JOE HANDLEY was installed as president of the Lockney Lions Club in ceremonies Monday evening.

Lion Officers Are Installed

Joe Handley, the only member of the Lockney Lions Club with six years of perfect attendance, was installed as president of that club in ceremonies held Monday evening at the grade school cafeteria. Making the award was Jim Ed Waller of Plainview, retiring district governor of Lions, and installing officer for the ceremonies here.

Other officers installed Monday evening were Dillion Patterson, secretary-treasurer; Forrest Mickey, tail twister; Roy Porter, lion tamer; MacLee Brewer, second vice-president; Clyde Briley, third vice-president; Leon Wofford and Bob Davis, directors. Thomas Marr will take office of first vice-president but was unable to be present Monday.

Retiring president Joe Wilson was awarded the past president's pin by the new president.

Mr. Waller spoke to the group preceding the installation ceremonies, outlining the aims and accomplishments of Lions Clubs in this area and in the state. He pointed out that District 2-T-1, of which the Lockney Club is a part, made a 100% district record for the past year, an accomplishment involving several different requirements including promptness of reports.

Mr. Waller said that this was his 180th visit to clubs in the district. District 2-T-1 includes 83 clubs with 4078 members.

The district governor also reported on the Lions Crippled Children's camp at Kerrville and read a letter concerning the awards won by Jimmie Howell of Sterley, who attended the camp this summer.

In the installation ceremony Mr. Waller outlined the duties of the various officers and asked each to pledge to fulfill his obligations.

The affair was in the form of a ladies' night banquet and wives of the various Lions were present to enjoy the festivities. Out-of-town visitors in addition to Mr. Waller were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crof of Floydada.

Mr. Handley, in addition to serving as president of the local club, has been named zone chairman of District 2-T-1, which includes clubs at Lockney, Floydada, Petersburg, Kress, Plainview and Silvertown.

Golden Spread Creeps Up In Lockney League

South Plains maintained their lead in the Lockney Softball league the past week by winning two games and losing none but the Golden Spread from Lone Star is creeping up and staying close on the heels of the league leaders.

Silvertown is still holding down third place and Gulf Service took complete command of fourth stepping out ahead of Floydada with whom they were tied last week.

Here's the games of the week: On Thursday night the Fire Department and Silvertown played a tight one with the Briscoe boys winning 3 to 1. Travis was the winning pitcher and Archie Rybee the loser. The Fire boys didn't score until the seventh inning although they threatened in three other innings.

Also on Thursday night Gulf Service stepped out ahead of Floydada by defeating that team 7 to 6. The Gulf boys were behind 4 to 6 going into the seventh inning but they scored three there to win. Charles Vaughn was the winning pitcher and Bishop the loser.

On Friday night South Plains continued to win by defeating Hammond 9 to 3. Davis was on the mound for Hammond and Wilson the South Plains pitcher.

Also on Friday night the Lone Star Golden Spread got revenge for a previous defeat by whipping the Lone Star Co-op 17 to 4. It was a close game for a time but the Golden Spread batted around and more in the seventh to ice the game away. Farish was the winning pitcher and Joe Nance the loser.

Two make-up games on Monday night saw Gulf Service play good ball to defeat Silvertown 3 to 1 and then Silvertown turned around and defeated Lone Star Co-op 10 to 2. Vaughn was again the winning pitcher and Travis the loser in the first game. In the second game Bunch was the winner and Tieman the loser.

On Tuesday night South Plains whipped the Fire Department 8 to 1 and Lone Star Co-op defeated Gulf Service 2 to 1 in a close one. In the first game South Plains scored four of their runs in the seventh. Wilson and Bybee were the pitchers. In the second game Gulf Service scored one in the seventh and had the tieing and winning run on third and second but Pitcher Joe Nance struck out Jimmy Myers to end the game. Vaughn was pitching for Gulf Service.

Expect Polio Vaccine In County Soon

Dr. George V. Smith, county health officer, said Wednesday that he had a letter from the State Department of Public Health saying that they had received sufficient polio vaccine for the second round of shots for first and second grade students. He ordered a quantity of it immediately and it was his understanding that shipment would be made soon, he said.

No date has been set for the administering of the second shot in this county as yet and the date won't be set until the vaccine is received.

First shots were given the two grades back in April but the second shot has been held up due to defects found in some of the serum.

Yankees In Tie With Dodgers For League Lead

The Yankees won three games in the Lockney Little League the past week, one of those with the league-leading Dodgers, and jumped into a tie with the Dodgers for the league lead. Each team has won 11 and lost two.

The Yanks win over the Dodgers came Tuesday afternoon. The score was 3 to 2 and the game was a thriller from start to finish. Kent and Carthel were the winning pitchers while Rolling was the loser. The Yanks scored one in the third to take the lead but the Dodgers scored one in the fourth to tie it up. The Dodgers went ahead in the fifth with a score but the Yanks came back to score two in the sixth to win.

The other games of the week were:

Thursday: The Yankees won over the Indians 17 to 10. The Indians took a 4-run lead in the first inning but couldn't hold the Yanks. The Cardinals got back into the win column on Thursday defeating the Giants 7 to 5. Clark pitched for the Cards with Wofford and Mosley in the mound for the Giants. Kenny Walck, second baseman and pitcher for the Cards, hit two home runs, accounting for four of his teams runs.

Friday: The Dodgers white-washed the Indians 9 to 0 on Friday evening. The Indians had 10 men left on base but could never push a run across. Rolling and Belt pitched for the Dodgers while Rigby and Holland were the Indian pitchers. Also on Friday the Yankees whammed the Red Sox 17 to 3. Mongold started for the Red Sox and was relieved by Naylor. Carthel was the Yanks starting pitcher.

Tuesday: The Yanks defeated the Dodgers as recounted above and the other game was the Indians versus the Red Sox with the Red Sox winning 21 to 16. It was a close game for two innings, 1-1 but after that everybody hit and the score ran high. Each team scored six runs in the sixth inning.

The team standings:

Dodgers	11	2	.847

You have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you and persecute you.—Matthew 5:43, 44.

LET'S NOT BE PESSIMISTIC. Despite the rough time farmers had in getting their crops to growing this year, things are looking up now. We still have a considerable acreage of cotton, it is growing fast and looking good, and the yield this fall may surprise us. They say the later cotton is the easier it matures, so with a reasonably late frost or freeze we may make a lot of cotton yet. A tour through the country recently showed us that the cotton crop is still very much in evidence in this area. FROM THE national standpoint business is so good that some of the economists are shaking their heads and saying such a good thing can't last forever. The construction industry is expecting its biggest year. Machine tool orders are 20 percent higher than the similar period last year. Consumer goods use is increasing. John Q. Public is spending freely as evidenced by the fact that savings accounts have not been rising as rapidly as in the past. If the Big 4 meeting turns out successfully then 1955 should be unparalleled in productivity and employment.

LOCAL STORES are being benefitted from a trade standpoint by the Latin-Americans who have come in to chop cotton, work with vegetables, etc. Of course the influx of laborers doesn't compare with the fall run but it does serve to boost sales of staple items like food and clothing at a time when business is usually rather dull. If the vegetable acreage continues to increase the amount of summer transient labor may sometimes approximate the cotton crop labor. That would be having two falls a year.

MORE THAN ONE business concern would like to set up shop in Lockney if suitable quarters could be found. Indicative of the property of the area. Of course, most of us aren't very happy about helping a competitor set up shop but history indicates that, for the good merchant a good competitor helps business instead of hurting it since most people like a good variety of places in which to shop. Owners of business lots have the power to help or hinder the growth of the city by their willingness to sell. If local people want their city to grow, they must be willing to help the growth along in whatever way they can.

IF YOU HAVEN'T already done so, you would be serving your county well and showing a commendable spirit by joining the Floyd County Fair Association. Manager Dick Whiteley sent out several hundred "invitations" the past week to people of the area to join up with a "lifetime" membership. Anything you can buy a lifetime for only $10 ought to be worth the money, so fill out the check at the bottom of the letter and send yours in today. It will help to insure a bigger and better fair this fall.

THEY LIKE IKE, TOO!

All the rarin' and roarin' in Texas these last couple of years about who is and who isn't a Democrat and what's to be done about it fades somewhat into insignificance when one studies the actions of the 84th Congress circa 1955.

Although such worthies as National Democratic Chairman Paul Butler, Speaker Sam Rayburn and former Judge Ralph Yarborough have told Texans they've got to follow Party dictates or else, the voting record in Congress is most revealing. That Democratic Representatives and Senators also like Ike is attested by the fact that they've supported the President 57 per cent of the time during the current year, and we hear nothing from the Messrs. Butler, Rayburn and Yarborough on that.

If a Democratic Congressman can support a Republican President more times than not, what's wrong with an ordinary Texas Democrat voting for him at the polls, especially if he thinks the Democratic nominee doesn't measure up at all? Aye, there is a question which needs answering, once and for all.

If it is a high crime, or even a misdemeanor, for an American citizen to cast his ballot according to the dictates of his mind and conscience—and those dictates cause him to cross party lines—what is it when a Representative or a Senator does the same thing within the Congress? We say, in both instances, it's good sense and real Americanism.

The Democratic Party has a majority in both Houses of Congress this year, yet Democratic Representatives and Senators in 1955 have supported Eisenhower projects to a greater extent than in 1954. Last year, Democrats went with the President 39 per cent of the time, 18 per cent less than this year.

All these percentages are of interest in all parts of the country, but here in Texas they should be of the greatest interest.

After all, as most Texas voters liked Ike in 1952, so do most Democratic Congressmen in 1955.—Lubbock Avalanche.

KINDNESS PAYS
 Kindness always pays off, but it pays best when we don't do it with any thought of pay. A funny thing about kind deeds is that so many times it is the little everyday more or less unexpected things folks do for us that we really appreciate the most in life. Maybe, a little visit to the hospital just at the right time or a letter that happens to arrive just when we need a little perk' up. We have always wished and hoped that we could have the talent or knack of knowing when and where to do or say the right thing. Some folks have this knack and it's a wonderful trait. Most of us stand there looking on when folks have trouble, our heart all full too, but try as we can we do not seem to find the proper words to say. Oh well, I guess all that can be asked of any of us is to do the best we can with what we have and maybe if we do the Good Lord will add to us another talent after we have proved ourselves good stewards of what we already have.—Plowing out The Corners in Claude News.

A GOOD SLOGAN

We like the slogan of a Plainview organization, "If a town is good enough to live in, it is good enough to trade in."

We believe that anyone who accepts the conveniences and comforts of a town, who wears out its streets, who uses its sidewalks and parks, who calls its fire department and police when needed, is honor bound to support that town or move to a town which he can conscientiously support.—Thoughts for Thursday in Tulia Herald.

Values Up Texas

Purchase of farm and ranch was two percent in 1953 or an average of 1.5 percent in 1954. This slight gain in price level, the sales dropped to the level of 1940 and the transfer was the lowest in the land market record since 1914. The drought, decreases in acreage and "tight" holdings have tended to depress land values. William G. Mendenhall, agricultural economist at M. & M. College, explained that the program helped to increase market value. Fattening Cattle Need Salt Daily

College Station. — "Fattening cattle should consume from a half to one and a half ounces of salt per head daily, depending upon the kinds of feeds used and the age of the animals," says U. D. Thompson, extension animal husbandman.

Keep loose granulated salt before the animals at all times. Salt in this form is more satisfactory than compressed block salt or rock salt, he says.

Salt will be used more economically from a self-feeding box with a roof for protection from rain.

It's a mistake to withhold salt from cattle toward the close of the feeding period. Though this may cause the animals to drink more water at market, buyers usually are able to estimate closely the amount of fill on the cattle.

Really special — and new — for tarts and cream puffs is this filling with delicately different coffee flavor. Combine one tablespoon instant coffee with 1.3 cup firmly packed brown sugar, three tablespoons flour and a dash of salt in the top of the double boiler. Add one cup of milk and one egg yolk, slightly beaten; mix thoroughly. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook for 10 minutes or until thickened. Makes one cup.

BEFORE SUPPER TREAT

Here's something to try on your friends as a before-supper treat. Take six thin slices of salami and cover each with a cheese spread. Roll up jelly-roll fashion, and wrap each roll in waxed paper. Chill in your refrigerator. Then cut into 3-8 inch slices, and serve on a pick. They're tasty and so easy to make.

Paul Hays Barn Is Destroyed By Fire

Fire Monday afternoon destroyed a barn, thousands of dollars worth of farm equipment and grain and damaged the residence of Paul Hays in the Whitfield community, 10 miles east of Kress. He is a former resident of the Roseland community, north-east of Lockney.

It was assumed that tiny children playing with matches in the barn caused the fire. The loss was only partially insured.

Damage to the house was small. Slight damage was done to furniture moved to the lawn by assisting neighbors.

The fine home and barn are of recent construction. Paul thinks that his house surely would have burned, too, had it not been a brick veneer.

It has been subject to hail and weather damage twice this spring. Destroyed with the barn was a $3,100 truck. It had 600 bushels of wheat on it. In a John Deere trailer stored in the barn was $1,000 worth of aluminum pipe for irrigation. There were four John Deere trailers, 600 bushels of barley and a quantity of cotton seed in the building.

Appointive officers of the local lodge will be announced next week, Mr. King said.

Due to the excess rains of the past two months and the fact that road beds have been badly washed and eroded, we will be unable to do any farm work with the county road machinery until after January 1, 1956. We are sorry that we will be unable to do farm work during this time but you will understand that road work comes first.

Insect Report

(Note: Following is a report on a cotton insect survey for the South Plains as released by Walton H. Jones, district extension agent, of Lubbock. The report was compiled by G. T. Davis Jr. and W. L. Owens Jr., both connected with the Extension Service).

Weather conditions during the past week have been favorable for growth of cotton, although high winds damaged the crop in some localities. Temperatures ranged up to 100 degrees most days during the week.

Dryland cotton south and west of Lubbock suffered for lack of moisture, with some reported dying in parts of Bailey, Cochran, Yoakum, Terry and Lynn counties. Cotton on unirrigated land in Briscoe, Crosby and Floyd counties made satisfactory progress. Irrigated cotton made good progress, with blooms showing in many of the earlier planted fields.

This report on conditions of insect infestations is based on records from 20 of 25 counties. Sixty-one reports were sent in, with records on 142 designated fields. Most of these records were made in Cochran, Crosby, Bailey, Hale and Lubbock counties.

Aphid infestations were generally lighter than during the previous weeks. Farmer county had heavy populations in a few fields.

Thrips infestations were reported as light to medium in a majority of fields over the area. Heaviest infestations were found on cotton in Bailey and Cochran counties. The insects were also found in rather large numbers, along with fleahoppers, in some of the earlier planted fields in Crosby and Lubbock counties. Insecticides used for control of the fleahoppers will give good thrips control.

Fleahoppers increased in numbers on cotton in some fields, while in others there was little change in infestation from the previous week. Heaviest infestations were reported from Crosby, Bailey and Lubbock counties. While a majority of the more heavily infested plantings have had insecticides applied for control of the insects, some untreated cotton showed definite damage in excessive shed of tiny squares. Timely control of the fleahoppers will insure maximum set of early fruit.

Bollworm activity was indicated in reports from Bailey, Garza, Cochran, Lynn, Crosby, Howard, Lubbock, Mitchell and Terry counties. Low egg counts, with occasional small worms, were found in a good number of fields. While none of the counts indicated a need for control, presence of the insect calls for close and frequent checks of fields so that control of any damaging infestations may be effected as they appear. Small worms are more easily controlled and form damage may be kept at a minimum with timely insecticide applications.

Spotted garden webworm damage to cotton has been reported in Lubbock and Lynn counties.

Lygus bugs have been found in small numbers on cotton in Cochran and Lubbock counties. Cotton near legumes should be watched for the appearance of this insect, especially as small bolls are set.

Grasshoppers continued to cause damage to cotton along fencerows in Briscoe and Swisher counties.

On some reports there are show low to high infestations. We feel sure that a large number of fields have been checked. If we could have an indication of the number of fields checked

Floydada Okays School Bonds

Floydada. — Voters in the Floydada School District approved a $550,000 bond issue here Saturday by an impressive margin of more than six to one.

The total vote was 377 for and 62 against the proposal, which will provide funds for a new senior high school building and for repairs and alterations to existing buildings.

Supt. I. T. Graves said that a site for the new building has not yet been designated, but he said that negotiations are underway to secure the site.

Work on the new high school building probably will begin in mid-September, with completion expected in time for the opening of the 1956-57 school term, he said.

The new building will include a large auditorium, cafeteria and other special features.

CLEVER COVER-UP

Here's a practical extra cover for baby's bathinette, and one that you can make yourself. Start with a turkish towel or soft cotton bath mat. Just sew elastic loops crosswise at each corner to be slipped over the edge of the bathinette. It will stay snugly in place no matter how much baby squirms or tugs, but you can slip it off easily for washing. Be sure to wash it often in plenty of hot water, so it will always be clean and sanitary.

SPACE-SAVER

A new space-saving gadget will help you get maximum use from the interior area of your refrigerator. It's a series of four or six rectangular containers and covers made of clear plastic for storing leftovers; for convenience, they fit together snugly in a non-tarnishing wire basket. For hygiene safety, the whole outfit can be washed in hot soapsuds and rinsed.

Whitten To Speak At Lubbock Wed.

Congressman Jamie L. Whitten will deliver a major address on agricultural policy at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday, July 20, at the Plains Cooperative Oil Mill in Lubbock, Texas.

Representative Whitten, chairman of the Agricultural Appropriation subcommittee of the U. S. House of Representatives, is an outspoken advocate of disposal of American cotton surpluses through vigorous export action.

The program proposed by Representative Whitten includes sale of U. S. cotton for export at competitive world prices, price supports at 90 percent parity, and protection of domestic markets.

The public is invited to attend this address, a portion of the program of the annual meeting of the regional cotton cooperatives of this area.

"Four Season Cottons," a style show featuring the finest in cotton fashions, will be presented during the afternoon for the ladies of the South Plains.

Garments for the program were created by America's leading fashion designers and are being air expressed to Lubbock by the National Cotton Council, owners of the wardrobe.

Ladies from all sections of the South Plains will serve as models. All persons appearing on the program are connected with the cotton industry in this area.

KEEP CURTAINS CRISP

Fewer Eggs, Higher Prices For Fall

College Station. — Production from egg laying flocks is expected to dip five percent or more this fall below the same period last year commanding at least seasonal and perhaps higher prices for producers.

"Farmers have raised 19 percent fewer replacement chicks this year," John G. McHaney, extension farm economist, explains. It appears that fall flocks will be six to eight percent smaller than a year ago.

While the number of replacement chicks started over the nation closely parallels farmer's February 1 intentions, in Texas and other Southern Central states the cutback has exceeded the expected 15 percent mark.

Poultrymen who bought replacement stock during the first four months of 1955 will profit most from the situation because of high egg yields at times when prices are more favorable.

The economist suggests that raisers starting chicks next September still may take advantage of some of the expected favorable prices during the second quarter of 1956.

Wide Cotton
Up 14 Percent
in Last Year

The Agriculture Department reported Friday that cotton production in 1954 was 17,066,000 acres of cotton on July 1. This is 14 percent less than last year.

Production is forbidden until August. But farmers would harvest 300 pounds per acre this year.

Farmers produced 19,791,000 bales from July 1, 1954, to July 1, 1955. The year averaged 341 bales per acre. The ten-year average is 271 pounds an acre.

The allotment for cotton this year is 18,113,208 acres. The allotment system is a government attempt to curb fibre surpluses.

Included in Friday's acreage estimate were 43,600 acres planted to extra-long staple American-Egyptian cotton. Growers had 33,300 acres of long staple cotton in cultivation on July 1 last year.

Texas had 16,000 acres of American-Egyptian cotton in cultivation on July 1; New Mexico 8,300; Arizona 19,000 and California 300.

33,537 Irrigation Wells On Plains

College Station. — More than 4,000,000 acres of land is being irrigated by 33,537 wells on the High Plains of Texas. This and other facts are presented in the annual irrigation survey by R. V. Thurmond and Ralph L. Jones of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The reports, made yearly since 1949, show the tremendous expansion of irrigation in the area. The first report showed that 12,478 wells were being used to irrigate 1,711,000 acres on 9,025 farms. By May 1955, the number of irrigated farms stood at 17,069; the number of wells at 33,537 and the irrigated acreage at 4,017,530.

From May 1954 to May 1955, 5,554 wells were added and the acreage irrigated increased by 390,425. The greatest increase in the number of wells during the seven year period was the 6,268 added from May 1952 to May 1953. The increase in the area irrigated rose by 598,094 acres.

Hale county with 3,700 wells is the leader in this category. These wells supply the water to irrigated 470,000 acres. The 3,000 wells in Swisher county supply the water for 480,000 acres. The report shows Hockley county with 3,550 wells; Lubbock with 3,300 and Lamb county with 2,800 to rank high in the area.

Butane is used on 15,447 wells while natural gas powers another 11,881 pumping units. A majority of the wells, 24,779, had a pumping lift of more than 125 feet and 17,592 were shown with a pumping capacity of under 700 gallons per minute.

Grain sorghums, cotton, wheat, alfalfa and sudan, mostly for pasture, were the principal crops irrigated. According to the report, grain sorghum lead cotton in 1955 by almost 400,000 acres.

Thurmond says the report is compiled from figures submitted from the county agricultural agents in the 43-county area.

Cancer Society To Avoid United Funds

Austin. — The American Cancer Society has barred additional participation by Units of the Society in federated appeals or community chests, according to a Society policy released today.

The policy was announced by Travis T. Wallace, president of the Cancer Society's Texas Division.

Mr. Wallace said that Units of the Society already in united funds or community chests may continue the relationship so long as they maintain the rate of growth of independent units.

The policy, made by the Cancer Society's volunteer board of directors and approved by the Texas Division's volunteer leaders, is the result of an exhaustive study of means of meeting the growing needs for an expanded attack on cancer. Mr. Wallace said. It provides that Units of the Society now in federation review annually progress made under arrangements with united appeals.

"When the united fund is unable to meet the growing financial needs or keep pace with the growth of independent Units of the Society," Mr. Wallace said, "Steps are to be taken for orderly withdrawal of the Units from the federated campaigns."

Mr. Wallace said the national policy of no new participation in federation was made necessary by the growing threat of cancer and the need for funds to expand the attack of the disease.

Rev. Wiley Will Fill Pulpit Sunday

Rev. R. E. Wiley, who has been out of the pulpit at the First Baptist Church for some two months due to illness, will return to the pulpit Sunday morning and preach regularly thereafter unless unforeseen circumstances prevent.

Attending physicians say that his condition is improving right along and that he may gradually assume his full duties with the local church.

Hardy S. Clemons, a former resident of Lockney and a student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, has been preaching at the Baptist Church most of the time since Rev. Wiley became ill.

Mexican Woman Dies Here Sunday

Mrs. Loveta Juarez, 27, died at the Lockney General Hospital Sunday. Her death was attributed to a heart ailment.

Funeral services for the young woman were held at the grave-site conducted by Rev. L. H. Faus, pastor of the South Plains Baptist Church, assisted by Ben Vera of the Spanish Baptist Church in Floydada. Interment was in the Lockney cemetery with Carter Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Jerry Williams placed third in the 100 yard dash at the Junior Olympic Track meet held at Abilene last Saturday. He ran against some 25 other contestants in this event.

Other trackmen from Lockney failed to place. Coach Rudy Haile said, although he feels sure that the relay team would have won their event had not hard luck struck them. Nelson Wofford, running the second lap of the relay, fell and thereby lost his chance to carry on for his team.

Williams time in the 100 yard dash was 10.5. The winner of the event ran the dash in a flat 10 seconds, which ties the national record for this age boys.

Water Skiing On The High Plains

The recent heavy rains which filled lakes to a higher level than has been seen here since 1941 brought a sport to this area that is unusual here to say the least. That is water skiing.

The local water ski enthusiasts gather at the France Carthel lake, about 7 miles northeast of Lockney where the water is very deep. Motor boats are furnished by Robert Brown and Rayford Martin and R. H. Ford. Some of those who have mastered the art of skiing in addition to the boat owners are several members of the Ford family, K. W. Cook, Edgar Hartley, Bob Miller and possibly others.

Robert Brown has mastered the art of riding a round, disc-like piece of ply wood pulled behind the motor boat.

The group usually practice the water skiing art late in the afternoon or on Sunday afternoons.
