be doing chores by lantern light, using our backs instead of electric motors, if we hadn't organized co-ops to get the job done. In the few years since our co-ops took over, most farms in the country have been totally electrified.

The rapid change in farm living because of electricity seems almost a miracle... but near miracles are possible when many people with a common need work together for their common good... through cooperatives.

Whatever the great advances of the coming years may be, cooperatives can be used to distribute the benefits of such progress to the greatest number of people.

Co-ops are the heaviest taxpayers in many communities!

Let's take a look at the record!

What cooperatives pay in taxes is an open book for anyone to see. You'll find that cooperatives rank at or near the top in many communities.

Supporting community institutions through taxes is a responsibility which cooperatives have accepted willingly.

Cooperatives are locally owned and controlled. Those who own or work for the cooperative, live in our community. They are interested in good schools, good roads and good government because they are good citizens . . . and because it is their community.

Charles Darwin is credited with the theory of "the survival of the fittest." The more you lean on others the leaner your chances are for success.

Thrips . . . universal pest, responsible for extensive damage to cotton in early season. About 1/25 of an inch long, they are slender, active bugs, pointed at both ends and varying in color from light yellow to almost black.

The flea hopper feeds on the juices of tender parts of the cotton plant . . . causing greatest damage to immature squares. The infested plants grow tall and whiplike with fewer branches . . . produce only a few bolls near the top.

Get higher cotton yields KILL THRIPS and FLEAHOPPERS with dieldrin

Use dieldrin early to kill thrips, flea hoppers and other cotton insects. Dieldrin-treated cotton gets a good early start . . . pays bigger dividends. You get better quality cotton and earlier harvest—less danger of heavy loss due to early frost.

Tested at Texas A. & M. (1954), dieldrin-treated cotton produced almost three times as many blooms in a three-week period after treatment as did the untreated cotton. It pays to use dieldrin! Here's why:

It's long lasting! Dieldrin gives long-lasting protection. Days after application, dieldrin still has lethal effect.

It's easy to use! Used as a dust, dieldrin is smooth-textured, free-flowing. In a spray, dieldrin forms top-creaming emulsions . . . eliminates nozzle clogging.

It's economical! Two to three applications at the recommended dosage—1/10 pound of actual dieldrin per acre—gives top control.

Use dieldrin early this year! Your insecticide dealer has dieldrin and information on latest methods of application best suited for your use. Don't delay—order dieldrin today!

Co-ops are the heaviest taxpayers in many communities!

Let's take a look at the record!

What cooperatives pay in taxes is an open book for anyone to see. You'll find that cooperatives rank at or near the top in many communities.

Supporting community institutions through taxes is a responsibility which cooperatives have accepted willingly.

Cooperatives are locally owned and controlled. Those who own or work for the cooperative, live in our community. They are interested in good schools, good roads and good government because they are good citizens . . . and because it is their community.

Charles Darwin is credited with the theory of "the survival of the fittest." The more you lean on others the leaner your chances are for success.

Thrips . . . universal pest, responsible for extensive damage to cotton in early season. About 1/25 of an inch long, they are slender, active bugs, pointed at both ends and varying in color from light yellow to almost black.

The fleahopper feeds on the juices of tender parts of the cotton plant . . . causing greatest damage to immature squares. The infested plants grow tall and whiplike with fewer branches . . . produce only a few bolls near the top.

Get higher cotton yields KILL THRIPS and FLEAHOPPERS with dieldrin

Use dieldrin early to kill thrips, fleahoppers and other cotton insects. Dieldrin-treated cotton gets a good early start . . . pays bigger dividends. You get better quality cotton and earlier harvest—less danger of heavy loss due to early frost.

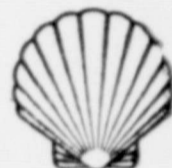

Tested at Texas A. & M. (1954), dieldrin-treated cotton produced almost three times as many blooms in a three-week period after treatment as did the untreated cotton. It pays to use dieldrin! Here's why:

It's long lasting! Dieldrin gives long-lasting protection. Days after application, dieldrin still has lethal effect.

It's easy to use! Used as a dust, dieldrin is smooth-textured, free-flowing. In a spray, dieldrin forms top-creaming emulsions . . . eliminates nozzle clogging.

It's economical! Two to three applications at the recommended dosage—1/10 pound of actual dieldrin per acre—gives top control.

Use dieldrin early this year! Your insecticide dealer has dieldrin and information on latest methods of application best suited for your use. Don't delay—order dieldrin today!

LIFT FOR A LEFTOVER

When you have leftover cocoa, try this delicate, tasty pudding: Combine one envelope (one tablespoon) granulated gelatin with 1/4 cup cold cocoa, and mix well. Add 1 1/4 cups hot cocoa and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add two tablespoons sugar and mix well. Mold, chill firm in your refrigerator, unmold. Serve plain or with cream—makes four servings.

VEGETABLE ENTREE

To put mixed vegetables into the "satisfying entree" class, cook one package of frozen mixed garden vegetables as directed on the label, and drain. Add two tablespoons butter and one tablespoon flour to the vegetables and stir well. Add 1/2 cup milk gradually, stirring constantly. Bring to a boil.

COMBINE LIVING ROOM-KITCHEN

Basically a "livenette" is designed so that the homemaker may enjoy the company of her family in the room where she spends most of her working hours—the kitchen. The low partitions that divide the various areas from each other permit her to see what's going on and to carry on a conversation with her husband or children as she cooks, cleans up or does the laundry.

Ceremony Unites Nita Jo Day And Charles Hartman

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Day. Hartman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hartman of South Plains.

Miss Dorothy Holmes sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Bill Hardin, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white French imported Chantilly lace over ice blue satin. Over the fitted, strapless bodice she wore a bolera, fashioned with a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves ending in points over the hands.

The bridal veil, fashioned of nylon tulle, was joined to a lace crown over satin. The bride carried a small white Bible topped with an orchid and streamers of satin.

Miss Ann Welborn was the bride's maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length dress of blue silk shantung and carried a lace fan with clusters of red garnet roses.

Texas Cotton Getting World Competition

Austin.—The Texas cotton industry, which exports most of its product, is getting stronger competition from growers outside the U. S., a University of Texas study shows. The University cotton Economic Research Division's comparative study of U. S. and world cottons indicates foreign growers are producing larger amounts of American-type cottons. The average annual production of American-type cottons outside this country in 1934-38 was 4,486,000 bales, the University study shows. The figure climbed to 7,759,000 bales in 1953-54. That means foreign countries are copying the U. S. growers' policy of supplying large amounts of American-type cotton with relatively uniform fiber properties, an important factor in mass production of textiles. That trend coupled with lower foreign-cotton prices is one of the reasons why world-market buyers apparently are taking Texas cotton only after exhausting sources of the same varieties grown outside the U. S., Research Scientist Joel H. Hembree warned. "The University's comparative survey of U. S. and world cottons should challenge us to improve our varieties and marketing procedures and strengthen our competitive position in the world market," Hembree declared. GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

Barbara Bullock Is Bride Of Don Gross

Floydada. — Miss Barbara Bullock and George Don Gross were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 4 p. m. in the Chapel of the First Baptist Church of Floydada. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Dr. R. Earl Allen. Miss Bullock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bullock. Gross is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gross. Surrounding the altar were black wrought iron spiral candelabra branched candelabra, flanked by large baskets of pink gladioli. Large plaques and palms of jade foliage formed the background for the wedding scene. White wedding ropes formed the bridal path to the altar. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white imported organdy over satin and net. The bodice was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, accented with lace, and short cap sleeves. Her veil was of nylon net onto a lace band. She carried a crescent shaped arrangement of red garnet roses and camellia foliage.

Sister Attends Mrs. Robert Ward, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of pink imported organdy over satin and net. The tight bodice was held by lace straps, and lace also accented the low square neckline. She wore a head band of pink nylon accented with small rosebuds. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses. Allan Gross served his brother as best man. Candlelighters were Jerry Bullock, brother of the bride, and Lonnie Pat Gross, brother of the bride groom. Ushers were Thacker Gross and Jerry Gross, both brothers of the bride groom. Miss Barbara McNeill, pianist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Gloria Adkins as she sang "Always" and "Because."

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with pink carnation. For a trip to New Mexico, the bride chose a pink and white checked cotton dress with white accessories. The bride is a '55 graduate of Floydada High School. The bridegroom, a graduate of Floydada High School, is engaged in farming near Plainview. The couple will make their home in Plainview.

Salome Contreras Weds Josie Lara Miss Salome Contreras became the bride of Josie Lara Wednesday, June 8 in the home of Justice of Peace J. J. Harris. Both are from Floydada. Judge Harris performed the ceremony in the presence of four friends of the couple.

BETTER PUDDING Here's the answer for an easy-to-prepare pudding that has a flavor flair all its own. Combine one package vanilla pudding mix, 1 1/2 tablespoons instant coffee, and two cups of milk in a saucepan. Cook and stir over a medium flame until the mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat, pour into bowl and chill in the refrigerator. Whip 1/2 cup heavy cream, sweeten to taste, and fold into the chilled pudding. If you like, top each serving with more whipped cream and sprinkle with chopped nuts or coconut.

Scouters Favor The Re-Opening Of Camp Haynes

Floydada.—South Plains council of Boy Scouts of America held a business meeting at the scout hut in Plainview Thursday night which was attended by a large delegation from Floydada.

On the agenda of business was a matter to determine if Camp Haynes near Silverton was safe for scouting. The question arose and was brought to attention of the group by the health and safety committee of the council following a recent drowning at the camp. Attending from Floydada were scoutmasters Jim Word and Gayle Mayo, and council officers J. M. Willson Sr., Brac Biggers, Gene Collins Jr., Ed Wester and George Bickly.

The Floydada group took a strong stand favoring the immediate re-opening of the camp which they feel is the best natural camp site in the area. Others present from the territory near Silverton and Camp Haynes also took the same point of view and after the discussion a unanimous vote was taken favoring the immediate reopening of the camp.

Also plans were made to build an all weather road to the camp site and to clean the lake and springs and to add sanitary facilities for the camp sites.

Scouts have not been too strong for building permanent type buildings at Haynes and making the camp modern as this is about the only remaining camp where the boys can really get out and study and enjoy camp life. Many of the other camps have been made about as modern as being at home and the boys learn little of camping from them.

Insect Report

June 9, 1955

(Note: Following is a report on a cotton insect survey for the South Plains as released by Walton H. Jones, district extension agent, of Lubbock. The report was compiled by G. T. Davis Jr., and W. L. Owens Jr., both connected with the Extension Service.)

The purpose of this report is to give information on the general insect conditions as they occur in the Plains Area each week. Conditions in individual fields cannot be given, but it is hoped that this report will encourage individual farmers to inspect their fields regularly at frequent intervals for damaging insect infestations.

Light to heavy spotted rains have occurred over the Plains during the past week. Some areas in Lubbock, Lynn, Terry, Gaines, Yokum and Cochran counties have not yet received enough moisture to enable them to plant while other areas are too wet to plant. Hail and heavy rains have caused severe damage to young cotton in some localities.

Aphids or plant lice have been found on cotton in a number of fields over the area. Occasional medium to heavy infestations occurred in spots within a few fields. Such areas observed show a definite increase in beneficial insect population, but should be watched closely to determine whether or not the beneficial insects will effectively reduce the population.

Thrips have occurred in light infestations in most fields. Occasional fields near wheat or legumes have sufficient thrips populations to warrant control. Thrips migration to cotton can be expected to increase as adjacent host plants are destroyed or mature.

Flea hopper infestations in general have been very low to date. There are sufficient host plants to enable this insect to increase rapidly should favorable conditions exist.

False wireworms have caused damage to cotton in several fields in Borden, Garza, Howard and Swisher Counties. In the first three counties the larvae damaged the root system, while in Swisher County the adult destroyed plants before or soon after emergence. Grasshoppers are moving to cotton fields in Yoakum County and can be expected to migrate to cultivated crops in other areas where this pest is infesting pastures and fence-rows.

Spider mites have been observed in a few fields. Infestations have not been heavy enough to cause concern.

The information contained in this release is compiled from individual reports from people such as County Agents, Vocational Agricultural Teachers, Personnel of the Texas A & M College System, various branches of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Commercial Cotton Inspectors, Chemical Companies and others who frequently inspect cotton fields for insect infestations. If you would like to help supply information for this report, request reporting forms from Walton H. Jones or Ed Goddard, Room 105 Agri. Bldg., Texas Tech., Lubbock, Texas.

Mrs. Olive Myers is in Lubbock this week visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Myers. She is keeping the Myers children while Jackie and his wife are attending a convention in Austin.

Jerry Blake of Grand Prairie is here visiting in the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Myers and family.

Early Insect Control Advocated In Area

South Plains farmers explain the value of controlling cotton insects early in the July issue of The Progressive Farmer magazine.

W. L. Owen Jr., associate entomologist, Lubbock Experiment Station, made experiments with early-season control of insects last year. In post square experiments, yields were increased 653 pounds of seed cotton per acre with two toxaphene applications, and 700 pounds with two dieldrin treatments. The average gross gain from control was $96.46 per acre for toxaphene and $108.33 per acre for the dieldrin.

Golden Furguson, Lubbock County farmer, found two early-season applications increased his yield about 10 per cent. This was worth $24 per acre and the cost was $6.05 per acre.

Master Farmer Chester Mitchell of Floyd County considers his sprayer one of his most valuable pieces of equipment. He estimates each of two early season toxaphene applications last year was worth about 1/4 bale.

E. G. Green, Lubbock County, felt proper insect control last year increased his grade by at least one level and his yield by a very substantial amount.

CATES VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cates are here from Cisco visiting in the home of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cates.

GONE TO EL PASO

Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Mitt, Texas are visiting homes of Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Donald Stone and Mrs. Joel Cook in El Paso. They were accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Mon of Lockney and her mother, Mrs. Lila B. Estancia, New Mexico.

Wayland College has a 10 per cent increase in enrollment over the 1954 summer school.

With more than 400 men from West Texas in attendance, Wayland College broke ground for Brotherhood Hall, a residence hall for 50 young men, on June 13. A residence for 34 young women is also under construction and Wayland expects to have both completed by January, 1956. Other extensive campus improvements are being made during the summer months, according to President A. Hope Owen.

162 HP V8

See that fine fat mountain yonder? You can iron it out, flat as a flounder... and easy as whistling!

Just point one of Chevrolet's special hill-flatteners at it (either the 162-h.p. "Turbo-Fire V8" or the 180-h.p. "Super Turbo-Fire")... and pull the trigger! Barr-r-r-o-o-o-OOM! Mister, you got you a flat mountain!

... At least it feels flat. For here are engines that sing as sweetly as a dynamo... built to pour out a torrent of pure, vibrationless power. Big-bore V8's with the shortest stroke in the industry.

So most of the time they loaf. Even at the speed limit they just dream along, purring out a fraction of their strength.

An engineer can understand why they are so hyper-efficient. But you don't have to be an engineer to know that these are the sweetest running V8's you ever piloted. Just come in and try one out!

Plans For Loading Texas Friendship For Korea Progress

College Station. — Plans are going forward for ceremonies in connection with the loading of the Texas Friendship for Korea. The program is scheduled for 2:30 p. m. June 20, and the featured speaker will be Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, Korean Ambassador Dr. You Chan Yong also will participate in the program to be held at the Manchester Dock, Houston.

The campaign which was launched several weeks ago in the state has resulted in donations far above expectations reports Walter Parr, CROP director. The Friendship for Korea has been sponsored by the Texas CROP Committee in cooperation with Church World Services, the American-Korean Foundation and the Heifer Project, Inc. The 4-H Cubs of Texas have made contributions which will go to fellow 4-H members in Korea. The 4-H participation is only a part of the overall effort.

Harris county 4-H club members will serve as hosts for the dedication and the county making the largest contribution to the cargo will name a queen who will be crowned during the ceremonies. The county making the second largest contribution will name her escort.

Following the dockside ceremonies Jesse Jones will be host at a reception from 4-6:30 p. m. at the Rice Hotel. All visiting middle 66 feet, giving the yield for exactly 1-100 of an acre, an easy figure to work with.

Two hundred twelve varieties and strains are being used in these five tests.

The rest of the strips are devoted mostly to single rows of selected plants.

After a new variety proves itself, selected plants yield enough seed to plant a quarter acre of the cotton. It takes from 5 to 10 years to develop a new variety to the point where it can be marketed.

Right now the farm has over 50 new varieties which are good enough to occupy from a quarter to a full acre. But many of them will be weeded out before any are placed on the market.

Quentin Adams, assistant plant breeder, reported that some 500 man-hours of work went into deciding which varieties would be planted, where they would go and arranging seed in order in the envelopes.

After the master chart was worked out, the seed were placed in boxes. Each box contains enough seed for 30 strips. That will get each of the four men across the field once. Another man is kept busy placing the boxes along each side of the field in the right spot.

As a tractor completes a strip across the field, the men load up for the return lap.

Floydada Soldier Is In Germany

1st Div., Germany. — Pfc. Carroll T. Womack, 24, son of Mrs. E. J. Womack, Route 3, Floydada, is a member of the 1st Infantry Division in Germany.

The "Big Red 1" division, in Europe since the Allied invasion of the continent in World War II, is now engaged in intensive training, including realistic field problems and maneuvers.

Womack, a connoisseur with Battery B of the division's 30th Field Artillery Battalion, entered the Army in January 1954 and received basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Miss Sandra Myers left Wednesday to attend a wedding of one of her friends from Tech who lives in McGargle, Miss Verlene Foster. She plans to return Thursday.

across the field, four 40 inch rows of cotton are planted in 75 foot strips. There are 10 strips across the width of the field.

Back in the Paymaster office, there is a huge master chart which tells exactly where each type of cotton is planted.

Some of the strains are planted in single rows; others in double rows. All in all, there'll be some 4,500 different 75-foot strips.

Yield Tests
Double rows are planted for the yield tests. Five of these tests are being conducted on the plot.

Four of them deal with 49 varieties of cotton; the other with 16.

For the tests, double rows are planted in six different soils, weather conditions and treatment.

Planted Cotton Watched On Every Farm

Planting of cotton seed on every farm is not a haphazard method, but of the most careful science in selection of varieties.

The men who drop the seed in the furrows ride on a tractor. The operation is slow and requires an hour to plant an acre with a four-row planter. Preparations for planting are made 500 man hours before the tractor goes to the field. The seed come from small envelopes packed in boxes in order. Every 75 feet of planter is empty a bag, and pick up the envelope in line.

IT'S PERFORMANCE THAT COUNTS!

"My regular job is piloting a United Air Lines DC-7. On most of my flights we use Phillips 66 Aviation Gasoline. It's high-performance stuff, and one reason it's so good is Di-isopropyl. Phillips has started putting Di-isopropyl in automobile gasoline, too. They call it 'FLITE-FUEL'... and I use it regularly in my car. It gives wonderful performance."

TECH MUSEUM GETS OLD ECLIPSE WINDMILL FROM DAGLEY PLACE

A search lasting more than two years has been terminated and the South Plains gallery of the Texas Technological Museum has at last found an old wooden wheel Eclipse windmill — right here in Lockney. Museum officials came and took the windmill down some time ago and it is on display in the museum now.

The windmill came from the Dagley place here and was sold to the museum officials for $10 by Mrs. C. L. Allen. Mrs. Allen said that she was fixing to pay $15 to have the old mill taken down but rather sold it to the museum when she found that they wanted it.

sucker rod is native ash, and the 4x4 pieces are of long leaf pine.

The wooden Eclipse mill patented in 1867, was widely used on the South Plains until about 1920 when it was superseded by the faster-running ball-bearing geared steel mills.

Mrs. Allen also has an old time pressure cooker, the first one to come to Floyd County. She has had the cooker some 45 years, she said.

James E. Lemons Is Injured Sunday

James Edward Lemons, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lemons who lives east of Lockney, was injured Sunday afternoon when he lost control of a motorcycle while chasing rabbits on the Lemons farm at the intersection of the Lockney cut-off and the Silverton highway.

Although he suffered no broken bones he had extensive bruises and some head injuries that could have been serious. He was still in the Lockney General Hospital Wednesday morning but was improving.

James Edward was chasing a rabbit on the motorcycle and carrying a .22 calibre pistol in one hand, attempting to shoot the rabbit. He hit a rough place and lost control of the motorcycle. He fell from it while going at a high rate of speed, members of the family said.

placed an order for new stoves for the grade school lunchroom and will repair an automatic dishwasher there and have it in operation by the time school starts, Supt. Irons said.

The board set the opening date of school for the coming term on September 1, set the Christmas holidays for December 22 through January 2, allowed two days for the Thanksgiving holidays, two days for the Easter holidays and set one day holiday for the state teachers meeting next Spring. The school will close on May 16, 1956, giving the school 175 days of instruction for the term.

The board appropriated $100 each for three coaches to attend the coaching school this summer. They designated the First National Bank of Lockney as the school depository and heard a number of routine reports. Supt. Irons reported in a previous meeting of the board that the school's application for a special teacher for exceptional children had been approved. The special teacher was also employed here last year.

Bureau Directors In Regular Meeting

Directors of the Floyd County Farm Bureau attended to several matters of business in regular meeting last Thursday evening at Floydada. Fourteen were present.

They voted that the executive committee would select the judges for the queen contest and that entries in the contest would not be limited so long as the girl is eligible and can qualify.

The McNary machine was discussed, the same being a machine for testing the tensile strength of fiber in cotton.

A unanimous vote favored the circulating of a petition to call an election to set up a weed control district in Floyd County. A copy of the weed control law is available at the Farm Bureau office.
