Knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over Him. — Romans 6:9.

SOME POLITICAL prognosticators are saying that W. Lee O'Daniel is gaining strength in the race for governor of Texas. Upon what they base their opinion we do not know and whether or not they are right we do not know. We have had no one to tell us they are going to vote for O'Daniel. Perhaps, if he is gaining, his gains are in other parts of the state. This writer can hardly believe that the people of Texas would want to return O'Daniel to the governor's office in view of his very mediocre record during his previous terms. He accomplished very little that he promised during his campaign and his term as United States Senator was even worse as far as accomplishments go. Mr. O'Daniel is very good at mouthing pious phrases and promising everything under the sun to the voters but his ability and his education are very limited and he has no business in the governor's chair. Of all the campaign promises, his promise to build a huge lake near Amarillo and pipe water to all sections of the state is most absurd. It sounds like the pipe dream of a child. Surely the people of Texas will not vote for this type man for governor.

QUALIFIED VOTERS should plan to take time to cast their ballots in the first Democratic primary, July 28th. Perhaps, because of the short ballot and lack of interest in most races, some are planning to skip the whole thing. Yet, if some person or group should try to prevent them from voting they would fight like a tiger for the privilege. The only way to retain the privilege of expressing your opinion at the ballot box is to exercise that privilege at every opportunity. Many times office holders elected by a minority are not the best qualified. The safe way is to cast your ballot when voting time comes.

GROWING PAINS always come with the beginning of any new industry or crop and the growing of vegetables in this area is no exception. Farmers must learn how to grow the various vegetable crops in order to get the best production and best quality of product. Also methods of marketing and the companies which can be relied on to give the farmer a fair deal must be learned through experience. Probably the growing of vegetables will require more work, more careful attention to the plants, more diligent cultivation and spraying, but in the end we are convinced that it will mean more money for the farmer, more money for the merchant, more money for the laborer. And the nice thing about it is that the vegetable crops can be grown here in great quantity without cutting into the cotton or wheat acreage. We have plenty of acres for all.

NICE RESIDENCES are an asset to any city and none the size of Lockney have any more than we do. A drive through the newer residential areas of West Lockney will convince you that we have some of the prettiest houses to be seen anywhere. And more are being built. Houses under construction or recently completed including those of Charles Baxter, Ham Gammage, Clyde Baxter, Ray Sissney, and others will certainly add to the prestige of the city as well as the looks. Now that the City has extended its sewer lines there is no reason why other houses should not be built in this area. This would, of course, bring an extension in power and water lines and eventually bring on more paying. Thus progress would be served and the city continue its growth.

THE BEACON will plan to have up the big election board and get the complete county returns on the first Democratic primary Saturday night week. We hope the people of the community will be our guests on that night while the returns are coming in. The location of the board will be announced next week.

CHARGE OF THE LIGHT BRIGADE

With Our EXCHANGES

MR. SUITS' PROPHECY
Democrats of Texas have already done their voting for President. This was done when the Precinct and County Conventions were held. They wrapped, sealed and delivered their vote to Senator Lyndon Johnson, and he in turn will hand it to Sam Rayburn to do with as he thinks best at the Convention in Chicago on August 13th. Yes, Sam has it tucked away in his pocket and we have nothing to worry about. It is nice to get your voting over with early. Of course we don't know who Sam is going to vote for at the Convention other than one go-round for Johnson as a "favorite son" candidate, which don't amount to a hoot, just a courtesy vote for a very popular guy, more especially in Texas. Johnson has just about as much chance of being nominated as a collared bird has of flying through hades, but from the rabble rousing noise for him at the Dallas convention a while back one would think he was just as good as nominated. It is funny how people sometimes will "kid" themselves.

THINGS are gradually getting into shape for the Democratic Convention at Chicago. Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver have been wearing themselves out trying to collect a few convention votes. People have become weary of them, they are tired of their prattle, they are running their race now and will fizzle out before convention time. Of course Stevenson is going to the Convention as a front runner but will fall far short of a majority of delegates. In his speeches over the country he failed to set the woods afire. He cannot win on the first ballot, there will be too many "favorite son" votes for that to happen. He will perhaps begin to weaken on the second or third ballot, then Sam Rayburn, Convention chairman, will recess the Convention. Then you can expect Senator Lyndon Johnson, De Sapo, boss of Tammany Hall, Arvey, political machine boss of Chicago, and perhaps one or two more will gather in a hotel room and decide on a candidate, and the delegates think they will select the candidate, but not so, the delegates are just so many knots on a log. — Listening Post in Petersburg Journal.

HIGHWAYS ARE A GOOD BUY

Paying taxes wouldn't be bad at all if they provided as much as have our dollars for state highways.

Outside of school taxes, probably no other state tax means as much to us as our state highway taxes. In all, we have spent over $2,033,480,000 since we began building and maintaining state highways in 1917. For this money, we now have 48,678 miles of paved highways and roads.

It may seem we are getting something for nothing, but every time we buy a tank of gasoline we buy a chunk of highway. In the fiscal year ending August, 1935, Texas motorists had paid more than $78 million to the Highway Department through gasoline taxes and license fees brought $48 million more. Some federal aid ($2 million) from income and other national taxes trickled down to help push up the total.

The Highway Department of Texas probably has the greatest problem of any similar organization of any state. The large size of this state presents a paramount problem in building and maintaining highways. We have some of the largest cities in the nation which need overpasses, underpasses, bypasses, traffic patterns, and other costly things.

Our highways would be bargains at twice the price.—Castro County News.

ACREAGE BATTLE ON

The civil action filed in U. S. District Court here against 12 West Texas farmers as members or alternates of two review committees hearing appeals on the allotment of 1936 cotton acreage, has more than temporary significance. It is part of a continuing fight over what West Texans consider a discriminatory action on the part of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

That committee, in setting allotments for 1936, took away from West Texas approximately 200,000 cotton acres and handed them over to East and Central Texas. West Texans, at the time, protested this action, terming it an injustice, and the matter has been a subject of controversy ever since. But the State ASC Committee ruling, so far, has prevailed.

The present court action, filed by the U. S. in behalf of the Secretary of Agriculture, involves the jurisdiction of the review committees and is said to be aimed at forestalling some 1,100 appeals by West Texas farmers.

Whatever the outcome of the legal contests, the action of the State ASC Committee still appears to most West Texans as discriminatory and unfair, and West Texas farmers will continue to battle for what they believe to be their rights.

The newly-formed Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., created to defend the interests of West Texas cotton producers, doubtless will make itself heard the next time the allotment issue comes up for consideration. — Lubbock Avalanche.

Group Asks Hale Highway Plan Review

Plainview - The State Highway Commission will be requested soon to make a restudy of possible routes for U. S. Highway 87 through Plainview.

The commission has pointed out that the existing 87 route through Plainview is inadequate.

The route and a possible bypass of the city were among questions injected in the written campaign that elected Mayor M. R. Hood over C. L. Abernathy in April. The city officials were criticized for failure to take action on state offers for the construction project.

At a meeting Wednesday of business men and service club presidents and Chamber of Commerce representatives it was decided to ask the Highway Commission for a hearing on Aug. 1. Mayor Hood, Marshal Formby, Plainview, a member of the highway commission, and L. W. Kiker, chairman of the chamber of commerce highway committee, were among those contributing suggestions at the meeting.

Formby said the new federal bill is a huge one, with practically all the increases to be used on a 40,000 mile interstate system.

"This would be a super highway system designed to hook up 90 per cent of the larger towns in the United States," Formby said.

"Although this does not include U. S. 87 in Texas, except for a small stretch near San Antonio, we shouldn't be discouraged," he added, "because the state is planning to make U. S. 87 almost as good as the interstate routes. It is one of the highways designated as 'primary routes' by the state commission."

Then Formby explained one of the major new developments that prompted Hood to call the meeting.

"On these interstate routes, the federal government is paying 90 per cent of the construction and 90 per cent of the right-of-way purchase."

"Last week the Texas Highway Commission revised a policy of 35 years which made cities and counties through which the highways ran provide the right-of-way."

Brisco County Sheriff Raymond Grewe said his investigation led to the conclusion the shooting was accidental. He was aided in his investigation by District Attorney John B. Stapleton and two Texas Rangers.

Grewe said Jones was shot just above the hairline at the center of the forehead. The gun apparently exploded while Jones was searching the drawer for clothing.

Jones is survived by his wife, Rita.

Farmers To Get Tax Refund On Farm Gasoline

College Station - Farmers are entitled to claim a refund of the Federal tax on all gasoline bought and used for farming during the 6-month period January 1 through June 30, 1956. C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist reminds Texas producers.

Any owner, tenant, or farm operator who buys gasoline for use on a farm may file a claim, says Bates. A farmer may also request a refund of the tax on any gasoline used on his farm by a custom operator or a neighbor in connection with cultivating the soil, or raising or harvesting a crop.

Under the law enacted April 2, 1956, the amount claimable this year is 2 cents on each gallon of gasoline purchased and used on a farm for farming purposes during the first 6 months of 1956. In future years claims will be filed for a full 12-month period from July 1 through June 30.

Claims must be filed on Internal Revenue Service Form 2240. It may be obtained from county agents or District Directors of Internal Revenue. Date for filing for this year's refund is after June 30, but not later than October 1, 1956. The law does not permit payment of claims filed later.

Refund claims must not be made for gasoline used off the farm, according to the specialist, or for gasoline used for other than actual farming purposes, as described in Form 2240. This applies to gasoline used on the highway, for personal use such as mowing the lawn, or for processing, packaging, freezing or canning operations. Sufficient records should be kept to enable the Internal Revenue Service to verify the accuracy of the refund claimed.

Mrs. Alice Tiller and daughter, Dianna Lee, McKinney, have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Keeter, the past two weeks.

Marble-Stair Marriage Vows Repeated In Church Service

The First Baptist Church was the scene Tuesday, July 10, for the wedding of Miss Mary Ann Marble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Marble, Lockney, to James D. Stair, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stair, Plainview.

Rev. R. E. Wiley, pastor, read the double-ring ceremony at 8 o'clock before an altar arched in white and flanked by tall baskets of white gladioli and arrangements of jade greenery. Palms and candelabra formed the impressive background at the altar scene.

Miss Sandra Sams, organist, played the nuptial prelude and traditional wedding marches. "I Love You Truly" and "Indian Love Call" were sung by Mrs. Warren Mathis. She was accompanied by Miss Sandra Myers at the piano. Mrs. Mathis sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original model of imported white, embroidered Swiss organdy over net and taffeta. Designed with a portrait neckline framed with scalloped embroidery, the fitted bodice had tiny sleeves completed by gauntlets worn over the hands and terminating with a deep point at center front waistline. From this stemmed a magnificent skirt. Made of tiers of scalloped embroidery fully shirred, the immense fullness of organdy, net and taffeta fell into a small sweep at back. Her veil of silk illusion, dotted with appliqued flowers held with rhinestones, was joined to a lace cap embroidered with iridescent sequins, rhinestones and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations atop a white Bible covered with lace and satin and showered with white satin streamers tied in love knots.

The bride carried for some thing old and borrowed, a watch over 100 years old belonging to Mrs. R. H. Ford. For something new, she wore a string of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. Blue was a garter.

Miss Mary Kathryn Ford attended her cousin as maid of honor. She was attired in a frock of white embroidered organdy over aqua fashioned similar to that of the bride. The fitted bodice featured a portrait neckline of scalloped organdy and tiny gathered sleeves. A pleated cummerbund fastened with tiny covered buttons accented the bouffant skirt of scalloped embroidered organdy.

The bridesmaids were Miss Beth McLaughlin, Miss Charlene Brown, Mrs. Mack Hickerson and Mrs. Johnny Cline. They wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor over pink and yellow taffeta. They all carried white Bibles topped with carnations in colors matching their dresses. For head dresses they wore pearl-studded tiaras.

Miss Kathryn Briley, flower girl, wore white organdy frock trimmed with lace over white. Ring bearer was Monty Cook, Plainview.

Serving his brother as best man was Robert Stair, Plainview. Ushers were Donald Kelm, Jim Wilmeth, Warren Mathis and Max Marble, brother of the bride.

Candlelighters were Dixie Ford, the bride's cousin and Charles Stair, the bridegroom's brother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Marble chose a pink lace dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore aquamarine silk lace with white accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Reception
The reception following the ceremony was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cox, aunt and uncle of the bride. The five-tier wedding cake was served from a table laid with white lace over pink. The crystal punch service was surrounded with an aqua tulle ruffle flecked with pink rose buds. White gladioli arrangements in lace baskets completed the table appointments. Tall baskets of gladioli and greenery were placed at vantage points about the room.

MRS. JAMES D. STAIR

In the house party were Mrs. Mmes. Cleve McGhee, Plainview; E. M. Jackson, Floydada; Horace Marble, South Plains; Sally Cook, Plainview; and Bruce Whitlock, Lockney, all aunts of the bride.

Also Jan Johnson, Amarillo; Judy Jackson, Floydada; Mrs. Jimmie Heard, Hale Center; Mrs. Bill McGhee, Lubbock and La Juan Henderson, Lockney.

For a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colorado, the bride chose a beige embroidered polished cotton sheath dress with matching jacket. She wore beige accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride is a 1956 graduate of Lockney High School and the bridegroom is a 1952 graduate of Plainview High School. The couple is now living in their new home recently completed in the East Mound community, six miles east of Plainview.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Green, Lawton, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Nora Stair, Plainview, grandparents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Marble, Lockney; and C. W. Murphy Sr., Tulla, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Major Lackey, Billy Kay and Douglas, Spearman; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Murphy Jr., Larry Dale and Billy, Miss Geraldine Broadhurst, Friona; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. GROWERS REPORT INCREASED YIELD WITH "NA-CHURS" SEED TREATMENT AND LEAF FEEDING

The following excerpts from satisfied "Na-Churs" users are typical of the many letters received by the "Na-Churs" Plant Food Company from your own friends and neighbors. These folks have proven to themselves that "Na-Churs" Liquid Fertilizer can help increase yield, give better growth and advance harvest.

"I sprayed 5 gallons of "Na-Churs" on 3 acres of cotton in the middle of a 12 acre field. The increase in yield was at least 30%, compared to unsprayed part. I will use "Na-Churs" again next year." C. C. Swope, Wilson, Texas.

"In 1955 I treated 10 acres of irrigated cotton with 2 gallons per acre of "Na-Churs". This cotton made one bale per acre, and was pulled two weeks before the untreated which made only 2-3 bale per acre. All of this cotton acreage had a heavy hail loss on June 26. In 1956 my plants call for seed treatment plus foliage spraying." Theo Campbell, Wilson, Texas.

FOR MORE PROFIT — TRY LEAF FEEDING

Used as a companion with "Na-Churs" seed treatment, foliage feeding with "Na-Churs" can help your grain and cotton develop stronger roots. Application can be made with any type sprayer or by airplane. It's fast acting. Don't let this season go by without giving "Na-Churs" a try on your farm.

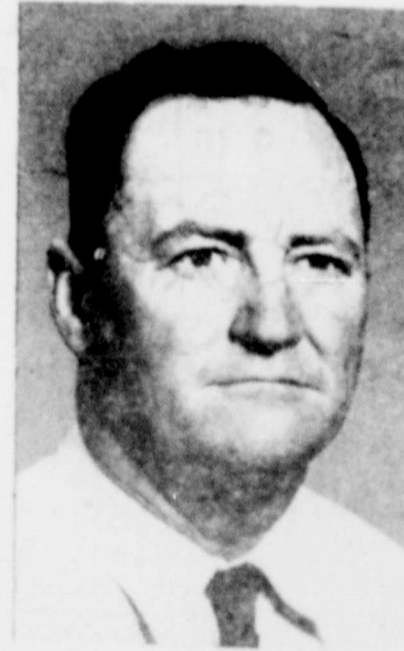

CALL US TODAY!

We have "Na-Churs" available for immediate delivery in 5, 30 and 55 gallon drums. Try "Na-Churs" for yourself. You be the judge.

... Best for Texas

(Political adv. paid for by F. L. Brown and others.)

Picture of a Man with Troubles

(whether he knows it or not)

Nobody asked him if he wanted to come here to live
 Somebody signed his name to a note for $1700 worth of National Debt
 He isn't big enough to enforce his rights
 And a lot of people in his community have

The City-Shopping Habit

... a disease which, if let to gain too much headway, can short-change him on schools, churches, friends, neighbors, and his old man's pay check.

And he's helpless to do anything about it — until, when he grows up, he has to take off and try to find opportunity somewhere else . . . in the far places where his neighbors have scattered the community substance which Providence entrusted to their care.

We often hear folks around here complaining that our young people nearly always have to hunt their fortunes in other places because we don't have opportunities for them.

Home-spent dollars create those opportunities . . . help to keep our sons and daughters content and prosperous in our own midst.

Let's Give Our Junior Citizens a Better Break

Small communities . . . like this one of ours . . . are the finest places in the world for youngsters to grow up. They are the strongholds of the real American way of life and our country's greatest source of leadership.

Away from the regimented bee-hive life of the cities, a child has a better chance to develop the broad and independent viewpoint that makes useful leaders.

But . . . if we keep our small communities intact, with good schools and churches and comfortable living standards, we're going to have to slow down on the Great Give-Away . . . small town people giving away their community assets to Big-City business.

*It Pays to Buy
 where you Live*

YOU get everything that your money pays for . . . merchandise AND a trade-invigorated community to live in . . . when you buy from your home town merchants . . .

Pressure Cooker Clinic Friday

Is your pressure cooker safe? Canning season is here. It is important that all non-acid foods be processed in a pressure cooker. It is also important that your pressure cooker be tested each year before using it for canning. Food can be ruined or even dangerous if canned with incorrect pressure cooker gauges that are faulty can cause cookers to be dangerous.

Mrs. Harriette Brummett, county Home Demonstration Agent will conduct a Pressure Cooker Clinic at the Lockney Cannery Friday, July 20, from 9:30 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. Bring your cooker and have it checked and tested. There is no charge for this service.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.
