

55 "Positives" Show Up In TB Patch Tests

Mrs. Elsie Peckham, school nurse, reported Wednesday that 55 "positives" had shown up in the recent tuberculosis patch tests run on some 600 students in the local grade schools and junior high.

Parents have been notified by mail if their child showed positive. Mrs. Peckham said she urged that the entire family go immediately to their family physician for a physical check up.

"Showing positive does not mean that the child has TB or is a TB carrier," she said, "but it does mean that they have been in contact with someone having TB." She said that the child should be removed from contact with the person having TB if such is the case.

A breakdown of the "positives" show that 39 were in the C. N. Townsend school, with 27 of that number being white and 12 being Latin-Americans. Ten were found in the Junior High with nine being white and one a Latin American. There were six "positives" in the colored school.

The patch tests were run under the sponsorship of the C. N. Townsend Parent-Teacher Association.

Pony League Is Organized Mon.

The Lockney Pony Baseball League was organized Monday night and plans made to start play probably the first part of June. Additional lighting of the local ball field was set up as the first goal, and uniforms and equipment for the boys will also be purchased when sufficient money is on hand.

By a vote of the parents, it was decided that the games would be played at night. Due to the softball league's operations, it will probably be necessary to play on Monday and Saturday nights or on Tuesday and Saturday nights, according to Eddie Holcomb, commissioner.

The money problem is the first obstacle to be overcome in the project. The Lockney Rotary Club, who is sponsoring the league, has appropriated $200 from its treasury toward the expense of the league. At the Monday night meeting the parents who were present gave or pledged a total of $210. Other parents of the players will be contacted and a drive among local business men will be made to add to the funds, according to Bob Miller, president of the Rotary Club.

Commissioner Holcomb estimated that at least $1,000 would be required to put additional lighting facilities on the field and purchase a Jersey and cap for players. Probably the league will not be able to afford complete uniforms this year, it was said.

Anyone wishing to donate toward the league may leave money at Lockney Drug or Brown's Department Store.

The managers of the league meet Monday night following the regular meeting and divided the boys into teams. The teams, managers and players were announced as follows:

BRAVES — B. J. Wofford and Lee Copeland, managers; Dan Smith, Rayburn Pierce, Dwayne Wilson, M. Vano Ortega, Vincent Petty, Kenneth Walsh, Rodney Bigby, Larry Stapp, Jerry Cyster, Alvin Vernon.

TIGERS — Red Childers, manager; Oyama Buchanan, Jerry Chesshire, Bobby Livingston, James Davis, Jack Ford, Bill Mangold, Aubrey Kent, Doyle Thurman, Ronnie Vaughan, Murriel Landrum.

REDS — Melvin Cooper and Chap Carthel, managers; Monap Bruton, Thomas Brand, Frank Jones, Lewis Eiland, Keith Carthel, Wayne Cooper, Clarence Ansley, Rhudy Naylor, Jerry Willis, Eugene Jones.

CUBS — Audvie Barnett and D. Patterson, managers; Billy Seke Wofford, Lawson Rowell, Keith Jackson, Joe Lorrez, Kenneth Clark, Billy Dan Roling, Raymond Wilson, Page Durham, Mickey Mosley, Jerry Sams, James Taylor.

Manager Audvie Barnett is asking his team, the Cubs, to meet at the ball park at 6 p. m. Friday for practice. The schedule of play hasn't been drawn up as yet.

SERVING THE RICH IRRIGATED SECTION OF FLOYD COUNTY

VOLUME 55

LOCKNEY, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1956

NUMBER 7

COURT EXPECTS TO NAME "ANOTHER MAN" AS JUDGE

The Floyd County Commissioners Court will probably name "another man" as county judge in their meeting this morning because Hugh Counts, agreed upon by the Commissioners Monday, could not legally take the office. Mr. Counts, now serving as Commissioner, Precinct 2, had agreed to accept the office when it was offered him by his fellow commissioners but a technicality snarled the appointment.

A ruling from the attorney general's office said that Mr. Counts would not be legally free of his office of commissioner until his successor was appointed, and since it is the duty of the county judge to fill a vacancy on the Commissioners Court, that vacancy could not be filled until a county judge is appointed. Hence Mr. Counts could not qualify for county judge since he would not be free of his commissioner's office until a successor was named.

The Court has had several men under consideration since the death of County Judge W. E. Grimes a week ago Saturday.

The person named to fill the vacancy will serve the unexpired term of the present term which is two years and eight months approximately.

Methodists Are In Conference

Local Methodists have joined others in the Northwest Texas Conference in the annual session being held this week at Big Spring. The sessions began Wednesday and will continue through Sunday when appointments will be read.

Buck Sams is the delegate of the local church to the conference and Leslie Floyd is alternate. Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Coggin left Tuesday to attend the meeting and a number of other local church members are expected to attend at least a part of the sessions. Rev. Coggin is scheduled to preach in one of the Big Spring churches Sunday morning.

Bishop H. Bascom Watts, now of the Nebraska area in the Methodist Church, and a former pastor of the Lockney church, will be the conference preacher. He entered the ministry in the Northwest Texas conference.

Business will include the presentation to the conference of the continuation of the campaign for funds to build a dormitory and a classroom building at McMurry College, Abilene, and to add to the $800,000 authorized to be raised by the last annual conference the amount of $310,000.

Recommendation from the conference board of missions will be the continuation of Advance Specials for Latin American work, educational work in Japan and Alaska; and a building program for the West Texas State College Wesleyan Foundation at Canyon, which will be the conference Advance Special. Advance Specials are projects covered by over and above conference or local budget giving. This quadrennial campaign for the Canyon Wesleyan Foundation is expected to cost $40,000, $20,000 for a parsonage and $20,000 for remodeling and enlarging the present student center. Methodists enter a new quadrennium June 1 and emphasis adopted for the new period are to be completed June 1, 1960. Total program of the church is based on four year periods.

Also expected is a report from a special commission on study and action in the annual conference. This commission was established at the last conference session to study ways in which the conference can serve more effectively. It will report its study and suggest plans to the conference.

Commission on town and country work members have requested time on the conference program in order that they may present rural pastor awards.

Dr. J. Chess Lovorn of First Methodist Church, Lubbock, will preach the memorial service Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jones of Amarillo, former Lockney residents, visited in the A. D. Schaffner and the Sid Thomas homes Friday.

Jury Fails To Agree In Trial Of Local Banker

The jury could not agree and Judge Joseph B. Dooley declared a mistrial Monday in the case of Maury Wade Wiley, former Lockney banker, charged in U. S. District Court at Lubbock with embezzlement and making false entries.

The case went to the jury Saturday afternoon late after five days of testimony and arguments. The jury deliberated two hours Saturday, were released for the weekend by Judge Dooley, and resumed deliberations Monday morning. During its Monday deliberations the jury asked for another look at exhibits presented in the case which included bank records and Wiley's personal file.

Answering charges of the prosecution, Wiley testified that he kept a "non-ledger asset fund" with which he made loans to worthy customers who had reached their legal borrowing limit with the bank but who needed further financial aid to continue operations. He also testified that he used some of the money to buy equipment for the bank since the bank examiner had criticized the bank's expenditures for equipment in the past.

The jury was divided 10-2, the foreman reported, but whether for acquittal or conviction was not revealed. The foreman told the judge that the jury members felt "that they could never get together."

Judge Dooley set the case for trial again in November.

Stores To Close Memorial Day

Chamber of Commerce Manager Dick Whiteley said Wednesday that most Lockney stores had agreed to close on Memorial Day, next Wednesday, and four other holidays during the year. Whiteley failed to see all store managers but did contact a large number and most of them agreed to observe the five holidays. The others, in addition to Memorial Day, are July 4th, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years Day.

The movement started with the Retail Trades committee, headed by Claude Brown. This committee suggested that local business men set the holidays they would observe this year so that there would be no doubt about their closing.

Plans calling for the printing of a poster listing the holidays and the merchants who plan to close so that customers may be kept informed as to their closing plans.

Another project suggested by the committee is the establishing of a Dollar Day in Lockney on every first Monday. In a business men's meeting Monday afternoon, the project was approved.

Saturday Is "Poppy Day" In Lockney

Saturday will be "Poppy Day" in Lockney and throughout much of the nation. The sales will be sponsored by American Legion Auxiliary with Mrs. W. L. Thomas Jr., chairman, in charge.

Volunteer workers will cover the business district as well as the residential sections during the day in an effort to place a red flower on every lapel honoring our war dead.

Contributions for the Auxiliary's work aiding disabled veterans and needy children of veterans will be accepted by the Poppy Day volunteers, according to Mrs. Thomas. These contributions form the major source of support for the Auxiliary's child welfare program. The poppies are made by disabled veterans at Veterans Hospitals and affords the men some much needed money for themselves and their families.

The local Auxiliary urges everyone to wear a poppy as a personal memorial to our nation's war dead and at the same time assist disabled veterans and needy children of veterans.

Memorial Services Are Planned Here

Ed Carter, president of the Lockney Cemetery Association, said Wednesday that Memorial Day services would be held at the Lockney cemetery next Wednesday.

Plans call for those attending to bring a basket lunch and spread their dinner together. The services will follow the lunch, he said. A local minister will speak. Officers of the Cemetery Association will be elected also.

Mr. Carter said that work on the cemetery would not be necessary since it was in the best shape it has been in for several years.

Veteran's Graves To Be Decorated

Curtis Williams and Arthur Nigh, representatives of the Lockney American Legion Post, will decorate graves of veterans in the cemetery Wednesday morning. Flags will be placed on the graves of veterans of all wars, Curtis suggested that if anyone knew of a veteran buried in the local cemetery which had not been decorated in years past, they would appreciate knowing of it. This is an annual custom of the Legion Post.

The Marine Corps is the oldest branch of U. S. military service.

Baccalaureate Services
Rev. M. H. Mooberry, pastor of the Assembly of God Church here, preached the Baccalaureate sermon to the high school graduating class Sunday evening. The services were at the high school auditorium.

Using as his text Matthew 7:24, Mr. Mooberry read of the house built on the rock and that built on the sand, comparing their foundations. He told the graduates that a spiritual house would ruin unless it was built on the right foundation and warned them that they must make their own choices in this life.

Mr. Mooberry used the story of Moses, who chose "to suffer affliction with the children of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season." He further stated "You can never be a success for time and eternity without God as your partner, for there is no success in this world apart from God."

The auditorium was packed with friends and relatives of the graduates.

Mrs. David Battey Jr. will sing for the group, featuring an old ballad.

Arthur B. Watkins Jr. of Lubbock will be the speaker for the morning session.

Dinner will be served at 12 o'clock noon at the American Legion Hall. Those who have been in the county 40 years will be served dinner without charge, association officials said.

The parade will be the big feature of the day. Starting at 1 o'clock, it will go north from the First Baptist Church to the courthouse square, take a circular route around the square, by the city hall and back to the place of beginning. Numerous prizes have been offered for floats and other features in the parade. It is expected to be one of the largest ever seen at the Old Settlers meeting.

A pioneer style show will be held on the platform immediately following the parade. Also descendants of the first pioneers of the county will be introduced. Announcements of winners in the parade and style show will be made at this time.

A memorial service will follow and election of officers to follow that event. A small fry square dance contest will be held and then talks by the various pioneers will be heard.

Entries in the various divisions have been pouring in. Mrs. Hollums reports Jake Watson, in charge of floats, says that 14 floats have been entered with others expected.

Drawing a great deal of interest is the pioneer style show, a new feature of the celebration. Mrs. Sam Hale, who heads the show, says that entries are coming in from both old and young.

Mrs. Naylor Resigns As School Collector

Mrs. Eileen Naylor has resigned as tax collector for the Lockney Independent School District. She presented her resignation to the school board in its meeting Monday night and the resignation was accepted.

Mrs. Naylor has accepted a position as director of youth activities and visitation at the Trinity Baptist Church in Lubbock. She has been considering the new position for some time, she said Wednesday.

Her resignation here is effective June 11 and she will take up her new duties June 15. She will move her family to Lubbock soon after June 11.

Mrs. Naylor and her family have lived in Lockney a little more than four years. Her husband, the late Rev. J. R. Naylor served the First Baptist Church here as pastor until his death in a plane crash in February of 1953. She has previously worked as a receptionist at the Lockney General Hospital and has served as school tax collector for the past year.

The school board has several applications for the tax collector's job and is still receiving them. Supt. H. H. Nicholas said Wednesday.

The school board, in its Monday night meeting, conferred with trustees of the Lone Star school district, which consolidated with the Lockney district in voting last Saturday. They decided to order a new school bus, in accordance with an agreement made with the Lone Star trustees, and also decided to employ a tax expert to appraise the property in the Lone Star district.

And though I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains and have not charity, I am nothing. — 1 Cor. 13:2.

THE MOST SENSIBLE TALK we have heard on the present negro school problem in this community was made last Friday at noon at the Rotary Club by Waverley Washington, principal of the local colored school. Mr. Washington didn't rant or rave, he didn't berate and criticize, he asked simply that those students in his school have an opportunity to learn, that they be furnished equipment and a building that would afford them the opportunity of securing an education. He suggested that his people would prefer not to be integrated — that they would prefer to have their own school but if the school district ever saw fit to integrate the schools he would not stand in the way by seeking to stay on the local faculty. He said that he would voluntarily withdraw from his position on the faculty. In the editor's opinion, if the people of the Lockney school district fail to provide an adequate school for the colored students, they are simply asking for integration.

STILL SPEAKING of schools, we trust the time will come when the Lockney School district will be able to pay its teachers a salary above the state salary schedule. We believe that this one step will do more to improve the school than almost anything we can do. Of course, it isn't the fault of the school board that it hasn't been done. It will take additional money to do it, and the tax payers in the district must furnish that money. We hope that this is a goal toward which the entire district will strive.

H. M. BAGGARLY, editor of the Tulsa Herald and a rabid liberal loyalist "Democrat", has accused the writer of being annoyed at the recent "steamroller" tactics in the Democratic precinct and county conventions. Of course, as those who read this column know, such wasn't the case at all, but that's about as close as Mr. Baggarly ever comes to the facts from a political standpoint. Since we happened to be on the winning side in the precinct "steamroller" we would have very little to complain about.

THE RADICAL ELEMENT in the party is chortling with glee as this is written, well before the state Democratic convention, but our prediction is that their joy will be short-lived. The Democratic party in Texas is still predominantly conservative and those who would stifle every voice but their own and who would dictatorially and tyrannically kick out of the party every one who disagrees with them will find that their numbers are as few as they have been in the past. The inconsistency of this radical element is amazing.

THE TREND in government, as we see it, even on a national scale is toward the conservative side. This nation, under the leadership of Roosevelt and Truman, went to the extreme on the liberal side, but now the pendulum is swinging back. The people are realizing that centralization of government, government subsidies and government's hand in everything will result in loss of personal liberties as it always has. The right of the states to make their own laws, the right of the individual to even plan his own life is at stake. Unless the Supreme Court with its law-making tendency, and the federal government, with its desire to call the rules on every play, are curbed then the people of this nation will soon find that their so-called "personal liberty" has disappeared and we will be operating under a socialist form of government, which is very close kin, in the final analysis, to the Communist form of government.

Ben Franklin says, "A man who talks in love with himself will have no rivals."

The Power of Memorial Day

by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

I had the privilege of growing up in small Ohio communities in the early part of this century, and one of my most inspirational memories centers around Memorial Day and the old soldiers of the Civil War.

To me, Memorial Day was one of the most moving of all the national holidays. I was stirred by the speeches and martial music from the bandstand or cemetery on what we called "Decoration Day." There was something about the newness of life that the Spring had brought; soft sunshine falling on the fresh green grass of early summer, the misty hills in the distance, the sound of stirring national songs, and above all, the softly flapping flag in the gentle breeze as the speaker told us of our country, the deep devotion of its heroes, and recounted once more the stirring episodes of our heroic past.

And many a lazy summer afternoon, I sat on the coping around the old courthouse listening to the veterans of the Civil War tell of their experiences in the epic struggle between the States. A boy's imagination quickly sent him off behind long columns of blue or grey, and to him, such names as Antietam, The Wilderness, Shiloh, and Gettysburg became very real and meaningful.

Those old soldiers used to talk gratefully of Lincoln's insistence that those who had borne the heat of the battle and the burden of the struggle, the widow and the orphan, were to be given not charity, but their rightful due as the dependents of those brave men who had fought to preserve liberty and to keep the Union intact. It was regarded as a sacred duty of the nation, and the nation kept faith with its veterans.

In those days, as now, were many who had been disabled by the struggle. Their ability to compete in life had been reduced by wounds suffered in battle. Even as a boy I remember hearing how it seemed they were thought of only on such days as Memorial Day, when orators, fervent in their patriotism, remembered, if only for a day, the long continuing sacrifice made not by those who had died in battle, but by the disabled who were to live for many years following the great struggle.

The heroes of World War I and World War II and the Korean War are, of course, men who, with no concern for themselves, gave their lives that freedom might live. We can never do them adequate honor. And, we must never forget them. They died in their young life, forsaking the opportunities of the years that the rest of us might live and develop our highest hopes and dreams.

However, there are other living heroes who deprived themselves of either physical, emotional, or mental health for us and for their fellow countrymen. It would be as wrong for us to neglect or forget them as their buddies who today sleep on some Pacific Island or in a European cemetery. A hero dead or a hero maimed and disabled are both due our equal gratitude and our unceasing devotion.

We must never forget that the most effective way of honoring those who have died is to remember the living disabled, that their lives may be rich and full. They are a great asset to our country as the living embodiment of devotion to freedom. A country is recreant indeed which does not everlastingly keep alive grateful appreciation to those who suffered disability to perpetuate everything that we Americans hold dear.

There could be no better time than on Memorial Day to resolve that we shall gratefully support the honored men and women who have suffered disability from the wars of the United States.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

By Patric W. Neil
When a farmer decides to irrigate, the first and most important thing to consider is the source of water. For most people in this area, that means an irrigation well. Location of a well on any given farm. For flood-type irrigation, the well should generally be located on the high point of the farm. On some of the more sandy soils where sprinkler irrigation is to be used, the well may need to be located near the center of the farm. Of course, it may be necessary to obtain a permit before the well is drilled.

The sprinkler method is generally used on the sandier soils and water is applied at a rate less than the intake rate of the soil. The main disadvantage of this type of irrigation is the high initial cost and the high operating cost.

Flood-type irrigation might be broken into two methods — the level method and the graded method. Both of these methods have advantages and disadvantages. A level system is easy to operate properly but may be expensive to install. The graded system is harder to operate properly but may be cheaper to install. Soil Conservation Service technicians are available in all local soil conservation districts to help any cooperators of these districts in the design and the planning of any type of irrigation system. These technicians have been well trained for this work and are glad to be of service.

B. F. Samman, Jr. who farms 150 acres under irrigation about ten miles northeast of Plainview has installed a graded system on about 180 acres which has a fall of about four inches per quarter mile. This 140 acres has been extensively leveled during the past few years. The remaining 15 acres will be bench leveled with wide benches that are parallel. Very little if any tail water ever leaves this farm. Mr. Samman has averaged about 5,200 pounds of grain sorghum per acre on some of the leveled land for the past two years. For a legume, Samman prefers cowpeas. Eventually, all open ditches on this farm will be replaced by underground concrete pipe.

Leroy Adrian who farms about six miles southeast of Hale Center believes in level irrigation where possible. He has just completed bench leveling ten acres in the northwest corner of his farm. A concrete pipeline was installed last year across this area, so as to be properly located when the bench leveling was completed. These benches are 65 feet wide and parallel.

W. E. Puckett has a 33 acre farm four and one-half miles south of Floydada which has nine acres of bench leveling and twenty-four acres which has been field leveled. Concrete pipe was installed across the benches, and a level ditch is used on the field leveling. On this 33 acres, Mr. Puckett has an excellent flood-type system of irrigation.

Melvin Potts who farms 320 acres about six miles southwest of Lockney has completed field leveling on 130 acres of tight land and uses irrigation runs of 1,250 feet. He has installed about 7,000 feet of concrete pipe.

Earnest Harris who farms about six miles south of Ralls has bench leveled 30 acres and field leveled 25 acres. Mr. Harris has installed considerable underground pipe to be used in his irrigation system.

R. C. Binder who farms six miles southwest of Crosbyton uses graded furrow irrigation and has recently installed 1,000 feet of underground pipe.

Frank Gray who farms about three miles southwest of Lubbock has probably installed about as much bench leveling as anyone in this area. He has installed several thousand feet of underground pipe, so as to have the proper length of runs. Mr. Gray uses effluent from the city of Lubbock sewage plant and has an abundance of very cheap water. He feels that the level method of irrigation is best adapted for the soil on his farm.

southwest of Abernathy through which the Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos River runs has good water under his farm but only steep hillsides and bottomland to irrigate. An excellent system of almost level irrigation is being installed on the bottomland while some of the more desirable hillsides are being bench leveled — even the creek bed itself has been put to use.

In planning the design and the layout of these irrigation systems, all of these soil conservation district cooperators have received assistance from technicians of the Soil Conservation Service through their local soil conservation districts.

SOUP FOR BREAKFAST

More and more people are welcoming an occasional change by having soup for breakfast. The light eaters go for clear soup; the middling-heavy for chicken with rice; big-breakfast types pick Scotch Broth. Any one of these quickly simmered to perfection and eaten with toast offers a warm start for the day as well as good nutrition.

If you wash your sweaters yourself, you may often run across the problem of having the neck of the sweater stretch out of shape. Next time wash your sweater in lukewarm sudsy water, carefully baste the neck of the sweater to its original size. Keep the stitches in until the sweater is completely dried. You'll find it looking like new.

MAIN STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

THOS. McDONALD
Preacher

"A BAPTIST'S IMPRESSION"

Edward T. Dalberg, minister of the Delmar Baptist Church of St. Louis, Missouri, recently visited the Central Church of Christ in that city, and gave his impression of the visit over KSF on the "Protestant Hour." He mailed copies of his impression to all those interested in the radio and television audience. Here, in part, is his letter:

"I had a very interesting experience during my vacation this summer . . . One Sunday when I was not preaching myself, I walked over to the nearest neighboring church close to my home. Now, this church was very different from my church. It is a church that does not believe in church choirs . . . it does not believe in any instrument music. In that little church that I visited that morning, there was not an organ or piano in the whole church building. Now, you might say when you hear about a church like that, 'Well, they must be a queer, fanatical type of people to introduce old-fashioned ideas like that in the middle of the 20th century,' but on the contrary, that was one of the most inspiring services that I have ever attended.

The church was crowded to the doors with a youthful congregation, and the singing was led by a well trained young man, with great quietness and dignity — the singing was of superb volume of praise to God, and until the time for the sermon, the minister took no part in the service. Eight capable young laymen, fine looking young men, read the scriptures, offered the prayer, gathered the offering, and even administered the Lord's Supper. It was a perfect demonstration of the priesthood of believers, and I felt myself virtually in the fellowship of the First Century Church — I went home inspired, saying to myself, 'It was good to be in the house of the Lord today.' — Selected.

The LARIAT

Chit-Chat

Virgil C. is still the woman-hater of L. H. S.

It is rumored that "Uncle Lightning" found a girl friend at Linguish Falls on Sunday, the sixth.

Donald P. spends every spare minute working on the dash of his car.

Wedding dates are surely and rapidly approaching for many senior girls.

Jimmie H. is still unable to find a desirable swim suit for that senior trip.

Jerry Mc. apparently has girl friends scattered throughout Hale and Floyd Counties.

Clara Lee S. and Oddie R. now have their "Bikini" bathing suits to take on the senior trip.

Seniors, have you packed your bags for that wonderful trip? It won't be long now.

We seniors will think of the juniors in New Orleans.

The seniors will have Elbert Horton of Lubbock as bus driver on their trip.

We hear there's going to be a "hot time" in the old town on the eve of graduation.

J. W. Dippery is now a proud uncle.

Doyle Mc. be sure to remember to send "Weevil" a present from New Orleans.

It is rumored that Dee N. and Sibil C. have been dating recently.

Clara Lee S., do you still like "French Fries?"

We wonder why Donald P. prefers out-of-town girls.

Have you observed that many L. H. S. boys are growing beards for the Old Settlers' Reunion?

Peggy E., can't you make up your mind between Dumas and East Texas?

The report is that Oddie Mae R. and Peppy E. are still receiving telephone calls from Floydada.

I hope all of the "steadies" on the senior trip are still going steady when they return.

Congratulations to Gail Kellison on her 18th birthday May ninth.

Did everyone see the "snazzy" graduation presents that Gail

K. gave to the "party girls."

It is reported that Carolyn C. has decided to go on the senior trip.

We are glad to hear that Pat P. and Monty have "patched up" their differences.

Seniors are quite concerned over the fact that each one is allowed only one suitcase a-piece on the class trip.

On Tuesday evening, the eighth, "Lightning" W. and Weldon J. got quite bruised-up trying to learn how to bowl.

Mr. Babitzke's pet snakes easily take offense at his chemistry pupils.

The seniors are going to "live it up" both in New Orleans and Florida.

Florida will know that the senior boys are from Texas by their Western hats, western boots and Bermuda Shorts.

Who borrowed Gail Wilson's mirror off his Ford?

Marvin Christy really can play and sing about eleven o'clock every Thursday night.

Dee N., who is the girl who wrote a little love note in your annual?

Senior artists are Dan Griffith, Dee Nix and Cleon Wylie.

Dr. J. B. Roberts, head of the Department of Education at West Texas State College in Canyon will deliver the address at the graduation exercises.

The seniors' mothers will give the seniors and their dates a reception in the high school cafeteria immediately after the graduation exercises on Thursday evening, May 24th.

The senior class will leave on their trip immediately after the reception following their graduation exercises.

Shirley W. wasn't a certain page in the annual just "too sweet" for words?

We pupils certainly like the annuals for this year.

We hear that Dan G. has the taffy on Shirley W., Doyle Mc. has the taffy on Oddie R., and Derrel W. has the taffy on Janis W. Seems to be a lot of taffy pulling going on.

Weldon Jones is floating around so high that someone just must use a B-B gun to get him back down to earth. Can it be because of the sparkler that Sandra A. is wearing?

Clara Lee's sparkler from Wendell Sims is very pretty.

What's this we hear about

Class Prophecy

Let your mind wander and go with us on a trip around the world. It is in the spring of 1976, and you are leaving on a Constellation at 6:30 a. m. from the Lockney Municipal Airport for parts unknown.

As you approach the ticket desk, a young lady steps forward; you recognize her as Frankie Hardy.

The two bellhops are the long and short of L. H. S., Donald Pigg and Don Vernon. The huge plane, under the able piloting of Virgil Cline and Weldon Jones, taxis down the runway circles the metropolis of Lockney, climbs skyward then leaves Dee Nix's beautiful cotton fields behind. You notice three Navy Lieutenant Nurses, Alta Williams, Sibil Childers, and Peggy Epperson who are headed for Hawaii where they will serve under Doctor Bob Copeland.

After a short stop in Hawaii, you take off for Japan and there meet Cleon Wylie, Navy Engineer and his wife, Betty June Jackson who direct you to a good hotel, in the dining room you find the chefs to be Dolores Brown receiving a telephone call from Larry Phillips on Tuesday evening the first?

Everyone is looking forward to Old Settlers' Day at Floydada on May 28th.

L. H. S. students seem to enjoy Marvin Christy's singing. If you do, why not tune in K. T. U. E. in Tulla at 1:30 every Saturday?

Martha C., when will you learn not to chew gum in Mrs. Cope's class?

Martha C., just who is this boy from Oklahoma?

Say, Jimmie C., how does it feel to be bitten by a skunk?

Boy K. and Wayne N. are not interested in playing hooky any more seems.

Who's Donice Casey's new girl friend?

David Frizzell has just picked up a new admirer, it must be due to his good looks.

Jerry McQueen and Jackie Boyd seem to be keeping "steady company" lately.

Some of us just wonder if Clara Lee still plans to attend college.

Theta Willis and Jerry Urias.

"The Purple Flames to the Pacific," Clara Lee Smith and Oddie Rogers entertain while you are being served.

While in Brisbane, Australia you discover that Pat Pierce's rich uncle has left her the sole heir of Brisbane's largest wool factory. Taking time for recreation you visit the largest cinema and the leading glamour man, Benny Ballard and his leading lady Eldora Boone are starring in Derrel Waldroup's latest production. Then stopping off at the nearest tea room you find Mary Myers and Sandra Sams to be your hostesses. Quickly you are off to Jerusalem where Luther Williams is a missionary. Then on to Cairo where you discover Charles Vaughan as an ambassador. Eagerly arriving in Rome you find Doyle McAda and Dan Griffith winning the Olympics. Reluctantly you leave just in time to see Doylene Harrison swim the English Channel in record breaking time. Her vacation is due so she journeys with you to Paris and visits Sue Harper, dress designer and the charming models, Mary Ann Marble, Ernestine Spradlin and Janice Hardy. Doyle's Fowler, well known pianist is appearing as an accompanist in the Paris Opera House. Then in Spain you go with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Williams (she is the former LaDora Ayres) owners of Spain's largest vineyards, to see Barbara Hanks, famed matadora.

Leaving your classmates you go to Buenos Aires for news of Bobby Brown, large scale cattle grower. When nearing the city you hear the melodious music of Gail Wilson and his band featuring the dancing star, Jimmy Holt and Eva Sanchez. In town you see Eugene Davis and Calvin Wylie working as bricklayers. Poor buildings! In Panama City Kenneth Finner, better known as Nine-Toe Finner, and Jerry McQueen, F. B. I. agents, check your luggage to find—what's this? A stolen two carat diamond? At the same time you see Maebeth McLaughlin and Jan Mathis departing from their private plane.

On your next flight Peggy Williams is stewardess and Nellie Ratliff nurses people who tried to hang onto their stomachs but didn't quite make it.

After a forced landing a few miles out of Havana you have to wait for a limousine to pick you up. Who's in it? Betty Jean Jackson, Betty Sams, and LaJuana McCormick. That evening you find Harold Shearer as bartender in Sloppy Joe's Bar.

Carolyn Campbell, American agent at the airport, calls to tell you to meet your plane at 2:45 a. m.

At the request of two of Mexico City's most prominent young ladies, Gail Kellison and Nelda Cunningham, you fly to Paracutin. They tell you that only the week before J. W. Dippery's plane caught fire while parachuted to safety.

After flying over beautiful Mexico City at night you learn that Cleta Willis had just become the bride of the President of Mexico, her bridesmaid was Veda Eiland.

Now leaving the South behind you return to Dear Ole'

Lockney, the best place in the whole wide world.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

TELEPHONE TALK

by J. C. Oakley, Manager

"Service Was Never Better"

Some time ago, we mailed out post cards to all our customers in Lockney. If you'll remember, we asked you in the post card what you didn't like about your telephone service.

Maybe some of you were surprised that we would ask a question like that. But we meant it. We weren't asking for compliments. We did it to find out what you really thought about telephone service here.

When the cards came back with your answers, we were happy to see that most of you said, "Service is very good, well satisfied with it." And it was good hearing it from you, because we'll all admit that nobody knows more about your service than you do.

We also got a few complaints — thanks for telling us about them — and we tried to clear those up in a hurry so that everyone in Lockney would be satisfied with their telephone service.

Meanwhile, don't hesitate if something's bothering you right now about your telephone service. Just call the telephone company. We'd like to know about it — and we'll try to do something about it, too.

Stop Those Hurried Dashes

Ever notice how you run for a ringing telephone because you're often in another part of the house? Then, when you get there, you're probably a little out of breath as you answer.

The best way I know of to stop those dashes through the house is a handy extension telephone.

Our records show that the most popular spots for an extension with most people are the bedroom and kitchen. But don't forget the living room or the workshop — or anywhere, really, that's most convenient for you and your family.

To order an extension, just call the telephone company. The cost of an extension in your home is only $1.00 a month, plus a one-time installation charge of $2.00.

Long Distance Visit

I was thinking just the other day that you can't drive a car from Lockney to Dallas for 90 cents. Yet you can visit there — by Long Distance — for just 90 cents.

That's the cost of a three-minute station-to-station call, after 6 p. m. and all day Sunday. Long Distance rates to anywhere are much less than you might think. So plan to visit regularly — by Long Distance. And when you call, remember to call by number — it's twice as fast.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

New in the library this week is Stanley, Invincible Explorer by Laura Benet. The author says that she has found no life more thrilling in detail than that of the African explorer during the period when Africa was called the Dark Continent. The Valley Below by Alice Marriott is a sympathetic account of the people in a predominantly Spanish-American and Indian neighborhood in New Mexico as seen by two Anglo-Americans who went there to make their home.

GROWERS REPORT INCREASED YIELD WITH "NA-CHURS" SEED TREATMENT AND LEAF FEEDING

The following excerpts from satisfied "Na-Churs" users are typical of the many letters received by the "Na-Churs" Plant Food Company from your own friends and neighbors. These folks have proven to themselves that "Na-Churs" Liquid Fertilizer can help increase yield, give better growth and advance harvest.

"I sprayed 5 gallons of "Na-Churs" on 3 acres of cotton in the middle of a 12 acre field. The increase in yield was at least 30%, compared to unsprayed part. I will use "Na-Churs" again next year." C. C. Swope, Wilson, Texas.

"In 1955 I treated 10 acres of irrigated cotton with 2 gallons per acre of "Na-Churs". This cotton made one bale per acre and was pulled two weeks before the untreated which made only 2-3 bale per acre. All of this cotton acreage had a heavy hail loss on June 25. In 1956 my plans call for seed treatment plus foliage spraying." Theo Campbell, Wilson, Texas.

EASY TO DO — SMALL COST PER ACRE

Treating seed with "Na-Churs" is easy. Simply sprinkle "Na-Churs" over the seed, mix until thoroughly moistened, and allow to dry. One gallon of "Na-Churs" will treat 8 bushels of seed and the cost is only a few cents per acre. Only a half bushel increase in yield will more than pay for "Na-Churs" seed treatment.

FOR MORE PROFIT — TRY LEAF FEEDING

Used as a companion with "Na-Churs" seed treatment, foliage feeding with "Na-Churs" can help your grain and cotton develop stronger roots. Application can be made with any type sprayer or by airplane. It's fast acting. Don't let this season go by without giving "Na-Churs" a try on your farm.

CALL US TODAY!
We have "Na-Churs" available for immediate delivery in 5, 30 and 55 gallon drums. Try "Na-Churs" for yourself. You be the judge.

Wiley Wants 2,000 Acres Of Vegetables

M. W. Wiley said Wednesday that he is seeking farmers to plant more than 2,000 acres of vegetables in this area. He said that shippers which he represented will furnish the seed and labor for harvesting as well as advice on planting, cultivating, spraying and fertilizing.

Mr. Wiley said, "We want 1,000 acres of carrots, 600 to 800 acres of cabbage, 400 to 500 acres of tomatoes. We feel that the potential for vegetables in this area is great. We don't make a lot of promises but we honestly believe the farmer will make as much or more net money on vegetables as he will on maize and it will not be near as hard on his land. Farmers in Hidalgo county, where vegetables are grown quite extensively, and also cotton is a large crop, expect to net from two and a half to three times as much money on vegetables as they do cotton, long staple cotton at that."

Mr. Wiley seemed to be especially sold on the carrot crop. He pointed out that the nation's average daily consumption of carrots is 135 train car loads.

He said that his firms had 200 acres of onions in the county and that the total onion crop in the county is 600 acres.

He is offering farmers contracts at this time on all the vegetable crops mentioned above. The seed is on hand here ready for planting, he said.
