Farmers Will Vote On Cotton Marketing Quotas Next Tuesday

Amid considerable dissatisfaction in this part of the county at least over cotton acreage quotas for 1956, Floyd County farmers will go to the polls next Tuesday to vote on cotton marketing quotas for the coming year.

All farmers who grew cotton in 1955 are eligible to vote in the referendum, which will be a nation-wide affair.

Three voting boxes will be open in the county. They will be at the Lockney Beacon office in Lockney, the ASC office in Floydada and the Cedar Hill Store at Cedar. Voting hours are from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

ASC officials are anxious to have a good representation of farmers voting. Many times, it was pointed out by one man, only a few farmers vote and thus make a decision for a large number. "Whether you are for or against the quotas, we urge you to come out and express your preference," one of the officials said.

The outcome of the cotton marketing quota referendum will determine whether quota penalties will apply and also the level of price support for 1956-crop cotton. The referendum therefore is of vital concern to every cotton grower, says Buck Sams, Chairman of the Floyd County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The marketing quota program will be in operation for next year's crop, the chairman explains, if at least two-thirds of the votes cast in the referendum are in favor of the program. In that case, price support will be available for the 1956 crop of upland cotton at a level between 75 and 90 percent of parity, and quota penalties will apply on any excess cotton. If more than one-third of the votes are against quotas, there would be no quota penalties but the price support level to eligible growers would drop to 50 percent of parity.

Chairman Sams explains that acreage allotments will be in effect even though quotas are disapproved. Compliance with such cotton allotments will be required for eligibility for price support, no matter what the level of support. Chairman Sams points out that the decision will have far-reaching effects, and that the question deserves the serious study and the carefully considered vote of all who grow cotton.

Fire Destroys Cotton At Whittenburg Gin

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed some 20 bales of cotton at the Whittenburg Gin here Tuesday night. The cotton was baled and setting in the gin yard. The exact number of bales has not been determined. Lester Green said Wednesday.

The gin crew shut down about 1 a. m. and went home. The fire was discovered about 2:45 a. m. Wednesday by workers on a neighboring gin yard, who turned in the fire alarm. The gin plant itself was not damaged and the lost cotton was covered by insurance, it was said. The Lockney Fire Department put out the fire although most of the cotton was destroyed before they were called.

The local Fire Department fought a burr and grass fire at the same gin Tuesday afternoon. This fire did no damage but threatened to spread before being brought under control.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cockerell and daughter Tomye are moving this week to Grand Prairie, Texas. They have been living in the Irick community.

PAVEMENT IN COUNTY GET SEAL COAT IN 1956

Five miles of paved roads in Floyd County will get seal coats during the calendar year 1956, according to an announcement from the office of the county engineer. The project is especially dependent on the investment made in the state system.

Work will begin on these roads just as soon as final planning is completed. Maintenance Engineer H. Bruce Bryant will be in charge of the work in this area.

Cotton Quotas Show Cuts Up To 22 Percent

Individual cotton acreage quotas were being received by local farmers this week and most of them showed a reduction of acres for the 1956 crop, some as high as 22 percent.

The county's 1956 cotton acreage allotment was cut by only 7 percent from last year but some factors came in to bring about an individual cut somewhat larger. Floyd County's 1955 acreage was 100,148 while the 1956 acreage will be 93,138.

The larger farmers are getting the bigger cuts, according to reports reaching The Beacon. Although smaller farmers are receiving cuts much higher than the anticipated 7 percent. One farmer was cut from 240 acres in 1955 to 197 acres in 1956, while another was cut from 47 to 40 acres. Cuts vary considerably and the ASC office in Floydada has been busy this week explaining the method of arriving at the individual quotas to farmers.

The cuts were brought about by a combination of circumstances, according to Tom J. Hutchins, ASC office manager. Here is the procedure used in arriving at the individual cotton acreage quotas: Take the total acreage of the farm, deduct the total wheat acreage planted for the 1955 harvest, multiply the results by 26.57, which is the county factor for this year. Then take the farms 3 year cotton average, 1953, 1954, 1955, multiply the average by 7.7 and add the result to the first total which will give you the individual cotton acreage.

Mr. Hutchins said that two things brought about the reduction in some farms. One of these was the fact that the farm's average was based on 1952, 1953 and 1954 for 1955 while the 1956 acres are based on 1953, 1954, 1955, which means that the year 1952, a big cotton year in this area, was dropped, and 1955 added to get the average. Another thing which added to the reduction in this area was the lack of trend areas. The state ASC committee gave most of these to the east and central Texas areas and took them away from West Texas. Because of this Floyd County farms received very little trend acres for 1956 but did get quite a few for 1955.

Another item in the reduction of the county factor. For 1955 acres it was 29.59 while for 1956 it is 26.57, a reduction there of some three percent.

The State ASC office sets the method of arriving at individual acres, allowing the county office to make some small adjustments for small farms and hardship cases. Mr. Hutchins said.

The farms which had big cotton acreages in 1952 are being hurt this year, it was pointed out. Some smaller farms received as much acreage this year as they had last.

There are some 1392 cotton farms in the county among which the county's acreage, totaling 93,138 acres, was divided.

Floyd County allotments were mailed to all farmers on December 6th. Mr. Hutchins said. If any farmer did not receive his allotment he should contact the county ASC office.

A provision in the acreage control law allows for small quotas to new growers. Mr. Hutchins said. Application for cotton acreage by new growers may be made up until Feb. 24, 1956.

He is a graduate of Baylor University taking both an LL.B. and a BBA degree from that school.

Floyd County Will Gin About 58,000 Bales

Floyd County will not contribute very much to the cotton surplus this year. The county's ginnings from the 1955 crop will total very close to 58,000 bales according to a survey made Tuesday and Wednesday by The Beacon and The Hesperian.

This total is only slightly more than one-half of the 1954 ginnings which were approximately 108,500 bales. The rainy weather of May, the hail storms in June, and rain in September and an early freeze in October all contributed to cut down the crop this year. The county allotted cotton acreage was slightly more than 100,000 acres but probably not more than 85,000 acres were harvested.

Surveys in the south part of the county Tuesday and the north part Wednesday showed a total of 51,524 bales ginned thus far. Ginner estimates furnished the 58,000 bale figure. Most of them expect to be through for the season within one or two weeks. One gin, Whittenburg at Lockney, will close down as soon as they clean the yard, they said Wednesday.

The surveys showed that North Floyd County, including gins at Lockney, Lone Star, Aiken, Providence, South Plains and Sterley, had ginned 30,398 bales to date and expected to gin 33,162 during the season. The south part of the county had ginned 21,126 bales to date and expected to gin 3900 more.

Some Floyd County cotton, that below the cap, was ginned at Flomort and Quitaque. On the other hand the gin at Allman probably picked up quite a bit of cotton from Crosby and Hale Counties.

Robert Hilton Is Buried Here

Robert Arthur Hilton, a former resident of Lockney, died suddenly of a heart attack at Friona Monday and was buried in Lockney cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Hilton was custodian of the Friona schools. He was found in his pick-up truck early Monday morning shortly after the vehicle struck a parked car in Friona. He was rushed to a doctor's office but died within a short time.

Funeral services were held at the Friona Methodist Church at 11 a. m. Wednesday. He was a member of the church. Rev. Hugh Blaylock, pastor, officiated, assisted by Rev. Edgar Irvin of Canyon.

Mr. Hilton was born September 16, 1895 at Lovelace, Texas. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hilton and the family moved to Lockney in the early part of the century where he was reared. He married Mildred Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hartman of Lockney, in 1919 and the couple moved to Friona in 1929 where they had made their home since that time.

He had served as custodian of the Friona schools for 17 years. He was active in the Methodist Church and had served the past 20 years as a member of the board of stewards, Sunday school secretary and church treasurer.

In honor of Mr. Hilton's memory the students lowered the school flag to half mast Tuesday.

Survivors include his wife and one sister, Mrs. Arthur Johnston of Plainview.

But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. — Proverbs 4:18.

BETTER MARKING of the highway intersection at the east edge of Lockney is imperative. The accident last Thursday is just a continuation of what has been going on there since the Lone Star road was connected to Highway 70 with a direct paved road. Involved in practically every accident is a person who does not live in this area and is not familiar with the intersection. This indicates, it seems to us, that the intersection is not marked well enough. Perhaps a flashing light would do the job. At least warning signs well back away from the actual intersection should be installed. The suffering as well as the property damage caused by accidents at this particular spot demands some kind of immediate action to remedy the situation.

HAVE YOU CONTRIBUTED to the Floyd County United Chest fund drive yet? If not, perhaps it is because you haven't been contacted. You may leave your contribution at either bank in the county or with any one of the committee working on the drive. Remember that the county drive is to provide funds for six different organizations and that a substantial contribution is needed if the necessary funds are to be raised. The goal is $13,165 for the county. That's a lot of money but it will be easy to raise if everyone will do his part. Let's finish the job this week.

BASKETBALL AT ITS BEST may be the way you would describe the game last Thursday night between the Wayland College Pioneers and the Texas Southern University. We enjoy high school games because we know the contestants on our side at least and have a definite interest in the game's outcome. But it is also good to see a game played at its best as was the one Thursday night. We're glad the Wayland team and the Tigers from Houston came this way.

THE STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION moved some $3,000,000 appropriations for new highway construction from Dallas county just recently after that county had gone through two elections seeking to provide funds for highway right-of-way. In other words, the Highway Commission says we'll build the road if you'll provide the right-of-way within a reasonable length of time. When the county fails to do that the money is moved to some other locality where highway right-of-way is available. Of course, the objection in Dallas county wasn't the building of the road but the kind of tax which was proposed. They were seeking to levy a tax on auto license plates and Mr. Average Man didn't like that kind of tax apparently. But the point is this: If Floyd County is going to take advantage of the proposed four-lane highway which the Highway Commission offers to build when we provide the right-of-way, we'd better get busy some time soon trying to provide that right-of-way.

DESPITE the experience of some in failure to come out on a vegetable crop last year, it seems to us that the matter could stand a lot more investigation and experimentation in this area. The organization of a marketing association probably would be the best bet in successfully getting the vegetables marketed. Some kind of planning and organization is surely needed. Here's where the Chamber of Commerce could help out — in getting the thing started. If we could work out a vegetable growing plan in this area that would get the farmers a proper market for their vegetables most of the time, maybe we wouldn't have to worry so much about cotton quotas.

DRIVER EDUCATION PAYS

By way of the Driver Education Program of The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs we have learned some interesting insurance angles relating to the value of teaching boys and girls how to drive while they are in high school.

A typical case applicable to the Austin area is cited, when the car is operated by drivers of four classifications. With the basic liability limited to $5,000 per person, $10,000 per accident, and $5,000 property damage, here are the premium rates for each classification:

1. No driver under 25 and not customarily driven to and from work: $28.
 2. Boy age 14 to 25 is driver: $45.
 3. Girl age 14 to 25 is driver: $37.
 4. Boy or girl under 25 is principal operator or owner of car: $55.
- Collision ($50 deductible) for each of the four classifications as listed above: $40, $65, $54 and $79.
- And here is the payoff: There is a 10 percent reduction in premium for drivers under 25 who have completed driver training as prescribed. Thus the properly trained driver under No. 2 above, whose total annual premium is $110 a year, would save $11 a year, or $110 in ten years; No. 3, whose total premium would be $91 a year, would save $9.10 per year, or $91 in ten years; and No. 4, whose premium would be $134 per year, would save $13.40 per year, or $134 in ten years.

In these days of ever rising premiums on public liability insurance, these savings are distinctly worthwhile. The parent of a high school pupil should be interested in having his child take driver training for two very good reasons: the ten percent reduction on insurance premium, and the increased safety of the child while operating a motor vehicle. There is another compelling reason: the child who is trained to drive is less likely to smash up somebody else's car, or run over somebody.

The Driver Education program looks like sound commonsense. — Abilene Reporter-News.

SLOW-BURNING FUSE
Publisher Tom Anderson of Farm & Ranch magazine defines Socialism as "Communism with a slow-burning fuse." He adds: "Whether we call it Communism, Welfarism, or Socialism, it leads to the same thing: ruinism."

Probably the best word describing any and all forms of total government is Statism. It creates an accurate picture. More and more individual responsibilities and rights and obligations are turned over to the state — until the people wake up one dismal day and find that the state is the boss of everything. — McLean News.

SOLID GOLD STRIKE
Was it a play or a song about the solid gold Cadillac? Anyway, Americans relate solid gold to Cadillacs, so we don't seem to be out of the way if we refer to the strike of Local 917 International Brotherhood of Teamsters as the Solid Gold Strike. For the members of Local 917 are Cadillac salesmen. The case is not entirely clear so we don't know which side we're on. General Motors claims the sales boys are earning seventeen to forty thousand $5 a year, and the "Teamsters" scoff that none of the strikers is making more than twenty grand. Can you blame them if that is all they have to live on? — You Be The Judge in Crosbyton Review.

"We Planned for MODERN ELECTRIC Living!"

says MRS. JOHN C. CORNELL
2720 WALLACE STREET CLOVIS, N. M.

When you plan for modern electric living, as the Cornells did, you plan for pleasant, gracious, comfortable living.

"My husband's experience in the home building business helped us in planning enough outlets and wiring circuits to enjoy all of our electric appliances."

You, too, can call on the experience of your builder and qualified electrical contractor for electric wiring that will meet your present day needs — and those of the future. Good home wiring — the lifeline of pleasant electric living — never costs less than it does when you are building a new home.

Plan for modern electric living, as the Cornells did, and you plan for living at its best.

Mrs. Cornell's all-electric kitchen features built-in electric range and refrigerator units. "We chose built-ins because of the convenience and space saving features which they offer."

"Automatic and exact", that's the kind of heat Mrs. Cornell gets from her electric range. And that's the kind you'll get from an electric range, whether your choice is for built-in units or a conventional range.

"Plenty of freezer space was one of our goals in planning our new home. This built-in freezer-refrigerator takes very little space, and gives Mrs. Cornell plenty of right-at-hand food storage capacity.

"Our electric washer-dryer is wonderful because I can do any time — day or night — effort". Here's the real beauty, you can do the work when you want, and, because it is done electrically, less work to do.

A COMPLETE DEMONSTRATION OF ANY WORK-SAVING ELECTRIC APPLIANCE IS AVAILABLE TO YOU AT YOUR REDDY KILOWATT APPLIANCE DEALERS.

SYMBOL OF QUALITY

Heating and cooling are wonderful jobs to give electric service, too. Clean, safe, modern — and, most important of all, healthful, because accurate temperature control is always yours electrically.

And here's Mrs. Cornell's freezer, the one that makes "plenty of freezer space" for complete living, plan for electric living.

Library News

The Books on Bikes Club is getting every thing shaped up for the Library Christmas party. Handmade decorations are hanging from the light fixtures and the Christmas tree is up in the reading room with several gifts under it. Drop in any time from 6:30 to 9:00 p. m. Monday, December 5 and let the children serve you refreshments and show the gift books. You may select a gift book at time to before then, or you may choose to give a check or silver. However, the club members want everyone to feel welcome, even if they do not bring a gift to the Library at this time. The gift book session will be held open until December 25.

The following people have already given a book: Books on Bikes Club, 12 volumes of "Do it yourself Encyclopedias," Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barnard, South Plains Home Demonstration Club Mrs. Alma Holmes, Mrs. Maude E. Hollums, Tommy and Johnny Farris, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morekel, Janet and Earl Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McDonald, Mrs. S. L. Holmes Sr. Lee Golightly family. Mrs. Margarette Springer has checked out twenty books to use in her school room. She reports that the circulation of these books is good. Mrs. Springer requires all lessons to be satisfactory before the pupil may check out a library book. The children are so eager for extra reading, they waste no time in getting up their lessons. We appreciate the cooperation and extra work of Mrs. Springer in providing the children with library books.

Term themes are in progress now at high school. The requests of the students for material and reference make us realize more than ever how much our library means to a community.

Rev. Thomas W. Condon has displayed in the library the past two weeks a Greek and Hebrew Bible. Many people have enjoyed looking at them, but not many have been able to read them. We surely appreciate Rev. Condon sharing these Bibles with the public.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

BIRD FAMILY EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

November 30, 1955

Dear Sir:
I want to express my appreciation to the friends of Mrs. Annie Bird who showed so many expressions of thoughtfulness and help to us at her passing.

Even more so do I want to thank the Superintendent, Principal, teachers, Church of Christ members and townspeople for making the last year and a half of her life about as happy as was possible. She had decided Lockney was to be her home even after she quit teaching some day, because of its many fine people.

Perhaps living in New Jersey so long makes that seem even more valuable to me. My sadness comes from self pity and self reproach at not doing even more for her, because her sudden passing was the way she wanted it, so not to be a burden to anyone.

I wish I could make words more meaningful but my thanks is sincere and deep. I only wish I could know and thank more of you personally. The kindness, friendliness, etc. didn't go to me prove.

Sincerely,
Eunice Bird Pickering.

SAYS THANKS

19 November 1955

Dear Mr. Hays:
I would like to thank this opportunity to thank you for the Lockney Beacon which you have been sending to me while I was in service. I found it very interesting and enjoyed it very much. There is nothing like a home town paper while one is away from home. Thanks so very much.
Sincerely yours,
Gene Hammit.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Whitsitt and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Whitehead of Providence community.

A floral arrangement of pink gladioli and greenery formed a background for the wedding party, as the double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Applewhite, pastor of Cedar Hill Baptist Church.

When Mr. Whitsitt gave his daughter in marriage, she was wearing a lovely two-piece dress of winter white faille. Her small hat was of white satin, and other accessories were beige. Her flowers were pink carnations in a shoulder corsage.

Robert Phillips serves as best man and Miss Wynell Willhite was maid of honor. She wore a blue suit with accessories in a complementing shade of blue and a corsage of white carnations.

Harleen Workman Attends Convention

Miss Harleen Workman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Workman of Lockney was one of three students at Texas State College for Women to attend the Southwest Regional Meeting of the American Chemical Society in Houston, last week. Miss Workman, a sophomore chemistry major, attended the meeting with Dr. R. W. Higgins and Dr. H. T. Baker, professors of chemistry at TSCW. Both professors presented scientific papers at the meet, which was held at the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel from Thursday, Dec. 1 to Saturday, Dec. 3.

The program included chemical research lectures, tours of chemical plants in the Houston area, and exhibitions of the latest developments in scientific equipment. The social program included dinners, teas, luncheons, a style show, and many other events. Miss Workman met personally several eminent chemists from the entire United States and was offered positions as a chemist with several industrial companies on her graduation.

Miss Workman was also taken on a complete tour of the Humble Oil Company's Houston Research Center, as her interest lies in the field of petroleum chemistry. As interesting side-lights, Harleen met Glenn McCarthy, Houston oil man, and Miss Terry Moore, the movie actress, who happened to be staying at the Shamrock Hotel during the convention. On the return trip to Denton, the delegation from TSCW was invited to stop by and tour the campus of Texas A & M College at College Station. Harleen is a 1954 graduate of Lockney High School.

The Woods Attend Alfalfa Convention

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood attended the National Alfalfa Company annual convention at Denver, Colorado Thursday and Friday of last week, returning home Sunday night.

They were accompanied by the Hereford mill manager, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bishop. At Clayton, New Mexico they stopped for coffee with a former Providence resident, Mrs. W. A. Bates.

They enjoyed a banquet Saturday night, bus tour of the city and a visit with Patti Jo Wilkes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Wilkes, who is a student at Colorado Women's College as well as a visit with Glenn Worsham who is there with his family while his 3 1/2-year-old son is receiving treatment at Spears Clinic.

The Woods report they enjoyed the colorful trip since a snow storm preceded them and made the mountains and pine trees like a fairy land.

Mrs. Hugh Carroll moved into her new home here Tuesday.

Harvard Classics Given To Library

A substantial gift was given this week to the local library in memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Thompson, pioneers of this area. A set of 50 Harvard Classics were given by the Thompsons' son, H. R. Thompson and wife of Pampa and two daughters, Mrs. Buck Sams and Miss Juanita Thompson, of Lockney.

The books contain a collection of the highest type of poetry and prose and will prove very valuable to students of this area. The books were originally given to Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Thompson as a wedding gift from his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Thompson lived near Lockney before the turn of the century. She was the former Rosaland Ewing, after whom Rosaland School and community were named. She taught in the school a number of years while living with her parents near Lone Star. Mr. Thompson spent some time before his marriage working at the old "F" Ranch. Several years after their marriage they moved into Lockney and operated a Hardware and Furniture Store at the location of the present Byrd Pharmacy. In 1914 Mr. Thompson was Floyd County Judge. They were both active members of the Methodist Church here. The Thompsons moved to California in 1921. He passed away at Long Beach in 1944 and she in 1946. They are remembered here by most of the early settlers as having contributed a great deal to the development of this country. The gift of books will do much to keep alive their memory.

Local Patients Still in Hospitals

Delbur Rose is still receiving treatment at Spears Clinic in Denver, Colorado for a serious asthmatic condition. He is regaining his strength. He returned to his home in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico for Thanksgiving but found it necessary to return to Denver for further treatment after only a short visit. Delbur and his family are former Lockney residents and moved from here to New Mexico for his health a few years ago. Delbur is in the same clinic as is another Lockney patient, little Randy Worsham who is receiving treatment to relieve a spastic condition which prevents normal activities. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Worsham whose address is 828 Emerson Street, Denver, Colo. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood visited them last week and found Randy still improving.

TSU Wins Thriller Here Thursday

Texas Southern University Tigers of Houston, a colored aggregation of real basketball players, defeated the Wayland College Pioneers in a thrilling game in Lockney Gym last Thursday night. The final score was 93 to 91 after a 5-minute overtime period. The Pioneers led the game most of the way and displayed a fine brand of basketball. It was an exciting game all the way with never more than 6 points difference in the scores of the two teams.

The show of the game was big Bennie Swain, 6 foot, 8 inch negro who played center for the Tigers. He sunk 26 points before fouling out in the fourth quarter. However Max Newman, Wayland's 6 foot 8-inch center, was high scorer with 30 points.
The half time score was 44 to 40 in favor of Wayland and the time ran out with the score deadlocked at 86-86. The Pioneers took a lead in the overtime but the hustling Tigers soon over came it and took the two point lead with 30 seconds to go. They managed to hold onto the ball the remainder of the time.

The Hutcherson Flying Queens also played the Phillips Chemical Plant girls team of Cactus but it was strictly no contest. The final score was 67-7 and it could have been much larger if the Queens had so desired. At any rate, local fans saw enough to know the Queens knew how to play basketball. It was the 54th consecutive victory for the Queens.

The gymnasium was full and people were standing where ever there was room to stand. It was probably the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the gym. Many from Plainview and other nearby areas were here.

Christmas Parade

The Lockney Longhorn Band marched in the Floydada Christmas parade November 29. They were led in the parade by Sunny Lawson. They played a snappy "Independia" march through the Floydada streets. The parade included many beautiful Christmas religious floats representing the theme, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."
 This was the largest Christmas parade Floydada has ever had and was really something to see.
 The Longhorn band received $25.00 for marching.

Regards And Sympathy From The Student Body

We, the Lockney High School pupils, wish to express our regard and sympathy to Mrs. W. C. Irons over the passing away of her dear husband and our beloved superintendent.
 We are deeply grateful for the kindness, helpfulness, and consideration which he manifested in the solution of our problems and the execution of our plans. He has left a living memorial in the improvement and the progress of our school and in the lives of the student body.
 May the Heavenly Father bless and comfort you in your hours of bereavement.

Assembly Program By Junior Class And Wayland College

The junior class gave an assembly program on Wednesday before we were dismissed for the Thanksgiving holidays on Thursday.
 Luther Williams gave the invocation and then Katie Rucker led the student body in singing "America." Jay Kemp, master of ceremonies, introduced Betty Foster who gave a reading. Following that, Peggy Hall and Frances Haile sang "The Kentuckian Song."
 Paul Burch, Jerry Mickey, La Juan Henderson, Jerry Workman, Gene Handley, Sammy Lynn and David Frizzell pantomimed "All by Yourself in the Moonlight."
 Jay Kemp requested four boys from each class, freshman, sophomore, junior and senior, to come on the stage. He gave each group a copy of the song entitled "This O' House." Then came the singing contest to determine which class was the most talented. Doyle McAda, Dan Griffith, Derrel Waldroupe and Luther Williams of the senior class won the prize, which was the applause they had already received.
 A group from Wayland College presented a Thanksgiving program, entitled "The Cross First," a Wayland College student read from the Bible. He then extended an invitation to all who were willing to accept Christ to come forth and take up their cross and follow Him. Several Wayland College students came on the stage to accept the cross they were to bear; but all, except one, was unwilling to bear it in the spirit which our Lord intended.
 The student body considered it enlightening and very impressive.

Plainview Traffic Association Presents Assembly Program

In the L. H. S. auditorium on Wednesday, Nov. 30, the Plainview Traffic Commission presented an assembly program on safe driving.
 The program included a movie on "Safe Driving" and a short talk by Mr. Jones, who has been working on safe driving in Plainview for three years. He sometimes goes with the highway patrol at night and has seen several terrible accidents. Mr. Jones said that if each person could see just one accident it might slow him down and stop this slaughter from thoughtlessness and carelessness. The student body enjoyed the talk and the film immensely.
 We also wish to thank Mr. Bruce, Mr. Olsen and Mr. Shoe of Plainview for the time they gave in the presentation of this interesting program.
 Let's heed their advice and help save lives!

Student Council Has Plans

The newly-organized student council will offer a prize for the best decorated high school classroom preceding the Christmas holidays.
 Each first-period class will decorate their room. It was voted that expenses for each room decorations shall not exceed two dollars and fifty cents. The student council will decorate the halls.
 Say, students, how did you like "Twirp Week" and the Sadie Hawkins Party? The girls seemed to enjoy it even if it was expensive.
 The student council is working hard to get some good projects for the coming months. As they decide definitely on what they will carry out the student body will be informed.
 Thanks for all the co-operation from the students thus far.

Senior Class Meeting Held

The seniors met on Friday, December 2, to make plans for a bake sale and a turkey shoot, to be sponsored by the Lions Club.
 A committee met on Thursday night, Dec. 9 to discuss the expenses of the senior class trip and to decide the towns in which to visit and sightsee.
 The members of the senior class are to leave around midnight and drive to Shreveport, Louisiana. On Saturday night, we plan to attend the Louisiana Hayride. Sunday morning we shall drive on to New Orleans where we shall stay two or three days and nights. Leaving Thursday morning, we shall go to Tallahassee, Florida and spend the night. From there, we shall drive to Miami where we plan to be for two days and three nights.
 On our return trip, we shall spend the night in Tallahassee, Florida. From there, we shall journey to Jackson, Mississippi to spend another night. By then, I am sure that most of the seniors will be glad to get back to Lockney.

"Base Ball" was played in the U. S. A. and England before 1839.

Parliament was established in England in 1295.

Senior Class Meeting

On November 30, Mr. Hartley from Dallas spoke to the Seniors about their graduation announcements.
 The senior class officers first met and selected five different cards from a group of twenty-five. These five were then presented to the class to vote on. The invitations the class chose had a crest engraved in silver and brushed in blue. In the center of the crest were the letters 56. Inside the card are the words "Graduation and Senior Class" in a wrap-over design.
 Orders for the invitations are to be turned in by Friday, December 1, 1955. Let's get them!

I'm small of stature,
 Still smaller of finance,
 But I'm big enough to supply you,
 If given a chance,
 With your fertilizer needs,
 Your choice formula and brand,
 Can be had in a few hours
 If we don't have it on hand,
 In recent weeks we've delivered
 Most one hundred ton
 Of a certain formula,
 A very popular one,
 And we can get plenty more
 If we have your word go,
 But, of course, when it's delivered
 Then we'd call for the "double"
 We have anhydrous ammonia,
 And ammonium nitrate,
 And for cotton ground we suggest
 A shot of nitrate,
 But before you take action
 May we again suggest,
 That we send some samples
 And get a soil test.

DON'T GET CAUGHT

This man isn't entirely lost—not if he can still hear the truth and fight back. Big business is continually trying to spin its web of confusion about our locally-owned rural electric cooperatives, but the web can be swept away by facts.

Those who would destroy cooperatives have found the only way is through spreading confusion—linking half truths and innuendo. But they can't spin their web around those who know that:

- The cooperative way, free enterprise at its best, is as American as apple pie and cornbread. Every co-op member has one share and one vote
- Locally-owned and locally-controlled non-profit rural electric cooperatives pay out millions of dollars in local and state taxes annually
- Rural electric co-ops are responsible for raising the standard of living for its members—some 4-million farm families
- Rural electrification has contributed greatly to the increased business of local merchants—throughout the nation, rural electric co-op members have spent more than $12-billion on electric appliances and equipment alone
- Rural electric create business for utility industry—about 50% of the electricity used by co-op members is purchased from commercial utilities
- Without the farmers' initiative in organizing co-ops to serve their electrical needs, rural America might well be in the "dark ages" or paying outrageously high prices for electrical energy
- Rural electric co-ops have made possible higher quality food and fiber for the nation in peace and war

However at the half, Wayland had a three-point lead over Texas Southern University. Then the Texas Southern boys began playing better ball and gained a five-point lead. The last four minutes of the game was a tie. One team and then the other would make a goal. During the last fifty-seven seconds of the ball game, No. 21 scored making the count 93 to 91 in favor of Texas Southern. I am sure they returned home happy.

Nevertheless, both teams got their money's worth for they were pretty well matched.

South Plains

By Mrs. Murray Julian

Fire Tuesday noon at the Cassel gin in South Plains caused property owners some worry, especially as the fire neared the Myrick home. Lockney Fire Department quickly answered the call and got the fire under control. The cotton trailers were moved over in the Raymond Upton field during the hard winds of last week.

Members of the WMU who attended the Week of Prayer program held at Calvary Baptist Church all day Tuesday were Mines, H. S. Calahan Jr., Shelby Calahan, Frank McClure, Bryan Karr, Grigsby Milton and Larry Faus.

Bonnie Upton is expected home December 29 for a 25 day furlough from Washington where he is stationed near Seattle, reports his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hidalgo and two small sons who have made their home in Opelousas, Louisiana the past few years, moved back to South Plains last week and are now living near the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Childress, where they have moved their house from Canyon. They both attended college there before their marriage. They will be farming the Childress farm this coming year in place of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Johnson.

Miss Patsy Harston of Sterley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortenberry after church. They all went to Cedar Hill where they had Sunday dinner and visited during the afternoon with Fred's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Tucker.

We are sorry to hear of the passing of J. D. Colville on Friday in Veterans Hospital in Amarillo after an illness of six weeks. He was the brother-in-law of Bill Beedy. The Beedys have been with the family and attended the last rites Saturday afternoon at the Floydada Methodist Church.

Visiting at the Sunday morning church services were Mrs. R. W. Newman of Snyder, mother of Mrs. Frank McClure. The McClures spent from Friday until Saturday night in Snyder in the Newman home, bringing the mother back with them to spend several days here.

Visiting Saturday in Lockney and Floydada were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Craft, Kenny, Rickey and Waverly from Midland, who visited her mother, Mrs. E. L. Lackey and other folks in this vicinity.

Terry Julian was home Saturday night and Sunday with his folks from WTSC at Canyon. Most of the young folks will be home to spend the Christmas holidays on Dec. 17 and will not have to be back until in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnston of Plainview spent Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sim Reeves.

Vasette Beth Faus was confined to the parsonage over the weekend with what the doctor thinks was a mild case of Chicken Pox.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvain Kinnibrugh, Marilyn and Beth were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Therman Perry and children in the Fairview community.

Mrs. Thomas Pierce, Mrs. Cecil Taylor and Mrs. S. D. Kinnibrugh are having the Junior G. A.'s, the Sunday School Juniors and the Training Union Juniors at the school house on Dec. 13 at 7 o'clock for their Christmas party. There will be games and refreshments for everyone.

Twenty-four floats were in the parade that officially opened the Christmas season on Nov. 29 at 2:30 p. m. in Floydada. Several of our young folks played in the bands that made up the colorful parade.

First place award went to the Builders Mart, and Billy Stanforth III rode in that float. Second place award went to South Plains H. D. Club with their float, "Carols at Christmas Time." Rev. Larry Faus, Mrs. Leighton Teeple, Mrs. J. D. Webb, Mrs. J. K. West and Yvonne Karr were on the float dressed in costumes from many lands, singing the beloved carols. Raymond Upton, June Marble and Bonnie Upton were inside the drivers cab. In the bicycle awards, Sherlene Teeple won second place and five dollars and Delice Gilly, from Cedar Hill won third with another beautifully decorated bicycle.

Sylvain Kinnibrugh's uncle, Bud Sessions of San Jose, Calif. came Friday and visited until Sunday with the Kinnibrughs.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snodgrass spent Monday visiting in the home of her cousin, Mrs. Walter Williams and family.

Second six weeks honor roll for the South Plains school grammar school is no A's from the principals upper grades room: in Mrs. Ray Smith's room receiving A's were Gary Wilson, Tommie Taylor, Beth Calahan, and Jimmie Ray Upton. In Mrs. Oscar Hewitt's 1, 2 and 3rd grades were Kay Cummings, Katherine Mulder and Vicki Johnson.

A good crowd was present on Friday night at the P. T. A. meeting to hear Rev. Tilden B. Armstrong speak on The Family Lives by Spiritual Values.

The school Christmas program was planned for Friday night, 7:30, Dec. 16, with the school children participating in the program. There will be a community Christmas tree with Shelby Calahan and helpers getting the tree. The teachers and Mrs. Stewart will get material for the sacks, and the P.T.A. and lunch room will share equally in the treats.

H. D. Club Christmas party will be held at the Grigsby Milton home Friday evening, Dec.

with husbands and children as guests. SERIOUSLY Mr. and Mrs. were called over the week serious illness. Mrs. daughter stayed in bed for several days. Mrs. daughter was paralyzed. Mrs. daughter turned home.

Mr. Floyd Clymer

"Best car manufactured in America today"

That's what Floyd Clymer, famous automobile authority, said about Chrysler in Popular Mechanics (October)

"I have tested many fine automobiles over all kinds of terrain," writes Mr. Clymer, "and in my judgment Chrysler is the best automobile manufactured in America today."

When you compare this Chrysler with the other two major cars in its price class, you will be in for an electrifying awakening. Because this is power driving as it was meant to be.

You push the "D" on the Pushbutton PowerLite Drive and a mighty airplane-type engine whisks you away in an instant. There's a new, wonderfully easy feel-of-the-road with full-time PowerPilot Steering... a straight, sure, velvety sense of safety in the stops you get with PowerSmooth Brakes... a world of authority in the tremendous response of Chrysler's exclusive airplane-type Fire-Power V-8 engine!

Just one look at this car tells you the power's there. You see it in the "PowerStyle" lines... in the sleek, swept look of its rear deck and front end. Let us put you behind the wheel of the "PowerStyle" Chrysler for just 12 weeks this week. Compare its performance with its own. Then you'll know why it's the best car manufactured in America today! Asks Donations To Help In Law Suit

Chester Carthel, farmer of the Prairie Chapel community, recently received a letter from Fred H. Husbands, general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, asking that he seek funds in this county to help in the suit for injunction filed by West Texas farmers against the state ASC committee charging discrimination.

"This court action will cost a considerable sum of money," Mr. Husbands writes, "and on the basis of your interest in the matter we ask that you solicit the support of your nei-ghors and friends in helping to defray the costs of this law suit, which is the only way to get for West Texas a fair share of the 1956 cotton acreage allotments."

Those wishing to donate money to help the suit may either see Mr. Carthel or send their money directly to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 1561, Abilene, Texas, he said.
